

OMAHA SCHOOLS EXHIBIT WORK AT BRANDEIS

Central's Display Shown on Seventh and Eighth Floors

RADIOGRAMS SENT OUT

Student Demonstrators Are A Feature of the Exhibits

Staid Latin, dashing Spanish maidens, clicking typewriters, sentimental artists, and a fascinating pageant are woven into the exhibition of Omaha schools on the seventh and eighth floor, of the Brandeis Stores this week.

Pageant Held in Grill Room

The pageant to be held today at 4:30 in the Grill Room is directed by Miss F. Smith and Miss L. M. Williams, assisted by Mrs. Elsie Howe Swanson and Miss Constance Platt.

Live Animals on Exhibit

The library, Latin, French, and Spanish departments are all represented. The biology department headed by Miss Stringer has on display a collection of living plants representing everything from the algae to the highest flowering plants.

Little shoes from China are at the exhibit and are compared with modern shoes. Students demonstrating the microscope and its uses are seen daily at the exhibition.

Ivory 20,000 Years Old

An entire square is given over to the mathematics department. Figures in metal, wood, and ivory are some of the features. Some minute ivory models, on exhibit, were made by Charles Hawes '24.

Projects on Display

The project display is three-fold, the medieval period of history, the Elizabethan period of English literature, and the modern period combining projects from both history and English departments.

FATHER OF CENTRAL TEACHER DIED MAY 16

Mr. Andrew Kiewit, 63, who is the father of Miss Elizabeth Kiewit, well-liked Central history teacher, passed away Thursday, May 16, at 3 a. m. Mr. Kiewit was a resident of Omaha for forty years.

CLUB PRESIDENT

MADELINE MILLER

Student Club Elects Officers

New President Is Well Known in School Circles

Madeline Miller was elected president of next year's Student Club at an enthusiastic meeting held last Thursday at the Y. W. C. A. The other new Student Club heads are Vivian Wrenn, vice-president; Wilma McFarland, secretary; Olga Plouzek, treasurer; and Ruth Manning, junior representative.

President Well-Known

The new president has been active in Student Club affairs since her freshman year. At present she is well-known in school activities, being a member of the Junior Honor Society and the Girls' Band, and secretary of Speakers' Bureau. Madeline is recognized as a good mixer and a cheerful worker for Central.

Activities Represented

Vivian Wrenn is also a faithful supporter of the club, and is especially active in girls' athletics. During her three years at Central she has been a member of various baseball, basketball, hockey, and tennis teams. Wilma McFarland, the new secretary, has gained prominence through her work on this year's Student Club cabinet. She also belongs to the Junior Honor Society, and is a member of French Club, the Movie ticket staff, and the O-Book ticket staff.

Gamma chapter of the honor society seems to be well represented by the new officers, as both Olga Plouzek and Ruth Manning are members. Besides possessing this distinction, Olga is on the Register staff, O-Book staff, Central Committee, Senior Glee Club, and Mathematics Society; and Ruth is on the O-Book staff and the Central Committee is sergeant-at-Arms of Speakers' Bureau.

Good Year Expexted

With such capable officers at the helm, Student Club is expected to steer through a year of extraordinary success. A banquet for the old and new cabinets and an all-Student Club party are to welcome the officers-elect on Saturday, May 24.

LATIN PLAY WILL BE GIVEN FRIDAY, MAY 23

A Latin play, in which every member of the cast is a Freshman, with the exception of one Senior, who rightly takes the part of a teacher! Such is the arrangement in the Latin play, "Ludus," meaning "The School," which will be presented Friday, May 23, at 3:15 p. m., in room 215. This production is given for all Latin students, and admission is free. The cast is as follows:

SENIOR REYNA NOT TO RETURN IN FALL

Senor Reyna, Spanish teacher in Central, will not return next year. He intends to go to Columbia University, New York, where he will work on his masters. However, he hopes to return to Central some time in the future.

SENIOR PLAY IS GREAT SUCCESS

"The Man From Home" Has Cast of Prominent Seniors

Bursts of laughter and prolonged applause marked the keen appreciation of the audiences which witnessed "The Man From Home," given by the senior class of 1924 under the direction of Miss Lena May Williams. It is indeed fortunate for those who were unable to attend the Friday or Saturday performances that an extra presentation will be given tomorrow night in the high school auditorium.

Individuals Show Up Well

Each member of the cast shared honors in making the play a success. The dancers, musicians, waiters, the beautifully gowned young women with their handsome escorts, who made the prologue so lovely, as well as the individual leads, all helped to make the play one which will be long remembered.

Russell Suhr, as Daniel Voorhees Pike, was the typical Indiana lawyer. His clever, witty speeches, which were always delivered with the most sober face, and his keen understanding of his part, showed Russell's ability to act. Dorothy Rutherford, as Ethel Granger-Simpson, the American heiress, charmed her audience every moment that she was on the stage. Her winning ways made everyone love her from the very first, despite the fact that she did not seem to like the favorite, Mr. Pike.

Other Leads Are Prominent

McGrew Harris was a most impressive Grand Duke Vasilivitch. One felt from the moment he stepped on stage that he was a man of real nobility. Vinton Lawson again displayed his ability as an actor in his portrayal of the scheming Earl of Hawcastle. Dorothy Reuben, as Countess De Champigny, the French-

Journalism I Edits Weekly Register

Next Fall's Staff Makes Good Showing on First Trial

The active Weekly Register staff has resigned every duty for this week's edition to the Journalism I students, who have been fortunate in having no difficulty in obtaining plenty of news; in fact, it has been said that a six-page paper would have been easy to fill. Skillful planning of time was required; for instance, the Girls' Sport Editor found she had to cover two baseball games at the same time.

Positions Filled

STUDENT CLUB CAMP COUNCILORS, CAPTAINS, AND LIEUTENANTS CHOSEN

Excited and expectant, every girl who is going to the Student Club camp from June 4 to 10, is counting the days until her life as a true camper begins. At a meeting in room 235 on Monday, May 12, at 3 p. m. drawings for companies took place. The councilors were introduced, and circulars containing the camp program were distributed. After the general meeting, each company held a meeting in the sponsor's room to plan stunts, costumes, and other things which help to make camp week a time never to be forgotten.

Every company will have its faculty councilor, a captain and two lieutenants, who are as follows: "A," councilor, Miss Bridenbaugh; captain, Julia Gerber; lieutenants, Ruth Stewart and Burrudine Jones. "B," councilor, Miss Carlson; captain, Eudora Jones; lieutenants, Helen Nesladek and Ruth Carr. "C," councilor, Miss Robinson; captain, Margaret

"YOU NEVER KNOW"

"You Never Know!" Better find out what you never know by coming to Central's next movie on Wednesday, May 21, in the auditorium.

"You Never Know" is a story of a detective, Earl Williams, who is trying to stop the smuggling of arms into Central America. He becomes a chauffeur for a wealthy gentleman who is not only connected with this smuggling affair, but has a beautiful daughter.

"You Never Know" will probably be the last movie this year, so everyone should attend.

Extra Performance To Pay School Debts

Activities Bring Honors, But Cash Is Needed

The Seniors will give an extra performance of "The Man From Home," Wednesday evening, May 21, in Central's auditorium to aid in paying some incurred debts.

Central has a tremendous number of activities which bring honor, but furnish no money. Her expenses recently have been: Contest in Lincoln, $160; uniforms for Girls' Band, $133.05; commercial contests, $92.49; radio equipment, $180.75, making a total of $556.29. However, the movies have made $114.50, which leaves the debt only $451.79. The Seniors have generously offered to clear this by the extra performance of their senior play.

Each senior pledged to take two tickets, either to sell or to retain.

COMMITTEE DISCUSSES NEED OF TROPHY CASE

Central's need of a new trophy case was thoroughly discussed at the meeting of the Central Committee on Friday, May 16, at 3 o'clock, in 119. Dan Egbert presided over the meeting. Mr. Schmidt was the principal speaker.

"The Sioux City high school," said Mr. Schmidt, "put in their trophy case the basketball, football or baseball that was used in every game they won. The score is marked on the ball." Mr. Schmidt thinks this a fine idea and would like very much for Central to adopt it.

Mr. Schmidt suggested that trophy cases could be built in the niches at the east entrance.

MASS MEETING HELD FOR MEMORIAL DAY

A big memorial mass meeting for the observance of Memorial Day will be held in the high school auditorium on Tuesday morning, May 27. An interesting and appropriate program has been planned, so all should be sure to attend. Dr. Elmer B. Whitcomb, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will give the principal address. Mrs. Pitts has planned a special musical program for the occasion.

VARIOUS POPULAR STUDENTS CHOSEN BY SENIORS TO REPRESENT CLASS

HI-Y CLUBS WILL SERVE CADET CAMP

Checkers, Chess, Quoits and Movies Will Be the Attractions

Great plans are being made by the HI-Y clubs of Central to serve the cadets during their camp from June 3rd to 13th. The HI-Y clubs have fostered the Clean Camp movement, which is put on each year under the auspices of the Commissioned Officers' club.

A Victrola with a large supply of records is an attraction of the HI-Y tent, and checker and chess games also occupy the time of many of the cadets during off hours. There will be four courts for pitching horse shoes in operation this year. Several large trunks of magazines and college annuals are also taken to camp for the cadets to read.

Movies at Camp

Moving pictures will be put on three nights during camp, and the very best films possible will be shown. An evening of boxing is being planned for one night of camp and some fine matches are being arranged. N. J. Weston, physical director of the Omaha "Y," will spend one evening in camp, and will conduct mass games on the parade ground for the cadets.

Chairman Appointed

Marion Morris has been named chairman of the committee of the HI-Y club in charge of the activities at cadet camp. Mr. E. E. Micklewright, boys work secretary of the Omaha "Y," will be in charge of the HI-Y tent at camp and will be assisted by Walter E. Key and Philip Price.

PLANS FOR CLASS BANQUET COMPLETED

Dr. Frank G. Smith Will Preach Baccalaureate Sermon

The plans for the banquet of the June senior class, which will be held May 29 at the Athletic club at 6:30 p. m., have been completed. Richard Walker has been selected as toastmaster, and special toasts will be offered by Mr. Beveridge and Mr. McMillan. A surprise, concerning which the program committee has been mysteriously silent, will be a feature of the evening. The Class Will and Last Testimony will also be read.

Honored Guests Present

The special guests of honor who will attend the banquet are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beveridge, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Woolery, Miss White and Miss Carlson.

The sponsors of the June seniors who will also be present at the dinner are Miss Towne, Mr. McMillan, Miss J. von Mansfelde, Miss Fisher, Mr. Hill and Miss Carlson.

The members of the senior banquet committee who have had charge of the arrangement of the program, are Miss J. von Mansfelde, chairman; Richard Walker, Irene Van Dahl, Nicholas Amos, and Frances Johnston.

Baccalaureate Minister Chosen

Dr. Frank G. Smith has been chosen by the senior class to deliver the baccalaureate sermon, which will be given Sunday morning, June 8, at the 11 o'clock service of the First Congregational Church.

BIG SISTER MASS MEETING MONDAY

Freshmen girls are assured of being cared for when they enter Central next fall. At the Big Sister mass meeting to be held next Monday morning in the auditorium before school, the names of all freshmen girls will be given out to prospective Big Sisters. All girls of the sophomore, junior or senior classes, whether they are members of the Student Club or not, are invited to attend. The program will consist of music, a surprise stunt, speeches, and a talk by Miss Towne.

Vinton Lawson, Frances Johnston, Nick Amos Each Get 3 Honors

ALL ARE WELL KNOWN

Future Promises Much For the Successful Contestants

Are you popular, pretty, or stunning? Are you an especially good dancer or do you excel in athletics? Then, Underclassmen, you have a chance to be distinguished as such when, as wise seniors, you meet to decide the weighty questions which this year's graduating class has been debating for the past week. After a week of excited conjecture and whispered opinions, the seniors have at last chosen their representatives in various lines of recognition.

The much-desired goal of the best all-round girl and boy was attained by Frances Johnston and Vinton Lawson. These two students are well-known in nearly every line of activity, and are especially well chosen for this honor. Frances was also chosen as the most obliging and the best-natured girl in the class, which shows her popularity. "Vint" came to the front again in being selected for the best athlete and the possessor of the worst line. Dale Lloyd, Central's city commissioner, was elected the best-natured boy in the class.

Many Receive Two Honors

Melba Burke may claim the distinction of being the most popular girl, while "Nick" Amos won that honor for the boys. Pauline Overton walked away with the prize for the prettiest and the most stunning girl. The Adonis of the senior class proved to be Edmund Benson. Those who have done the most for Central are Gladys Reynolds and "Ted" Anderson. The best students are recognized as Helen Panceast and Kenneth Abbott, both well known for their long lists of A's. The cutest girl in the class is Margaret Davison, the symbol of cuteness itself. The peppiest girl and the worst cut-up are "Sunny" Pearsall and "Nick" Amos, who certainly deserve the honor. Those who are the most graceful on the dance floor are Helen Moore and Albert Ernst.

DESERVING CADETS RECEIVE PROMOTION

Promotions in the regiment were made Thursday afternoon during drill. The following cadets were officially promoted because of their marked ability, character and qualities becoming to an officer:

- From 2nd Lieut. Band to 1st Lieut. Band, Sherman Pinto. From Corporal Co. B to Sgt. Co. B, Robert Hartman. From Corporal Co. C to Sgt. Co. C, David Waterman. From Corporal Co. E to Sgt. Co. E, Lester Lapidus. From Corporal Co. E to Sgt. Co. E, Harry Musgrove. From Corporal Co. E to Sgt. Co. E, James McMullen. From Private Co. E to Corporal Co. E, Henri Pederson. From Pvt. Co. E to Corp. Co. E, Austin Ayer. From Pvt. Co. F to Corp. Co. F, Robert Fitch. From Pvt. Co. C to Corp. Co. C, William Byrne. From Pvt. Co. D to Corp. Co. D, Herschal Elarth. From Pvt. Co. D to Corp. Co. D, Jack Stenberg.

SENIORS' CAPS AND GOWNS ARE ORDERED

Caps and gowns for the senior class have been ordered from E. R. Moore and Company, Chicago, Ill. In accordance with the precedent established by the company, both caps and gowns will be gray. The seniors will wear them twice; once at the baccalaureate sermon, which will be given June 8, and once at the graduation exercises on June 13.

GLEE CLUBS GIVE FOURTH ANNUAL SPRING CONCERT

Senior Groups Will Appear Under Direction of Mrs. Pitts

QUARTET WILL ASSIST

The fourth annual spring concert of the Senior Glee clubs, assisted by the Central high school string quartet, under the direction of Mrs. Carol Marhoff Pitts, will be presented at the Central high auditorium Monday evening, May 26, at 8:15 p. m. Over one-half of the eighty members of the Senior Glee clubs are graduating this year. Marie Uhlig is the accompanist.

The program follows:

PART I.

1. String Quartet. Beth Leidy, cello; Jessie Stirling, violin; Helen Williams, second violin; Louise Schnauber, first violin.
2. "June Rhapsody".....Daniels Senior Girls' Glee Club
3. Tenor Solo—"All for You".....Martin Jack Kerschner
4. (a) "March of the Western Men".....Protheroe (b) "Croon, Croon, Underneath the Moon".....Senior Boys' Glee Club
5. Violin Solo—"Andante".....Louise Schnauber

PART II.

1. "Is There Anybody Here Like Weeping Mary?".....Dett Senior Glee Clubs
 2. (a) "On the Road to Manadady".....Kenneth Sealey and Boys' Senior Glee Clubs (b) "Spooks".....Ira Wilson Senior Boys' Glee Club
 3. (a) "Deep River".....Air by C. Hare (b) "Frog Went A-Courting".....Howard Brockway Senior Girls' Glee Club
 4. Soprano Solo—"April Estacy".....Oley Speaks Annunziata Garrotto
 5. "The Miller's Wooing".....E. Fanning Senior Glee Clubs
- Tickets may be secured from the glee club members, Mrs. Pitts or Mrs. Swanson.

SENIOR POPULARITY CONTEST COMPLETED

These two seniors are noticeably proficient in doing the light fantastic, as their friends will testify.

Variety of Votes

The votes were widely scattered in variety, as the difference in subjects for choice will show. The titles of best girl athlete and best dresser went to Victoria Kunel and Irene Van Dahl, respectively. "Vic" is one of Central's best known boosters in girls' athletics. She has captained several girls' teams during her four years at Central. Irene, whose attractive appearance has gained many friends for her, is noted as being always appropriately and modishly dressed. The best dresser among the boys is Gilbert Swanson, who is always groomed in the height of fashion.

Those gifted along artistic lines deservedly received recognition from their class. Dorothy Rutherford, the dainty heroine of the senior play, was voted the best actress, while Beth Paffenrath was overwhelmingly chosen as the best musician. The coming geniuses in art are Morris Okun and Julia Gerber, according to their classmates, and the two best poets are Eudora Jones and Clyde Pope. These six young artists all use their talents for the benefit of the school, and are also connected with various other school activities.

Ethel Barrymore Avoids Interview

It required two reporters, one ex-circus acrobat, and two Union Station red caps to get an interview from Ethel Barrymore last Friday afternoon. The interview would have been much more effective had Miss Barrymore been willing to give it. She does not give interviews. She said so. Moreover she does not like interviews nor read them. She said that also.

Miss Barrymore's manager, Mr. William Frank, when questioned at the Fontenelle hotel, stated emphatically that the actress did not give interviews. However, as it was known that she was remaining in her private car at the Union Station, the scene shifted immediately to that depot. To gain audience with Miss Barrymore, aid was solicited of Mr. J. W. Adams, superintendent. When it was found that the star was away and would have to be waited for, Mr. Adams graciously volunteered a recital of his own experiences as a former circus acrobat and song and dance man. His story will be reserved for another issue of the Register.

and unflinching way with the men have accorded her the position of the worst flirt, while Paul Baker is acclaimed the worst male flirt by being chosen for the worst fusser. The sheik of this year's graduating class proves to be Jack Kerschner, he with the coal black hair and the flashing Spanish eyes.

Bluffing ability is demonstrated by Dick Walker—surely he couldn't have gained his A's through that talent—and the worst line is acceded to Peggy Rix, who has a word for every occasion. The boy with the most initiative is acknowledged to be George Beal, the capable manager of the senior play, and that most difficult of all names to acquire, the most original, was conferred on Grace Adams and Verne Sandwall.

And last, but not least, the prize rattle goes to "Nick" Amos, acclaimed the class joy. From this list of attributes it would seem that the class of '24 is accomplished in every line, and that its members most certainly ought to make a name for themselves in their future life.

Nielsen, and Reginald Sires. The sponsors are the teachers' committee composed of Miss G. Clark, chairman, and the Misses H. Clarke and D. Davis.

Radiograms Sent Out

Radiograms will be taken in and sent anywhere by the transmitting station 9SB, portable license. A program which will be broadcast from the studio, will be picked up and sent out by these sets. Typists, representing the type class, are at the studio to demonstrate typing. Ornamental type designs, the setting of different styles of type and the folding of letters are features of this department which shares a booth with penmanship and bookkeeping.

Blotters made by the penmanship class are being given out every day. The composite set of letters was made by the following students in Writing I: Goldie Bachman, A, S, W, Q, and Y; Helen De Vore, C, G, L, and Q; Bessie Sheldon, E, I, O, and T; Leone Ketterer, B, and R; Hazel Tatman, H, and K; Anita Crabb, M, N, and U; Zoe Lemon, D; Caroline Levi, F; Jean Cote, J; Priscilla Smock, P; Arthur Dreesen, V, and George Van Buskirk, X.

Miss Barrymore finally walked into the station. Tall, graceful, and moving with that beautiful carriage so famous today, she attracted instant attention. She was perfectly dressed in a simple black satin gown and a black hat, which emphasized her patrician beauty. Miss Barrymore is gracious and charming to meet, and her lovely, slow voice is a delight to listen to.

"I am sorry," was her reply to the reporter's questions, "but I make it an inflexible rule to avoid all interviews. I would like to say something interesting to the students of Central High, but I dread to make an exception to my rule. There are so many high schools and so many high school papers that if I consent to one interview I would have to consent to them all. Besides, I have nothing unusual to say."

When she had gracefully excused herself, Mr. Adams, who was greatly disappointed at Miss Barrymore's failure to talk at length, promised the reporters a splendid interview with his favorite actress when she comes to Omaha.

ART TEACHER PLANS FOR EUROPEAN TOUR

Dean of Cleveland School Heads Party of Art Enthusiasts

An art tour of Europe, headed by Henry Turner Bailey, dean of Art of the Cleveland Art School, is the summer trip planned by Miss Ruth Tompsett, art teacher at Central. The party, which will be composed of some sixty art teachers and students from over the country, intends to sail June 28 on the Suffron, and will visit France, Italy, Switzerland, Holland, England and Belgium.

Acting as leaders with Mr. Bailey will be Pedro Lemos of Leland Stanford University, California; Arthur Guptill, of Pratt Institute, New York City, and Albert E. Bailey, professor of Religious Art in Boston University.

Miss Tompsett plans to visit places of interest in New York and Chicago before going abroad.

SEVENTEEN CADETS ENGINEERS FOR CAMP

Making his selection from over 100 applications, "Zip" Hill has announced the seventeen cadets who will go to Valley, May 30, under his direction as Engineers to lay the foundations for the 1924 cadet encampment.

PUBLIC CONCERT OF ORCHESTRA IS FIRST EVER GIVEN

Entire Program Under the Direction of Orchestra Members

WOERNER IS DIRECTOR

The Senior orchestra, under the direction of Walter Woerner, held its first free public concert in the Central high school auditorium last night at 8 o'clock.

This concert, which was the first of its kind ever held at Central, was entirely under the direction of the members of the orchestra. "If possible, we hope to make this an annual affair," said Mr. Cox, the teacher-director of the group. Walter Woerner is president of the Senior Orchestra, which has a membership of thirty-one.

The program was as follows: "Lustspiel," by Keler Bela; "Symposia," by Bendix; "Heart's Longing," by Zamecnik; "Clown's Dance," by Zamecnik; "Remembrance," by Doppen; "Flirtation," by Cross; "Arabian Romance," by Mildenberg; "Mexican Habanero," by Roberts; march by Sousa (selected). Solos were added to the program.

JOURNALISM I FOR NEXT FALL CHOSEN

The list of students who will enter Journalism I next fall has been completed. They are John Byron, Arnold Cisler, Margaret Dailey, David Fellman, Bertha Flesher, Kathryn Freitag, Dorothy M. Johnson, Stanfield Johnson, Anna Jonisch, Mary Alice Kirtley, Carmen Lewis, Louise McCargar, Evelyn Mansfield, Lloyd Marquis, Catherine Mills, Ida Pascal, Leona Pollack, Mary Alice Race, Lois Reichenberg, Delmar Saxton, Deane Starret, David Waterman, and Annalee Yates.

The new Journalism I class will assume the duties of the Register staff in the spring of 1925.

The luncheon to be held in honor of Mr. McMillan was postponed on account of the illness of Mrs. McMillan's father.

"I guess I'll take a day off," said the stenographer, as she snatched a sheet off the calendar.

woman, rolled her "R's" and eyes most delightfully, and in the third act handled some dramatic scenes very well.

Ralph Church as Ivanoff, the Russian fugitive, carried his heavy, dramatic part well, as is shown in the fact that he had the sympathy of his audience at all times. Ralph Barris, who took the part of Ribiere, secretary to the Grand Duke, also was very good.

Comedy Element Scores Hit

John Rosensweig, as the foppish Honorable Almeric St. Aubyn, and Edward Albert, as the maitre d'hotel, died for honors in keeping up the lighter atmosphere of the play, as was shown by the applause and laughter which never failed to greet these two. Those who saw "The Man From Home," will always remember Almeric, his easy-going ways, his delightful manner of speaking, his monologue, and his swagger. Nor will they forget the nervous, excitable maitre d'hotel, Mariano's expressive eyes, hands, and voice.

Hawthorne Arey, who took the part of Horace Granger-Simpson, was the typical American youth who has been educated in Europe. Virginia Worst, as the haughty, partially deaf Lady Creech, has made the favorite lines, "Don't mumble your words," of the honorable lady famous in Central through her never-to-be-forgotten use of them in the play.

Other Minor Characters

Warren Dunham as Michele, Ted Wells, as the valet, and Robert Whipperman, Paul Anderson and Sam Gluffrida carried their parts off well. The people in the first and second street scenes also contributed much in making the play a success.

Tickets for tomorrow night's performance may be had from any member of the senior class. No one can afford to miss this third performance of the senior play of '24. The proceeds of tomorrow's performance will be the senior class gift to the school.

CENTRAL COPS MOST FIRSTS, SECONDS IN MEDIC RELAY MEET

Fetterman, Thomas, Marrow, Jones, Set Record for 440 Relay

TWO CUPS TO CENTRAL

Central carried off the lion's share of the honors at the second annual Medic Relay meet held last Saturday at the Medic Field. These meets were started last year and were such a success that they are held every year one week after the state high school meet and are open to all high schools in the United States.

Central got two firsts, four seconds, two thirds and two cups out of the four that were given. Lincoln took second place with two firsts, four seconds, one third and failed to carry off any cups. Hastings and Fremont each carried off one of the remaining cups.

In the 440 individual dash, J. Fetterman was nosed out of first honors by Pierce, of Abraham Lincoln, of Council Bluffs, and in the relay Central's team, composed of Thomas, Marrow, and Jones, broke the record set last year at the meet.

In the mile run Egan took second place, being closely beat by Hollenbeck of Fremont, while Waidlich of Tech took third honors.

The honors for the 120-yard high hurdles were captured by Fleming of Lincoln, second and third places being filled by Marrow and Curtin, Lincoln, respectively.

In the Medley relay Central had to be content with third place and watched Hastings and Tech take respective honors. The Medley relay was captured by Fremont, with Central sitting in fourth place.

Thomas took third honors in the shot put and first place in discus throw.

The broad jump was the only event in which Central took two places, first by Marrow, and third going to Muxen, leaving second to Peterson of Lincoln.

Marrow would have been high point winner for Central if points were given, but as this meet is meant to be to high schools what the Drake meet is to colleges, medals were given to the winners in the different events and no school was announced as winner. Marrow won one first honor and two second honors.

440-Yard Dash (individual)—First, Pierce, Abraham Lincoln, Council Bluffs; second, Fetterman, Central; third, Tice, Thomas Jefferson, Council Bluffs. Time—56 4-5 seconds.

440-Yard Relay—First, Central; second, Lincoln; third, Fremont. Time—48 2-5 seconds.

120-Yard High Hurdles—First, Fleming, Lincoln; second, Marrow, Central; third, Curtin, Lincoln. Time—17 4-5 seconds.

Medley Relay—First, Hastings; second, Tech; third, Central. Time—5 min., 17 seconds.

Special Medic Mile Relay—First, Fremont; second, Hastings; third, Tech. Time—3 min., 33 seconds.

Pole Vault—First, Mynster, Tech; second, Cummings, Thomas Jefferson, Council Bluffs; third, Townsend, South High. Height—10 feet, 3 inches.

Shot Put—First, Wedburg, South High; second, Dursh, Lincoln; third, Thomas, Central. Distance—43 feet, one-half inch.

High Jump—First, Fleming, Lincoln; second, Marrow, Central; third, Lewis and Gutscher of Tech tied. Height—5 ft., 5 1/2 inches.

Discus—First, Thomas, Central; second, Fleming, Lincoln; third, Wedburg, South High. Distance—112 ft., 4 inches.

Broad Jump—First, Marrow, Central; second, Peterson, Lincoln; third, Muxen, Central. Distance—20 ft., 4 inches.

Central Wins In 1 to 0 Battle

Coach "Zip" Hill's fighting Central baseball machine took picks on Coach Drennan's best pitcher in the seventh inning recently and defeated the Creighton "Hilltoppers" in one of the most exciting contests played at Thirty-second and Dewey avenue. The score was 1 to 0.

By virtue of their victory and Tech's defeat of Council Bluffs, the Centralites went into second place in the high school ratings and now stand a mighty good chance of going further up the percentage column at the expense of the Techsters.

"Moco" Leahy turned the Purple back in good order in the first two innings, but in the third Glade struck out. Tollander boosted his batting average when he socked the old "pill" out to the left field line for a two-bagger. Horacek got a life on an error and Jorgenson received a free pass from Leahy. With the sacks loaded, Central supporters saw visions of a score. The rally was nipped short, when Morris popped to the pitcher and De Long skied out to Moylan in deep center.

"Heinie" Glade, stellar Central moundsman, was master of the situation throughout the entire contest. Glade seemed to have whales of stuff on the "apple," for twelve Creightonites broke their backs swinging at Heinie's dazzling curves and outshoots. Glade allowed one scratch bingle during the whole game.

The game see-sawed back and forth until the fatal seventh. Glade retired the Creighton side in good order in the seventh. In the Purple's last chance at bat, Reynolds opened the half of the inning by whiffing the wind. Indications pointed toward an extra encounter to ascertain the winner of the game. With one gone, Chadwell doubled to left and later scored when Bleicher lined out a Texas leaguer over second, thus giving Central a well-earned victory.

CHURCH DEFEATED IN SEMI-FINALS

John Calvert, York, Neb. defeated Ralph Church, diminutive Omaha Central tennis player, in one of the most exciting singles matches ever staged at the University of Nebraska courts. Church's defeat Saturday by the York man eliminated the Purple from the state honors.

Two Creighton tennis stars, Deising and Buckley, won the Nebraska high school double championship over Calvert and Smith of York, 6-4, 6-4.

Sig North, Lincoln champion, fell before the back hand drives of Deising, 7-5, 4-6, 9-7. The finals in the singles event will be played off some time in July, according to Gregg McBride, referee of the tennis meet.

GIRLS' DIAMOND TEAMS CHOSEN; PLAY THIS WEEK

Central's feminine sluggers will battle for the diamond title Wednesday and Thursday of this week in a tournament to be held in the two gyms. Teams were chosen at try-outs held last Wednesday afternoon in 415 and 425.

On Wednesday, the freshmen and sophomores, who play in 415, will be refereed by Miss Bennett. The senior-junior game will be in charge of Miss Platt. The winner of these two contests will clash on Thursday in 425.

The contest promises to be hard fought, especially by the ninth graders, who are fresh from grade schools, and by the seniors, who are at the peak of their high school athletic careers. Ruth Stark, Dorothy Jones, and Helen Hubley brighten hopes for the peppy freshman aggregation. The sophomores are leaning on Frances Lindee, Fern McGinty and Helen Hain. The juniors, a united bunch, have no stars except Lois Reichenberg, their hurler. The graduating contestants are well-chosen and should show the underclassmen some fancy twirling and hitting.

GOLF TOURNAMENT AT SEMI-FINALS

Only two matches remain to be played off in the Central golf tournament, which is being held to find the champion of the school and to select a team to represent Central in matches with other schools.

Pollard beat R. Johnson, 3 up and 2 to go, while Cowdery beat Mailand 2 up on 18. This matches Pollard and Cowdery, and the winner of this match will play Reed, who won from C. Chadwell 1 up on 19 in the semi-finals.

The team, which will probably be four men, will play Lincoln here next Friday. Before this time they will have met the team from South composed of John Goodman, champion of South; Edward Curran, Walter Haven, and either George Kreeger or Douglas Seymore.

O'S, R'S GIVEN AT MASS MEETING

A mass meeting to present O's and R's to the basketball men, to boost the city track meet, and to arouse pep for the Tech-Central baseball game, will be held in the auditorium next Thursday morning before school.

At this assembly eight boys who have played during twenty-four quarters on Central's team will receive their O's, and six boys who were on the squad, but did not get to play the required number of quarters, will receive R's. The men who will receive O's are: Vinton Lawson, Philip Gerelick, Frank Horacek, Wallace Marrow, "Manny" Robertson, Ralph Church, Jesse Fetterman and Porter Forcade. The R men are: "Jerry" Cheek, Harry Tollander, Weldon Solomon, David Bleicher, Joe Drozda, and "Bill" Egan.

The date for the city track meet has not been decided definitely, but it will be either Friday or Saturday of this week. The Tech-Central contest in baseball will be one of the most interesting of the season. Tech is first in the high school standings and has defeated Central, but as Central's team has improved considerably, this contest promises to be one of the most interesting.

CITY MEET FRIDAY SHOULD BE ANOTHER CENTRAL VICTORY

Purple Nine Meets South Hi Tonight

Coach Patton's fighting South Side Packers will endeavor to stop the Central clan's march up the baseball ladder when they meet this afternoon for the second time this year at Thirty-second and Dewey, at 4:00.

Reeves will probably start on the mound for South, with Urban doing the receiving.

"Zip" Hill will probably start Glade and Bleicher. Horacek, Reynolds, Jorgansen and Tollander will make up the infield, while Morris, De Long and Chadwell will be the fly chasers.

FIRST ROUND OVER IN GIRLS' NET TOURNAY

With Letha Gant, last year's tennis champion, not entered, tennis fans are a bit puzzled concerning the feminine racketeer who will win out in the girls' tournament, the first round of which is just completed. Eloise Musselman, last year's runner-up, seems to be the favorite, but Eudora Jones and Margaret Duncan are distinguishing themselves by playing real tennis.

Some games were forfeited because of heavy school activities, while the rain discouraged others. To the lucky girls who become champion and runner-up, small sterling silver racquet pins with O H S and 1924 across the strings will be awarded. The first round weeded out a few beginners and girls only slightly interested; so the remaining games should reveal some accomplished clay court performers.

JONES, SOLOMON, RECEIVE NUMERALS

Two more boys from Central have been awarded dark blue numerals by the University of Nebraska for their ability in track.

Wilber Jones, one of Central's star century dash men, and Weldon Solomon, dusky sprinter, were the two boys to receive their full numerals. Both boys had received their half numerals earlier in the year.

Tech Strong on Pole Vault— South Shot Put and Place in Discus

ALL SCHOOLS COMPETE

The annual city track meet will be held next Friday if the present plans of the coaches of the city materialize. All high schools of the city will enter and contend for the city championship.

It is rumored at the Tech stronghold that they expect to capture the pole vault, mile run and high jump, but judging from the outcome of the Medic meet, Tech should only get first in one of these events—the pole vault. Egan and Marrow should take care that they do not pull down first honors in the other two events.

South should be able to take the shot put and place in the discus.

GIRLS TO UMPIRE AND KEEP GAME SCORES

Nineteen Central girls are now real umpires, scorekeepers, and base umpires. Those girls who have coached girls' diamond ball in the grades were assigned these positions by Miss Catherine Carrick, assistant physical supervisor, at the city hall Saturday morning, after they had been instructed concerning rules and regulations.

Three persons are assigned to manage each game of the girls' league, the opening games of which were played yesterday. Miss Carrick explained in detail all the rules, and a general discussion fixed all fine points in the minds of the future diamond officials. Nineteen of the twenty-nine girls present were from Central.
