EDUCATION FOR VICTORY

Central's first line of offense — education! In compliance with accelerated high school and college education, Central's curriculum has been altered to include courses directly aligned with the war effort.

Pre-flight, emphasizing the fundamentals of flying, is designed primarily for America's future pilots. The introductory course combines the study of flying and actual motions of a plane. Students completing the primary course receive advanced instruction of ground training, including aero-dynamics, aviation, meteorology, and civil air regulations.

In accordance with war work throughout the country, all seniors are required to take a health or physical fitness course. ROTC and gym fulfill physical requirements for boys, while first aid, home nursing, and gym are offered to girls.

Code typing was organized at Central to teach students the Morse code, thus enabling them to fill positions in the communication system of the armed forces. Another course is aircraft assembly, taught by an instructor from the Fort Crook bomber plant. It is offered to girls planning to work at the bomber plant after graduation.

Completion of high school education is a vital prerequisite for entering the service. Consequently, graduation requirements have been lowered from thirty-two to thirty credits, enabling Central High school youth to take an active part in their country's service.

JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

Leadership and scholarship! War necessitates great leaders; great leaders necessitate good scholars.

During war, with men in the armed forces giving their lives to preserve our freedom, Central High school is strongly emphasizing and encouraging these qualities of leadership and scholarship, for it is the high school student of today who will build the world of tomorrow.

In 1923 the Junior Honor society was founded by Joseph G. Masters, former Central principal. Its purpose is to encourage and develop qualities of scholarship and leadership in high school students.

Each spring, Central's principal chooses a special faculty committee which meets with him to determine those underclassmen who deserve special recognition. The basis of selection is scholarship, leadership, character, service, and initiative. Membership is composed of three chapters: Epsilon for freshman, Delta for sophomores, and Gamma for juniors.

A faculty committee under Miss Martina Swenson selected the members of the Junior Honor society this year. Active membership in the society ceases at the end of one year, but graduates who have belonged to the Junior Honor society are considered honorary members.

Announcement of the selection was made in the Central High school auditorium in the spring. Miss Josephine Frisbie, Mrs. Irene Jensen, and Miss Ruth Pilling, counselors, announced the members. Mrs. Bessie Rathbun, committee member, delivered the charge.

DEMOCRACY AT WORK

The Student Council, Central's mainstay of democratic student government, has been active in both community service and student organization since 1939. With the express purpose in mind of facilitating friendly relations between the student body and the faculty through active student participation in school affairs, the members of the council have concentrated their efforts on the promotion of such events.

In addition to administrating school affairs, the Council has promoted the war effort by sponsoring the scrap drive, aiding the ration board, and promoting the Red Cross and Community Chest drives. Other activities include organizing the homeroom representatives, acting host at the open house, forming teachers' helpers and ushers bureaus, checking student activities, and presenting the annual girls' party.

Present members of the Student Council were elected by their respective classes in a school-wide election. They choose their own officers: first semester, Dick O'Brien, president; Erwin Witkin, vice president; Helen Gearhart, secretary; Dan Peters, treasurer; second semester, Erwin Witkin, president; Dan Peters, vice president; Donna Deffenbaugh, secretary; Barbara Bryne, treasurer.

The Student Council is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Irene Jensen, F. Y. Knapple, and Principal Fred Hill.

SHAKESPEARE'S CHILDREN

Once a Thespian, always a Thespian. When a student becomes a member of this nation-wide dramatic club, chartered at Central in 1931, he is considered a Thespian throughout his college days and for the rest of his life.

Qualifications for membership are a lead or two minor parts in a three-act play, or a lead in six one-act plays. Members are initiated in a formal, traditional ceremony and receive a membership certificate. They are then entitled to subscribe to the National Thespian magazine.

Under the direction of Miss Myrna Vance Jones, club sponsor, the National Thespians presented a one-act play, "The Pot Boiler," in this year's Road Show. Assistant director was Lenke Isacson; student director, Irene Cherniss.

In former years, Thespians have submitted a play to the National Thespian conference. This year, and for the duration, this activity is discontinued. The club program this year included producing plays for war service organizations. Thespian president is Lenke Isacson.

STAGE CREW

"Something new has been added" has become a familiar phrase in reference to the work of the stage crew. Under the direction of Mr. Frank Rice, crew members have played a major part in making this year's student productions a success.

Opera and Road Show sets were highly commended for their beauty and uniqueness, as were those of the fall play, senior play, and spring music festival. In the Road Show set a disappearing microphone, one of two of its type in Omaha, was built by head electrician, Robert Beck. It was necessary to cut through six inches of cement floor to build it.

Besides building and assembling sets for student performances and mass meetings, the crew arranged scenery for a benefit AWVS production and Tuesday Musical presentations. Crew members were also in charge of constructing replacements in stage equipment.

Stage crew was formerly an extra-curricular activity but, because of its service to the school, was added to Central's curriculum. The class is taught seventh and eighth hours by Frank Rice, and students receive one-half credit for an hour of instruction.

DEBATE

Under the leadership of Coach Lloyd R. Richards, the debate team completed another successful year by winning the National Forensic League Sweepstakes tourney for 1943.

The Benson Invitational tourney was also won by Central; Erwin Witkin and Sylvan Siegler went to the semi-finals of the Missouri-Valley Boys' tournament; and Lee Bernstein and Irvin Gendler were eliminated in the quarter-finals of the Missouri Valley free-for-all.

Stan Perlmeter, Erwin Witkin, Colin Schack, Joan Crossman, Rosemerry Eastlack, and Coach Richards went to the Wesleyan Invitational tournament. Stan won the extemporaneous contest there.

Individual honors in the National Forensic League meet went to Erwin Witkin, Irvin Gendler, Colin Schack, and Stan Perlmeter for placing first in debate. Norman Thomas won first in memorized oratory; Joan Crossman received second in dramatic declamation; Rosemerry Eastlack won second in humorous declamation; Stan Perlmeter placed second in extemporaneous speaking; and Lee Ferer placed third in original oratory.

Letters were awarded to Robert Cohn, Joan Crossman, Rosemerry Eastlack, Lee Ferer, Irvin Gendler, David Glickfield, Mary Gray, Thomas Landale, Stan Perlmeter, Betty Pool, Norman Thomas, Erwin Witkin, Colin Schack, Sylvan Siegler, Lee Bernstein, and Jerry Rosen.

RED CROSS

Central's Junior Red Cross chapter is coordinator of many war activities undertaken by students. Art, homemaking, and manual training departments, as well as many clubs, worked with Red Cross members in their war projects.

One fifth of the $104 collected in the November membership drive was sent to the National Red Cross headquarters in Washington, D. C. The remaining money has been used for war projects of the local high school chapter.

Art classes made Thanksgiving tray covers and Christmas menu covers for men in the armed forces, aboard ships and in hospitals. Writing boards and other articles were constructed in manual training classes. Homemaking classes knitted women's and men's bed jackets and sewing cushion covers.

Colleen courtesy committee compiled scrapbooks for wounded men; the big sister committee made stipes; tea and social committees collected wool scraps for afghans. Girl Reserves assisted in collecting puzzles for soldiers, while the French club knitted afghan squares.

Officers are Colin Schack, president; Marion Keller, vice president; Helen Gearhart, secretary; and Sheila Pradell, treasurer. Sponsors are Miss Josephine Frisbie, Miss Virginia L. Pratt, and H. O. Peterson.

Committee heads are Lenke Isacson, speakers' bureau; Marilyn Henderson, poster committee; Betty Caldwell, journal committee; Gertrude Rosenblatt, big sister committee; and Bill Okeson, work shop.

LININGER TRAVEL CLUB

As in World War I, Lininger Travel club went "all out" for victory. World War II found its members launching the largest war stamp and bond sales campaign in Central's history. In homeroom, before and after school and during lunch periods, Central "ten per centers" purchased over $19,000 worth of stamps and bonds during the past school year.

Lininger members also made sandwiches for the Union Station canteen, rolled bandages for the Red Cross, collected salvage, compiled cartoon scrapbooks for soldiers, knitted, and conducted a nutrition class.

Lininger, the oldest club at Central, was organized in 1903. Monthly meetings were devoted to the study of foreign countries. Among the speakers addressing the club this year were Mrs. Baker, who was in Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, and Lt. Jack Wickstrom of the U. S. marine corps, a former Central student.

A tea is held each fall for new members, and in the spring officers are installed in a candle-light ceremony. This year's officers are Barbara Byrne, president; Rae Dickinson, vice president; Mary Mallory, secretary; and Helen Gearhart, treasurer.

Club sponsors are Miss Mary Parker, Miss Bess Bozell, Miss May Mahoney, Miss Francis McChesney, Miss Ruth Pilling, Mrs. Bessie Rathbun, Mrs. Marguerite Rosemont, and Miss Martina Swenson.

COLLEENS

Working enthusiastically for army relief, USO, Red Cross, and Family Welfare association, Colleens have done much to further Central's war effort. They were behind Uncle Sam 100 per cent, every girls working during both semesters to help win the war.

The work has been divided and apportioned to various committees which meet once a week to work on their projects. They have compiled scrap books for army hospitals, collected books and magazines for the USO, furnished cakes, candy, and sandwiches for canteens, made afghans, utility bags and stupe-wringers for the Red Cross. Their annual Thanksgiving contribution to Family Welfare was made up of an assortment of canned goods.

Any girl may become a member of Colleens, organized in the fall of 1925 at the suggestion of Miss Jessie Towne. Meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month, and average membership is 250 girls.

This year's officers are Dorothy Cowger ,president; Shirley Sims, vice president; Betty Kirk, secretary; Barbara Driscoll, treasurer; Rosemerry Eastlack and Dorothy Mayhall, sergeants at arms.

Club sponsors are Miss Nell Bridenbaugh, Miss Irma Costello, Miss Lucille Crapenhoff, Miss Grace Fawthrop, Miss Elizabeth Kiewit, Miss Virgene McBride, Miss Ruth Pilling, Miss Florence Power, and Miss Virginia Lee Pratt.

THE EAGLES GATHER

Three major sports and three minor records was Central's sports diet during the fall and winter of '42, but when spring came, the athletes' fancy turned to winning ways. An unfortunate characteristic of the football, basketball, and wrestling teams was, as an acute observer sagely remarked, "Losing." Practically no one derided, and practically no one saw the successful track, baseball, golf, and tennis aggregations.

A green gridiron squad got off to a good start with a 7-0 triumph over Benson, but five setbacks followed before it again came out on top, upsetting North, 6-0. For both victories, the reason why — Potts and Fry.

After a rocky road most of the way, the basketeers downed Tech and A. L. in their last two games to finish fourth in the Intercity league with four wins and six defeats. Johnny Hiffernan and Fred Forrest kept the cagers going. A 50-50 showing in Intercity matches plus second place and five individual champions in the state tournament was the wrestlers' contribution. Ken Leibee won seven and lost one bout to lead the muscle men.

April arrived, and with it more promising teams. No individual stars, but all-around balance made the track squad the strongest in the city. The diamond presented its best crew in four years, thanks to hurlers Sam Distefano and Walt Podrouzek. Juniors took over in golf and tennis, Dick Klopp and Tom Shea following the fairway while Jim Harris was making it tough for opposing netmen.

FRENCH CLUB SCRAP DRIVE

"A good skunk deserves junk!" was the slogan of Central High scrappers in their crusade to salvage 100 pounds of scrap metal per person in the nation-wide drive, October 5-16. Assisting the Student Council in managing the drive, French club members donned jeans and flannel shirts and collected 75 tons of scrap, ranging from old stove pipes to a German helmet of the last war.

Scrapers secured trucks and collected salvage throughout the city. They were in charge of the scrap pile on the athletic field, sorting and stacking it. Club members also sent several donations to Free French Relief, and knitted afghans for the Red Cross.

French movies were shown at the Joslyn memorial, the most outstanding being "Mayerling" starring Charles Boyer and Danielle Darrieux. Movies had formerly been shown at the Muse theater, but attendance was not affected when they were changed to the Joslyn.

First semester officers were Bill Kizer, president; Mary Jean Loucks, vice president; Lee Hoppe, secretary; Barbara Byrne, treasurer; George Carr and Barbara Driscoll, sergeants at arms. Second semester officers are Robert Spier, president; Barbara Driscoll, vice president; Carolyn Covert, secretary; Mary Mallory, treasurer; Janis Baliman and Dan Sylvester, sergeants at arms.

PAN-AMERICAN CLUB

Organized in the fall of 1943, the Pan-American club, only school organization of its kind in Omaha, was designed to maintain and encourage Pan-Americanism. The club is interdepartmental.

By studying the culture of Latin-American countries and becoming familiar with their economic and social problems, this club is making a contribution toward developing a more perfect understanding between the two Americas. This necessity for cooperation and understanding will be accentuated in post-war reconstruction.

Pan-American week was launched at Central with an all-school assembly presented by the club. Exhibits of Latin-American art, literature, music, and handcraft were displayed, as well as various posters contributed by the art committee.

Throughout the year movies of various Central and South American countries were presented. Monthly meetings included accounts of these countries given by persons who had traveled in and were acquainted with Latin-America.

War activities also played an important part in the club's program. It cooperated with the Red Cross, and volunteered aid in making sandwiches for the USO canteen and service kits for the armed forces.

Officers are Colin Schack, president; Jean Bernstein, vice president; Penelope Anderson, secretary; Steve Plank, treasurer; Betty Jean Pool and Fred Barson, sergeants at arms. Club sponsors are Miss Delizia Rindone and Mr. Harold Peterson.

ROTC

The mission of the ROTC is to awaken in the student an appreciation of the obligations of citizenship, to help prepare him to fulfill his duties as a citizen, and to qualify him as a leader in peace or in war.

Central's ROTC regiment was inaugurated in the fall of 1937 to replace the cadet regiment organized in 1893. In the spring of 1941 a battalion was formed. Central's unit has won honor ratings for the past four years.

The battalion, commanded by a lieutenant colonel, is composed of four companies and a band. Freshmen are separated into a special battalion of three companies commanded by a major.

Most important of the activities during the school year is competition among companies. The outstanding company is chosen on the basis of points gained in inspections, battalion parades, proficiency in drill, and other general ratings.

Highlights of the year are the military ball at which the higher ranking officers are promoted; federal inspection, which determines the honor rating; and the final parade of the year at which the flag company, best platoon, and best squad are chosen and promotions for the coming year are announced.

A new feature of Omaha high school ROTC units is an all-city regiment commanded by a colonel chosen from the lieutenant colonels of the four high schools. Leading the battalions, the colonel was announced in Creighton stadium in May.

QUEEN FOR A NIGHT! » » » Joan Huntzinger pauses for a moment in her march to the throne to pose with ladies-in-waiting Donna Deffenbaugh and Billie Wilson.

CRYSTAL BALL

Over eight hundred Central High school girls looked into their Crystal Ball on the night of April 2 and saw Joan Huntzinger crowned Miss Central IX. Carrying a bouquet of calla lillies and wearing the traditional purple robe, Joan was preceded to the throne by the ladies-in-waiting, Donna Deffenbaugh and Billie Wilson.

The annual all-girls' party was presented by the Student Council girls and Miss Josephine Frisbie, Mrs. Irene Jensen, Miss Ruth Pilling, and Miss Elizabeth Kiewit, girls' counselors.

The queen and her ladies-in-waiting were elected on the night of the ball from nine princesses previously chosen in a school wide election. Seniors marching as princesses were Barbara Byrne, Helen Gearhart, Lenke Isacson, Reeda Magzamin, Mary Mallory, and Joan McCague. Also participating in the coronation were 24 senior duchesses, 12 class officers, ten Student Council girls, and six freshman girls acting as pages.

Before the ceremony the girls enjoyed an evening of fun and dancing, and prizes of war stamps were awarded for the cleverest costumes. A grand march and floor show concluded the program before the coronation.

In previous years Miss Jessie Towne, former dean of girls, crowned Miss Central, but this year Mrs. Fred Hill presided at the ceremonies. Former queens have been Betty Nolan, Margaret Sheehan, Virginia Lee Pratt, Francis Morris, Betty Marie Wait, Jean Burke, Mary Jo Evans, and Marilyn Hughes.
