LEADERSHIP

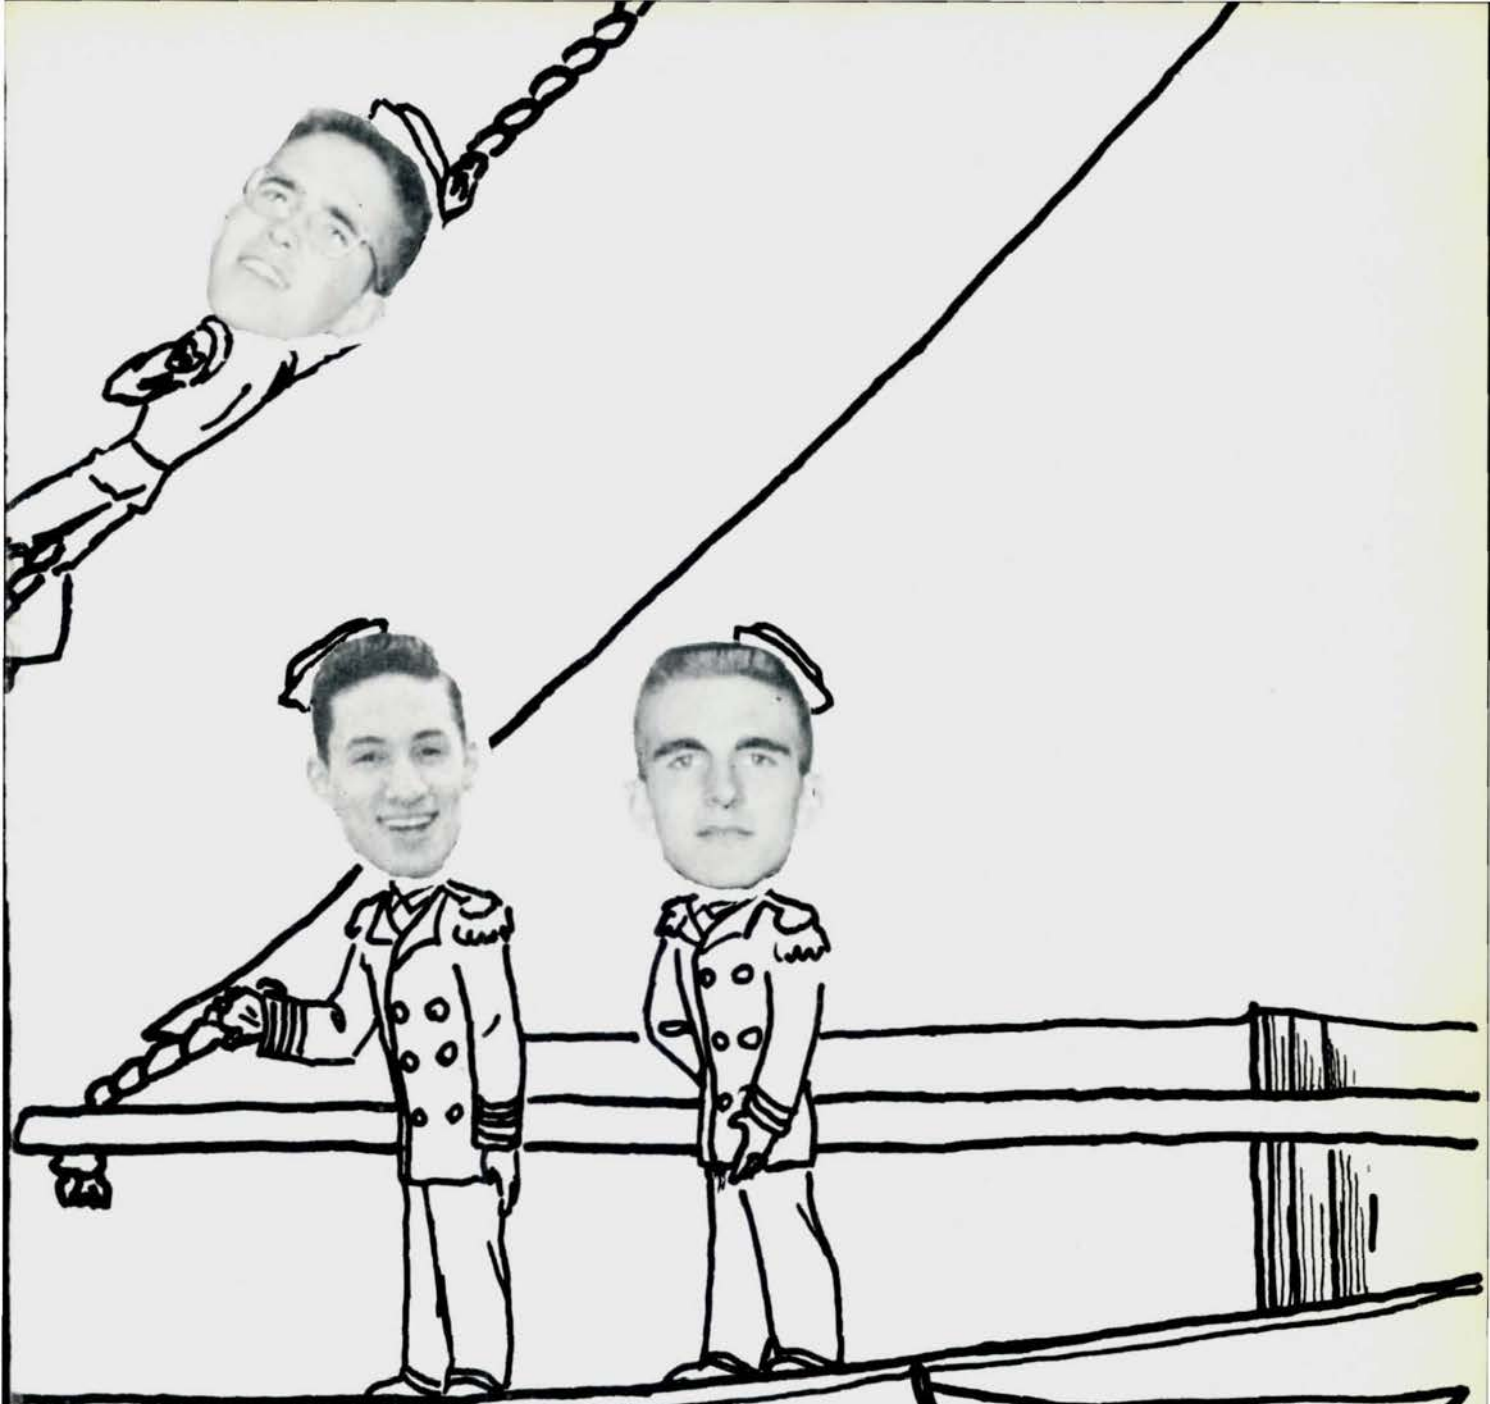

IT'S SHIP AHOY for the Senior Class of 1955. This year 342 seniors have successfully completed their four-year voyage high-lighted by the fall play, the opera and the Road Show. At the annual Military ball the senior officers and their ladies paced the deck in the grand march.

On the last knot of their trip, the seniors participated in the All Girls' Party, the senior play and the O-Ball. Upon reaching home port, baccalaureate services, the senior banquet and dance and commencement were held. After resting up from their trip through high school, the class of '55 is off for ports unknown in the realms of college and careers.

Class Officers

SENIOR PLAY—"SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER"

The dramatic contribution of this year's senior class was She Stoops to Conquer, by Oliver Goldsmith, presented May 5-6.

Marlow, played by Topper Teal, is sent to visit the Hardcastles by his father, Sir Charles (Mike Solzman), who has proposed a match between Miss Hardcastle, portrayed by Muriel Green, and his son. However, Marlow cannot find the house. Bill Watson, as Tony Lumpkin, directs them to a nearby inn, in reality the Hardcastles' house, where Marlow makes violent love to Kate Hardcastle, thinking she is a servant. When Sir Charles finally arrives, the mix-up is cleared up.

Fred Simon and Dorothy Davitt played Mr. and Mrs. Hardcastle, while Jean Jensen, Pat Kuncel, Stan Fellman, Phyllis Bradford, Dick Elliott, Prudie Morrow, and Jackie Raven took smaller parts.

With the approach of the graduation of the class of '55, senior committee members were busy planning events for their class. In the fall, under the chairmanship of Barbara Lane, the election committee supervised the campaigning and election of senior class officers.

The Cap and Gown committee, headed by Bob Weigel, placed orders for caps and gowns for graduation. The duty of the senior play committee, under the direction of Tony Lang, was to read many plays before selecting "She Stoops to Conquer" for presentation.

Arrangements for the senior banquet were made with the help of the Banquet Arrangements, Program, Table and Decoration committees under the supervision of Cindy Zschau, Suzanne Festersen, Dorothy Carroll and Jackie Raven, respectively. Projects of the committees were to decide the time, place, menu, speakers, entertainment and decorations for the banquet. Plans for the dance were made by Jim Hayes and the Dance committee.

The final plans for the graduating class were organized by Janet McLain and her Commencement Arrangements committee.

Student council was organized in 1939 to help promote better relations between Central's faculty and student body.

The 17 students comprising the council are chosen by their respective classes. To qualify, applicants must submit a petition containing 50 classmates' signatures, have a "2" average and be approved by their counselor.

Officers elected by their fellow council members this year were Speedy Zweiback, president; Sandra Garey, vice president; Helen Hockabout, secretary; Jack Byrne, treasurer, and Stan Davis and Laurie Frank, sergeants-at-arms.

The council was in charge of Road Show ticket sales and assisted in planning the All Girls' Party. As part of the Intra-City Student council, Central's members participated in the exchange program. Jerry Ziegman headed a talent show presented at a local hospital during Christmas vacation. In addition to ushering at symphonies and school functions, the council is currently revising the Purple and White Handbook.

Mr. J. J. Planteen, assistant principal, sponsored the Student council this year.

National Honor Society

Seniors outstanding in scholastic ability and participation in school activities are chosen each spring to be members of National Honor Society.

This organization, fostered by Joseph G. Masters, former Central principal, was accepted by the National Association of Secondary School Principals in 1921.

Seniors are now honored by election to the society in all 48 states, Hawaii, Canal Zone and American-operated schools in South America and China.

Principal J. Arthur Nelson and a faculty committee select 15 per cent of the senior class on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership and service to the school.

Thirteen high-ranking seniors took the National Honor Exam in March, thus automatically joining the society.

In 1923 Mr. Masters suggested that a Junior Honor Society be established. Underclassmen achieving honor roll recognition obtain one-year memberships in the chapters—Gamma, junior; Delta, sophomore, and Epsilon, freshman.

Amid applause of parents and students, Virginia Frank ascended the dais March 25 to be crowned Miss Central at the twenty-first annual All-Girls' Party.

The gala event was originated by Mrs. Irene Jensen, former Student Council sponsor, in 1934 and is the only activity of its kind in the country. Central girls elect the senior girl who has compiled an outstanding record for scholarship and leadership at Central. She is selected from princesses chosen by senior girls. There were 24 senior countesses, six attendants, club presidents and student council girls. Dorothy Loring was marshal and Mrs. Helen M. McConnell, senior girls' sponsor, crowned Miss Central. Four freshman girls served as crown, scepter and train bearers.

The functioning of Central's large ROTC department is supervised by head military instructor Master Sergeant John P. Murphy and his assistants, Master Sergeant Donald C. Turner and Sergeant Solly W. Johnson.

The Military Ball, sponsored by the Commissioned Officers' Club, was the outstanding ROTC social event of the year. The thirtieth annual ball, held January 28 at Peony Park, revealed many secrets.

After 65 senior cadets had received their promotions, Robert Larsen was named as regimental commander and received the rank of Colonel. Cadet Larsen is the first "full" colonel that the Central ROTC department has had since 1948.

Lineve McKie was presented as Colonel's Lady and received the traditional purple and white cape.

The colorful grand march, comprised of the newly-promoted officers and their ladies, terminated the festivities.

After the event, a formal supper was attended by the cadets and their dates.

Rifle And Pistol Teams

Because of a lack of veterans, the Rifle Team, last year's intracity champion, fell from the title spot. In first round firing the team finished second and placed third in the final half.

While the Central group did not retain the crown, it did gather many laurels. The target-busters, captained by Robert Weigel, placed second in the important Fifth Army Interscholastic match and has qualified for the nation-wide National Rifle Association tournament. The team also gained thirty-second place in the William Randolph Hearst match. This means that the riflemen placed higher than more than 100 other competing units.

One team member, junior John Watts, received the highest rating granted by the NRA—the Distinguished Rifleman Award—given on the basis of individual scores accumulated during match firing.

The Pistol Team, first ever formed at Central, turned in a commendable performance for its initial year. The rookie group, headed by Howard Wilson, captured first place in first-round firing, then held second-place spot the remainder of the season. All the members used their own .22 caliber pistols.

Senior Robert Forrest tied for intracity individual high by firing an 84 out of a possible 100 score in competition.

Because of participation in match firing, members of the team will be allowed to practice at the Ashland ROTC summer camp with regulation Army .45 caliber pistols.

Master Sergeant Donald C. Turner, coach of the Rifle and Pistol Teams, declares that the groups will be potent forces next year, as both units boast a high number of returning lettermen.

Steadiness counts.

Non-Commissioned Officers Club

The "Sound-Off" is the name given to the annual sox dance sponsored by the Non-Commissioned Officers club. This year's dance, given in the gym, featured the crowning of Phyllis Yoes as "Miss NCOC" and revealed the largest number of promotions, 273, ever to be announced at the annual event.

The club also sponsors a formal supper party after the Military Ball.

Hussars

The Hussars, all senior ROTC cadets, were picked early in September on the basis of height, posture and marching ability. It is the duty of Hussars to escort the royalty of the mythical Kingdom of Quivera at the annual Ak-Sar-Ben Coronation and Ball.

However, for the first time in the 60-year history of the coronation, the Hussars appeared publicly in traditional garb in advance of the coronation. By marching in the Centennial Electrical Parade, the cadets enabled all of Omaha to see their formal garb.

At the coronation and ball the Hussars received warm applause as they executed their intricate precision movements.

Because of their military finesse, the group was invited to appear at the University of Nebraska Military Ball. The Nebraska ROTC department furnished transportation and housing for the 18 Hussars and their ladies.

Crack Squad

The Crack Squad is the outstanding symbol of military precision. Each year, out of a great number of prospective junior and senior candidates, 16 outstanding cadets are chosen to comprise the elite ROTC group. These cadets are picked on the basis of military sharpness. That is, they must have a flawless manual of arms and must "snap" on all movements.

This year's squad, instructed by co-commanders Cadet Major Mark Burke and Cadet Colonel Robert Larsen, spent many extra curricular hours mastering the difficult and intricate maneuvers.

The squad was rewarded for their effort, however, for they greatly pleased onlookers at their first performance, the Military Ball. Here, they received their traditional yellow and black shoulder cords.

The Crack Squad also appeared at the Road Show, where, for three nights, they gave perfect performances. In addition to these appearances, the cadets entertained various local and civic groups throughout the whole year.

A Cappella Choir

Central's vocal music department, under the deft leadership of Mrs. Elsie Howe Jensen and officers Topper Teal, president; Mike Solzman, vice-president; Debby Janes, secretary; Cynthia Zschau, courtesy chairman, and Sandra Edstrand and Gifford Tompkins, librarians—upheld the traditional fine quality which has been associated with it through the years.

"H.M.S. Pinafore" presented December 9, 10 and 11, highlighted the A Cappella choir's performances. The Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera was a favorite of the cast and the audience. Handling the comic roles were Dorothy Davitt, portraying Little Buttercup; Fred Simon, enacting the part of Captain Corcoran, and Topper Teal as Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B. Nancy Barron, Silvia Greene, John Holmes and Phil Schrage shared the romantic leads of Josephine and Ralph. Other roles double cast were Dick Deadeye, played by Jerry Simon and Stan Widman, and Cousin Hebe, by Barbara Boyer and Joanne Moron.

Appearing in supporting roles were George Bialac, Dick Herre and Mike Solzman.

Junior and senior choir members participated in the sixth annual All-City High School Music Clinic held January 15. Dr. George Howerton, dean of Northwestern School of Music, directed the 600-voice festival chorus.

Central's concert band combined with the A Cappella choir to open the forty-first annual Road Show. The rousing medley of Vincent Youman's selections set the pace for the rapidly-moving show. Two senior quartets, the Stylemasters and Mellow-D-Men, and a senior girls sextette performed in the variety show.

White pillars and changing lights provided the background for the formally-dressed advanced voice class as they brought the show to the "Choral Climax."

Completing the choirs' performances of 1955 was the Music Festival presented May 13. As in the past, former choir members in the audience were invited to the stage to join in the traditional "Salvation is Created."

CHOIR CREED

We, the Central High School A Cappella Choir, offer our talent and our sincere efforts toward making our choir an inspiration to our listeners and to ourselves.

We will endeavor to carry on the true choir tradition, the spark of trust, and the joy of singing that make our choir the fine institution that it is.

To the future choirs, we leave our laughter, tears and the unforgettable "Salvation is Created."

Concert Band

Much of Central's school spirit is the result of the instrumental music department headed by Noyes N. Bartholomew.

The concert band played at the Military Ball, athletic games, pep rallies and school assemblies. Football games were highlighted by the band's intricate maneuvers executed during the half. The ROTC band, led by Bill Ashley, played at parades and inspections.

Central's orchestra, in addition to participating in the instrumental music department's spring concert, provided the gay musical background for "H.M.S. Pinafore."

One of the most popular units of this department is the dance band. Ken Freed directed the group which played at school dances and set the Road Show audience's feet tapping with such numbers as "Sko-kian" and "Little Brown Jug." Billie Jo Berkley and Pat Wright were vocalists for the group.

Joining with bands and orchestras from the other high schools, Central musicians participated in the sixth annual All-City Music Clinic held in January at the new civic auditorium. Lora Franklin, concertmistress of Central's orchestra, shared this position at the Festival.

Central's debate squad enjoyed the most successful year in its history under the guidance of Melvyn Wyler who just completed his first year as a debate coach.

Gene Kohn and Gary Gitnick won the number one trophy for the best debate school in the Lincoln Northeast debate tournament and in the Boys' Missouri Valley and Hastings college tournaments.

Stan Fellman and Bob Wintroub, in addition to garnering the same awards, also took the number two trophy for the best team at the Lincoln meet. They combined with Virginia Frank and JoAnn Parrish to sweep the Midland college speech tournament.

Lora Franklin-Eileen Warren and Virginia Frank-JoAnn Parrish won the Girls' Missouri Valley tourney and the latter team won the National Forensic League championship. Together with Jerry Marer who won the extemporaneous speaking division and other winners, they will compete in the national contests to be held in California this summer.

Marvin Ferenstein and Jerry Marer were co-chairmen for the Mortensen Invitational debate tournament which included students from surrounding states.

Officers for the National Forensic league were Jerry Marer, president; Bob Wintroub, vice president; JoAnn Parrish, secretary; Marvin Ferenstein, treasurer, and Stan Fellman and Virginia Frank, sergeant-at-arms.

Central's journalism department headed by Mrs. Beth Crabbe completed one of its most profitable years in garnering awards.

Sally Smith, Topper Teal and Cindy Zschau won first places in proof-reading, feature writing and headline writing respectively at the Nebraska High School Press association convention held in Lincoln. Speedy Zweiback won second place in sports writing at this competition.

Obtaining first place awards at Omaha university's press day were Phil Schrager, sports writing and Jim Maxfield, feature writing. The Register won first places for the best sports and front pages. Second place awards went to Sandra Edstrand and Joanie Abrahams, feature writing, and Stan Davis, sports writing. Ejner Jensen and Jerry Ziegman won third place in news writing and news photography.

Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, presented the Register with four awards.

Gateway certificates of merit were given to Jim Maxfield, feature writing; Phil Schrager, sports writing, and Jerry Ziegman, photography. The Register was voted best in front, feature and sports pages.

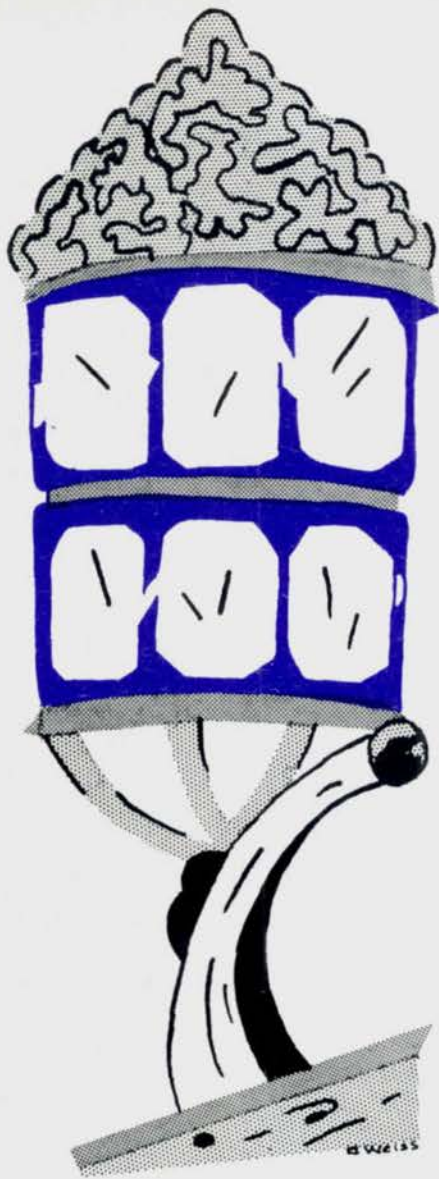

Cindy Zschau won a silver key award in profile and feature writing, and Dean Jones received a certificate in editorials.

Smiles replaced loneliness and pain at the Children's Memorial hospital and the Hattie B. Monroe home as the Colleens planned games and recreation for the youngsters. In February, the annual Valentine tea was given for members, parents and teachers. The rewards received by giving service plus the warmth of friendship makes any girl proud to be a Colleen.

This year's faculty sponsors were: Mrs. Idelle Benedetti, Miss Irma Costello, Miss Helen Coulter, Miss Marguerite Keller, Miss Virgene McBride, Mrs. Augusta Turpin and Miss Alice West.

Showmanship and a sincere desire to promote high school dramatics are the only requirements to become a member of Central High Players. In 1926 the students felt the desire for a club that would band together all students who shared this common interest in the theater. Since then the group has proved its worth in several phases.

At each monthly meeting, the club has a guest speaker who is in some way connected with show business. These meetings tend to enlighten the members on the various aspects of the theater.

The annual production of a fall play always proves to be a challenge as well as an opportunity for the players. This year's production, "Billy Budd" by Louis O. Coxe and Robert Chapman, spotlighted Paul Davies, Stan Fellman and Topper Teal in an all-male cast. This powerful drama proved the ability of these boys to present their roles with persistence and imagination. Robert Beck and his stage crew worked many weeks to have the ship scenes aboard the H.M.S. Indomitable authentic to the period of 1789.

The year's activities were climaxed at the spring banquet when the new officers were announced and "oscar" presented to the outstanding actor and actress and the best supporting actor and actress of the year. Selections were made from the fall and senior plays.

"Parlez-vous francais?" If you do, you are eligible for membership in the French Club. Students who have taken or are taking French are united in this organization to promote the language and to learn more about the people of France.

At the meetings, there may be skits, movies or speakers on France or games in which only French is spoken. Through pen-pals, the members learn first-hand about the life of a teenager in France.

One of the projects of the club was to prepare a scrapbook containing pictures of our school and its many activities. A scrapbook was also kept for the Red Cross council.

During Teachers' Convention, some girls of the club presented a skit in French for the language teachers.

The French choir, which practices weekly, is often called upon to perform at the meetings. This group derives a great deal of pleasure in singing French songs together. Silvia Greene and Holly Cyrus were leaders of the group during the year.

In the spring, the entire club looks forward to the annual picnic. After food and fun, the officers for the next year are announced.

All students at Central who are interested in art are able to become members of Greenwich Villagers. Since 1923 when the senior art class decided to organize a club to promote art appreciation, this group has been carrying out their goals.

Since most of the club's members are taking art, many of the projects are carried out in the classroom. This year, several members participated in the Regional Scholastic Art Award display during February. Central's artists placed entries in 15 of the 25 classifications considered in the contest. Judges awarded several gold keys to Centralites for their outstanding work.

Another of the events of the year was a tea given by the members for parents and teachers.

Typical of the speakers aiding members in choosing a career was Mr. Richard Kusick, a University of Nebraska graduate, who showed drawings illustrating the process of interior decorating.

Since 1922 when the Inter-American club was founded, all Spanish students at Central have had an opportunity to better understand the customs and ways of life of the Spanish-speaking peoples and to promote interest in the Spanish language and culture. At their regular meetings, the group heard lectures and saw Spanish plays and movies.

In November, the members wrote and produced "A Spanish Tragedy" which was an opera entirely in Spanish. This endeavor not only gave the Spanish students a chance to improve their skill with the language, but also it gave them an opportunity to display their artistic abilities.

Christmas was celebrated by the club with the breaking of the gift-filled Pinata and the singing of Spanish songs and carols. The club program was rounded out with the annual spring picnic.

Julius Caesar may be dead, but the Latin students at Central still have lots of energy even though their organization is one of the oldest in the school as well as one of the first of its kind in the United States. During Latin week, the group celebrated with its now annual Roman banquet. Nothing was sacrificed for the sake of authenticity, for the students ate with their fingers, reclined on couches, and enjoyed food that was typical of early Roman days. The entertainment also proved to be authentic to ancient Rome, and the students came dressed as Roman citizens, slaves and characters of mythology.

In the spring, Latin students are given the Paxson exams which were established in the memory of Miss Susan Paxson to reward outstanding students with cash awards. Thus, Latin students at Central have an opportunity to become better acquainted with the life and culture of the Romans beyond regular class work.

The Library club which is under the direction of Miss Margaret Weymuller and other librarians gives opportunity to any student who is interested in helping in the library. Most of these students meet in 121 homeroom and are active in carrying out the many tasks that are necessary in the handling of Central's outstanding library.

When new books arrive for circulation, a committee composed of Library club members makes posters to inform all students of the new material. Club members also take responsibility in checking out books during school and in replacing books on the shelves. When the library periods are over, club members stand at the doors and check books.

Although comparatively new among Central's clubs, this group has proved to be very useful and necessary for the promotion and handling of our Library.

During March, the club members carried on a "Keep Your Library Clean" campaign. Litterbugs and students who mishandled books were put on the "black list."

The Science-Math club was organized in 1947 by a group of students who wanted to promote interest in the two subjects. The group carries out its activities through various committees in biology, chemistry, physics and electronics. During the year, the committee members demonstrated experiments pertaining to their individual interests.

One of the outstanding activities of the year was a lecture and motion picture on the process of mitosis by Dr. Donald M. Pace of the University of Nebraska. Any student in a science class who was interested was invited to attend this meeting.

The club also sponsored the science-math section of the annual open house at Central during National Education week.

The club also planned a trip to the University of Nebraska Engineers' day and encouraged participation in various science talent searches and workshops.

Polio patients, old folks, war veterans, all are helped by the Junior Red Cross of Central. Services to the above groups plus projects as the blood bank, gift boxes and the National Children's fund are participated in by Central's members of this active organization.

A large chest was built by Robert Beck and his shop classes and was filled with toys, school supplies and sports equipment. This was sent overseas to be used by needy children. Money to buy the supplies was donated by all students at Central.

sored a jazz session to raise money for the National Children's fund, money which helps children at home and abroad.

The High School Traffic Council, a project started by the Intercity Red Cross council, was headed by Central senior Speedy Zweiback this past year. The aim of this group is to cut down on moving-traffic violations of teenagers.

An annual affair which is sponsored by the Intercity council is the Criss Crosser vice. At the dance, one of candidates from the high school is chosen queen.

An organization which stresses character-training among girls is the Y-Teen group at Central. This organization, in existence since 1915, is open to all girls and is affiliated with the YWCA. Central has the largest group in the city and one of the largest in the country.

As their busiest activity of the year, the Y-Teens help sponsor the annual Lenten services with the Hi-Y. The services which are held at Trinity Cathedral are greatly attended by students and teachers.

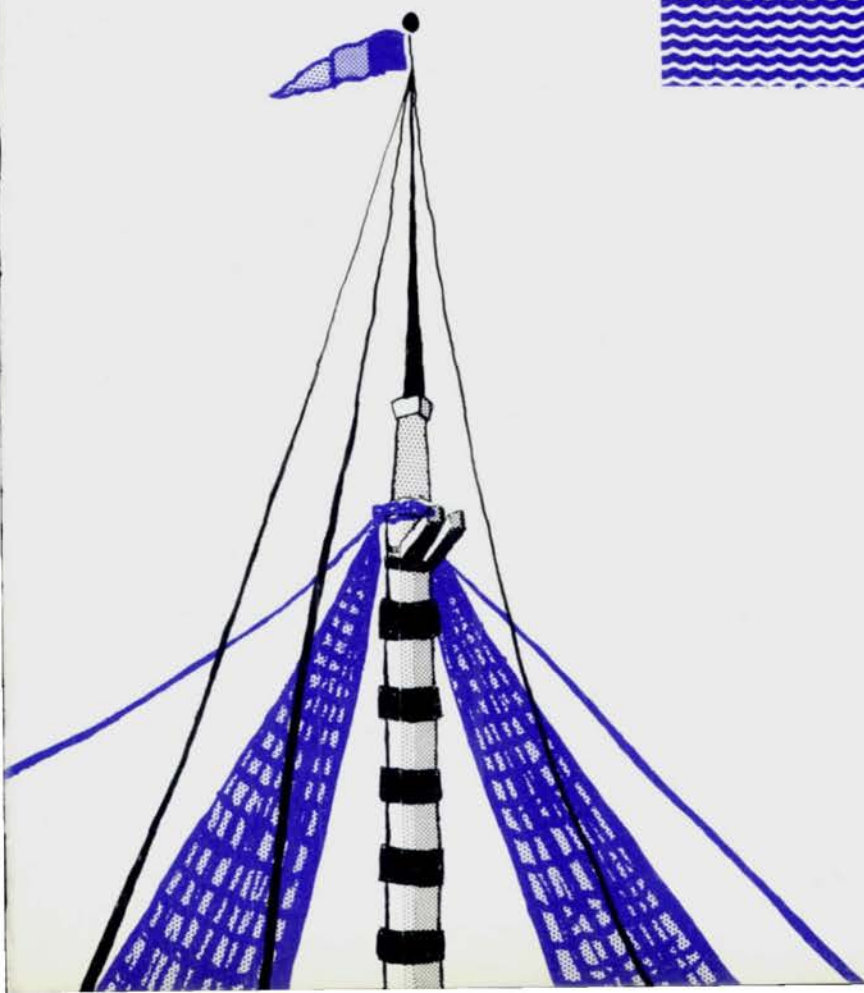

At a monthly meeting, representatives from the six public high schools meet to discuss policies and to inaugurate new projects. This year Central's group helped dress dolls for needy youngsters and made baby clothing.

In the spring, the Y-Teens held their annual tea. Another feature of the year was a style show where senior girls modeled their own clothes. On one occasion, the girls of the club were given tips on make-up by a representative of a leading cosmetic firm.

Central Kegglers

Unusual interest in the game of bowling has made this year's club the most active in Central keggling history. With a record membership of 50 boys, the club is under the direction of president Fred Simon who is assisted by secretary Marvin Ferenstein and treasurer Tanny Horwich.

Every Tuesday competition was held at the Music Box Alleys among ten five-man teams bearing names such as Oscillatoria, Gutterballers and the Bowery Boys. The 54 game schedule provided plenty of recreation and bowling experience. The championship Tami Dami team consisting of Marv Ferenstein, Tanny Horwich, Fred Simon, Dave and Stan Widman rallied to nip the Four Aces by a half a game. Kool Kegglers followed closely, one game from the winners' circle.

Three handicap tournaments gave everybody an equal chance in both singles and doubles action. Jack Oruch and Stan Widman captured the doubles crown while Oruch and Morris Shrago shared the singles honors.

Holder of the high-five averages at the close of the season included Bob Epstein 175. Fred Simon 168, Stan Widman 162. John Goldner 156 and Howard Cooper 149. Epstein also walked away with high game and high series honors with respectable scores of 245 and 613.

Central Athletes

The Central High O-Club of 1955 continues to serve the school while co-ordinating the interests and activities of Eagle athletes. Organized in 1920, the O-Club is currently under the sponsorship of football coach Frank Smagacz who is assisted by the other members of Central's coaching staff.

Meetings are held each week to plan social activities and to organize club projects. This year members sold plastic book covers to students and used the profit for the purchase of a 16mm movie camera available for use by the whole school.

Membership in the O-Club is open to any boy who has earned a letter in a varsity sport—basketball, baseball, football, track, wrestling, golf, tennis and riflery. Initiations are held each April with the yearling lettermen assuming the roles of stooges for the actives. This "fun week" is climaxed by a formal ceremony in which the newcomers are accepted as full fledged members.

Social highlight of the sports year is the O-Ball, a formal dance co-sponsored by the O-Club and the Girls Athletic Association. The dance held at Peony Park features the grand march of senior lettermen and their dates. The best boy and the best girl athletes are chosen from candidates nominated by the two clubs to reign as king and queen of sports for the year.

On The Gridiron . . .

The Eagle gridmen of '54-55 opened the sports parade with an unimpressive 1-6-1 football record.

The Purple eleven led by coaches Frank Smagacz and Jim Karabatsos, suffered fumbleitis as they lost the opening games to the top three teams in the state.

A strong Lincoln Central initiated the season by handing the Purples a 40-6 setback. Central's cross-town rival, Benson, downed the footballers 34-0 in the second game with intercity champion Creighton Prep following suit with a 35-7 victory.

The Eagles traveled to Council Bluffs for their initial win of the year. Coming behind from a six-point deficit, the Flyboys scored three touchdowns to gain a 19-6 win over Thomas Jefferson. Victory was near a week later when a fourth quarter touchdown pass was nullified to give South a 26-21 edge.

After losing to Tech 27-7, and Abraham Lincoln 31-13, the Hill-toppers met North on the Benson field. After holding a 6-0 lead for three periods, the Eagles had a pass intercepted to give the Vikes a 6-6 tie.

Bill Dunbar, team sparkplug, was elected captain at the end of the season. Other standouts include Jerry Gray, Bert Lane and Dave Pullias. Greater depth and an undying team spirit indicates a more promising future in store for Eagle grid fans.

On The Court

Eagle hoopsters played both hot and cold basketball this year. Unfortunately it wasn't until late in the season that the Marquissmen were able to take the contest that ended a 20 game losing streak.

The big one came as the win-starved Eagles pulled in front of second place Benson early in the game to whip the Cottontails 48-43 on Central's home court. With "Moon" Mullins and Anthony Wright leading the scoring attack, the team looked the best it had all year. Fired up with enthusiasm, the Purples turned in another fine performance a week later against city champion Tech. Holding a one point edge at the half, the Eagles saw the Trojans pull away in the final minute to win 48-45. The Eagles made a gallant bid in the district tourney but were bulldogged by the Cowboys of Boys Town 58-45.

Unable to put together four good quarters in any one game until the Benson fray, the Purples suffered a string of heartbreaking set-backs. More than once the Central five saw victory slip away in the last period as teams like North, Creighton Prep and South poured on the steam.

Center "Moon" Mullins, who led the team in scoring with 151 markers was followed by guard Wally Bryans with 133.

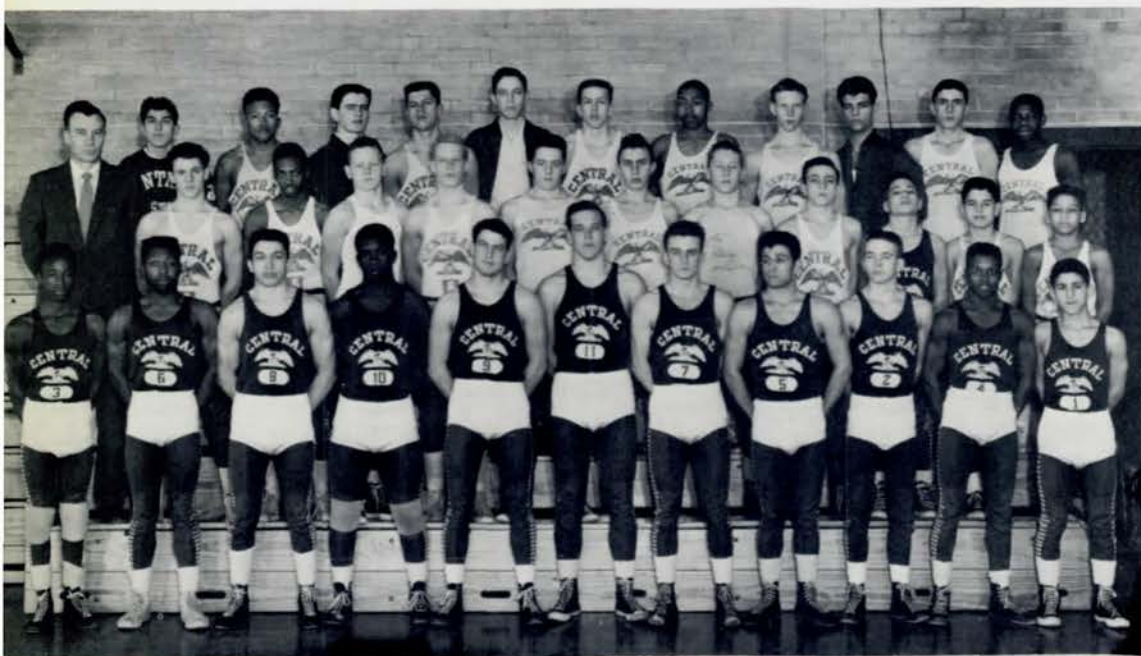

The reserves, led by Coach Jim. Sharp, garnered a third place in the inter-city league while George Andrews' freshmen tied for the second spot in their bracket.

On The Mat

North Invitational Champions . . . City Champions . . . State Champions . . . Records and opponents both fell as Central's wrestling team ended their third undefeated season in dual competition while completing their second sweep of the tournaments.

By capturing their third city title, Coach Norman Sorensen's able grapplers have compiled the longest winning streak in Nebraska's prep history with 40 consecutive victories.

With the aid of eight returning lettermen, the Purples opened the season by winning the North crown over 11 other schools. Three Eagles, Jack Byrne, Dave Roseland and Ellie Watkins, grabbed first place honors.

The matmen melted all opposition in dual matches with Abraham Lincoln, South, Tech and Thomas Jefferson falling by the wayside. The going was rough in spots, however, as North pushed the Eagles 20-19. Only by a win in the final match were the Hilltoppers able to extend their victory streak. The Purples avenged the near upset later in the season as they gave the Vikings a 24-9 lesson.

Highlighting a remarkable season by winning the State Championship with a record 58 points, the Eagles led second-place Tech by an incredible 20-point margin. Jim Goermar and Watkins garnered initial championships, while Bill Hudgins and Roseland won crowns for the second time.

Junior Hudgins led the varsity with 58 points. Team captain Roseland and Watkins were runner-ups with 56 apiece.

On The Track

Hilltop cindermen showed continued improvement in the early stages of the track season. Despite a poor showing at the Omaha university indoor warm-up, the Eagles remain contenders for top rank laurels.

Led by senior Gene Williams, the Purple crew defeated arch rival Benson 66-61 to open the busy oval schedule. Four wins by Williams in both track and field events were supplemented by Dick Kelley's victories in the sprints to lead the Bunnie conquest. Sparkling in the relay and weight divisions, the Eagles placed second behind top seeded Tech in a triangular contest a week later.

Mentor George Andrews' thinclads are banking on all round performances to make

Central a track standout. The crack mile relay team of Walt Neevel, Eugene Owen, Dave Pullias and Gene Williams has posted an early season mark of 3:36, just six seconds short of the state record. Williams, Kelley and Rich Nared head the sprinters with Stu Lynn and Larry Hagan leading the distance men.

Eagles Gene Almy and Jim Goermar are two first place discus heavers who are capable of still better performances. Goermar and Almy team with Mark Palmer in the shot section. Other dependable point getters include vaulters Jim Demco and Bob Weigel, and jumpers Pullias, Kelley and Williams.

In addition to the intercity card, the cindermen will participate in other sprint carnivals with the Tee Jay Relays, the City, District and State tournaments heading the list.

On The Diamond

Central baseballers are out to upset the apple cart this year. In pre-season forecasts, the Hilltoppers were not picked to lead the league; but something usually happens when a team contains the potential displayed by this year's diamond crew.

A three hit pitching job by North's Dwight Siebler led the Vikes to a 3-1 victory in the season opener. Fine fielding by the Purple infield along with a creditable mound performance by rookie Dave Pullias failed to make up for the Eagles' weak hitting attack.

The Flyboy infield of senior Gary Akromis and juniors Steve Rosenblatt, Bob O'Toole and Wally Bryans features both experience and hustle. Akromis, Rosenblatt and catcher Frank Anania are returning lettermen. Pitching chores are divided among yearlings Jerry Gray, Dave Pullias and Stu Westphal. The outfield of Bryant Brigance, Frank Moberg and Stan Widman combines both hitting and fielding ability. Widman was runner-up in the city batting race last year with an outstanding .472 average. Brigance followed in team standings with a respectable .328 mark. Akromis, Anania, Moberg and Pullias are also expected to furnish power at the plate.

Lack of experience forced Jim Karabatsos' squad to be rated as the underdog this season; but with a few good breaks and continued team spirit, the Eagles are bound to go places.

On The Links

Eagle golfers are fired up with enthusiasm. They have good reason to be, for last year's runner-up championship squad heralds the return of five varsity lettermen.

Under the direction of Coach Warren Marquiss, the stickmen are out to avenge the Benson defeat which cost them the city title last season. The golfing card calls for a seven game inter-city schedule climaxed by the State tournament in late May.

Captain elect Moon Mullins, Bob Epstein, John Goldner, Nate Goldston and Speedy Zweiback comprise the returning five. Epstein leads the team with his sizzling near par scores while Mullins, Goldner and Zweiback consistently average in the low forties. The five are backed by such talented underclassmen as Doug Cohn and Bill Encell.

Besides the city crown, the linksmen are a safe bet to better the fourth place of last year's State tournament squad.

At The Net

Opening the season with a 2-1 victory over Tech, the Purple netsters appear to be well on their way towards a successful season.

Under the guidance of Coach Ed Clark, the squad boasts a potentially deadly combination in Bob Hall and Lecky Young, a pair of junior boys with two years of varsity net experience. Young, who leads the singles attack, started with a decisive two-set conquest of his Trojan victim. Hall teams with Keith Stevens to form an effective doubles attack with Dick Donelson filling the other singles post.

Others likely to break into the starting four at any time include John Dillingham, John Noble, Jamie Thomas and Quay Thompson.

Climaxing a seven match card is the State tournament held at Lincoln. In pre-season forecasts the Eagles were rated among the top contenders for the city crown and by all indications should better last year's 4-5 record with ease.

G.A.A. . . .

The warm hearts of the girls provided warm hands for the children at Central Grade school at Christmas when a collection was taken to purchase mittens. This was done instead of exchanging gifts among members.

A tea was given in the spring to present awards to the girls who had successfully completed their quota of training rules and sports. At the O-Ball held in May, the senior girls who had earned letters participated in the grand march. At this event, which is co-sponsored by the O-Club, the outstanding senior athletes of the year were presented and honored.

All feminine sports enthusiasts are eligible for membership in the Girl's Athletic association organized in 1928. The club provides an active program of sports such as badminton, bowling, basketball, volleyball, softball, tennis, archery, riflery and table-tennis. These activities entitle the girls to as many as four awards.

In October, the group held its annual picnic and initiation at Elmwood park. In the spring, the girls had a chance to display their talents at camping when they held the over-night at Camp Brewster.

Pep Squad . . .

A bigger and better pep squad than Central has ever known made its initial appearance this season. For the first time, the group has an official uniform and is run by rigid rules and regulations.

The organization is now working on a constitution and on devising clever names for the squads from each class.

This year many colorful card-section cheers were worked out. The hard work that has gone into making Central's pep squad one of the best in our history has proved very successful according to Mr. Knapple and other school leaders.
