Friendships

We live in a world of changing times. The youth of today are facing the challenge of the rapid rhythms and high pitch of the decade. You, as students of Central, are able to answer this challenge.

You reply to the challenge through knowledge—knowledge of the world about you. The high standards and expert guidance of Central's faculty help you in your climb up the scale of learning. These standards have made Central the Number One High School in the State of Nebraska.

You reply to the challenge through leadership—leadership in school organizations and activities. Central's program provides opportunities for leadership to each individual.

And you reply to the challenge through cooperation—cooperation with your fellow students and teachers.

Learning to work with others in harmony enables you to take your places as the future leaders of our country.

Knowledge, leadership and cooperation—the keynotes in the melody of our times. And Central is the tuning fork which helps keep you, as students, in tune with the times.

Register

"It's my turn to make up the first page!"

"Clickety, clickety, clickety, clickety, ring!" These staccato sounds rose to a high pitch in Room 317, the home of the Central High Register.

Editor Stephen Marcus and Associate Editors Dale (DeDe) Brodkey, Cheryl Parks and Frances Grossman, with help from Adviser Dr. Ruth Crone, guided the staff through more than a dozen successful issues.

Featured in the Register besides the regular news and sports stories were numerous guest editorials and a student-opinion poll, "The Eagles' View."

The Nebraska High School Press Association convention was the highlight of the year.

The three Centralites who received superior ratings were Dale (DeDe) Brodkey, newspaper layout; Cheryl Friedman, advertising; and Harold Schneider, feature writing. Stephen Marcus and Cheryl Parks earned excellent ratings in editorial writing and newspaper copyreading and editing, respectively. Frances Grossman won commendation in newswriting as did Judith Burnett in journalistic terms.

"Don't look so happy. The deadline was yesterday!"

Editor Suzanne Sutin

A musical skit with well-known tunes boosted sales for the 1963 O-Book at an O-Book pep rally in the fall.

Editor-in-Chief Suzanne Sutin and her droopy-eyed staff worked hard to meet deadlines, clicking shutters and breaking rulers up to the very last minute.

The 1963 O-Book, with more pages than ever, introduced two new features. One was the use of color, and the other was an index which included the names of each student and the pages on which his name appeared.

"The students had a good time, learned a great deal, and behaved themselves." These are the remarks of Publications Adviser Dr. Ruth Crone concerning the Nebraska High School Press Association convention held on the University of Nebraska campus in Lincoln Friday and Saturday, November 9 and 10.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

ALTERNATES: Robin Aronson, Harold Knight, Neil Miller, Betty Brody

Six Centralites studied national and state government and campaigned for state offices during an exciting week at Cornhusker Boys' and Girls' State, June 16-22 in Lincoln.

These delegates, who were guests of the American Legion, were chosen for their scholarship, leadership, and health.

Each of the Central delegates was either elected or appointed to a state office. Dale Brodkey was elected associate justice of the Supreme Court. Her score of 90 per cent on the government test was the highest of all Girls' Staters. The boys were appointed to the following offices: Thomas Hammerstrom, purchasing agent; Steven Marcus, tax commissioner; John McIntyre, director of public institutions; Roger Persell, director of the department of motor vehicles; and Michael Siemon, adjutant general.

Each year several months of outside preparation precedes Boys' and Girls' State. This year, alternates studying with the delegates were Betty Brody, Harold Knight, Neil Miller, and Steven Rosenquist.

Robin Aronson, Anthony Bradford, John McPhail, and Suzanne Moshier were chosen, but they were unable to participate.

The climax of the week was the Boys' State-Girls' State Dance with which an educational week of fun, new friends, and hard work came to an end.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Led by President Blair Jolley and Sponsor Mrs. C. Mickey Skinner, the 1962-63 Student Council constantly tried to promote spirit by selling pennants and keeping students off the "Sacred C."

Other Council officers for the year were Barbara Ramsey, Vice-President; Irene Sabes, Recording Secretary; Karen Misaki, Corresponding Secretary; Neil Miller, Treasurer; and Fred Armbrust and Joan Adams, Sergeants-at-Arms. The 21 Council members included seven seniors, seven juniors, six sophomores elected in January, and one honorary member, Australian exchange student, Toni Pollard.

November 2, 1962, saw Central's first real Homecoming. It was sponsored by the Student Council. With the help of O-Club and Hi-Y, the Council organized and coordinated the entire event.

During the holiday season the Student Council decorated the school Christmas tree and sponsored an alumni tea.

Two Intra-City Exchange Days were held this year one on November 29, and one on April 18.

The Student Council aided the administration by ushering for Career Day and College Night.

On April 3, Central hosted the Intra-City Student Council banquet which was attended by nearly 150 Council members from the Omaha High schools, their sponsors, and principals.

NOAH

"—and I say it's YOUR turn to wash!"

"Ye gads! Grandpa's been changed to a gnat!"

"I'll teach you to say I look like Thursday!"

The strength of an old man's faith was put to the supreme test in Central's Fall Play, Noah, presented October 24-25.

The sympathies of the audience were aroused by Harold Schneider's portrayal of an ignorant farmer who was chosen by God to found a brave new civilization in the face of complete opposition. At the end of the trying voyage, Noah questioned the intentions of his God with, "Are you satisfied, Lord?" He was rewarded by the affirmative answer of a seven-lined rainbow.

The play was presented under the capable direction of Mrs. Amy Sutton and her assistant, Ira Raznick. The positions of student director and stage manager were held by Nancy Herzoff and Mary Ann Deems, respectively.

The cast of characters included Robin Aronson as Mama; Richard Carey, John Johnson, Tim Sorenson, and John Spitzer as Noah's sons; Kathy Adler, Linda Clevenger, Barbara Kucera, and Dana Swenson as Noah's daughters-in-law; and Ross Sennett as a doubting hunter.

Helen Hosman and Terie Naviaux worked on choreography for the animals, portrayed by Susan Acuff, Patricia Bunz, Wendy Drew, Leslie Horn, Austra Keruzia, Sharon Lintzman, Patricia Pease, Candace Rasmussen, Mitchell Reitzer, Linda Rushing, Jane Shrier, and Patricia Winans.

Technical assistance was given by Mr. Raymond Williams and the stage crew.

"Do you think the last thirty days of rain mean anything, Mama?"

“THE MUSIC MAN”

Famous tunes of our time were presented in the A Cappella Choir version of the current hit, "The Music Man," on Wednesday-Saturday, December 12-15.

Marian, Jolene Frohnen, was an intellectual spinster who nearly foiled Hill's fraudulent schemes.

Marian's belligerent attitude was completely reversed by the charming rascal. She came to realize that the good accomplished by Harold, who managed to stir and awaken the staid old community, far outweighed any bad effects. Her romantic inclinations played no small part in her decision to protect Harold from the angry townspeople when they discovered that he couldn't fulfill his promise to organize a boys' band.

Humor ran rampant as Harry Friedman portrayed the pompous know-nothing, Mayor Shinn. He dominated an entire city but was reined by his wife, who was portrayed by Terri Nogg.

Paula Bercutt, Janet Archer, Diane Cooks, Deanna Schmieding, and Barbara Ramsey made up a group of old biddies who gossiped about the town's notorious librarian.

"Oh boy, the Welch Fargo wagon!"

"Listen to me and you'll go far."

"Shortens her skirts to WHERE?"

The members of the fighting school board, Daryl Hill, Joe Beninato, Tom Hawkinson, and Alan Lakin, became an inseparable quartet after a simple discovery made by "The Music Man."

The performances of Ted Sanford, Mary Campbell, and Diane Hanek as members of the younger generation of River City were rivaled by that of a borrowed performer, eight-year-old Mark Sanford.

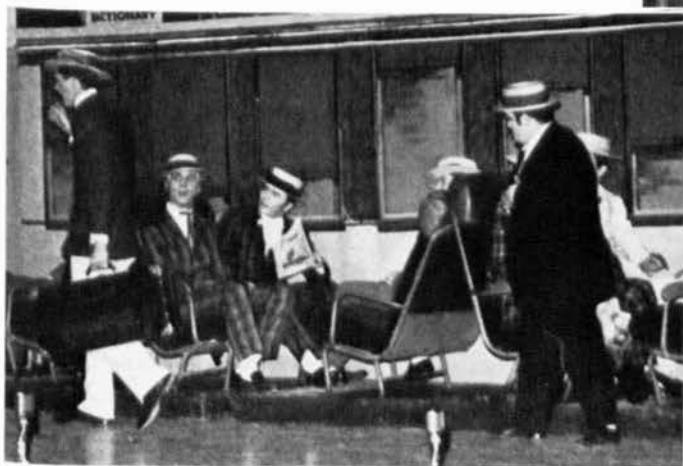

Memorable performances were also given by Laura Booth as the Irish mother of Marian, Edward Treller as Charlie Cowell, and Craig Miller as Marcella Washburn.

The principal characters and choir members, directed by Mr. Rodney Walker, brought to life such popular favorites as "Seventy-Six Trombones," "Til There Was You," "Goodnight, My Someone," and "Ya Got Trouble."

The musical was staged by Mr. Raymond Williams assisted by Stage Managers Wendy Drew and Linda Graetz. Student directors were Susan Katzman and Ann Kennedy. The orchestra was under the direction of Mr. Robert Harrison.

"YEEE GADS!"

"Ahh . . . he doesn't even know the territory!"

" . . . I'm home again, Rose."

March 21, 22, and 23 found Central's Auditorium in perfect pitch for the 1963 Road Show. Production Manager Mr. Robert Harrison and Student Managers Neil Miller, Frances Grossman, Fred Armbrust and Charles Long rehearsed and staged the 21 acts which made up the 49th Annual Road Show.

After the traditional presentation of colors by ROTC cadets and the appearance of a comical curtain boy who provided entertainment throughout the Show, the curtain opened to selections by the Concert Band.

The first act included a German Band, two jazz combos, folk singers, an avant garde theater production by the Central High Players, a stirring percussion ensemble which backed a girls' drill team, several dance acts and the Choir finale.

The Orchestra opened the second act playing Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" with Soloist Harold Knight. After a Speech-Department presentation, the Crack Squad, a harp solo, and some more singing and dancing acts, the Dance Band closed the show with an informal New Orleans scene entitled "Pops! Pops! Pops!"

Effective set designs by Mrs. Kenneth Lewis and execution of these designs with clever lighting by Stage Director Mr. Raymond Williams, Stage Assistant Julie Thompson, and the stage crew added greatly to the success of the Road Show.

SENIOR PLAY

Who would ever dream that a dirty flower girl with a Cockney accent and rather questionable morals could be mistaken at a high society ball for a princess?

In George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion," an English teacher, Professor Higgins (Joseph Bassman) and his friend Colonel Pickering (Harold Schneider) made a bet that they could take such a Cockney flower girl—namely, Eliza Doolittle (Toni Pollard)—and transform her. Surprisingly enough the experiment worked and Eliza was a success.

On Thursday and Friday, May 2 and 3, Central seniors presented "Pygmalion." Mrs. Kenneth Lewis produced the play with the help of Student Coordinator Marcia Hanek and Student Director Richard Carey.

Other members of the cast, who rehearsed continuously from Monday, March 25, to the presentation, included Karon Huston, Sharon Lintzman, Marcia Hanek, Suzanne Moshier, Kathleen Exceen, Alpha Gilmore, Lola Jones, David Forbes, Richard Carey and Neil Miller.

Mr. Raymond Williams and the stage crew were in charge of construction and lighting. The orchestra, directed by Mr. Robert Harrison, played the overture.

"Won't you sit down?" "Don't mind if I do."

"How do you do, Mrs. Higgins? Mr. Higgins told me I might come."

Math Team

"Two never equalled one—before today!"

"But I'm finished!"

"I am a math problem. Color me correct."

Logic, number theory, coordinate geometry, progressions, and logarithms were just a few of the topics the Math Team members studied this year in preparation for the Annual High School Mathematics Contest. On Thursday, March 14, 45 team members took the test, sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America and the Society of Actuaries.

The Math Team was divided into two groups in preparation for the test. Mr. Duane Perry, Head of the Mathematics Department, coached the Alpha Team of juniors and seniors during fifth and sixth hours throughout the year. The Beta Team, composed of freshmen and sophomores, met with Mrs. Myrl McKean, Mathematics Teacher, before school.

Debate

The 1962-63 Debate Squad, coached by Miss Donna Miller, extended the trophy string of Central's debaters over three seasons to 60.

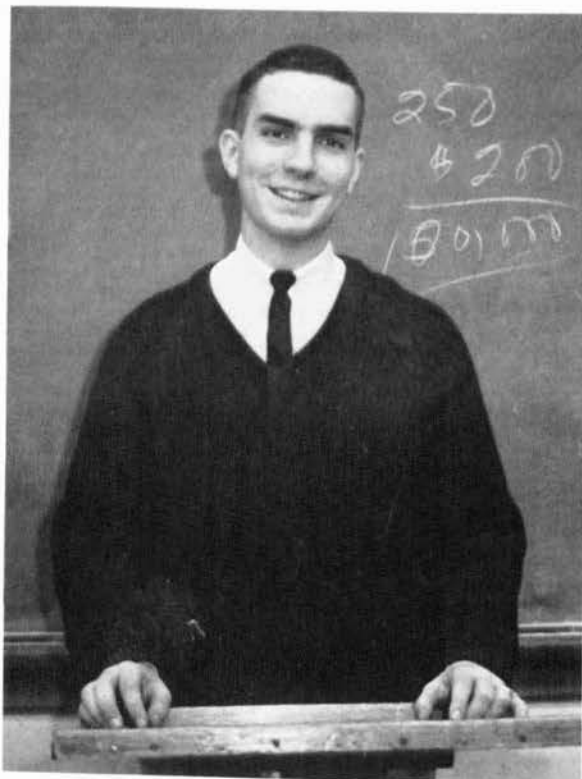

The debate season ran from October to May during which time the debaters attended approximately 25 major tournaments over a five-state area.

Competitive events included varsity, novice, extemporaneous, oratory, radio-television commentary, poetry reading and oral interpretation of literature.

The debaters won championships at the Worthington, Minnesota Invitational, Boys' Missouri Valley Tournament, Fremont High School All-State Invitational and the Central Novice Tournament.

The runner-up position was attained at the Newton Iowa Cross-Examination Debate Tournament, the Creighton University Tournament and the Missouri Valley Cross-Examination Tournament.

Homeroom Representatives

Two representatives were elected in the fall from every homeroom. Each representative worked throughout the year to help his homeroom function efficiently.

The homeroom representative distributed each issue of the Register, conducted the sale of O-Books and Student Activity tickets, handled the collection of drives and informed the students of various activities.

This year the senior homeroom representatives were members of the senior-election committee, which handled ballot distribution, vote counting and other technicalities.

A Cappella

"Maybe, if I practice long enough ..."

A Cappella Choir, directed by Mr. Rodney Walker, lived up to its musical reputation during 1962-63.

One of the biggest A Cappella presentations was the musical. This year's presentation of "The Music Man" drew a larger audience than any other musical presented on Central's stage.

This year A Cappella participated in the All-City Music Festival held Thursday-Saturday, January 17, 18, and 19.

Road Show numbers included "Ain-a That Good News" by Dawson and "Las Agachadas" by Copland. The Spring Concert was a presentation of "Faure Requiem."

A big "first" for the group was a trip to Minneapolis where they performed for the American Choral Directors Association, Wednesday and Thursday, March 27-28.

Junior Choir

Junior Choir is an organization of the Central Vocal Music Department.

Performances were given throughout the year by the Junior Choir.

One annual event was participating in the All-City Music Festival which was held Thursday-Saturday, January 17, 18, and 19. The selections included "Lasciatemi Morire" by Monteverdi and "Since All Is Passing" by Hindemith.

Dance Band

"Who says I'm off the beat?" This exclamation and others like it were repeated many times this year at each rehearsal of the 1962-63 Dance Band.

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Harrison and Student Director Charles Long, the Dance Band first performed at the Bellevue Homecoming Dance.

The musicians, selected by tryouts from Central's bigger instrumental groups, proved a tremendous hit at the Central Homecoming dance as well as at the N.C.O.C. "Sound-Off" sock hop.

Again this year the Dance Band highlighted the Road Show. In the spring, they played for the German Club dance.

The annual Spring Concert was the final appearance of the year for the Dance Band.

"Practice makes perfect?"

"What do you mean, you put bubble gum in the mouthpiece!"

"Where are the other 72?"

"Left, right, one, two, ready, play," are sounds that greeted many Centralites coming to school in the crisp morning air last fall.

With Mr. Robert Harrison giving commands, the Central Band faithfully practiced for the nine football games to come. The well-planned presentations added color and spirit to each game.

This year there were 116 bandsmen. Good instrumentation made it possible to play "Mars" from Holst's "The Planets," the "Finale from the Symphony in F Minor," by Tchaikovsky, and the ever-popular "Zampa Overture."

The Band's appearances included the Military Ball at Peony Park and the All-City Music Festival Band in which a record 45 musicians participated.

For the band, a busy year ended far from the marching field with the annual spring concert.

"Won't there ever be a sale on brass polish?"

Directed by Mr. Robert Harrison, the Central High Orchestra began a successful season with a concert for the Nebraska State Education Association Teachers' convention at the Civic Auditorium Music Hall Friday, October 25. Featured was Mrs. Robert Harrison as guest soloist in George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue."

A pit orchestra selected from the Orchestra performed the original Broadway score of Meredith Willson's "Music Man" for the opera in December.

Forty-five musicians participated in the annual All-City Music Festival Clinic Orchestra. Fred Armbrust, Frances Grossman, Stephen Marcus, Terie Naviaux, Virginia Thomas, and Timothy Still upheld Central's tradition of excellence by taking first chair in their respective sections.

The orchestra also played for the fall and spring plays and gave concerts at both Lewis and Clark and George W. Norris Junior High Schools.

Officers in Orchestra for the year were Charles Long, President; Frances Grossman, Vice-President; and Linda Riekes, Secretary.

A fine Orchestra season ended with the annual spring concert and a commencement concert.

American Field Service

Barbara Ramsey writes to her Norwegian "family."

Toni Pollard gives speech on Australia.

Toni Pollard, Nancy Grissom and Barbara Ramsey—"Walk together, talk together."

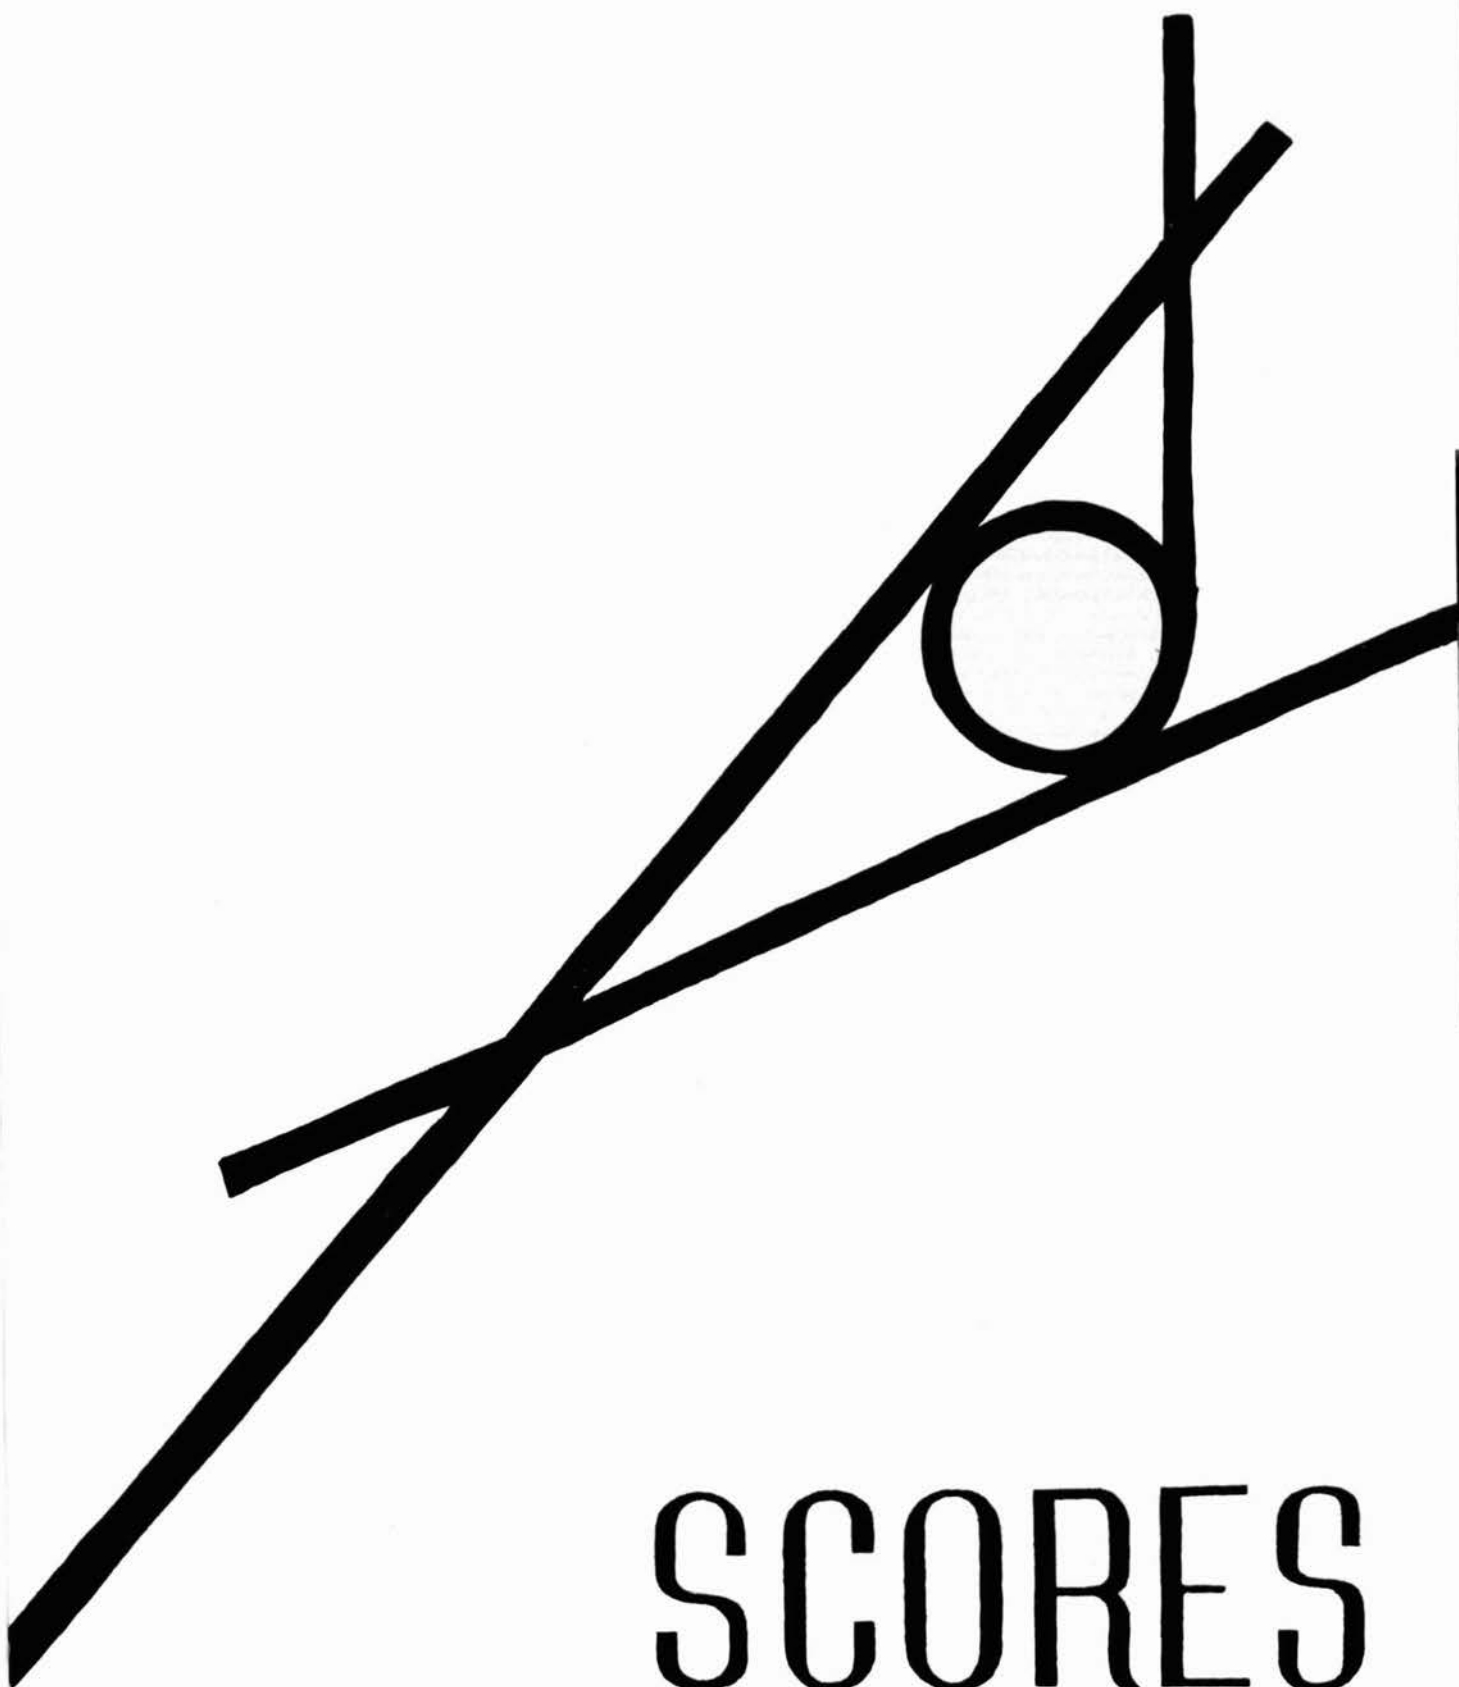

"Walk together, talk together, all ye peoples of the Earth for then and only then shall ye find peace." This is the slogan of the American Field Service.

The main purpose of the AFS is to create understanding and peace between the nations of the world.

Barbara Ramsey, Class of '63, was the first Centralite to go abroad. She spent the summer of 1962 in Kristiansund, Norway, a small fishing town on three islands. She lived with the Lossius family. Barbara mentioned that the two biggest differences between Americans and Norwegians are (1) the Norwegians are more physically fit, and (2) they all speak at least one language besides their own.

For this school year, Toni Pollard of Sidney, Australia, lived with the family of Central Senior Nancy Grissom. At Central, Toni was an honorary member of Student Council and played the lead in the Senior play, "Pygmalion." In giving many speeches throughout the year to various groups, Toni provided much information on the Australian land and customs.

Homecoming

Central's royalty—Joan Adams and William Dodd.

Spirit and enthusiasm filled the halls of Central on Friday, November 2. Central's Student Council, with the help of the cheerleaders, O-Club, and Hi-Y, sponsored the school's first annual homecoming.

The day's activities began early in the morning when the student body gathered in the auditorium for a pep rally put on by the O-Club. After school the gymnasium and boys' locker room were the centers of attention. Student Council members were busily decorating the gymnasium while the cheerleaders worked on their surprise decorations for the locker room. Again at five o'clock, around a big bonfire on the practice field, the Centralites gathered to watch a Westside Warrior burned in effigy and to cheer their team on to victory. A car parade to Westside followed the bonfire. Spirit and confidence were high, but the Eagles were edged out of a victory, 20-13.

After the game, Central's gymnasium was the scene of loud music and the latest dancing. Highlighting the day's activities was the crowning of Central's first Homecoming King and Queen. The candidates were William Dodd, Jack Gilmore, Anthony Bradford, Jack Gundersen, Daryl Hill, and James Lucht for king; and Blair Jolley, Dorothy Geihs, Sandra Adams, Joan Adams, Meridee Fokken, and Valerie Ferber for Queen. Chosen to reign were William Dodd and Joan Adams.

Eagle halted after long gain.

Student Council built royal throne.

Cheerleaders worked on surprise decorations.

Eager fans watched half-time ceremonies.

Football

The 1962 Central High football team consisted of considerably more talent than the 1-8 record indicated. As in the past, the Eagles had a small, quick team but played the inconsistent type of football that is incapable of garnering a winning season.

There were flashes of individual brilliance in each inter-city contest, but the team seemed to lack the unity of spirit and determination that could have pulled them through victorious. Still, even in a losing season, the Central II rose to great heights in fine showings against inter-city powers, Benson and North. These two contests showed observers that the Eagles were not a pushover and were capable of playing first-class football.

Swimming

For the third year in a row, Central's fine swim team took a backseat in state-wide competition only to State Champion Lincoln Southeast. The Mermen, under Coach Robert Davis, lost only one dual meet out of seven and succeeded in drowning out all opposition with surprising ease in the Inter-City Meet. Dennis Tibbetts, in the 100-yard butterfly, Jim Boyle, in the 400-yard free, and Ken Glasser, in the 200-yard individual medley and 100-yard breaststroke, all earned Inter-City titles with nationally-ranked Glasser setting records in both of his events.

The Eagles were convincingly defeated by perennial powerhouse Southeast in the State Meet but took second place easily and garnered three state titles. Ken Glasser's star continued to rise as he set state records in his two events in exceptional style. Team Co-Captain Dave Lindberg was victorious in possibly the most grueling and thrill-packed event of the meet, the 400-yard free-style.

The loss of Co-Captains Lindberg and Jelen will be felt, but the return of Glasser, Boyle, Tibbetts, and many other extremely talented underclassmen leaves only one thing more to be said: "Look out, Lincoln Southeast!"

Wrestling

New Coach Howard . . .

Former Central High wrestling standout Jim Howard took the reins as Head Coach to be welcomed by a composite of only eight wrestlers with experience ranging from the barest minimum to a three-year letterman. Valuable experience and many needed points were lost with the removal of two of the eight in the middle of the season. The burden then increased on the shoulders of Craig Swenson, 112; Don Showell, 133; Al Lakin, 138; Jim Waters, 145; Adrian Caldwell, 154; and Tom Maides, 165.

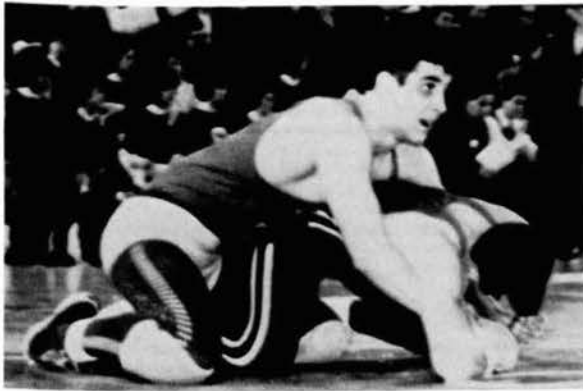

Showell, Swenson, Caldwell, and Maides were among the top in their divisions in city and state competition. The last three qualified for the state meet with Caldwell and Maides earning distinction for themselves and for Central while obtaining the runner-up spot in the state finals.

Basketball

The Central High Basketball Quintet promised to be a bright spot of the Eagle 1962-1963 athletic year. Three-year Lettermen John Armstrong and Ulysses "Butch" Cribbs would lead a group of six returning from last year's successful team. Bobby Nelson, Tim Schmad, Orlandus Neal, John McPhail, Steve Regelean, and Walt Haney all donned "Purple and White" previously and were certainly capable of garnering one of the Hilltop's most successful seasons. Help from underclassmen was assured as rangy James Grigsby fought for and earned a starting berth.

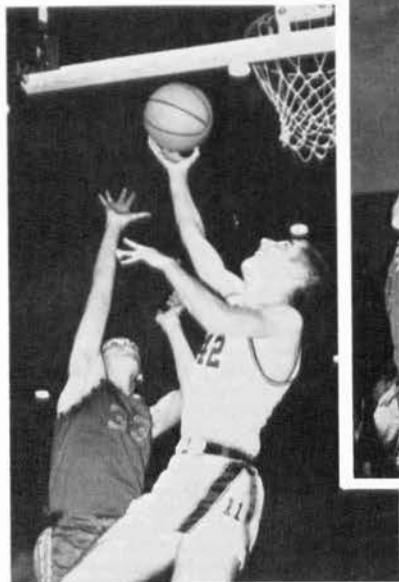

The season opened with and continued to show Central playing basketball at its most spectacular. Its run-and-shoot, fast-breaking offense had true spectator appeal and was very successful. Coupled with the unique "half-court press" innovation of Coach Marquiss, the Eagles proceeded to win 12 of 19 regular season contests. Of the seven losses four of them were by a total of a mere six points!

Central, Tech, and Prep were favored to win their respective district tourneys and to advance into the state finals at Lincoln. All three teams succeeded, with the Eagles eliminating Benson 60-56 and Bellevue 58-48 on successive nights. Central, thus, went to State for the first time in five long years and carried with it the hopes of 2,100 students.

At least three of the starting five were guaranteed post-season honors. Fantastic Johnny Armstrong, all-around workhorse Butch Cribbs, and sharpshooting Bobby Nelson showed the ability that would awe even the most critical sports scribe.

Coach Milton Parsons and the Assistant Coach, Marcus Brottem, were greeted by one of the strongest groups of returning lettermen in years. Eight starters from last year's fine team formed the nucleus for what promised to be a very successful campaign on the diamond.

Strong-armed outfielders Joe Beninato,

John McPhail, and Jim Buntz backed up the fine infield of Arnie Weitz, Tim Schmad, Tony Bradford, and Daryl Hill. Minimum support was needed, however, due to the more-than-capable battery of John Henry and Steve Regelean.

O-Club

Under the able guidance of Sponsor George Andrews and Presidents Jack Gundersen and John McPhail, the O-Club was one of the big promoters of school spirit on the Hilltop.

To achieve success with the annual O-Club-Faculty Basketball Game and the O-Ball were its primary concerns. The game, played before a packed Central gym, was a highly contested affair played in all earnestness. The O-Ball at Peony Park was highlighted by the presentation of awards to outstanding athletes and the crowning of the King and Queen of Sports.

"Won't they be surprised?"

A schedule crammed full of new and exciting activities kept Central's 12 Varsity Cheerleaders very busy during the academic year.

At a Lincoln Cheerleading Clinic in October the Squad learned several new cheering routines. As a surprise to the football team the girls decorated the locker room before the Homecoming game.

Pep rallies before almost every football and basketball game definitely boosted school spirit and team morale. Miss Sonia Green, the new Cheerleading Sponsor, with her many new ideas proved to be a great help to the Squad.

Every week Pep Squad went into action at the pep rallies and various athletic events, promoting school spirit and giving support to Central's teams. This organization, sponsored by Miss Sonia Green, was among the largest and most popular clubs at Central, with a bigger-than-ever membership of 350 girls.

Working with the Varsity Cheerleaders on new cheers and revising the Club's requirements were just a small part of the year's program.

For each year of membership in Pep Squad the girls receive a chevron; a gold star is awarded for those who have had perfect attendance at games. These awards were given at the Annual Spring Tea.

The Girls' Athletic Association was formed 35 years ago for the benefit of the female sports enthusiasts at Central.

While participating in a variety of sports, including basketball, badminton, tennis, and bowling, each girl gains in sportsmanship, friendship and fun. This year G.A.A. sponsored a pep rally as one of their projects.

Every spring, at the G.A.A. tea, the girls who have completed the required amount of activities receive awards. A G.A.A. emblem is given for the first award; a "C" for the second; and "O" for the third; and a star for the fourth award.

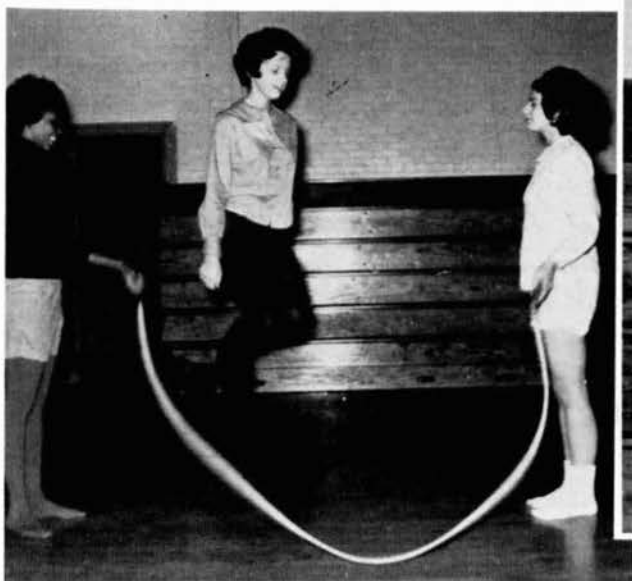

Highlighting the year was the annual O-Ball given in conjunction with the O-Club. At the dance a King and Queen of Sports were crowned.

Junior Class

Roman moths?

Students of "Lingua Latina" became known by a new name this year. Formerly, the Junior Classical League was open only to fourth-year students of Latin, but it has now been enlarged to include all members of the old Latin Club.

The monthly programs served to inform the members about classical culture of Greece and Rome. Skits such as "A Day in the Life of a Medieval Student" were used to carry out their purpose.

The highlight of their activities was the annual Latin Week, climaxed by a Roman banquet. Upperclassmen purchased "slaves" (first-year students) for "magna pecunia." The slaves then served their masters at the festive affair.

Future Teachers of America, which celebrated its 25th anniversary this year, acquaints high school students with the teaching profession. It endeavors to explain what teaching is, how it operates and the opportunities it offers.

During the year members served as teachers' helpers; ushers at Teachers' Convention, Open House, and College Night; and tutors for other students. They also aided teachers at Central Grade School during their spare time.

One of the highlights of the year was a trip to Omaha University. Other field trips were taken to schools for the handicapped and deaf. In May they held their annual spring picnic.

Actual experience in the field of nursing helps the members of Future Nurses of America become better acquainted with the medical profession. They carried out their purpose by rendering service where needed. Each night during the school year two members volunteered to work at Veterans Hospital. There they helped with the feeding of patients in the neurology ward. The girls also gained experience by helping the school nurse, Mrs. Marie Dwyer.

The Club kept busy by having two meetings a month. At these meetings the girls were privileged to have student nurses and a therapist explain the busy life of a nurse.

Central High Players

"To spread the knowledge and appreciation of the theater" is the motto and aim of the Central High Players.

This year began with the traditional formal initiation of new members. The Fall Play represented the combined efforts of most of the members, who worked for nearly two months to prepare the show. Another highlight of the year was Players' skit for the Road Show. In addition to these activities, the Club sponsored a Traveling Troupe which performed for hospitals and charitable organizations on request.

The annual spring banquet climaxed the year with the presentation of "Amy" awards.

Secretary .....	Merlyn Sanderson
Treasurer .....	Ronald Elliott
Sergeant-at-Arms .....	Nancy Shrum
Sponsor .....	Mrs. Gretchen Schutte

The German Club helps its members to gain a more complete understanding of the German language and culture. By attending the monthly meetings, students learn about the national holidays, famous writers and composers, and the customs of the German people.

Completely in keeping with the Christmas spirit, the members sang carols at the German Old People's Home. The German students from George Norris Junior High were introduced to the Club at the April meeting.

The year ended happily with the "Karneval," a dance held in the Central High Gymnasium. Central's Dance Band furnished the music.

Under the leadership of Benita Schmidt, the 1962-63 Homemaking Club has more than lived up to its objective in channeling the interest of its members in the field of home economics. The organization's activities were many and varied. Some members did social work at the Child Saving Institute. A home economist for "McCall's" magazine, visiting from New York, spoke at a meeting. The highlight of the special-event program was a trip to the Butternut Bakery.

Under its new and progressive leadership, the Club has doubled in size this year. The Club has set a new goal for itself for the future to initiate a drive for male members.

The 1962-63 year has been an active one for the 160 members of "Le Cercle Francais." All of the programs and projects for the year were centered around the theme, "A Tour of France." The SS French Club embarked in September for a year-long voyage, stopping at a different province each monthly meeting. The tour served to stimulate the interest of French students in France and its culture.

Highlighting the year's program were a "Joyeux Noel" party in December and the third annual Mardi Gras celebration held in March. French Club members also rendered service to those less fortunate by sending CARE packages overseas.

Red Cross

The Red Cross Council is open to all students interested in giving service. Periodically, the students have visited the University of Nebraska Hospital where they read to children in the pediatrics ward. These children also received holiday table favors from the Council members. In March the Central Chapter assisted in sponsoring the Criss-Crosser Dance, held at Peony Park. The receipts were used to send four delegates to a Red Cross training center at the University of Nebraska.

Each monthly meeting of the Douglas County Red Cross is held at a different high school. By attending these meetings, members become acquainted with students from other schools.

The Junior Hi-Y was formed during the 1961-62 school year to extend the opportunities offered by the Senior Hi-Y to more young men. They worked in conjunction with the senior club on most projects, which included helping the Y.M.C.A. Men's Club in their sale of Christmas trees, collecting money for the Lions' Eye Bank, as well as giving service to the Central High School Student Council and various churches and youth groups. The Club sponsored social events including the annual hay-rack ride, parties, and the Hi-Y Coronation Ball.

Designed to promote good Christian character, both the Junior and Senior Hi-Y were members of the Hi-Y Metro-Council and held their bi-weekly meetings at the Central Y.M.C.A.

"Jack, be nimble; Jack, be quick!"

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout our home, school and community, high standards of Christian character." The senior club tries to live up to their motto by sponsoring several important events each year. The bonfire pep rally for Central's first Homecoming was planned and carried out by the boys this year, as were two pep rallies given on the stage. The seniors also handled the sale of basketball schedule stickers.

The traditional Lenten services, given at Trinity Church, were the work of both the junior and senior clubs, in conjunction with the Y-Teens. These non-sectarian services were given each morning during the week preceding spring vacation.

The Library Club is composed of students who are interested in books or want to explore the field of librarianship as a possible career. Many of the members are interested in earning extra money by doing city library work or in learning more efficient use of the library.

National Book Week and National Library Week highlight the librarians' calendar each year. This year the Library Club enthusiastically sponsored both events by placing posters announcing them in the halls at strategic points and distributing book marks to all students.

Included in this year's activities was membership in the Intercity Library Club, which holds its meetings twice a year. This year's intercity secretary was Sally Sorenson of Central.

The Central High Chapter of the National Forensic League, which boasts 145 members, is the largest public school chapter in Nebraska. Membership in the League enables speakers to develop ability in forensics.

Admittance to N.F.L. is granted to debaters who have earned at least 25 points by public speaking. By this point system, degrees of honor, excellence, distinction and double distinction may be won.

Once a speaker has achieved membership in N.F.L., he may remain active for life. As one of the nation's 1,000 chapters, Central's League members have been honored by the National Organization with one of the 25 annual leading chapter awards.

The Outdoorsmen is a group of young men whose purpose is to stimulate interest in the enjoyment and conservation of the American heritage of outdoor life. In 1952, four sophomore boys started this organization, and now its membership numbers about 70 who meet monthly.

This year, in the interest of national and state conservation, the Outdoorsmen maintained a booth at the Sport and Wild Life Exhibition in Omaha.

For fun the boys took fall and spring camping trips to such places as Fremont Lakes and Waubonsie State Park. At the Lakes they went fishing and boating and held a "junior olympics" tournament.

Boys always were good at judging dolls!

Y-Teens, in existence since 1915, was organized to promote service, cooperation, and understanding. This organization is affiliated with the Y.W.C.A. and is open to all girls. Members have the opportunity to make new friends, exchange ideas, and learn interesting skills.

Dressing dolls for less fortunate children at Christmastime has become a tradition with this group. Another feature of the year was the sponsoring of the annual Lenten services with the members of Hi-Y. The services were held at Trinity Cathedral and were attended by a large number of students and faculty members. Y-Teens also helped with the White Cane Drive and the Cancer Drive.

Latin American culture is the main subject of study in the Inter-American Club. Students of Spanish who are truly interested in our southern neighbors learn much from their membership. At one of the meetings, Miss L. Zenaide Luhr, Art Teacher, narrated while she showed pictures of her trip to Mexico. Another meeting consisted of a panel discussion conducted by Robin Aronson, who studied last summer in Mexico.

In celebration of Christmas, members sang carols in Spanish and held a gift exchange at their "Feliz Navidad" party. The spring picnic, where members were served a real Mexican dinner, was a happy ending to the year.

Monthly meetings, plus field trips, plus a math contest equaled a busy year for the Math Club. It was originally a part of the Science Club, but the ambitious mathematicians seceded and formed their own group which now numbers nearly 100 members. The regular meetings featured speakers who informed the members on mathematical concepts not covered in daily classes. The Club took a trip to the Omaha National Bank to view the huge electronic computer, "Mr. 1,401."

Highlighting the year was the annual Intramural Math Contest. Although math-team members were not eligible, competition ran high. The highest scorer in each grade was awarded $1.50.

Central's Greenwich Village was founded in 1923 by a group of senior art students who wished to promote a fuller appreciation of art. The Club is now open to all Central High students either taking or having an interest in art.

In the spring members held an auction in conjunction with their sidewalk art show. Other events of the year included a field trip to Joselyn Art Museum and lectures by prominent artists who spoke on various art vocations. These included window display, interior design, fashion illustration and advertising. A committee was organized to send for and file catalogues from the National Association of Schools of Art.

Reserve Officers' Training Corps

Cadet Colonel Martin Andrews and Honorary Colonel Barbara Ramsey.

Leadership, loyalty, military discipline, and respect for authority—these are the qualities to be acquired by the cadet in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. Naturally, these principles will prove invaluable to a student whether for military or civilian life.

The ROTC Program in Omaha High Schools started in 1893 as a battalion of four companies trained by an officer from Fort Crook. In the 1930's individual units were organized at the various schools, thus forming the ROTC system known today.

Central's ROTC Department is now a battle group of eight companies, including a military-band company. Commanding the battle group is the Cadet Colonel who is announced each year at the Annual Military Ball.

"Has anyone seen our dates?"

The Ball was again a highlight of both the ROTC and social year at Central.

Rifle Team

Cadet Major Robert Morrison commanded the Central Rifle Team this year. Their hours of practice proved worthwhile as the team participated in numerous inter-city matches.

For the second year Central was invited to compete in the Wichita Invitational Rifle Team Meet.

FIRST ROW: Bruce, Thrasher, Green, Hooper. SECOND ROW: Avery, Hendrickson, Morrison, Brinkman, Peterson.

Cadet Police

The Cadet Police Corps enforces the military code of ethics at Central. They also watch for such offenses as the violations of the rules of military dress.

Color Guard

Cadet Captain David Williams led the Central Color Guard last year. Under his command they presented the colors at several ROTC and school functions including the Military Ball, Road Show, Federal Review, and Central football games.

Excellent marching ability is the basic requirement for membership in the Color Guard. The cadets must also have a thorough knowledge of the manual-of-arms.

 Treasurer ..... Edward Anderson
 Sgt.-at-Arms ..... Robert Morrison

The Commissioned Officers' Club is formed to regulate the battle group and to organize the Military Ball.

Requirement for admission is the rank of lieutenant or above. By working in the Club, the cadet develops a sense of responsibility and gains valuable leadership training.

Military Band

Literally keeping "in tune with the times" is the Central High Military Band. This year's Band, under the direction of Instrumental Music Instructor Robert L. Harrison, was the largest company in Central's battle group. The company commander was Cadet Captain Timothy Still.

Membership in the Band provides an opportunity for a cadet to develop his musical abilities and marching proficiency in addition to his other ROTC activities.

The Military Band performed at the Retreat Parade and Federal Inspection, the year-end and city-wide reviews, Recognition Night, and other military functions in the area.

The Band also greeted Vice-President Lyndon Johnson at Eppley Airfield in the fall.

"You play a hot bazooka, sarge."

Miss NCOC, Ann Kennedy.

NCOC

The Non-Commissioned Officers' Club is part of the ROTC program designed to develop skills in the NCO's so they may adequately fill their positions later as commissioned officers.

Many NCO's went to ROTC Summer Camp at Ft. Riley, Kansas. There Central cadets and those from other Omaha high schools joined in a 10-day military training period.

In November the NCOC presented the annual "Sound Off" Dance at which the first promotions of the year were read and Miss NCOC was announced. Ann Kennedy, a Central junior, was selected this year. Charles Avery served as President of the Club.

There is hardly enough room for Chuck Avery's award as the best NCO.

"Do you happen to know which end fires?"

Crack Squad

"Want to trade rifles?"

Last fall a precision drill team of cadets was chosen as the Central High Crack Squad. Members showed unusual ability in executing the Squad's manual-of-arms.

Months of practice were necessary before the Crack Squad was ready to appear at the Military Ball. Under the command of Cadet Major Richard Cowman and Cadet Captain Douglas Prokop, the Squad gave a thrilling performance.

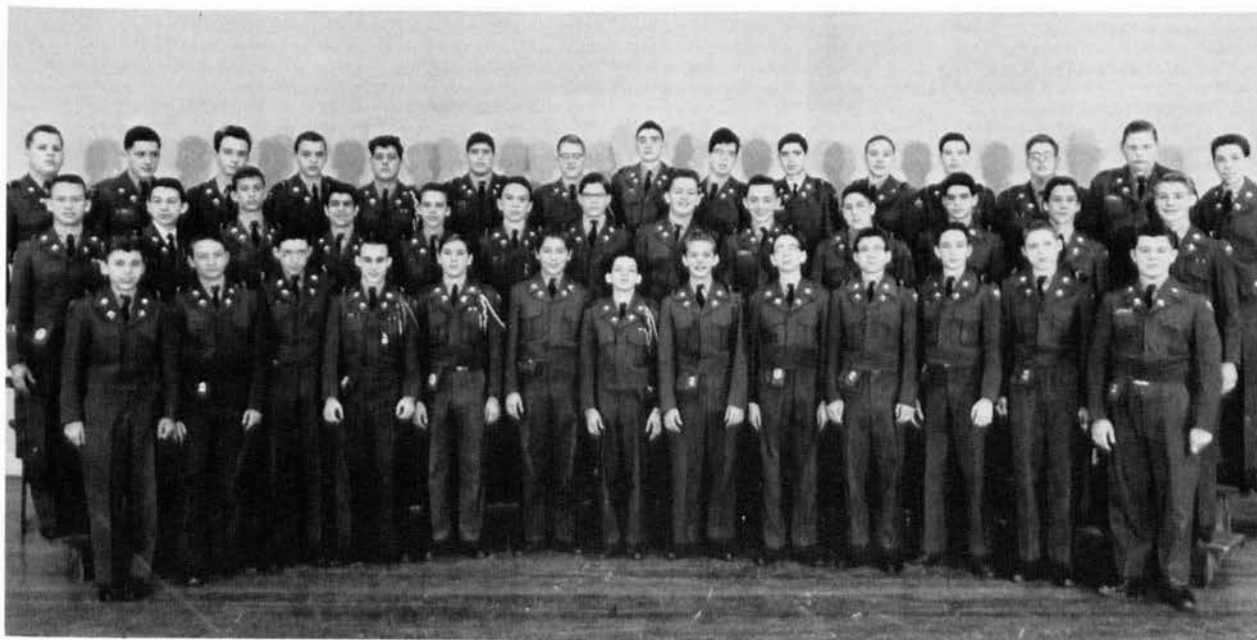

Equally exciting was the Crack Squad's showing in the 1963 Road Show. As usual, they were very well received.

Freshman Cadets

SECOND ROW: Prokop, Olsen, Gutmann, Andrews

"Remember, cadets, keep in step with the stairs."

Hussars

Annually, 16 Central Cadets are selected to perform during the Ak-Sar-Ben Coronation. The Cadets, chosen according to marching ability and uniformity of height, serve as the King's or Queen's Royal Hussars.

Last October at the 68th Annual Coronation the Cadets were led by William Taylor and Edward Gutmann. The King's Hussars appeared in the traditional garb, red and green uniforms, and the Queen's Hussars were in traditional white-and-red attire.

The performance of the Hussars was a highlight of the coronation as the Cadets executed their precise and intricate movements.

STAFF

MR. J. ARTHUR NELSON

Harmonizing the symphony of Central High School is Principal J. Arthur Nelson. His planning of curriculum and his interest in school affairs helps Central keep its high standard in preparing students for the future.

A graduate of Midland College, Mr. Nelson received his Master's Degree from the University of Nebraska. He continued graduate work at the University of Iowa and was a John Hay Fellow at Williams College. He served as Principal of Monroe School and Assistant Principal at North High. He has been Principal at Central for 17 years.

Mr. Nelson's diligence and dedication to Central bind him closely to every student.

MR. HAROLD REEVES

Mr. Nelson's able assistant, Mr. Harold Reeves, joined Central's faculty this year. His enthusiasm in both academic achievement and school spirit has made his success in all school activities great.

Mr. Reeves received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Doane College and his Master's Degree from the University of Nebraska. He has taught at Milford and Gering, Nebraska, and served at Scottsbluff as Guidance Director for Boys, Assistant Principal and Principal.

Mr. Reeves' interest in all the students made him valuable in maintaining the high standards of Central High School.

Language

"Bonjour," "Valet," and "Buenas Dias" were some of the foreign words and phrases heard during the year throughout the language classrooms and laboratory. The Department consisted of 10 staff members giving instruction in five foreign languages. These languages included Latin, French, Russian, German, and Spanish.

Miss Ruth Pilling headed the Language Department this year. Every Monday morning Miss Pilling taught an Advanced Placement Latin Class for her fourth-year students. The students took this course on a voluntary basis. In addition Miss Pilling kept even more busy by serving as the Counselor for the Junior girls.

Spanish Teachers Miss Jane Nichols, Miss Fern McVicker.

German Teacher Mrs. Gretchen Schutte,
Russian Instructor Rev. Vojislav Dosenovich.

Mrs. Frederick Adrian

English

The English Department at Central was the largest of the departments with 17 teachers composing this term's staff. Mr. Charles Murray began his first year as head of this branch of the faculty.

Aside from the regular English courses which were taught, the curriculum this year included Advanced Placement courses, a course in Creative Writing, and classes in Journalism and Debate.

Homemaking

The Business Education Department began this year with a larger-than-ever staff. Mr. Richard Kuncl served as Department Head for the six instructors. The various courses included in this year's curriculum were handwriting, General Business, bookkeeping, typing and shorthand.

Mrs. Fern McCready and Miss Alice Buffett taught students in the art of homemaking; students learned to cook, sew, and in other ways manage a home. An advanced course was given in clothing.

"Advancement" was the key word in the Mathematics Department this year.

In addition to the already-established Advanced Placement Class for seniors taught by Miss Virginia Pratt, a course of A. P. Mathematics for juniors joined the Department's roster. This special class was instructed by Department Head Mr. Duane Perry.

The added responsibility of counseling students rested with Miss Irene Eden, Sophomore Girls' Counselor, and Miss Virginia Pratt, Senior Girls' Counselor.

The Mathematics Staff was composed of 12 teachers. (Miss Patricia David and Mr. Richard Bantner appear on page 107.)

Science

Mr. Richard Keidel

Miss Patricia David

Mr. John Williams

Chemistry Instructors Mrs. Otto Buresh, Mr. G. Richard Keidel, Miss Patricia David, Mr. John Williams.

Physics Teachers Mr. Richard Bantner and Mr. Roy Busch.

Scientifically-minded students found a wide range of subjects offered to them this year by the Science Department. Ten teachers, headed by Mr. Roy C. Busch, instructed classes in biology, chemistry and physics.

A record high number of science students caused Central's laboratory facilities to be utilized to the fullest extent.

New features in the Department included an Organic Chemistry course taught by Mrs. Otto Buresh, and a "science projects" class which Mr. Busch instructed.

Social Studies

The Social Studies Department was kept busy throughout the year teaching a varied number of courses. Included in the Department's curriculum were courses in World Geography, World History, American History, American Government, English History, Economics, and Modern Problems.

Mr. Norman Sorensen headed this Department of 12 teachers for the second straight year. Mr. Hyman Lubman was the instructor for an Advanced Placement course in American History held one day after school each week for those students interested in a more thorough study of the course.

Social Studies Teacher Mr. Robert Davis doubled both as a teacher and as a counselor. He served as Adviser for the Senior Boys.

Senior Officers

WILLIAM PULLEN
Vice-President

The Senior Class Officers capably led the 1963 Graduating Class with keeping in tune with the times. The officers kept the tempo moving efficiently throughout the entire year.

President Anthony Bradford presided over all official senior affairs, including the graduation ceremony. He maintained the excellent harmony produced by the success of the Senior Class. William Pullen, Vice-President, was the President's right-hand man. He attended all Senior Committee meetings and united the plans made by the individual committees. As Secretary of the Senior Class, Meridee Fokken prepared class schedules and was in charge of all class correspondence. Senior Play and cap and gown finances were handled by Treasurer Fred Armbrust. Marcia Hanek and William Young, Sergeants-at-Arms, were in charge of the class "mechanics."

Senior Counselors

Miss Cecil McCarter, Senior Sponsor

"Please allow John Doe to go to Room 21C immediately. Bring your books." These were familiar words to the members of the 1963 Graduating Class who often frequented the offices of Counselors Miss Virginia Pratt and Mr. Robert Davis during their years at Central. Miss Pratt and Mr. Davis advised students on everything from personal problems to the minute details of college applications.

The Graduating Class also benefited from the valuable guidance of Miss Cecil McCarter, Senior Sponsor. Graduation activities were organized last December under her experienced leadership. The Senior Committees worked closely with Miss McCarter to assure a successful climax of the 1963 school year: Commencement.

Senior

Eliza Doolittle, Professor Higgins and other characters from George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion" were brought to life on Central's stage in the 1963 Spring Play. An active force of Senior Play Committee members was at work behind the scenes, too, supervising publicity and ticket sales. The Committee was headed by Chairman John McIntyre and Co-Chairmen Suzanne Moshier and Susan Makiesky.

Dates, dancing and dress were the topics discussed among the members of the Spring Dance Committee. Under the leadership of Chairman Don Stephenson and Co-Chairman Harlan Rimmerman, the Committee planned the location and time of the dance.

r Committees

A festive atmosphere greeted the graduating Seniors who attended the Senior Banquet at the Sheraton-Fontenelle Hotel. Engineering the plans for the event were the members of the Banquet Arrangement Committee under the direction of Chairman Sharon Koom and Co-Chairman Edna Atkins.

The Committee selected the location for the banquet and was also responsible for reservations.

The colorful table decorations and favors which adorned the dining hall at the Senior Banquet were the work of the members of the Banquet Table Committee. The Committee was under the leadership of Chairman Irene Sabes and Co-Chairman Gwynne Eleby. All decorations were based on a particular theme, selected by the Banquet Program Committee.

Senior Committees

FIRST ROW: Buntz, Lindberg, Behr, Gilmore. SECOND ROW: Jelen, Phelps, Goldware, Weddle. THIRD ROW: Persell, J. Johnson, Wade, Randall. FOURTH ROW: Moore, Carey, Ellis.

The Commencement Committee made preparations for graduation exercises. This year Commencement for the seniors was held Saturday, June 8, in the Civic Auditorium. The 19-member Committee, organizing all graduation material, was headed by Chairman Dale Brodkey and Co-Chairman Betty Brody. Much of the job of this Committee consisted of preparing the programs for the commencement exercises.

"Organization" was the key word for the members of the Cap and Gown Committee, which was in charge of measuring seniors for the traditional commencement dress. Under the direction of the Committee, 430 seniors were measured for caps and gowns in one mass-production process. Heading the operation were Philip Weddle, Chairman, and Roger Persell, Co-Chairman.

The finale of another year has come. It is now time to evaluate the events of the year. How well have you measured up to the aims and goals you set for yourself last September? Did you take advantage of the opportunities for leadership, cooperation, and knowledge that Central has offered you? For the Freshmen, the first step up the scale of achievement has been reached. The Sophomores are halfway to the top. The Juniors are rehearsing for the finale, and for the Seniors, it has arrived. Though high school is over, their lives remain an unfinished symphony—unknown obstacles lie before them, unknown achievements are yet to be fulfilled. But Central has prepared its students to live in these changing times. Central is in tune with the times.
