Dedication

Men resemble the gods in nothing so much as in doing good to their fellow creatures.

—Cicero

We, the members of the yearbook staff, dedicate this edition to Mr. Duane M. Perry, former mathematics instructor and Head of the Central High School Math Department.

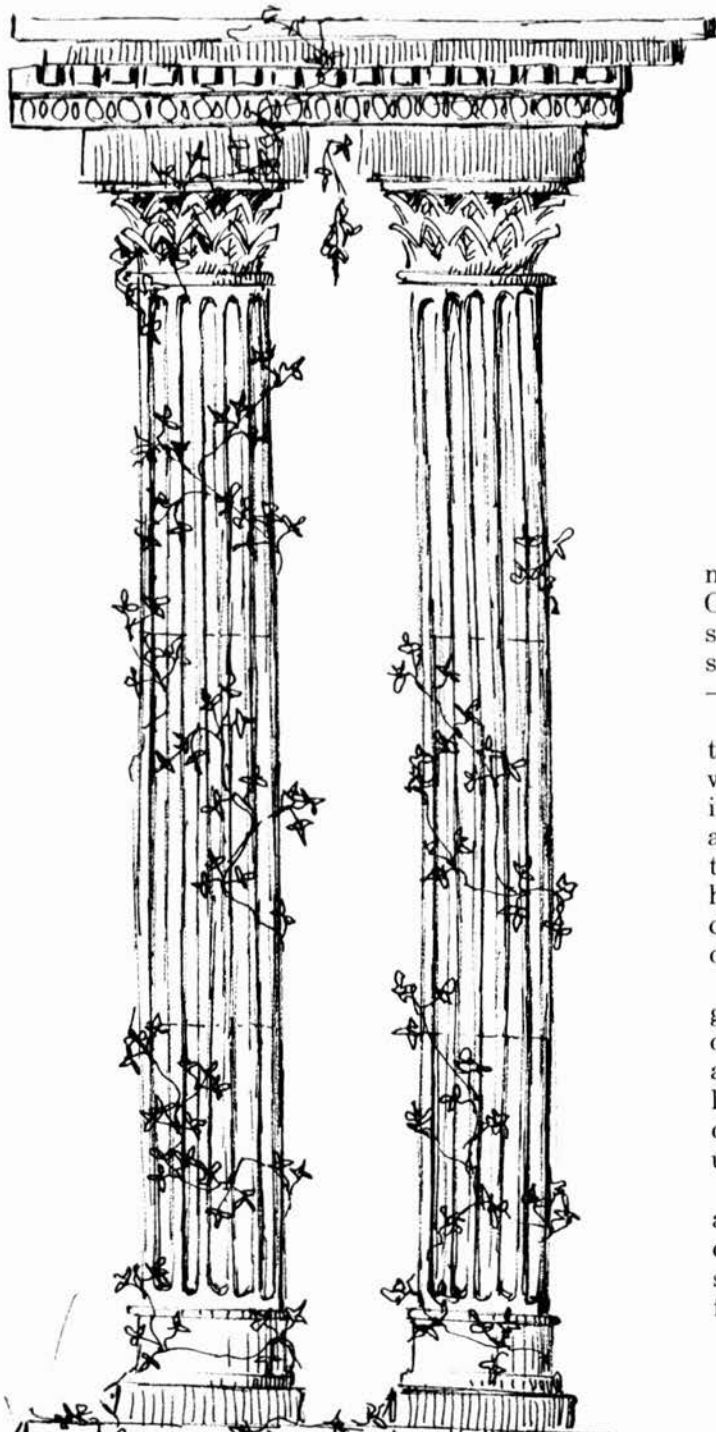

Mr. Perry formally relinquished his teaching position on January 24, 1964, following the end of the first semester. He is presently engaged by the Omaha School Board as Mathematics Co-ordinator for the Omaha Public Schools.

During his years of teaching, Mr. Perry exhibited both the ability of communication and the highest personal qualities. Renowned for his sincerity, intelligence, and integrity, he was revered by the students and faculty alike during his twenty-one years at Central. Prominent in school functions and continually engaged in a variety of extra-curricular activities, Mr. Perry eagerly accepted the many responsibilities thrust upon him.

It is, then, to Mr. Duane M. Perry, and in gratitude of his service at Central High School, that we dedicate this, the 1964 O-Book.

In ancient times, the gods of the Greeks made their home high on the top of Mount Olympus. Now centuries later we see that these supernatural beings have transplanted themselves to a new home — Central High School — the fortress on the hill.

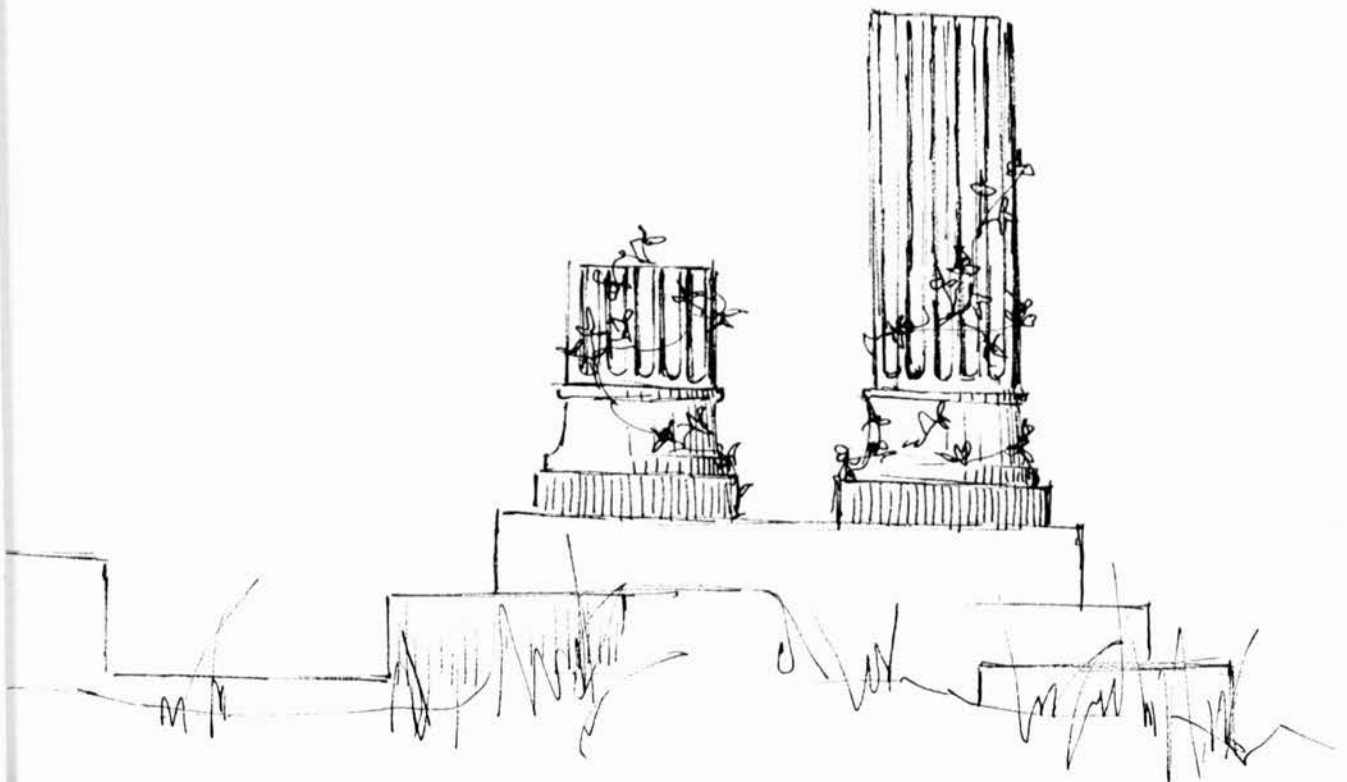

We really didn't have to look hard at all to find these gods. Minerva, the goddess of wisdom, is present everywhere. We find Apollo in the music classes; Mars, the god of war, is always present in the ROTC rooms, and certain other gods of the household are found hovering over the home economics rooms. Mercury, the messenger god, frequents the main office many times during a school day.

And then there is Janus, the two-headed god. As freshmen, we enter and pass him, his one face looking toward us. He is beckoning and we follow. As seniors, we see that he is looking another way — toward the path of the outside world, which we must take upon graduating from high school.

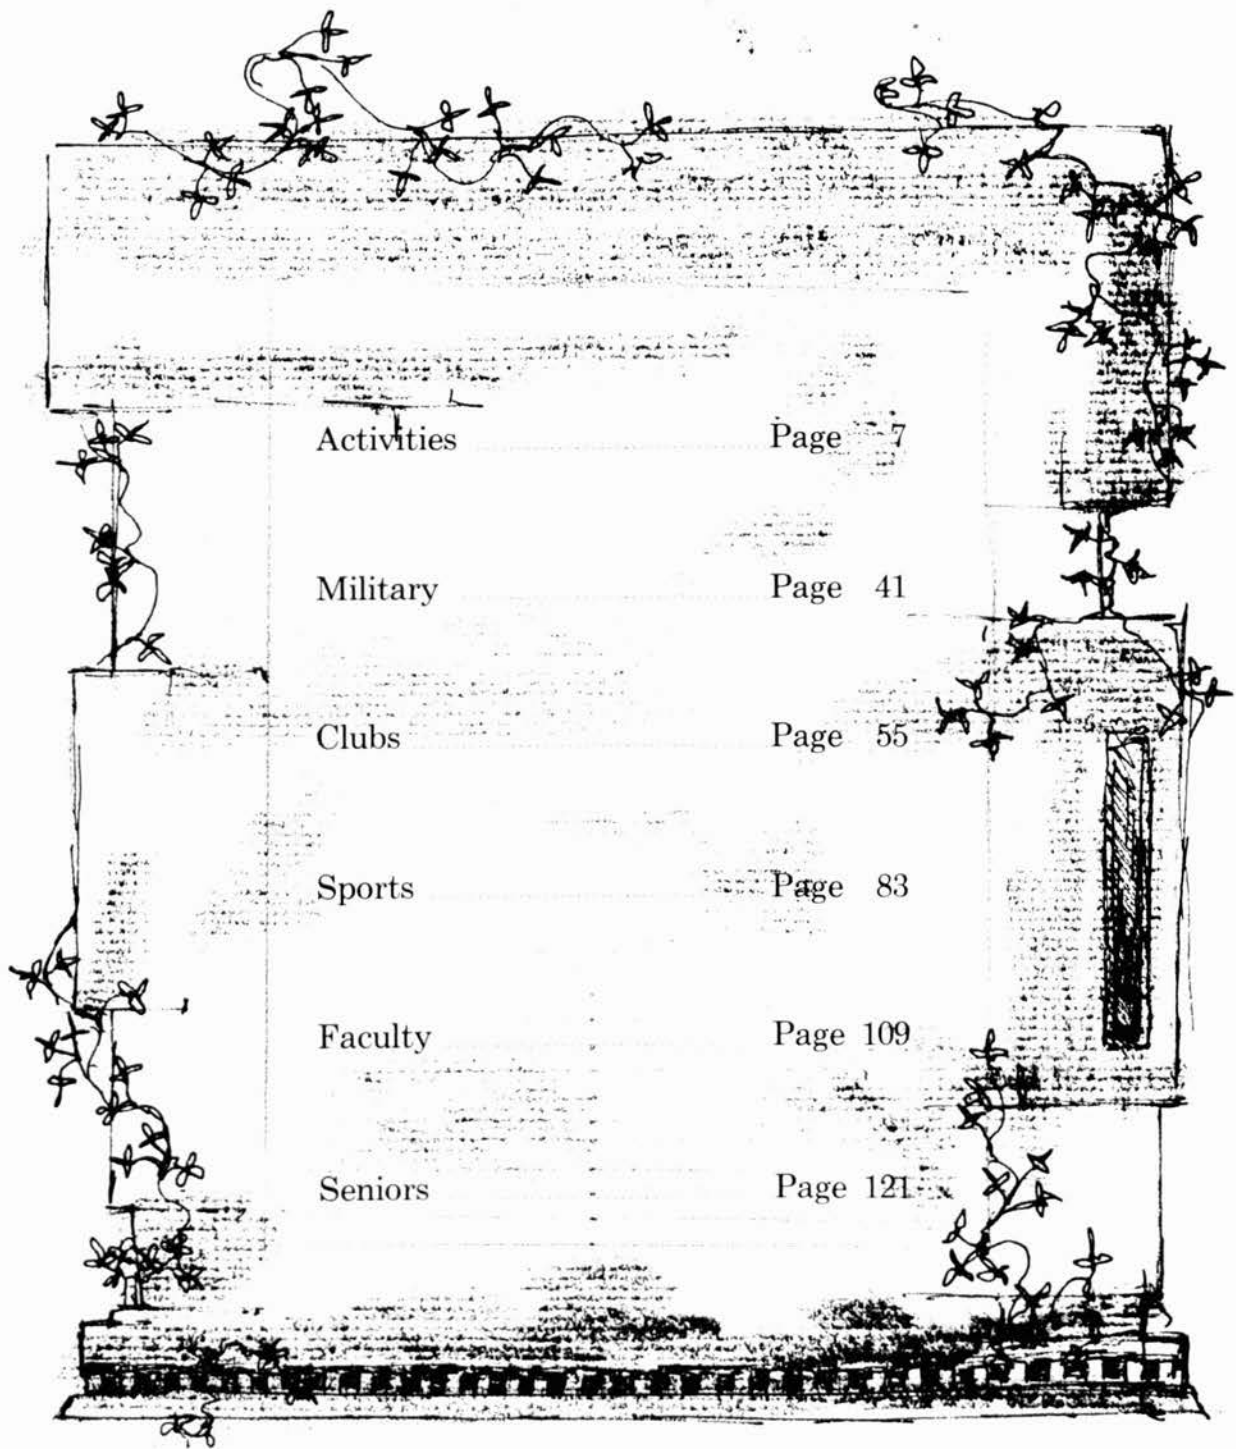

We should pay homage to these beings and give them due respect. Knowledge and the opportunity for learning is something we should certainly cherish. This is all "a gift from the gods."

In Memoriam

The measure of a man's life is the well—spending of it, and not the length.
—Plutarch

It is a rare thing for a leader of a country to reflect the image of that nation's youth as did John F. Kennedy. His life was, and is, a symbol of youth's drives, determinations, and unquenchable search for that which is beyond.

Spirit was one of the many watch-words of this dynamic individual who so deeply echoed the pulse of youth. His spirit was inimitable and resounded throughout the land, as vigor became a household word, as fifty-mile hikes raged, and as belief in this country's greatness grew even deeper into its people.

Strength, love, loyalty, and devotion were only a few of the facets of the character of this man who so thoroughly captivated the hearts and minds of the nation. May his flame glow eternally in the hearts and minds of this, his nation, and may his inauguration address continue to challenge the youth of tomorrow as well as the youth of today.

"Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country."

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

A Cappella

1963-64 proved to be a very busy year for A Cappella Choir under the direction of Mr. Rodney Walker. In the fall, the choir presented a concert for the teacher's convention. This was followed by the production of the Pulitzer Prize-winning musical, "Fiorello" on December 12, 13, and 14. A Cappella also participated in the All-City Music Festival, the annual Road Show, and presented a concert for George Norris and Lewis and Clark Junior High Schools. In the spring, the Choir prepared Schubert's "Mass in G" with string orchestra and guest soloists. Overall, the year was one of accomplishment to long be remembered.

Orchestra

The Central High School Orchestra completed another successful season under the capable direction of Mr. Robert Harrison.

During the first semester, the Orchestra played for the Central musical, "Fiorello" on December 12, 13, and 14. The Orchestra also participated in the All-City Music Festival. At the Festival, the group brought glory to CHS by performing with excellence.

The members had a very busy second semester. They participated in the Road Show, the Junior Theater production of "Many Moons," and a concert at the city auditorium.

The Orchestra had an awards banquet and culminated the year by playing at graduation ceremonies.

In its third season the Central High Concert Band participated in many activities.

The band played for "Nine Girls" in October. They also played for all of the football games.

With the regular Orchestra, the group appeared at the All-City Music Festival and Road Show.

On February 28, the members played for the Military Ball at Peony Park.

The Band could be seen marching through the Omaha streets in precise step during the Omaha Retailers Parade.

To add to its busy year, the Band participated in the Spring Concert on May 15. The culmination of the years' events was the Awards Banquet held on April 17.

Dance Band

Nothing like a good ole' fashioned drum solo to give everyone a headache.

The Dance Band, under the direction of Robert Harrison, was unusually active this year.

The Band added to the success of the annual Homecoming dance and the NCOC's Sound-Off in November. It participated in the school productions of "Many Moons" and the fiftieth-annual "Road Show." In addition to the Spring Concert, the Dance Band appeared at George W. Norris and Lewis and Clark Junior High Schools. The Band also was part of an exhibition from all the Omaha high schools held at the Crossroads.

Math Team

The Math Team worked diligently toward their goal of winning the Math Contest sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America and the Society of Actuaries.

Under the direction of Mr. Perry, Miss Pratt, Miss David and Mr. Brottom, the students studied logarithms, square roots, and calculus in order to prepare for the contest. Forty-nine students tried their skills in hope of bringing the Math crown to CHS once again.

A select group of High School seniors from all parts of Nebraska attended the annual Boys' and Girls' State Conference during June. The event was held at the University of Nebraska, a center of continuing education. Here the students organized mock governments and studied the governmental structure in depth.

Central's John Zysman was honored by being chosen governor of Boys' State — after much campaigning and hard work.

However, the week was not all work and no play. The boys and girls took part in varied athletics. In fact, it was here that the state's 440-yard track record was broken.

Everyone agreed that the experience was both beneficial and fun.

"Happy Birthday dear Student Council. ...."

Although the fiftieth year of an organization is sometimes spent in suspended animation, this was not true of Central's Student Council.

The group spent their fiftieth year in varied and interesting activities including: sponsoring the seniors' Baby Picture Contest, helping with Career Day and College Night, organizing the Community Chest Drive at Central, decorating the Christmas tree, sponsoring the highly successful Homecoming, giving apples and a tea for the faculty, and giving the 1964 Freshmen the "Eagle Handbook."

Central's Student Council also participated actively in Omaha's Intra-City Student Council by hosting the President's meeting and the Omaha Student Council Convention in May. They attended two exchange days with other Omaha schools.

The group initiated a new program by selling candy to provide a Student Council Scholarship for a deserving student.

Cubby Taylor, President of Nebraska Student Council Association, looks forward to another busy day.

Friday and Saturday, October 27 and 28, were important days in the lives of all Centralites. The big event — Central's Second Annual Homecoming!

The festivities began Friday morning with a spirited Pep Rally. That evening CHS students gathered around a bonfire where a Viking was burned in effigy. The Eagles unfortunately lost their Homecoming game with North High School.

Schimmel's Indian Hills Inn was the scene of the successful dance on Saturday night. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Homecoming King and Queen, Buddy Belitz and Liz Coolidge.

Homecoming 1963 proved to be a huge success, as well as fun for everyone.

American Field Service

"Seven Seas," the AFS ship which carried Merry Rodgers for her year's study in West Berlin.

Merry Rodgers—CHS exchange student in Germany.

The American Field Service was created for the purpose of understanding and peace among the nations of the world.

Merry Rodgers, Class of 1964, was the first Central student to spend the entire senior year abroad. Merry left in August 1963 for Germany where she was "adopted" into her new family. One of the most significant things that Merry noted was that our personal problems seem trivial compared to the world conflicts.

Japan was well represented this year by Yoko Ikeo from Osaka. Yoko lived with the family of Wendy Drew, also a senior at Central. While attending CHS, Yoko was a member of Y-Teens, Pep Club, A Cappella Choir, and an honorary member of Student Council.

Before returning to Japan in June, Yoko toured the United States with other American Field Service Students.

Both Merry and Yoko have worked hard to promote the slogan of the American Field Service—"Walk together, talk together, all ye peoples of the Earth for then and only then shall ye find peace."

National Merit Semi-Finalists

Seniors took the National Merit Examination in the latter part of their junior year. Semi-finalists were chosen for high scores on the examination.

Finalists were determined on the basis of the College Board Scholastic Aptitude Examination. A list of the students was sent to colleges and universities as a means of recommendation. Many of the finalists also receive scholarships.

Reserve Officers Training Corps

The Reserve Officers' Training Corps was first started in 1893 as a battalion of four companies commanded by a Fort Crook officer. The ROTC system as we know it today was reorganized throughout high schools in the 1930's.

The cadets of ROTC are taught by their superior officers the qualities of leadership, respect for authority, loyalty, and military discipline which will be quite useful to them throughout their lives, no matter what their goal.

The Military Ball is given annually for the purpose of announcing the permanent battle group positions, company commanders, and the Cadet Colonel, who commands the eight companies, including the military-band company.

Color Guard

The purpose of the Color Guard is to present the colors at several school functions such as the Military Ball, Road Show, Federal Review, and Central football games.

The basic requirement for membership of the Color Guard is excellent marching ability. Another requirement is a thorough knowledge of the manual-of-arms.

The Color Guard was in command of Cadet Robert Danberg.

COC

Under the direction of Cadet Colonel James Belmont, the president of the Commissioned Officers' Club, committees were selected for the responsibility of organizing the arrangements for the Military Ball which is one of their main functions.

Prior to the Ball, the force of COC chose from a group of eight Honorary Commanders, Nancy MacArthur as Colonel's Lady.

PRESIDENT: James W. Belmont
VICE-PRESIDENT: Charles M. Avery
SECRETARY: David A. Napoliello

Who said sergeants don't smile?

Holly Jepsen, Miss NCOC

NCOC

The Non-Commissioned Officers' Club was organized for the purpose of giving the sophomore and junior cadets adequate training for becoming good Commissioned Officers during their senior year.

"The Sound Off," given in November by the NCOC, revealed the winner of the title of Miss NCOC—Holly Jepsen, a Central junior. Also at the dance, promotions were given to the cadets whose membership at the beginning of the year required at least the rank of corporal. President of the NCOC was Cadet Joseph Woods.

Rifle Team

The Rifle Team was organized for the purpose of competitive marksmanship between the schools of Council Bluffs and Omaha.

Under the leadership of Sgt. Troy Woody and in command of Cadet Bruce Hendrickson, selections of members were based upon the outstanding shooting of the cadets. This year the Rifle Team participated in matches at Creighton and Wichita.

FIRST ROW: Hooper, Avery, Brouillard.
SECOND ROW: Dishbrow, Green, Woods, Rambo.
THIRD ROW: Schmidt, Hendrickson, Larsen.

Cadet Police

Enforcing the Military Law.

The military code of ethics is the main concern of the Cadet Police. Under the command of Robert Danberg and assistant Provost Marshal, Robert B. Etzel, the CP's also help keep order at all Central ROTC programs and at all Central football and basketball games. They also watch for violations of the rules of military dress and usher at many important school events such as the Road Show and the opera.

Watch where you're pointing those things!

Crack Squad

Ability to execute the Crack Squad manual of arms which includes practice of intricate steps and formations is the main requirement for the selection of Crack Squad members.

These cadets, under the command of Cadet James Belmont and Cadet David Napoliello, produced spell-binding effects on all those who watched them at the Military Ball, Road Show, and Central games.

FIRST ROW: Belmont, Switzer, Cooke, Truell, Olney, McClellan, P. Lambe, Faier, W. Lambe, Napoliello. SECOND ROW: Roubicek, Yager, Dennis, Stary, Jones, Hannon, Cherniack, Bloom.

Under the command of Cadet Dennis R. Ocander and with the help of music instructor, Robert L. Harrison, the Military Band has been able to perform at many Central school functions and the Federal review. Not only is the Military Band the largest company in the ROTC system, but also it is the only Military Band Company in Omaha.

Throughout the school year, the French Club fulfilled its purpose of providing extra learning activities for students interested in France and its culture. Monthly meetings were conducted in French.

As a service project, the organization sent a Care package to needy children. Programs during the year included skits, a talk and a film on France, and French games.

The season culminated in a gala Mardi Gras celebration at which the members and their guests enjoyed French cuisine. Prizes were given to the most creative costumes.

To gain a fuller understanding of the German language, customs, and peoples, is the main objective of the German Club.

The members accomplish this purpose through the use of skits, plays, and speakers at monthly meetings. The main service rendered this year by the "fraus" and "frauleins" was a Christmas caroling session at the German Old Folks' Home. A Karneval Dance was presented in late winter.

Inter-American Club

The Inter-American Club is an organization which tries to build more understanding for and obtain greater knowledge of the Spanish-speaking people and countries of the world.

The monthly meetings presented programs that were geared to accomplish the purpose of the club. At one meeting, dolls of famous people were shown to the group. In February, Spanish bingo was played.

An authentic Mexican pinata was the main attraction of the Christmas party. The club held a final picnic in the spring serving Mexican food.

Junior Classical League serves to acquaint Latin students with the culture of ancient Rome. Through it, the pupils gain an interest in the government, customs, literature, and other phases of Roman life. Central's JCL was organized in 1903 and is the oldest Latin club of its kind in the United States.

In October Virgil's birthday was celebrated with a five-act play based on the Aeneid presented by the fourth-year students.

Ancient civilizations were portrayed by the second-year students in November. At the December meeting, the annual Saturnalia Christmas Party was held.

The highlight of the year was the "Latin Week" in March. This event began with the Slave Auction of first-year students, and was climaxed with the Latin Banquet.

The installation of new officers and the presentation of the Susan Paxton awards was the program of the May meeting.

Future home economists gain greatly from the experience obtained through membership in the Homemaking Club. The girls learn domestic skills through the functions of the organization.

The club took an excursion to the Metropolitan Utilities District this year. A style show, with clothing made and modeled by the members, was given at the annual Christmas party. A party was held for the new students in September.

Monthly meetings included discussions and speakers on modeling, make-up, and life in Japan.

"This is just one of the many domestic skills we learn in the Homemaking Club."

Throughout the year, the Junior Red Cross has participated in many activities in which they served the community and the school.

In December, the members sponsored a clothing drive for the Save the Children Federation. During the year, they held various parties for the patients of the pediatrics ward of the University of Nebraska Hospital. The club contributed money for Central Grade School, and made a scrapbook to be sent overseas.

Red Cross Club sponsors the annual Criss-Crosser Dance in the spring.

For prospective nurses, Future Nurses of America provides an ideal training ground. The organization gives the girls information about their chosen profession.

This first-hand knowledge was gained from speakers representing various fields of medicines, and by visits to hospitals and other related establishments. The members worked a booth during Teachers Convention.

Mrs. Marie Dwyer, school nurse, started the Central chapter of Future Nurses in 1956.

Future Teachers

"Maybe this really isn't the profession for me."

Tomorrow's educators learn the rewards, responsibilities, and requirements of teaching in the Future Teachers of America.

This year's meetings were planned so as to include one phase of teaching at each session. The program began with student teaching and continued through the months to encompass all levels of teaching, guidance, and administration.

During the year, members served as ushers for Open House, Teachers' Convention, Career Day, and College Night.

On October 10, 1963, a new club came into existence at Central. Its purpose is to provide a place for the meeting of minds on important matters on the international scene. Twice monthly the members of the International Relations Club congregate to discuss current events.

The many topics discussed have varied from the South African Apartheid problem and civil rights, to the Vietnam situation, the Russian wheat sale, the Common Market, and the Alliance for Progress. In February, a speaker told the group about the American Field Service's exchange student program.

Membership in the IRC is open to juniors and seniors only.

Central High Players

Budding young actors and actresses find guidance and experience through membership in Central High Players.

The club year was started in September with a formal initiation of the new members to acquaint them with the purpose of the organization, the appreciation of the various phases of dramatics.

Later in the fall, players sponsored the production of the play, "Nine Girls."

A service project of the group was the Traveling Troupe, a portable talent show which was presented at hospitals and orphanages.

In May, the annual banquet was held, and "Amy Awards" were given to the best actors and actresses.

National Forensic League

Central's chapter of the National Forensic League is the largest in Nebraska with 145 members and degrees. The club holds six of the nine double ruby awards in the state. This year, Beverly Jafek and Max Richtman added two awards. John Zysman and Robert Danberg were point leaders in the national organization.

The members participated in tournaments throughout the year, and worked to increase their speaking ability and raise their rank in awards.

NFL held a banquet in May, at which time the Sarah Ryan Award was given to the season's most outstanding debate team elected by the members.

Jets

"I can't figure out what went wrong with that last space rocket that I built. Maybe I forgot the fuel."

The exploration of science and engineering in a different manner than is common to the more formal classroom activities is the main objective of the Junior Engineering Technical Society. The JETS is a new club to Central, and it was organized in November, 1963 with members from the various science classes. The organization is sponsored by the Western Electric Company.

Meetings were held every two weeks throughout the year. The students worked on scientific projects singly or in groups. Superior achievements were entered in local and national competition.

Math Club

"This new method of mathematics is unbelievable. Now they're trying to tell us that the square root of our telephone numbers plus the cube of our social security numbers will equal our ZIP codes!!"

For the student interested in logarithms, irrational numbers, and probability, the Math Club is his prime number; for its purpose is to further knowledge and interest in the field of mathematics.

Because of its size, the club met as a whole only three times during the year. For monthly meetings, the group was split into two groups, Alphas for underclassmen, and Betas for upperclassmen.

Programs were given throughout the year by members and guests on such subjects as the slide rule, number basis, and fun in mathematics.

The Math Club sponsors the annual Intramural Math Contest, the Math Team, and the Math Library.

Boys who are interested in the rugged type of life make up the membership of the Outdoorsmen. All of the members enjoy hunting, fishing, or other outdoor sports.

Various programs were held throughout the year to promote an interest and concern for the conservation of the American outdoors. The main project was an exhibit set up at the Sports, Travel, and Boat Show at the Civic Auditorium. Speakers, discussions, and films comprised the agenda for the monthly meetings. Two campouts were held, one in the fall and the other in the spring.

Central High's Y-Teens work toward character development and understanding through widening friendships and giving service to others. Y-Teens was organized in 1915 as part of the YWCA world-wide teenage program. The Inter-Club Council, composed of representatives from the Omaha organizations, held monthly meetings during the year to exchange ideas and plans for activities such as the Fun-Nite at the YWCA.

Central's 99 member chapter observed World Fellowship Month and Brotherhood Week with speakers and discussions. In conjunction with Hi-Y, Y-Teens presented their annual Lenten Services at Trinity Cathedral.

As community service projects, the members dressed dolls and participated in drives.

Affiliated with the Young Men's Christian Association, Hi-Y's purpose is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character."

Activities this year included meetings twice monthly at the YWCA, basketball games, parties, and a model legislature.

The group was divided into two groups, Junior and Senior chapters, each having their own separate meetings, officers, and functions.

Both clubs worked together on service projects, including a Christmas tree sale, the U.C.S. campaign, and the Homecoming bonfire. In conjunction with the Y-Teens, the boys sponsored the traditional Lenten services at Trinity Church.

The main purpose of the Greenwich Villagers is to promote the exploration of art mediums and vocations. The awareness of art was aided this year by the installation of a "Little Gallery" in an unused section of the art department. One man shows, featuring the work of art students, were changed every two weeks throughout the year. An art sale was held during the year.

FOOTBALL

On September 7, Central's varsity football began a long and grueling season.

The 1963 season gave head coach William Charles and his assistants an opportunity to prepare this year's young team for a successful coming year.

Central's 11 earned three A's for effort as they displayed agility, alertness, and aggressiveness.

While winless, the CHS varsity team did not play dull football. Sophomore Joe Orduna thrilled Central fans as he returned a punt 86 yards for a touchdown in the game against Benson High.

Quarterback Rick Peterson and Guard Dean Hokanson were honored for their leadership and sportsmanship at a Kiwanis Club luncheon.

With Rocky Dyer, Carl Goodman, and Jethro Spurlock returning next fall, Central's future on the gridiron is bright.

Cross-Country

For the first time in Central's 103 years, a cross-country team was organized. Cross-country is an autumn track sport which originated in England. Participants run on a 1.9 mile course.

Mr. Frank Smagacz, former football coach and present track coach, did not retire from the fall sports scene. Instead, he assumed leadership of Central's first cross-country team.

Central, always a track power, relied on its experienced track men for its successful first year.

On September 18, the Eagles beat Creighton Prep to account for their first victory. The team placed second in a triangular meet with South and Creighton Prep. Running against Bellevue and Creighton Prep in another triangular meet, the Eagles placed first. The distance runners placed second both in the Metropolitan and Intercity meets.

Robert Roche and Garry Sykora, running twelfth and sixteenth respectively among 110 competitors, enabled Central to place eighth in state ranking.

With only one of last year's starters returning, Coach Warren Marquiss built a team which finished seventh in state and sixth in the Intercity League.

The courtmen dropped their first four tilts, but they gained valuable experience which enabled them to develop into a strong ball club.

The young team demonstrated its potential as it placed third in the Intercity Holiday Tournament. Junior Arthur Allen was named to the Holiday Tournament team.

Beginning with the February 1 victory over Thomas Jefferson High School, the Eagles were a new ball team. They piled up six consecutive victories, including an upset over Creighton Prep, rated the number one team in Nebraska.

The World Herald took notice of the improvement when junior Greg Butler was named Cager of the Week.

The 67-62 victory over Bishop Ryan in the District tournament insured Central of receiving a runner-up trophy. The Eagles missed going to State by a mere four points as the cagers lost to Boys' Town 63-59.

Two Central players earned post-season honors. Junior Arthur Allen, 6-1, whom the World Herald said could out-jump 6-7 Wally Anderzunas, landed a spot on the Intercity team.

Central's varsity basketball team consisted of high scorers. Among Greg Butler, Arthur Allen, and James Hunter 549 points were tallied.

Since all but one starter is returning, Central should be in contention for the title in the new Metropolitan League. However, Coach Marquiss will have to find a replacement for James Grigsby, 6-3, Central's tall man who is graduating.

Coaches Jim Howard and Patrick Salerno had to rebuild Central's wrestling team this year, as the team consisted primarily of sophomores and juniors with only two returning seniors.

While inexperienced, Central grapplers did not disappoint Eagle fans. Adrian Caldwell took State and Intercity championships in the 154-pound weight class. The "champ" also was victorious at the North High Invitational and the South High Invitational. He finished with the enviable record of seventeen wins and tied two matches.

Several other wrestlers also won merits. Robert Willits, wrestling in the heavyweight division, placed fourth in the District Tournament. Fernando Mesa took fourth in the Intercity Tournament in the 165-pound group. Keith Wilmot, wrestling in the 112-pound bracket placed third in both the Intercity and District meets. Tom Helligso, 95 pounds, was victorious in a dual meet with Abraham Lincoln High School.

Of the thirty-two schools participating in the State Tournament, the young Eagles ranked eleventh.

The future looks promising for Central's matmen, for all but two will return next year. However, the team will have to compensate for the loss of captain Buddy Belitz and champion Adrian Caldwell.

Taylor, Shrader, Perry, Hahn.

Many brilliant and record-breaking performances were turned in by the Eagle tankmen this year. Of the seven records broken in the Intercity meet, four of them were broken by Central swimmers.

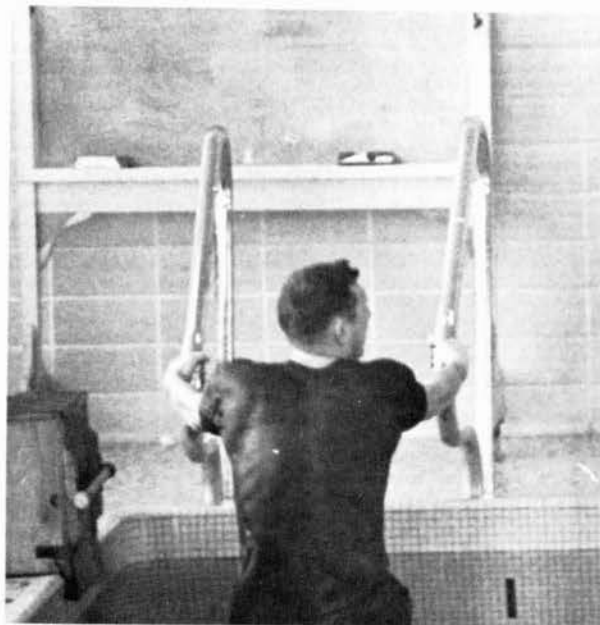

Dennis Tibbetts, Leroy Martinson, Larry Charles, and Steve Taff won the Intercity 200-yard medley with a time of 1:49.8, breaking a record set by a Central team last year.

All-American Ken Glasser broke two of his own records in winning the Intercity individual medley and the breast stroke. Steve Taff placed second behind his teammate in the breast stroke. The Eagles placed fourth at the State Meet. Dennis Tibbetts broke the record in the butterfly event with a time of 55.8 seconds.

Ken Glasser, going for an unprecedented fourth time as state champion in the butterfly event, suffered a big disappointment by being disqualified for two false starts. He came back, however, and won the individual medley in record-breaking time.

Central will lose many outstanding swimmers this year including Jim Boyle and Ken Glasser, co-captains, Don Goldstein and Leroy Martinson. The future is not dim, as many veterans are returning, including state champion, Dennis Tibbetts.

Central's swimmers captured the Intercity title for the second consecutive year. Led by Coach Robert Davis, the swimming team was victorious in twelve meets and was defeated only by state champions, Lincoln Southeast.

Coaches Patrick Salerno, a former Eagle slugger, and Marcus Brottem led a young but talented 1964 baseball team. With only three seniors, the remainder of the team consisted primarily of juniors.

The team was well balanced with particular strength found on the mound. Much of the team's success depended on lettermen hurlers Erwin Rehder and Sam Centretto.

The six returning lettermen, including Arnie Weitz, third baseman, Neal Borchman, second baseman, Jim Fous, outfielder, and Buddy Belitz, catcher, provided the needed experience.

Although young, the team was determined to improve on last year's team record.

Track

Coach Frank Smagacz and his new assistant William Lovercheck greeted an especially strong track team this spring. Many of last year's veterans returned including Robert Roche, Sam Lampkin, Joe McCray, Charles Williams, and Marshal Turkel.

If the first meet of the season was a foreshadowing of what was to come, the team could anticipate a successful year. They were victorious in their first meet as they captured the Omaha University Indoor Invitational Meet title.

The team took three firsts and two seconds. Central placed first in the distance medley relay and second in the two-mile relay. Marshal Turkel, Eagle speedster, won the 60-yard dash in near record time. Sophomore Joe Orduna hurdled his way to a blue ribbon.

Experience and ability made chances of success appear quite favorable for the Eagle trackmen.

Chandler, O'Hanlon, Hansen, Pratt, Schrager, Coach Marquiss.

GOLF

After a year's absence, Mr. Warren Marquiss resumed coaching of the golf team. With most of last year's team returning to bolster the squad, the linkmen were anticipating a successful season.

Returning lettermen including captain Tom Pratt, Harley Schrager, Tom O'Hanlon, and transfer Paul Callahan provided much of the team's experience and talent.

Coach Esmond Crown's 1964 tennis team was much improved over last year's team. The net men were an experienced team with six returning lettermen.

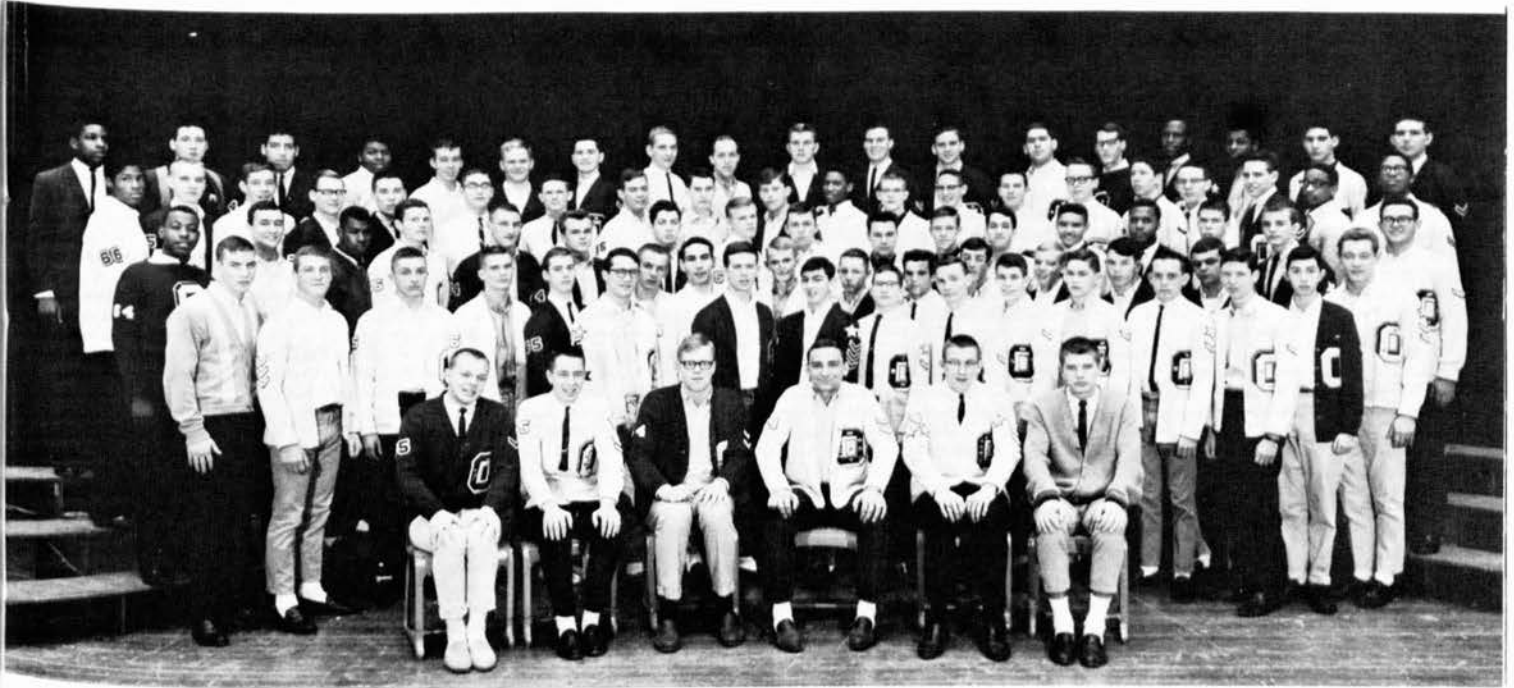

Last year's top foursome of Roger Gotch, Ben Shafton, John Zysman, and Jack Steinman helped to make this year's squad one of the most talented in recent seasons. With ability and experience, the racketeers looked forward to competition.

Mr. Patrick Salerno, who was president of the O-Club in 1958, assumed sponsorship of the club this year. Presidents Bud Belitz and Jim Boyle with the assistance of the new sponsor led the group through a most successful year.

The club did much to promote school spirit by conducting an amusing pep rally during homecoming week. At the District Basketball Tournament, the lettermen sat together as a cheering section.

In order to improve Central's athletics, the O-Club donated a projector to the school.

A congratulatory telegram was sent to Gale Sayers, a former Central athlete, on the occasion of his receiving All-American honors.

To honor outstanding Eagles, and close the school year the O-Club joined with the GAA in sponsoring the annual O-Ball on May 22.

Much of the loyalty and school spirit of Central's students stems from and is promoted by the Pep Squad.

The club is opened to all girls with pep and enthusiasm. Pep Squad encourages "the weaker sex with the stronger voices" to help stimulate school spirit and support the school's athletic teams.

Pep Squad is bigger and better this year with the largest membership Central has ever known. Over 300 members attend meetings which were held whenever necessary.

The hard work that went into making Central's Pep Squad one of the best at CHS has proved very successful with their new cheers this year. The group is sponsored by Miss Sonia Green, physical education instructor.

Through the Girls' Athletic Association, founded in 1928, all female sports enthusiasts take part in an active program of such intramural sports as tennis, badminton, bowling, shuffle board, ping-pong, basketball, and volleyball.

Participation in these sports entitles a GAA-er to earn as many as four awards. Girls may also receive credit for physical education classes and for extra-curricular activities.

Aside from the monthly meetings, GAA had a Christmas Project. This year GAA raised money for Central Grade School children.

In co-sponsorship with the O-Club, GAA gave the O-Ball, which was held in the spring. Any senior girl who had earned an award was eligible to march in the ball and compete for the honor of being named the most outstanding GAA member.

GAA's purpose is to supply girls with the chance to participate in after school sports activities, and through these activities, develop leadership and friendship among the girls.

FACULTY

"The fate of empires depends on the education of youth."
—Aristotle

J. ARTHUR NELSON
Principal

J. Arthur Nelson, Principal of Central High School, has held his administrative position for 18 years. His success in the challenging field of education is undoubtedly due in part to his excellent qualifications.

Mr. Nelson earned his B.A. degree at Midland College and his M.A. at Nebraska. He has done graduate work at the University of Iowa and was honored by being a John Hay Fellow at Williams College.

Experience is another valuable asset for a man with Mr. Nelson's responsibilities. Principalships at Monroe School and North High established a solid foundation for his career at Central.

Tradition, academic achievement, and pride are words J. Arthur Nelson has made synonymous with Central High School.

G. E. MOLLER
Vice Principal

A capable assistant to Mr. Nelson and a valuable asset to Central is Mr. G. E. Moller who is now completing his first year here as Vice-Principal.

Before coming to Central, Mr. Moller taught a variety of subjects at Valentine, Nebraska, where he also served as high school principal for five years. In addition, he was high school principal at Gering, Nebraska for two years.

Mr. Moller attended NSTC and Nebraska U. where he earned his A.B. and M.E. degrees.

Mr. Moller has proven himself to have been a worthy addition to the faculty of Central High School this year.

ROBERT K. DAVIS
Administrative Intern

Serving in the capacity of administrative intern this year at Central is Mr. Robert K. Davis. He is the first man to be employed at Central in such a position. His duties include co-ordinating the activity program, directing the athletics, and practicing all the phases of administration.

Mr. Davis is graduated from Southwest Missouri State and NSTC at Peru. He earned both his B.S. and M.S. degrees in Education.

His experience includes four years at Auburn High School, Auburn, Nebraska and the last five years teaching at Central.

Mr. Davis' dedication to his profession has made him an outstanding figure at CHS.

FACULTY

"Those who educate children well are more important to be honored than even their parents, for these only give them life, those the art of living well."

—Aristotle

The faculty of Central High School adheres to these immortal words of Aristotle by creating a vital scholastic atmosphere in each classroom. This body of men and women continues to maintain the high standards of education for which Central is renowned.

In addition to teaching and family responsibilities, a majority of teachers take on the extra duties of sponsoring clubs and after school activities, P.T.A. meetings, aiding at sports events, and counseling. Besides correcting papers and posting grades, many teachers spend their evenings filling out recommendations, solving student problems and doing research to keep ahead of that one gifted pupil.

This is the profession which is faced with not only the present, but also the future of our world. Truly, these men and women are Aristotle's "builders of empires."

"I know I put in more than 25 hours this week!"

SENIOR GIRL'S COUNSELOR
Miss Ruth Pilling

SENIOR BOY'S COUNSELOR
Mr. William Nystrom

SENIOR ADVISER
Miss Cecil McCarter

Senior Counselors Miss Ruth Pilling and Mr. William Nystrom had a busy year advising seniors on college problems and other personal difficulties.

Miss Cecil McCarter, Senior Sponsor, also gave valuable help to the Senior Committees to make the graduation activities successful.

Senior

SPRING DANCE COMMITTEE

The Senior Committees were responsible for the Senior Activities during the year. They worked with Miss Cecil McCarter in arranging and carrying out the functions of the Class of '64.

The Senior Dance Committee helped make the dance at Sheraton-Fontenelle a memorable event. Eddy Haddad played music to the reminiscing crowd. The committee arranged for the ballroom, the orchestra, and all the accessories.

The Banquet Table Committee made arrangements for the theme of the dinner, which was carried through in every aspect of the evening.
