EDUCATION WEEK IS SUCCESSFUL

Impressive Flag Raising Held for Americanization Drive

SPEAKERS' BUREAU WORKS

American Education Week, December 1 to 10, was particularly successful for Central High because of the work done by the Speaker's Bureau in persuading eighth-graders to continue their education and by the regiment in conducting an impressive flag-raising on Thursday morning. Speakers visited nearly every eighth grade in the city and spoke in behalf of two things: first, higher education, and second, Central High School.

Some of the speakers had unusual and interesting experiences. When Polly Robbins finished speaking at Webster School, the whole room, led by the principal of the school, gave her a lusty cheer. At Pacific School, a very interesting geography lesson was in progress when the speaker, Mildred Cohn, arrived. Mildred just naturally sat down and added some facts on China and Japan to her store of knowledge. After the lesson she gave her speech. Caroll Corliss declares that he walked four miles in search of his school. Kate Goldstein and Mildred Prohaska are others who say they did considerable hiking.

Flag Raising Thursday

Besides boosting Education Week with speeches, Central showed her patriotism by a beautiful flag-raising, Thursday morning, December 8. The cadet regiment deserves credit for planning and conducting the ceremony. After the stirring notes of the bugle had commanded attention, the crowd which had gathered at the west entrance sang "The Star Spangled Banner." Then there was an impressive moment as the whole crowd stood in silent salute and watched Old Glory slowly raise to its place on high.

American Education Week has come and gone. But its results are lasting, for the seed of higher education has been planted in the minds of many grade school pupils through the efforts of the Speaker's Bureau.

Those Who Spoke

On Mr. Chatelain, Miss Floy Smith and Miss Janouch, fell the hardest work, for they trained the speakers and judged the try-outs. Here is a list of the speakers who worked for the success of Education Week:

Frances McChesney	Beatrice Rosenthal
Eugene Daniels	Elizabeth Youngman
Polly Robbins	Elinor Calvert
Almedia Hamilton	Stanley Street
Alyce Rotter	Thelma Burke
Wallace Nelson	Ethel Gladstone
Richard Lovald	Emma Smirl
Beatrice Reichenberg	Florence Seward
Mildred Cohn	Margaret Shaw
Mac Ohman	Kate Goldstein
Mildred Prohaska	Frances Wiles
Ruth Carlberg	Harold Stein
Helen Montmorency	Caroll Corliss
David Sher	Brownie Bandy

Tonight, at three o'clock in room 215, the Lincoln Debating Society will reorganize, adopt a new constitution, and elect officers.

The growth of the society has made it necessary for it to adopt a new constitution. The L. D. S. under this new constitution will be one of the best organizations for boys in the school. All boys who want to get into a live society and all present members are urged to be in room 215 tonight after school at three o'clock.

C. O. C. PLAN EIGHTH ANNUAL ROAD SHOW

Plans are now being laid for the annual Road Show to be given by the C. O. C., March 17 and 18, 1922. This eighth annual Road Show promises to be the biggest and the most successful ever presented. All who wish to be represented should hand the description of an original act to Miss Towne as soon as possible. The committee is as follows: Mr. Gulgard, chairman; Miss Towne, Miss Burns, Miss Williams, Mr. McMillan and D. L. Dimond.

OFF WITH FOOTBALL - ON WITH DEBATE AND BASKETBALL

GRID MEN RECEIVED LETTERS FRIDAY

Fifteen First Team Players and Twenty Reserves Get Season's Reward

Fifteen football men received O's at a rousing mass meeting held Friday, December 9, in the auditorium. Miss Towne and Mr. Schmidt complimented the squad, but the most thrilling moments were when the "O" men stepped up to receive their letters. Twenty "R's" were also awarded.

"Live" music by the band put everybody into the proper spirit for one of the best mass meetings of the year. After leading "Omaha," Mac Ohman led Central's new school song, written by Clarice Vance. Mac certainly shines in conducting "We're Forever Boosting Central."

Compliments Fair Play.

After the singing, the curtain parted and disclosed the football men on the stage. Virginia Pearce, president of the Student Association then introduced Miss Towne. Miss Towne gave a chatty talk about Malcolm Baldrige as he was in her English VII class. She emphasized his clean sportsmanship and this topic naturally led up to the way our team has played this season. She warmly complimented the football men on their fair and square playing, and the school for the excellent rooting at the Thanksgiving game. When she spoke of Galloway's being on the all-state team, the applause seemed to raise the roof. However, this applause was only a fore-runner of what was to come later. Everyone agreed with Miss Towne when she expressed her hope that the Purple and White will be victorious next Thanksgiving.

After leading three cheers for Miss Towne, John Spellman suggested a sky-rocket. The first one failed to go up but the next one exploded with a mighty boom. As the sky-rocket died, music began. Mac Ohman appeared to have "radic details." But as he was very amusing, he was excused.

Coach Presents Letters.

"Gin" introduced Mr. Schmidt by saying that the biggest event of the season was about to happen.

"Most of the boys think I think they're no good. That isn't so. I can't spend my time out on the field complimenting them. If I did, they would come down with roses on them," declared the coach.

Then he awarded the O's. The crowning glory of a football player is to receive an O. Every man was applauded when he received his letter, but Galloway received the most wonderful tribute of all. Applause, sincere and heart-felt, showed how the school honors the fullback who made the all-state team. The following are the men who received O's.

Wallace Jeffries	Wallace Pollard
Donald Meyers	Harold Stribling
Charles Winnis	Thorval Berg
Ward Percival	Wilmer Beerle

PARENTS-TEACHERS MEET WEDNESDAY

Ex-mayor Brown of Kansas City will address the Parent-Teachers' Association the evening of December 14, at eight o'clock in our auditorium. An interesting lecture is promised, as Mr. Brown is known all over for his excellence as a speaker. Students, urge your parents to come. Besides the opportunity of hearing this renowned speaker, they will have a chance to get acquainted with your teachers.

In addition, there will be presented to the meeting a resolution asking that there be a representative elected from every class to meet with the association each time. Students, you are welcome. Bring your parents. Remember the date.

BISHOP WISE OF KAN- SAS AT HI-Y FRIDAY

Bishop James Wise, the Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of Kansas, will be the speaker at the Hi-Y meeting Friday night this week, the last meeting of the club before the holidays. It is expected that almost two hundred juniors and seniors will be present at this meeting which will be one of the best of the year.

Bishop Wise is a nationally renowned speaker to high school boys, having addressed many older boys' conferences in Kansas and other states. Kansas high school boys think there is no one quite his equal as a speaker.

It was only by a fortunate chance that Bishop Wise was passing through Omaha and was secured for this special meeting of the Club.

J. H. Beveridge, superintendent of Omaha schools, went to Chicago, Illinois, Friday, December 9, to attend a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Department of Superintendents.

MRS. MASON ADDRESSES REGISTER STAFF

Woman's Section Editor of Omaha Bee Gives Interesting and Practical Advice

"Poise under pressure" is an expression which has been repeatedly shouted at me, and I want to emphasize it for you," said Mrs. Myrtle Mason, editor of the woman's section of the Omaha Bee, when she spoke to the journalism class Tuesday, December 5.

"Every day, the journalist finds himself tested when, for instance, he has five minutes in which to write a scoop which comes in just before the 'dead line,' the time for closing the forms at the press. The presses don't wait for him. He must keep a clear head and work fast.

"Unless you have a broad knowledge of political science, literature, history, psychology, and language, you cannot succeed as a practical journalist, no matter how long you study journalism alone," declared Mrs. Mason.

She illustrated her talk with the woman's section of the Sunday Bee. She explained her reason for publishing every feature article which appeared and types of stories which have the greatest popular appeal.

"Names give a personal touch to the paper," she said. "You need not sacrifice your good English and your ideals but you must always write for the people who, perhaps, have less understanding than you do."

DEVELOP TALENT FOR HOME PROGRAMS

The Home Room representatives convened in room 231, Tuesday, December 6, for the purpose of meeting the new faculty Home Room committee. Plans and suggestions for programs were discussed. It was decided that no matter how simple the talent might be, the Home Rooms should use their own in planning their programs. In this way otherwise neglected talents may be either developed or discovered. Frequent contributions to the Home Room column in the Register were urged.

The schedule for mass meetings and other events which occur during the Home Room Period will now be found in room 231, Miss Anderson's room. Miss Anderson is chairman of this committee. The other members include Miss Spaulding, Miss Lane, Miss Verda Williams, Miss Fry, Miss Rockfellow and Miss Pierce.

DATE SET FOR COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMS.

The college entrance examinations will be given June 19-24 here in the high school. As eastern colleges require the passing of these examinations for entrance. Those students who intend to go east to school should begin preparation for the examinations.

CENTRAL'S DEBATERS CHOSEN

Many Contestants Try Out Wednesday and Friday for Finals

COMPETITION IS STRONG

The teams which will represent Central in the season's debates were finally chosen Friday, December 9, after the last of the try-outs. The lucky ten include Morris Block, Harold Brown, Irving Changstrom, Howard Elliot, John Kuhn, Richard Lovald, Eloise Magaret, Dominick Manoli, Eloise Musselman, and Lyall Quinby.

The tryouts were held after school Wednesday, December 7, and Friday, December 9. Clark, of the thirty-one contestants, tried his best to prove to the judges that he was capable of representing Central High in the inter-school debates. The scene of the battles, for battles they were, was room 235. The speeches were all unusually good, and showed that every participant had spent much time and thought in preparing for the tryouts.

Girls Good Debaters.

Five of the thirty-one who tried out were girls, and two of these, Eloise Magaret, a senior, and Eloise Musselman, a sophomore, were among those who won places on the team. Up until last year, the students of Central were inclined to think of debate as an activity for the boys. They changed their minds then, when Eleanor Hamilton, Ruth Godfrey, and Eloise Magaret tried out, won, and, by their excellent work, placed their names on the list of the best debaters Central has ever had.

Lyall Quinby, Eloise Margaret, and Morris Block are the only members of last year's team who are left for the team this year. The other winning contestants have gained their experience and developed their ability by hard work and consistent effort in the inter-class debates.

The arguments of everyone of the contestants were so well presented that the judges, Miss Towne, Mr. Woolery, and Mr. McMillan found themselves face to face with a very difficult problem when it came time to choose the ten best. Contenders for places on the teams had a hard time controlling their impatience during the long drawnout minutes which elapsed before the decisions were announced.

CIVICS CLASSES TOUR LINCOLN

Fifty civics and economics students accompanied by four teachers took in the sights of our capitol city last Saturday, December 3. Permission was obtained from Mr. Masters to allow the students to make this excursion. Governor McKelvie, during his recent visit to Omaha, said he would arrange for passports to the various State institutions.

Early Saturday morning, two bus-loads of Centralites started out, followed by several touring cars. Miss Davies, Miss Spaulding, Miss Somers, and Miss Clark sponsored the affair.

The buses carried the explorers to the State House, the University, the penitentiary, the Insane asylum, the Home for Crippled Children and other places of interest. It was a merry crowd of Omahans who wandered down prison corridors, peered into State offices, and generally examined the inner workings of the government of Nebraska.

The start home was made at six o'clock. All the students were slightly exhausted by absorbing so much information in one day, yet they felt that the trip was as enjoyable as it was beneficial.

Miss Tompsett has received a letter from the American Crayon Company of New York, requesting her to send them samples of poster work done by pupils of the Central High School art department. These posters will be exhibited in South America as an advertisement of the company's products. Members of the company chanced to see our poster work and thought it exceptionally fine.

Miss Tompsett will be some busy lady next semester! According to her schedule she will have eight classes a day. How's she gonna do it?

Well, well! We are soon to behold young Briggs and Bud Fischers dashing madly about the halls with portfolios under their arms and pencils behind their ears! Can you beat it? The new cartoon class will be their headquarters. Anyone may enroll in the course without previous art training.

No longer will Paris dictate styles to Central High girls. They will create their own. Miss Tompsett's costume designing course bids fair to be popular among her advanced students.

The talents of some of our young artists will turn to commercial art work. The class is open to advanced students only.

COURSES OFFERED AT CENTRAL

The art department is offering three new courses for next semester. They are commercial art, costume design, and cartooning. There will be no class in cartooning unless enough students wish to take it. All desiring it, should see Miss Tompsett at once. The art classes for next semester will be as follows:

First-hour, Senior Art; second-hour, Commercial Art; third-hour, Costume Design; fourth-hour, Art I.; fifth-hour, Advanced Art; sixth-hour, Art II.; seventh hour, Art III.

Type.

There will be some beginning classes in Type I., and a class in Type IV.

Gymnasium.

There will be beginning classes in gymnasium, and, if enough older girls wish to start this subject, a class will be organized for seventh-hour.

Harmony.

A new class in Harmony I. will be formed. This is a full credit subject, and six months of piano are required before enrolling.

Household Arts.
Household Arts VIII. will be given next semester. No other household Arts course need be taken before this. All juniors and seniors eligible for this work. It is a five-period course with one point of credit.

Household Arts VIA (Millinery) represents a unit of work. It has no prerequisites. One year of sewing, Household Arts II. and IV. are required for entrance to Household Arts IX. All Household Arts courses are offered next semester except Household Arts VII.

It is almost time to make out your programs for next term, and if you are in doubt what you are going to take, the difficulty should be settled now. Either ask your teachers or go to the office.

HI-Y NOTES

Over forty of the finest college and university annuals have been received by the Boys' Division of the Y. M. C. A. during the past few weeks and are now in use in the Hi-Y rooms at the "Y." Almost every large college and university from the east to the west is represented. The collection of annuals is the finest ever assembled here.

Members of the Hi-Y Club are invited to use the Boys' Division during the holiday vacation. The annuals will be ready for use at all times and the billiard and pool room will be open to Hi-Y members. It is hoped that the Boys' Division Hi-Y rooms will be headquarters for high school boys during the two weeks' recess.

A PLAN TO CUT WINTER EXPENSES

RENEW, REPAIR, REMODEL AND CLEAN OLD CLOTHES INSTEAD OF LAYING OUT GOOD CASH FOR EXPENSIVE NEW GARMENTS.

Dresher's Plan Wins.

The "dread of winter" is always in evidence because of greatly increased expenses, caused by immense coal bills, etc., and also a lot of money paid out for heavy weight clothes for the entire family.

But, it's safe to say that the amount of money usually put into ONE new suit of clothes or dress, would, if applied Dresher's way, pay for the complete rehabilitation of ALL the old clothes of the entire family.

Now what IS "Dresher's Way," did you ask? Well, Dresher's way means taking the old clothes apart, cleaning them, restyling, reshaping, removing, recollaring, relining, and in some instances dyeing them, then putting the garments together again in such a deft way that they will appear as brand new clothes when again worn.

Dresher Brothers at 2211-2217 Farnam street have more than a cleaning and dyeing establishment—it amounts to about twenty-five ordinary cleaning and dyeing concerns in scope. Besides, Dresher's specialize in all that goes with clothes wearing, for instance Dresher's make hats, make furs, make clothes at the Dresher the Tailor establishment, 1515 Farnam street, and are in every way imitatively capable of taking care of the clothes of man or woman in an economical manner.

An announcement of this sort cannot tell it all. Better call up Atlantic 0345 and have a friendly conversation with the Dresher office.

South Side folk may have the same service rendered by phoning Market 0050, while out-of-town folk have only to express or parcel post their packages in, Dresher's paying the charges one way.

The Dresher branches in the Burgess-Nash and Brandeis Stores are still maintained for your convenience.

Beerkle and Hoerner led in making touchdowns this year. Both carried the ball across four times. Reynolds scored three times, and Stribling, Clarke, and Sautter once each. Wilmer kicked eleven out of fourteen goals after touchdowns. Jeffries took the putty automobile jack as a prize for covering the most territory since his brogans easily took up about a yard of room.

Kenneth Gates recently returned from Sioux City where he is said to have fallen for the exchange editor of the High School paper. "Ken" is watching eagerly for the time when the team will make another trip to the Iowa city.

We once announced that Ingalls had won the prize for looking bashful when in front of the Central High student mob, but we must now ask Mr. Ingalls to call at the Register office and relinquish his trophy. A certain member of the faculty blushed exceedingly when he led the singing at the Rialto several weeks ago. We don't blame him though. He was probably ashamed of the hoarse voices issuing from the husky throats of the team behind him.

The city championship race in football ended in a hopelessly entangled tieup. All the schools in the city were tied. Central beat South, Commerce beat Central, South beat Commerce, and Creighton tied Commerce. Pick your own winner.

The basketball candidates are showing up well in the first part of their practice. The number of men out exceeds all former records, and competition is keen for berths on the various quintets. The first squad is warming up to the old-time form, and scrimmage is now the main event on the daily program. No certain lineups are being used as yet. As the first game comes right after the close of the holidays, practice will most likely continue through the vacation period. The only cloud in the sky is that Leo Konecky injured his knee in practice the other night and will be out of the game for a week or two.

COMMERCE NOTES.

The catering classes of Commerce served a banquet to the football squad Thursday night in the school lunch room. About fifty students attended and proclaimed the feast a grand success.

Tryouts for the basket-ball team will be held this week at Commerce. The cagers will train at the Y every morning during Christmas vacation, as their first game is to be played early in January. A good turnout is expected. Likely candidates for the team include George Krebs, Fred Shosemaker, Leslie Swenson, Curly Mack, Cozy Pierce, Marcus Krasne, Merle Kline, Marty Swanson, Leonard Kuhry, and Scotty Childs. The Commercialites are working hard to equal their last year's record and hold the cup.

The cooking classes at Commerce are selling candy in the corridors after school. The students seem to thrive on it, no casualties have been reported so far. Sounds good for the cooking classes (or the constitutions of the pupils).

Commerce will get out Friday of this week as it is the end of their first quarter.

Miss Kenefick, teacher at Commerce High, rewarded the efforts of all her pupils who have not been tardy during the quarter by entertaining them at an Orpheum party Thursday night. It turned out that she was escorted by thirteen young men,—for not a single girl had earned a perfect record.—Can you beat it?

BENSON NOTES.

Benson High had such a splendid turnout for basket-ball tryouts that the Orpheus Club of that school decided to present the team with a check for eighty-five dollars with which to buy new basket-ball suits. It looks as if Benson would have a team to be proud of this year.

Music hath charm indeed for the members of the Benson High music classes. They have enthusiastically observed Music Week and their director, Mrs. Pixler, celebrated by composing the music and writing the words for a new school song.

Eight members of the Benson High Girl Reserves joined members of the Reserves from Commerce, Central, and South in a hike recently. The Benson girls had a wonderful time and are looking forward enthusiastically to another hike in the near future.
