Class of 1915

WHEN JOVE, the cloud-gatherer, bespake him thus: "Who art thou who troublest me ere my Ingersoll registers the hour of nine?"

And Odysseus, of the many wiles, answered him, saying, "I am Odysseus of Capitol Hill, far-famed on the streets of Dodge and Twentieth. But hold! Let me tell thee of my wanderings."

And Jove, nothing wroth, settled drowsily into the costly cushions, saying, "Get thee down to brass tacks, Odysseus, and discourse upon thy wanderings and adventures upon this much-famed hill."

And Odysseus, of the many wiles, related thus of his wanderings: "A great wind bore me unto a hill surmounted by a large gray building with a red roof, unto which, near the hour of noon, a large crowd of youths and maidens made their way. For lo, they were Freshmen and were compelled to attend the great institution in the afternoon. They were the great and noble class of 1915.

Then cloud-gathering Jove made him answer, saying, "Odysseus, what thou tellest me I believe, but what of the institution which thou sawest?"

And Odysseus, of the many wiles, answered him, saying, "Verily, thou dost not understand me, for when I speak of the class of '15 I speak of the institution and all it means. And such it was that this class was composed of men like Larmon and Flothow—men after Apollo's own heart—and Edwards, whose cards were filled with A's; and Wilbur, the pride of valiant Mars; and Perley, whose boundless cloquence did make the very boards of the floor to rise.

"And the basketball team did play so well that many a foe was put to rout, even as foes on the foot ball field, who faced such fierce onslaughts that their whole backfield were carried unto the hospital.

"And with the girls—the number securing A's is legion, and Harriett Sherman did become the first girl editor of the Register for many moons."

"Alas," sighed Jove in the sadness of his soul, "would that some of them were here. Yon Athena, and Venus, and Diana, can think of nothing but the maxixe and the fox-trot; while yon foppish Apollo and Poseidon do disturb my rest with their awkward attempts. Would I could consign them to the realm of Hades.

"But thy discourse interesteth me," said Jove, "and I am loth to have thee go. Tarry with me a year or so and tell me more of this most famous class."

And Odysseus, of the many travels, cranking his tin lizzie, made answer, "Yea, Jove, I fain would stay, but I must spend some time watching the future of that famous band."

Abrams, June L.

An authority on movies. No relation to "Run-away June." And because she picked a Ford, doesn't make her a relative of Mary Pickford.

Adams, Margaret.

A winsome miss, and shy. A sweet-natured friend.

Alexander, Helen Elizabeth.

Hiking Club (1), Browning (2), Racquet Club (4). She is gracious to all each day.

Allan, J. Porter—"Port."

Class President (3), News Editor Register (4), Student Council (3), W. D. S. (1-2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (1), Secretary-Treasurer (2), Vice President (3), Boosters' Club (2), Sergeant-at-Arms (2), Glee Club (4), Librarian (4), Advertising Manager (4), Manager Junior Burlesque (3), Vaudeville (4), Senior Dramatics.

Heavens! A man in the Latin Society! "Her eyes sparkle like diamonds; her lips are like rubies; her teeth like pearls"—etc.

Allen, Alice L.

Lowell Society (2-3-4), Vice President (3-4), Reporter (4), Latin Society (3-4), President (4), Racquet Club (1-2-3), Hiking Club (3-4), Sam Ron (4), Girls' Gardening Club (4), Secretary (4), Eligible Commencement Comp., Gym Club (4).

"O, don't you remember Sweet Alice—
Sweet Alice, whose eyes were so brown,
They see down into the hearts of folks;
Her smile dispels any frown."

Allen, Lanore.

Art Society (3-4), Browning (1-2-3-4), Art Editor (2-3).

"My word! Class, some class!"

Alpersen, Edward—"Ed."

Latin Society (1-2), German Society (3), Basket Ball (1), First Lieutenant Co. G.

He has carefully studied "Every Woman" and so he is well informed on the subject.

Anderson, Carl.

One of his teachers says that he works when he gets a failure notice. What's the use any other time!

Anderson, Clare R.

W. D. S., A. D. S., Company Medal, Senior Dramatics.

"All things come to him who waits—if he waits long enough!" Cheer up, Clare!
Clare's favorite song is "Oh, Marie."

Anderson, Lillian.

Lining Travel Club (2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (3), Treasurer (4), Girls' Basket Ball (2), Racquet Club (2-3-4), Girls' Tennis Champion (3).

Lillian is not one-sided. She is not only a good athlete, but also a good student and musician.

Anderson, Nellie.

Hawthorne Society (3-4).

You can take it from us that Nellie's O. K. She is thorough at work and jolly at play.

Austin, Eleanor.

Margaret Fuller Society (1-2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (2), President (4), Senior Dramatics.

A pleasant word and a cheerful smile she shares with everyone alike.

Bailey, Louise.

Browning Society (2-3-4), Vice President (3-4), Racquet Club (1-2), Eligible Commencement Comp.

If you want help, go to Louise. You'll surely get it there.

Baltzly, Olive.

Lowell Society (2-3-4), President (4), Student Council (4), Eligible Commencement Comp.

Barnhart, Marguerite—"Peggy."

L. T. C.

"Peg o' My Heart." It's a shame he doesn't live in Omaha.

Bastin, Louis.

"If I only had one more freckle —I could call it sunburn."

Beats, Dewey.

A pleasant chap and one deserving a good show in the wide world.

Becker, Bess.

Browning Society (1-2), Frances Willard (4).

Benedict, Ralph P.—"Bic."

Captain Co. A, Glee Club (3-4), Advertising Manager (4), Class Track (1-2), Track Manager (4), Class Basket Ball (1-2-4), Senior Council, Chairman Reception Committee (4), Vaudeville (4), Senior Dramatics.

At last! After many years of athletic attempts. He's "fish" for the faculty and always obliging.

Bertsch, Elizabeth D.

Browning Society (2-3-4), Editor of the Oracle (4), Latin Society (2-3-4), Racquet Club (1-2-3-4), Eligible Commencement Comp.

Elizabeth possesses all those qualities which mark her as a true friend. Always loyal, kind and thoughtful.

Bloom, Marie.

P. A. S. (1-2-3-4), President (4), Racquet Club (1-2-3-4), Secretary Treasurer (4).

Daintiness and gentleness personified. Her writing, her dress, her voice and her actions all proclaim it.

Blotcky, Anne.

Anne and her machine are inseparable. She giggles incessantly.

Blotcky, Paul.

"Can't talk a minute—only!"

Braden, Doris.

Racquet Club (2), L. T. C. (3), Gym Club (2-3), Vice President (3), M. F. S. (4).

Were there ever such roses as bloomed on her cheeks?

Bradley, Raymond B.—“Bugs.”

Football (3-4).

He demands both youth and beauty, and if golden curls, soulful eyes and a bit “impishness” go with it—so much the better.

Brisbane, Benjamin P.—“Ben.”

First Lieutenant Co. B, W. D. S. (4).

A conscientious chap—and a booster of candy kitchens.

Braviroff, Leo G.

“Music with unsuspected eloquence can move and manage all mankind with secret art.” Therefore, Leo gets good marks.

Breneman, Emma.

Even if Emma didn’t talk so cute, we would be captivated by her manner.

Brodkey, Sarah.

Her air had a meaning, her movements a grace.

Bryans, Wilson D.

Captain Co. B, W. D. S. (2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (3), Class Basket Ball (1-2-3-4), Class Track (1-2-3-4), Captain (4), Track Team (2-3-4), Junior-Senior Contest (3), Senior Dramatics.

Bryans is very “religious” in his attentions to the fair sex. The prize mit of the school.

Byrne, Frances A.—“Frank.”

German Society (1-2), Hiking Club (2), L. T. C. (3), Girls’ Gardening Club (4), President (4), Junior Burlesque (3), Co-author.

“Many a wicked wink she wunk, and many a smile she smole.”

Claims to have once been the living personification of solemnity, but those of us who have known her only during her Senior year have our doubts.

Campbell, Elmer.

A dancer by occupation, but a good fellow in all respects. We hope you become a Vernon Castle, Elmer.

Campen, William H.—“Bill.”

First Lieutenant Co. F, D. D. S. (2-3-4), Secretary (2), Vice President (3), President (4), Latin Society (2), Glee Club (3-4), Business Manager (4), Eligible Commencement Comp.
 Little Willie, our politician!

Carlyle, Thelma.

Senior Council, Student Council (3), Browning Society (2-3-4), Secretary (3), Treasurer (4), Racquet Club (1-2).
 Quiet—unlike most girls.

Carpenter, Frank.

Believer in shorter hours and less work.

Carr, Irene.

Irene is so quiet you would hardly know she is around. A fine penman.

Cattin, Ruth—“Rufus.”

Browning Society (1-2-3).
 If you ever have to give an essay on “How To Become Popular Among Men,” ask Ruth; she knows.

Chesnut, Eugene.

The boy with the loop that’s alive. He makes Saturn’s rings look sick.

Chesnut, Lee.

Is capable of blowing his own horn—in “Dutch” at least.

Clark, Robert.

Crumbliss, Opal.

Lowell Society (2-3).

Speaking of jewels, she is a rare Opal.

Culver, Mildred.

Racquet Club (1-2), F. W. S. (4).

Unusually quiet and lady-like.

Curtis, Helen.

Elaine Society (1-2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (3), Treasurer (4), Racquet Club (1-2-3), Vice President (3).

One of the dearest girls we know. If you don't know her, you'd better get acquainted.

Davidson, Warren.

"When I did well, I heard it never;
When I did ill, I heard it ever."

Davis, Pauline.

Pauline brought A's from St. Louis and continues to acquire them here.

Detweiler, Helen.

Browning Society (3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (4).

Helen is as pretty and sweet as her picture. Her one desire is that everyone be "Frank."

Dimoch, Dorothy—"Dit."

Browning Society (4), Lam Ron (4), Treasurer (4).

Sweet and merry; a chummy chum of sterling worth. Why the distant gaze? Billy?

Eddy, Quito—"Dolly."

L. T. C. (1-2-3-4), Vice President (3), President (4), Racquet Club (3-4), Reporter (3), President (4), Gym Club (3-4), President (4), Student Council (4), Sergeant-at-Arms, Junior Class (3), Basket Ball (4), Senior Dramatics.

A vivacious "Miss-Quito."

Edwards, Robert Burr—"Bob."

Major Third Bat., Senior Council, Student Council (4), Mandolin Club (2-3), Burlesque, Senior-Junior Contest (3), Chairman Committee on Commencement Announcements, Assistant Business Manager Register (3), Senior Dramatics.

Bob is always there with A's,
And is quite the leader, too;
In journalistic views he's there,
But the girls they say, "Look out!"
Because he's A-I there, too.

Elliott, Corinne.

Margaret Fuller Society (1-2-3-4).

Like a bright and sunny day,
She scatters happiness all the way.

Elmborg, Ruth.

As soon as spring comes 'round the grass gets green,
And as soon as the boys come 'round, Ruth starts arguin'.

Engstrom, E. Fridolph—"Friedie."

Inter-Class Swimming Champ (3), Basket Ball (3-4), All-State Team (4), Track (3-4), Foot Ball (4), First Lieutenant Co. A, Senior-Junior Contest (3), A. D. S. (3), Senior Dramatics.

At times it was difficult to convince "Friedie" that basket ball was not foot ball.

Everson, La Verne.

D. D. S. (3-4).

Eyler, Fred H.—"Ted."

Captain Co. F, Class Sergeant-at-Arms (3), Vice President Student Association (3), Senior-Junior Contest (3), Alumni Editor Register (4), Vaudeville (4), Senior Play Committee (4), Class Track (1), Senior Dramatics.

After himself, Ted can see only about twenty other people in the school.

Flothow, Paul G.—"Bud."

Captain Co. D, Athletic Editor Register (3), Class Track (1-2-4), Student Manager Foot Ball (4), Class Basket Ball (1-2), Captain (2), Basket Ball (2-3-4), All-State Team (4), All-City Team (4), Athletic Board (4), Student Council (4), Senior Council, Senior-Junior Contest (3), Senior Play Committee, Senior Dramatics.

The girls fall down and worship, but he cares not, for he gives his undivided attention to athletics. One of our "stars."

Flynn, Johann.

"She let the rest of us do the talking, but she was a pleasure to us for a' that."

Fradenburg, Kendall.

"Doc' Senter's pride."

Garvin, Lucy.

Elaine Society (1-2-3-4).

"Shy she is, but never cold."

Gant, Mary.

Hails from Missouri. We hope we have been able to "show her" what a good school we have.

Gaveman, Jake.

"I am the master of my fate;
I am the captain of my soul."

Gilmore, Philip L.—"Phil."

Major First Bat., Class Basket Ball, Circulation Manager Register (4), Senior-Junior Contest (3), Senior Dramatics.

"I hold that it becomes no man to nurse despair, Sweet is true love, though given in vain, in vain."

Givens, Lillie.

As quiet and gentle as the Lily-of-the-Valley.

Gould, Edwin—"Brother Ed."

Major Second Bat., Manager Basket Ball (4), Senior Council, Chairman Junior Committee, Senior-Junior Contest (3), Student Council (3), Class Editor Register (1-3), Class Track (1-2-3-4), Captain (2), Class Basket Ball (2-4), Chairman Freshman Ticket Selling Committee (1), Class Swimming (3), Vaudeville (4), Senior Dramatics.

"Aha! A very proper maiden!" Who was your friend in the gallery?

Graham, Ida.

German Society (1-2), Frances Willard Society (2).

Graham, Victor C.—"Vic."

First Lieutenant and Adjutant Second Bat., W. D. S. (2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (2), Secretary (3), Latin Society (2), Latin Dramatics (2), Burlesque, Senior-Junior Contest (3), President Student Association (4).

Vic's heart is "Over the hills to Mary."

Gross, Ruth R.

Basket Ball (2-3-4), Captain (2), Base Ball (1-2-3), Gym Club (2-3), German Society (1-2), Lowell Society (3-4), Hiking Club (1-2).

Ruth likes to study(?), but "Oh, you basket ball!"

Hart, Elizabeth Jane—"Sallie."

Racquet Club (2), Hiking Club (2), Lowell Society (2), German Society (2-3), Sergeant-at-Arms (2), Vice President (3), Browning Society (3), Latin Society (4), Sergeant-at-Arms (4), Writer of Junior Burlesque (3).

A mind so good, a tongue so witty,
Have scarce an equal—more's the pity.

Herman, Louis F.

D. D. S. (1), Foot Ball (3-4), Second Lieutenant Co. G.

No relation to "Herman the Great."

Hixenbaugh, Marie.

Racquet Club (1-2-3), Organization Editor Register (3), Class Vice President (3), Browning Society (1-2-3-4), President (4).

Marie doesn't have to carry her things around; she has a "Porter."

Hoel, Lois M.

Lowell Society (1-2-3-4), L. T. C. (4), Basket Ball (3-4), Racquet Club (2-3-4), Reporter (4), Gym Club (3-4), Hiking Club (2-3), Girls' Base Ball (3).

Popular because she is such a friendly friend.
A smile for everyone.

Hofmann, Margaret— "Snookums," "Peggy."

Browning Society (3-4), Senior Council (4), Vaudeville (4), Senior Dramatics, Eligible Commencement Comp.

"How doth the 'shy little maid' employ each shining hour?"

Holmquist, Carolyn—"Carol," "Carrie."

M. F. S. (2-3-4), Girls' Number Register (3), Senior Dramatics.

To know her is to love her.
"Speak for yourself, John."

Holtz, Helen.

Helen is as much a fixture at the Orpheum as THAT curtain.

Horton, Ogden.

Came all the way from Cheyenne to finish his High School course in our institution.

Howe, Helen Miller.

Elaine Society (1-2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (2), Vice President (3), Racquet Club (2), Class Editor Register (2), Senior Class Editor Register (4).

I was asked to make a write-up for Helen, but I don't know "How(e)."

Hunter, Frank—"Bertram."

Glee Club (2-3-4), Secretary-Treasurer (4), Quartet (2-4), Piano Soloist (4), D. D. S. (4), Vaudeville (4), Senior Dramatics.

"Oh, thou art too mild, too mild; I pray thee, swear."

His voice was ever high and shrill, as no lady's should be.

Hutton, Hope E.

Hawthorne (3-4), President (3), Reporter (4), Vice President (4), Gym Club (3).

None the less mischievous because she's so demure.

Hutton, Ruth Lenore.

Hawthorne Society (1-2-3-4), Secretary-Treasurer (2), Sergeant-at-Arms (3), President (4), Basket Ball (2-3-4), Captain (3), Hiking Club (1-2-3-4), President (3), Secretary-Treasurer (4), Gym Club (3-4), Racquet Club (4), Girls' Gardening Club (4).

Cares may come and cares may go, but Ruth smiles on forever.

Jenkins, Aloha.

Aloha! Indian? Hawaiian?—or just a dreamer of dreams?

Jenkins, John L.

First Lieutenant and Adjutant First Bat., Class Sergeant-at-Arms (4), W. D. S. (2), Sergeant-at-Arms (2), Assistant Circulation Manager Register (4), Junior-Senior Contest (3), Vaudeville (4), Senior Dramatics.

Fond of staying at Home(quist's).

President of the Disturbers' Union.

"We-ell! How we gown 'bout it?"

Jensen, Myrtie.

Assume her virtue, if you have it not.

Johnson, Geraldine L.—"Gerry," "G. J."

Assistant Editor Register (4), Class Secretary (3), Elain Society (2-3-4), Senior Dramatics.

"A little maiden, awfully full of fun,
Wonderfully charming and attractive;
Loads of popularity she has easily won,
'Cause in school and society she's active!"

Johnson, Margaret.

Lowell Society (1-2-3), Girls' Garden Club (4).

"Faithful friends are hard to find." Margaret

Johnson, Ralph S.

Second Lieutenant Co. F, A. D. S. (4).

"The silent partner."

Johnson, Walter C—"Walt."

Captain and Quartermaster Regiment, Manager
Senior Play.

"We point with pride to the results obtained from 'Mellin's Food.'"

An exceedingly likeable and popular fellow.

Johnson, Walter O.—"Walt."

Captain Co. C.

"Walt" is light-haired, but not light-headed.

Jones Verna.

Though Verna is new in our school, she is making fast friendships.

Jerpe, Selma—"Sim."

L. T. C. (2-3-4).

"Smooth runs the water where the brook is deep."

Jorgensen, Olga—"Jorgy."

Pleiades (3), Hawthorne Society (4).
 "Jorgy" talks so incessantly that the echo hasn't even a fair chance.

King, Velma H.

F. W. S. (3-4), Vice President (4).
 One "King" that is never at war. She is such a peaceful little miss.

Kiplinger, Donald—"Don," "Kip."

"He flirts, and flirts, and—so forth!"

Klanck, Raymond J.—"Dutch."

Second Lieutenant Co. H.
 You are now through with school, and so are entitled to Sunday evening calls, other evening calls, day calls, night calls, telephone calls and—rooster calls. At the latter, depart for home.

Klein, Arthur—"Art."

The saying, "He who never makes any enemies, never makes any friends," doesn't apply to "Art."

Klein, J. Herbert—"Jake."

First Lieutenant Co. C, Glee Club (2-3-4), Quartet (4), W. D. S. (2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (4), Burlesque, Senior-Junior Contest (3), Vaudeville (4).
 "Yon Cassius has a lean and hungry look."

Kloke, Ada.

She is quiet, but she gets there in her studies just the same.

Krampert, Frank.

A poet, a Latin student and—so forth.

Krebs, Alma M.—“Am.”

Hiking Club (2), Racquet Club (2), German Society (2), Browning Society (4).

“Tall and dark” is her description;
Let this be a fair inscription—
“Her High School days were full of fun,
And now we’re sorry they are done.”

Kulakofsky, Hannah R.

Hiking Club (2), President (2), Latin Society (2-3-4), Reporter (3), Vice President (4), Latin Dramatics, Racquet Club (2-3-4), Browning Society (2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (3).

Hannah has a hundred A’s;
She’s also good at prompting plays.
Next fall to Berkeley she’ll depart,
And leave behind her little H(e)art.

Kutak, Frank.

First Lieutenant Co. H, Base Ball (3-4).

One hour for study, one for lunch and twenty-two for sleep.

Langdon, Gretchen.

M. F. S. (1-2-3-4), Reporter (3), Secretary (4), Class Editor, Girls’ Number Register (3), News Items Editor Register (4), Senior Council, Class Secretary (4), Vaudeville (4), Eligible Commencement Comp, Senior Dramatics.

“How happy I could be with one were t’other dear charmer away.”

Larmon, Russell—“Cotty.”

Captain and Adjutant Regiment, Class Basket Ball (1-2), Basket Ball (3-4), Captain (4), Assistant Manager Foot Ball (3), Class Editor Register (2), Champ. Tennis Singles (1-2), Champ. Tennis Doubles (2-3-4), Student Council (3-4), Senior Council, Student Member Athletic Board (4), Senior Dramatics.

“God bless the man who first invented sleep.”

Lear, Emily G.

German Society (2-3), Sergeant-at-Arms (2), Browning Society (2-3), L. T. C. (4), Racquet Club (3).

A delicate appreciation of all artistic expression, and no small art of her own.

Ledwich, Evelyn.

M. F. S. (1-2-3-4).

For a friend both tried and true,
May life hold its best for you.

Line, Glee.

“Her mirth the world requires;
She bathes it in smiles of glee.”

Lineburg, Katherine.

Elaine Society (3-4), Art Society (4).
Has nothing to say—but says it.

Lipp, Michael J.

Always on the go—and he's getting there, too!

Lipsey, Lena.

Lowell Society (2-3-4), German Society (1-2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (3), President (4), Gym Club
(4), Senior Dramatics.

"Daughter! Dorothy!" A most beautiful Colonial dame.

Loftman, Helen.

Hiking Club (1), P. A. S. (2-3-4).

Why did she go to Lincoln so often?

Longwell, James C.

W. D. S. (1-2-3), Class Track (3), Senior Council, Second Lieutenant Co. B.

"Laugh, and the world laughs with you."

Lowe, Virginia Marion.

S. T. C. (3-4), Art Society (4), Secretary (4), Co-author Junior Burlesque (3), Medal for Scholarship.

Fulfills the old maxim, "Pretty is as pretty does."

Lyle, Dorothy—"Dot."

Elaine Society (1-2-3-4).

Although most of Dorothy's teachers wish she would impart some of her knowledge, some of the rest of us wonder why she did not keep what she knew to herself.

MacCrone, Alberta—"Berta."

Hiking Club (1), Racquet Club (1-3), Lowell
Society (2-3-4), Artist (3-4), Girls' Glee Club (4).

She can draw so very well,
That Art has made her to excel.

McLean, Verne—"Mack."

Base Ball (3), Manager Base Ball (4).
Scandinavian or Russian—we can't tell by the name.

Marsh, Lura L.

Hiking Club (1), Lowell Society (2), Art Society (3), Frances Willard Society (3-4), Secretary (4), Sergeant-at-Arms (4).
It's to make a good ending and keep a good name!
Lura is thrifty and has a good aim—

McMullen, Hazel.

Art Society (2-3-4), Treasurer (3), President (4), Latin Society (2-3-4), P. A. S. (2-3-4), Secretary (3), Senior Council, Student Council (4), Girls' Number Register (3), Racquet (3-4), Latin Dramatics (4).
"Hers is a spirit deep and crystal clear; Calmly beneath her earnest face it lies."

Meskimen, Ila.

Lowell Society (2-3-4), Secretary-Treasurer (4), Racquet Club (3), Eligible Commencement Comp.
No one but she and heaven knows
Of what she's thinking!
It may be either books or beaux,
Fine scholarship or stylish clothes,
Per cents or prinking.

Miller, Edward—"Ed."

They say all history "sharks" die young. No hopes for you, Ed!

Miller, Lila.

Art Society (3-4), Raquet Club (1), Eligible Commencement Comp.
A quiet exterior covering competency along many lines.

Miller, Maud—"Tuts."

Gym Club (1), M. F. S. (4), Lam Ron (4).
Like a canary—small and sweet!

Moore, Ethel.

Stately, silent—crowned with hair of copper, of red gold.

Moore, Roy—"Jitney."

The bugle corps' pretty little valet.

Moore, Wendell—"Windy," "Nidwy."

Squib Editor Register (4).

Of all kinds of ambition, that which pursues poetical fame is the wildest.

We pardon much in those of genius.

Moran, Oneida—"Pinkey."

Lowell Society (4).

"Pinkey" is very fond of school, especially on Fridays at 2:08.

Moorman, Harold R.—"Mack."

Glee Club (4).

S-o-m-e bugler!

Moskowitz, Milton.

Small, but oh, my! A basket ball demon!

Muldoon, Viola I. E.

Browning Society (4).

"My little Irish Rose." "Colleen."

Mulvihill, Madeline—"Muny," "Mad."

Browning Society (3-4).

We call her "Mad"—it should be "Glad," because of her dear, sweet way.

Murphy, Marjorie.

Modest and sweet as the Puritan May-flower.

1923

Nickum, Oliver Clarke.

A. D. S. (1-2), W. D. S. (3-4), Secretary (4), Chief Trumpeter Bugle Corps.

America's next billiard champion.

Odell, Robert S.

Captain and Commissary, Business Manager Reporter (4), Senior-Junior Contest (3), Senior Dramatics.

"Behold the child, by Nature's kindly law, Pleased with a rattle, tickled with a straw."

Orr, Vera.

Vera will be sixteen when she graduates, which proves that wisdom often comes done up in small parcels.

Owens, Madeleine.

Racquet Club (3-4), P. A. S. (4).

"Her very frowns are fairer far Than smiles of other maidens are."

Parker, Laurence A.—"Lorenzo."

Second Lieutenant Band, Track (2), Foot Ball (4).

Besides being a cornet soloist in our band,
"Laurie" is a poet and a past master on the piano. "A chaser of the blues."

Parks, Elburne.

All the world is luck.

Pascale, Rosa.

L. T. C. (1-2-3-4), Gym Club (4), Hiking Club
(2-3-4).

"You noisy thing!"

Perley, Edward G.—"Ed."

(3-4), Debating Team (4), Treasurer (4), Latin Society (2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (3), President
(4), Latin Dramatics (2), Senior Dramatics.

Our "peerless leader" and debater, whose greatest interest centers in (O.) H. S.

Perrigo, Charles R.—“Chuck.”

Sergeant Co. B, Senior Dramatics.

He is a friend to everybody, and everybody is a friend to him.

Peterson, Charles E.—“Charlie.”

Second Lieutenant Co. E, Senior Council, Department Editor Register (4), Class Treasurer (4), W. D. S. (1-2-3), Secretary (3), D. D. S. (4), Latin Society (4), Latin Dramatics (4).

One of the most consistent fussers in the school.

Peterson, Frank.

Gentle in the hall, a demon in foot ball.

Petersen, Hannah.

She is a maiden tall and fair,
With coils and masses of golden hair.

Petersen, Johannes P.—“Hannes,” “Pete.”

Captain and Ordnance Officer, D. D. S. (3).

“Hannes” is one of the “logical” type and naturally a mathematical “shark.”

Pfeiffer, Lorelei.

Lam Ron Society.

There are not many things she can't do—and do well.

Newbranch, Katherine—“Tat.”

Elaine (1-2-3-4), Senior Council.

“Tat” has a meaning all her own for “P. S.”

Noble, Martha.

M. F. S. (1-2-3-4), Reporter (4), Senior Council, Racquet Club (1-2), Eligible Commencement Comp.

Martha is one of the dearest as well as one of the best-looking girls in the class, but she is always going to Lincoln.

Noble, Clark F.

Always there with the glad hand!

Paffenrath, Donald F.—“Don.”

D. D. S. (2-3), W. D. S. (4), Secretary-Treasurer (4).

The demon of the “movies,” especially “Adventures of Kathleen.”

Predmestky, Nora—“Pred.”

Browning Society (2-3-4), German Society (3), Reporter (3).

“Thou hast reason quick and strong,
Wit that envious men admire,
And a voice itself a song!”

Rathkey, Arnold—“Hig.”

Second Lieutenant Co. D, A. D. S. (3-4).

Arnold never talks a lot,
But to his friends he’s “Johnny on the spot.”
“The silent ones are often wise.”
Applies to him, our friendship’s prize.

Rau, Martha—“Dolly.”

Art Society (1-2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (3), Vice President (4).

Her nickname is very appropriate. She is, indeed, a beautiful blonde dolly.

Reynolds, Gertrude.

F. W. S., Secretary (4).

Gertrude has a smile that sticks like a younger brother when a good friend comes along.

Riesenberg, Frank.

Lincoln Debating Society (1), Latin.

“Frank, take that ‘wad’ out and throw it in the wastebasket!”

Robbins, Lois—“Lo.”

Class Editor Register (3), Elaine (1-2-3-4), Latin Society (3), Secretary Student Association (4), Eligible Commencement Comp.

Lois goes to Lincoln quite often because her “Pet(t)is” there.

Robinson, Stella.

"While we shut the gates on one, another wooer knocks at the door."

Rohwer, George, Jr.

Class Basket Ball (4).

Undisturbed, he pursues the quiet tenor of his way.

Rossiter, Mona—"Kim."

Hiking Club (2), Lowell (3).

"Je ne suis point jolie." When Mona said that she made herself a full-fledged member of the Ananias Club.

Rountree, Othello—
"Roundy," "Toots," "Kewpie."

Track (2-3-4), Foot Ball (4).

They call this little man "Toots," "Roundy" and "Kewpie," but those who know him on the athletic field say his name should be "Speed."

Rouse, Mary—"May."

Elaine (1-2-3-4), President (4), Latin (3-4), Treasurer (4), Eligible Commencement Comp, Senior Dramatics.

"Blushes may come and blushes may go, but Mary will blush forever."

Rule, Walker.

Second Lieutenant Co. I, Class Basket Ball (1-2), A. D. S. (1-2-3-4), Treasurer (3), Secretary (4), Class Track (1-2-3), Track (3), Junior-Senior Contest (3).

Put forth his best efforts for the Juniors in the debate in the Junior-Senior contest last year.

Rushton, Alice Louise—"Al," "Rush."

Class Vice President (4), Senior Council, M. F. S. 1-2-3-4, Vice President (4), German Society (2), Squib Editor Register (4), Eligible Commencement Comp, Senior Dramatics.

"Oh, where has my Lyma(n) bean?"

Sackett, Bryan.

W. D. S. (1-2-3-4), President (4), Glee Club (4), Second Lieutenant Co. A.

Did not inherit the height and bulk of the gentleman whose name he bears, but the mellifluous voice he has turned to music.

Sailing, Geraldine.

Yet Geraldine nor looks nor stirs,
But oh, that striking look of hers!

Salisbury, Marguerite M.

Volley Ball (1), Base Ball (1), Hiking Club (1), Gym Club (2-3-4), Reporter (4), Basket Ball
(2-3-4).

From the above it is evident that physical torture is her specialty.

Sanford, Helen.

Elaine (1-2).

The times haven't got ahead of her yet,
For she is a rousing suffragette.

Schmidt, Roy.

Eligible Commencement Comp.

And here is Roy—"A" treasure indeed!" Just ask Miss Passon.

Scott, Andrew—"Andy."

A. D. S. (4), Debating Squad.

"Andy" is a "salt-of-the-earth" type, who makes friends wherever he goes. One of the best debaters the school has ever seen and a remarkable student.

Seagren, Harry E.

First Lieutenant Co. L, Latin Society (3).

If you forget the lesson, ask Harry—he knows.

Shepard, Helen—"Shep."

M. F. S. (1-2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (4), Senior Play Committee.

"Thou mak'st the gloomy face of nature gay."

Sherman, Harriett C.—"Hat."

Editor-in-Chief Register (4), Elaine Society (1-2-3-4), Vice President (4), Latin Society (3-4), Treasurer (4), Reporter (4), Class Editor Register (1), Racquet Club (1), Student Council (4), Senior Council, Latin Dramatics (4), Senior Dramatics, Eligible Commencement Comp.

Harriett Sherman, her hand and pen,
May some time be famous—goodness knows when!
P. S.—We hope 'twill be soon.

Shrum, Arthur T.—“Art,” “Napoleon.”

Second Lieutenant Co. C, Glee Club (1-2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms (2), Secretary (3), Vice President (4), Quartet (3-4), Cheer Leader (4), Senior Dramatics.

Aw, have a 'Art, have a 'Art!
Not a very studious fellow, but having some high aspirations, as seen in the Senior class organization and the Senior play.

Simmons, Eugene E.

Captain Co. E, Latin Society (1-2-3), D. D. S. (1-2-3), A. D. S. (4).

“Come here and let me spin you, Goble!”

Simon, Faye—“Fee.”

Elaine Society (2-3-4), Racquet Club (2).

To be “Frank” with you, Faye was a Gen(e)-ius in chemistry.

Sirpless, Lora.

Pleiades (3-4).

“None knew thee but to love thee;
None named thee but to praise.”

Smith, Elsa.

M. F. S. (2-3-4), Sergeant-at-Arms.

A truly lovable girl. Her worst fault is to think too little of herself.

Stenner, Freda—“Fritzie.”

Hiking Club (2), Racquet Club (2), Gym Club (3-4), Secretary-Treasurer (4), Hawthorne Society (3-4), Secretary-Treasurer (4), Class Sergeant-at-Arms (4).

Those pretty brown eyes and winning smile,
You'll find with “Fritzie” all the while;
Her charm and wit cannot be beat—
We love her 'cause she is so sweet.

Street, Allan.

Captain Co. I, A. D. S. (3-4), Latin Society (3), Latin Dramatics (4), A. D. S. Debating Team (4), O. H. S. Debating Squad (South Omaha and Lincoln Teams) (4).

The Webster of the class. Bound to make a success of life, as he shows by his sincere and business-like attitude toward all his work.

Fear not the curse of Pandora, Allan.

Sturtevant, Katherine—“Stuffy.”

M. F. S. (1-2-3-4), Treasurer (2).

Has one of the Missing Links.

Stryker, Gerald.

"The Rival."

Summitt, Paul.

We were going to tell you how many A's Paul has received, but we haven't room for the figures. They average five in a term.

Sutton, Stowe.

Glee Club (4), Vaudeville (4), Senior Dramatics. He saves his voice for singing rather than shout out the villain's part in the Senior play. "Fire-fly gone all day, sah!"

Swanson, Beatrice.

Racquet Club, Pleiades Society. When reciting, Beatrice takes on one of those "deep-in-thought" expressions. This is most effective—as long as she keeps silent.

Swenson, Bess.

A dainty little maid with a voice—oh, so tiny!

Thomson, Leslie.

"The man who meets with social sympathy, though not allied, is of more worth than a thousand kinsmen."

Thrane, Walter D.—"Count."

D. D. S. (3-4), President (4), O. H. S. Reporter, Senior Dramatics.

By the way "Count" gets High School news we predict that he will become a noted journalist. "Boss" of the D. D. S.

Ticknor, Earle Virgil—"Tick."

Captain and Drum Major Band, Editor-in-Chief-Elect Register—First Term (4), Senior Council, W. D. S. (1-2-3-4), Vice President (2), President (3), O. H. S. Debating Teams (2-3-4), Latin Society (2-3), Latin Dramatics (3), O. H. S. Orchestra (3), Secretary-Treasurer (3), Vaudeville (4).

A fine fellow with diversified talents, but often found (K)napping. "Tick" is our oldest debater and is also an excellent flutist.

Vann, Reuben A.

One of the most highly respected fellows in school.

Walker, Arthur W.—“Butch.”

D. D. S. (3), First Lieutenant Co. D.
In him theory and practice so combined,
That flaws are difficult to find.

Walker, Florence E.

German Society (1-2), Hiking Club (2-3), L. T. C. (4).

Some of the pupils in Herr Stedinger's German class I hour are exceptionally bright, and Florence is one of the exceptions.

Ward, Max.

Came to us two years ago and is preparing to enter the Civil Service.

Watson, Ruth.

A trim little miss who never fails to see a joke.

Watt, Frances M.—“Watty.”

P. A. S. (4), Racquet Club (4).
“It is not good that man should be alone.”

Webber, Glen S.

Latin Society (3), D. D. S. (4).
One of the best hearted and most generous fellows we have ever known.

Weinstein, Sophia.

German Society (1-2-3), Reporter (3), Browning Society (2-3-4).

The more you see of Sophia the more you want to see her.

Weller, Ruth W.

Racquet Club (1-2-3-4), L. T. C. (2-3-4), Secretary (4), Girls' Basket Ball (2-4), Gym Club (4).

Ruth's good in all her studies,
But she's very fond of sport;
And above all others,
Basket ball is her fort.

West, Belle.

German Society (1).

Like all other blue-Belles, always comes with June. One of the well-known West Sisters Quartet.

Westerfield, James.

"What's the use of "fussing" when there are so many other things to do?" A very busy lad.

Westerfield, Pauline P.

Elaine Society (1-2).

"Thou hast beauty bright and fair,
Manner noble, aspect free;
Eyes that are touched by care."

White, Ada.

German Society (1), Hiking Club (2-3), Reporter (3), Basket Ball (3).

Ever a busy maiden,
Who out of the limelight flees;
Ever with studies laden,
But never had any D's.

Whittaker, Earl—"Whit."

He may be an "Earl" and is surely a "Prince" of a fellow.

Wickstrom, Gustave T.—"Gus."

Captain Co. H, Senior Play Committee, Senior Dramatics.

A bashful lad, but popular wherever he goes.

Widenor, Kenneth D.—"Dutch."

First Lieutenant Co. K. Winner Ind. Comp. Drill (3), Glee Club (1-2-3-4), Accompanist (1-2-3-4), President (4), Mandolin Club (2-3), Orchestra (3), President (3), W. D. S. (1-2-3-4), Secretary-Treasurer (2), Vice President (4), Vaudeville (4).

Besides having attained military honors, "Kennedy" has been the school pianist ever since he entered, and has high musical aspirations for the future.

Wilbur, Edward Leroy—"Chick."

Lieutenant-Colonel Regiment, First Medal Ind. Comp. Drill (1), Military Editor Register (4), Senior Council, Student Council (4).

Very Hope-ful of becoming a great army officer. The best lieutenant-colonel we have ever had.

Withey, Paul—"Eddie."

Foot Ball (3-4), Base Ball (2-3-4), Captain (4).

"I don't 'fuss,' but I am 'fussed' and get 'fussed.'"

A prince of fellows who played spectacular foot ball.

Wolf, Molly.

German Society (1-2-3), Lowell Society (1-2).

"Howe'er it be, it seems to me
"Tis only noble to be good."

Woodruff, Margaret—"Monnie."

Racquet Club (2-3), Latin Society (2-3-4), P. A. S. (2-3-4), Treasurer (4).

On whose face is always a smile—never a frown. "Monnie," the girl with hair and eyes so brown.

Yoshida, Matsuo.

"A cheerful smile will get you in where the kicker is never known." Matsuo has the smile.

Smith, Kenyon K.

O. H. S. Vaudeville, Senior Dramatics.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I have here a specimen which I brought from Africa—Dorothy, think of the disgrace—Oh, pity your father!"

Russell, Florence V.—"Toody."

Elaine Society (1-2-3-4), Latin Society (3-4), Student Council (3), Elaine Reporter (4), Latin Dramatics (4), Senior Council (4), Battalion Editor Girls' Number Register (3).

To see "Toody" perform in Expressive Reading Class is to witness a display of intense dramatic passion, together with an exhibition of the latest "twinkle" step.

Chambers, Faye.

Little, but chuck full of fun. You can't help but have a good time when Faye is around.

Chase, Philip—"Phil."

Mandolin Club (1-2-3), Glee Club (3-4), Track (2), Vaudeville (4), Senior Dramatics.

Nice, but can't make his eyes behave.

DeBuse, Arlotta.

German Society (3), S. T. C. (4).

Arlotta has the happy faculty of picking out fundamentals and then retaining them.

Fredericksen, Florence.

"A countenance in which did meet Sweet records, promises as sweet."

Hopper, Russell.

"A devil in his own home town."—Waterloo!

Johnson, Bess.

"Always busy—doing nothing."

Kleenburger, Ruth.

"Friendship, peculiar boon of heaven, the noble mind's delight and pride."

Morin, Marie.

Everything is tiny about Marie—even her voice.

Nevey, Gladys.

Hard work makes the student—Gladys is a hard worker.

Roman, Bernice.

The latest contribution from the Roman family.

Sallenbach, Herbert.

A man's own manner and character is what best becomes him.

Scott, Ronald.

Ronald is another new member of our class, but a popular one.

Turner, Hazel.

"Modesty is to merit what shading is to figures in a picture, giving it strength and relief."

TOP ROW—Kuhns, Axtell, Douglas, Mattson, Landale, Goldsmith.
 MIDDLE ROW—Thompson, McDougall, Wakeley, Mr. Reed (Principal), Wilbur, Sturtevant, Morearty.

The Student Council

THE STUDENT Council is one of the youngest of the High School organizations, but in the two years of its existence has proved itself to be one of the most helpful to Principal and students. It was organized last year by Miss McHugh for the purpose of supplying a means of interchanging ideas between Principal and faculty on the one hand, and student body on the other. This Council is not a legislative body, but merely a medium between faculty and students. In the meetings, which are held in the library, the various subjects of concern to the school are discussed. The Council has twenty members, twenty-two with the two members of the mid-year graduating class. It consists of eight Seniors, six Juniors, four Sophomores and two Freshmen, the number being divided equally between girls and boys, for the High School recognizes equal suffrage, in this case at least. Some of the members are nominated and voted on by the students only, the others being nominated by the teachers and voted on by the students.

This year the members served as guides and ushers at the time of the State Teachers' Association last fall. The visitors were introduced to the beauties and wonders of the city of Omaha, more specifically the Omaha High School, and conducted along its winding halls and up its bewildering flights of stairs, all of which, doubtless, seem labyrinthine to the uninitiated. The Council also served as a reception committee at the three receptions for the parents of the students. If the fond parent was seen to enter the door without a youthful guide in the shape of son or daughter, he was taken possession of by one of the members of the reception committee, who escorted him wherever he might wish to go. The Council has discussed various topics of school interest, among them the success of the new lunch room and the new ruling which bars the students from leaving the building till the last five minutes of the lunch period. Mr. Reed asked the members to hand in, in writing, their various opinions on the respective merits of the weekly or the monthly Register. But the most lengthy and heated discussion of all was the one concerning exemption from examinations. The question was argued pro and con, with much zest and enthusiasm, each one, doubtless, secretly hoping that his or her fiery eloquence would avail something in eliminating the dreaded ordeal.

Although this question does not seem to have been settled, yet we feel that much has been accomplished and hope that the Seniors of future years will enjoy the fruitage of our efforts.

The members this year were as follows:

SENIORS—12B.

Marie Olsen,
Jack Austin.

SENIORS—12A.

Quito Eddy,
Robert Edwards,
Paul Flothow,
Russel Larmon,
Hazel McMullen,
Harriett Sherman,
Leroy Wilbur,
Olive Baltzly.

Ruth Leeder,
Sergeant-at-Arms.

Class of 1916

(After Browning.)

Ye knew us, then, class of '16, too.
 Our honor done—will't annoy you?
 Shall I the tale in brief relate?
 Ah, yes! Sit down; 'tis not yet eight!
 Well, drawing comfortable breath again,
 We are much—Seniors are nothing—they would be all;
 We would be merely much—they beat us there.
 No, friend; they do not beat us—hearken why!
 Foot ball?—that's a fine resource. Observe—
 Lutes, Neville, Philipps, captain-elect—enough;
 You see I need not fear contempt.
 Nichols, Reese, Fullaway — what's strange?
 Except it's theirs! Admire us they may.
 They don't; but whom at least do they admire?
 Basket ball?—our own perfection, our ideal;
 The aim, if reached or not, makes great the life.
 Those same with Weirich reached their aim,
 And all made teams—and Lutes, faith, made "All-State."
 Say we, let doubt occasion still more faith;
 Say you, believe and our whole argument breaks up.
 Track?—we command; the best thing we repeat,
 Fire and life are all; dead matters nothing—we agree.
 Our life's a game to win; we very soon won enough.
 But wherefore be harsh on a single case?
 The Seniors, perceive with half an eye, were last!

Tennis?—I mean to prove—they can't believe,
 Not stately, that is and fixedly and absolutely,
 And conclusively—so I think.
 Powell, our president, frankly is as much as champion.
 The regiment?—we're backward to the starting place.
 You like it, friend?—that's the agent.
 First sergeants, staff officers—now we'll talk—
 Best they are, imperial, bold, every one, Presuming to play no part just now, but afterward—'16.
 I will include you respect our place.
 Golf tournament?—societies?—you weigh and find Whatever more or less we boast of hopes realized.
 Debaters? You know them?—Olson, Rosenblatt—
 The sooner, the better to begin afresh—concede.
 We speak of more that's better—the Register.
 Peters, Wakeley, eye and know him, Too, assistant foot ball manager—keep the line,
 Not forced to choose, liked both, took both.
 "A's"?—the trivial work of every day—
 You criticise the soil—it reared the tree.
 For what gain? To succeed nothing left to do.
 Why lose this year i' the meantime, since its use
 May be to make the next year more intense?
 'Tis break of day—wine and dine,
 And let's depart—tomorrow '16 holds the sceptre.

—Bea J.

Class of 1917

THE SOPHOMORE Class has certainly been a credit to the school. We have won our fame as real scholars, for, in looking over the "A" list, one finds more representatives from the Sophomore Class than from any other class. Though a few failed to carry all they undertook, this condition can be excused, as there never was a perfect class. Near-perfection is good enough.

The Sophomore Class has been working hard for the interest of all the classes. It was one of our councillors who brought up the important question as to whether or not a pupil should be exempt from taking examination if he had a grade of 85 or above during the semester in all studies. Evelyn Douglass, Nora McDougall, Waldemar Thompson and Charles Morearty did the counselling for our class.

Several voices in both the girls' and boys' Glee Club sounded much sweeter, I'm sure, because of the fact that they belong to "Sophomore Warblers."

Our class is well represented in the Cadet Regiment. Greyson Garner is considered the best cadet in the regiment, having won three out of five regimental spell-downs. Up to February he was a member of our class.

Athletics, a main factor in High Schools, are much indulged in by Sophomores this year. Margarette Carnaby held up our honor and good name by winning a letter in tennis. Margarette is one of the few Sophomore girls who has ever received such an honor. Evelyn Douglass won an O. R. Cleary Hanighen represented the boys in the tennis tournament and did credit to both his class and himself. "Chuck" Morearty represented our class in foot ball and worked from a green player up to a regular. Nuff sed. Jesse Patty brought honor to his class in basket ball, showing some real style. For a fellow of his weight and experience, Patty did splendid work. Our class basket ball team was a little weak at the first of the tournament. There is no doubt that we would have landed first place had the schedule been completed. Something unusual happened in the base ball department this year. The team, which is usually composed of Juniors and Seniors, was really a Sophomore team. Four out of nine were Sophomores, while two of the remaining five were last year's players. A majority of the substitutes, as well, were Sophomores. Sophomores likely to receive letters in base ball are: Hugh Carson, Dale Keys, "Fussy" McFarland, "Chuck" Morearty. Our weakest department in athletics was track. It's hard to write about yourself, but as I'm the only Sophomore representative on the track team, all I can say is, "I'll do my best for the honor of my class."

CHARLES B. MOREARTY.

Class of 1918

PREVIOUS to entering the High School every Eighth-Grader has a mistaken idea of himself, the O. H. S. and the world in general. Believing in his own importance, feeling that the welfare of mankind rests on his shoulders, he carries his head high and kicks up the dust as he walks. Alack-a-day, all dreams must end, and in September his pride meets its Waterloo. Small, insignificant, puny, pusillanimous—nothing fully expresses his utter degradation. However, soon recovering his spirits, he again elevates his head, but the dust of ages remains undisturbed, for 'twould be far wiser to fly in the face of Providence than to create dust to fly in the face of the Seniors.

We do find soon, however, that nothing much is expected of a Ninth-Grader except, maybe, the trivial things that we get all "A's"; and for this very reason we find it necessary, sometimes, to let our presence be known by a certain brand of antics, peculiar only to that verdant species of student, called Freshman.

Nevertheless, our class does come pretty well to the front in several things, but really where we excel, where we should be awarded the blue ribbon, is in rooting—rooting for our team in those wonderful foot ball and basket ball games, for who knows how many touchdowns have been made or how many baskets thrown under the spell of ear-splitting, air-splitting shrieks and shouts from mere Freshmen?

But our term as mere Freshmen is drawing to a close, and for the next three years you will know of us, slowly and steadily working upward, setting the pace for the underclassmen, until finally we blossom out, bursting into the full glory of our golden Senior year; then the world will hear of the class of '18.—Ann Axtell.

REGIMENT

JOHN TALIAFERRO 1916

Captain F. S. Stritzinger

OUR COMMANDANTS

Captain Stritzinger

THE YEAR 1914-15 opened with Captain Stritzinger in charge of our military department. Throughout the fall and winter he worked tirelessly to establish in the cadet regiment that which is most to be desired in any military organization—a high standard of practical efficiency. As a result of his efforts, we have today what we confidently believe is the finest regiment in the history of our school.

To Captain Stritzinger we owe the introduction of the signal school, which offers every cadet an opportunity to study a subject both interesting and valuable to himself and decidedly important from a military point of view.

The faithful work of this commandant was not entirely unrewarded, for, when he left us this spring to join the Twenty-third Infantry at Texas City, he took with him an assurance of the high esteem in which he is held by the regimental personnel. Although we heartily wish Captain Stritzinger the best of success in his profession, we feel that this is but a mean return for the faithful and efficient service which he has rendered during his two years' connection with the cadet regiment.

Captain Luhn

IT WAS generally agreed among the members of the regiment that it would take a big man to fill the vacancy caused by Captain Stritzinger's transfer, but we certainly have no reason to be disappointed in his successor. Captain Luhn has taken a great interest in the regiment and has clearly demonstrated in the short time he has been with us that he has both the inclination and ability to make us deliver the goods. His idea in regard to promotions is something entirely new to us, since every deserving man eligible for promotion will be advanced, extra offices being created if necessary to carry out the plan. With Captain Luhn rests the responsibility for a successful camp. He, as much as any cadet, is looking forward to this event with a great deal of pleasant anticipation, and he has several original plans for making this—our greatest event of the year—a rattling success. We feel that we are unable to express our appreciation of our new commandant in any better way than by assuring him that that which was accorded our former commandant has been just as heartily extended to him—the absolute loyalty and support of the cadet officers and the sincere confidence and respect of the men.—E. L. W.

Foot Ball Team

Foot Ball

OUR TEAM this year was exceptionally good. In connection with the team, Coach Mills believed at the end of the foot ball season that our strong, powerful and well-developed team was almost unbeatable by any other High School. One might have said, however, that our team didn't really have a good chance this year to show the real "stuff" which we found out later to truly exist in our aggregation.

The result of the 1914 schedule is:

Omaha 25, Blair 3	Omaha 0, Sioux City 9
Omaha 36, Shenandoah 0	Omaha 24, East Des Moines 13
Omaha 61, Nebraska City 7	Omaha 14, North Platte 6
Omaha 0, Lincoln 36	Omaha 16, Chicago 3
Omaha 7, York 0

THE TEAM.

BERRY, captain and left half. "Bud" was slightly worried by the cares of his captaincy, yet always managed to "deliver the goods." He played a fine game on the defensive.

LUTES, right half-back. "General" was certainly some boy on the gridiron. He never failed to pull off some long end run or a spectacular forward pass. Carl also intercepted many passes and made touchdowns on several of them.

JOHNSON, full-back. "Rhyno" was one of the best and most industrious full-backs we ever had. The way that boy would plunge through the line—O, my! He was the most consistent ground gainer on the team.

NEVILLE, quarterback. "Chick" was a very heady little fellow and a spectacular open-field runner. "Chick" sprained his ankle in the York game, but, nevertheless, came back and played a wonderful game against Chicago.

NICHOLS, quarterback. "Nick" was certainly a snappy quarter. He carried the ball well, both in open field and plunging. Much credit is due "Nick" for playing such a good game against Sioux City.

REESE, left guard. Although "Herb" is not exactly boisterous around school, we cannot help noticing his steady work on the gridiron.

PHILLIPS, captain-elect and right tackle. "Limp" we feel sure has helped the team out considerably and are glad to know that he will be with us next year.

BEARD, center. Paul must have composed that part of the song, "Omaha," which says, "Get right in and play the game," for it applies to him exactly.

PETERSON, left tackle. "Pete" is a diligent and industrious worker. If any one on the team really deserved an "O" it was "Pete." He played a star game in the Lincoln battle.

BRADLEY, right guard. "Snapper," although slow in getting out of the locker room practice nights, can hardly be said to be slow on the field, where he made his "debut" this year as a real foot ball hero.

MOREARTY, left end. "Chuck" is always full of "pep" on the gridiron and always manages, somehow or other, to attract attention from the feminine rooters.

WILSON, right end. "Cunny" was generally seen in every play. Whenever "Cunny" would get the ball we felt in perfect confidence to predict that he would carry it at least six yards or more.

ENGSTROM, right guard. "Sweedy" was certainly some "guarder." We feel sure that without "Sweedy's" steady work the team would not have been able to make its present record.

WITHEY, left end. "Eddie" is last, but certainly not least. He always played a fine, commendable game, and is to be congratulated. He played his part of a "veteran" well.

"BUD" FLOTHOW, manager, and "TOM" WAKELEY, assistant, tried to do their best for the team this year. We will, however, not say how much that was.

Basket Ball

THE BASKET BALL team made a fine showing in the State Tournament this year. They were, however, defeated for the championship by Lincoln. In all the other games of the season, as well, our team always put up a good, clean fight, yet somehow or other, they managed to meet defeat more than once. Coach Mills is, nevertheless, to be congratulated upon the manner in which he whipped the team into a shape which enabled the team to play in the finals at the State Tourney. May the good work which was exhibited in this tournament continue next year.

The result of the 1914-15 basket ball schedule is as follows:

Omaha 48, Fremont 17	Omaha 39, University Place 21
Omaha 16, Lincoln 25	Omaha 22, York 8
Omaha 28, Sioux City 22	Omaha 26, Red Oak 23
Omaha 17, Lincoln 22	Omaha 32, St. Joe 38
Omaha 17, Sioux City 24

THE TOURNAMENT.

Omaha 25, Dodge 7
Omaha 13, Geneva 11
Omaha 17, York 10
Omaha 8, South Omaha 5
Omaha 10, Lincoln 17

THE TEAM.

LARMON, captain and right guard. "Cotty" played a strong, steady game through the entire season and made a splendid captain. "Cotty" was easily conceded a place on the All-State second team. He showed up especially well in the tournament.

FLOTHOW, right forward. "Float" played always a stellar game in every contest of the season in which he participated. He was hurt in the Sioux City game and was laid out until the tournament. Flothow's ability to throw baskets and other marvelous stunts, which he did easily, gave him a place on the All-State first team.

LUTES, left forward. "General" was always right there with the goods. He was just as good in basket ball as in foot ball, and that seems to be saying a good deal. "General" was awarded a place on the All-State second team.

ENGSTROM, left guard. "Freedy" certainly was a demon at basket ball. He didn't get into the game until rather late in the season, yet he played so wonderfully when he got there that he also was given a place on the All-State first team.

PAYNTER, center. Floyd played a good, steady game the entire season. He always used his head and played hard from start to finish. Paynter will be with us next year.

PATTY, right forward. Patty was new on the team this year. He managed, however, to create a sensation with his clever and spectacular field goals. He will also be with us next year.

LOGAN, FULLAWAY, NICHOLS, McFARLAND and WEIRICH were substitutes on the first team this year and all showed up well. They will all be with us next year, so be sure and keep your eyes on them.

"BROTHER" GOULD and "WY" ROBBINS, the managers, managed to tend to all the business of the team in great shape. They were probably glad, however, when the season closed.

Track

TRACK, this year, is almost more than successful. Every man has come out with right spirit and determination to do his best. Consequently we expect to break a few records before the season is over. Chick Neville is captain of the team, and we all agree in saying that Chick makes some captain. We have already defeated Bellevue University in a dual meet which was held April 24th, when Engstrom bettered the present state discus throw record by throwing the discus 113 feet and 10 inches. Our track team also came out second in an open meet which was held at the Auditorium on March 20th. In this meet Fullaway, Neville, Morearty, Paynter and Logan starred. Weirich also took a prominent part.

The class captains are as follows: Wilson Bryans, 1915; Carlton Swiler, 1916; Charles Morearty, 1917, and Thurston Logan, 1918.

THE INTER-CLASS MEET.

The class meet this year was one of the most successful events ever pulled off. The Junior, 1916, easily walked away with the laurels. They made a total of 36 points, while the Sophomores were next with 29. The Seniors were third with 26 points and, last of all, the Freshmen with 23 points.

Morearty (1917) was, however, the individual star, making a total number of 20 points himself. He won four first places—the high jump, broad jump, the 110-yard dash and the 220-yard dash. Fullaway was the star of the Junior class, making a total of 13 points.

The meet was divided into two parts—the field events, which were held Thursday, April 29th, on the High School Campus, and the track events, which took place the following Saturday at Creighton field.

During the first half of this meet Carl Lutes broke the shot put record by four inches. He put the shot 45 feet 7½ inches. It is doubtful, however, whether this will stand official or not, as it was not done in a state meet.

The Juniors made 15 of their points in the field events and 21 points in the track events.

The way in which the track team loomed up in this meet was certainly surprising. Some remarkable time was made in the sprints besides other records in field events. The coach now looks forward with much enthusiasm to one of the best track teams the High School ever had.

The summary of both field and track events is as follows:

|---|---|
| POLE VAULT —Fullaway, 1916, first; Shepard, 1917, second; Gould, 1915, and Weirich, 1916, third. Height, 10 feet 6 inches. | 220-YARD DASH —Morearty, 1917, first; Bryans, 1915, second; Geisler, 1916, third. Time, 24 3-10 seconds. |
| BROAD JUMP —Morearty, 1917, first; Logan, 1918, second; Tonge, 1917, third. Distance, 18 feet 10 inches. | 120-YARD HIGH HURDLES —Fullaway, 1916, first; Reynolds, 1916, second; Chase, 1915, third. Time, 20 seconds. |
| DISCUS THROW —Engstrom, 1915, first; Lutes, 1916, second; Chase, 1915, third. Distance, 102 feet 5 inches. | 220-YARD LOW HURDLES —Neville, 1916, first; Nichols, 1916, second; Fullaway, 1916, third. Time, 31 3-10 seconds. |
| SHOT PUT —Lutes, 1916, first; Engstrom, 1915, second; Kelley, 1918, third. Distance, 45 feet 7½ inches. | 440-YARD DASH —Roundtree, 1915, first; Bryans, 1915, second; Chase, 1915, third. Time, 57¼ seconds. |
| HIGH JUMP —Morearty, 1917, first; Fullaway, 1916, and Newton, 1918, second and third. Height, 5 feet 7¼ inches. | ONE-MILE RUN —Logan, 1918, first; Burgess, 1918, second; Underwood, 1918, third. Time, 5 minutes 15 seconds. |
| 100-YARD DASH —Morearty, 1917, first; Newton, 1918, second; Neville, 1916, third. Time, 10¼ seconds. | HALF-MILE RELAY —Sophomores, first; Juniors, second; Freshmen, third. Time, 1 minute 43 seconds. |

THE MISSOURI VALLEY MEET.

Omaha High's track and field team did precisely the thing which we prophesied for them—they easily walked away with the victory of this meet by scoring 46 points, while St. Joseph was second with 32 points. It, however, gives us a great satisfaction to know that we beat the Lincoln team, which came out fourth place.

Fullaway and Morearty were the real stars for Omaha. They each made 10 points. Wilbur must have even been surprised himself when he went over the pole at 11 feet and still saw the pole resting gently on its supports. In practice the best he ever made was 10 feet 9 inches. Congratulations, Wilbur!

Omaha placed in every event except the quarter-mile run. In many of these Omaha had even as many as two or three men who placed. For example, in the high jump, when Omaha took the first, second and fourth places.

Following is a summary of Omaha's points:

- | | |
|---|--|
| POLE VAULT—Fullaway, first. | HALF-MILE—Paynter, fourth. |
| 120-YARD HURDLE—Fullaway, second; Weirich, third. | SHOT PUT—Lutes, first; Engstrom, third. |
| 100-YARD DASH—Morearty, second. | BROAD JUMP—Morearty, third. |
| MILE RUN—Logan, third. | DISCUS THROW—Engstrom, second; Lutes, fourth. |
| HIGH JUMP—Newton and Fullaway tied for first; Morearty, fourth. | Those who went on the trip were Coach Mills, Wilbur Fullaway, "Chick" Neville, Carl Lutes, Friedolph Engstrom, Al Newton, Charles Morearty, Thurston Logan, Floyd Paynter and Leonard Weirich. |
| 220-YARD HURDLES—Neville, second; Weirich, third. | |
| 220-YARD DASH—Morearty, second. | |

THE STATE MEET

It was certainly shameful the way Omaha ran off with this meet. Really it was a pitiful sight to behold. Omaha showed absolutely no mercy upon any of the participating teams. We made nearly three times the score of any other High School. The total number of points made by Omaha was 72½, while Lincoln was next with 27½. I guess this sort o' makes Lincoln look sick.

Omaha captured places in every event in which they entered. The hardest part in writing up this meet is to pick the stars for Omaha. It is almost impossible, for, if we were to name the stellar performers, we would have to give the name of every man on the team. Newton, however, made the most individual points in the meet. He made 13, while Morearty was second with 9. Fullaway might also have made 13 points had he not been disqualified for knocking over three hurdles in the 120-yard hurdle race. Carl Lutes succeeded in breaking the state shot put record by four inches. He heaved the lead 45 feet 7½ inches. Paynter easily walked away with the half-mile. One of the prettiest events in this meet was the half-mile relay, which was won by Newton, Weirich, Morearty and Neville, who represented Omaha. In the discus Engstrom was first and Lutes second, while in the shot put it was just reversed, Lutes taking first and Engstrom second.

Following is a summary of Omaha's points:

|--|--|
| 120-YARD HURDLE—Weirich, first. Time, 0:17 4-5. | HIGH JUMP—Newton, first; Fullaway, second. Height, 5 ft. 7 in. |
| 880-YARD RUN—Paynter, first. Time, 2:06 3-5. | BROAD JUMP—Newton, first; Morearty, third. Distance, 19 ft. 11½ in. |
| 220-YARD HURDLE—Neville, first; Weirich, second. Time, 0:28 4-5. | HALF-MILE RELAY—Omaha (Newton, Weirich, Morearty and Neville) first. Time, 1:37 1-5. |
| DISCUS—Engstrom, first; Lutes, second. Distance, 105 ft. 4½ in. | 440-YARD RUN—Roundtree, fourth. |
| SHOT PUT—Lutes, first; Engstrom, second. Distance, 45 ft. 7½ in. | 100-YARD DASH—Newton, second; Morearty, third. |
| POLE VAULT—Fullaway, first. Height, 10 ft. 3 in. | MILE RUN—Paynter, third; Logan, fourth. |
| 220-YARD DASH—Morearty, first. Time, 0:24 1-5. | HAMMER THROW—No entries. |

Bellevue Track Meet

Base Ball Team

Base Ball

BASE BALL this year is like track; it is exceptionally good. We all expected to turn out a championship team, but were disappointed when we learned that Ashland had defeated Omaha by only one run. A greater manifestation this year in this sport was shown at the beginning of the season when the first call for base ball candidates brought out an unusually large number of capable and able-bodied players. "Eddy" Withey, who showed up so well last year, has been elected captain, and Verne McLean manager. McLean, however, is prevented from playing by his studies.

The first game of the season was played with the Omaha Street Car Company. We easily won this game by a score of 9 to 2. Excellent batting and fielding characterized Omaha's splendid work. The pitching was also good, Omaha allowing only three hits.

The first inter-scholastic game was played Saturday, May 8th, when we met Ashland at Ashland. The final score was 12 to 11, in favor of Ashland. This is what we might call hard luck, for the umpire to say that we were beaten by one run when everybody believed that we should have been the victors instead. Nevertheless, in this game the team showed remarkable gameness and consistency. They are to be congratulated. As for our pitchers, Hazen and Wingate were both pitching very good ball. They are both south-paws.

THE SCHEDULE.

Ashland	May 7
Herman (two games).....	May 15
Fremont	May 21
Red Oak.....	May 29

THE TEAM.

EVERSON, catcher. "Swede" is quite a heady little fellow, but "kinda" slow on his feet. He is also a good hitter.

CARPENTER, catcher and first baseman. "Carp" is one of our veterans. He has a good "peg," but hurt his arm at the beginning of the season.

WINGATE, pitcher. "Lefty" is one of the real fast men on the team. He is a good fielder and a good bunter. "Lefty" is also a southpaw, as we see by his nickname.

HAZEN, pitcher. "Eddie" is a good, all-round player. He is, however, better in the outfield than any place else.

CROWLEY, first baseman. John is a slow and steady player. He also played on the second foot ball and basket ball teams.

SULLIVAN, baseman. "Tim" is a good sport. He is good also in the outfield. "Tim" is also a fair hitter.

CARSON, second baseman. "Sleepy" makes a fine man on the bases. "Sleepy" also takes streaks at the bat.

WITHEY, captain and shortstop. "Eddy" has been on the team three years. That is enough to tell us that "Eddie" is a fine player.

KUTAK, third baseman. "Tubby" is also a good fielder and a splendid hitter. He, however, received an injury to his jaw in the Ashland game and has been out part of the season.

MOSKOWITZ, right fielder. "Milt" is also the only right-handed pitcher on the team. He is a good hitter.

MACFARLAND, center fielder. "Fuzzy" is another heady little player who never fails to deliver the goods. He plays well all the time.

CURTIS, left field. "Happy" is a better fielder than a batter. Nevertheless, he gets there.

"CHUCK" ALLISON is at present substituting on the team.

Tennis

A great interest seems to be taken in tennis this year as in all other sports. Charles Perrigo has recently been elected tennis manager. At the present writing, however, owing to the fact that the spring tournament has not yet begun, we cannot tell much about this sport nor can we tell who will win their "O's." Russell Larmon and Ralph Powell are, however, at present thought to be the men who will play in the finals. Yet you can never tell what may happen. Cleary Hanighen and Paul Flothow, who played so well in the Junior City Tournament last fall, are liable to spring some surprise.

Coach Mills

With the close of the school year comes the thought of losing our wonderful coach, Mr. Thomas Mills. Mr. Mills came to the High School three years ago. Since that time he has shown himself to be so proficient in everything which he has undertaken to do that he has become known to everyone. Indeed, he has not only become known to every person in our school, but, because of his gracious and pleasing manner and his excellent character, has been placed in the highest esteem of every one of them.

It is not often that one finds a man like Mr. Mills, who possesses such wonderful powers of coaching as well as the temperament and manner which a person needs to become a great actor. One thing which has made Mr. Mills so popular with all those who have come in contact with him is his originality and cleverness. He is also individual and resourceful.

We will probably remember the coach long after he has forgotten the Omaha High School; so let us, therefore, wish him the best possible success for the coming year at Creighton, while we, ourselves, try to appreciate the hard work which he has done in behalf of O. H. S.

Girls' Athletics

IT SEEMS as though more girls ought to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them in the gymnasium, for many girls have learned to stand, walk and breathe correctly through their gymnasium work. It is not all work, either, for once a week the girls spend a jolly time playing games or dancing. The apparatus work includes work on the rings, work with the springboard, rope climbing, Indian club swinging and dumb bell drills.

Except Freshmen, all girls who have a passing grade in all their studies, and a grade of A in gymnasium work, may join the Gym Club. This club consists of twenty-five members, and a social afternoon is spent once a month at the home of some member. At the end of the year, generally the middle of May, the girls give an exhibition, in costume, practices for this being held once a week.

Basket ball is the sport many of the girls look forward to, but no less interest is aroused through tennis. A spring and a fall tournament is held and a silver cup is awarded the victor. However, she must win the tournament three times before the cup is hers permanently. The close of the tournament is most exciting.

Many of the girls prove themselves real base ball fans when the base ball practice starts. There is a tournament held each year and the winning team is given a big treat by the losing teams. Sometimes the winners really wish they had been losers, when it comes to the morning after the spread, because generally there are some few cases of headaches.

If a concentrated study hall is sometimes aroused by the noise from above (so little resembling heavenly voices), still we are glad to know that there are a few girls who are having their physical bodies trained, as well as having their minds developed.

Students' Association

IN THE FALL of 1912 a long-felt need in the Omaha High School was met by what was termed the Omaha High School Students' Association. The primary idea of this scheme was to supersede the uncertain method of meeting athletic debts, which depended entirely upon gate receipts. In 1912, although the membership did not meet the expectations, 660 students became holders of season tickets, and in 1913 the same was true with 693 members. This year the annual election was held with the following results:

Victor Graham President
 Lois Robbins Secretary
 Lyman Phillips Vice President

Seven hundred and ninety-three ticket holders participated, but on account of various unavoidable and unfortunate circumstances, the fund raised at the beginning of the year was insufficient, and in March the fund was exhausted, with the track season and base ball season expenses still to be provided. To meet these coming expenses some of the students volunteered to present a vaudeville performance under the direction of Mr. Mills. Those participating presented a very creditable entertainment, which was so enthusiastically received as to call for a third performance, which was equally appreciated. The whole netted an amount which enabled the Athletic Board to make even better plans for the spring work than had been previously contemplated. V. G., '15.

The Debating Season of 1914-1915

JUDGED by the standard of victories won, the present season has not been a success, although our team did succeed for the first time in three years in defeating the strong Sioux City debaters. A truer test, however, of the value of the year's work is to be found in the improvement made by all who participated in the contests. That there was marked progress was clearly demonstrated by the five members of the squad who were able at the close of the season to take an entirely new question, grasp the vital points, and prepare a highly creditable debate upon eight days' notice.

The inter-society debates during the first half year brought out some good new material. Twenty-four boys were selected, making two teams from each of the four societies, and after a series of preliminary contests the Athenians were finally declared victors over the Demosthenians, and were crowned champions of the school. It is to be hoped that the inter-society schedule will be arranged promptly at the opening of school next fall, the question chosen, and the teams commence work during the first few weeks of school.

The State League debate with South Omaha was closely contested. Although the decision was two to one in favor of our opponents, it is safe to say that the unanimous opinion of the audience was in accord with the minority judge. Street, Perley and Olson represented Omaha High, and proved themselves real debaters, Street carrying off individual honors by his thorough mastery of the question and his rapid-fire delivery.

Lincoln High, by a vote of two to one, was given the Amherst cup. The debate was close, but in the opinion of the writer the splendid rebuttal of Perley, easily the best of the six, turned the scales in our favor. Omaha was represented by the same team as in the debate against South Omaha.

In the home debate against Sioux City, Ticknor forged to the front, and with great skill, ably assisted by his colleague, Olson, carried conviction to the hearts of the judges. In all three debates Olson was constantly on the firing line. No member of the squad made such marked improvement during the season as Olson, and he will be a pillar of strength next year.

The Sioux City press, as well as the debating coach and members of the faculty, declared that Scott was the most formidable debater heard in that city throughout the year. He was given particular credit because he was able to use the true debating method, purely extemporaneous. Rosenblatt's arguments drew fire, and his smile won favor with the audience.

The teams were royally treated on all the trips and will have many pleasant memories of the year's work.

STREET—South Omaha, Lincoln, Sioux City. Allen was a big surprise to us, for we never knew before that he could debate; but nobody, especially an opponent, will doubt his ability now, for, when he turns loose, he resembles a German machine gun.

SCOTT—Sioux City. Andy is right there when it comes to debating, just as he is in everything else. After what he did at Sioux City, no one will dispute that he is the best debater in the school.

PERLEY wrote up the other debaters, but left himself out. However, all those who heard him debate know that that is "nuff sed."

OLSEN—South Omaha, Lincoln, Sioux City. Arild was another surprise and he made three splendid debates for the O. H. S. He showed up especially in his rebuttal each time. The O. H. S. is fortunate to have him again next year.

TICKNOR—Sioux City. Earle made a fine debate against Sioux City, his rebuttal doing a lot toward winning the debate for us. The O. H. S. loses a good man when he graduates.

ROSENBLATT—Sioux City. "Sol" is our manager and comedian; is all right. He made the team his Sophomore year, a thing that is seldom done, and did good work.

The O. H. S. Glee Club

THE OMAHA High School is indeed fortunate in having one organization upon which it can look with pride. It can well boast of the Glee Club as a student activity which has probably done more than any other to boost and advertise the O. H. S. this year.

The beginning of the Glee Club can be traced back to 1903, when the first attempt was made by the organization of the Orpheus Club. This was succeeded in 1906 by an octet, under the direction of Walter Hoffmann. In 1909 the first Glee Club was organized by Mr. Cherrington. This was followed by a meritorious organization in 1910 and 1911 under the direction of Mr. Carstenson, a faculty member. In 1912 the most successful Glee Club up to that time was conducted by Mr. Walter B. Graham, a prominent Omaha vocal teacher, succeeded Mr. Carstenson in accomplishing good results. The Glee Club labored under great difficulties the next year, including financial embarrassment and the double session. Mr. Joe Larton was the director. In the fall year the club was reorganized under the supervision and direction of Edward J. Wotawa, a member of the class of 1907, who had just returned from a post-graduate course at Purdue University to teach in the High School. Mr. Wotawa, while at Purdue, was director of the Mandolin and Glee Clubs, as well as being director of several other musical organizations, and consequently had considerable experience in such work. In spite of adverse conditions a very successful club was produced. However, it remained for this year's Glee Club to eclipse and surpass any previous effort in the field of musical activity. Through the efforts of Mr. Wotawa and Mr. Reed, arrangements were made whereby the club was to meet II period every day as a regular class in one or the other of the two gymnasiums, and the boys were to receive one-half point credit per semester for their work. Under these advantageous conditions, coupled with the excellent voices this year and the unusual ability of the director, it is not surprising that the club has made such great progress.

A large repertoire of both classical and popular music has been memorized and worked up, most numbers being sung without piano accompaniment. The Glee Club has appeared on numerous occasions, including the Woman's Club, the Boyd Theater, the Lyre Club, the Municipal Christmas Tree Celebration, Nebraska School Teachers' Convention. It has given a series of concerts in many churches in Omaha, one in the church at Ralston and one at Benson. A concert was also given at the South Omaha High School Auditorium.

During the Christmas vacation the Glee Club made a four-days' tour in western Iowa, giving concerts in three towns. The Glee Club has also appeared many times in our own Auditorium on various programs, also taking a prominent part in the vaudeville show. It is planned to give a big concert to close the season. Our Glee Club has usually appeared in full dress and has been very favorably compared with many college organizations.

We were very fortunate in having such soloists in the club as Howard Steberg, dyrie tenor, class of '13, now a P. G. dyrie tenor; Donald Smith, violinist; Edwin Clark, cellist, and Frank Hunter and Kenneth Widenor, pianists; Kenneth Widenor also being the accompanist and assistant director.

Too much credit and praise cannot be given to Mr. Wotawa for his faithful work and untiring efforts, and Mr. Rees of the faculty ably assisted as faculty manager. The officers, too, deserve credit for their work. The officers are: Kenneth Widenor, President; Frank Hunter, Treasurer; William Campen, Business Manager; Ralph Benedict, Advertising Manager, and Porter Allan, Liabrarian.

The Glee Club is very proud of the fact that it has been self-sustaining this year and has a comfortable surplus in the treasury. However, the organization would be a little value without the individual members who have labored hard and faithfully to surmount all obstacles and reach the desired goal. They are—

Girls' Glee Club Central High School, 1914-1915

The Girls' Glee Club was organized in September, 1914, on the same basis as other classes in drill studies, and the club made its debut at the Mid-Term Graduating Class Concert, December 17th, 1914, where the girls made a most favorable impression by their dainty interpretation of popular and classic selections.

The club contemplates presenting a choral arrangement of the opera "Carmen," assisted by Howard Steberg, tenor, and Arthur Rouner, baritone, the date of same, probably, being some day in first week of June.

The personnel of the club is as follows:

“Richard Carvel”

Dramatization of Winston Churchill's novel by

Edward E. Rose

Under the direction of Thomas E. Mills given by the

Senior Class of 1915

THE SENIOR class may well boast of the splendid production of the play, “Richard Carvel,” which was given on Friday, May 28th. It was hard for the audience to realize that the actors were only amateurs. All the participants played their parts so well that it is hard to pick out those who merit special praise. Paul Flothow, as Richard Carvel, and Harriett Sherman, as Dorothy Manners, took the leading parts, which they played very creditably. Phillip Chase, as Sir Lionel Carvel, “threw many a fit” and acted the irascible old gentleman's part to perfection. Stowe Sutton, who took part of Scipio, brought the house down with his delightful negro dialect. “Cotty” Larmon fairly caused the spectators, as well as the actors, to tremble when he put on his villain's frown in the part of the Duke of Chartersea. For the benefit of those who did not see the play and for all of you who may read this when you begin to find “silver threads among the gold,” it might be well to give a brief summary of the story of the play.

The first scene, in Maryland, opens with a party at Sir Lionel's home. Captain Lewis, the duke's emissary, is trying to win for his master the hand of Dorothy Manners. Mr. Manners, who has long desired a title, enters into a plan to gain Dorothy's consent. Dorothy, who loves Richard Carvel, is told that her father owes large sums of money to the duke, who will imprison him if the debt is not paid. On this account she consents to go to London to see the duke again. In the meanwhile Grafton Carvel, who hates Richard, the heir to the Carvel estates, has him kidnapped on a pirate ship, from which he is rescued by Captain John Paul Jones and then goes to London. Here he sends for his grandfather's agent, Dix, in order to get some money. Dix, believing him an imposter, refuses to give him the requested sum. Mr. Manners, who comes in then, refuses to recognize him; but Jack Comyn, an old friend of Richard, and an influential young English lord, comes in just in time to identify him. A few days later, at a party at the duke's home, Richard and Chartersea have a duel, during which Chartersea is stabbed in the back by Lewis, who intended to kill Richard instead. Then Richard goes to sea with Captain Paul, and Dorothy and her parents return home. The last act shows Dorothy and her chum, Patty, exploring the deserted Carvel mansion in Maryland. While Dorothy is upstairs, Richard and Captain John Paul Jones come in. Patty instructs Richard to make Dorothy jealous. "That," she says, "is the only way you will ever win her. If you make love to her, she will jest and make fun of you." Richard follows out Patty's directions and matters turn out as she had prophesied. The fourth act ends—as most plays always do end—well.

To Mr. Mills is due the credit of the play. He worked incessantly on it, rehearsing act after act, day and night. We feel that his patience was a great deal tried, too, because the actors—well, they weren't actors all the time. Too often they were just plain Seniors. Also we wish to thank Miss Towne, who came to every rehearsal and chaperoned us properly, though she was not so much of a chaperon but that we all enjoyed her company and would have missed her if she had not been there.

O.H.S. ROAD SHOW

O. H. S. Vaudeville

WITHOUT a doubt the biggest event of the school year was the vaudeville performance given in the Auditorium April 16th. Early this spring our athletic situation was seriously hampered by a lack of funds, and to overcome this difficulty it was necessary to devise some scheme whereby enough money could be raised to put our athletics on a solid footing. Accordingly Mr. Reed summoned Mr. Mills and Mr. Wotawa and suggested that some form of entertainment be arranged. That these men were successful was proved by the fact that the performance had to be repeated and by the fact that over $200 was cleared.

From the first strains of the overture to the end of the last act it was conspicuously evident that the men who directed the show had had considerable theatrical experience, which manifested itself in the almost professional work of the performers. There was a decided lack of stage fright and self-consciousness so common to most amateur productions.

The program consisted of eight acts, and one of which would have scored a big hit on any regular vaudeville bill. However, the Canzonetta Sisters proved to be the headline attraction. In this act Margaret Hofmann and Gretchen Langdon displayed a store of talent that made the audience call for encore after encore. A coquette song by Margaret Hofmann was done in a manner that could not be surpassed by Eva Tanguay herself. Gretchen surprised us with a buck dance that would make any vaudeville dancer sit up and take notice.

Next in order of laurels was "Alkali Ike." This part was taken by Eugene Chestnut, who, with the assistance of Ralph Scott and Lee Chestnut, presented such marvelous rope-swinging stunts that the people in the audience fairly held their breath.

Of the laughable features, Robert Buckingham, as the Rube from "Wahoo," had us all guessing. Not only did he fool us when he sat in the audience, but also when he got upon the stage, where his card tricks baffled the keenest observers. His success was earned in a large measure by the assistance of Kenyon Smith and Edwin Chamberlin, who were the other members of his company.

A number of pretty dances were presented by Annabell and Helen Sinclair and Elmer Campbell. The Castles themselves could not be more graceful in their dancing than were these three.

Space forbids us to comment upon every act with its just amount of praise, but suffice it to say that Howard Steberg as Dramatis Caruffo, the great tenor, and the "Big Four," a string quartet, were indispensable in making the whole show the success that it was. In the latter act, Eugene Pakes, Edwin Clark, Howard Widenor and Earl Stirling easily rivaled the famous Kneisel Quartet.

The closing feature was a sketch entitled "Music Hath Charms." Porter Allan as the love-sick youth, Frank Hunter as the book-worm, Lyman Phillips as the loyal college man, and Don Smith with his funny song and dance, were the chief fun makers. The Glee Club also appeared in this act and, it is needless to say that its work won its usual appreciation and praise. Other members of the company were: Fred Eyer, Garold Stryker, Ralph Benedict, Philip Chase, John Jenkins, Eugene Simmons, Stowe Sutton, Edwin Gould and Paul Flothow.

Besides Mr. Mills and Mr. Wotawa, to whom too much praise and credit cannot be given, the managing staff consisted of Mr. Rees, who acted as business manager, Mr. Harrington, who was the electrician, Fred Walrath, head usher, and Ralph Benedict, doorman. Fred deserves a lot of credit for the excellent way the seating of the crowd was handled. We cannot forget to mention our janitors, who helped the management a great deal in making the show come off as smoothly as it did.

We shall always remember our first vaudeville as one of the b-i-g s-t-u-n-t-s of our High School career, and hope to see it made a permanent annual feature, for without question it was one of the most entertaining and most profitable attempts ever made in the High School.

Tragedy

Senior Class gave a "hop."
Fussers, one and all,
Gaily dressed, came to stop
And dance at Seniors' ball.

Poor, scared little Freshie,
"Stepped off" at every turn;
Couldn't find his "eight-bit" fee—
Turned so "green" he wouldn't burn.

Couldn't get his program
Straightened out at all;
Ran into partner—such a slam—
They both took a fall.

Began to "spoo" a Junior's girl,
And created quite a scare;
Couldn't get the hesitation whirl,
So suddenly began to bear.

Fought with the Sophomore bunch,
Came back an awful mess;
Tipped a glass of cherry punch
On a "classy" girl's dress.

Cheer up, dear Freshman lad;
Don't give way to despair
At mistakes which seemed so bad—
You know we've all been there!

Curtain rises.

(Enter Peters, somewhat excited.)

Peters (addressing editor, harmlessly writing at desk)—
"Where's Boob? Did he say he wanted me to do anything tonight?"

Editor—"Yes, come to think of it, I believe he left a little list for you. Guess it's on his desk."

Pete (rescuing list from debris on desk)—"W-h-a-t? Did you say a l-i-t-t-l-e list? Will you look at this! Here're the names of twenty-five advertisers that he wants me to go 'round and collect a bill from. Leave it to Odell to give me all the 'dirty work'—and every one of these fellows on the list are in a different part of the burg. Well, I'll be dawg-goned if I'll do this!"

Editor (shrinking down behind the wastebasket under the desk, being somewhat terrified by such a display of savageness)—
"Well, I-I'm sorry. Whatcha goin' to do 'bout it?"

One of Your Red Letter Days Is Near at Hand

THERE should be no milestones on life's highway much more important than your graduation milestone. Many of you will then commence your life work. May the lessons that you have learned prepare you for citizenship. Never in the history of the country was there greater need of womanly women and manly men. The problems of life are more complex than at any period in the world's history.

Stand for truth.

Be faithful in the performance of your duty.

Come in and see us. We will be glad to look into your eyes—to grasp you by the hand and, if we can, counsel and advise regarding your future.

Make Your Letters Impress a Man at a Glance as Worth Reading

IF you want your letters to get results, sell the goods, collect the money, or carry a message of good fellowship, you should use stationery that will attract immediate attention and make a favorable impression.

Select Western Bond for your correspondence paper to make a lasting favorable impression.

Western Bond has qualities that mean much in making your letters distinctive. It has that leatherly feel of high-grade bond papers, strong in texture, evenly finished in white and seven colors with envelopes to match. Admirably adapted for Lithographing, Printing and Embossing.

Samples sent on request with names of printers from whom you can buy Western Bond.

Carpenter Paper Company, Omaha

Your Gas Range

supplies you with a service in your kitchen that King Henry VIII of England would have paid Five Thousand Dollars to have in his palace.

Solomon, in all his glory, never had a hot water supply you can have in your home at a small cost.

Install a "LION" WATER HEATER and make your kitchen complete.

Editor's Note

Owing to the extra expense incurred by editing this little pamphlet, we were forced to use some of Nidwy's space for advertising. We thought that it would be no more than fair but to give the students a chance for this space, therefore, so as not cause any hard feelings, space has been allotted in proportion to the amounts which the advertisers have been willing to pay. These ads are all paid for and we wish to thank each and every one of these spirited students for their kind aid to our financial embarrassments. Patronize our advertisers!

How Much Service Can You Get From Your Typewriter?

It's what a machine does, not what it costs, that is most important. All typewriters do not have the same efficiency and the operator does not get the same result on every writing machine.

The L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter will produce ten to twenty per cent more work than any other typewriter ever made. How is this possible?

Here are a few reasons:

1. It is ball-bearing throughout—others are not.
2. All operations are controlled from the keyboard.
3. It is the lightest touch machine made.
4. It does not "smut" the carbon.
5. The ribbon reverses automatically.
6. The type is so protected that it is not battered by collision.
7. One motion of the hand returns the carriage and operates the line space.
8. It has an inbuilt biller and tabulator.
9. No trouble to write on paper as small as a postage stamp.
10. It is built for service.

(Just then comes the sound of approaching footsteps and a jingle of keys and pennies.)

Enter Boob.

"Well, did you get my list? Why don't you go?"

Pete—"Now, you lookee here! I'm not a-goin' to run all over town collecting money for these ads. Why don'tcha do a little o' the real work yourself?"

Boob (with a very superior air)—"Work? R-e-a-l w-o-r-k? Why, no one knows what real work is until he is Business Manager of the Register! Now, you hurry up an' get those bills collected. Clear out o' here. I gotta write some letters on the typewriter."

Boob—"Aw, get out!"

(Exit Pete with the "little" list.)

Editor sinks in a chair with deep sigh of relief. Boob reigns triumphant over the typewriter—in sooth—the one-fingered king of typewriters.

Curtain descends.

Senior Epitaphs

Here lies "Cotty," a noble chap,
 A tennis star of notable fame;
 Helped to put us on the basket ball map,
 And fell in love with many a dame.

Here lies Alice, so very pretty,
 Exceedingly bright and popular;
 Full of "pep" and very witty,
 And liked a handsome foot ball "star."

Here lies long, lean, lanky Odell,
 With a jit, the "Orph" and his "bus";
 He could certainly raise the—dickens—
 Oh, "Boob" was sure the popular cuss.

And here lies "Bob," a fine fellow,
 Who thro' his marvelous grades of A,
 His handsome looks and grand "hello,"
 Made a bigger hit each day.

Here lies Gretchen, a pleasing girl,
 Made fame as being very bright,
 As a leader in the social whirl,
 And as an actress without stage fright.

Oh, here lies "Kip," an awful boy;
 One dream of "fussing" and flunking,
 Wearing loud clothes and having joy,
 Getting canned and doing nothing.

Here lies Martha, a quiet maid,
 The pride of her dear classmates, all;
 'Cause she has a grand record made,
 That has surely shown herself "Noble."

Here lies John and "Phil," side by side,
 Thro' riots, fights and mischievous play;
 They stuck together 'til they died,
 Those two rogues, that's what they say.

Here lies Geraldine, our "little" girl,
 A mighty popular miss was she;
 In school and in the social whirl
 Was a leader, made of "Jerry."

But here lies "Ted," a grand good scout,
 A "sluffer" when it came to school;
 But girls, gee! we had to look out,
 'Cause "Ted" at "fussing" was no fool.

Here lies Corinne, a lovely miss,
 Who had friends and friends by the score.
 It seemed like her motto was this—"Be kind and true; have friends galore."

Here lies Edwin. Yes; there were two—
 Gould, an athlete and good scout;
 Perley, Senior "Pres." and debater, too—
 Both graduated by the "honor route."

Here lies Carol, a light-haired maid,
 Wonderfully attractive and bright—
 Who love and kindness displayed,
 And won popularity, quite right.

Here lies "Walt" C. and "Walt" O.—
 "O." a quiet and brilliant lad;
 "C." a fat and jolly fellow.
 Both, with honors, did they "grad."

Here lies Paul, a successful lad—
 At basket ball he was a star,
 At winning honors he had a fad;
 In the Senior play, a success, by far.

Here lies Harriett—lots could be said,
 But there ain't much she'll let us say,
 'Cept of this paper she was the "Ed,"
 And a "star" in the Senior play.

Here lies Helen—we call her "Shep"—
 A most attractive, likeable girl;
 Full of fun and with loads of "pep"—
 Also a leader in the social whirl.

The Song of the Seniors

On the shores of the Missouri,
Of that muddy, languid river,
On the western bank above it Stands the castle of the Seniors.
Of the learned, gifted Seniors,
Stands a building we are proud of—
Stands a school we love to think of.
Four short years it is we've spent there,
Years of work well mixed with pleasure.
Soon our High School days are ended,
Soon we seek new fields of action.
With sincere regret and sadness,
Do we leave our dear old High School—
School where many a sage and athlete
Got a fund of knocks and knowledge.

Should you ask me who are famous,
I should answer, I should tell you,
Everyone in our two hundred
Has some claim to that fair glory—
Has some reason for distinction.
One great chieftain have we Seniors,
By the name of Edward Perley.
In our councils long and heated,
One may hear his voice majestic,
Chiding, guiding, keeping order.
Very many meetings had we,
Many questions we decided,
Settled with great tact and wisdom.
"Honor be to Captain Larmon!"
Cry his warriors, Paul and Freedy, Cry the students, now and always.
'Tis in basket ball he triumphs;
Many trophies has he captured.
Famed afar for wit is Windy,
Famed for poetry is "Nidwy."
Was there ever such a joker—
Was there ever such a "squibber"
As this clever, dark-haired Senior?
You shall know how Porter Allen,
How this once J. Porter Allen,
Sighs and yearns for one sweet maiden—
For Marie, his fair beloved.
Far and wide among the Seniors
Spreads the fame of Harriett Sherman.
None could edit such a paper,
None can ever "act" as she does;
None can translate Greek and Latin
As this able Harriett Sherman.
If still further you should ask me,
Saying, "Who are your great singers?"
I should answer, I should tell you,
Benedict and Martha Noble;
They the best of our musicians,
They the sweetest of our singers—
Scholarship has never suffered.
Olive, Bob and Alice Allen,
Mary Rouse and William Campen,
Glean from books tremendous knowledge—
Raise the standards of the college.
Who shall say what praise and glory
'Waits our captain of base ball?
Know ye not our stalwart Withey—
Know ye not his foot ball prowess?
Ah! I see two youths approaching,
Dressed in garments neat and stylish.
All have viewed their acts of daring—
All have wondered at their mischief.

Should I tell you who are with them—
That 'tis Helen, Shep and Carol,
You could answer, you could tell me,
"Why! 'tis Jenkins and Phil Gilmore!"
In the south wing of the building,
On the third floor of the High School,
Reigns Odell, the advertiser—
Reigns Odell, the financier.
Very modern as to methods,
Very great is he of stature;
With his hardy shoes of leather,
At each stride a mile he measures.
Hark! ye youths, and listen closely,
For I speak of maids ye all know—
Geraldine, Corinne and Marg'ret, Tudie, Gretchen, Fay and Lois.
Young and beautiful they all are,
Day by day they grow in favor.
Now we hear a mighty murmur,
Hear a sound of swelling numbers—
'Tis the girls of all the classes,
And they say in longing accents,
"Give us of your curls, oh, Stella!
Of your kinky curls, oh, Fuzzy!"
Now, henceforward and forever,
Men shall speak of your bright tresses.
Very dear to Seniors stately,
Ever loyal and untiring,
Is Miss Towne, our guardian angel.
As a token of our friendship,
As a mark of our remembrance,
One will find her name inscribed here,
In the annals of the great ones.

Oh, those long examinations!
Oh, those tedious seventh hours!
Oh, those visits to the office!
Oh, those notices of failure!
But, forgotten are these troubles.
From the brow of every Senior,
Gone is every trace of anger—
Gone is every trace of trouble.
As of one who in a vision
Sees the future, not the past days,
We await the culmination—
We await our graduation.
What will we remember later—
Will it be the work and worry?
No; 'twill be the fun and frolic.
Fun, we had in skipping classes;
Joy, we had in exchanging glances,
Passing notes and giving dances.
From green Freshmen into Seniors
Now have grown this class of wonders.
Soon depart the class of marvels,
Class of nineteen hundred fifteen,
To the greater world about us,
To the larger sphere of life.
Hark! I hear a mournful wailing,
Hear a sound of lamentation;
Hear the voices of the Freshies,
Of the Soph'mores and the Juniors.
And they say, "Farewell, forever!"
Say farewell to haughty Seniors.
Thus we leave our Alma Mater,
Leave the fountain of our learning;
Leave the school of white and purple,
Leave the High School on the hillside.
—Alice Rushton, '15.

Oracle of the Class of 1915

Fame and Fortune, what are they—
Beckoning to us o'er the way;
Claiming us to act their will,
That our hand with gold may fill?

What has fate in store for me?
May I know where is the key
That opens my life—or, how Can we but see our future even now?

Hindoo Ahmed, light your fire—
Weave a yarn that will inspire;
Hail the spirits from on high,
Let the incense smouldering lie.

Tell us, Ahmed, what of Quito—
Will she travel over seas?
Will she wander on long journeys?
"Yes, and one fair prince she'll please."

But, oh, Ahmed, we must know,
What's in store of joy or woe,
For Faye—will she leave us, too, apart?
"No; already she has another's heart."

And will Edwin be a sinner—
Shunned by us as he is now?
"No; with saints he will find harbor;
Take an humble priestly vow."

Who will lead a nation's army—
Battle with a warring throng?
"Paul, the 'kaiser,' martyr, hero,
And 'the coach' will be along."

Who will be a spinster, Ahmed,
Margaret, Alpha, Marion—who?
"No; to said fair loved maidens Hymen's solemnities are due."

Are there poets 'mongst us, Ahmed?
Wendell, will he equal Lowell?
"With his 'sonnets to Margueretha' Yes, a poet is his goal."

What will 'come of Robert's knowledge?
He holds more than wisest men.
"He will write the nation's history, Profound volumes—a thousand ten."

Ahmed, do you know of Kenyon,
Who once here did act a part
Of magician—secret—mystery?
"Yes; he'll ever play that part."

Geraldine, divine and lovely—
Will she grace a royal court?
Ahmed, is there that to hope for?
"Yes; she'll be lady in many a part."

Stella—rich, rare, Orient beauty—
Who will paint her goddess' face?
"Artists, sculptors, portrait-makers
Will seek her from every race."

None of us will be forgotten
In the gifts that life still keeps;
So, Ahmed, has your yarn inspired;
Cease your tale and damp your fire.
