

CENTRAL WINS ACADEMIC MEET

REGISTER IS JUDGED BEST STATE PAPER

Silver Loving Cup Is Prize;
Kearney Places Second
with Tech Third

SIG. DELTA CHI JUDGES

The Central High School Weekly Register was announced as first prize winner in a state contest conducted by the Sigma Delta Chi journalistic fraternity of the University of Nebraska at a banquet held in Lincoln Saturday at the close of the annual convention. A silver loving cup, on display in the Central High trophy case, was received by Stanley Street, managing editor, who represented the staff. At the same time the Fremont "Rustler" was awarded first prize for being the best monthly publication in the state. Kearney High won second place and Omaha Tech, third in the newspaper division.

Large Delegation

Seventy-five delegates representing high school papers from all over Nebraska attended the journalism convention this year. The Register itself sent down fifteen representatives. Saturday morning the delegates were given an address of welcome by Chancellor Samuel Avery of the University of Nebraska, following which Charles F. Chase of the Woodruff Printing company explained the process of making an annual. Then followed an automobile trip through Lincoln and visits to the Lincoln Star and the Nebraska State Journal plants. Luncheon was served by the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, at which time Dean Philo M. Buck, a university professor who has just returned from India, and J. W. Seaton, president of the National Council of English teachers, were the principal speakers. Mr. Jones, managing editor of the Lincoln Star, also talked. A proposed constitution, prepared by the Sigma Delta Chi, was read; and plans were made to form a high school journalism association some time next fall. In the afternoon the delegates were guests of the Sigma Delta Chi at the high school track meet.

Banquet a Success

The banquet was held Saturday evening at the Grand Hotel, at which time Mr. Gadsen, president of the journalistic fraternity, presented the prizes. Samuel R. McKelvie, former governor of Nebraska, and J. E. Lawrence, managing editor of the Nebraska State Journal, were the speakers for the evening. Mr. Lawrence related interesting anecdotes concerning newspaper life, and assured the young people that an interesting profession lay ahead of them if they should take up journalism and really like it. Mr. McKelvie, who is now editor of the Nebraska Farmer, placed special emphasis on the necessity of gaining the readers' confidence. The chairman of the convention, Herbert Brownell, editor of the Daily Nebraskan, presided at all meetings.

Register Well Represented

Representatives from the Register were: Stanley Street, Almedia Hamilton, Vic Hackler, Agnes Dunaway, Mary Fischer, Gladys Reynolds, Lee Weber, Edwin Neilan, Chris Zee, Margaret Fischer, Martin Lof, Jack Ringwalt, John Spellman, Emil Shukert, and Mrs. R. M. Weisendorff, journalism instructor. Frances Fetterman, editor of the O-Book, represented the annual division.

STUDENT CLUB CAMP IS AT BREWSTER JUNE 6-11 CAPTAINS, LIEUTS. CHOSEN FROM CABINET

The organization of the Student club camp to be held at Camp Brewster, June 6-11, has already begun. The captains and lieutenants for each of the eight companies were chosen last week.

The officers of the camp were taken from the Student club cabinet girls, and all vacancies filled by a vote of the cabinet. The captains are to be the officers of the club: Almedia Hamilton, Helena Gifford, Kate Goldstein, and Constance Page as well as the four committee chairmen, Anne Perley, Doris Pinkerton, Jean Hall, and Gertrude Pollard. The freshman officers, Nora Perley, Hazel Showalter, Ruth Manning, and Marjorie Bailey, with members from the other club, Ruth Bethards, Madeline Miller, Betty Ortman, Geraldine Wycoff, Ruth Cochrane, Dorothy Brown, Frances Johnston, Vivian Wreen, Ruth Carr, Elice Holovtchiner, Margaret Rix, and Flora Root will be the lieutenants.

Frances Fetterman and Lillian Holloway, editor and assistant editor of the club paper, The Current, will be captain and lieutenant in charge of editing the camp paper.

The drawing for companies will take place next Tuesday afternoon when all girls who are going to camp will meet for further arrangements.

JACK COGLIZER WINS FIRST IN DECLAMATORY

Jack Cogizer, a Central senior, won first place in the oratorical section of the Nebraska state declamatory contest held Thursday at Orleans, Nebraska. His selection was, "The Message from Garcia." Central also won honors in the dramatic section held at Central City, when Harriet Fleischman took third place with her selection, "The Merry, Merry Cuckoo."

"We are very happy about Jack's victory," said Miss Floy Smith, dramatic teacher. "We might have placed higher in the dramatic section had Harriet not run over time."

Leland Arnett of South High took first honors in extemporaneous speaking; Louise Wright of Crete won first place in the dramatic section; and Clayton Harry of Stamford was first in the humorous division.

HOLD SENIOR BANQUET AT BLACKSTONE HOTEL

The graduating senior class voted Monday, May 14, to hold their annual banquet at the Blackstone Hotel and to follow up the program with dancing. George Likert has been chosen toastmaster. The price per plate will be $1.75. Bids were entered by the Fontenelle, Commercial Club, Brandeis Tea Room, Athletic club, Blackstone Hotel, and Field club.

The seniors will have as guests: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reed, J. G. Masters, J. H. Beveridge, E. E. McMillan, J. W. Woolery, L. N. Bexten; and as sponsors: Miss Alice West, Miss Maybel Burns, Mrs. F. B. Davies, Miss Grace Holmes, and Miss Jessie Towne.

Plans are being made by Chairman Ed. Ballantine and Miss West to decorate with peonies. Subjects for toasts have not yet been given out.

CONCERT IS PRESENTED BY JUNIOR GLEE CLUBS

The Junior Glee clubs of Central will give a concert Tuesday night at the auditorium. This is the first time the Junior clubs have put on a program, as the Senior clubs always have given the musical concerts before.

Miss Elsie Howe's Music II class, composed entirely of girls, will give two numbers on the program. The class will be directed by Dorothy Dawson and Gretchen Dishong, chosen by popular vote as the best fitted for the honor.

The girls are planning to wear a uniform of a white skirt and purple sweater, decorated with the emblem "G. C.," embroidered in white on a purple background.

Marie Uhlig is the accompanist for the boys, and Jean Stirling for the girls. The teams have been working all term under the direction of Miss Howe and Mrs. Carol Marhof Pitts, and the concert promises to be an excellent one.

SPEAKERS' BUREAU TO HOLD PICNIC

The Speakers' Bureau intends to hold a picnic for their members some time soon. The suggestion was made by Frances Johnston and the students elected a committee consisting of Frances Johnston, Naomi Pester, Stanley Swanson, and Hawthorne Arey to plan for the picnic. Plans are not definitely decided yet.

JUNIOR COLLEGE HERE HAS UNCERTAIN FUTURE

May be Three or Four Years Before Plan of Junior College Begins

The plans for a junior college course at Central High school are rather more a fond dream than a reality according to Principal Masters. "Until our crowded conditions are relieved, nothing can be done along this line. It will probably be three or four years before anything is done. The question is whether or not the new North High school will be able to relieve the crowded condition here," said Mr. Masters when interviewed last week.

"A great many cities have junior college courses," he continued. "The plan would be to take up the first two years of a college course under our most competent teachers, and to arrange with the universities to accept credits earned here. Our high school already has a good standing with the colleges."

"There would be several advantages offered by such a course. In the first place, a larger number of students would be able to take up the college work. Students who could not afford to go to a regular college could easily afford such a course. There is a greater chance for self help in Omaha than in the smaller college towns where the competition is keener. In the second place, the instruction would probably be better. In colleges where the attendance is large it is regrettably true that a large number of the students are taught by assistants or fellows. It is notably true that high school teaching is better than college teaching."

"Our library and laboratories are fairly well equipped and much additional equipment would not be necessary."

HOUSEHOLD ARTS GIVE PARTY FOR SENIORS

On Tuesday, May 22, the girls of the Household Arts classes will hold a reception for graduating seniors who have been members of that department. All girls interested in Household Arts are invited. The reception will be held from three to five. Refreshments will be prepared and served by the girls of the cooking classes. The color scheme will be in yellow and white, and the girls of the present sewing classes will wear the afternoon gowns which they have recently completed.

"We hope to give our graduating seniors a pleasant time," said Miss Williams. "We haven't yet decided just what the program will be, but I think that the seniors will be asked to give little stump speeches."

The chairmen of the various committees in charge of the reception are: Josephine Hamlin, decoration and cooking; Cyrella Gleason, program; Corinne Jones, social; and Hazel Belt, music.

SILK FLOWERS MADE BY HOUSEHOLD ARTS

The girls in the Household Arts department are turning out a great deal of finished material just at this time. In Miss May Gleason's millinery classes the loveliest of silk and ribbon flowers are being made. Roses—American Beauties, tea roses, and wild roses; forget-me-nots; and violets are in process of construction. Both the colors and the shapes are true to life. Each girl has had the privilege, also, of making a corsage combining these separate flowers. One of the best is that of Dorothy Detweiler who has made a flat corsage with an American Beauty center banked with violets and rose leaves. Marjory Bailey's consists of a dainty pink rose combined with sweet peas of pastel shades. Irene Rossen's combines the beautiful glossy green leaves of the American Beauty rose with its full-blown and half-blown blossoms and pods.

The girls are also making hats. They bought the shapes—either garden or tailored—and the flowers to trim them with and some most attractive hats have resulted.

"Every day my classes are turning out new dresses," said Miss Verda Williams. "Silks and gingham are the favorites for summer dresses."

APPOINT McMILLAN HEAD OF NORTH HIGH

E. E. McMillan, assistant principal and dean of boys of Central, has been appointed principal of the new North High school, which is now under construction on west Ames Avenue.

Mr. McMillan has been at Central High school since 1905, and is one of the best known and best liked teachers in the school.

"Certainty, I will accept the appointment," said Mr. McMillan, when interviewed the other day. "I am indeed gratified to be chosen as head of as fine a school as North High is to be. Of course, I will be sorry to leave Central with all its pleasant associates and associations. I particularly enjoyed my duties as dean of boys."

When asked where he was educated, Mr. McMillan with characteristic modesty replied that he was not educated yet, though he confessed to degrees at the Miami University of Oxford, Ohio, and the University of Indiana.

The new high school will be ready for occupation about one year from next August, and it is probable that Mr. McMillan will assume his duties at that time.

MAKE CONSTITUTION OF JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

Organization Is Outgrowth of National Honor Society; Starts Next Year

The constitution for the Junior Honor Society which will be formed for the first time next semester, was approved and accepted at the Faculty meeting last Tuesday. This is the only society of its kind in existence and is an outgrowth of the National Honor Society founded by Principal J. G. Masters. The committee who composed the constitution was Miss G. Clark, Miss Hilliard, Miss Bozell, Mr. Pfaff, and Principal Masters. 379 PUPILS TO ENTER CENTRAL NEXT FALL

Dundee School Contributes Fifty-six Freshmen; Miller and Lathrop 2nd and 3rd

Approximately 379 eighth-grade pupils visited Central High school last Friday to enroll for the next fall semester. Dundee school furnished the largest number of students, sending fifty-six in all, while Pacific was represented by a single student. Miller Park and Lothrop schools sent the next highest numbers, thirty-eight and twenty-five, respectively.

Several students declared their intention of enrolling as freshmen in summer-school.

Principal Masters explained the various rules and regulations of the school to the incoming freshmen and also explained the course of study, copies of which had been passed out to the pupils. Mr. Masters also discussed the National and the Junior Honor societies, emphasizing the importance of co-operation and service in school life.

Miss Jessie M. Towne, dean of girls, encouraged those who needed help to come to her office. "I can't know all of you, so you must come to me," she said in closing.

Following is the number of students entering Central from the respective grade schools:

Bancroft, three; Beal, five; Belvidere, four; Benson, eight; Central, eight; Central Park, nine; Clifton Hill, twelve; Columbian, fifteen; Druid Hill, twelve; Dundee, fifty-six; Farnam, eleven; Field, six; Florence, two; Franklin, thirteen; Henry W. Yates, twelve; Howard Kennedy, five; Kellem, fourteen; Lake, nine; Lincoln, six; Long, eight; Lothrop, twenty-five; Mason, three; Miller Park, thirty-eight; Minna Lusa, twelve; Monmouth Park, twelve; Pacific, one; Park, twenty-four; Saratoga, thirteen; Saunders, fourteen; Walnut Hill, three; Webster, three; Windsor, thirteen.

HISTORY CLASSES ADD TO PROJECT WORK

Members of Miss Mabel Cowden's History II classes have added a number of valuable contributions to a collection of project work which already numbers over a hundred pieces, and which represents the combined work of the English and History departments. This work has been done by the initiative of the students themselves.

Execution Model Striking Of the new pieces contributed by Miss Cowden's class, a model, representing the execution of Queen Mary, is undoubtedly the most striking. It is a model of the scaffold on which stands the block, the executioner bearing the ax, Mary, and two nobles. The figures are clothed in the costumes of the times. The model was made by Elizabeth Tutgens.

There are a number of medieval newspapers in the collection. These are supposed to be representative of what a newspaper would have been like, had it been possible to issue one in medieval times. These papers are humorous in style.

Girls Contribute Dolls

A number of girls in Miss Cowden's class followed their natural instinct, and made dolls as their contributions. Both Rita Mantel, and Alta Artz made mode knights; Miss Artz's work was mounted on horseback. Martha Sterricker, Mary Oelke, Frances Prendergast, and Elizabeth Hunter, made models of medieval ladies. Margaret Foley made a model of a monk. Mary Rosicky, a model of Robinhood and maid Marion, and Florence Wolfe contributed a monk and jester. Medieval costumes were made by Ruth Johnson, and Frances Jacobson. One girl, Ruth Parmelle, is evidently artistic, as she painted a fine wall portrait of a Knight Templar.

Boys Follow Instincts

The boys seemed to follow either a constructive or a destructive bent, as is shown by the contribution of castles, by Robert D. Johnson, and Marion Williams, and an Axtex sacrificial knife, by Larry Delan. A model of Charlemagne, as he appeared on the throne, was designed by Hubert Cox.

MASTERS TAKES TRIP

Principal Masters leaves tonight for Fremont where he will address a Students' Rally at Midland college. This rally is an annual affair promoted by the various student organizations.

HIGH GRADE SENIOR IS AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

Anne Perley, the Central senior with the highest scholarship average of her class, has received a one hundred dollar scholarship from the Nebraska Association of Colleges. The certificate, signed by John N. Bennett, president of the association, provides that if the bearer attends any one of Nebraska's nine denominational colleges she shall have deducted from each year's tuition a sum of twenty-five dollars. The colleges named are Doane, Cotner, Grand Island, Hastings, Midland, Nebraska Central, Nebraska Wesleyan, Union, and York colleges. Anne herself favors Doane, a Congregational college located at Crete, Nebraska. Elizabeth Pugsley and Lysla Abbott, Central graduates last year, are both attending this college.

Anne is particularly interested in biology and political science, and will probably specialize along these lines.

INTERVIEW STAR OF DADDY-LONG LEGS

Ruth Chatterton Playing In "The Changelings" Gives Review of Experiences

The original Judy Abbot of "Daddy-Long-Legs," the play being given by the senior class, opened the door of her dressing-room and smiled winsomely. She is Ruth Chatterton and appeared as a part of the notable and company under the direction of Henry Miller in Lee Wilson Dodd's comedy, "The Changelings," at the Brandeis last week. Mr. Miller managed the original production of "Daddy-Long-Legs," and with Miss Chatterton, had much to do with its success.

So, to the original Judy we went for some first-hand evidence about "Daddy-Long-Legs." It was after a strenuous, but very successful performance of "The lings," and Ruth Chatterton was weary. She had another performance to give in the evening, and had spent three days on the train coming to Omaha.

First Night Exciting

But, withal she was very gracious and charming, in spite of the fact that she was in a great hurry to rid herself of her heavy make-up. She busied herself with deft fingers about her dressing table as she imparted the following information about her experiences as star in "Daddy-Long-Legs."

"So your senior class is putting on "Daddy-Long-Legs." My, goodness! I could write a book about my experiences in the play. And really it was so long ago that I don't remember everything that happened. But the first night! (Miss Chatterton sighed with exasperation, and gave a little laugh). The sets were not complete, and I was the only person in the cast who knew his lines."

Likes to Play to Young People

"I liked Daddy-Long-Legs better than any other play till I did Mary Rose. I liked "Daddy-Long-Legs," because the young people liked it, and I always like to play to the young people better than to anybody else." Miss Chatterton is young and slender herself, with a wealth of pretty light-brown hair which she dresses simply. Her features are plain and not particularly regular, but one forgets that when she smiles.

"When your class works out the play, it will probably have the same amount of joys and troubles that we had," she added.

Extends Best Wishes

Miss Chatterton was interrupted throughout her little talk by various friends and co-actors rushing in to kiss and congratulate her and at last they put a quietus on the flow of information she was giving.

So, with a smiling dismissal and a friendly farewell handshake she said, "Wish your class good luck for me. I wish I could be there."

Co. F Holds Banquet

Company F, which now stands ahead of all the others by several points, held its annual banquet at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday, May 10. Before the dinner, cadets were given a swim in the "Y" pool. Vint Lawson acted as toastmaster, and talks were given by Colonel Walter Key, Mr. McMillan, Mr. Gulgard, and Captain George Likert. A Jazz orchestra furnished the music, and a special movie concluded the program.

TWENTY-SEVEN OF FIFTY-SIX POINTS TAKEN

Lincoln Receives Second
Place By Making A
Score of Thirteen

TAKE THREE FIRSTS

Central High school won first place, making twenty-seven out of a total of fifty-six points in the Nebraska Inter-scholastic Academic contests held at the state university in Lincoln Saturday. Lincoln High came second with thirteen points and North Bend third with eight. More than three hundred high school students from all over the state were entered.

Central Takes Many Firsts

Central won first place in three divisions: American History, ninth grade algebra, and twelfth grade Latin. In fact, Centralites won all three places in Virgil, Elizabeth Ruhnkka coming first; Dominick Manoli, second, and Jean Hall, third. Inez Selander was the winner in American History, and Claude Mason in algebra. The second place in ninth grade algebra was won by Miriam Wells, also a Central student. Israel Weiss won second place and Edith Elliott third in Cicero. While Pauline, Clarkson came third in Caesar. Agnes Dunaway and Jack Ringwalt won second and third places respectively in English composition. Their subject was, "Why I Am Going to High School," and was unknown to the contestants until the minute before they began to write. The Central representatives emphasized service, achievement, and pleasure as reasons for going to high school. Out of a total of eighty entries, Ralph Bergsten and Edward Rosenthal received the second highest grades in spelling, Ralph drawing second and Ed third place.

Winners Receive Medals

A gold medal is to be awarded the winners of each department, and silver and bronze medals to those winning second and third places respectively. The three high schools with the most points will be given suitable trophies, according to Professor A. A. Reed of the university extension department.

"The American History and English composition papers were said to be exceptionally fine," declared Miss Towne, who accompanied the contestants to the capital city. "The counting of the votes was quite exciting. The grading of the papers was done by number and the college professors were the judges. We all waited anxiously for the results."

All of the papers were graded by three o'clock Saturday afternoon, the results being announced at the track meet where many of the contestants had gathered.

FOUR SENIORS PRESENT COMEDY IN HOME ROOM

"Joint Owners in Spain," a comedy by Alice Brown, was cleverly presented to Senior Home Room Thursday by four members of the Expression IV class. The cast included:

Mrs. Mitchell—Ruth Grimmell. Miss Dyer—Rose Lazarus. Mrs. Fullerton—Neva Morpheus. Mrs. Blair—Virginia Worst.

Typical old-fashioned costumes were used and the furniture was necessarily improvised because of the small stage used.

The characters handled their difficult roles well and the audience thoroughly appreciated the humorous situations and characterizations.

The play is one of four being worked out by the Expression Class.

L.T.C. Ends Social Calendar

A hike on Saturday, May 26, and a dance on June 2 will end the social calendar of the L. T. C. for this year. Members are invited to attend both affairs. Those going on the hike should meet at thirteenth and Farnam at 6:15 Saturday morning. Each girl is to bring her own lunch. The dance will probably be held at the Walnut Hill waterworks, 40th and Hamilton streets.

The club will hold its next meeting Thursday, at which time full plans will be made for the dance.

MUSICAL EDUCATION

There has been no little contention in the years past about the comparative value of music as taught in the high schools and colleges. It has been maintained that music is a hinderance to the careful pursuit of other subjects when taught in the school, but this statement has been challenged by many instructors throughout the whole country. Mr. De Kloston, Commissioner of the National Bureau of Education in the department of the Interior, in a report on public schools, said, "Sooner or later we shall not only recognize the cultural value of music; we shall also begin to understand that, after the rudiments of reading, writing, and Arithmetic, music has greater practical value than any other subject taught in the schools." Also Dr. Charles Elliott, president Emeritus of Harvard University, says, "Music rightly taught is the best mind trainer on the list."

The following statistics show the ranking of the students in schools where music is taught:

In Minneapolis High school last year 16% of the students who studied music received the highest marks, 3% failed; 9% of non-music students received highest marks, 12% failed. At Magdalen College, Oxford University, England, during the last thirty years, 10% of students have studied music and won 75% of scholastic honors, while 90% of the non-music students took only 25% of the honors.

GOING TO CAMP?

The annual camp at Valley is the big event of the year for the regiment. All year the several companies work toward that event. Since this is true, no cadet who possibly can go should miss the camp.

Every year some cadets refuse to go to camp and most of those who refuse are freshmen. The reason for this is that sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have been to camp know what a fine thing it is and would not miss it for anything. Freshmen should go to camp because it is the first big chance which comes to many of them to get into the swing of Central High school life. Among the freshmen who go to camp this year will be found the colonel, majors, and captains of four years hence. The camp is backed by the Hi-Y and the Clean Camp movement so that even the most exacting need have no scruples about going since every cadet signs a pledge to do his best to keep a clean camp. The cost of going is made as low as possible, and any boy can get the money if he tries. Every cadet owes it to himself, his company, and his school to go to camp, but, if he did not consider that duty, the fact that ten days of joy are in store for him should be enough to make him put forth every effort to get there.

DADDY-LONG-LEGS

Why not buy your ticket for the senior play now? Surely you are not going to miss one of the best dramatic productions of the year. Daddy-Long-Legs is a comedy which has gained nation-wide fame, and has been presented by some of the best actors in the country. The tickets are selling for only fifty cents so that any student can afford to go. It is surprising to note that all the seats are not sold when the tickets have been on sale for more than a week. However, we are confronted with the fact that a few more than five hundred tickets have been sold for both performances, thus leaving many of the best seats yet unsold. Perhaps some students thought it was too much trouble to send in a mail order. If that is true, then all the seats should be sold within the next few days because tickets are now on sale in the box-offices. Get your ticket now before the good seats are taken.

Excursions of civics classes seem to be calculated to teach object lessons. One class visited the juvenile court just before going to the Child Saving Institute. Another class just visited a Brokers' house. They should inspect the poorhouse next.

A story published last week, entitled, "How the Little Dipper Came Into the Sky," would have us believe that Jupiter saw snakes after drinking out of the Little Dipper.

Some history classes have been studying medieval etiquette. More could profit thereby.

Were you able to get across the border last summer?

LILY OF THE ALLEY
—planted by Turk

SYNOPSIS: Let's let the past bury its dead.

THIRD WINK

(Time—thirty seconds later, on Broadway, New York. Between Scene II and Scene III much has been accomplished. Lily's father has died of sleeping sickness—he went to sleep on a railroad track. Des. Des. unbeknownst to Lil has taken her father's papers to the blacksmith to have them forged. The scene opens with Lily in the parlor on the twenty-first floor of the Hotel Ascheande built. D. Desmond comes a-wooing.)

Lil (opening the door): Oh, so it's only you, is it?

D. D.: Here's an all-day sucker I got just for you, Lil. It costs whole nicker. (Lil doesn't seem stuck on the sucker.)

Say, I was out to see the baseball game, yestiddy. You know I hailed one of these cabs on I ast the guy that run the meter how much it would take to get me out to the Polo grounds, and he said about a dollar and a half. How's that for a daylight hold-up? Well I walked.

Lil: And I suppose when you got out there you were too tired to climb the fence and didn't see the game anyhow.

D. D.: Lil, I love you. Nothing can take me from you but a divorce, or the other three million women in New York.

(FIRE! Des. Des. escapes with the only parachute on the twenty-first floor. The flames—not her flames—creep on around Lily's neck. Will Lil be a roast chicken by next week? Don't build up your hopes.)

FREE SPEECH

To the Editor:

If You Like It, Say So

Recently a person who was particularly pleased with an article appearing in this paper sent a note to the Register office to that effect. Since the Register belongs to the whole school and its object is to serve, the writer of the note was under no obligations. Nevertheless, the note was written, and the Register appreciated it.

Constantly little things are being done about us which add pleasure to the course of our lives. Someone besides ourselves is usually responsible. Sometimes these things are taken for granted; again they meet with silent appreciation. Silent appreciation does not go very far to encourage one to his best efforts nor to promote mutual understanding and sympathy between the individuals or departments of a school.

If people could only learn that an occasional word of honest praise on their part would add much to general happiness, they would soon find out that their adverse criticism, too, carried more than ordinary weight.—C. R.

Faculty Supervision

Section 1. All meetings shall be open meetings and shall be held under the sponsorship of the General Council.

Section 2. All activities of the Junior Honor Society shall be subject to the approval of the General Council.

Article IX.

Section 1. This constitution may be amended only by a vote of the faculty.

Dear Editor:

Central has always boasted of a beautiful campus. For the past two years, reconstruction and grading have made it impossible for our grounds to retain their splendid grass and trees; but with the coming of spring this year our campus has taken a new start. We have a lawn to be proud of, and is it not our duty and privilege to keep it so? A campus spotted with bare patches and criss-crossed with paths is certainly a detriment to any school. The presence of our fine grounds ought to be in itself a gentle reminder to the students that we want to keep our campus beautiful. Let's all help.—E. P.

SENIORS PICK THEIR NEXT YEAR'S SCHOOLS

Out of a class of 375, only forty-three seniors have stated definitely that they will not go on with their studies at some college or business school. Out of the forty-three, eight are boys and thirty-five girls. However, there are sixty-three more girls in the senior class than there are boys.

Nebraska Uni. Gets Majority

These figures are according to a list in which each senior stated his college preference if he had any. Doubtless there will be many changes by next September, since a number of the seniors declare themselves uncertain at this time as to what they will do. Apparently, however, about one-third of the entire graduating class is planning to journey down to Lincoln to enter the state university. Forty-six are considering Omaha, but of this forty-six only five are boys. Ten boys of the seniors are planning to attend Grinnell in Iowa; fourteen will enter the Chicago university; and one the University of Iowa.

Eastern Colleges Attract Many

Eastern colleges will also get their share of Central graduates if plans materialize. Cornell, Dartmouth, Boston Tech, Princeton, Yale, Vassar, Wellesley, and Smith were each mentioned by one or two seniors. Five or six are considering Berkeley or some other California school. Only about five stated they are planning to take a business course. Two girls are going into training for nursing, and two will attend Penn Normal. A few of the girls are planning to attend girls' seminaries. Other colleges such as Notre Dame, Ann Arbor, Ames, University of Wisconsin, etc., are also mentioned.

CHOOSE NAME OF CAMP PAPER

"The Cadet Gazette" has been chosen unanimously by the staff as the name of the official paper for the cadet camp this year. Something new is promised in the way of a real snappy paper, with lots of "kick." Not only does the Gazette intend to back all of the activities of the camp but it intends to introduce some new ones.

Tickets for the six papers are on sale now for twenty-five cents from the officers and staff of the paper, or from the First Sergeants. It is planned to have any people not going to camp who may desire to get the paper and get first hand news of camp events, to buy the paper. However an additional cost of ten cents is being charged for mailing out any subscription.

AROUND SCHOOL

The Senior Glee clubs are planning their annual spring party. It will probably be at Carter Lake club with a picnic and dance. The newly elected president of the club, Gladys Reynolds, will manage the committees that will do the planning.

Central's male quartet, composed of Herbert Westerfield, first tenor, Maurice McMasters, second tenor, Howard Elliott, first tenor-bass, and Kenneth Seely, second bass, sang at the Reserve Officers' Corps Banquet at the Rome Hotel Tuesday evening and at the Benson M. E. Church the same evening. Such old favorites as "Ma Punkin' Sue," "Mary had a William Goat," and "Stock Yard Song," were received with enthusiasm.

Six members from Miss G. Clarke's third hour English II class have been added to the Ivanhoe production which her sixth and seventh hour classes are presenting after the senior play Friday and Saturday. They are: Janet McAndrews, Grace Kuntel, Adele Sautter, Thelma Pospisil, Mildred Thoman, and Jacob Kaiman. They will take the parts of the members of Robin Hood's band, and all will have opportunities to show their ability at pantomime.

A very interesting and precise map of England by Erlene Francis is one of the new works to be found in the project room. It shows exactly the birthplace of each of the famous English writers, and was done as part of the work in English VIII under Miss Penelope Smith.

When Miss Mabel L. Cowden leaves Central this June, she will leave a monument behind her in the form of a pencil sharpener in Room 122. A number of students feared she would establish this useful implement in her new home in the East since it would probably be of much use to a college professor. Miss Cowden assures us that she will attach a small plate to it bearing the statement that the pencil sharpener was donated by herself and her American History classes.

Rosaline Hughes, a junior who is planning to spend her summer vacation at Long Beach, California, has already promised to send small sea-shells to about twenty of her friends.

Agnes Dunaway, in Virgil class: How did Aeneas get to the lower world? Does everybody have to go through that cave to get there.
Voice: Cheer up, Agnes, you'll get there all right.

Dr. Senter: How do you dissolve charcoal?
Wilber Tollen: Put it in water.
Dr. Senter: Wrong.
Wilber: Darn you, Dorothy, why did you tell me that?
Which proves that woman is fickle and undependable.

"Failed in Latin, failed in Math,"
I heard him softly hiss,
"I'd like to spot the guy who said
That 'Ignorance is bliss!'"

GIRL WONDER USES NEW TYPING SYSTEM

A vocabulary of sixty-four thousand words, a speed of eight strokes a minute, and the mastery of a new system of education originated by her father is the record of Miss Birdie Reeve, the sixteen-year-old girl who is startling the country with her revolutionary system of typewriting. In spite of this record, Miss Reeve, who appeared in Omaha last week, is as unaffected and as modest as any other girl of her age. She is a very charming young person with her round face, the childishness of which is accentuated by her dark Dutch-bobbed hair, her irresistible smile, and her pleasing personality.

Miss Reeve uses an entirely individual system of typing and shorthand. In typing she uses only four fingers instead of the ten which she possesses. The efficiency of the first and second fingers of each hand is proved by her record of twenty-nine thousand strokes an hour. She first started typing four years ago, and in two weeks she had a speed record the best of stenographers might envy. Constant practice of the endings of the various family groups or tribes of words, such as "ation," "itious," "ology," "ism," "able," "ible," etc. Using this method, she has also compiled a sound dictionary, "The Universcript." It is this that has enabled her to acquire her enormous vocabulary.

As interesting as Birdie herself is her father, Thomas L. Reeve, the inventor of the system she uses. He has discovered numerous possibilities of the circle, and it is upon this that he has based his method of writing "Universcript," something on the order of short-hand. The characters of his new sound alphabet are all designated by various parts of the circle.

"The A, B, C system is all wrong," declared Mr. Reeve. "The lips are the first used in speaking. Why not start a new alphabet beginning with a sound made by the lips, and follow that sound with the others made in their natural order by the lips, the tongue, and the teeth?"

All this has been accomplished by Mr. Reeve. He and his daughter demonstrated the efficiency of the method at the city hall last Wednesday morning. Without the slightest hesitation, Miss Reeve repeated an innumerable list of words not arranged alphabetically as the word is generally understood, but in their sound order. In a few seconds she gave the eighty-three elements of which all matter consists, a task which no one else in the room was able to perform. At this demonstration Birdie complained that the typewriter could not keep up with her for she could only type one hundred and fourteen words in thirty seconds. The average person cannot talk that fast. Birdie's own machine is a specially constructed Royal which cost about two thousand dollars.

Mr. Reeve is not satisfied with starting the world with his educational system, but has also invented a new way of constructing buildings, which, if it proves practical, will revolutionize the whole building industry. His plans call for round towers as high as wanted, having and needing no foundation.

FRESHMAN GIRLS HOLD CARNIVAL

The crowning event of the Freshman Student club year was about realized in the carnival held Saturday evening at the Y. W. C. A. There were attractions that rivaled the features of Barnum and Bailey's famous side-shows. For those who did not require the entire evening for watching these specialties there was dancing and music. Pink lemonade, with its natural accompaniment of pop-corn, ice-cream cones, and candy, was on sale and created more of the carnival atmosphere. As a warning against all misdemeanors, there was a police court on the carnival grounds, and the judge was not over lenient with any of the numerous criminals brought before him. Ruth Willard and Nora Perley, president, took charge of the work on the carnival in which they were assisted by all the club members.

SENIOR GIRLS HOLD GLEE CLUB TRYOUTS

Try-outs were held last Thursday for those Senior Glee club girls who wished to take the solo parts in the numbers to be presented at the radio concert given by the Glee clubs from the W.O.A.W. Woodmen of the World broadcasting station, Monday night, May 14. Alice Mae Christensen and Aileen Chiles will sing the two soprano solos in the two choral numbers, "Wynken, Blynken, and Nod," and "Go Down Moses." Other tryouts for individual solos were made, and Maude Munroe, Aileen Chiles, Alice Mae Christensen, and Marjorie Jones were chosen.

The program will consist of:
Piano solo: Harry Fryxell.
Vocal solo: Maude Munroe.
Negro Spiritual—"Go Down Moses"—Senior clubs with Aileen Chiles as soprano soloist.
Quartet: "Mah Punkin' Sue"—Kenneth Seely, Howard Elliott, Herbert Westerfield, and Maurice McMasters.

Piano solo: Jeanette Cass.
Vocal solo: Kenneth Seely.
Mixed quartet: "God So Loved the World"—Aileen Chiles, Marjorie Jones, Kenneth Seely, and Herbert Westerfield.

Vocal solo: Alice Mae Christensen.
Male quartet: "Mighty Lak a Rose."
Chorus: "Wynken, Blynken, and Nod"—Boys' Senior Glee club, with Alice Christensen as soprano soloist.
Vocal solo: Aileen Chiles.
Negro Spiritual: "Listen to the Lambs"—Senior clubs.

Violin solo: Bernard Hanighen.
Vocal solo: Marjorie Jones.
Chorus: "Rolling Down to Rio"—Senior clubs.

CIVICS CLASSES ARE TAKING UP BALLOTS

The civics classes which are taking up the study of political duties have an excellent opportunity of studying forms of ballots from the bulletin board in room 315. Miss Spaulding spent the home room period Thursday in explaining to her first hour class the purpose, advantages, and disadvantages, of each kind of ballot in this collection, which contains samples from many states.

Speed Typist Demonstrates

Miss Hortense Stallnitz, speed and accuracy type champion, gave a demonstration in 235 Monday morning at eight o'clock. She used a Remington machine. Miss Stallnitz writes over 140 words a minute and at the same time adds mentally a column of figures six deep. George Hassfeld, the World's Champion typist, both in speed and accuracy, will demonstrate on an Underwood machine Wednesday morning. It is something unusual for Central to have two celebrities in one week, and the Type Students will especially profit.

Headline in Newspaper—"Girl Carpenter Drives Nail Like Lightning." The meaning probably is that she never hits twice in the same place.

MISS ROCKFELLOW'S NEW HOME IS OPEN

The beautiful new home of Miss Pearl Rockfellow, French teacher at O. H. S., was formally opened to visitors the afternoons of Saturday and Sunday, May 11 and 12. Among the guests were many of the Central faculty as well as other friends. Miss Rockfellow has made in her Y. W. C. A. work and in social activities. The plans for the home, which is 10-304 South Fifty sixth street, were drawn entirely by Miss Rockfellow and her mother, with whom she lives. Miss Rockfellow attended personally to all contracts and business matters, at the same time carrying on double duties in school and at the Y. W. C. A.

House Well Planned
The house itself is of double faced red brick, and stands facing east on Fifty-sixth. Downstairs are four rooms and a large entrance hall, while the upstairs contains four bedrooms besides the hall and bath. The walls are all pure white, while the woodwork is walnut or enameled ivory or gray. The kitchen and bath are miracles of plumbing, while the arrangement of closets prove that French is the least of the Rockfellow talents. In her snowy kitchen with its frosted glass cupboards and convenient built-in fixtures, and in the adorable little breakfast room, Mrs. Rockfellow takes especial pride.

Contains Heirlooms
While her downstairs furniture boasts rare taste and immaculate newness, two of Miss Rockfellow's bedrooms contain very delightful old fashioned furniture. In one there is even a spinning wheel which once belonged to her great grandmother.

Undoubtedly, if endless hard work brings its reward, beauty its enjoyment, and the best wishes of a host of friends their sure charm, Miss Rockfellow and her mother will be very happy in their new home.

PURPLE LOSE STATE TRACK

Central High has again been vanquished by the arch enemy of all good track teams, ineligibleity. Coach Schmidt's crew did not live up to the reputation which has been conferred upon them. Lincoln High which we have defeated before this season, won the meet and the state title. Price, who should have counted for a first or two was unable to compete on account of his studies. Thomas, another point-maker has been ineligible all season.

Central took one first, two seconds, and two thirds in the meet. Marrow took the 220-yard hi hurdles for the first place which Central garnered. Missouri Jones beat out Evans of Fremont for second place in the century. Wellman lead all the way in the 440 and then lost out at the finish. He took second place. Galloway took third in the shot-put with the distance of 39 feet 9 inches. Wycoff took third in the pole vault. Howell was beaten out of fourth place in the shot-put by two inches. Fetterman also lost by a few inches in the half-mile. Lawson lost out in the mile when he came in fifth.

The team made fifteen points. The summary follows:

Group Three
100-yard dash—Won by Garvin, Alliance; second, Jones, Omaha Central; third, Evans, Fremont; fourth, Peterson, Lincoln. Time: 10 4-5 seconds
200-yard Dash—Won by Evans, Fremont; second, Dailey, Alliance; third, Coffey, Hastings; fourth, Kenagy, Beatrice. Time: 23 6-10 seconds
440-yard Dash—Won by Houdersheldt, Columbia; second, Wellman, Omaha Central; third, Pyle, Columbus, and Smiley, Hastings, tied. Time: 54 1-5 seconds
880-yard Run—Won by Smiley, Hastings; second, Houdersheldt, Columbia; third, Heneroth, University Place; fourth, Weber, Lincoln. Time: 2 minutes, 8 seconds
1 Mile Run—Won by Evans, Hastings; second, Moore, University Place; third, Chadderton, University Place; fourth, Whalen, Grand Island. Time: 4 minutes, 40 4-5 seconds
120-yard High Hurdles—Won by Fleming, Lincoln; second, Dailey, Alliance; third, Macrae, Lincoln; fourth, Sprague, York. Time: 17 1-5 seconds
220-yard Low Hurdles—Won by Marrow, Omaha Central; second, Fleming, Lincoln; third, Peterson, Lincoln; fourth, Lowrey, Columbus. Time: 27 2-5 seconds
880-yard Relay—Won by Fremont; second, Grand Island; third, Kearney; fourth, Omaha Central. Time: 1 minute 36 4-5 seconds
Pole Vault—Won by Marvel Hastings, 11 feet 2 inches; second, Parshall, Lincoln, 11 feet; tied for third, Layton, Beatrice, Watke, Columbus, Wycoff, Omaha Central, at 10 feet
12-point Shot Put—Won by Weir, Superior, 40 feet, 7 inches; second, Jones, Lincoln, 40 feet, 2 inches; third, Galloway, Omaha Central, 39 feet, 9 inches; fourth, Arterburn, Beatrice, 39 feet, 8 inches
High Jump—Won by Fleming, Lincoln, 5 feet, 10 inches; second, Ball, University Place, and Chambers, Fremont, tied at 5 feet, 6 inches; fourth, Wernimont, University Place, 5 feet, 4 inches
Discus Throw—Won by Durisch, Lincoln, 118 feet, 9 inches; second, Raish, Grand Island, 100 feet, 5 inches; third, Reland, Beatrice, 102 feet 1 inch; fourth, Stinen, Hastings, 100 feet, 9 inches
Broad Jump—Won by Garvin, Alliance, and Chambers, Fremont, tied, 20 feet, 2 1-2 inches; third, Coffey, Hastings, 19 feet 8 inches; fourth, Cottrell, Fremont, 29 feet, 6 inches

Through an oversight, Eldred Torrisson's name was not mentioned as one of the members of the track team who won state numerals. El won the pole-vault at the Fremont meet and made enough points out of track performances to get a light blue numeral. He is also a fast man in the 220 and the 440.

FIRST ROUND TENNIS PLAY IS VERY FAST

All the favorites in the boys' singles won with the exception of Summers, who was defeated by Meyer after a hard match, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3. As was predicted, the match between Church and Gorton was the feature. The first set was very closely contested. Church's smashing game overcoming Gorton's placing and clever net work, 7-5. Gorton seemed to lose his confidence after the first set, and Church had little trouble in winning the second set, 6-0, although the set was more closely contested than the score would indicate. Norin Shoemaker looks like a comer. Although only a freshman, he has almost perfect form and good control over all his shots. He beat Gregory, 6-1, 6-1, but lost to Mollin, 6-3, 6-3.

The boys' doubles were played without much dope being spilled. The favorites in the mixed doubles also came through. Letha Gant, "Connie" Page, Helen Hoover, and "Gerry" Wycoff look like semi-finalists in the girls' singles.

The summary follows:

CENTRAL NINE BEATS BLUFFS

The Purple pill-tossers took an exciting game from the Council Bluffs team. The final score was 3 to 5. Captain Stribling pitched his usual brand of good ball and mowed down the opposing batters in quick order.

Coach Hill's aggregation took the lead in the second inning. They made four of the five runs in this inning. The first inning was uneventful for both sides. The men went out on two-three order. Council Bluffs again failed to score in the second. Eight of our men went up in the second and brought in four runs. Hughes went down at first. DeLong got on on a passed ball. Pedersen got on also and advanced him to second. Dreshy walked but was put out later by the short-stop. A wild pitch put Lawson on, scoring DeLong. An error on the short-stop put Stribling on also, and scored Pedersen. Riorden knocked out a two-bagger, scoring Stribling. Reynolds struck out. Although Council Bluffs were just two runs behind the Purple team was never in real danger.

GIRLS' TEAMS CHOSEN

Final selections have been made and the girls' baseball teams are ready, after one more week of practice, to go into the Inter-class tournament with full line-ups. The positions have been carefully chosen and the teams represent the best of the players. Due to the large number of sophomores and freshmen trying out, all girls who have had regular practice attendance at practices will be considered members of the school team of their respective classes.

Girls making the first team will earn five points toward their athletic "O's," while members of the sub squad will be awarded three. Second crew members will also have an opportunity to make the same number of points in the tournament as those of the first teams. To realize this, it has been decided to play the girls on the second team during the tournament whenever possible.

The following is a list of the teams:

Freshmen—Helen Hain, and Sadie Beber, pitchers; Georgia Falkers and Katherine Allen, catchers; Marian Hall,

The Juniors added to their unbroken string of victories by topping it with a 7-3 win over the Freshies.
One more week of practice should put the teams in fine condition and, with an able captain at every helm, the tournament should prove fast and exciting.
