"I second that emotion!"

Central High's Student Council, which consists of seven seniors, seven juniors, and six sophomores, is elected by the student body to represent them in school affairs.

The many activities of this year's Council included the Homecoming Dance, sock hops, Bermuda Shorts Day, the Teacher's Christmas Tea, and the Alumni Tea. They contributed to the Goodfellow's Fund at Christmas, organized the Student Council Scholarship, and elected a Teacher of the Year.

To promote school spirit, the Council sold victory ribbons for the games and presented pep rallies.

Council members were active in the Intra-City Student Council and participated in its Exchange Days.

In the spring, the Student Council and the Senior Class co-sponsored a formal prom.

homecoming

Jo Wagner and Bob Taylor are revealed as the new King and Queen.

The celebrations for Central High School's Sixth Annual Homecoming took place October 19-21. The festivities began Thursday night when a crowd of spirited Centralites witnessed the burning of a Rummel Rebel.

Friday, a parade of decorated cars followed the team to Benson Field where the valiant Eagles were defeated by Archbishop Rummel.

The crowning of Bob Taylor and Jo Wagner as Homecoming King and Queen brought a festive climax to Homecoming Week. The dance was given on Saturday at the Holiday Inn by the Student Council.

boys' and girls' state

Boys' and Girls' State is an annual institute in American government, sponsored by the American Legion. It was held June 12, 1967, through June 19, on the University of Nebraska campus.

The purpose of the institute is to give each delegate a chance to view and actually participate in the various aspects of government.

The delegates were kept busy with a daily routine of assemblies, caucuses, athletics, and lectures.

The convention included a written examination which every delegate took. Also, primary and general elections were held for state offices.

Highlights of the event were the contacts made with government officials.

Ten Central seniors were chosen National Merit Semi-finalists on the basis of scores attained in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests taken in February, 1967.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation and the Ford Foundation finalists are chosen on the basis of scores from an additional examination and an endorsement from Central.

Carla Alston was chosen as a finalist in the National Achievement Program for outstanding Negro students. Carla is the first of Central's semi-finalists under this program to become a finalist. The National Achievement Program is administered by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and based on scores attained on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

"My trophy's bigger than your trophy!"

Through Debate, Central students are taught to develop the ability to think quickly and logically, to learn to speak clearly and persuasively, and to learn to see both sides of issues. They then enter into competition with other schools in both local and national tournaments.

This year's Debate Team, composed of about thirty students coached by Mr. Arnie Weintraub, entered in twenty-five tournaments. These included the Omaha University Invitational Tournament, William Chrisman Tournament, Creighton Prep Classic, Bellarmine Invitational, N.F.L. District Tournament, and the N.S.A.A. State Tournament. The team won awards at almost all of the tournaments.

Central High's Math Team, rated among the best in the nation, consists of forty-four "mathletes" of the Experimental Math class. Miss Virginia Lee Pratt is coach of the team. The Math Team is for those who wish to explore the many vistas of mathematics. This class teaches the students to make quick, accurate decisions while working under pressure, an important factor in test-taking.

The team's major activity is preparing for the National Math Contest administered in March, for sophomores, juniors, and seniors, in addition to numerous inter-city competitions and activities. The Math Team participated in the Neumann High School Field Day and the Inter-School Math Contest, in which Central placed first.

"the chalk garden"

The curtain for the 1967 Fall Play, "The Chalk Garden," went up October 24 and 25. Under the direction of Mrs. Amy Sutton, the Central High Players presented the odd and amusing activities of a bizarre English household.

Mr. Raymond Williams was the technical director. The student assistants were Steve Perelman and Greg Lenz.

chamber choir

Mr. McMeen, director

The Chamber Choir is a small vocal group made up of members of A Cappella who perform apart from the rest of the Choir. The chorale group was formed this year under the direction of Mr. Robert McMeen.

This select group of twenty-two members was chosen on the basis of tryouts. They meet twice a week before school. The Chamber Choir performs at the same time as the A Cappella Choir in such activities as various civic group meetings and Spring Concert.

A heat wave was felt throughout the week of December 14, 15, and 16 at Central High School. As a matter of fact, temperatures rose to "110 in the Shade." The A Cappella Choir presented this musical based on N. Richard Nash's novel "The Rainmaker." The story takes place in a small Kansas town during a drought in 1939. It also deals with a "human drought" in the life of Lizzie Currie.

Director-Coordinator of "110 in the Shade" was Mr. Robert McMeen; Orchestral preparation for the musical was made by Mr. Robert Harrison. Stage sets and technical direction were under Mr. R. D. Williams; student manager was Johnice Pierce; make-up director was Mrs. Amy Sutton; choreographer was James Roddy.

concert band

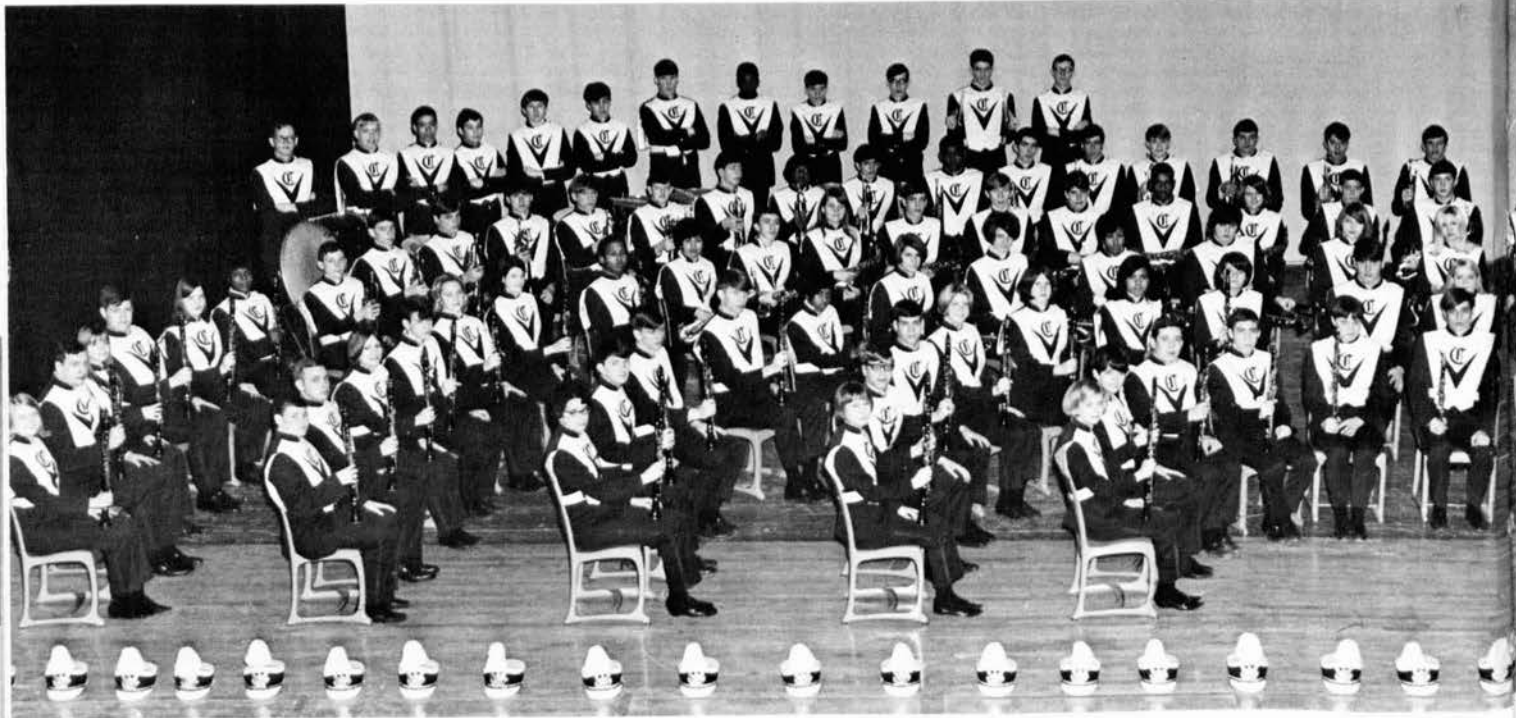

"I'm so hungry, I could eat a tuba!"

The Central Band is both a marching band and a concert band. The marching season occurs during the football season; the band plays for Central home games.

The rest of the year is the concert season. The Concert Band has three shows to perform annually: Military Ball, Spring Concert, and Road Show.

The Band also performed this year for the All-City Music Festival.

pit orchestra

The Pit Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Robert Harrison, provides the musical background for Central's major dramatic productions. The orchestra is called upon occasionally to accompany various groups throughout the city.

The activities of the Pit Orchestra this year included background music for the musical "110 in the Shade" and performances at P.T.A. and Fine Arts meetings. It also performed the music accompaniment for the Road Show.

dance band

Central's Dance Band was formed for the enjoyment of its members, as well as for the pleasure of the many audiences who hear it perform throughout the year. The Dance Band experiments primarily in fields other than classical music.

This year the Band performed at Benson High School's Junior-Senior Prom featured with a nationally known combo. They also performed at Burke High School's Military Ball and for Central's Road Show.

The Docksiders wait for sundown.

The Gypsy singers—Jacqueline Landman and Deborah Meyerson.

One of the most popular productions at Central High School is the annual Road Show. The 1968 edition of the Road Show was presented on March 21, 22, and 23, with participation by over 300 students in twenty-two acts. Every type of act was presented, including Barber Shop music, comical skits, folksinging, dancing, dramatics, the Dance Band, Orchestra, Concert Band, and A Cappella Choir.

Production manager for the Road Show was Mr. Robert L. Harrison; stage director was Mr. Raymond D. Williams; music consultant was Mr. Robert L. Harrison; and make-up director was Mrs. Amy Sutton. The student managers of the production were Christine Quinn, chairman; Barbara Berti, Donald DeWaal, Julie Jorgensen, Carol Moyer, Altan Ruback, Carlvet Scales, Jane Tritten, Nancy Welchert, and Kenneth Wollberg.

Members of Inter-American Club seek to increase their knowledge and understanding of the Spanish-speaking countries by attending monthly meetings. Programs this year included a variety of speakers who have visited Latin America and related their experiences with slides. Bingo played with Spanish letters and numbers was featured at one meeting.

The annual Christmas party included Christmas carols sung in Spanish and a traditional piñata. A spring picnic with Mexican food, games, and installation of new officers concluded the year's activities.

The purpose of French Club is to develop its members' knowledge of the culture and language of France. Programs this year included a talk by Mrs. Richard Fellman, a former Central High French teacher, on her experiences in the American Foreign Service in France, and slides shown by Miss Sheila Nelson of her trip to France.

A skit of life in France was presented by the sophomore and junior members at another meeting. At the Christmas party, carols were sung in French and games were played.

"C'est affreux! I don't know how to say 'Bingo' in French!"

An opportunity to learn the ideas and traditions of the ancient civilizations of Greece and Rome is afforded to members of the Junior Classical League. The club was formed in 1903 and holds the distinction of being the earliest activity at Central.

The year-long activities provided a wide range of speakers relating to the Classics. Miss Henriette Mertz, author of Wine Dark Sea, presented a lecture on Jason and the Golden Fleece in relation to the discovery of America.

Classical art and music were also discussed in programs by Miss Zenaide Luhr and Mr. Noyes Bartholomew. The highlight of the Latin club's year was Latin Week, April 22-26. The week's events included a slave sale, banquet, olympics, and oracles.

varsity football

Central High football is definitely on the upswing as highlights of the 1967 season demonstrate. The Eagles of the gridiron completed the 1967 season 4-5, equaling last year's record. Placing third in total defense, the team also captured third in the National Division of the Metro Conference.

Among Central's formidable foes, five of which were ranked in the top ten sometime during the season, were Tech and Metro Champion Bellevue. Central scored victories over South, Abraham Lincoln, Burke, and defeated Benson as the final win of the 1967 season.

The tank-men of Central placed third in the National Division of the Metro Conference, and thirteenth of twenty-eight teams competing for the state title.

As Central's basketball team filed from the locker room onto Lincoln's Pershing Auditorium court, Coach Warren Marquiss shouted to his players, "We will win this game (against Boystown) only if you shoot each free throw as if every one rested upon the state championship."

Coach Marquiss' twenty years of experience proved valid as Eagle free throws during overtime defeated Boys Town in the semi-final, 51-47. Ironically, though, Central sank only ten of twenty varsity basketball

free throws in the State Championship. Victor Lincoln Northeast popped twelve for fifteen and won by four decisive points, 54-50.

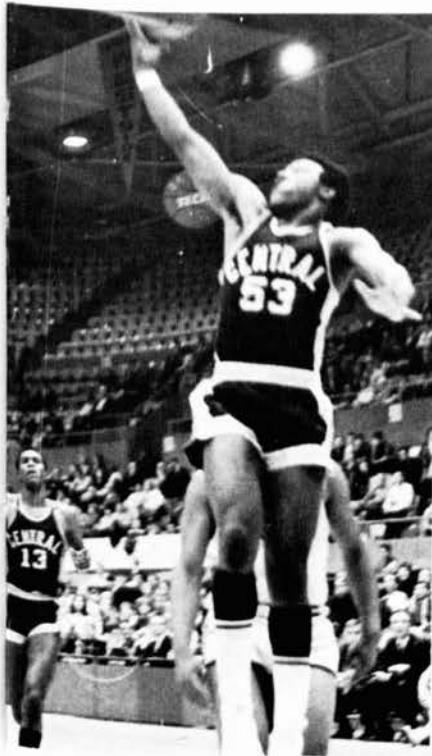

"What can you do," exclaimed heart-broken junior Henry Caruthers, after the loss. "You just want to get out there and help, but there's no way." Yet, next year, guard Caruthers, sixth man on this year's squad, will have a chance to help out. Also returning will be forwards Harvey Josin, Jeffrey Krum, and Phil Allison, and guards Jerry Moss and Lindbergh White.

The year of the "Rhythm Boys" (the 1967-1968 season) might very well have produced Coach Marquiss' finest team of his career. Rebounding and shooting strength was led by 6'7" two-time All-Stater Dwaine Dillard. Dillard became the first player in Central's history to total more than 1,000 points in his high school career (1,010). Newcomers Phil Griffin and Roy Hunter scored consistently from the outside and sometimes leaped over the "Big D" to snare loose shots, the ball handling of Willie Frazier and John "Trickster" Biddle added so much excitement to the game that breaking a full court press was no longer a fear, but a fad.

Coach Warren Marquiss reviews strategy in the decisive victory over "arch rival" Creighton Prep.

Prep's 6'8" Mike Peterson borrows Griffin's shoulder for a boost, but 6'7" Dillard snaps the rebound from over "Pete's" head.

High - springing Roy Hunter helps Griffin's rebound effort above the heads of Prep's Mathews (25), Haller (23), and Peterson.

In their first season under Coach James Bond, Central's wrestlers finished a strong tenth in the state meet. After a 3-9 season in dual meets, the matmen finished fifth in the district meet. Next year's team looks even better with the return of Tony Ross, Dave Dinsmore, George Thompson, and Jay Rodenbaugh.

Renner, Ross, and Bowie represented Central at the state finale. (Also Art Palma, not pictured.)

varsity baseball

The pre-season evaluation shows Coach Tom Dineen's Eagles to be strong in the hitting department with a weak pitching staff. Hurler Tom DeLong is the only returning regular from last year's squad. With valuable seniors in first baseman Dick McWilliams, and catcher Ken Woita, and outfielder Gary Lien, the material for an improved performance seems indicated. The Eagles will have to score runs to win in the tough Metro League, and strength of the overall staff must still be assessed. But chances seem good for improvement over last year's 8-8 performance.

pep club

Pep Club, a 108-member cheering section, has completed an exciting year of supporting the Eagles at football and basketball games.

The members attended games and earned extra credit by going to wrestling, swimming, gymnastics, or track meets. At the end of the year they receive a white bar for attending the required games and a gold star for perfect attendance.

During game weeks, members were busy making posters in preparation for weekend games. On Fridays, they comprised the front center section of the auditorium at pep rallies.

One project of the club was to sell balloons and shakers for the Homecoming game.

faculty

Dr. J. Arthur Nelson

In the last twenty-four years, Dr. J. Arthur Nelson has set an example through his decisive character and his tireless dedication to Central High.

As a reward for his personal qualifications and past experiences, Dr. Nelson received in 1965, an honorary Doctorate Degree from Midland College. Originally he had earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree from there, followed by attendance at the University of Nebraska where he earned his Masters Degree. He did his graduate work at the University of Iowa. Williams College in Massachusetts honored him as a John Hay Fellow. Dr. Nelson formerly served as principal at Monroe Jr. High and North High School.

Tradition, academic achievement, and pride are words Dr. Nelson has made synonymous with Central High School. It is then, to Dr. J. Arthur Nelson, in gratitude of his service at Central High School, that we dedicate this section of the 1968 O-BOOK.

Mr. G. E. Moller has served his fifth year at Central as Assistant Principal. Previously, he attended NSTC and Nebraska University where he received his B.A. and M.A. Degrees. He has served as principal in Valentine and Gering, Nebraska. Presently, Mr. Moller is working for his Doctorate of Education Degree at Nebraska University.

For two years it has been the job of Assistant Principal Mr. Clifford Dale to co-ordinate activities, make schedules, and keep discipline at Central. He earned his Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts Degrees from the University of Nebraska, where he is presently working toward a Doctorate of Education Degree.

As Guidance Director, it is the job of Miss Irene Eden to aid students for the future and to direct the activities of the seniors. She earned her Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts Degrees from Nebraska University. Before coming to Central, Miss Eden taught at Osceola, Nebraska, and was a teacher and principal at Syracuse, Nebraska.

To replace Mr. Moller and Mr. Dale who are on partial leave of absence, Mr. John Bitzes has served as part-time administrative assistant. As well as his office duties, he teaches American History. He earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Nebraska and his Master of Arts from the University of Omaha.

Mrs. Marjorie Stejskal has just completed her third year as a girl's counselor. Her job includes counseling the senior girls, making schedules, and helping girls in selecting colleges and careers. She also counsels the first half of the sophomore girls. She graduated magna cum laude from the University of Washington with a Bachelor of Arts Degree where she was a member of Phi Beta Kappa Honorary. She received her Masters Degree at the University of Omaha. Mrs. Stejskal taught at Norris Junior High and part-time at the University of Omaha.

Mr. Darrell Hart is serving his second year in Central's counseling department. He serves as sophomore and senior boy's counselor and helps boys select their colleges and vocational careers. He also plans schedules and advises students. He received his Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Education from Wayne State College, his Bachelor of Mortuary Science at San Francisco College, and his Master of Science Degree at Kearney State College. He has had fifteen years previous teaching experience.

reserve officer training corps

First Sergeant C. D. Russell

First Sergeant C. D. Russell has served Central cadets for nearly five years. From Oklahoma State University, he joined the U. S. Army and served twenty and a half years. Sergeant Russell feels that "R.O.T.C. unquestionably gives an understanding of military background but is not adequate preparation for complete military Active Service Duty."

instructors

Master Sergeant J. W. Evans has been with Central for two years. He graduated from Sioux City Central and completed twenty-two years of Active Service Duty. In spite of a busy schedule, Sergeant Evans finds time to attend classes at Bellevue College. Sergeant Evans believes, "The training provided by the R.O.T.C. Department is most complete and beneficial to a boy who will someday enter Military Service."

Master Sergeant J. W. Evans

color guard

William Behner, Paul Chadwick, J. Michael Peterson, Mark O'Brien.

The Omaha Central High School R.O.T.C. department has been a source of pride and deep admiration since the 1930's. The R.O.T.C. department teaches the cadet to be orderly, precise, disciplined, respectful, and patriotic; informs the cadets about the role that our army plays in national defense; and gives the cadet some military experience that can be helpful to him and the nation if he serves in the armed forces.

The color guard bears the flag which represents our nation. They are in charge of presenting the colors at various school functions such as: Military Ball, Road Show and Central football and basketball games. Each cadet has attained an excellence in marching ability and a thorough knowledge of the manual-of-arms. This year's color guard commanders are James Green and Thomas Lemon.

It has been a long-standing tradition at Central to choose from its R.O. T.C. department, seniors to serve as the King's Hussars and Queen's Lancers. In late October of every year, Ak-sar-ben's mythical kingdom of Quivera comes to life with the King's Hussars and Queen's Lancers as part of its enchantment and pageantry.

This specially selected group of cadets is chosen for military and marching ability, as well as for scholastic achievements. The boys must go through many hours of training, starting the first week after school begins, and ending the night of the coronation.

This year's King's Hussars were: Robert Nebel, James Green, Bruce Vaca, Craig Clawson, Alfred Lewis, David Skipton, Tom Jamieson, Darrell Taylor, and Merle Rambo.

Paul Campbell, Riley Warddrip, James Buckalew, Gregory Craig, Tom Lemon, Joel Estes, William McCartney, Von Cook, and Gary Howell were the Queen's Lancers.

The members of the Central High Crack Squad are chosen by their proficiency in drills, ceremonies, attendance and inspections. Members participate in the Road Show, Military Ball, the Omaha University Intercity meet and the Inter-state meet at Boulder, Colorado. Cadets diligently practice drills and marching before and after school every day.

This year's commanders are Riley Warddrip and Alfred Lewis.

The Cadet Police are a symbol of authority to all R.O.T.C. cadets.

Under the direction of Commander Mark Murphy and Assistant Commander Frank Stary, Cadet Police serve as ushers for Teacher's Convention, the United States Navy Band Concert, and all Central High performances.

Cadet Police, which now includes Escorts, are required to attend all home games, preserve order, and reserve Pep Club seats.

Besides competing in the inter-city rifle league, they participated in the Kemper Military Academy's Invitational Rifle Match and the Invitational Rifle Match at Creighton University. This year, Central's team went undefeated.

The Commissioned Officers Club consists of all senior cadets. C.O.C. is an important part of the R.O.T.C. program. Each year, among its numerous activities, it organizes and sponsors the Military Ball.

The Commissioned Officers Club is supervised by First Sergeant C. D. Russell and Master Sergeant J. W. Evans. Jim Green and Gregory Craig are this year's commanders.

The Senior Committees are responsible for planning and preparing successful commencement activities, under the supervision of Miss Irene Eden, Senior Guidance Counselor.

Any senior is eligible to serve on any of the committees.

Program Committee was chosen by Mrs. Marjorie Stejskal and Mr. Darrell Hart, Senior Counselors. Decorations Committee was chosen by Miss Zenaide Luhr, art teacher. Election Committee co-chairmen were chosen by Miss Eden and chose their own committee.

The other committees were chosen by the senior class officers and are directly responsible to Vice-President Gary Procopio.

The committees spent much time and effort attempting to fulfill their goals.

In Memory Of Judy Glyn
1949-1967

If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.

And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

Kahlil Gibran
