J. Arthur Nelson

Now in his fourteenth year as principal on the eagle campus, J. Arthur Nelson has served as president of the Nebraska State Education Association. Mr. Nelson received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Midland College and his Master's Degree from the University of Nebraska. He did graduate work at the University of Iowa. After teaching debate and speech at Fremont High School, he became head of the Language Arts Department at Benson High School. Having served as principal of Monroe School and as assistant principal of North High School, Mr. Nelson became chief administrator on the hilltop in 1944.

J. Jay Planteen

Assistant Principal J. Jay Planteen, a native Omahan and a graduate of Omaha University, received his Master's Degree from and did further graduate work at the University of Nebraska. From 1935 to 1937 Mr. Planteen taught science, English and social studies at Plainview Nebraska Junior High School. After serving at West Point High School for three years as an instructor in debate, speech, journalism and English, he transferred to Beatrice High School where he became principal in 1949. J. Jay Planteen entered Central as assistant principal in 1954.

Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," a delightful, romantic drama, was presented this fall by the Central High Players, under the direction of Mrs. Amy Sutton.

Those cast in major roles were Roger Laub as Earnest, Steve Fisk as Algernon, Bobbie Byers as Gwendoline, Sue Gerard and Marilee Forsha as Cecily, and Dee Schreiber as Lady Bracknell. Other character parts were played by Bernie DeKoven, Sandra Staub, Larry Humberstone, Roger Kronholm and Allen Epstein.

Mr. Norman Kirschbaum created the sets and costumes. Student Director Peggy Rubenstein and assistant Judy Hiner aided Mrs. Amy Sutton.

Publicity for the play included a display of posters warning about the approach of "Tarnese."

"There's goin to be a weddin!"

"The Clans"

"Two weary hunters lost their way."

"Waitin for my dearie"

"Come ye, all ye!"

Did someone say cheesecake?

"Brigadoon" stars . . . . Steve Bloch, Larry Gilinsky, Leroy Lindsey, Barbara Bercutt.

"Brigadoon"

A light fantasy set in the highlands of Scotland, Lerner and Loewe's "Brigadoon" was presented December 11-13 by a cappella choir, directed by Mrs. Elsie Howe Jensen.

Double cast as the male lead, Tommy, were Larry Gilinsky and Greg Minter. Carole Gomberg, Barbara Bercutt and Judy Vincentini shared the part of Fiona, while Margie Kunkel and Betty Erman played Meg. Bob Wigton and Jerry Kohout appeared as Charlie, Sally Dailey as Jean, Steve Bloch as Jeff and Leroy Lindsey as Mr. Lundie.

Familiar songs heard in the opera were "Brigadoon," "I'll go Home With Bonnie Jean", "Waiting for my Dearie," "Almost Like Being in Love" and "Heather on the Hill".

The hill top was dressed like a Scotsman during "Plaid Day," when the students wore plaid to promote the opera.

Opera leads pose . . . Greg Minter, Carole Gomberg, Judy Vincentini, Barbara Bercutt, Larry Gilinsky.

Jerry Kohout, Sally Dailey, Bob Wigton

Margie Kunkel, Steve Bloch, Betty Erman

"Don't look at me . . ."

"Where's Dee?"

"Show them your tatoo!"

"Open mouth; insert foot."

"Okay, kids, let's get in step."

You say you like flowers?

Tell them it doesn't hurt!

"Hey, you dummies, you're going the wrong way!"

"Honey Beaux" perform . . . . Roger Russell, Phyllis Jamieson, John Mullens, Nancy Fellman, Karen Brodkey, Jim Bobbitt, Susan Bloch, Jim Childe.

Road Show

A combination of talent, direction and hours of rehearsal went into the production of the 45th annual Road Show, March 19-20. Mrs. Elsie Howe Jensen, student managers Larry Gilinsky and Russ Mullens, teachers and students produced the two-act variety show, featuring music, dancing and drama.

Opening with the traditional presentation of colors by ROTC cadets, Road Show moved swiftly into "No Business Like Show Business," performed by Central Dance Band. Twelve senior girls of '59, followed by more dance band numbers, danced to the American Patrol.

Mrs. Imogene Bridges of the vocal music department directed a boys' group presentation of "Dry Bones." Swiss mountaineers from Miss Marion Treat's gym classes used Alpine sticks and authentic costumes in a rollicking mountain dance.

Several individual acts, including tap dancers, vocalists and pantomimists added variety to the performance.

"Court Capers" presented by the Central High Players under the direction of Mrs. Amy Sutton and Roger Laub, added humor to the production.

Included in the second act was the crack squad performance commanded by Russ Mullens and Justin Greenberg, an orchestra production "Ala Mardi Gras," speech choir's "Mrs. 'Arris Goes to Paris," and the choral climax featuring a cappella choir in "It's a Big, Wide Wonderful World."

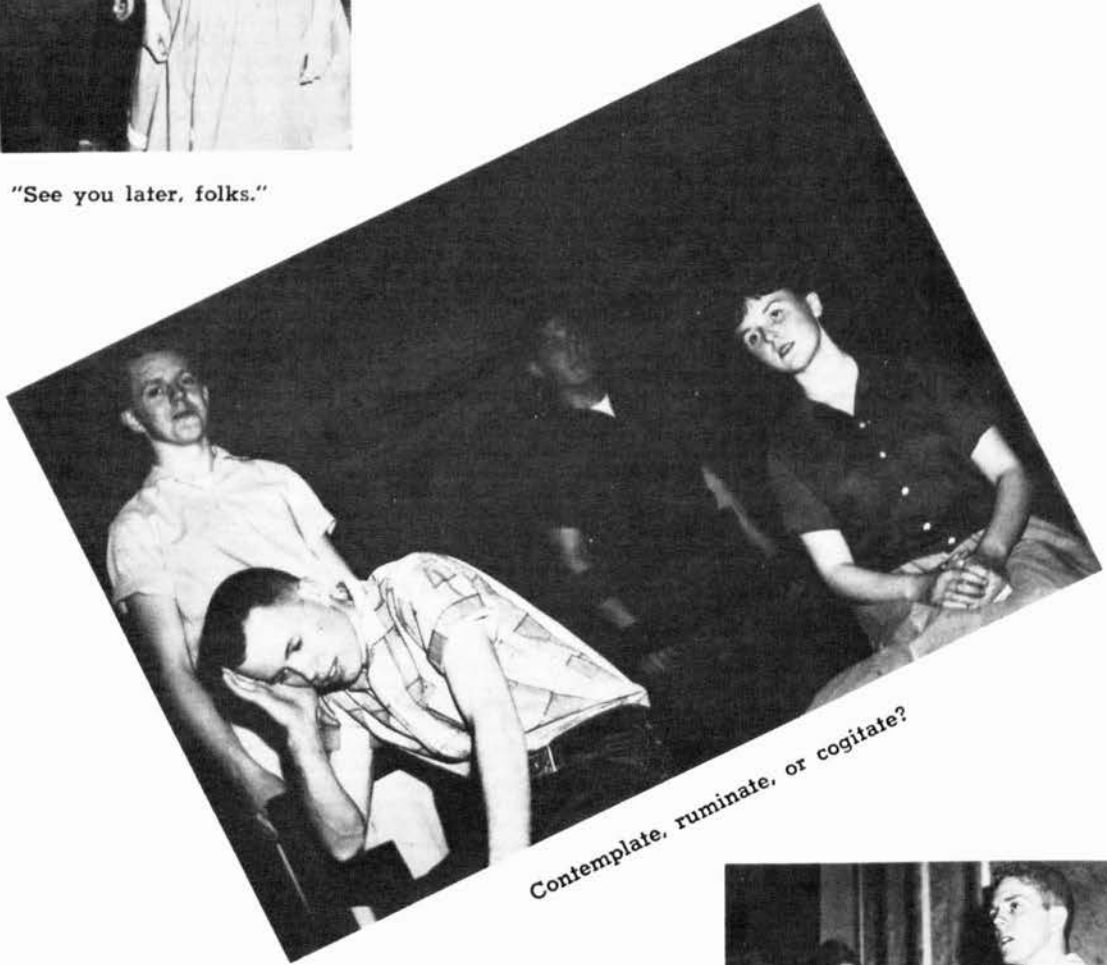

"See you later, folks."

"Come on, you can tell me."

Contemplate, ruminare, or cogitate?

A long life without point?

"Helen!". . . . . "Conway!"

"Lost Horizon"

Jim Martin

Barbara Bercutt

Russ Mullens

An adaptation of James Hilton's "Lost Horizon" was presented May 1 under the direction of Mr. Norman Kirschbaum.

Principal characters were Conway, portrayed by Jim Martin, Helen Briac, played by Barbara Bercutt, Chang, by Howard Slusky and Mallinson, by Russell Mullens. Others were Jim Sophir as Barnard, Marcia Sikora as Miss Brinklow and Bernie DeKoven and Greg Minter as the High Llama.

Supporting roles were played by Steve

Fisk, Betty Erman, Barbara Adler, Steve Gould, Jane Matthews, Michele Simon, Nancy Fellman and Linda Hill.

The plot centered around four people who were brought to Shangri-la in the mountains of Tibet because the High Llama was dying and was seeking someone to replace him.

Larry Gilinsky, as student manager, aided Mr. Kirschbaum, who also designed the scenery and had charge of costumes.

Debate

This year's debate squad, one of the largest in Central history, was coached by Mr. Don Johnson.

Debaters started the season at the Tech Beginners' Tournament in November. The teams of John McLoughlin-Dale Pearson and Bette Jafek-Renee Rimmerman were undefeated, while the former received a trophy for high points.

Justin Lewis was named "Outstanding Speaker of the Senate" at the Student Congress, held at Cathedral High School, November 8.

Sioux City, Iowa, was the scene of Central Tournament, where the teams of Sam Bleicher-Dick Kaslow and Ed Sidman-Larry Kohn won 9 out of 10 debates. Repeating the score at the University of Nebraska State Debate Tournament were the teams of Stan Greenfield-Justin Lewis and Ed Sidman-Larry Kohn.

Eagle debaters tied for second place with Hastings in the National Forensic League District Tournament. First place went to Lincoln Southeast. Central's Mary Jean Horn captured second prize in dramatic declamation.

This year's student body and faculty saw 24 speech choir members, under the direction of Mrs. Amy Sutton, perform on the Central Stage.

During the Thanksgiving season, the choir presented "A Nation Prays," written by Bernie DeKoven, at a student assembly.

Dickens's well-known Christmas Carol, the story of an old miser named Scrooge, was effectively performed by the speech and a cappella choirs in December.

Road Show featured a speech choir skit entitled "Mrs. Arris Goes to Paris."

Speech choir participants must have completed Speech I and II. The choir covers Speech III-VI and is directed by Mrs. Amy Sutton.

A Cappella Choir

Directed by Mrs. Elsie Howe Jensen and accompanied by pianist Mrs. Delma Barber, a cappella choir has completed another successful year filled with activities and work.

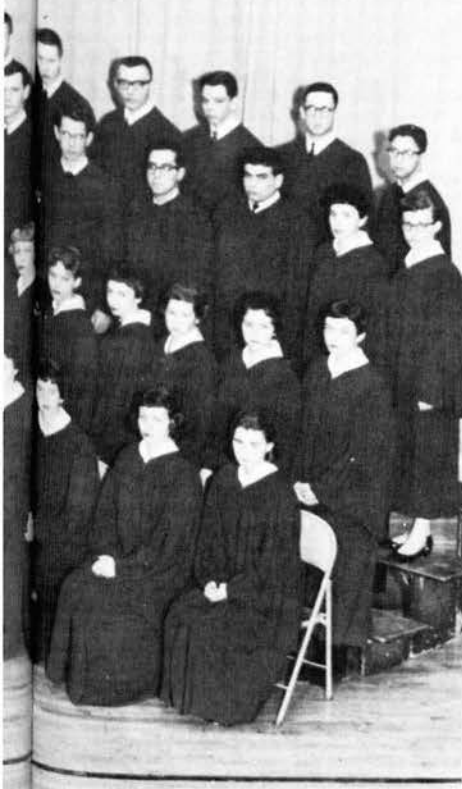

Choir members started the season by participating in Central's Thanksgiving program. December 11-13 were red-letter days on the choir's calendar, as the entire group presented "Brigadoon." Following closely behind the opera was the choir's presentation in the Christmas assembly. On December 20th, the students gathered at Union Station and sang beneath the huge Christmas tree.

"It's a Big, Wide, Wonderful World" was the finale number presented by a cappella choir in Road Show, March 19-20. Five soloists from the group participated in Y-Teen-Hi-Y Lenten services during the same week.

During January, guest director Dr. Haggard visited Central for a day and directed the All-City Music Clinic, in which junior choir also participated.

The month of May brought the Vocal Music Festival, presented in Central's new auditorium. It featured a variety of numbers by Girls' and Boys' Glee, girls' Choir, junior choir and a cappella choir. Climaxing the festival was a presentation of "Salvation is Created," sung by choir members and Central graduates in the audience.

Concert Band

Instrumental music instructor Mr. Jess Sutton has completed his first year at Central as director of concert band. The group made its first appearance this season during the autumn football games. Clad in white uniforms, the musicians performed at half-time under the direction of Drum Major Milton Katskee.

In January, band members played for the Military Ball and the All-City Music Clinic, which was held in the Civic Auditorium.

Climaxing concert band's busy year was its performance at the Instrumental Concert on May 8.

Under the baton of leader Bill McGinn and director Mr. Jess Sutton, Central's dance band for 1958-9 has completed another busy season. The all-mate group was composed of instrumental music students who took an interest in dance band music.

The Eagle musicians appeared at Kel-lom and Dundee schools, the Central Sound-Off, the South Sound-off and Westside's basketball finale.

FIRST ROW: Irvine, Olson, Richards, Larsen, D. Ahlstrand, Dickerson, Matsunami, N. Brodkey.

COUNTER CLOCKWISE: D. Ahlstrand, Larsen, Matsunami, Richards (Past Regional Secretary), Dickerson, N. Brodkey, Olson.

Student Council, sponsored by Mrs. Jean Skinner, has been more active than usual this year. The 18-student group, headed by President Dick Ahlstrand, met during third hour every day to plan their activities and discuss various problems.

November 14-15 were two very busy days for Central Council members, as the Inter-State Student Council Convention was held in Omaha. Months of advanced planning and work brought about this successful gathering.

In addition to collecting information and advertisements for the student directory, Student Council conducted homeroom representative meetings and ushered at various student activities.

Boys' State

Gaining top honors on the University of Nebraska Agricultural campus were 1958 Boys' Staters Steve Bergquist, Dick Ahlstrand, Roger Laub, Steve Fisk and Roger Sharpe. Sponsored by the American Legion, the week-long session included mock government sessions, elections, examinations and lectures.

Steve Bergquist placed highest among Nebraska high school boys in the government exam, while three other Centralites followed closely behind. All four received trophies.

Girls' State

Meeting with several hundred Nebraska high school girls on the University of Nebraska campus, June 15-21, were Lynda Brayman and Rozanne Siporin, Girls' Staters for 1958. Their week of activities was similar to that of the Boys' Staters.

Lynda Brayman scored highest in the government exam, while Rozanne Siporin placed among the top ten. Chosen as alternate to Girls' Nation, which was later held in Washington, D.C., Lynda also held the office of Supreme Court Justice.

Alternates were Nancy Richards and Marilyn Eichhorn.

SECOND ROW: Brayman, Siporin. FIRST ROW: Richards, M. Eichhorn.

Mock United Nations Assembly

SECOND ROW: Cowman, Karre, Richter, Brayman. FIRST ROW: Taras, Isack, Gerard, Koop.

Sponsored by Mr. Joe Fisher, Central's eight delegates attended the Mock United Nations assembly at Duschesne College in October. Present at the gathering were girls from various Nebraska and Iowa high schools, including several from Omaha.

Before attending the General Assembly, where they voted on the various proposals, each delegate joined a discussion group. Central's representatives took the viewpoint of Turkey in these groups.

Delegates were Lynda Brayman, with Mary Koop as alternate; Joyce Cowman, with Marlys Isack as alternate; Sue Gerard, with Jane Taras as alternate; and Joan Richter, with Carolyn Karre as alternate.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

Organized in 1893, the Central Cadet Regiment trains students in leadership, military discipline and respect for authority. During the first year, a battalion of four companies was trained by an officer from Fort Crook, who was assisted the second year by commissioned and non-commissioned cadet officers.

In 1937, the War Department reorganized the cadets into a ROTC regiment. Four years later this regiment became a battalion consisting of four regular companies and one freshman company. The school has since been restored to a regiment with seven regular companies: A,B,C,D,E,F,G and an eighth, band.

In the year 1939, the Cadet Officers' Club was organized to replace the Senior Cadet Club, which had been in existence since 1895. Also re-organized in 1939 was the Cadet Non-Commissioned Officers' Club.

Central High's Regiment's major activity this year was the military ball, held January 23rd in the Peony Park ballroom. Following an impressive, colorful grand march by the officers and their ladies, 52 senior cadets received promotions. Assistant Principal J. Jay Planteen climaxed the evening with his announcement that Cadet Fred Burbank was to be cadet colonel and was to assume the duties of regimental commander. Nancy Richards was chosen by the senior cadets to serve as honorary colonel. Following the ball, a dinner party for new officers and their ladies was sponsored by the Commissioned Officers' Club.

KING'S HUSSARS

By the royal command of His Majesty King Ak-Sar-Ben the 64th, the King's Hussars, clad in dashing red and green uniforms, paraded through the palace of Quivera. Drilled to perfection, the cadets formed intricate movements at the commands of Cadet James Allison.

By the royal command of Her Majesty Queen Ak-Sar-Ben the 64th, the Queen's Hussars, in their traditional white garb, quick-stepped through the coronation with skill that amazed the court of Quivera. The cadets demonstrated wheels and wedges at the commands of Cadet Paul Madgett.

RIFLE TEAM

Targeting its way into second place in inter-city competition, the 1958-59 Central rifle team had a remarkable 907 average. Coached by Sfc. Troy Woody, the team lived up to the fine precedent established by previous Central teams.

It would be impossible to mention the fine performance of the rifle team without mentioning Terry Foster, captain of the marksmen. He garnered the highest inter-city score for match competition by firing a brilliant 194. Terry also placed third among the league marksmen for high inter-city averages and attained runner-up position for high average prone. Other members of Central's high five were Dave Krecek, Peter Hoagland, Ken Johnson and Bill Shamblen.

The Eagles also fired an excellent score for its first match in the Fifth Army Hearst Trophy Competition, held among 250 schools in thirteen mid-western states.

Central boasts a second or reserve rifle team. This team furnishes substitutes in case a member on the high-five cannot fire. It also provides underclassmen with the opportunity to gain experience in firing so that when they qualify for first team, they will have had the advantage of practice on the rifle range.

CRACK SQUAD

The Central Crack Squad is a precision drill team which was commanded this year by cadets Justin Greenberg and Russell Mullens. At the beginning of the school year, new crack squad members were chosen from the outstanding cadets in the regiment. Selections were made on the basis of cadets' individual performances of the crack squad manual-of-arms, as well as on their posture and general appearance.

As soon as the new group was organized, the cadets attended nightly practices at which they became acquainted with many forms of new and more difficult manuals.

All this work was soon put into use, for the January military ball called for a debut appearance of the crack squad. Immediately following their breath-taking performance, the cadets received their crack squad cords from Miss NCOC, Pam Bartling.

After two thrilling appearances at Road Show and several others at Omaha men's clubs, the crack squad rounded off its year's activities at a dinner held in honor of its commanders.

Central claims a first with the only military band in the state of Nebraska. Commanded by Cadet Captain Milton Katskee, it joined the civilian marching band to participate in all half-time ceremonies of the Eagle football games this season.

Military Band plays at all ROTC functions, such as the city-wide ROTC Review, in which all the ROTC departments of Omaha are represented. Also, it provides march music for Central's Retreat or year-end review.

Mr. Jess Sutton, Instrumental Music Director, and two student directors led a military band concert at the military ball, held January 23rd.

Aside from musical activities, the Band Company has always rated outstanding in marching proficiency, as well as being among the top companies in the Best Company Competition.

With Mr. Jess Sutton's aid, the band has been a fine representative body of both the school and the military department.

COMMISSIONED OFFICERS' CLUB

Commissioned Officers' Club plans the activities of the Central ROTC regiment. It also provides a sounding board where officers can "air" their problems.

The Central ROTC unit is unique in that it is the only full regiment in an Omaha high school. Since the military ball, it has been under the leadership of Cadet Colonel Fred Burbank and his executive officer Cadet Lt. Colonel Peter Hoagland.

Cadet Lt. Colonels John Hofschire and Jim Allison command the regiment's two battalions. Company captains, in turn, command the eight companies which make up the battalions.

Members of C.O.C. put forth much effort this year in the planning of the military ball. Problems that confronted the various committees, such as seating, decorations, entertainment and grand march were solved by the cadets, military instructors and faculty members.

Pam Bartling

Non-Commissioned Officers' Club is comprised of sophomore and junior cadets. Its purpose is to train younger members of the ROTC program so that they may be able to assume responsibilities in organizing and planning the programs for their senior year. In accordance with this purpose, all cadets between the ranks of corporal and master sergeant may join the group and assume the tasks for which they are best suited.

On November 29, the members of NCOC saw the results of several weeks effort and work on their part. On that evening, the Sound-Off Dance was hailed a tremendous success. Experience which the cadets gained in planning the Sound-Off will prove valuable when they organize next year's military ball. Highlighting the dance was the announcement of Pam Bartling as Miss NCO for 1958-59.

At the military ball in January, John Lydick received the Fred Hamilton award as outstanding NCO of the year.

MILITARY

POLICE

Military Police is organized to apprehend all cadets who do not conform to the Central Regiment's Code of Ethics and certain other army rules of conduct.

Cadets in the Military Police platoon are selected on the basis of character and general appearance. They are among the finest cadets in the regiment.

MP's are on duty at all ROTC functions in which the Central Regiment participates and at all Central football and basketball games. It is their job to keep order and to prevent anyone from getting injured in the crowd.

Commanded by the Regimental Provost Marshall, Cadet Major Roger Sharpe, the MP's are organized into one platoon of four squads.

Central High Players

Main objectives of Central High Players, as expressed in the preamble to its constitution are "To give opportunity for participation in dramatic activities, to promote standards of criticism of the drama and the theater and to develop a more general interest in these accomplishments throughout the student body of this high school."

Initiation of new members on the auditorium stage marked the beginning of Central High Players' activities for 1958-59. Soon many members were busy rehearsing in the cast of "The Importance of Being Earnest" and later on, in the group's Road Show skit,

"Mrs. 'Arris Goes to Paris To Buy A Dior Gown."

Traveling Troupe was sponsored by the Players for entertainment at various hospitals, programs, and homes for the aged. Among the group were vocalists, instrumentalists, pantomimists and other students with varied talents. Allen Epstein headed this year's troupe.

Now in its 33rd year of existence as a Central girls' group, Colleens has continued as in the past to serve the school and community. By dividing the huge membership into several committees, Colleen officers have been able to carry out their plans efficiently. Also, the committee system has allowed every girl to take an active part in group doings.

Thanksgiving provided a project for the Adopt-a-Family committee, which gathered canned goods from students and delivered them to a needy family. Christmas found the Adopt-a-Family and Christmas Tree committees both at work, the latter decorating a tree in Central's east hall. Together with Y-Teens, Colleen members took orphans on an exciting tour through the downtown stores to see Santa Claus.

Monthly meeting programs included a fashion show with Colleens doing the modeling. In February, the group invited the faculty and the mothers of cabinet members to its annual Valentine Tea.

Throughout the year, the girls made favors and scrapbooks for hospital patients, visited the hospitals and sold tags for various charity organizations.

Among their many other projects, Colleens collected clothing for a needy family at Easter time.

Completing its fourth year as a Central High group, Homemaking club is now sponsored by Miss Alice Buffet, Mrs. Fern McCready and Mrs. Esther Dillman. All girls enrolled in homemaking are eligible for membership. The group's main purpose is to promote interest in home economics.

Its list of activities for this year included two field trips. The girls visited the Landon Court Day School for small children and toured the Metropolitan Utilities District.

During one meeting, a panel of Omaha University senior girls spoke on the "Future of Home Economics." In March, Trudy Erwin, a junior at Central, told about her trip to Mexico.

At Christmas time, club members held their own party and also decorated a tree for a needy family. Another project completed this year was the sewing of six blouses for an orphanage. A spring picnic climaxed the year's activities.

Founded by a group of senior students who wanted to promote interest in art, Greenwich Villagers was formed in 1923. It is open to all students who are interested in art.

Activities for the year 1958-59 included the designing and painting of posters for the Fall play, Road Show, the opera and the Spring play. Many of the club projects were carried on during the art class periods.

At the December meeting Mr. Robert Riggs from Joslyn Art Museum spoke on the ideas of modern art. A few meetings were devoted to a drawing session, purely for the enjoyment of those who like to dabble in art.

The Central High chapter of Future Nurses of America was started in 1956 by Mrs. Dwyer, the school nurse. Its main objective is "to provide high school students interested in nursing and its related fields with experiences which will further their understanding of the medical profession".

Visits to various Omaha hospitals and speeches given by authorities provided first-hand information for club members. By participating in such activities as singing Christmas carols at a local hospital, members learned to serve others.

All upperclass boys and girls are eligible for membership.

Its main goal being to acquaint members with the teaching profession, Future Teachers of America was formed at Central in 1955. Any student who has an interest in teaching may join the club.

Formal initiation into the Future Teachers of America is performed only when a member has acquired a certain amount of activity points. These may be earned by helping a teacher, ushering for teachers' convention, open house or other school functions, and performing services to the faculty.

Each monthly meeting is designed to help members learn more about the teaching career. Every member belongs to a committee which organizes and carries out the various activities.

Club sponsors for 1958-59 were Miss Irene Eden, Miss Ruth Pilling, Miss Josephine Frisbie and Mrs. Ruth Barrett.

Affiliated with the Young Men's Christian Association, Hi-Y strives to "create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character." By participating in school and civic activities, the group manages to carry out its goals.

During March, Hi-Y and Y-Teens jointly sponsored Lenten services at Trinity Church. As a service project, the boys managed a sale of Christmas trees.

Social events included an induction party for new recruits at the Field Club and the intra-city Hi-Y Coronation Formal. Featured at the Spring dance was the election of the Hi-Y queen, chosen from school candidates.

Delegates attending the Hi-Y model legislature in Lincoln this year introduced a bill to further the place of the senators in Nebraska.

The advisors to Hi-Y this year were Mr. Hanna, Mr. Edmundson, Mr. Motzkus and Mr. Schellenberg.

Sponsored by Mr. Duane Perry, head of the mathematics department, Math club was organized in 1955. Previously combined with the Science club, Math club separated because the joint group covered too broad an area. All students who have an interest in mathematics may join.

Among the programs presented at meetings this year was a talk by Mr. Hanna on "Mathematics and South American Culture" and one by Mr. Perry on "Fibonacci Numbers and Other Interesting Concepts of Mathematics". Refreshments are usually served at the meetings.

Almost every year the club sponsors a math contest in which members may compete free of charge. Non-members are required to pay a slight fee.

Now in its 36th year of existence, Inter-American club tries to promote an understanding of Spanish-speaking countries. Members must either be taking Spanish or have had one year of study in the language.

Each monthly meeting is opened by the president and follows along with officers' reports given in Spanish.

Designed to increase one's skill in this Romance language, club programs ranged from a game of Spanish bingo to the presentation of Spanish plays. Christmas was celebrated with the breaking of the Pinata and the singing of carols in the Spanish tongue.

During one meeting, Philip Gorelick, a second-year Spanish student, showed slides on his summer trip to Spain.

Under the direction of six main committees, including newspaper, program, publicity, refreshment, scrapbook and social, the year's activities were performed.

Various projects included sending a CARE package to France, compiling a scrapbook and writing to French pen-pals.

Highlighting French Club's special events were the Christmas party and the final picnic, at which new officers were announced and an award for outstanding work in French was presented.

As a youth service organization, Red Cross Council endeavors to help people in Omaha and around the world. Its many activities include helping supply the Regional Blood Bank with blood bottles, visiting polio patients at St. Joseph's hospital and providing food, clothing and toys for needy families. Some of the clothing was shipped overseas.

One main goal of Red Cross Council is to build international friendships. Central's council helped this year by co-operating with the International Exchange program.

The Red Cross Inter-City Council, which meets monthly at various Omaha high schools, sponsors the annual "Criss Crosser" dance and chooses a queen from school candidates. Representatives to this Inter-City Council attend an international camp meeting each year.

Entering the yearbook as one of Central's newest groups, Library club is under the direction of librarians Margaret Weymuller and Catherine Blanchard. The members' only requirements are to have passing grades in all subjects and an interest in books. Anyone who receives a failure notice is automatically suspended from club participation.

Library club members keep busy by putting away books, straightening shelves, helping students, checking out books and publicizing Book Week. At the end of each library period, they check to see that all books have been stamped.

Affiliated with the Intra-City Library Council, the Library club sends delegates to help plan and carry out the annual pocket book sale. This year, Central members arranged the Inter-City Book Display.

Awards of credit toward the purchase of any book are given annually to the five members who contribute the most time to library work.

Central's Y-Teens, first organized 44 years ago as part of the Girl Reserves of the Young Woman's Christian Association, became in 1918 one of the largest clubs in the country. It officially changed its name to Y-Teens in 1946.

Some of the outstanding services among the group's activities include visiting polio patients at various hospitals, taking orphans on a tour of downtown stores at Christmas and selling bangles for needy organizations on street corners. One of the special programs for this year was assigning some sort of service project to each committee. One compiled a Christmas card album and sent it to an Indian reservation.

Y-Teens and Hi-Y jointly sponsored a school Thanksgiving program last November. In March, the two groups joined again to arrange Lenten services for Central students and faculty.

Y-Teen representatives from the six Omaha public high schools meet at regular monthly meetings to discuss their problems and to introduce new ideas.

Besides being a service organization, Y-Teens also functions as a social group. Not only does the intra-city council plan to have a party almost every month, but also the Central Y-Teens hold a spring tea for club members and teachers.

Each summer a conclave is held for executives from neighboring schools in Nebraska.

Outdoorsmen

In 1952, four sophomore boys founded the Central Outdoorsmen club. The group now meets once a month and tries to promote interest in conservation and the outdoors.

Main activities this year revolved around a series of camping trips. Center of attention during these trips was the teepee. Included in the program was a lesson about survival camp-outs.

Outdoorsmen social activities were the spring picnic and the annual banquet, at which next year's officers were announced.

Since September, 1957, Jim Allison has been making a movie film of all Outdoorsmen doings—parties, camp-outs, banquets and picnics. The film was used this year to initiate new members into the club.

Perhaps one of the oldest groups at Central High, Latin club was started 56 years ago by Miss Susan B. Paxson and Miss Ellen Ronney. Its purpose is to acquaint Latin students with the daily life and customs of ancient Rome. Members must either be taking second-year or advanced Latin or have completed two years of study in the language.

Club meetings were held every other month this year. Interesting programs included a panel discussion on Italy by Miss Ruth Pilling, Mr. Frank Rice and Miss Bavaresco. Also, several members presented a few brief scenes from Shaw's "Anthony and Cleopatra."

Climaxing Latin club activities for this season was the Roman banquet which was held in April. Food was served in the cafeteria by freshmen slaves, while second-year and advanced students relaxed at the tables. Entertainment, costumes, food and decorations featured an ancient Roman theme.

In 1947, a group of students organized the Science-Math club; but the club divided into two separate organizations in 1956. At present, the Science club is composed of approximately 45 members who are divided into two divisions, Physical Science and Biology.

One of the most interesting meetings of this year was a demonstration on the measurement of radiation. Another program included a discussion by Dr. Harry C. Henderson, resident psychiatrist at the University of Nebraska psychiatric ward, on the encephalograph, a graph of the brain's waves.

An excursion to the radiation laboratory at Veterans' hospital was another activity which the members accomplished during the year.

Many Science club members also enjoyed working on individual projects, such as setting up a biological display in the hall showcase.

The only qualification for membership is that the student be studying Russian.

During the March meeting, Russian club members were visited by World-Herald reporter and photographer Herb Armburst, who did a feature article on the group and their Russian dancing.

O-Club was organized 39 years ago to promote sportsmanship and citizenship among the Eagle lettermen. Any boy or student manager who wins a varsity sports letter automatically becomes eligible for club membership.

O-Club's major activities for the 1958-9 season were in the service, spirit and social areas. Members helped promote the sale of Eagle book covers to increase the school's treasury funds. They also sponsored a basketball pep rally in February and participated in other rallies during the year.

Culminating the year's doings was the O-Ball, a formal dance planned and managed jointly by O-Club and G.A.A. The King and Queen of Central Sports were crowned in the Peony Park Ballroom, and trophies for outstanding athletes were presented.

On September 13, a band of purple and white clad gridgers trotted onto the Creighton Stadium turf to begin one of the most satisfying seasons in Central football history. The 6-2 over-all record was not the best ever won by an Eagle ball club; but considering the obstacles which had to be overcome to achieve it, the record was truly outstanding.

Outweighed in almost every position and hindered by a lack of experienced linemen, the gridmen unleashed an attack based on blazing speed and pin-point passing. Roaring past Lincoln High 32-30, they set the pattern for an entire season.

Coupled with the lack of weight and experience was a rash of injuries to key players. This began in the second game, against South High. Charlie Dickerson, a two-year letterman and first string quarterback, and Dan Benjamin, a guard, were sidelined with a broken hand and separated shoulder, respectively. Dick Harrow stepped in to fill the gap left by Dickerson and led the team to four straight mid-season victories. All of these games were characterized by the speed and determination of the Eagle players.

High point of the season came in the sixth game when the Eagles soared to a 54-14 conquest over Benson High and scored more points than any other team in Central history.

The Eagles' performance rated a third place rank in the Inter-city League and a fifth place rank in the state.

Roger Sayers, the Inter-city scoring leader, was the only Central representative on the World-Herald's All Inter-city first team. The Council Bluffs Non Pariel placed Charlie Dickerson and Roger Sayers on its All Inter-city team.

SWIM TEAM

Under the instruction of Mr. Ed Clark, the varsity mermen had, by all measurements, a successful season.

Their fourth season of competition ended with a 5-2 dual meet record. A tainted loss to Creighton Prep and a defeat at the hands of State Champion Lincoln Southeast were the only marks on their loss column.

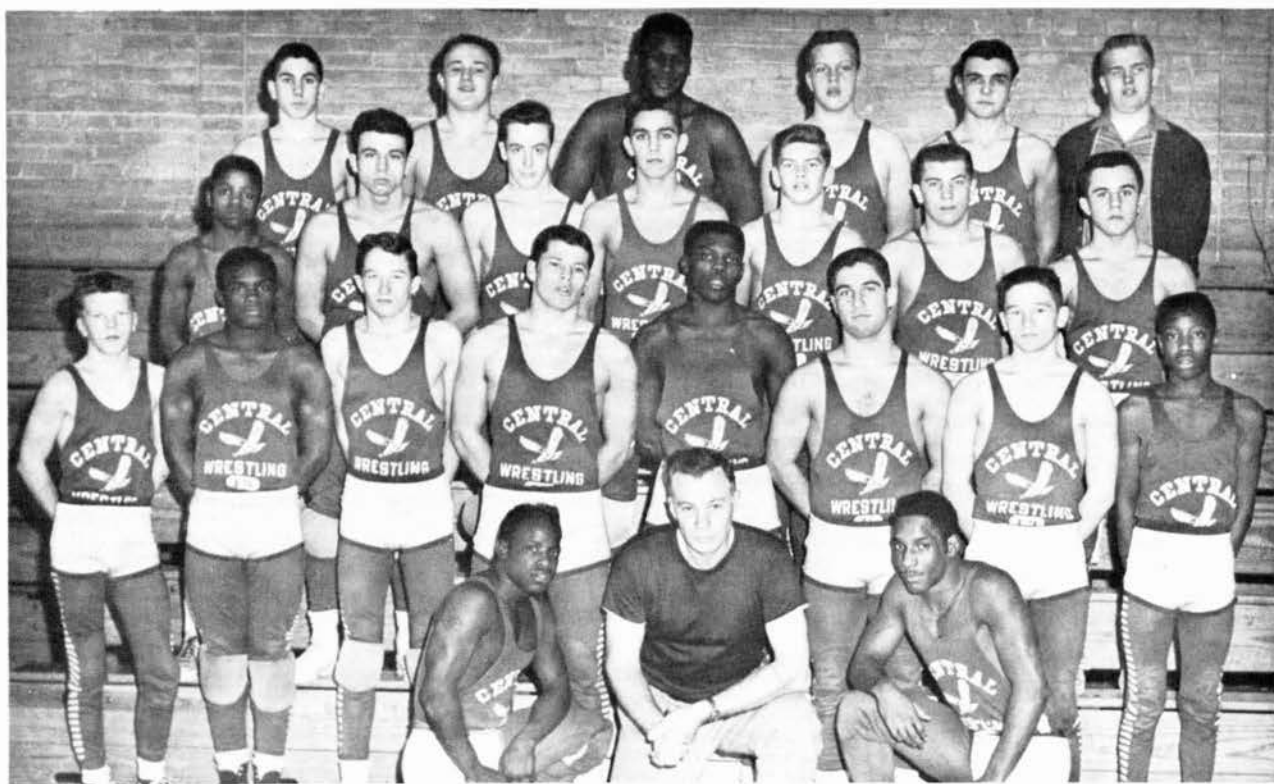

Other team accomplishments included second place in the Tech High Invitational and a close fourth place in the State Championships.

Outstanding individual performances were turned in by Rol Wellman, who was elected captain for the 1959-60 season.

WRESTLING

For the first time since before World War II, a Central wrestling team has had a losing season. The Eagle matmen won only four of ten dual matches.

Starting the season with only three returning wrestlers, Coach Norman Sorenson molded a team which won four of its last five matches and captured fifth place in the State Wrestling Tournament.

In addition to its state meet showing, the team took fifth place in the pre-season North High Invitational Tournament.

Three Eagle matmen, Charles Whitner, Leonard West and Andre McWilliams garnered state championships. Whitner and McWilliams were chosen for the Inter-City All-Star Wrestling Team. Co-captain for the All-Stars was Whitner. McWilliams, with a 17-0 record, earned the most points.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The ball hit the hoop, rolled around and bounced away. The buzzer sounded, thus ending one of the most frustrating campaigns in Central basketball history. The cagers struggled through nine contests decided by three points or less, winning only three of them.

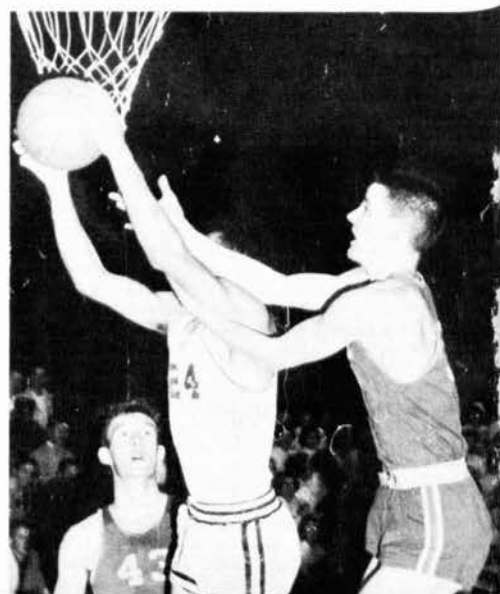

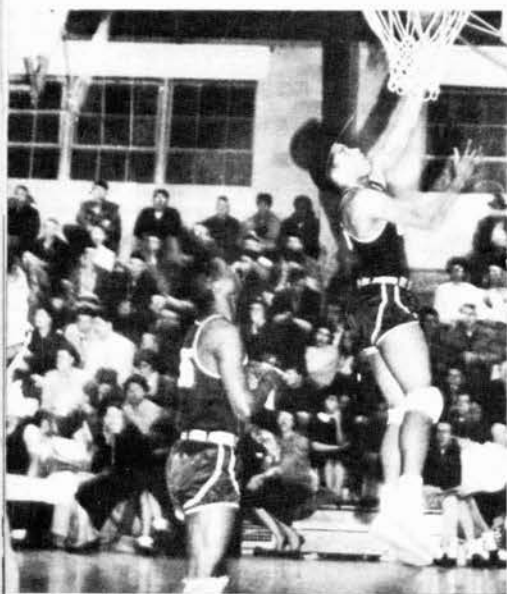

With only one returning starter from the 1958 championship team, Coach Warren Marquiss fashioned a team which gave the opposition a stiff test in each encounter and improved as the season progressed. High points were the two losses to league champion South and a twelve-point victory over North. Low point was an early season loss to Thomas Jefferson.

Johnny Nared led the team in most statistical departments. His 324 points and 19-point per game average were tops. He led in free throws with 72 and in free throw percentage with 63%. Jim Hall was second leading scorer with 138 points.

Nared was named to the Inter-City All Star Team and the WOW and KMTV-KFAB All-Area Teams.

The Eagles were favored to win a berth in the State meet. After defeating Benson in the opening district game, Central's hopes for State were dashed when they dropped a 52-51 decision to Tech High.

TRACK

Rich in returning talent, the 1959 cinder-men set their sights on repeating as city and state class A champions.

The Eagle bid centered on the flashing spikes of the amazing Junior sprint star, Roger Sayers. As a sophomore, he equaled the state 100-yard dash mark and lowered the 220-yard record. Continuing his swift pace this season, he won the 60-yard dash in the Omaha University Indoor Track Meet and set a Dutch White Relay mark of :09.9 in the 100-yard dash.

Other first place strength lay in the sprint relays, the mile, the high jump and the pole vault. The medley relay team of Roger Sayers, Stuart Fogel, John Nared and Rodney Moore clipped seven seconds off the old OU record. Arthur Justus captured first place in the pole vault in both the OU and Dutch White meets. High jumpers John Nared and Frank Jones consistently placed high in their event.

Eagle thinclads won both the OU indoor and Dutch White meets by over 20-point margins and were judged overwhelming favorites in the Council Bluffs Relays and the City, District and State meets.

BASEBALL

Relying on the return of four lettermen, Coach Jim Karabatsos planned to make a successful defense of the 1958 Inter-City Baseball Championship.

Southpaw Al Stolarskyj, whose 5-1 record last year earned him an all-city berth, led the 1959 mound staff. Backing him up were twirlers Bill Horwich and Charles Dickerson.

Veterans Ken Allen at first base and Bob McMahan at shortstop sparked the infield. Completing the Eagles' inner defenses were Jon Okun, third base, and Dick Harrow, second base.

Outfielders included letterman Al Gilmore, Gary Gilmore, Jim Hall, Howard Martin and John Anding. Freshman Sherm Dorsey took over the catching chores.

Coach Karabatsos felt that team success depended on good performances in the catching and hitting departments. Benson, South and Creighton Prep appeared to be the greatest threats to the Eagles' hopes of retaining the title.

TENNIS

The 1959 tennis team began competition April 16 against Thomas Jefferson High. Title hopes rested on the shoulders of veterans Doug Marteeny, Pete Hoagland and Fred Burbank.

Coach Esmond Crown relied on Marteeny, who gained the runner-up spot in the Easter tournament, to place high in the City and State Singles meets. Competing for the other singles spot and the doubles team were Hoagland, Burbank, R. Roberts, J. Francis and Charles Borgrink.

The netmen's chances were "fairly good," according to Coach Crown, who stated that North and Creighton Prep would provide stiff competition.

GOLF

The golf team's hope of improving a third-place finish in 1958 rested on the return of seven lettermen. North, South and Creighton Prep were figured to vie with the Marquissmen for an upper division spot.

The stickmen's first match on April 7 with Thomas Jefferson created much optimism. The Yellowjackets were defeated by over a hundred strokes. Their 360-stroke total was lower than that of any golf team in action that day.

Letter-winners Dick Mayberry, Gerald Kohout, Dick Ahlstrand, Clark Swartz, Robin Hill and Dick Gash set the pace for the team. Gary Drew and Buddy Herzog also saw action.

“Cheering the team to victory” is the main purpose of Pep Squad. Membership is open to all girls who have an enormous amount of pep and energy.

Each girl must not miss more than eight games or she will be dropped from the club. All members who remain eligible receive a chevron at the end of the year. Girls who attend every game receive a gold star as an extra bonus.

Pep rallies, sponsored by the varsity cheerleaders, were held weekly during the football and basketball seasons. The cheerleaders usually presented a skit, directed by Captain Suzie Wolfson, at each pep rally.

Many times during the year Pep Squad met to learn new cheers. A combination meeting and installation was held in May to present chevrons and gold stars and to install new officers.

Pep Squad members can be recognized by their purple skirts and white sweaters, with the Central eagle emblem on the front. Every girl is required to wear this outfit on “game” days.

The Girls' Athletic Association was founded 31 years ago and has remained one of the most popular clubs for girl students at Central. The only qualification for membership is an interest in sports.

Badminton, basketball, tennis, bowling, softball and swimming are sports in which the girls may participate. Through these and other sports, the girls acquire new skills and learn to work better with their fellow citizens.

A girl in G.A.A. may earn a maximum of four awards during her years of membership. They are earned by participation in the different sports and by completion of a set of training rules. First award is a G.A.A. emblem; second award, a "C"; third award, an "O"; fourth award, a star. All Omaha schools have these emblems in their own colors.

A spring tea was held this year for the members and their parents. At this time, new club officers were installed, and members who earned awards received their emblems or stars.

National Honor Society, created 38 years ago by former Central High Principal Joseph G. Masters, has added 14 members from the class of '59 to its list of outstanding senior students. Selection was made by a committee of Central High teachers and Principal J. Arthur Nelson, who chose pupils on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service and character. Additional high-ranking seniors were elected to the Society this spring.

Members of National Honor Society are chosen in all 48 states, the Panama Canal Zone and American schools in South America, Free China and England.

Class Officers

President Terry Foster

Heading the class of '59 was Terry Foster, who supervised and organized senior activities. Vice-President Dick Harrow aided Terry by attending committee meetings and seeing that plans were properly arranged.

As secretary of the senior class, Sharon Kay Johnson was responsible for notifying seniors about meetings and other matters, for assisting the treasurer with financial records, for keeping up correspondence and for helping Miss Cecil McCarter, senior sponsor.

Treasurer Fred Burbank's duties were to urge seniors to pay various fees and to keep an accurate record of monies paid in for such activities as the spring play. Marlene Friedman and Bob Shamblen, sergeants-at-arms, performed various duties for Miss McCarter and for the other officers.

This year's election was unique in the fact that there was only one balloting. Because extra-curricular activities were limited and a high scholastic record was required, the number of candidates who filed for office was small enough to be voted on in one election.

Senior Committees

Under the direction of Miss Cecil McCarter, in her sixth year as senior sponsor at Central, committees for the class of '59 were organized last fall. Their purpose was to arrange and supervise senior events leading to the commencement ceremony.

The seven committees, composed of senior volunteers, were chaired by Bernard DeKoven, Spring Play; Larry Hoberman and David Wintroub, Dance; Mary Schaaf, Banquet Arrangements; Cindy Wardle, Banquet Table; Roger Hite and Beverly Bloom, Banquet Program; Jim Forrest and Barbara Smith, Cap and Gown; and Paul Madgett, Commencement.

The Spring Play Committee supervised ticket sales and publicity for the annual production. An accurate measuring tape was a necessity for the Cap and Gown committee, whose members ordered the graduation robes. Plans for the final banquet and dance came under the direction of several committees. The Dance, Banquet Arrangements, Banquet Table and Banquet Program committees performed their duties in planning the June 1 festivities. The Commencement committee made preparations for the graduation exercises which were held June 6.
