JANUARY GRADUATES PICK STAFF

Ann McConnell is Chosen Editor-in-Chief of Mid-Term Annual

ROSCOE BAKER, BUS. MGR.

The January seniors met Tuesday, November 1, in room 141 to complete plans for their play and annual. Their annual, will be included in the large year book of the June class. The class of '22 is really one class and is always so regarded, although those who are ready may graduate in January. This new plan for the annual, which was suggested by Miss Hilliard, has been considered by the Activities Committee. Each class will have its own staff and its own complete section of the annual. Since the January division graduates first, it will have the first section of the book. The business managers of the two classes will act together on the matter of sharing the expense.

The class chose Ann McConnell as editor-in-chief of the January class's section. She is well-fitted for this position, as she is the class reporter, member of the "Register" staff and the Speakers' Bureau. She is also a girl of much dramatic ability. In the school she attended before coming to Central she had leading parts in all the plays presented there.

The entire Staff is as follows:

Ann McConnell, Editor-in-Chief.
Roscoe Baker, Business Manager.
Alice Hooper, Art Editor.
Naomi Gignou, Class Historian.

ANN McCONNELL

Charles Kriel, Dramatics Editor.
Will Carmichael, Mary Lou Bryant—
Picture Committee.

Concerning the dramatics, the class will present a "Variety Show" on or about January 13-14. The dramatics committee is as follows:

Eddie Brodsky.
Herbert Robinson.
Charles Kriel.
Genevieve Swanson.
Corinne Lindle.
Wallace Jeffries, Advertising Manager
Thorval Berg, Business Manager.

With these splendid committees, everything points to an entertainment well worth seeing and an annual well worth reading.

PURPLE AND WHITE MEN DEFEAT IOWANS 14-9

Centralites Play Strongest Game Of Season Against Soo Eleven

Coach Schmidt's gridsters annexed another victory Saturday when they scored 14 points to the nine made by Sioux City. The game was another of those hard-fought affairs where the final whistle is the only part of the game when the outcome is certain.

The scoring consisted of two touchdowns by Central and one by the Iowans in the first quarter and a place kick by the losers in the second frame. The last half of the game was featured by a scoreless battle in which every phase of the sport was attempted with varied results.

The aerial attacks of the Sioux warriors were the spectacular parts of the game. Their overhead work was highly developed, and it was only by stellar playing on the part of the Omahans that it was upset.

Kutch and Galloway, the opposing fullbacks, were the ground gainers for their teams. The former was a wizard at passing and end running, while Ledrue made his yards by consistent line plunging.

Griffin, Sioux City captain and center, played a good game in breaking up Central plays but peculiarly was offside repeatedly. He was penalized some ten times during the game. Whether or not it was done intentionally for some unforeseen reason remains unknown. "Squink" at center bore the burden of having his opponent's 200 or more pounds to come crashing down on him before the ball was snapped back.

The Purple and White scored early in the initial frame when Sautter tore off 35 yards after snatching a pass from Beerkle. A few minutes later Hoerner blocked a punt and fell on the oval after it had rolled back over the Sioux City goal line. Beerkle kicked both goals. Toward the end of the quarter, Hough, on a pass from Hall, ran half the length of the field for a six-point tally. Kutch made a successful place kick in the second quarter, booting the ball from the 35-yard line. In the latter part of the first half, the Indians began to tear through and around the Purple and White line, and, in addition, pulled off several good passes. It looked like the Centralites would be swamped when the second half began, but the rest enabled them to find themselves. They came back in the third quarter with a brand of defensive football that halted effectively the march of their opponents.

Central also showed a yard-gaining ability, but failed to score when the Red and White defense held. The backfield demonstrated how to break up passes and caused the Iowans to partially abandon this style of play. Poucher and Galloway repeatedly intercepted the pill.

The losers became desperate along about the last half of the final frame when they increased the fierceness of their attack and nearly scored. Starting in mid-field, they worked the ball toward our goal. First downs came about four times. Both line plunging and passes enabled them to make yards. With the ball inside the Central ten-yard line, their attack was smothered, and they lost possession of it.

In a series of rushes, Coach Schmidt's proteges proceeded to bring the pigskin out of the danger zone, and the final whistle found it back in Sioux City territory.

The lineup and summary follow:

Central.	Position.	Sioux City.
Berg	Right End	Hough
Stribling	Right Tackle	Cathart
Pollard	Right Guard	Fowler
Hoerner	Center	Griffin
Jefferies	Left Guard	Harris
Ennis	Left Tackle	Walker
Beerkle	Quarter	Hall
Sautter	Right Half	Earl
Galloway	Fullback	Kutch
Substitutes, Omaha—None; Sioux City—Scutche for Earl, Johnson for Scutche.
Touchdowns—Sautter, Hoerner, Hough.
Goals from Touchdowns—Beerkle 2.
Place Kick—Kutch.
Officials—Referee, Walsh; umpire, Smeby; head linesman, Geissman.
Score by periods:
Central	14	0 0 0-14
Sioux City	6	3 0 0-9

LINCOLN DEBATING SOCIETY DISSOLVES.

The Lincoln Debating Society dissolved last Tuesday afternoon. A new organization, under the same name, will be organized soon.

THOUSANDS WITNESS PAGEANT

Excellent Talent Shown By Participants Wins Teachers' Approval

PRESENTED AGAIN NOV. 17.

The Pageant, "Nebraska," beautiful in color and impressive in pictorial and choral effect, was given at the Brandeis Theatre last Thursday, November 10, morning and afternoon. The two thousand and visiting teachers who witnessed the performance were enthusiastic in their praise of it.

(Courtesy Omaha Bee)

Dr. Hartley B. Alexander, who composed the pageant, and Dr. Howard I. Kirkpatrick, who compiled the music, were spectators at the morning presentation. Superintendent Beveridge appealed to them to come down on the stage in order that the immense audience might see the authors of the wonderful spectacle. They were greeted with prolonged applause.

When called upon to give his opinion of the performance, Mayor Dahlman voiced the view of all present when he said, "I think it is beautiful and most appropriate for the occasion."

The pageant will be presented for the general public Thursday, November 17, at the city auditorium, both afternoon and evening performances.

A limited number of tickets for Central students will be sold at the high school Monday for the afternoon performance.

Under the direction of Miss Lena May Williams, the pageant was produced with a smoothness unusual for amateur performances. Six weeks of untiring drill

EMINENT OMAHA MEN ADDRESS MASS MEETING

Students Asked to Recognize Seriousness of Armistice Day

A double purpose mass meeting, held to acquaint the students with the serious aspect of the holiday, Armistice Day, and to prophesy the downfall of the Sioux City football team began promptly at 8:15 Wednesday morning, November 9. While the students thronged into the auditorium, Walter Albach's jazz orchestra filled the air with resounding melody.

Mr. Campbell of the Y. M. C. A. aroused throbbing patriotism by leading the entire assembly in the songs "America" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Mr. Campbell melodiously tried to put out the lights with noise.

Mr. Haugh, adjutant of the Omaha American Legion, talked on patriotism. He pleaded with the students to entertain the right conception of Armistice Day—not to cheapen the spirit of the holiday by making it a day of boisterousness and disrespect as some have made the Fourth of July. Mr. Haugh read a poem embodying his idea of the significance of the day. "It is up to you high school students who know the deep patriotic meaning of Armistice day to preserve its traditions," he said.

Gertrude Thiem, former Central student, accompanied by Miss Agnes Udeland at the piano, amplified the reverential attitude which Mr. Haugh conveyed with her violin solo. The students, thoroughly impressed, enthusiastically encored Miss Thiem.

Mr. Campbell turned the interest of the students from national patriotism to school patriotism. He said that a mighty good football team plus school spirit caused Center College, with 250 students and no financial backing, to defeat Harvard with six thousand students and thirty-five million dollars. "Coach Moran and all the members of the team are praying men. They don't pray for victory; they pray for clean sportsmanship," said Mr. Campbell.

Turning to the team on the stage behind him, he continued: "The Lord bless you, fellows, I hope you wipe them off the map." Then to the audience, "Fellows, girls, keep your spirit. I don't know what it is, or where you get it—I only know that when I want to see real school spirit, I come to Central."

PRESIDENT OF UNIVERSITY OF IOWA PRAISES REGISTER.

Writes To Mr. Beveridge.

Mr. Beveridge, Superintendent of Schools, is the recipient of a letter from M. A. Jessup, president of the State University of Iowa, acknowledging the recent University of Iowa article in the Register and adding a bit of praise for the school paper. In part, his letter follows:

"I also wish to take occasion to congratulate you and the Omaha schools on having such a newsy school paper. It is really out of the ordinary."

Mr. Beveridge, who is so co-operative and helpful, referred the letter to the staff, at the same time expressing his own pleasure in the message and adding his best wishes for the success of the Register.

SONG CONTEST CLOSSES THURSDAY.

A number of parodies on popular songs for the Commerce game Thanksgiving Day have already been entered with Miss Swenson for Mr. Latenser's prize song contest. Mr. Latenser, besides offering a valuable prize for the best, has offered to sing some of the best of the entries for our approval at the mass meeting Friday.

There is still an opportunity to enter. Get busy now! Write a snappy song to a popular air that will make Commerce "sit up and take notice."

Enter your song with Miss Swenson in room 328 not later than Thursday morning, then go to the mass meeting Friday and find out who won the prize.

HOME ROOM REPRESENTATIVES' ELECTION.

The officers chosen in the recent election of the Home Room representatives are as follows:

William Clarke, President; George Johnston, Vice-President, and Frances Finch, Secretary.

GOVERNOR WILL SPEAK AT HI-Y

State's Executive McKelvie Will Be Present at Hi-Y Dinner, Nov. 22.

MANY MEMBERS EXPECTED

The biggest thing ever attempted by the Hi-Y Clubs of Omaha and perhaps the most auspicious thing ever attempted by any Hi-Y Club in the world will be realized on Tuesday evening, November 22nd, when 300 members of the Omaha Hi-Y Clubs sit down together with Samuel R. McKelvie, Governor of Nebraska as the speaker and Honor Guest.

It has been through the work of L. C. Oberlies of the State Board of Control and a frequent speaker at Hi-Y meetings and Hi-Y Camp that we have been able to secure the Governor for this big joint meeting of the Omaha Hi-Y Clubs.

Only Hi-Y members and leaders of groups in the club will be permitted to buy tickets for this meeting. They will be fifty cents a plate. The Hi-Y Council is busy selling tickets, 125 of which have been allotted to Central High boys. Before this story is even in print most of the tickets will be spoken for.

This being Thanksgiving week, the Governor's Dinner will be the only Hi-Y Meeting of the week. All other meetings for the week will be called off and all the emphasis put on this meeting.

SAMUEL R. MCKELVIE

(Courtesy World-Herald)

All tickets will be sold by November 15th, one week previous to the dinner so that the officers in charge may make complete reservation for the affair. Superintendent Beveridge will occupy a seat at the Governor's table as will also the Hi-Y Presidents. George Johnston, president of Central Hi-Y will be the toastmaster by virtue of Central having the largest Hi-Y Club in the city.

Governor Samuel R. McKelvie is said to be the finest orator that has ever occupied the Governor's chair. He will have a wonderful message for the high school boys of the city. His talk will be along the line of the great opportunity that high school boys have. He feels they have an opportunity unequalled to play a large part in the world's events in the next few years. His subject will be: "The Opportunity for Service."

SPEAKERS GIVE BAND A SEND-OFF.

Monday, November 7, the members of the Speakers' Bureau met to receive the instructions for the speeches which were given Tuesday, November 8. They were endeavoring to secure enough money to send the band to Sioux City. The band master was able to boast of one hundred dollars but an additional hundred was needed. Loose change willingly given was all that was required to put the plan across.

for both high schools and grammar schools showed wonderful results. The orchestra, selected by Professor Cox from students of the various schools throughout the city, rendered Dr. Kirkpatrick's musical score with excellent ability. The choruses and some of the dancers were from the four high schools, but for the most part the dancers were from the grade schools.

In beauty of coloring, parts one and three were perhaps the loveliest. The background of part one was of trees and greenery, and the stage was peopled with Adventurers, the Genius of Progress, Virginia Frantz, and the Fairest Flowers, Gentle Showers, Winds that Blow, Gift of Corn, Tender Dews, and Honey Brews who beckoned enticingly to the Adventurers.

The Voice of the West, Dorothy Steinbaugh, gave a beautiful solo, and Norma Mach, the Spirit of the West, danced exquisitely. To these came the tiny golden haired fairy-like hopes, who immediately won the hearts of the entire assembly. Applause greeted the Grasshoppers and the birds who drove the insects from the fields.

The music and the lights throughout all the pageant changed to conform with the moods of the different groups. With the advent of the Grasshoppers, the lights grew dim and gray, and the music changed to the slow, solemn strains of Chopin's "Funeral March," symbolizing destruction.

Part two afforded a striking contrast to part one. The music changed to the tribal music of the Omaha Indians as the Red Men moved slowly on the stage. The Voyageurs, the chorus of the Whippers, and the Harvest Maidens also appealed to the audience. Helen Nightengale, who took the part of the Corn Spirit, gave a very beautiful solo.

Applause greeted the Spirit of 1776, portrayed by Claire Potter, Paul, Heald, and William Albright, which opened the third part. The stately Columbia, Miss Esther Johnson, the Thirteen Colonies, who danced a minuet, and the Twenty-three Stars, who also danced, were especially pleasing to the audience as were the Forces of the North and the South, the Jackie, the Soldier, and the French Peasant. The dancing of Dorothy Wahl as Nebraska, was an inspiration itself.

One of the most impressive parts of the entire pageant was the solemn procession of the Years, who, dressed in prismatic shades, carried illuminated globes, their magical gifts to Nebraska.

The tribute to the flag by Liberty, Mrs. Mabel Reid, and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner left the audience in a state of exaltation.

PERSONAL.

We are glad to announce that the doctors were wrong when they said Wilmer Beerle had appendicitis. Wilmer is back among us, and he'd better not scare us like that again in the near future.

Richard Armstrong, who was with us in 1919 and 1920 for his Freshman and Sophomore years, writes that he is the only boy among five girls in the entire Junior class of Granger High School, Granger, Iowa. We wonder whether we should pity or envy Dick!

Beryl Meston, who played football on our team last year, and who played this year on the team of the St. Louis High School, is out of football for this season as he has broken his nose twice and then capped the climax with a broken shoulder.

Constance Perley, '21, is attending the University of Omaha. Takin' a Chinese Holiday!

Floyd Paynter, captain in '16 and '17 plays end on the Creighton College eleven, and Art Logan, captain in '20, plays center on the same team. Both Paynter and Logan attended Beloit College last year and played on the regular team there. Paynter was captain-elect for this year, but decided to go to Creighton and not return to Beloit.

Verne Vance, of the class of '19, is very active in his college life at Washington University, St. Louis. He has passed the first try-out for the editorial staff, is secretary of the middle-law class, a member of the college Glee Club, and secretary of The Stump debating society. He has lately been initiated into the Phi Delta Phi and has won fourth place in the junior law class.

Dave Noble, of the class of '19, has made a place on the first football team at the State University in Lincoln.

L'Marie, '19, and Leslie Jeremiah Hall of Council Bluffs were married this fall.

Anne Leaf, voted the best musician in the class of '21, is now on the Orpheum Circuit.

Morton Wakeley, of the class of 1914, who has been for two years connected with the Omaha Trust Company, left Friday for Chicago, where he will make his permanent home. He has taken a position with a bond and securities firm of Bonbright and Company.

Carl Karas, '21, is attending Cornell College at Mount Vernon, Iowa.

Dorothy Johnson, '20, is attending the University of Wisconsin.

Marjorie Smith, '20, is attending the Frances Shiner School at Mt. Carrol, Ill.

Beatrice Montgomery, '18, is the only girl in Creighton Law School. She attended the University of Nebraska, is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, studied interior decorating at the Otis Art Institute in Los Angeles, and is planning to finish at Bryn Mawr when she is through with law at Creighton.

Frank Jacobs, '20, is now a sophomore in the State University at Lincoln.

MADE IN OMAHA.

Yes,—this city has been holding a display of Made-in-Omaha goods. We know it, because one of our reporters attended it. Each manufacturer has laid forth the most tempting items of his trade, but our reporter being hungry was most interested in the displays of food. Eagerly she gazed at the beautiful boxes of candy—within glass cases and at the fruit set forth in tempting array just out of reach. Everything was there that one would eat, but nothing that one might eat.

Yey hold,—here comes a lady eating a cracker! Where did she get it?

With true reportorial instinct, our reporter steered straight for the place. There was a lady giving away,—actually giving a way,—delectable cracker-and-meat combinations so welcome to a starving gatherer of news.

The reporter slid sweetly into a vacant place before the stand and gazed expectantly into the face of the bestower of gifts. She waited.

Leisurely the lady picked up a cracker and handed it to the lady standing behind the reporter.

"These children who are always in the way," she remarked apathetically.

Snubbed and hungry our reporter departed, literally shaking the dust of the place from her feet. Was the youth a crime, she wondered; or what was it that made a city neglect its rising generation—the very best of its home-made products?

given to them. The clubs have already been ordered; so the hockey enthusiasts hope to start playing next week.

Hockey, or shinney as it is often called, is a new type of athletics for Central's girls, but it is thought that it will be a popular one. The main idea in it is to drive a small ball, by the use of a hockey stick, through the team of the opponents to their goal line. Miss Black will probably have some difficulty in keeping the girls from becoming too rough in their excitement, for hockey is rather a rough-and-tumble as well as an exciting game.

SPEAKERS' BUREAU VERIFIES ORATORICAL ABILITY.

A very substantial proof of the powers of persuasion possessed by the Speakers' Bureau was given on the morning of the eighth, when, as a result of their efforts, the sum of eighty dollars was raised for the purpose of sending the band to the Sioux City game.

One interesting fact connected with the matter was that the rooms of freshmen and sophomores, in many instances, contributed more freely than those of the older classmen. The older generation is having to speed up in order to keep in sight of their successors. Both are proud of the school's newest organization, the Speakers' Bureau.

P. S.—Latest Sheet Music at Popular Prices.

The team will not play this week, no game being carded on account of the short amount of time between this week-end and Thanksgiving Day. However, practice will not be discontinued, though the squad will probably have a day or two of rest. The season is nearly closed now, the last day being only a little over a week away.

Arnold "Skipper" McDermott has been showing us the way a halfback should play the game. Remember him in the Bearice affair? Mac has been a valuable addition to the team. He earned his place by real work, as he began the season at the bottom of the ladder and worked out with the leftovers that were not on the first or second teams. McDermott, besides having a reputation as a player, also enjoys the distinction of being the clown of the team, especially on trips. His familiar, "Beg pardon," reminds us of St. Joseph.

What is that looming on the horizon? Ha-ha, it is the big Commerce-Central battle, the date of which is drawing nearer and nearer.

Ask Lisle Holden about the last part of the Columbus game. The lad was "cuckoo" and doesn't remember about it though he played in it.

Who said only policemen had big feet? John Rosenzweig isn't a cop.

Did you ever walk out of the building some cold afternoon all bundled up and shivering, and, on looking over the athletic field, see Ed Fry in an abbreviated track suit trotting around. Br-r-r-r, it makes one chilly just to think of it.

Even though the score was against us, you have to admit that the Columbus game was one of the best you have seen this year. Both teams pulled off some football that was dazzling and spectacular, especially the defensive playing.

Every Sunday finds that the contestants for the state title have dwindled on account of results of the Saturday games. Right now, North Platte and Cambridge seem to be the logical claimants. All the Omaha teams are out of the running.

What is the interest on fifteen cents for two months? Don Meyers owes a certain party fifteen cents plus this amount, and if he doesn't pay up soon, he won't be in condition to play football for some considerable time.

The editor may decide to pick an All-American team. The only objection is that the sporting editors of the Omaha papers might pick a different team, and would have to change their lineup on seeing the REGISTER selection. This would cause them considerable trouble and they might get sore.

Miss Smith: "When you are through, bow, say thank you, and walk off on tip-toe."

La Verne L.: "All right, but why on tip-toe?"

Miss Smith: "So you won't wake your audience, of course."

After Tuesday's order, three students were dropped from the regiment for non-attendance at drill. This dismissal forces them to lose membership in the biggest society in school, the society with the finest traditions of school spirit and enterprise.

The annual cadet encampment, one of the biggest events in the school year, is barred to those who are dismissed from the regiment the previous semester. This encampment does more to develop leadership and manliness in those attending it than any other school activity, and it is hoped that for the good of Central High School students, no more dismissals will be necessary.

A PLAN TO CUT WINTER EXPENSES

RENEW, REPAIR, REMODEL AND CLEAN OLD CLOTHES INSTEAD OF LAYING OUT GOOD CASH FOR EXPENSIVE NEW GARMENTS.

Dresher's Plan Wins.

The "dread of winter" is always in evidence because of greatly increased expenses, caused by immense coal bills, etc., and also a lot of money paid out for heavy weight clothes for the entire family.

But, it's safe to say that the amount of money usually put into ONE new suit of clothes or dress, would, if applied Dresher's way, pay for the complete rehabilitation of ALL the old clothes of the entire family.

Now what IS "Dresher's Way," did you ask? Well, Dresher's way means taking the old clothes apart, cleaning them, restyling, reshaping, remodeling, recollaring, relining, and in some instances dyeing them, then putting the garments together again in such a deft way that they will appear as brand new clothes when again worn.

Dresher Brothers at 2211-2217 Farnam street have more than a cleaning and dyeing establishment—it amounts to about twenty-five ordinary cleaning and dyeing concerns in scope. Besides, Dresher's specialize in all that goes with clothes wearing, for instance Dresher's make hats, make furs, make clothes at the Dresher the Tailor establishment, 1515 Farnam street, and are in every way inimitably capable of taking care of the clothes of man or woman in an economical manner.

An announcement of this sort cannot tell it all. Better call up Atlantic 0345 and have a friendly conversation with the Dresher office.

South Side folk may have the same service rendered by phoning Market 0050, while out-of-town folk have only to express or parcel post their packages in, Dresher's paying the charges one way.

The Dresher branches in the Burgess-Nash and Brandeis Stores are still maintained for your convenience.

SOUTH HIGH NOTES.

The South High Branch of the National Story Tellers' League has received a new supply of books.

The girls of the S. T. L. Club will serve on the Information Bureau at the Fontenelle Hotel during the Teachers' Convention.

The South High library recently underwent repairs and is in very good condition now.

The football team has been victorious in its games with Council Bluffs and Commerce. The scores were 38-0 and 24-7 respectively. Even though South lost its chances of State Championship early in the season, it has a fine team and plays games well worth seeing.
