

17 ENTRANTS GO TO PERU FRIDAY FOR CONTESTS

Typewriting, Penmanship, Shorthand, and Spelling Are Judged

SEEK DISTRICT TITLE

State Championship Awarded to Winner Among District Leaders

This year the District Contest in Typewriting, Shorthand, Spelling and Penmanship will be held on March 28 at Peru, Nebraska. Central is sending seventeen contestants who it is hoped, will "bring home the bacon," and place Central's name among the aspirants for the State Championship Title.

Those who are entered in typewriting are, in the Champion Class, Richard Cole, Edward Albert, Alice Bondesson; in the Junior Class, Mildred Bobbitt, Wilma Bradley, Gordon Harman; in the Novice Class, Phyllis Reiff, Max Rosenblatt, and Art Goldstein. Ernestine Dunaway, Edward Albert, and Frances Whitney are entered for shorthand. The spelling entrants are Olive Williams, Harry Goldman, and Bernice Welch, while Claude Mason, Lennea Sterner, and Irene Reader will represent Central in penmanship.

Former Managers Visit New Cafeteria

W. C. T. U. Women Operate Old Building in What Is Now the Court

Did you ever know that Central's large efficient cafeteria was once run by the Women's Christian Temperance Union in a little old red brick building which stood in what is now the court?

Yet this is what really happened, and so interested were those same W. C. T. U. ladies that several of them visited the cafeteria last Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday and had lunch there. They were attending the W. C. T. U. convention which was held at The First Methodist Church.

Though they came back to a much different place they were greeted by at least one familiar face, that of Mrs. Margaret Cosgrove, who is cook for the cafeteria and serves the meat at the steam table as you daily pass by. Mrs. Cosgrove worked in the cafeteria when it was run by the W. C. T. U. and also afterwards when it was turned over to the Board of Education.

Freshmen! Come to the first meeting of your class tomorrow morning in the high school auditorium. Find the purpose there. Sophomores! Meet in 235 at the same time. Juniors in 325.

CALENDAR

Tuesday, March 25—

Central debates Plattsmouth in Central High School auditorium at 7:45. Film for Chemistry students in the auditorium at 2:45. Eight o'clock and first hour examinations.

Wednesday, March 26—

Volleyball practice in 425 at 2:45. Second and third hour examinations.

Thursday, March 27—

Girls' Student Club cabinet meeting. Fourth and fifth hour examinations.

Friday, March 28—

Junior and Senior Hi Y meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 6:00. Joint meeting of the Engineering Society and the Mathematic Society in the auditorium at 3:00. Sixth and seventh hour examinations.

Monday, March 31—

Meeting for girls' coaches for grade schools in 425 at 3:00.

MISS ELVERA JOHNSON

Miss Elvera Johnson, expression teacher, is in complete charge of the declamatory contest at Central this year. During the coming week she will have the problem of selecting the people who will represent Central in the district contest. Miss Johnson came to Central from Lincoln last September.

COMBINED GIRLS' BAND WILL PLAY

Central-Tech Bands Unite to Perform at School Exhibition

JOIN HUNDRED PIECES

The Central and Tech Girls' Band have been asked by Mr. Beveridge, superintendent of city schools, to perform at the school exhibition which will be held on the eighth floor of the Brandeis stores the week of May 19. Every phase and kind of school work and activity of both grade and high schools will be represented in the exhibition.

The band will be composed of nearly a hundred pieces. The girls expect to wear white uniforms. The Central girls will wear purple ties and the Tech girls, maroon.

"The work is flourishing," said Mrs. Noah, the director, "and I am delighted with the talent and spirit of co-operation which I have found among the girls."

The band expects to give a concert before the close of the school year.

College Education is Contest Prize

All Expenses for Four Years Any School in Country, Firestone Offer

The High School Firestone Scholarship for four years at any university or college in the United States including board, room, tuition, books, and any other fees, will go to the high school student who can write the best seven-hundred word essay on "The Relation of Improved Highways to Home-Life." Contestants should see Miss Stegner at once for the rules governing the contest, as all essays must be in by May 12, 1924.

SPONSORS ENTERTAIN SENIOR HOME ROOM

"Central High School is rated as the best high school in Nebraska, and among the first five in the country," said Mr. E. E. McMillan in his talk to the seniors in senior home room last Friday morning. Miss Towne pleased the students very much in her short extemporaneous speech on the senior class of '24. Mr. Hill, who also gave an extemporaneous talk, proved that "brevity is the source of wit" and sent the dignified students into gales of laughter with his enacting of a three act "tragedy" and his short poem.

NEW EQUIPMENT SOON ASKED OF SCHOOL BOARD

Parent-Teachers' Association Endorses Improvements

FACULTY TELLS NEEDS

Probably Will Receive Two Pianos and More Library Equipment

Central's request for two pianos and more library equipment will be supported by the Parent-Teachers' Association, it was decided at their last meeting, March 15, in Central's auditorium. The meeting was opened with a piano solo by Ruth Slama, a former Central graduate, followed by a vocal solo by Annunciata Garrotto, accompanied by Nancy Catania, at the piano.

Mr. Masters, Mr. McMillan, Mr. Gulgard, Miss Towne, Miss Williams, Miss Dumont, Mrs. Pitts, members of the faculty, put the needs of Central before the association. Dr. Jennie Calfas, member of the Board of Education, spoke.

Central's Many Needs

Mr. McMillan told of the necessity of a larger gymnasium, of how the boys must play in a room which has been used as a class room during the day. All boys do not get physical training because of the lack of sufficient room and equipment. The need of locker rooms is pressing.

The inadequacies of the auditorium were forcibly brought out by Miss Williams, who stressed the need of dressing rooms and a curtain loft.

Promises Pianos

Dr. Calfas stated that the Board of Education would under no circumstances, consider building a gym and auditorium at present, but that she was sure that it would be possible to get the pianos.

Chemistry Classes See Scientific Film

"Beyond the Microscope" Shown in Auditorium Today

"Beyond the Microscope," a scientific film, will be shown in Central's auditorium immediately after school to Dr. Senter's chemistry classes and their friends.

The film shows the decomposition of water into two gases, hydrogen and oxygen, and how the gases burn and assist combustion. It demonstrates the production of water by the explosion of the two gases, and the effect of applying heat. It explains the behavior of the molecules when they freeze and when snowflakes are formed.

SENIOR GLEE CLUB BOYS HOLD ELECTION

An election of this semester's Senior Glee Club officers was held in the auditorium Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Russell Suhr was elected president, Herbert Westerfield, vice-president, and Jack Kerschner, secretary-treasurer.

Lininger Travel Club has Unique Origin

George W. Lininger, Founder of Art Gallery in Omaha, Gives First Travel Club Girls Use of Gallery as Club Rooms

"In appreciation of his services to the club, the girls who formed a Travel Club in the old Omaha High School named the organization, the Lininger Travel Club, after Mr. George Lininger," explained Mr. F. W. Thomas, whose wife is the patron of the club, in speaking of the history of the club Thursday night at his home at 607 South Thirty-eight Avenue. He said that Mrs. Florence Lininger Haller, daughter of Mr. Lininger, now living in Hollywood, California, is quite interested in the club.

"She put the Lininger Art Gallery at the girl's disposal. She would serve refreshments or they would all make candy together, then have their meetings. Such pleasant surroundings of the gallery made ideal club rooms for such an organization."

George W. Lininger, who died in Omaha June 8, 1907, was the founder and owner of what became known as the Lininger Art Gallery which was perhaps the most noted in the west and among the most famous in the country. It was thrown open to the public two times a week usually, and many visitors and Omahans, themselves visited it yearly. He lived in Council Bluffs when he came to the west, but moved to the little village that was then Omaha in 1874. He went into the implement

Second Movie is A Great Success

Marie Uhlig, Virginia Worst and Marjorie Jones Give Fine Program

A splendid picture, "The Custard Cup," coupled with an excellent program made the second movie, shown Friday night in the auditorium a big success. Previous to the showing, Marie Uhlig, Virginia Worst and Marjorie Jones entertained with piano solos, a reading and songs.

A good crowd attended, and thoroughly enjoyed the picture, which was run off smoothly. These shows are fast becoming popular.

Jack Kerschner, at the piano, was at his best. The next show will probably be given April 4.

Winners in School Contest Selected

Four Successful Candidates Enter District Contest April 17

The final declamatory contest to choose the school winners who will represent Central High in the district to be held April 17 at Technical High School, are taking place Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of this week.

Central will be represented in each of the four divisions; drama, comedy, extempore speaking, and oratory. The winners in the district contest will contend for state honors later in April.

BANDS TRY FOR RECOGNITION IN NATIONAL MEET

Preliminary Contest Held in Council Bluffs Auditorium

CORNELL MAN JUDGE

Omaha, Fremont, Sioux City and Council Bluffs Contestants

The winner of the high school band contest which will be held in the city auditorium of Council Bluffs, April 4, will be recognized by the national band contest and will be allowed to go to the national contest. The high schools competing this year are Sioux City, Iowa; Omaha Central, Omaha Tech, Fremont, Nebraska; and Council Bluffs. Council Bluffs is presenting a loving cup to the winner which must be won three times before any school may keep it permanently.

Last year in the triangular contest between Council Bluffs and Central, Council Bluffs was the winner. Lincoln cannot compete this year because of her heavy schedule.

The judge is Pat Conway of Cornell, a noted band leader.

Accelerating Pupils Disapproved—Unwise

Mr. Masters States Such Students Lose Social Life of School

"No, I am not in favor of accelerating students through school," said Principal J. G. Masters last Friday afternoon when asked about an article that appeared in a daily paper, stating that principals "oppose 'too young' pupils in high school."

We are not opposed to pupils coming into high school at an early age because we think they can not carry the work, but because we do not think that they get socially what they should. The younger student is respected in the classroom, but when the students come to choose executives and responsible officials, they naturally choose the older students. We have kept records of the accelerated students and we find that their class work is above the average, but they are not in the activities nor do they enjoy the social privileges that the older student does.

"No, I do not think a pupil who has rushed through grade school does get as much out of high school as he might," said one of the students who had skipped many grades in grammar school. "I think I should have got even more out of my high school life if I had taken more time in the grades."

ENGINEERING SOCIETY SPONSORS SPEAKER

Mr. Charles Steinbaugh, well-known architect, whose son is a student at Central, will give an address, illustrated by slides, on "Styles of Architecture" in the school auditorium Friday, March 28, at 3:00 p. m. He is sponsored by the Engineering Society. The Household Art VIII Classes and the Mathematics Society have been invited to attend.

Working Models Made

A working model of the first telegraph by Merle Wissler, of an early steam engine by Otto Saar, of a radio by Dewar Victor, and of a mail plane by Arnold Cissler, all to illustrate the progress of inventions after the industrial revolution, have been made by these boys who are members of Miss G. Clarke's English VI classes.

Numerous Other Projects

Among numerous other projects that crowd the already over-filled cases is a working model of the French Guillotine made by Margaret Bailey, Dorothy Cooley, and Dorothy Horn. William Ronin is making

GEORGE BEAL IS MADE MANAGER OF SENIOR PLAY

Has Had Experience in Costume Work—Also Expression Department

CHOSEN YESTERDAY

"O-Book" Circulation Manager, on Student Control, Fine Student

George Beal was elected manager of the senior class play by the senior class yesterday morning in senior home room.

Is Experienced Man

George has been in the expression department for two years and is thoroughly acquainted with his new duties. He was costume master for the opera, "The Bohemian Girl," given recently by the Senior Glee Clubs, as well as for the operetta given last year.

Has Made Good Record

Circulation Manager of the "O-Book," a student control member, and at the same time a five "A" student is George's record.

"ART IS A GIFT," SAYS NOTED RUTH DRAPER

Performs at Brandeis Theatre Without Aid of Properties

"Art is a gift," exclaimed Miss Ruth Draper, as she rested in her room at the Hotel Fontenelle, the morning of her arrival in Omaha. "Yes," she continued, as she delightedly ignored her R's, "I never work. It just comes naturally." A little case about the size of a pocketbook, and a large striped woolen shawl lay on the foot of the bed. "Those are all I use in my performances," she said with a smile.

Miss Draper is a wonderful dramatist. She has attended public school only one year, and then when she was only ten. Miss Draper is a daughter of Dr. Draper, the world-famous physician, who died about 20 years ago. She is a grand-daughter of Mr. Dana, who was head of the old "New York Sun."

Miss Draper is a small, slight woman of a dark type, with brown eyes and black hair. She had a box of letters and papers before her; at one side lay an unfinished green tie which she had been knitting.

Miss Draper's performances were given at the Brandeis Theater. They were: "A Scotch Immigrant at Ellis Island;" "A Southern Girl at a Dance;" "At a Children's Party;" "A Quiet Morning in Bed;" "At a French Modiste;" "At the Switchboard;" and "Bought and Sold Culture."

By the average of grades for the first semester, it appears that C is the grade most frequently received. 33.3 per cent of the marks were C's. The next highest average was B, making 32.44 per cent. 14.06 per cent of the grades were D's, and 19.18 per cent received A's.

He: How do you like Shakespeare?
She: Oh, all right, but he seems to use such dreadfully worn out phrases, as "All the world's a stage," and "Alas, poor Yorick."

MARCEL DUPRE, GREAT IMPROVISOR, THINKS THIS COUNTRY "MAGNIFICENT"

"Oh, I think the United States is magnificent!" exclaimed Monsieur Marcel Dupre when interviewed Saturday night by a Weekly Register reporter.

"I have been touring in this country since last September, and I am leaving for my home the first of April. Everywhere have I found the enthusiastic audiences."

Mr. Dupre has a most charming personality. He is a tall, well-built man, whose large, twinkling dark eyes make you his friend at once. His dark hair, which is sprinkled with gray, is worn straight back in modern fashion, though, of course, it is not greased. He wore an immaculate white vest with his perfect fitting evening suit. Mr. Dupre speaks with a French accent which only adds to his charm.

Mr. Dupre is known as the greatest improviser since the time of Bach and Mendelssohn. When he finishes his tour he will have given 110 concerts in the United States since September. He is the organist of Notre Dame in Paris.

CHART ON ANCESTRY PREPARED BY CLASS

Discover Many Startling Facts About Family Immigration

Tracing their family trees through the fourth generation was the assignment of Miss Spaulding's sixth hour modern problems class which meets in room 239.

The class discovered that thirteen members were born of native born parents, four did not have one grandparent coming from European country, and one, Marjorie Moore, did not even have a great-grandparent coming from a European country.

The chart on foreign born in the class showed as follows: Foreign born students, 1; foreign born parents, 8; foreign born grand parents, 38; and foreign born great-grandparents 102. The class represented 22 states, Nebraska having the majority with 14 representatives.

GIRLS ARRANGE MUSIC FOR ROAD SHOW ACT

Elizabeth Paffenrath and Jean Borglum Prepare Own Number

"'Lolita' was originally written for only one piano, but Jean Borglum and I arranged it for two," said Elizabeth Paffenrath, Friday, in speaking of Chaminate's "Spanish Dance," which she and Jean played on two pianos at the Road Show, March 14 and 15.

"As we liked 'Lolita' so well, and as we both already knew it, we chose to play it rather than some other piece, and arranged it as we wanted it," Jean explained.

Elizabeth and Jean are both pupils of August M. Borglum, who is considered one of Omaha's best music teachers.

DR. SMITH LECTURES STUDENT CLUB GIRLS

Dr. Frank G. Smith, who is giving a series of interesting lectures to the Student Club's Bible classes, spoke last Monday on "The World's Greatest Personality in the History of Religious Faith." His subject next Monday will be "The World's Best Story of Religious Faith."

The Freshman Club voted to have the Bible classes instead of their regular meetings and have pledged their good attendance.

She (making conversation): Dad bought a Rubens when we were in Europe last year.

He (interested at last): Really! How charming! What horse power?

QUEER DRESS SEEN IN HALLS—INITIATION

Formal Recognition Given at Home of Ernestine Dunaway

Did you notice a large number of very shy, conservative members of the stronger sex blossoming out with bright blue shirts, brilliant ties, white socks, and hair parted in the middle a la cake-eater style? Did you notice how many girls, whose custom it had been to wear their hair in pretty little ringlets, let it hang like sticks; and the girls who preferred the straight style changed to the frizzled fashion? The Glee Clubs were having initiation into the deep realms of their musical order. A big initiation party was held last Saturday night at the home of Ernestine Dunaway, and now the new song birds may consider themselves officially recognized.

MANY WORKS CROWD INTO PROJECT ROOM

A model of the Parliamentary Mace one half the size of the real one has been made by Donald Nelson. John Goodell, a member of Miss Lane's Elementary Science Class, has made a clay model of a prehistoric animal, the Spon-billed Dinosaur.

Hold Open House

The Project Room is open on Wednesday and Friday afternoons to any students who wish to see these projects. Beulah Singers, chairman of the Student Committee, is in charge of these afternoons to explain the projects and show them to visitors.

CENTRAL STUDENTS SHUT IN "BULL PEN"

Shut in the "bull pen" with a criminal! The door locked and no avenue of escape open to the unlucky intruders. Miss Spaulding and the Central students began wildly to seek a means of escape. Finally their terrified cries were heard and a big policeman came to their rescue.

They were only visiting the city jail where an ambitious reporter staged the tragedy to get a story for his paper.

CENTRAL TEAM HAS EVEN BREAK ON DEBATE TRIP

Defeat Geneva and Lose to Beatrice Each by 2 to 1 Decisions

TAKE NEGATIVE SIDE

Have Many Experiences—Miss Trains, Drive in Heavy Snow

Central won the debate at Geneva, Monday, March 17, by a 2 to 1 decision and lost the one Tuesday to Beatrice by a 2 to 1 count. Central took the negative in both debates on the question: "Resolved, That Immigration Should Be Further Restricted." Central's debaters were Sam Minkin, Gerald Vasak and David Sher. The alternates were David Fellman and Henry DeLong.

Geneva Consistent Winner
The team at Geneva was a hard one to defeat. They have won seven out of eight debates, Lincoln and Beatrice being two of their victims.

The judges were Brown of Crete, state district judge; Hamilton and Corbet, local attorneys.

Beatrice Very Strong Team
"The Beatrice team was stronger than the dope inclined us to believe," said Mr. Chatelain. "Our team was not going right; yet the debate was close. There was a large, enthusiastic crowd at Beatrice and the only alibi I have is that we arrived late and had to start the debate immediately, so the team had no time to rest."

The judges at Beatrice were Professor Bengston, Professor Ayesworth and Professor McNeil, all of the University of Nebraska.

Various Experiences on Trip
According to Mr. Chatelain, the trip was very interesting and exciting. They missed trains all around, had to ride ten miles in the snow in a flivver, and fought against time. Mr. Chatelain also said that the trip was profitable from the standpoint of gaining the kind of experience Central needs when meeting Tech and Lincoln.

John Waterman, June Senior, is the only contestant to be entered from Central in the Chemical Essay Contest.

Sketching Club

The Sketching Club is a new Society which is sponsored by the Greenwich Villagers. Anyone interested in art may belong.

The club will meet after spring vacation. The members will picnic in places where the scenery is beautiful and interesting, and sketch with charcoal, pencil, crayons, or anything else portable. All interested are urged to join, as they will derive a great deal of benefit and pleasure from the excursions.

Mathematics Club

The Mathematics Club, after a brief meeting in room 129 Friday, March 21, met at the Rhinehart-Marsden Studio and had their picture taken for the O-Book.

Student Club

A recognition candle service for the new Student Club girls was held last Thursday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. club rooms. The ceremony, always beautiful and impressive to the old members, was equally so to the new members who saw it for the first time.

The service initiates the girls into the Student Club and the ideals of the club which every girl strives to attain.

Lininger Travel Club

An interesting program was given at the last meeting of the Lininger Travel Club held Wednesday, March 19, in room 235. The Program Committee appointed for the next meeting was Ruth Romstedt, Helen Smith, and Florence Mulfinger.

Initiation of new members of the club was held Saturday, March 22, at the home of Betty Morphew.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y members who have not had a chance to hear Mr. Lewis, chairman of the railroad commission in the State of Iowa, will have that opportunity at the last meeting of the year next Friday night.

Last Friday night, after Dr. Frank G. Smith had delivered one of his famous messages, the newly elected officers for the coming year were installed by Mr. Masters.

School will open Tuesday morning, September 2, next fall, as announced by Superintendent Beveridge.

ROAD SHOW PROCEEDS SUPPORT MANY FUNDS

Now that the Road Show performance are all over, Mr. Gulgard and his assistants are busy counting up the proceeds. The proceeds from the Saturday matinee will be given to the school fund, 75 per cent of those from the other performances to the cadet camp fund; and the other 25 per cent to the athletic fund.

PURPLE TANKERS WILL ATTEMPT TO KEEP CITY SWIMMING TITLE

CENTRAL NOW HAS MAN FOR PLUNGE

The crack swimming teams of the four Omaha High Schools will each attempt to capture the city swimming title, which is now held by Central, Thursday evening of this week, in the annual event at the Technical natatorium.

The largest crowd that has ever attended a tank meet in Omaha is expected to be present at this affair. The Purple splashers are in top-notch form, and only a miracle should prevent them from clinching the city title, which they have held for so many years. A new plunger, Mooney, has appeared who will attempt to capture the distance plunge at this meet. This has been the Purple team's weak spot for a long time. Bill Thomas, Richard Hayden, Bartlette Quigley, Larkin, Kelley, Ciesler, Cullop, Mockler, Ramsey, will likely be the other Purple tanksters.

Eight events are on the program. They are as follows:
50-yard free style.
100-yard free style.
220-yards free style.
100-yard backstroke.
220-yard breaststroke.
Plunge for distance.
Fancy diving.
200-yard relay.

SNOW DOES NOT STOP PRACTICE

"Snow may come and snow may go, but track practice goes on forever." This seems to be Coach Schmidt's motto, as he has been putting his track prospects through their paces the past week even though the snow continues to cover the ground.

The north gym has been the scene of battle for the past week were many aching legs and bodies have been working out every day to get in condition for the coming season. After the calisthenics in the gym, the men have been put through a few of their paces in the third floor hall. This hall is equal to a good 220-yard course and after circling it several times, a man soon finds out whether he is in condition or not.

Conditioning work has been the program the past week with calisthenics and taking a few laps of the hall with the knees lifted high. Four laps at an easy jog with a good sprint at the end cap the day's work. Starting and form will likely be taken up this week.

Central expects to enter a team in the cross-country run to be held between the different high schools of the city this spring. Some good material is being developed and Central should cop the honors in this meet.

WHITE VOLLEY GIRLS AGAIN BEAT PURPLES

The White volleyball team defeated the Purples 21 to 17, in both games played in room 425, last Wednesday after school. There will be one more practice game next Wednesday, and then the final game will be played April 2.

GYM GIRLS TO COACH

The gym girls will coach the grade school for the city baseball tournament to occur sometime in May. They will also coach for track, it was announced at the special meeting of the Gym Club in room 425 last Tuesday evening. The regular Gym Club meetings will be used to learn the art of coaching.

There is to be a city meet for all the grade schools in May, and because of the lack of physical directors in the grades, the gym girls are helping out. Girls are assigned to each school; some schools need as many as four girls.

"WE HOPE TO PUT CENTRAL ON MAP"

Central's hopes for tennis championship look good with twenty-five men turning out for the first call held in Room 120 last Tuesday night. Albert Finkel, school champ for three years, presided at the meeting, while Mr. Barnhill acted as the sponsor. "Nebraska is behind the other states in high school tennis," said Finkel. "We hope to put Central on the map in tennis as well as in football. Make tennis a major sport," was his plea.

Mr. Barnhill gave the contestants some hopes of making the letter in tennis if they show the athletic board that they can get some real competition in the games from other schools. Even if letters are not awarded, a gold cup from the National Lawn Tennis Association will be given the winners of the city tournament.

An elimination meet will be held as soon as the weather permits to determine who will represent Central in the city and tri-state meets, which will be held sometime in the spring. If the public courts are not available for play, the Field Club will be used.

SPORTORIAL

It seems that we just get all our enthusiasm worked up to the highest pitch for something, when we find that rooting for that is passe and something else has bobbed up to claim our attention. Our idol, football, was just "going good" when he was pushed into oblivion by the next one to claim our favor—basketball, and now basketball himself has spent his allotted time in the limelight and is fast fading into the background as his opponents in the field, Track and Baseball, wrestle to gain our support in their cause. It is a sure sign of spring and changing preferences when the fickle young "sport fan" discards the numerous pictures and relics of gridiron and basket-tossing heroes for new reminders of the Olympic track team and Babe Ruth. The watchful teacher is now likely to find the literary tastes of her inattentive pupil changed from "Rules in Football" to "How to Become a Baseball Player," by Barney Burch.

But, after all, during its span of popularity, each one has its loyal supporters in the grandstand; so that in the end we must admit that we like each sport best while it's here. Then let's remember the old ones and welcome the new by getting out our old pep, dusting it off and beginning to exercise our power to boost the ones who represent us—the team.

SENIOR GIRLS WIN SCHOOL TOURNEY; JUNIORS IN FINAL

Seniors Victors of Postponed Tournament Played Off Last Week

The seniors won the girls basketball tourney by a decisive score of 22 to 10 in the game played in room 425 last Wednesday evening.

The Juniors put the Sophs out of the running Monday by defeating them 38 to 10. The Seniors played a hard game and made the Juniors step. The game was very fast and well fought.

Seniors Turn Tables on 'Pep' Five But Are Almost Shutout by Missouri Valley

The seniors were defeated by the fast Missouri Valley team Saturday night in a one sided game by a 33 to 3 score. Missouri Valley has the honor of having defeated the Sioux City high five earlier in the season.

Too much competition was given the seniors and they met a real team in the game. They do not expect to schedule any more games with out of town teams that they know nothing about.

Reuben Krogh, senior center, saved the Omaha lads from a complete shutout by making a long field goal, and Wellman was able to count for the other point with a free throw.

The seniors took revenge on the Prep team of the First Congregational church last Tuesday afternoon when they defeated them by a 27 to 22 count. A third game will

TRACK MEN WHO RUN BY THESE TEN RULES SURE TO GET THERE

- 1—Train diligently three times a day, eating much sweet stuff.
- 2—Attend a dance the night before a coming meet.
- 3—Never go to bed before midnight.
- 4—Eat a plate of ice cream a few minutes before running your event in the meet.
- 5—Go to the field with a bar of candy in your hand.
- 6—To be a star never start training when the other men do, but wait a few weeks before starting to train.
- 7—Use your own judgment, that's what you have a head for. Never take the advice of the coach.
- 8—Never run around the field, but take an easy walk, or a short out, paying more attention to the spectators than to yourself.
- 9—Never eat grape nuts without pouring hot water on them. "There's a reason."
- 10—Always have your best girl in the stands as this gives you added strength to win.

FIVE MATCHES ON GOLF SCHEDULE

Forty men reported for golf last Tuesday night in room 129 as a result of a call by Mr. Nelson, who is to be the sponsor of this sport. Golf will soon be a major activity if the fellows turn out in future years as they did this year.

Five matches, besides a school tournament, have been scheduled. Fremont and Lincoln will be the outside matches. Tech, South and Creighton will be the other opponents. The six men who play the best game on one course will be the choices for members of Central's team.

Among the old faces seen at the meeting were Egan, Johnston, Pollard, and Mallard. Many new men presented promises for real success. Central should have a winning team with these men showing an interest in the game.

"What was the cause of Harrison's death?"
"He was in ill health and died to prove it."

VICTORIA KUNCL, PRESIDENT GIRLS' A. A., MOST ACTIVE GIRL ATHLETE

"VIC" KUNCL

PLAYED ON TWO CHAMP TEAMS

Intense and varied are the athletic activities of Victoria Kuncel '24, president of the girls' Athletic Association. She has been on the basketball team three years, being a member of the senior team which won the tournament this year. Baseball is another of her activities. She has played two years and intends to play again this year. She helped her hockey team win the championship the last two years. She was in the tennis tournament last spring, and will participate this year. Needless to say, she has won her "O" in athletics.

Vic's interests are not confined to athletics, however. She is a member of the Student Club, and is on the O-Book staff. She took part in the pageant "The Enchanted Year," which was presented by the high schools last fall.

It has been said of Vic that she plays like a boy. The same fearlessness, aggressiveness and ability to do her stuff that characterize the good boy athlete are hers.

Spring is surely here, for baseball is replacing basketball and volleyball in the girls' activities. Practice for the girls begins April 14 and 16, the week after spring vacation, in room 425, when the teams will be organized.

SIX LETTER MEN AT BASEBALL MEETING

Central's 1924 baseball season formally opened last night at the meeting of all basket ball aspirants of the school. A large turnout came as a result of Zip Hill's call.

Speeches by letter men, the issuing of baseball material, and the signing of the persons present were part of the program.

Practice will begin immediately and if the weather does not permit outdoor training, there will be practice of various sorts in the gym. Much time has been lost in getting started, but it will be made up and Central will no doubt be all tuned up for their first game.

A very successful season is looked forward to since there are six letter men back and a wide range of reserve material of last year. Some new aspirants also are expected to come out for practice.
