Student Council

Student Council Initiates Student Forum

Central High's Student Council, composed of 22 members from the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes, is elected by the student body to represent them and to reflect their opinions.

This year, the Council has sponsored many activities including Homecoming, the Faculty and Alumni Teas, Bermuda Shorts Day, and the 3rd Annual Spring Prom. In addition, Council sold T-shirts and sponsored a sock-hop to raise money for the Student Council Scholarship Fund.

Members of Council worked actively on policies concerning the school's dress code. Student Council was also responsible for the formation of the Student Forum, a discussion group made up of teachers, administrators, and students.

The members have participated in Exchange Day and have helped at College Night, Career Day, Open House, and at other PTA functions.

"Medea," Central's fall play, was presented on October 31 and on November 1. The play was under the direction of Mr. Ray Williams.

Prior to the play's opening, the warrior Jason has stolen the Golden Fleece with the aid of Medea's witchcraft. Medea saves his life when she slays her brother who was pursuing Jason. Jason returns with success to Corinth where he marries Medea who gives him two sons.

The play itself begins some years later when Jason wants to marry the young daughter of King Creon in order to elevate his social position.

Radio Broadcasting

Centralites Broadcast Daily on KIOS

Smith, Nielsen, Horrum.

This year Central became the first school in this area to operate its own radio station. KIOS, 91.5 on the FM dial, broadcasts from room 29 in Central's basement. The station is on the air from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Programs on KIOS range from educational programs for kindergarten students to hard rock. This year the radio station was operated only by Central students. Eventually, students from other schools will participate in its operation.

Mr. James Price, station manager, and Mr. James Minear, chief engineer, teach courses on all aspects of radio broadcasting.

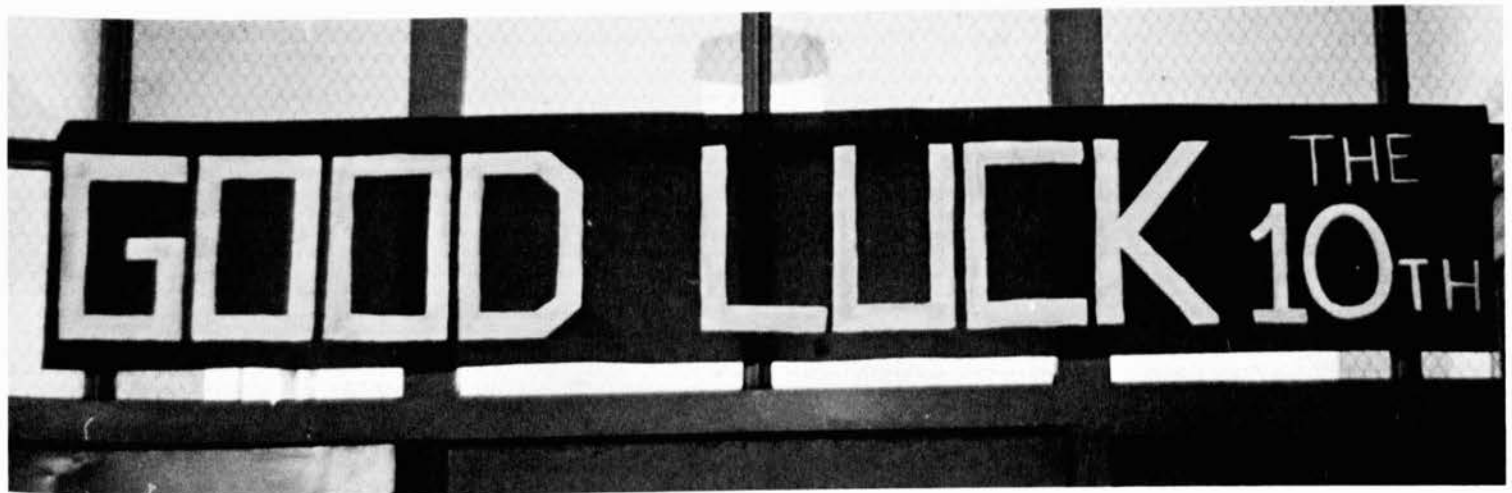

Bobbitt, Brooks, Jenkins.

Lowenstein, Moore, Swetala, Mr. Price, Abbott.

McIvor, Trabold, Higgins, Sandstedt, Wentworth.

Homecoming

Rain Fails to Dampen Homecoming Spirit

Central High School's Eighth Annual Homecoming Weekend was held on October 10 and 11.

The activities began on Friday with a spirited pep rally and football raffle. That night, a parade of decorated cars followed the team to Bergquist Stadium where the Eagles were victorious over A.L.

The climax of the weekend arrived Saturday night with the crowning of Marilyn Katz and Marvin Moss as the 1969 Homecoming Queen and King at the dance presented by the Student Council at the Diplomat Inn.

Military Ball

Jaksich Promoted to Lieutenant Colonel

William Jaksich was promoted to the position of Lieutenant Colonel of Central High School at the 33rd annual Military Ball on January 22, 1970. The rank of Lieutenant Colonel is the highest rank that can be attained at Central. The Lieutenant Colonel is chosen each year by the heads of the ROTC Department with the approval of the principal, Dr. G.E. Moller.

William was awarded the Legion of Valor Bronze Cross for Achievement earlier this year. This privileged award was presented on the basis of academic excellence and military leadership.

At the Aksarben Coronation, William was the commander of the Hussars. He was a delegate to Boys' State and also, was a National Merit Semi-Finalist. William took an active role in the Junior Classical League and the Math Club.

Zaiman Honorary Lieutenant Colonel

Judy Zaiman

Judy Zaiman was named Honorary Lieutenant Colonel. Judy was elected from among six other contestants that were nominated for the position.

As a delegate to Girls' State, Judy was elected to the post of Mayor. In her senior year, Judy was commended for the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. She was also named a Nebraska Regents Scholarship alternate.

Judy was on the Student Council for three years. Because of her musical ability, Judy attended the All-City Music Festival for two years and was also chosen to be a Road Show Manager.

Judy was an Eaglette her junior year and was active in the French Club and Junior Classical League.

Boys' and Girls' State

Alston Earns Trip to Girls' Nation

Boys' and Girls' State is an annual institute in American government sponsored by the American Legion. It was held June 7, 1969, through June 13, on the University of Nebraska campus in Lincoln.

The purpose of the institute is to give each delegate a chance to view and actually participate in the various aspects of government.

The delegates were kept busy with a daily routine of assemblies, caucuses, athletics, and lectures. Also, primary and general elections were held for state offices. Ellen Alston was elected Lt. Governor of the institute in addition to being selected to Girls' Nation in Washington, D.C.

Math Team

Mathletes Explore Many Fields of Math

Central High's Math Team is composed of students in grades 10 through 12 who enter mathematical competition on their own grade level. They comprise the Experimental Math class headed by Miss Virginia Lee Pratt. The mathletes are constantly working new and complex types of problems to extend their problem solving abilities.

This year's Math Team has entered various contests including the 1970 National High School Mathematics Contest.

Debate Team

Novice Debaters Excel During Season

Through Debate, Central's students learn how to express their ideas in a clear and persuasive manner.

This year's Debate Team, coached by Mr. Arnie Weintraub, entered various debate tournaments and was the only team to win trophies at every tournament.

This year has been prosperous for the team as they have placed in such tournaments as the Notre Dame Tournament, the Creighton Prep Tournament, and the Central High School Invitational.

The debaters traveled to Independence, Missouri, for the William Chrisman Invitational Tournament and to the Newton Iowa Invitational in Newton, Iowa. The team also took part in the State and Metro League Championships.

Varsity Football

Gridders Win Homecoming Game; Beat A.L.

Central's varsity football team ended the season with a disappointing 1-8 record.

After losing a tough 6-0 decision against South in the opener, the Eagles couldn't seem to get back on the right track.

Central then dropped consecutive games to Tech, Burke, and Boys Town.

Central's only victory came at the Homecoming game, where the Eagles downed A.L., 14-8.

Disappointing losses to North, Bellevue, and Prep, followed the Eagles' Homecoming victory.

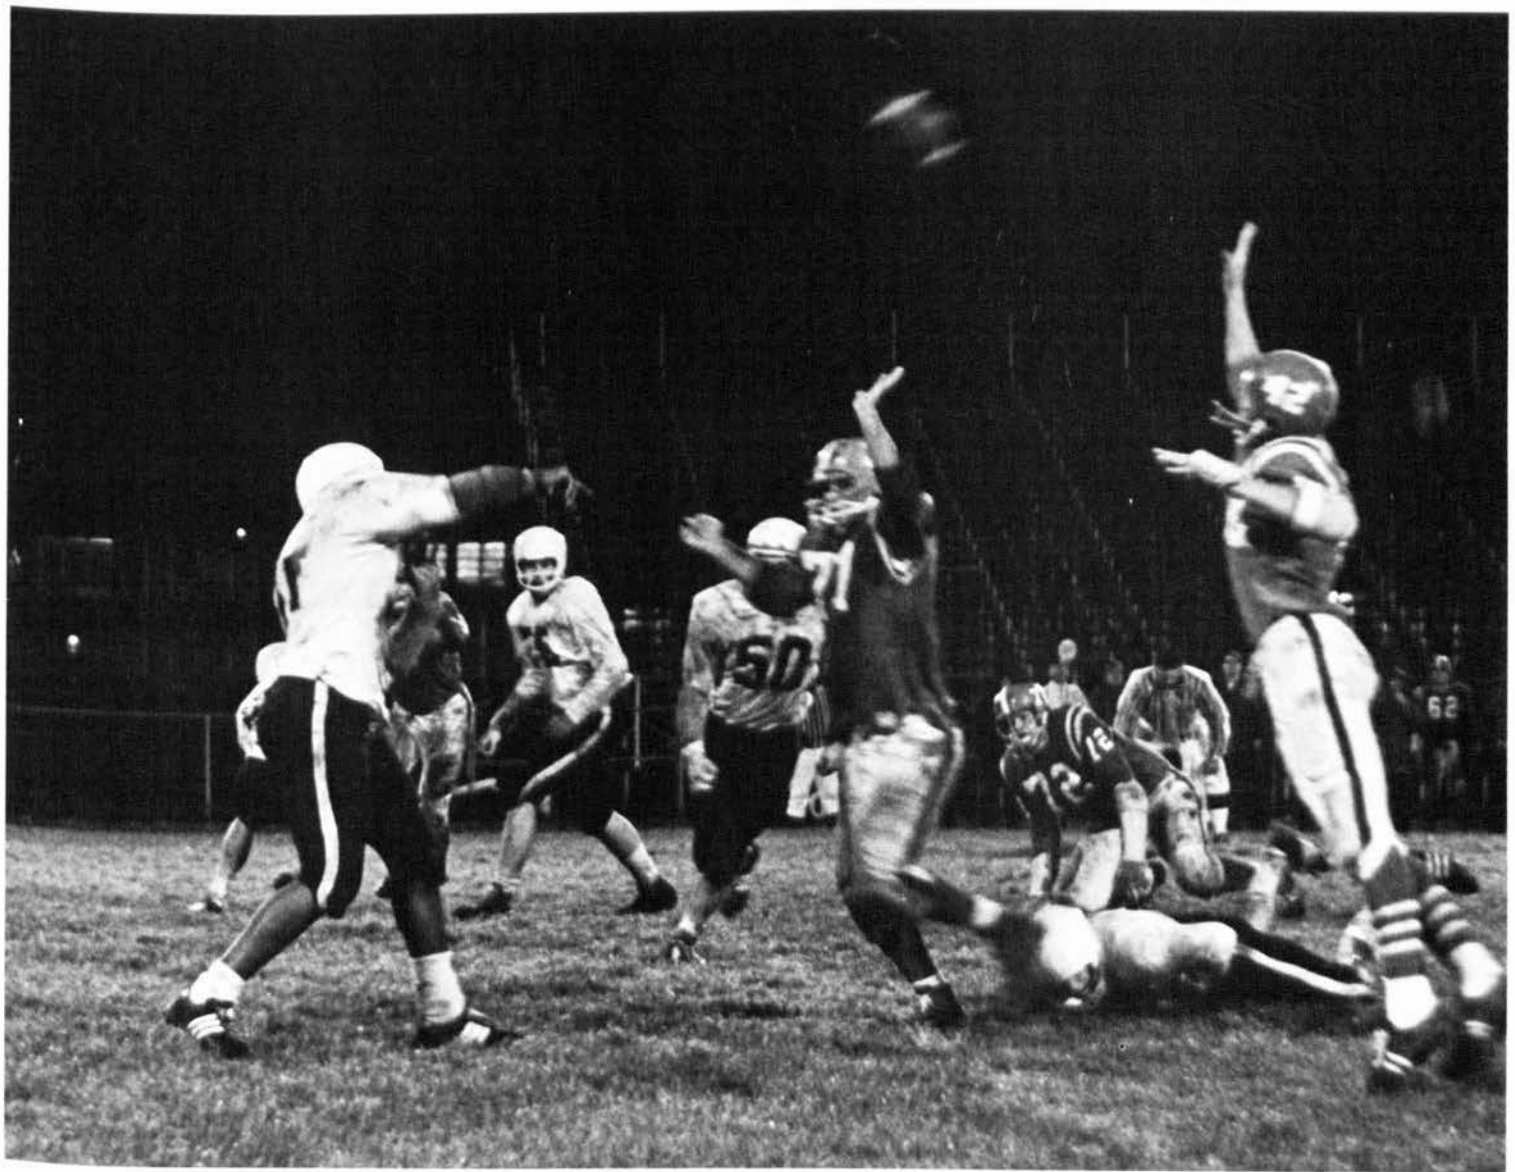

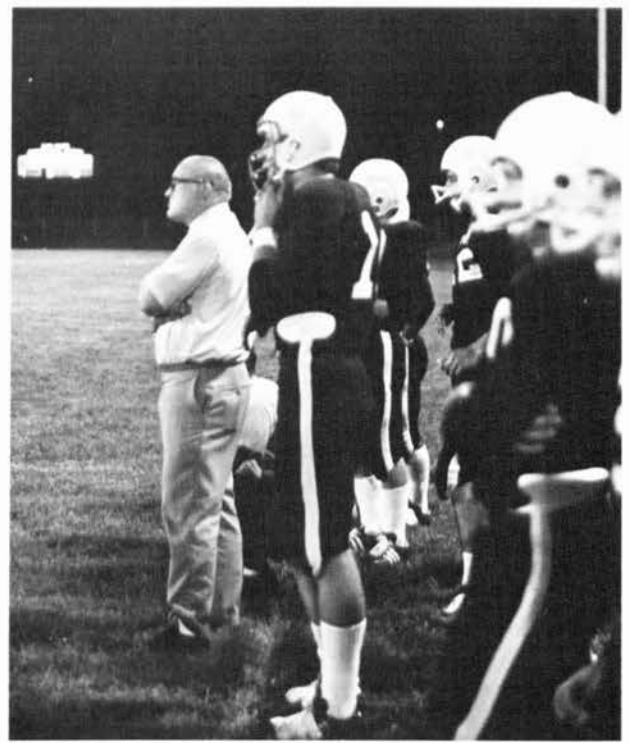

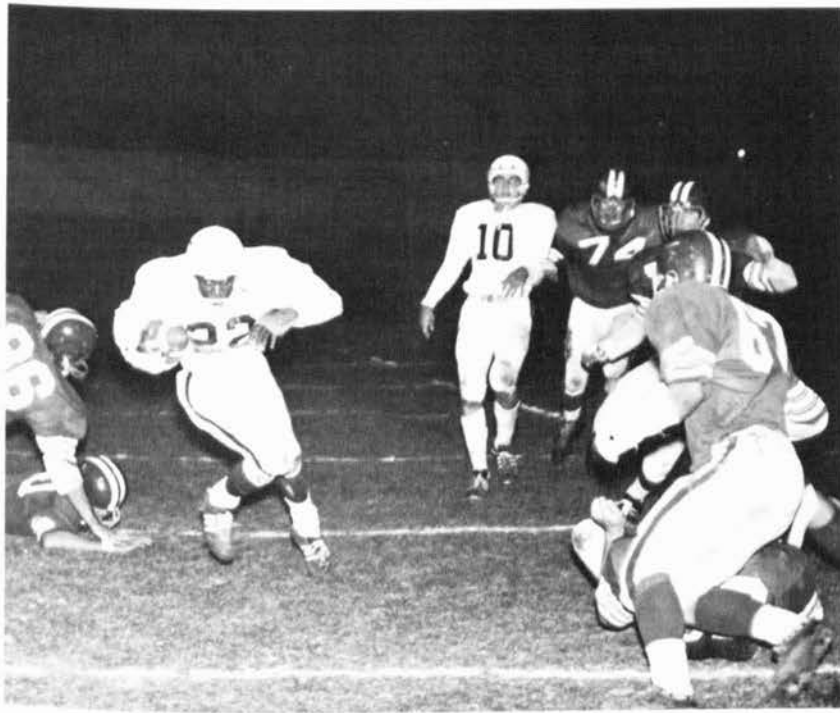

In the finale, against Benson, Central nearly upset the third-ranked Bunnies. Down 12-7 with 1:20 left, Benson scored on a two yard plunge, ending the Eagles' hopes.

Tennis

Netmen Win State; Grossman Singles King

The 1969 Central High tennis team captured the state crown for the third consecutive year. Under the first year coaching abilities of John Talty, Central's netmen went through the season undefeated, for a perfect record of ten wins and no losses.

Led by the state singles champ Dan Grossman, the Eagles finished first in Metro, after winning their American Division.

Jim Crew, who was not able to play in many season matches because of football practices, teamed up with doubles partner Irv Rodin to win the state doubles crown.

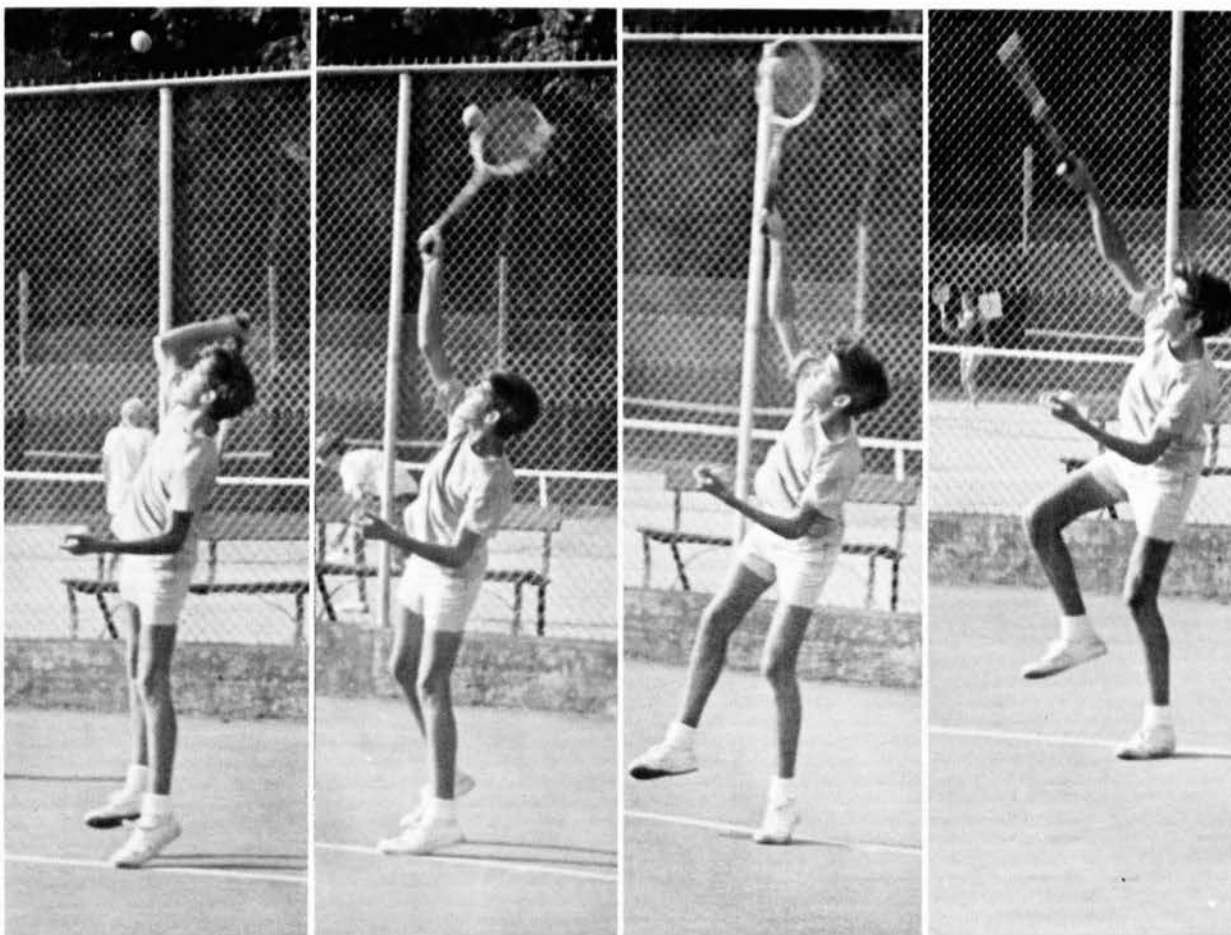

Three year standouts Jim Roseman and David Slosburg aided the team greatly with their tennis skills.

With sophomores Mike Rips and Marc Kutler, along with junior Dan Slosburg returning, Central should produce another winning tennis team.

Cross Country

Harriers Winless; Blame Inexperience

Coach James Martin's cross country team placed last in the Metro Conference National Division, winning no dual meets.

Coach Martin attributed the poor showing to inexperience. The only letterman who returned was senior Gabriel Scott, who went into gymnastics at midseason.

The Central High harriers did, however, place second out of twelve teams in the Junior Division in the Bryan Invitational Meet. This was a meet in which only juniors were allowed to run.

With three lettermen returning next year, Coach Martin feels that they should provide a good nucleus for the team.

Central High's 1969-1970 basketball team, coached by Mr. James Martin, ended the season with a respectable overall record of 13-8.

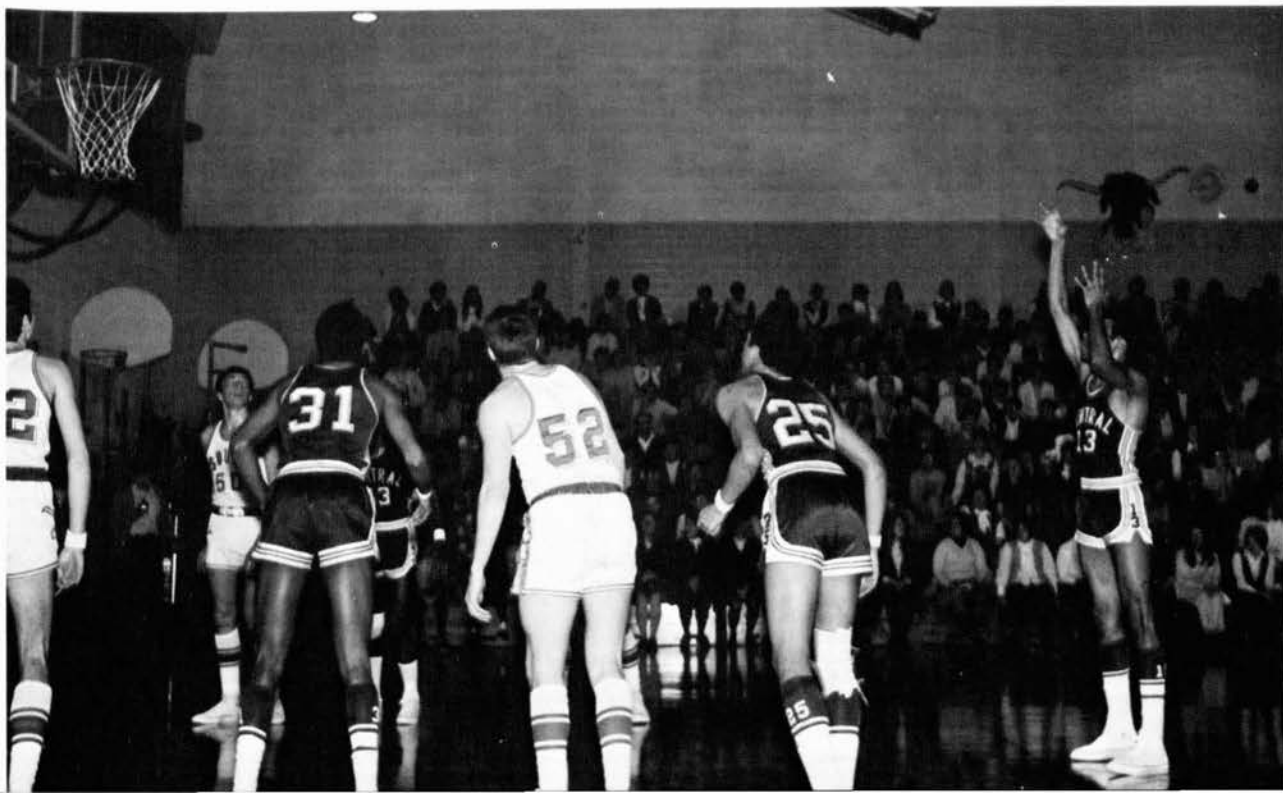

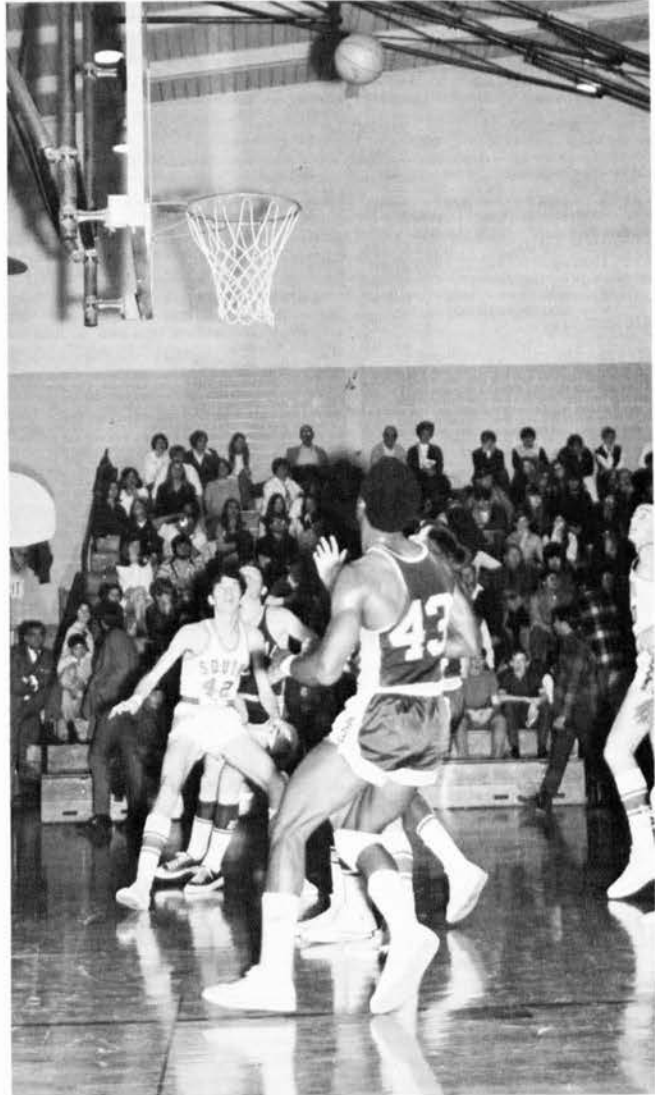

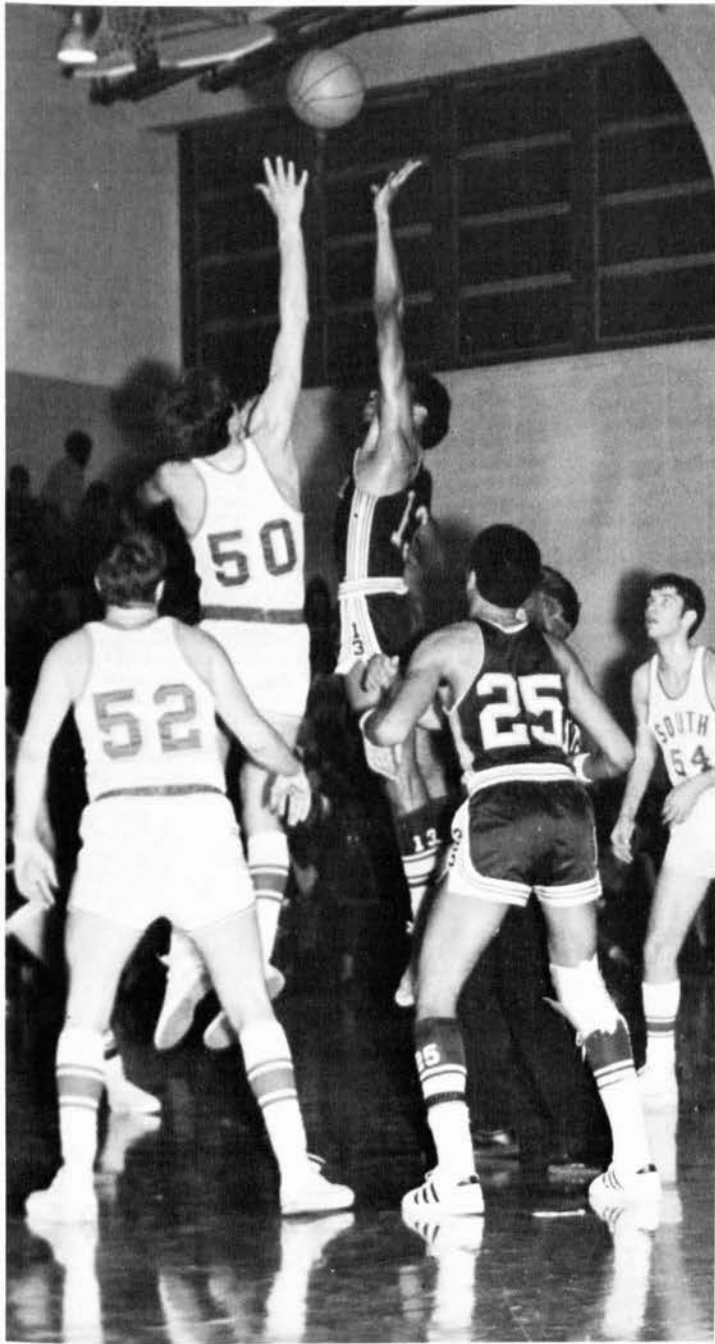

Coach Martin put together a winning team with only one returning letterman, Calvin Forrest. Forrest was named to the All-Metro team and was a leading scorer in all contests. He averaged 21 points per game.

Marvin Moss proved himself to be a good offensive player with his fancy ball-handling. Radley Clemens, displaying great offensive and defensive movements, played steadily at guard throughout the season. Greg Peck, a junior, stabilized the starting five, often sinking clutch baskets. Stan Logan, starting at forward, often gunned from the corner and came through with the vital baskets. Jim Crew improved as the season progressed as he and Logan switched starting positions.

In the first district game, Central easily beat Bryan, 68-53. However, in the district championship game, the Eagles were upset by Boystown, ending any hopes for the state crown.

O-Club

Lettermen Sponsor Annual Faculty Game

O-Club was organized fifty years ago to promote sportsmanship and citizenship throughout the school.

With the help of their sponsor, Mr. Robert Whitehouse, the members of O-Club drew up a new constitution and had membership cards printed. As a fund-raiser, pens with basketball schedules were sold by O-Club members. The traditional O-Club-Faculty basketball game was held in February. To end a busy year, the sportsmen's banquet was held in May, where awards were presented to outstanding Central athletes.

This year's president was Rick Lien. Paul Boisseree, Mike Sramek, and Buzz Anderson, served as vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively. Larry Brisby and Marvin Moss served as the sgt.-at-arms.

Eaglettes

Routines Spark Halftime

The Eaglettes, Central's pompom girls, help to promote spirit during football and basketball games. This year's group consisted of 8 juniors and 13 seniors who were chosen during try-outs last spring.

The girls worked hard during many summer and school year practices to perfect the routines taught by their captain, Nancy Hanson and co-captain, Marilyn Katz. As an added attraction, at Homecoming this spirited group sold purple and white carnations.

Girls Athletic Association

Girls Participate in Athletics

The Girls' Athletic Association offers an opportunity for female sports enthusiasts to participate in athletics. The organization, which was founded in 1928, offers such activities as shuffleboard, ping pong, volleyball, bowling, and basketball.

Awards are received upon completing required activity units. A G.A.A. emblem is given for the first award; a "C" for the second; an "O" for the third; and a star for the fourth award.

Central High Players Club

Theatrical Interests Unite Players

The Central High Players Club is one of the oldest standing traditions of Central High School. The main purpose of the club is to help bring the theater closer to students who show an interest in the dramatic arts. The fall play is annually sponsored by the Player's Club. This year, "Medea" was presented. The members also attended various plays, saw films, and listened to guest speakers at their monthly meetings.

The National Forensic League is an honorary club, formed to help further the idea of organized and logical argument as outlined in the philosophies of the Ancients. The members hope to further their own abilities in organized thought and speech through their membership in the club. Competing with other schools in debate is one of the means used by the League members to advance their debating skills.

Human Relations

Club Generates Understanding and Unity

The goal of the Human Relations Club is to improve the relationships between the members of the school community through education and discussion. This year, for their monthly meetings, the members listened to speakers and participated in group forums on such topics as race relations and the Viet Nam War.

Girls Pursue Interests in Nature

The Girls' Outdoor Club was organized last year to pursue interest in nature. Members enjoy the study of the preservation of natural areas, as well as enjoying their recreational value. Activities center around outdoor sports. This year the group held an ice-skating party.

Future Nurses

Students Pursue Interests in Medical Field

The Future Nurses Club is open to all Central Students interested in learning more about the nursing fields and educational opportunities available to them. The club's activities this year included a hospital tour, various speakers, and films. The Future Nurses also combined their efforts with the Future Physicians Club in providing Christmas presents for an Orphanage.

Organized in 1966, Mu Alpha Theta serves as an honorary society for Math Club members. Students wishing to belong to the club must apply for admission. The chapter is one of many throughout the nation. The goal of its members is to explore the diversified field of mathematics.

Safe-teens

Drivers Promote Highway Safety

The Safe-teens Club was organized to promote safe driving and proper car care. At their monthly meetings, the club members view films and have discussions concerning subjects such as car-checks and safe driving tips.

Entrepreneurs

Tax Return Project Heads Activity

The Entrepreneurs Club was organized in 1966 for the purpose of interesting students in the study of national and local economics. The club, the first of its kind in Omaha, strives to interest members in general business dealings. The understanding gained by the members gives them a feeling of the risk involved in any money-making project. The main project this year was the computation of CHS students' tax returns.

Anyone taking an art class during the year, or anyone who has taken art for a year, is eligible to be a member of the Greenwich Village Club. Each month, the club congregates for a general meeting including a host of activities such as parties, workshops, and guest lecturers.

The upkeep of monthly exhibitions in the Little Gallery is one of the most important functions of the Greenwich Village Club. All members of the student body and faculty are invited to view the art work done by Central students. For a field trip this year, the members went to Brandeis to view the winning art work displayed for the annual Scholastic Art Awards.

The German Club has many interesting activities each year. For example, this year, the members took part in the All-City German Club Dance, as well as the Wayne State Language Festival. For their regular meetings, they enjoyed speakers and films. Class pins were sold by the club, and, as a special project, they adopted a little German orphan, Andrea Schwinn.

Inter-American Club

Spanish Language and Culture Abounds

The purpose of the Inter-American Club is "to promote the study of the Spanish language, the peoples speaking this language, and their culture." In pursuit of this goal, its activities this year included playing games involving the use of the Spanish language, inviting guests familiar with Latin American culture to speak at the monthly meetings, holding a pinata party at Christmas—incorporating the singing of traditional carols in Spanish and the breaking of the pinata—and a picnic featuring Latin American delicacies held at the end of the school year.

French Club

Centralites Tell of European Experiences

The French Club is organized in an effort to provide French students with an additional look at the culture of France. This year the meetings have included a panel discussion by students who traveled in France during the summer, a quiz show, a treasure hunt conducted in French, and slides of France presented by students. The club also planned a costume banquet in the spring.

Junior Classical League

J.C.L.-ers Promote Classical Spirit

The Junior Classical League holds the distinction of being the oldest club at Central High School. Formed in 1903, the Club holds as its main goal the promotion of the Classics and Latin with emphasis on their importance in today's culture.

Highlighting the list of the club's activities this year was the annual Latin Week. During this time, the club members organized and participated in a slave auction, Olympics, oracles, and an authentic Roman banquet. Among the other activities of the club this year were a Saturnalia Celebration at Christmas and various films and speakers.
