

NEBRASKA TEACHERS CONVENE

More Than Four Thousand
Instructors Expected
To Attend.

J. H. BEVERIDGE, Pres.

The members of the Nebraska State Teachers' Association will hold their fifty-seventh convention here in Omaha, November 9, 10 and 11. J. H. Beveridge, Superintendent of Omaha Public Schools, is president of the organization. More than four thousand teachers attended the convention in 1920 and even more are expected this year.

A most interesting program has been prepared for the visitors by the executive committee and plans have been made for their entertainment. Fourteen educational heads of national reputation as well as able men and women of our own state are scheduled to speak. The programs prepared are both general and sectional. The general meetings will be held in the municipal auditorium while the sectional sessions will meet in different schools, hotels, etc.

A most interesting entertainment for the visitors will be the pageant Nebraska, a masque based on the history of our state. The Omaha Public Schools are producing it under the supervision of Lena May Williams, dramatic instructor at Central. Dr. Hartley Alexander of the University of Nebraska is the author of Nebraska while Howard Kirkpatrick of the University School of Music composed the music, parts of which are arrangements from the tribal music of the Omaha Indians.

Omahans taking active part in the program are as follows: R. M. Marrs, Principal of South High School, who will speak on Classification and Guidance of Pupils; J. G. Masters, Principal of Central High School, on Project Method of Recitation; Dwight E. Porter, Principal of Commerce, on The High School Building and Its Equipment.

James McCrory, assistant superintendent of schools, is secretary of the Superintendent and Principals' Association; Verne Chatelain, Central Debate teacher, is president of the Argumentation section, while Ira Jones of Commercial High School will address that section on How to Popularize Debating; Leon Smith, also assistant superintendent of schools, is president of the Atypical children section. Madeline Cohn is secretary of the Child Study section, while Elizabeth Ryan and Edith Rhett will speak to the Kindergarten teachers. Grace McLain is president of the Normal training teachers' section. Dr. Herbert A. Senter, chemistry teacher and Dean of Boys at Central High School, is the president of the Physical Science Group and will lead the discussions held in his laboratory.

The Public Speaking and Dramatic Art Section is headed by two men from the University of Omaha, Professor W. G. James and Professor W. G. Machian. Martha Powell, principal of Long school, will speak on The Place of Oral English in a Modern Elementary School.

SOPHOMORES HOLD A MEETING.

Mr. McMillan Advises Study As Means of Getting Lessons.

At a short meeting after school Tuesday, November 1, the sophomore class decided to get into student activities and to get their lessons, too.

Vic Hackler at the piano, James Van Valen with his saxophone, and Walter Albach with his banjo attracted all Sophs to the meeting.

Hawthorne Arey, the class president, presided. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Helen Moore, then the five class teachers were cordially received.

Miss Bozell introduced the officers of the class. Hawthorne expressed his desire to have every member in some school activity.

Mr. Hill spoke for a few minutes on activities. He told the students that no matter how good their scholarship was, they were missing something if they didn't get into athletics, debate, or some other school activity.

Melba Burke, vice-president, gave a short snappy talk on school and class spirit. Then Mr. McMillan advised the class to try studying as a means of getting their lessons. He won the approval of all when he said he would rather have a boy get B's and play football, or be in some other student activity, than have him be a bookworm, get all A's and nothing else.

The class, as a whole, went away full of class spirit, and with the intent purpose of getting into school life by way of school activities.

MANAGING EDITOR OF HERALD ADDRESSED STAFF.

Mr. W. R. Watson, managing editor of the World-Herald, spoke on newspaper work to the journalism class Tuesday, November 1.

He explained the three classes of newspaper writing, editorial, reportorial and feature. The editorial department is not as important as in former years, since the paper is no longer a personal reflection of its editor. The news department is by far the most important, since the essential purpose of a newspaper is to present news. Feature writing, the best paid field of newspaper work, is rapidly increasing in demand.

Mr. Watson's speech was the preparation for a visit to the REGISTER staff to the editorial and composing rooms of the WORLD-HERALD. Members of the staff feel fortunate to have had such a busy man as Mr. Watson take his time to visit them.

Through an error the list of members of the new mass meeting committee printed in the Register was incorrect. The following is the correct list: Miss Swenson, Miss Shackell, Miss Roberts, Mr. Schmidt, Mrs. Craven, Mr. Kerrigan and Miss Mueller.

COLUMBUS WINS ON A SAFETY

Visitors Secure Two-Point
Margin in Last Two Minutes.

TEAMS EVENLY MATCHED

A two-point safety lost the game for Central Saturday when the Purple and White gridsters clashed with the Columbus eleven. The affray was one of the most closely contested of Central's games thus far this year. Neither team was able to score a touchdown through the whole four quarters. The safety came in the last part of the game, when about four minutes of play was left.

The safety came about in the following manner: Columbus punted to Beerke, who fumbled the catch. The ball rolled to the goal line, where Wilmer recovered it, but was thrown across the white line.

The defensive playing of both teams was good, neither allowing the other to make yards very often, though the Omahans showed a better brand of offensive football, several times starting marches down the field that seemed destined to end in a touchdown. In the first half of the game Stribling made numerous tries for place kicks, two of which missed the bars by inches only. Either would have won the game for us.

Straight football reigned throughout most of the game, and it was only when the time was getting short that both teams opened up with aerial work that was both dazzling and spectacular. It seemed inevitable that someone would

Stresses Importance of "Noise Support."

The new mass meeting committee, headed by Miss Swenson, successfully staged its first mass meeting Friday, November 4, to "zip up" the Columbus game.

After the team entered, with Curly Smith under the surveillance of "Squink" as usual, "Gin" Pearce introduced the first speaker, Bill Clark, who warmed up the audience by a rousing talk for the game. "Cupie" Stribling, the cherub of the team, explained how, by knocking Columbus out of the race for state championship, we could eliminate all but Lincoln.

Coach Schmidt exhorted the students to literally "yell the team to championship." Johnny Spellman led the good old yells for the team and the speakers and introduced three lively new cheers. Two jazz orchestras played for the appreciative crowd.

Mr. Latenser told "how a fellow feels on the field;" how he needs all the rooting he can get. A football team is like a steamboat,—most of it can't be seen. The most important part of any game is in the grandstand. He described the thrill with which the old Central songs stimulated the teams, and, to illustrate, he sang the song which defeated Lincoln when he was a Central football man years ago. When he learned that Omaha and, as some bright and shining light remarked, "All by myself" are Central's only school songs, he offered a prize for the best parody on a popular song for the Turkey Day game with Commerce.

DR. FRANK SMITH SPEAKS AT THE STUDENT CLUB.

The Student Club held its semi-annual recognition service in the club room at the Y. W. C. A. Thursday, November 3. About fifty girls were taken into the club. Among these were Miss Cowden and Miss Bozell, chosen this year as sponsors. Each new member lit her candle in the flame of a central candle, this symbolizing her desire to keep shining the light of her life.

Dr. Smith gave an inspiring talk to the girls. "No matter what you think you want most in the world," said Dr. Smith, "if it is worth while it must be exchangeable for soul value. What I want most for you is a gracious personality. This consists of a keen intellect, a loving heart, and a splendid body. It consists of an intellect which knows what to do, a heart which feels what to do, and a body that is capable of doing it. A gracious personality is one of the most beautiful things in life."

PAGEANT PRESENTED THURSDAY

Entire Public School System
Represented in Gigantic Spectacle.

MISS WILLIAMS, Director

The final artistic touches are being placed on the enormous pageant "Nebraska" this week. Directors and members of the cast are all working to make this spectacle an unparalleled success. The pageant is to be given twice for the Nebraska State Teachers' Association and later for the general public.

Music classes from all of the Omaha High Schools, assisted by dancers selected from all the public school children will aid in the presentation. Nearly five hundred students have parts in the spectacle. Central High School will portray the first part, South High the second, and Commerce and Benson the third.

The exhibition opens with a male chorus of seventy participants, symbolizing the spirit and courage of the Pioneers of the West. The adventurers are led onward by Virginia Frantz who is to be the Spirit of Progress. Then come the Spirits of the Prairies, composed of seventy-five students from the lower grades. A chorus of seventy girls sings while the spirits dance. As they luringly recede, the adventurers and chorus advance, singing "Nebraska."

and the high schools enter as Prairie Grasses in parallel array from several points. The Grasshoppers, ten Grammar School boys, hop about grotesquely and pursue the frightened Fields until driven away by the Birds, ten other boys. The Spirit of the West then enters. She turns and beckons as if summoning her followers, and while the Voice of the West, Dorothy Steinbaugh sings, thirty kindergartners, the tiny Golden Hopes of the future, circle about the Spirit, Norma Mach.

Part II.

"The Plainsmen" symbolize the different people who have made the Nebraska Prairies their home. The first to enter in this scene are two Indian scouts, Charles Moore and Charles Seymour. A band of forty-two redmen and squaws, South High students, then advance, and, after the chieftain, Homer Hubbard, has sung a hymn to Nebraska, French Voyagers, led by James Doty and Jack Murphy, also from South High, approach.

Horns announce a new entry, and a chorus of twenty whippersnappers approach the voyagers, singing a martial air. Then the Harvest Maidens, preceded by the Spirit of Corn appear. Helen Nightingale sings the beautiful solo of the Corn Spirit. Following this comes the Corn, Cattle and Contentment chorus. The song "Nebraska" makes an impressive finale of this part.

Part III.

A roll of drums is heard at the opening of Part III. "Nebraska and the Nation." The fife, Claire Potter, and the drummers, Paul Heald and William Albright enter and form the Spirit of '76. The heralds, Teddy Pfliger and Gilbert Antry, EXAMS.

It's wonderful how much a teacher learns from exam papers. Here are some of the interesting facts discovered in that realm of knowledge. (Don't be alarmed. They aren't Centralites.):

The seven great powers of Europe are gravity, electricity, steam, gas, flywheels, and motors, and Mr. Lloyd George.

Tennyson wrote a beautiful poem called "In Memorandum."

Louis XVI. was gelatined during the French Revolution.

James I. died of argue.

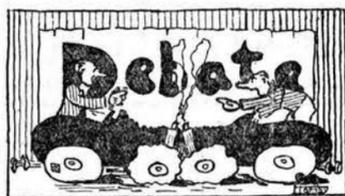

Queen Elizabeth was tall and thin, but she was a stout Protestant.

Gender shows whether a man is masculine, feminine, or neuter.

An Esquinox is a man who lives near the North Pole.

A synonym is a word which expresses what you mean, and an antonym is one that expresses what you don't mean.

An oasis is one of those places where anyone can get a drink.

Just look here! After we were so proud of the large number of Inter-Class debate registrants, we are informed that, as Al Jolson says, "An' that ain't all." There are lots more—here they are.

Is your name here? If it isn't, was it in before? You may not dare to take an active part in debate—many don't. Then boost—boost with all your might. But don't say, "I'm not interested in debate." There's an old saying that, while you may not be interested in any particular doctrine or subscribe to any faith or even pretend to have a religion, if you sit in a straight-backed chair with your feet on the floor and your knees and ankles together and say, "Prunes and prisms" forty times, the devil will flee from you. The same thing applies here. You may not think you are interested in debate, but sit down in a chair sufficiently uncomfortable to keep you awake and gaze steadfastly at the heading of this column while you say to yourself in an ordinary conversational tone of voice, "I will boost for debate." and keep saying it—and thinking what you're saying, until you've convinced yourself that you really do mean what you say. It won't take long, and it will be the best few minutes you ever spent in your whole school life.

Drill Officer: "What rank?"
Freshman, (registering for drill): "Oh, a captaincy will do."

An uproarious laugh shook the formerly quiet Physics class as the accident happened. Mr. Gulgard looked mildly disgusted.
"Now," he remarked, "if you will just settle down for a few minutes you can go back to sleep again."

Freshie: "A preposition is not a good thing to end a sentence with."

A PLAN TO CUT WINTER EXPENSES

RENEW, REPAIR, REMODEL AND CLEAN OLD CLOTHES INSTEAD OF LAYING OUT GOOD CASH FOR EXPENSIVE NEW GARMENTS.

Dresher's Plan Wins.

The "dread of winter" is always in evidence because of greatly increased expenses, caused by immense coal bills, etc., and also a lot of money paid out for heavy weight clothes for the entire family. But, it's safe to say that the amount of money usually put into ONE new suit of clothes or dress, would, if applied Dresher's way, pay for the complete rehabilitation of ALL the old clothes of the entire family.

Now what IS "Dresher's Way," did you ask? Well, Dresher's way means taking the old clothes apart, cleaning them, restyling, reshaping, remodeling, recollaring, relining, and in some instances dyeing them, then putting the garments together again in such a deft way that they will appear as brand new clothes when again worn.

Dresher Brothers at 2211-2217 Farnam street have more than a cleaning and dyeing establishment—it amounts to about twenty-five ordinary cleaning and dyeing concerns in scope. Besides, Dresher's specialize in all that goes with clothes wearing, for instance Dresher's make hats, make furs, make clothes at the Dresher the Tailor establishment, 1515 Farnam street, and are in every way imitably capable of taking care of the clothes of man or woman in an economical manner.

An announcement of this sort cannot tell it all. Better call up Atlantic 0345 and have a friendly conversation with the Dresher office.

South Side folk may have the same service rendered by phoning Market 0050, while out-of-town folk have only to express or parcel post their packages in, Dresher's paying the charges one way.

The Dresher branches in the Burgess-Nash and Brandeis Stores are still maintained for your convenience.

he really took too many, however. Another

MUSIC

Did you hear the glee clubs at the "Open House" October 25, and the Girls' Glee Club at the mass meeting, October 21? If you were fortunate enough to hear them, did you not feel proud of them? Students are beginning to realize how fine our glee clubs really are and what a prominent part they play in school activities. Both clubs deserve the hearty support of everyone in Central.

A large part of the success of the work of the glee clubs at the "Open House," October 25, was due to Lela Turner's excellent accompaniment. A director can accomplish very little without a good accompanist.

Lela plays not only for the glee clubs but also for the orchestra, and for the entire pageant, which is to be given during the Teachers' Convention in November. She intends to study music as a profession and is specializing on the organ as well as on the piano.

Kenneth Seely deserves credit for his solo part in the chorus sung by the Senior Boys' Glee Club at the "Open House." Kenneth, who has been connected with the musical circle of the school for the past two years, has a remarkable voice and a bright future before him.

COMMERCE NEWS

FACTS ABOUT THE NEW SCHOOL.

When the new Commercial or "Technical High School" at 33rd and Cuming is completed, Omaha will have one of the finest schools in the Middle West. The building will accommodate 2700 pupils. Interesting features will be the swimming pool, gymnasiums, rest rooms, an auditorium equipped for moving pictures, radio and telegraphy laboratories, a music room with a small auditorium next to it seating about 200, and a practice cafeteria. On the campus east of the school there will be an athletic field with bleachers seating 5060. In the winter this field will be flooded for skating.

One of the many new subjects to be offered in the new school will be a course in dramatics which will prove very interesting. Miss Mary Irene Wallace, who has cleverly directed the plays of the graduating classes at Commerce for the last several years is now in New York studying the latest ideas on this subject. The course will be an elective, but opened only to those who have completed the study of the drama in English 10.

Commerce opened their first Hi-Y meeting with about seventy-five fellows present. The Truax syncopated orchestra trilled forth sweet music while the contestants scrambled for food.

Hugh Wallace then led the entire assembly in the song, "America." Dave Robel accompanied Mac Ohman on the piano for a few wild numbers.

The speaker of the evening was J. Dean Ringer who gave a very interesting and snappy talk.

With such an enthusiastic opening, this year promises to be a successful one.

Commerce has a very live and industrious Dramatic Club which meets every two weeks. At present the members are studying the very latest ideas in the way of stage devices. They intend to apply their knowledge of lighting and scenery in their own productions.

The students and faculty of Commerce High, two thousand strong, assembled in the city auditorium Wednesday morning, November 2, to hear Superintendent Beveridge explain the plans of the new building now being erected at 33rd and Cuming street. The meeting lasted all morning (much to the joy of the students) and interesting talks were given by officers of all the school organizations.

ORGANIZE HOCKEY CLUB.

Miss Black, recreational leader of the Y. W. C. A. is organizing a Hockey Club among the Student Club girls to compete with the women's team at the Y. W. C. A. Definite plans are still unformed, but the checks are sent for, and Geraldine McMasters is inquiring about a field. The games will be played on Saturday afternoons.

Anxious Neighbor: "Didn't I hear some shooting at your house last evening?"
Al. Wolf: "Yes, I had to kill my dog."
Neighbor: "O-h-h! Was he mad?"
Al: "Well, he didn't seem to be particularly pleased about it."

Mountain—A hill with its back up.

PAGEANT PRESENTED THURSDAY.

announce the entrance of Columbia and the thirteen original colonies. The other states are symbolized by six groups of dancing stars led by Lois Avery.

Two choruses then enter from the right and left of the stage. One represents the forces of the North and the others those of the Southern confederacy. They execute the pantomime of war and are at last reconciled by Columbia. Dorothy Wahl, who takes the part of Nebraska, represents the child of a re-united union.

While the chorus sings "Over There," there enters the Jackie, Duane Currant, the Soldier, Clarence Eastman, and the French Peasant, Mrs. Fred Ellis, who sings "Americans Come."

Filing before all, the Procession of the Years sweeps by, each member bearing her magical gift in a bowl of iridescent crystal.

The banner bearers advance with the Stars and Stripes, while The Spirit of Liberty, Mrs. Mabel Reid, enters to a post beside the flag where she delivers one of the few speaking parts of the pageant.

Miss Helen Thompson, superintendent of manual arts, has charge of all the costumes with the exception of the bird costumes which were prepared by Miss Reid, superintendent of arts.

Mr. Cox selected the members of the orchestra from pupils of all of the city schools.

The entire pageant is under the personal supervision of Miss Lena Williams, director of Central's dramatic department. Much of the success of the pageant will be due to her untiring efforts.

CENTRAL ALUMNUS WINS INTERNATIONAL FAME.

A. W. Kenny Billings, '91, returned this month from Spain where he has been for several years doing electrical engineering. He is now in Mexico, working in the field most of the day.

In his very early years he showed marked capacity as a student, especially interesting himself in electricity and everything in the mechanical line. During vacations, he worked at the Omaha Electric Light Co., in order to learn about electricity. Mr. Billings graduated from O. H. S. at the age of 15, entered Harvard college, graduated from there, and took a post-graduate course of two years.

He spent three years in Pittsburg, nine in Cuba, and seven in Spain. He managed electric railways and power plant construction, and has been a great factor in hydro-electric development.

When the U. S. declared war, Mr. Billings was in Spain. Within thirty days he enlisted in the U. S. naval reserve corps. He was later promoted to commander and now holds that title. When the war was over, Mr. Billings returned to Madrid, and has just recently come back to America.

He enjoys his work very much, for at the age of forty-four he said, "I would not choose differently were it to be done over again." Central has every reason to be exceptionally proud of a graduate who is as internationally known as Mr. Billings is.

HI-Y MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT.

Movies Will Be Feature.

Regular Hi-Y Meeting will be held on Friday night with dinner at the "Y" at 6 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present at this meeting.

Instead of a speaker or Bible study there will be special moving pictures with a fine orchestra of high school boys to play during the pictures. The Club makes a practice of having a movie entertainment every two months during the winter. These add variety to the program of talks and Bible study.

Harold Stribling and Lyle Hoerner have been appointed by President George Johnston to act as Sergeants-at-Arms this year, and they will be assisted by six football men. The whole football team has enrolled in the Club, and it is hoped that the athletes of the school will support the Hi-Y this year as they did so well last season.

The special football night was a success, and a basketball night is planned after the basket season starts.

The Hi-Y Council, which is made up of forty leading Juniors and Seniors, had an important meeting last Sunday to arrange details of the meeting of the clubs of the whole city on November 22nd, at which time the Governor of Nebraska will be the honor guest.

J. A. Savage, penmanship instructor, Mina Hubbell and Ione E. Duffy, are Omahans who take part in the Commercial Section program. Ella Knight is secretary of the Geography Section while Ethel Hunsaker performs the same office for the Grammar Grade Group in which Jeanette Newlean and Annie Forsyth, Omaha principals, will speak.

Bishop Homer C. Stunty will address the Household Arts Section on Shadowed Homes. Lila Bowen is secretary of the Library Sectional, which will be held in our library Thursday afternoon.

Ella Phelps, Central High language teacher, is president of the Modern Language Section. Both she and May Mahoney of South High School will address that section.

Stanley Letovsky, a Central alumnus who is winning fame through his music, will play for the Music Section of which Fannie Myers is secretary. Groups of Omaha Grade School pupils will sing.

Francis Pearson is secretary of the Physical Education Section. Demonstrations by school children will be given.

Groups of Omaha School children will sing for the primary section of which Mary E. Wallace is secretary; Charlotte Townsend, head School Nurse of Omaha, is the secretary of the School Hygiene Section.

The Story Teller's Section will be entertained with dances by the youngest pupils of Adelaide Fogg.

Effie Steen Kittleson will tell a story, while Commercial High students will present pantomimes. Bess Furman of the Omaha Daily News will relate stories from the press.

HOME ROOM SURPRISE.

Fourteen home rooms which have an average of 90 per cent or more in Register subscriptions were entertained by the Register staff in the auditorium last Thursday morning.

Ruth Carlberg welcomed the guests and announced the numbers on the program. She said that she hoped the different rooms were as glad to be there as the staff was to have them. She announced that the girl who was to first entertain them could be compared to a lady's watch. She was a stem winder, twenty-three jewel, Elgin movement, and would bear watching.

Ann Rosenblatt appeared on the stage in the costume of a nineteenth century girl and gave a demure little dance which seemed typical of the times of which her costume spoke. She was accompanied at the piano by Helen Lynch. Polly Robbins then gave a humorous reading entitled, "In the Usual Way." An accompaniment on the piano by Dorothy Sherman added a novel and interesting note to the reading. Polly responded to the applause with another number. The audience was next favored with an eccentric dance by Ann Rosenblatt. The expression of approval indicated that the audience would like to have seen more, but the time was drawing short; so their wish could not be granted. Mac Ohman, with Lela Turner at the piano, made up the last number on the program. He sang "Forgotten" for his first song, and then asked the audience what they wanted. There was an unanimous call for "Ma."

After this song, the bell for the end of the home room period put a stop to the morning's enjoyment. The pupils of all the rooms felt that they had been well paid for their work in getting Register subscriptions.

Pat: "Have ye ever noticed, Moike, that in a railroad accident it's always the people in the last car that gets hurt?"
Mike: "Well thin, why don't they take off the last car?"

"Sir, would you give five dollars to bury a saxophone player?"
"Here's thirty dollars. Bury six of 'em."

CLUB HIKES TO TURNER PARK.

The members of Freshman Student Club are following, though rather weakly, in the footsteps of their older sisters. They took their first hike of the season, Tuesday, November 1, when they hiked from West entrance, where they met, to Turner Park. The afternoon was spent in playing numerous out-door games including "Three Deep" and "New Orleans." At four-thirty, they gayly "followed the leader" out of the park.

This Saturday will find us playing Sioux City at the latter's joint. These Iowans beat us last year by a score of 13 to 7. A hard-fought game is expected, for they have a good team again this year. It will be the last trip of the season for the team, and Coach Schmidt's proteges would delight in bringing home the bacon from this town.

Our team was not the mud-horse aggregation that we had expected it to be when we played Beatrice, and, as a result, we lost to the Gage county eleven, thus blasting our hopes for state titles, et cetera.

Basketball is on the horizon. We predict a big turnout this winter. Where to practice will be one of the big problems, since the north gym alone could not accommodate the whole crew. Possibly we could wrench one of the gyms from the girls for practice. Our outlook this year is much better than last year when only one veteran reported. This fall three old men will most likely don the abbreviated costumes. Mr. Hill is the basketball mentor.

The bowling season is on in full swing. Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A., will find the teams rolling full blast.

Bill Clarke, end, and Thorval Berg, halfback, were switched around in practice last week, Berg going back to his last year's position at end, while Clarke played the backfield and showed up well in his initial trial.

Munroe is back in moleskins after an extended period on the sidelines. Don had a regular epidemic of hurts, black eyes, injured ankles, bad foot, etc., all coming in a row.

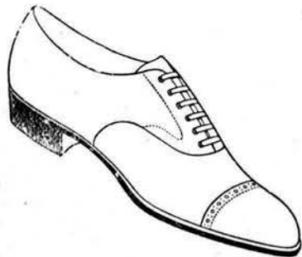

HOME ROOM REPRESENTATIVES ELECT OFFICERS.

The Home Room Representatives held a short meeting after school Tuesday in room 215 for the purpose of nominating officers.

The Chairmen of the committees to collect material for the Home Room file in the library gave their reports and chose the members for their committees. Because of the short time in which the chairmen have had to work, the file is, as yet, bare of material. It is hoped that within a very short time abundant copy will be placed there to aid the Home Room program committees.

Since the Faculty committee has decided to have the present representatives keep their positions for the next half-term, members for offices of president, vice-president and secretary were nominated. William Clarke was nominated for president, and Francis Finch the only one for secretary; so the only nominees left till Friday to be elected were those who were running for vice-president. (We will add the vice-president's name in the next issue).

COLUMBUS WINS ON A SAFETY.

score on a pass and long run, as many were successful, while others were intercepted at critical moments.

Just as the whistle blew, Columbus made a touchback against the locals when they blocked Clarke's kick behind the goal. The ball bounced into the grandstand and was declared dead by the referee.

The work of "Ollie" Sautter featured for the Purple and White gridmen. Sautter was a consistent ground gainer, both by line plunging and by receiving passes made by Hoerner. Tribia and Oechlrick starred for the visitors.

Straight football featured the first half, with the ball being almost entirely in Columbus territory. Stribling barely missed making a place-kick twice out of some ten trials. Near the end of the half Sautter connected with a pass for 20 yards, followed shortly by Holden who intercepted a pass and reeled off 20 more. The whistle found the ball on the Columbus 20-yard line.

Brilliant aerial work was seen in the final frame. Then came the safety. With a two-point lead, the Columbus aggregation seemed to strengthen. They came near scoring a touchdown in the last minute of play. With the ball on our 30-yard line, Coach Rich's men started the rally. An end run for five, a pass for twelve, and two line plunges put the oval awfully close to our goal line. However, the Centralites' defense stiffened, and Columbus failed to tally. Clarke's punt from behind the goal line was blocked and called a touchback when it bounded into the grandstand.

The lineup and summary follows:

Central	Position	Columbus
Berg	Right End	Lenhouts
Stribling	Right Tackle	Elias
Meiers	Right Guard	Lasack
Jeffries	Center	Miller
Clarke	Left Guard	Weaver
Percival	Left End	Goe
Beerkle	Quarter	Poesch
Sautter	Right Half	Tribia

Substitutes, Central—Holden for Keyt. Columbus—Hodeshalt for Jones, Jones for Oechlrick, Oechlrick for Weaver.
Safety—Columbus.
Time of quarters—Fifteen minutes.
Officials—Referee, Ted Riddell of Nebraska; umpire, Leo Kline of Illinois; head linesman, Maxwell of Omaha.

As a result of a somewhat confused wielding of sabres in the recent regimental the Commandant assembled the commissioned officers in 121 and put them through a snappy practice. The drill started with the Looies, who were chased away when the captains and staff performed their stunts. Ever watch an officer trip over a sabre and take a 'I'l aeroplane trip? We're just beginning to learn what a mean, treacherous thing a sabre is. It is always springing some dirty trick. Give up, however, time, and the sabre squad will show some clan that will dazzle the lowly rifle men!

There has been a decided lack of interest in drill on the part of many cadets and as a result the companies which started with record enrollment are now of medium size. Drill is one of the liveliest branches of school work and does much in making the right sort of men, as it teaches a man enough of military tactics to enable him to answer his country's call almost immediately in time of need. Buck off that lazy feeling and jump into drill with the resolve to make your company the best in the Regiment!

The following cadets, by displaying marked efficiency in drill, qualities of leadership becoming cadet non-commissioned officers, are, with the concurrence
