HARDING MARKS DAY OF THANKS

President Calls on People to Acknowledge Blessings and Pray for Guidance

THANK GOD FOR PEACE

President Harding issued a proclamation October 31, designating Thursday, November 24, as a day of thanksgiving, devotion and prayer and urging the people to give thanks "for all that has been rendered unto them," and to pray "for a continuance of the divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation." The proclamation follows:

"That season has come when, alike in pursuance of a devout people's time-honored custom and in grateful recognition of favoring national fortunes, it is proper that the president should summon the nation to a day of devotion, of thanksgiving for blessings bestowed and of prayer for guidance in modes of life, that may deserve continuance of divine favor."

"Foremost among our blessings is the return of peace and the approach to normal ways again. The year has brought us again into relations of amity with all nations, after a long period of struggle and turbulence. In thankfulness therefore, we may well unite in the hope that providence will vouchsafe approval to the things we have done, the aims which have guided us, the aspirations which have inspired us. We shall be prospered as we shall deserve prosperity, seeking not alone for the material things, but for those of the spirit as well; earnestly trying to help others, asking before all else the privilege of service. As we render thanks anew for the exaltation which came to us, we may fittingly petition that moderation and wisdom shall be granted to rest upon all who are in authority, in the tasks they must discharge. Their hands will be steadied, their purposes strengthened, in answer to our prayers."

"Ours has been a favored nation in the bounty which God has bestowed upon it. The great trial of humanity, though indeed we bore our part as well as we were able, left us comparatively little scarred. It is for us to recognize that we have been thus favored and when we gather at our altars to offer up thanks, we will do well to pledge, in humility and all sincerity, our purpose to prove deserving. We have been raised up and preserved in national power and consequence, as part of a plan whose wisdom we cannot question. Thus believing, we can do no less than hold our nation the willing instrument of the providence which has so wonderfully favored us. Opportunity for very great service awaits us if we shall prove equal to it. Let our prayers be raised for direction in the right paths. Under God, our responsibility is great; to our own first, to all men afterward; to all mankind in God's own justice."

"Now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, president of the United States, hereby designate Thursday, the 24th day of November, to be observed by the people, as a day of thanksgiving, devotion and prayer; urging that at their hearthstones, and their altars, they pray for a continuance of the divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation."

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the United States of America."

"Done at the capital of the United States this 31st day of October, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-sixth."

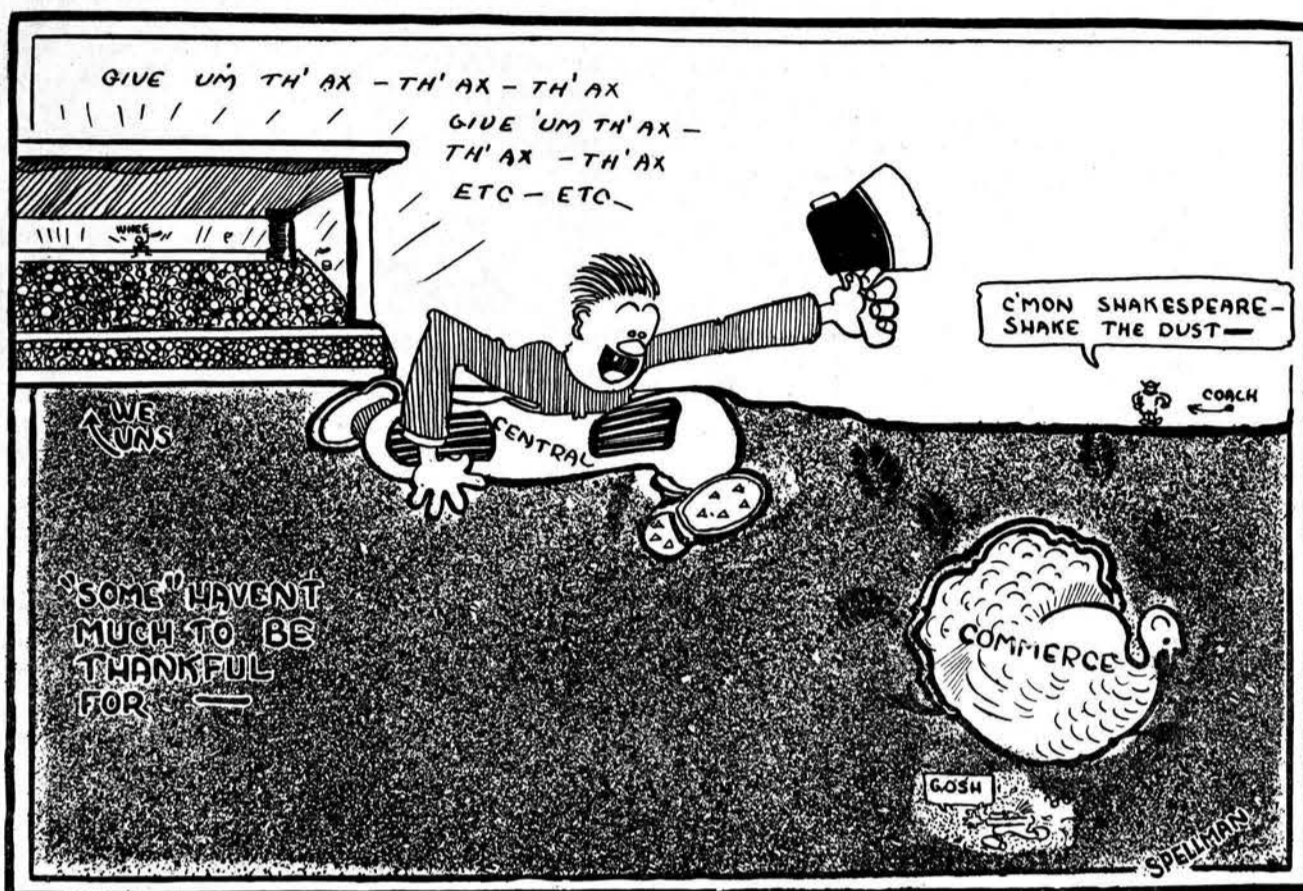

"By the president:

"WARREN G. HARDING,

"CHARLES E. HUGHES,
"Secretary of State."

SECOND TEAM DEFEATS IOWA
SCHOOL FOR DEAF.

The second team again beat the Iowa School for the Deaf when they took the big end of a 25 to 7 score. The game was played last Thursday at Fontenelle Park.

BIG MASS MEETING AT RIALTO WEDNESDAY

Twenty-five Hundred Central Students Will Gather At 8:00 O'clock.

We will have another big mass meeting at the Rialto Theatre on Wednesday, November 23. The big Commerce game on Thursday needs the cheering of every Omaha High School student; so we will all be assembled at this theatre and raise the roof with our songs and yells.

Malcolm Baldrige, a former student of O. H. S. and a crack player on our team, will talk to us. Mr. Baldrige is now the coach of the Creighton University eleven which is having such remarkable success this year.

Mr. Frank Latenser will award the prize for the best song and will take charge of the practicing of it, so that every one will know it at the big game.

Mrs. Pitts at the pipe organ and our band will furnish the music.

The meeting will start promptly at 8:10 and will end in time so we may be back for first hour.

JANUARY CLASS DECIDES ON PLAY.

Date Set for January 13-14.

The January class met in room 141, Tuesday, October 16, to call in the plays and skits which the members of the class have been writing for the senior graduates. The class chose "Senior Follies of 1922" as the name of their entertainment. A number of very clever sketches have been contributed. The plans for the production will soon be under way.

One of the most entertaining and lively exhibitions of Omaha High School talent is promised in this variety show which will take place January 13 and 14. Joseph Lintzman was appointed chairman of the snapshot committee to collect any little pictures of interest to the seniors. Anyone having any contributions of this sort is requested to hand them to Mr. Lintzman.

JUNIOR HI-Y REGULAR MEETING.

Last Thursday night about 125 of the younger high school fellows assembled for respective classes. Mac Ohman, one of the teachers, was absent on account of the pageant which was presented at the auditorium that evening. His class expressed regret at his absence, but there is some doubt in the teacher's mind concerning the sincerity of such a remark.

Because of the Thanksgiving Holidays, there will be no Senior or Junior Hi-Y meeting this week. It is feared that no one will be able to attend either of these meetings after he has consumed his twentieth "helping" on Turkey Day.

SENIOR HI-Y HOLDS REGULAR MEETING FRIDAY.

Governor Speaks Tonight.

The Senior Hi-Y held its regular meeting Friday, November 18th with about 175 members present. The good feed put forth by Mrs. Hires touched the spot where good feeling originates, and all of the fellows departed to their classes in high spirits.

Each teacher delivered a wonderful message to his class. The Hi-Y is greatly indebted to this body of men who are so able to put so many good things of life in the paths of the Club members.

Tonight is the night of the Governor's banquet. All of the tickets have been sold, and anyone so fortunate as to possess one may consider himself lucky.

Besides a wonderful supper and a stimulating address by the Governor, music will be furnished by an orchestra consisting of Harris Pinkerton, Eddie Ballantine, Herman Deutch, and Roland Howes. The club members have head this group of musicians play and know that their selections will be of the best.

George Johnston, president of the Senior Hi-Y of Central, will act as toastmaster on this great occasion. Since Central has the largest attendance of any of the Hi-Y clubs in this city, its president was awarded the honor of toastmaster.

The promoters of this exceptional meeting are exceedingly pleased with the outlook, and every fellow who attends may be considered as one on whom a favor has been bestowed.

STUDENT CLUBS HOLD JOINT HIKE.

The second joint hike of the Student Clubs of the city, Benson, South, Commerce and Central, took place Saturday, November 5. The girls rode from Elmwood park to the aero field where they were met by a truck. Their final destination was the Bliss cabin about a mile and a half from the aero field. Here they ate lunch and played games until about 1:30, when they hiked to the car line. All of them say they had a wonderful time.

CALENDAR

Tuesday—Thanksgiving offering. Governor's Banquet, Hi-Y at 6:00 p. m. Meeting of Parent-Teachers, Association in Auditorium at 8:00 p. m.

Wednesday—Inter-class Debates in rooms 215 and 235, seventh-hour. Mass Meeting at Rialto, 8:10.

BEVERIDGE ASKED TO LECTURE AT COLUMBIA

Says Will Probably Deliver Ninety
Messages There Next Summer

Mr. J. H. Beveridge, Superintendent of the Omaha Public Schools, recently received a telegram from Columbia University, Morningside, New York, requesting him to deliver a series of lectures on School Administration at the next summer session.

It is certainly a recognition of Mr. Beveridge as an efficient, capable educator, for only the most able men and women are on the faculty of this school. The Omaha Schools in general, as well as Mr. Beveridge are honored by this request. Columbia University is the largest educational institution in the world. At the summer session of 1921, 16,000 students attended, 6,000 of whom were teachers. Every nation in the world is represented at this college.

Mr. Beveridge is well fitted to lecture on School Administration, since he has been at the head of the Omaha Public School System for five years. Previous to his appointment he was superintendent of the Council Bluffs Schools for a long period. Mr. Beveridge received his Master of Arts Degree at Columbia University and a Doctor's Degree at Ohio State University. Presidency of the State Teachers' Association which met here recently is another of his laurels.

"The announcement came out of a clear sky," he said when interviewed. "I have accepted the offer and will probably deliver ninety lectures at Columbia University next summer."

CENTRAL WINS A. A. U. AQUATIC MEET.

The honor of Central High was upheld last week when the Purple and White representatives copped most of the gold medal affairs in the Western A. A. U. tank meet held at the Athletic Club. The Central relay team consisting of D. L. Dimond, E. A. Thomann, Jr., Jim Pollard, and Robert Ellick easily beat teams from Commerce, Creighton, and Lincoln. The Capitol lads nosed Commerce out of second place. The team equaled its last year's record of one minute, fifty-nine seconds for the race.

D. L. Dimond won the 100-yard backstroke for men. Dimond lowered his own record for the course, making it in 21 3-5 seconds. Dimond holds the Western A. A. U. record.

Miss Helen Moore took second place in the fifty-yard swim for women. Helen Condon, formerly of Central won the race, for which she holds the record.

Roland Howes took first in the 100-yard swim, when he lead a field of four by a considerable margin.

BIGGEST GAME OF SEASON

Central Grid Men Will Meet
Commerce at League Park
Thursday 2:30

GOOD GAME EXPECTED

As a fitting climax to the football season comes the Commerce-Central game. This Thursday will see the two old enemies fighting for the city championship. All season the teams have been preparing for this final affair, each eagerly watching the development of the other, both planning and training for the annual conflict.

Central has a decisive defeat to avenge, as Coach Drummond's warriors romped away with the big end of a 26 to 3 tally last fall. In basketball and baseball, the Bookkeepers also beat the Purple and White.

Commerce will enter the field with the dope a little in her favor. The Maroon team beat Beatrice 13-6, while Central lost to them by a 10 to 0 score. Their record for the season also looks a bit better than that of the Purple and White team. Such dope, however, is usually the poorest indication of the probable outcome of a game.

Opponents Training Hard

The Sioux City lineup will probably be used by Coach Schmidt, though a few changes are being contemplated. Commerce will buck up against probably the hardest team on their schedule when they meet the Centralites. Drummond is putting the Leavenworth Street lads through some intensive workouts in preparation for the event.

The players on which Commerce will probably place the most reliance are "Stogie" Camero, quarterback; Merle Kline, halfback; Swenson, halfback; DeVoe, fullback, and Krasne, tackle.

Neither lineup is definitely known, since both coaches will probably name the eleven only at the beginning of the game.

Win Means City Championship

If Central wins, the city championship goes to the Purple and White team, but if Commerce wins, the title will be tied up, because South beat Commerce, and Central beat South. Let's have everybody out at the game, the last of the year, boosting the team. Come out and yell. It will give you an appetite for your Thanksgiving feed.

Central's probable lineup will be as follows:

Center, Hoerner; Guards, Jeffries, Pollard; Tackles, Stribling, Ennis; Ends, Percival, Berg; Quarter, Beekle or Poucher; Fullback, Galloway; Halfbacks, Sautter and Poucher or Holden.

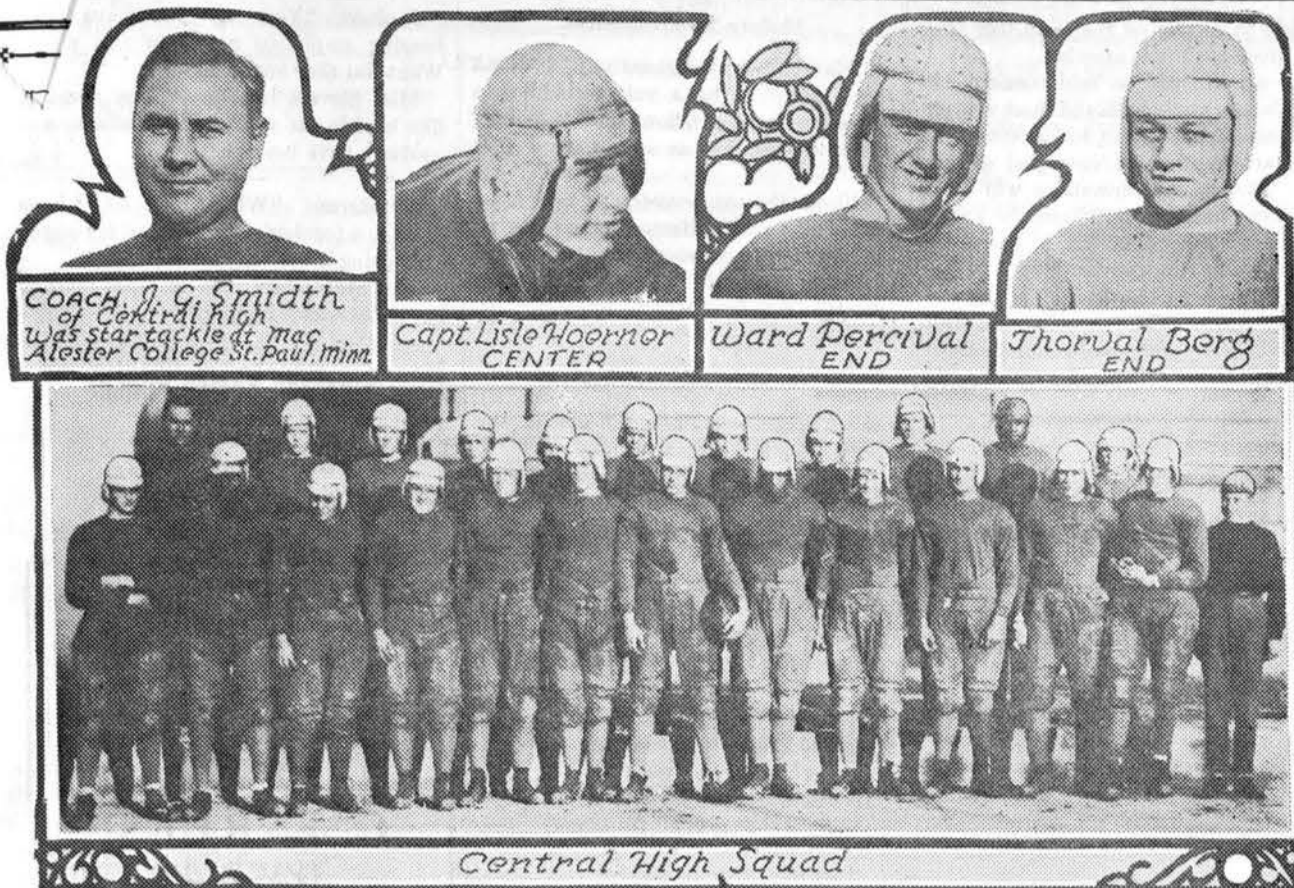

REGISTER STAFF VISITS WORLD-HERALD.

On the afternoon of November 7, Miss Eva Mahoney, editor of the Women's Section of the World-Herald, conducted the journalism class of C. H. S. through the editorial, composing, and stereotype rooms of her paper. Everyone gave the class special privileges, which, combined with Miss Mahoney's interesting sidelights on newspaper life, made the trip very instructive.

FRESHMAN CLUB MEETS OFFICERS.

The Freshman Club met at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday, November 8th, and elected the following officers: President, Leola Jensen; Secretary, Lila Showalter; Treasurer, Georgia Dunlap; Reporter, Carmen Lewis. The chairman of committees are: Program, Lucille Gannon; Social, Edna Jensen; Service, Vivian Wren.

November 15, the club visited the Y. W. C. A. Home for Girls. This visit took the place of a regular meeting.

COACH SCHMIDT.

The Purple and White squad has made excellent progress this season under the expert supervision of Coach Schmidt. The coach made a record for himself in the fall of 1911 when he made all-state tackle from MacAlister College, St. Paul, Minn., where he graduated in 1912. From MacAlister Mr. Schmidt went to Ashland, Nebr., where he was the coach of high school athletics in 1912-13. He then went to Beatrice High School, where he assisted in coaching and helped to develop the champion basketball team of that school in 1916. Mr. Schmidt was

WILMER BEERKLE.

Beerkle's punting and headwork have pulled the team out of a bad position many times. Brains are the main requirement of a quarterback, and Wilmer, by successfully holding down the pilot position, has shown himself to be a heady player.

LISLE HOERNER.

Lisle, "Squink" Hoerner is the big man of the team, not only physically, but also from a football critic's standpoint. Shifted from center to fullback, Hoerner made good, especially on account of his strong defensive work. A real fighting captain is Lisle, who "talks it up" and puts real fight into the eleven.

HAROLD "KEWPIE" STRIBLING.

Stribling has put some real work into the game, and has developed into all-state material at his position at tackle. Strib-held down this berth last year with considerable merit. We regret to say that we will soon lose Berg.

WILLIAM CLARKE.

An end of no mean ability is Bill. He can run down under a punt with real speed, and he usually gets his man. Bill can kick the pill, too. Of late, he has been playing guard, filling one of our former weak places.

It is reported that Mr. Schmidt has sent in a complaint to the street car company on the grounds that, after paying for a ride, he is forced to walk most of the way to school.

"I just get on the car," said Mr. Schmidt, "when the conductor says, 'Step forward, please.' Of course, I want to oblige him and I move up a ways. Then athletic coach and principal of the high school in Harlan, Iowa, in 1916-17. He came to Central in the fall of 1918 and has for three years been assistant coach of our teams.

When Coach Mulligan ceased to be the pilot of Central athletics, Mr. Schmidt was appointed coach. Last summer he attended the school of athletic coaching under the supervision of Coach Zuppke of the University of Illinois, where he got some real inside dope on football.

WALLACE JEFFRIES.

"Jeff" is a steady, consistent player, always putting the best he has into the game. Wally took Hoerner's place at center early in the year and has worked up a big reputation on account of his playing.

ling has both the weight and the brains to help him in the game. He will be one of the big men on the squad next year.

LED RUE GALLOWAY.

Led rue has earned a name for himself as a hard tackler. When "Lee" gets 'em, they fall in their tracks. As a defensive tackler, Galloway covers the whole left side of the line, and is a wizard at breaking up plays. Lately, he has been showing up as a fullback, and a good one he is.

WARD PERCIVAL.

Percival is our star end. He has an uncanny ability in breaking up end runs, and he frequently breaks through to tackle a runner for a big loss. Percival is a corner whose work in the next couple of years should steadily improve.

THORVAL BERG.

Fullback, halfback, and end are the varied positions that Thorval has held down this year, which shows that he is an all-round player who can cover any position. Berg is at home at end, since he he keeps on saying it until I have walked almost all the way to school."

LIFE.

Life, 'tis but a shadow
Fleeting o'er the years
Dawn, a noon, and sunset,
Song, a prayer, and tears.

Life, 'tis but a lovesong,
On the harp of time.
Yearning, joy, and sadness,
Love and hope sublime.

Life, 'tis sounds of laughter,
Ringing o'er the years,
Blissful joy and gladness,
Hope to sadness bears.

—Frances Lewis.

Be at the Game early.

The dope on the Commerce game will be found on the front page this time.

He's went and done it again. Who? What? Why? Hoerner made a touchdown while playing center. It took place in the Sioux City game when Lisle blocked a punt and fell on it over the goal line. Last year he intercepted a pass and ran some 36 yards for a tally of six points. At that time we prophesied that he would never again score while playing in this position, but—he did.

That Sioux City game was sure a corker. It is too bad that nearly all the excitement of watching it had to be enjoyed by the Iowa fans.

Ask Ingalls if smuggling is ever successful. He tried to beat the well-nigh bankrupt railroads out of a few simoleons by hiding between the seats, but the plan failed miserably. The "con," while making the rounds, either saw Robert's number "2's," or heard his terrified breathing, so he looked under the stack of overcoats. Drawing Ingalls forth, he asked Mr. Gulgard if the child belonged to him. Bob looked like a waxen dummy and was especially pale around the gills when our commandant replied that he had never seen the tramp before, and ordered the conductor to put him off. However, the stern elders relented and all ended satisfactorily.

Beat Commerce—Beat Commerce.

The Central High student spectators have been complimented several times this fall because they stay in the grandstand at the games and do not surge out on the field. Because the crowd came out on the field we lost one game last year; so let's all keep in the stand Thursday.

Outyell Commerce, make lots of noise, boost the team.

Talk about pep and school spirit. Several of our students went all the way to Sioux City, despite the freezing weather. Lisle Vance and Max Baker walked up. Sure they did. Quite a few of the fellows went up in autos or on the train. We even had the girls well represented. Those who helped to outcheer the Iowa fans were Arline Rosenberry, Frances Fetterman, Rosamond Kinkanon, Gertrude Pollard, Alice Wixon, Alice Pfeifer, and Corine Anderson.

Going to the Game?

Two of our defeats have been avenged. We beat South, who beat Norfolk, who in turn beat Columbus. So much for them. Again, we beat Sioux City; they beat East Des Moines, and East beat North. We now have a chance to get revenge for the Beatrice defeat. Commerce beat them, and if we ruin the Bookkeepers, all will end well.

Eat your dessert in a hurry.

Miss Davies: "What do they raise in Mexico?"
Roscoe Baker: "I refuse to swear in class."

Mother: "Aldrich, have you been doing anything to this ink?"

Aldrich: "Well, I put some water in it to make it write weak. I've been writing a letter to Dorothy and I wanted to whisper something to her."

Dallas N.: "Do be quiet! You disturb my peace of mind."

Genevieve Pollard: "Piece of mind is right."

"I'll stick to you whate'er betide,
Though all the world may scoff."
Thus spake his hard-earned, white sweater,
But George begged, "Aw, come off."

Helen Seanson: "You sit down on nearly every joke I write."

Corine A.: "I never do if there is a point to them."

Zelda Westberg (having a hard time combing her hair): "Oh, if the Lord had only made me a man!"

Edith Weir (misunderstanding): "Well, maybe he has and you just haven't found him yet."

You can always tell a Freshman
By his gaping, vacant stare,
And his mouth ahanging open
Letting in the High School air.

You can always tell a Sophie
By his very haughty mein,
And his lordly condescension
To the Freshie he has seen.

You can always tell a Junior
By his air of merry joy,
By the parties that he goes to
And the slang he does employ.

You can always tell a Senior
By his dignity and such,
You can always tell a Senior
But you cannot tell him much.

Some Centralites attending the University of Omaha are Elizabeth Westfield, '21; G. Ned Williams, '21, pre-medic; Virginia Morecom, February, '21; Cortis Kelly, '21; Mary Manu, '21; Ruth Quinlan, '21; Clarence Hunter; Robert Jenkins, editor of the Register in 1920; Leslie Van Nostrand, '20; James Bradley, '21; Herbert Fisher, '21; Gretchen Hart, '21; Margaret Widenor, '21, and Jeanette Pick.

Charles Selheimer, '21, is attending Midland College, Fremont, Nebraska.

Theodore Lindeman, '21, is taking up his studies as a freshman at Armour Institute of Technology in Chicago.

Karnie Sundell, '21, is going to the Peru State Teachers' College at Peru, Nebraska, this winter.

Mary Smith, of the class of 1920, is attending Monmouth College.

William Hilliker is at Wooster college, Wooster, Ohio.

Others claimed by our State University at Lincoln besides those mentioned last week are: Mary Ure, '20, Lois Thompson, '20; Thomas McCague, '21; Emily Ross, assistant editor of the Register in 1920; Irvin Jetter, '20; Edward Manger, '21; David Richardson, '21; Emily Holdrege, '20; Howard Buffet, '21; Lester Anderson, '21; Element Jeep, '21; J. Melville Watt, '21; Lucy Weir, '21; Dorothy Zust, '21; and Louis Somberg, '21.

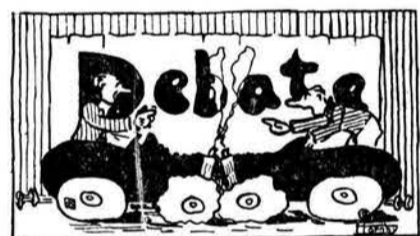

Joe Pollard, a noted gridster of '19 and a few years preceding that time, is substituting on the first team at Dartmouth. It is rumored that Wallace intends to follow in his brother's footsteps.

Graduates of Central who are now attending the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor are: Eugene Pakes, '18; Lee Potter, '18; Charles Martin, '21; Richard Elster, '21; John Comstock, '20; Ronald Gladstone, '21; Ralph Cohn, '19, and Gertrude Stratbucker, '18.

Cortes L. Kelley is at the Omaha University this year.

Ralph McCabe, '21, is taking a pre-legal course at Creighton college.

Willard, "Bill" Usher, a basketball star of 1917, is attending the University of Nebraska.

NOTICE! All those wishing to try out for the debating squad this year should leave their names with Mr. Chatelain before Wednesday evening. Competition produces results otherwise impossible; therefore it is desirable to have a large number from whom to select the squad. Each individual who tries out not only benefits himself, but he also helps to keep Old Central on the map in this type of contest. The reputation of the school is at stake in a debate just as it is in any athletic contest. We will meet some extremely strong teams this year and have the hardest schedule in the school's history ahead.

The question for the tryouts is as follows: "Resolved that the Closed Shop Policy of Organized Labor Merits the Support of Public Opinion." There is a wealth of material in the libraries on this subject.

Shall we have a winning debate season this year? It depends on you. Get in as well as behind this issue.

The following teams will represent the four classes in inter-class debate:

Senior Team—Eugene Daniell, Harold Brown, Wallace Nelson, alternate Richard Lovald.

Junior Team—Carroll Corliss, John Kuhn, Milton Mandelson, alternate, Dominick Manoli; Honorable Mention, Helene Margaret, Beatrice Reichenberg.

Freshman Team—David Fillman, James Hayle, Billie Kearns, alternate, Victor Clary.

The rivalry on the junior team was so intense that it was almost impossible to pick the team. In fact, two girls, Helene Margaret and Beatrice Reichenberg, came so close to getting on the team that they were given honorable mention.

The debates will be held tomorrow in seventh-hour study halls and those who are wise enough to register for seventh-hour study are going to be very glad of that fact. The senior affirmatives will meet the junior negatives in 215 and the Freshman affirmatives are booked to clash with the sophomore negatives in 235. The judges will render the decision at the end of the contest. The two winning teams will meet shortly after the debate scheduled for Wednesday.

Modern Inconveniences.

Lyle Vance, indignantly: "I think there ought to be a rule forbidding a teacher to bawl a fellow out for looking out of the window as an aeroplane goes by."

Milton Abrams, sweetly: "Yes, Lyle, I'll speak to Mr. Masters about having the building fixed so that the roof will automatically slide off every time an aeroplane goes by."

Why He Could Not Leave.

At a large evening party one of the guests stood in a corner yawning.
"Are you very much bored, sir?" asked a bystander.

"Yes, dreadfully," was the answer.
"And you?"

"Oh, I am bored to death, too."
"How would it do to clear out together?"

"I am sorry I can't. I am the host."

The school gets all the fame,
The printer gets the money,
And the staff gets all the blame.

MUSIC

The music department has lost one of its most charming feminine members, Aileen Chiles. On account of ill health she has been forced to leave school for an indefinite length of time. In the pageant just presented Aileen, who has a very lovely voice, was the understudy of Dorothy Steinbaugh.

Some people love to speak of the difficulties encountered by those people who take part in a large production in addition to those of preparing their daily work.

The constant rehearsing and practicing necessary for a smooth and finished performance robs the students of the time needed for the preparation of their studies.

That this argument is wrong can easily be proved by the fact that many who were in the pageant received from three to five and one-half A's.

Dr. Hartley B. Alexander, who wrote the words of the pageant, was enthusiastic in his praise of the manner in which the Omaha schools presented it.

The pageant was originally given out of doors in Lincoln, but it gained in loveliness through being produced in a theatre and through being presented by school children. Since the students were of different heights, the stage ensemble was very pleasing to the eye; the scenic effects, the colors, and the lighting were beautiful, said Dr. Alexander.

Witter Bynner, noted author and lecturer, said of the spectacle "Nebraska," "I think it is one of the most wonderful and beautiful pageants I have ever seen."

One of the superintendents who was here for the Teachers' Convention remarked that he would rather miss all of the convention than miss the pageant.

One of the Omaha ministers whose name we do not know spoke warmly in favor of the pageant, saying, "It is art in its highest form; it is perfect; there is not a thing to be criticized."

Men who are engaged in educational work and who have seen many performances by the school children say that there is nothing of its kind equal to the pageant.

CENTRALITES AS BARNSTORMERS.

A group of Central students and alumni, organized under the name of its Central Dramatic and Concert Company, toured some of the small towns of the state during the month of August. They offered vaudeville specialty acts, a short play, and orchestra selections. The company also rented halls and gave dances after the performance.

The idea of this tour was originated last spring by Melva Gerard, '21, who, with Murrell Simpson, assembled the members of the company, and directed the dramatics and music. Mrs. Adamson, Miss Gerard's mother, was the sponsor and manager of the business affairs of the company. The other members of the group, who, on account of the smallness of the company appeared both in the cast and in the orchestra were Velma Gerard, Dean Nordin, Linnae Anderson, '20; Lowell Miller, '21; Jean Liebovitz, George Vlach, Mildred Jacque, and Howard English. Russell Countryman was the official scenic artist.

Melva Gerard coached the dramatics and vaudeville without assistance from anyone until the final dress rehearsal when Miss Lena May Williams offered criticisms and suggestions. She was highly pleased with the entire production and gave the performers much praise and encouragement.

Since there is only one night stand vaudeville company touring the small towns of the state, the Central High group met with enthusiastic and appreciative audiences everywhere, and in several places were asked to repeat their engagement.

The members of the cast think that they know everything that needs to be known about "make up," lighting changes of costume, and small town hotels. Yet, they are all game for another season of the same stuff.

Look over the bunch again and judge for yourself whether or not the programs were snappy.

Frances Swift, Janet Wilmarth, Naomi Gignoux, Genene Noble, Pearl Jones and Eleanor Newbranch, spent the week-end in Lincoln to attend the University Homecoming festivities.

Laura Isom of the office is at the Fenger Hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis on Wednesday, October 16. Her condition is rapidly improving.

Beatrice Cosmey, '20, was informed that her Latin entrance exam mark at Vassar was very high. We always knew that we had some Latin Department.

Maude Poff, leading lady in "Mary Janets' Pa," is attending the High School of Commerce.

A daughter, Betty Anne, was recently born to Mrs. Don Hinkley. Mrs. Hinkley, formerly Miss Marion Fay, was assistant librarian at Central for several years.

Louis Bexten Jr. to his Sunday School teacher: "I don't think that I can come to Sunday School every Sunday now, 'cause we've got a car."

LETTERS BACK HOME.

By Sally Ann Hopkins, Freshie.

Derest Ella:

I jist couldn't wate a minit to wright and tell you all about everything like I said. I got to admit I felt awful when I left Ma and Pa and all you uns. I never wanted to come to this here city skool and I wouldn't have, only Pa said I must be ejucated if it killed me and broke him. He says I can come home at Xmas though and see all. I like this here skool better than I thought I was but I don't like it all yet. They have such funny things I can't get used to. And when I tell them how they aught to do they tell me I got to remember this ain't Holmesville. I'm getting on with things awful quick though. I did get lost today on the way to the lunch room, but I seen a senior the other day looked like she was lost to. Anybody wood be. The lunch room is in the cellar. And lunch is eats. The lunch room is a place where you all line up and grab a plate and grab whatever else you want only you give a piece of tin for the stuff—not the plate but the stuff you eat. You by the tin things from a fellow in a cage outside. They are funny things with skolloped eyes like Ant Sally makes on cookies. They cost five for twenty-five cents. The first day I got some I jist wanted fore bekause I thought maybe they wood be out of stile and there Id be with some of them things on my hands, but the fellow said I had to take five. Then I got mad and I says to him jist what I thought, I says, I guess you think I aint got enough money to pay for five checks but Ill jist show you and I showed him the to dollar bill that unkle Josh give me when I started. He jest laffed and said, your holding up the line, little gurl.

I was madder yet, but somehow I got pushed out and didnt get to say any more. Next time I got back I guessed Id show him and I never even spoke to him. I jist shued out the to dollar bill and he gave me some change and some of the skolloped things. I think he felt awful bad though cause he never spoke to me either. But I wont let anyone think I cant stand up for my rites—now that we wimen got to vote. Yes, we have!! I found all about that the other day to when they alls voted on a thing they call student assasination ticket. I didnt vote, but I guessed I could of cause I seen lots of other gurls go and do it.

Well, Ella, I was a goin to tell you how I got lost on the way to the lunch room (and lunch sure is all you get with everything for a nickle and bells that rings and makes you go to your next class before your half et).

Well, Ella, I guess Ill have to stop now as I aint got no more time. Ill tell you about the bells next week. They aint a bit like our fire bell.

Your derest friend,
Sally Ann Hopkins.

P. X. You uns must be sure and wright me every weak like we promised.

WORK BEGINS ON CAMPUS.

Hurrah! Oue campus is beginning to look respectable once more. The Commerce paper recently commented on the resemblance our grounds bear to a devastated graveyard; hence they will rejoice with us in the improvements which are taking place.

The contract has been made for the grading and smoothing of our long-neglected ground this fall. Measures will be taken to prevent the soil from washing away during heavy rains.

In the spring, trees and bushes will be set out, grass will be sown, and attempts will be made to restore our campus to its former beauty.

The statue of Lincoln which graced the campus before the general "mussing up" of Dodge Street and vicinity will remain at Lincoln School where it was taken.

THE Bank of safety and terest in young people.

First National Bank of Omaha

A certain vivacious young lady of 235 admits that she ran after a certain teacher who has attained the loftiest heights. Tut tut—and he a married man at that! Ain't you shocked?

We wonder why a certain Student Control member was hanging on the arm of a dashing young man energetically the other day in the hall. She claims that she was only doing her duty. Let's all join the S. C. girls.

We understand that Coach Schmidt has given up football as too rough and has taken to picking up erasers about the building.

Mrs. Davies was sick the Wednesday after Open House. We wonder how much of the evening she spent in the library.

We wonder what made Bobby Ingalls feel so queer when the conductor on the train from Sioux City dragged him from his cozy little hiding place.

It is rumored that Don Meyers is saving his pennies and packing his grip in order to move to Sioux City at the earliest possible date. We aren't certain but we have a strong suspicion that one of the fair sex of that city has caught his eye.

It is rumored that Miss Shackle is considering the purchase of a sky-blue hat.

On the visiting teachers' day there was a teacher in Room 139 second-hour who sat with her eyes shut all the time. Must have a homely bunch in there, we'd say!

Commerce News

Clarence Eastman, a Commerce student, is serving as a reserve air mail pilot. So far he has made seven trips in the mail service between Cheyenne and Omaha.

During the war, Clarence held the commission of a lieutenant in the aviation corps. Immediately after his discharge he returned to Commerce in order to resume his studies, but he did not give up his interests in aviation. He attended the recent aero congress, and last week he gave his history class a very interesting talk on the stunt flying and the work of the congress.

An assembly was held at Commerce, Monday morning, November 14, for the purpose of stimulating interest in the Hi-Y. All the boys in the school were present.

Commerce has already commenced printing their fall quarterly.

The question for the inter-club debate, one of the biggest events of the year at Commerce, has been chosen. It is "Resolved that the labor problem can best be adjusted on the basis of the 'Open Shop.'"

The debate will take place about January 10. The clubs entered in the contest are the Senate, the Ecremmoc (Commerce spelled backwards) and the Webster, whose orators won the cup last year.

THE CAMPUS.

The campus round our school looks bad,
The graders made it so,
It's sticky clay makes us so sad,
The water made it so.

The gentle slopes are streaked with lines,
The rains have made them so,
For treading grass, we get no fines,
The grass don't seem to grow.

Great jagged stones lie here and there,
The reason, we don't know.
They should be where they look so fair,
The workmen let them go.

Big mounds of dirt around us lie,
Some day it all must go.
We'll give it to any passer-by,
We do not want it. No!

A rock pile is about our drive;
We all do hate it so
That if our cars would break it up,
We'd surely let them go.

The rocks and bricks may bruise our tires;
We have to let it go.
Some day we'll have our heart's desires,
We'll let the whole world know.

We'll have some grass upon the clay,
I'm sure that it will grow.
We'll clear the rocks from out our way,
Young speeders then can go.

Our cars must then keep on the drive,
To let the green grass grow,
Our visitors may then arrive,
We'll lead them to and fro.

We'll show them all our pretty grass,
Our grass will pretty grow,
We'll show them all our trees of ash,
The kind we used to show.

We'll lead them up our pretty walks,
Our walks as white as snow.
That lead to where we wear out chalk,
Expressing things we know.

We'll lead them up our handsome stairs,
So dignified and low.
Where boys and girls have walked in pairs,
From days of long ago.

When this is done, we'll say with pride,
'I'm glad I won an O,
That school and I grew side by side,
In days of long ago.'

Tourist: "Are there any good distant views around here?"

Native: "Fair. On clear nights we can see as far as the moon and on clear days we can see the way to the sun."
—Exchange.

HOUSEHOLD ARTS

This year the girls of the cooking department have a cozy dining room in which to eat their concoctions. The household arts seven girls placed their new equipment, including drapes, curtains, a rug, and two tables according to floor plans. The manual training boys made screens for the rooms. The color scheme is rose and green.

Miss McConnell's advanced cooking girls are planning Thanksgiving menus that will live up to all traditions of a good Turkey Day dinner, and that will have no fatal results. Is it possible?

Have you noticed the odor of pumpkin pies pervading the building lately?

The household arts two classes have finished their bungalow aprons and are now beginning their Christmas projects.

A PLAN TO CUT WINTER EXPENSES

RENEW, REPAIR, REMODEL AND CLEAN OLD CLOTHES INSTEAD OF LAYING OUT GOOD CASH
FOR EXPENSIVE NEW GARMENTS.

Dresher's Plan Wins.

The "dread of winter" is always in evidence because of greatly increased expenses, caused by immense coal bills, etc., and also a lot of money paid out for heavy weight clothes for the entire family.

But, it's safe to say that the amount of money usually put into ONE new suit of clothes or dress, would, if applied Dresher's way, pay for the complete rehabilitation of ALL the old clothes of the entire family.

Now what IS "Dresher's Way," did you ask? Well, Dresher's way means taking the old clothes apart, cleaning them, restyling, reshaping, remodeling, recollaring, relining, and in some instances dyeing them, then putting the garments together again in such a deft way that they will appear as brand new clothes when again worn.

Dresher Brothers at 2211-2217 Farnam street have more than a cleaning and dyeing establishment—it amounts to about twenty-five ordinary cleaning and dyeing concerns in scope. Besides, Dresher's specialize in all that goes with clothes wearing, for instance Dresher's make hats, make furs, make clothes at the Dresher the Tailor establishment, 1515 Farnam street, and are in every way inimitably capable of taking care of the clothes of man or woman in an economical manner.

An announcement of this sort cannot tell it all. Better call up Atlantic 0345 and have a friendly conversation with the Dresher office.

South Side folk may have the same service rendered by phoning Market 0050, while out-of-town folk have only to express or parcel post their packages in, Dresher's paying the charges one way.

The Dresher branches in the Burgess-Nash and Brandeis Stores are still maintained for your convenience.
