NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an organization formed to honor those graduating seniors who have made outstanding records during their four years of high school work. Qualifications for membership in the organization are high scholastic achievement as well as active participation in school activities and enterprises.

Joseph G. Masters, former principal of Central High School, suggested in 1918 that a National Honor Society for high school students be organized. A constitution was drawn up by Mr. Masters and adopted by the National Association of Secondary School Principals in 1921. This is the twenty-fourth consecutive year that Central students have been elected to the society.

Membership in the organization holds special significance now during the war, when high scholarship and leadership are especially stressed. Through scholastic achievement, those students elected to the National Honor Society are demonstrating their fitness to hold positions of importance in the postwar world.

This spring a faculty committee with Mr. J. Arthur Nelson, principal, as chairman, met to elect members from the upper third of the senior class. After careful consideration of each student, the committee selected the 15 per cent who best met the qualifications of character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

During the past year, 84 new chapters have been added to the National Honor Society, making the total number of chapters 2,846. These chapters represent all forty-eight states, the District of Columbia, the Territory of Hawaii, the Canal Zone, and American schools in South America and China.

DEMOCRACY AT WORK

The Student Council, Central's mainstay of democratic student government, has been active in both community service and student organization since 1939. With the express purpose of facilitating friendly relations between the student body and the faculty through active participation in school affairs, the members of the Council have concentrated their efforts on the promotion of such events.

In addition to administrating school affairs, the Council has aided the war effort by promoting the Red Cross and Community Chest drives, and war bond and stamp sales. It also has charge of the memorial plaque which is presented to the school in honor of Central's boys who have given their lives in World War II. Other activities include organizing homeroom representatives, sponsoring school assemblies, forming teachers' helpers and ushers bureaus, checking student activities, sponsoring the annual girls' party, and acting as student host at "open house".

Present members of the Student Council were elected by their respective classes in a school-wide election. They choose their own officers. For this year they were Jean Roadhouse, president; Truman Wood, vice-president; Mary Ann Korb, secretary; Patricia Nordin, treasurer.

The Student Council is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Irene Jensen, F. Y. Knapple, and Principal J. Arthur Nelson.

DEBATE

Under the leadership of Coach Lloyd R. Richards, the debate team completed another successful year by placing third in the National Forensic League district sweepstakes tournament for 1945.

In the Missouri Valley Boys' tourney, Albert Feldman and Jack Solomon placed third. The debate squad also entered the Missouri Valley Open and the Missouri Valley Girls' tournaments.

For the first time in several years, Central was represented at the State Declamatory contest. Patricia Hunt received a superior rating in humorous declamation. Also entered were Perry London, Stanley Schack, and Jack Solomon.

Pat Ahern, Albert Feldman, Irvin Gendler, Patricia Hunt, Stanley Schack, Helen Sherman, and Jack Solomon traveled to Lincoln for the Wesleyan meet. Pat Ahern, Albert Feldman, Patricia Hunt, Fred Scheuermann, Helen Sherman, and Jack Solomon made the trip to the Sioux City Invitational tourney, where Albert Feldman placed fourth in individual ratings.

Individual honors in the National Forensic League meet went to Irvin Gendler who placed second in extemporaneous speaking; Albert Feldman who placed third in memorized oratory; and Patricia Hunt who won third in humorous declamation.

Letters were awarded to Pat Ahern, Albert Feldman, Irvin Gendler, Patricia Hunt, Stanley Schack, Fred Scheuermann, Helen Sherman, and Jack Solomon.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

The student who attains membership in the National Thespians is highly honored. Chartered at Central in 1931, the National Thespians is a nation wide dramatic club, which, unlike most organizations, is purely professional. Membership in the club is retained by the student for the rest of his life.

Qualifications for membership are one lead or two minor parts in a three-act play, or leads in six one-act plays. When they are initiated into the club by a traditional ceremony, each new member receives a membership certificate and a year's subscription to the National Thespians magazine, Dramatics.

As in former years, the Thespians, under the direction of Miss Myrna Vance Jones, club sponsor, presented two one-act plays in the Road Show, "Hick's Court" and "Girls Must Talk," under the student direction of Bette Wiesman and Violet Sharpneck.

Although in previous years plays have been submitted to the National Thespians Conference, this activity has been discontinued for the duration of the war. The 1945 Thespians officers are Dexter Peterson, president, and Dorothy Resnick, secretary-treasurer.

Members who have been exceptionally active this year in various productions are Patricia Hunt, Carolyn Bukacek, Bill Newey, Charlotte Dawson, Marilyn Miller, Elaine Lashinsky, Stanley Schack, Helen Wilson, Martha Redfield, Dexter Peterson, Shirley Krajecek, and Howard Loomis.

MISS CENTRAL XI, GRACE SMITH

CALICO BALL

Amidst the enthusiastic applause of over a thousand girls and spectators on the evening of April 16, Grace Smith ascended the throne and was crowned Miss Central XI, queen of the Calico Ball.

The eleventh all-girls' party was presented by the Student Council, and Mrs. Irene Jensen, Miss Ruth Pilling and Mr. F. Y. Knapple, counselors.

Preceding the queen in the coronation were Jean Roadhouse and Elaine Hannibal, the ladies in waiting. These three girls were elected from the nine princesses by Central girls attending the ball. Marching as princesses were Amy Jo Bergh, Bobbie Busch, Nancy Cloyd, Charlotte Dawson, Carrie Helaney, and Nancy Watkins. Completing the court were twenty-two countesses, ten class officers, and nine Student Council girls.

Prior to the ceremony a colorful program and informal dance were held in the gym.

GIRL RESERVES

The Girl Reserves, junior members of the Young Women's Christian Association, are part of a national organization formed to give service to the community and to the nation. As an affiliate of the YWCA, the Girl Reserve Club's activities are closely associated with that organization.

This year the club has participated in a Christmas campaign to dress dolls for needy children and has contributed to the USO Canteen. As members of the city-wide TOPS program, Girl Reserves serve as nurses' aides in Omaha hospitals. In addition, the club has sponsored a Valentine tea and has given a dance for ASTRP students. As part of their regular work, club members have sold decal stickers as a school activity project.

Activities held at the YWCA in cooperation with other Girl Reserve clubs in the city have been a setting-up conference, recognition and symbol ceremonies, monthly "Fun Nite" dances, and a World Fellowship program featuring Latin-American displays.

Officers for this year's club are Lucia Grove, president; Marge Sholkofski, vice-president; Ellen Jorgensen, secretary; Leona Humlicek, treasurer; and Renedell Paulson and Joan Spelic, sergeants-at-arms.

Club sponsors are Miss Angeline Tauchen, Mrs. Fern McCready, Miss Betty Jayne Backlund, and Miss Margaret Weymuller.

LININGER TRAVEL CLUB

Lininger Travel, the oldest club at Central High school, was organized in 1903 and named after Henry Lininger, a noted traveler and explorer who lived in Omaha.

Though originally a girls' club whose aims were social and educational, Lininger has gone all-out for victory this year, and the committees have done war work exclusively.

Since 1942 the club has managed war stamp and bond sales at Central and has reached a $40,000 total for the past school year. Lininger members have also rolled bandages for a Kentucky hospital, made afghans for the USO, dolls for children in the liberated countries, scrapbooks for the soldiers, and holiday favors for soldiers' hospitals.

Officers for the first semester were Martha Redfield, president; Belva Hawkins, vice-president; Elizabeth Fullaway, secretary; Betty Caldwell, treasurer; Janie Savidge and Mary Baliman, sergeant-at-arms. Martha Redfield had charge of the finances for the war stamp and bond sales.

Officers for 1945 are Elizabeth Fullaway, president; Betty Caldwell, vice-president; Aurel Reynolds, secretary; Janice Redfield, treasurer; Marjorie Putt and Joan Fike, sergeants-at-arms.

Club sponsors are Miss Virginia Lee Pratt, Miss Ruth Pilling, Miss Margaret Leacy, Miss Juliette Griffin, Mrs. Bessie Rathbun, Miss May Mahoney, Miss Dorothy Cathers, and Miss Tillie Anderberry.

SPORTS REVIEW

Under the tutelage of Coach F. Y. Knapple, Central's 1944 gridmen fought their way to within one-third of a game of first place in the Intercity league, a single loss to Tech keeping the Eagles out of first place. The main factor behind the great showing of the footballers was the outstanding play of all-city end John Steiner; all-state center Russ Gorman; and all-state back Bill Green, who was voted the toughest opponent of the year by the rough Lincoln Central squad. For the first time in many years the Eagles had two men elected to the all-state team.

The coming of the basketball season brought with it the most promising outlook since the famed five of 1940. However, the pre-season predictions proved to be faulty as a near veteran squad paced by high scoring Frank Slogr won but five games. On the other hand, Coach Ekfelt's grapplers lived up to all predictions as they finished the season with a clean slate, taking city and state honors.

With the coming of spring, the limelight was focused on track, with Coach "Pop" Schmidt's cindermen making a brilliant showing. A fine relay team of Don Brill, Cleveland Marshall, Aaron Dailey and Alan Thompson plus several excellent sprinters, and the good work of John Schmidt in the weights, helped the Eagles put on one of the best performances they have made in recent years.

The Purple standards were kept high in the two minor spring sports, tennis and golf. Veteran golfers Bob Knight, Bryce Crawford, and Dick Knight bolstered an excellent team, while the tennis quartet, captained by Dave Davis, presented an unusually fine record.
