

CLASS '24 WINS INTER-CLASS DEBATE FOR SECOND TIME IN HISTORY BY UNANIMOUS VOTE

Gerald Vasik and Sam Minkin
Are The Two Members
Of Winning Team

LOSERS FIGHT HARD

Sophomore Team Enter Race
For Decision Under Difficulties

For the second time in its history, members of the class of '24 are the winners of the inter-class debates. In 1922 this class won the debate and again as seniors they are the banner team. The members of the winning team were Gerald Vasak and Sam Minkin, who won from the sophomore team in a closely fought contest last Tuesday. The judges were Mr. Woolery, Miss Towne, and Miss Floy Smith.

Debate is Closely Contested

Under great difficulties the two sophomore representatives lost in one of the hardest fought debates that the high school has ever known. Mary Claire Johnson and Catherine Southard made up the sophomore team. Catherine did not know that she was to take part in the debate until that morning, but because of the absence of Elizabeth Mills, the regular member, and because of the absence of Harley Moorehead, the regular alternate, Catherine was required to take the other place, even at such late notice.

Mr. Hill is Chairman

Both teams presented their material exceedingly well to an interested audience. Mr. Hill was chairman of the debate.

After careful consideration, the judges decided unanimously in favor of the senior team.

"Without knowing the trying circumstances under which the sophomore team presented its material, one would consider their arguments excellent, and after learning the facts I believe their work to be amazing," said Miss Towne, one of the three judges.

Mr. Chatelain coached both teams.

Sam Minkin

COMEDY IS SELECTED BY JANUARY SENIORS

Henry I. Southwick Will Present
Shakespearean Comedy,
"Twelfth Night"

"Twelfth Night" has been decided upon as the Shakespearean comedy in which the January Seniors will present Henry I. Southwick, president of the Boston College of Oratory. The January class will entertain Mr. Southwick at a tea on the afternoon of January 11.

"Twelfth Night" was chosen partly because a comedy of Shakespeare's has been included in the English VII course. The performance will be in the school auditorium January 11. It is to be given instead of a class play.

All members of the faculty and others interested in dramatic art will be invited to meet Mr. Southwick at a tea to be given at school by the January class. Each member of the class will invite two guests.

ROTARY CLUB SENDS MR. MASTERS LETTER

Rotary Expresses Thanks For
Co-operation of Central in
Father-Son Dinner

A letter received last week by Mr. Masters expressed the thanks of the Rotary Club for the co-operation of Central High School in the Father and Son Dinner given at the high school Wednesday, November 14. There were 300 present at the dinner, many of whom were Central boys. Ralph Barris spoke to the assembly, and the Central Band aided in the program.

The letter to Mr. Masters states: Please accept the thanks of the Rotary Club and the November Group for the entertainment given us at the Central High School on Wednesday evening, November 14.

The dinner and service was very good and the Orchestra and use of the gymnasium very much appreciated.

Ralph Barris was certainly a credit to your school.

Yours very truly,

Ira A. Jones,
Chairman, November Group.

HOLD TRYOUTS FOR DECLAMATORY TEAM

Tryouts for the Declamatory Contest were held last night after school in the auditorium. More than one hundred students tried out for places.

The following divisions were represented: Drama, Comedy, Oratory, Extempore Speaking, and Story-telling. The tryouts were very good. Winners will be announced this week.

Last year Central High School won first place in three of the divisions of the District Championship race, and first place in Oratory in this state.

ERNESTINE DUNAWAY WINS FIRST PRIZE OF TEN DOLLARS IN LATENSER SONG CONTEST

Ernestine Dunaway was announced winner of the Latenser Song Contest, Friday morning at the big Rialto Mass Meeting for the Central-Tech game. The prize was a check for ten dollars from Mr. Frank Latenser. The prize winning song is as follows:

(To the Tune of Marcheta)

Oh Central, Oh Central,
We love you, we serve you,
Our hearts will be true evermore,
We know that the honor of fair play
and squareness
Will make us the school at the fore.
In losing, in winning,
We're with you Old Central
Each day finds us nearer our goal,
We hold up your standards,
We'll fight to the finish
Oh Central, we're yours heart and soul.

Runners up for the prize were Richard Cole, Bessie Lipp and Kathryn Douglas, as announced by Mr. Latenser. It was discovered, in judging, that there were over eighty songs turned in. Of these, 29 were by boys and 49 by girls. Forty-six different tunes were used and twenty-two of those were "Last Night on the Back Porch." Twenty-one of those were written by girls. "Yes, We Have no Bananas" was used twelve times for a basis.

Last year's winner, Clarice Vance, was summoned to the stage by Mr. Latenser, and her prize winning song was sung by the entire mass meeting. For the past two years, Mr. Latenser has instigated these song contests in order to keep up the spirit in Central. He is one of our most ardent and interested boosters outside of school.

DEBATING SQUAD HOLDS MEETING

Senior Debaters Are Divided
Into Eight Groups Of
Four Persons Each

GROUPS ELECT CAPTAINS

At the meeting of the senior debate squad held last Tuesday, the squad was divided into eight groups each consisting of four or five members. Each of the groups has a captain who arranges meetings of the group and overlooks the work generally.

Captains are Appointed

The captains appointed were: Group I, Gladys Reynolds; Group II, James Hoyle; Group III, Morgan Meyers; Group IV, David Sher; Group V, Olive Williams; Group VI, David Fellman; Group VII, Sam Minkin; and Group VIII, Mary Claire Johnson.

These captains will be responsible for their groups and will pick a team of three persons from the group to represent it in the debate try-outs which will be held next week.

The debate try-outs this year will be held as a series of debates between the various groups. Those making the best showing in the squad debates will have the opportunity of representing the school in the first debate of the season, which is the one with Council Bluffs, December 18.

Freshmen Squad also divided

The freshman squad has also been divided into groups of four or five under captains. The captains of the freshman groups are: Group I, Elizabeth Boyd; Group II, Elizabeth Halsey; Group III, Lea Rosenblatt; Group IV, Luther Munson; and Group V, Robert Lampman.

The freshmen will probably have the opportunity of debating with freshman teams from other high schools later in the year. Until that time the work will be much like that of the senior squad.

SPANISH CLUB ELECTS NEW VICE-PRESIDENT

Club Elects Durant Rice To Fill Vacancy Left By
Edna Norre

Durant Rice was elected vice-president of the Spanish Club at a meeting in Room 235 Tuesday, November 20, to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Edna Norre. The colors and flower of the Spanish Club were selected. An initiation committee was chosen and a merit system was discussed.

Colors Chosen

The members of the club decided to take red and yellow, the colors of the Spanish flag, as their colors, and the red rose, the Spanish flower, as their flower.

Initiation Committee

Durant Rice, Edna Norre and Inez Kernan were appointed to make initiation plans for the members who were not initiated last time. A merit system of giving prizes to senior members who should attend every meeting and take part in all the club activities was discussed.

The program which had been arranged was postponed until the next meeting. The members ended the meeting by singing America in Spanish.

NEBRASKA STATE OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD AT LINCOLN FOR THIS WEEK END

TYPYST CLUB ELECTS
ALBERT PRESIDENT

Fifty-Three Members Are
Present and Adopt
Constitution

Edward Albert was elected president of the Central Typist Club at the first meeting last Tuesday. McGrew Harris was chosen vice-president; Alice Bondesson, recording secretary; Helen Johnston, corresponding secretary; and Jack Kerschner, treasurer.

The fifty-three members adopted the article of the constitution concerning officers which had been drawn up by Richard Cole, Morgan Myers, Albert Rood, Miss Burke, Miss Bothwell, and Miss Stewart.

Many of the members hold certificates in typewriting and some of them have won awards in district contests. The purpose of the club is improvement in speed and accuracy, sponsoring of district and state contests, and school contests among novice, junior, and champion typists.

The three typewriting teachers, Miss Burke, Miss Bothwell, and Miss Stewart are sponsors.

GIRL CHUM REMEMBERS MISS DUDLEY BY GIFT

Gift Of Fourteen Hundred
Dollars To Finance
Trip Abroad

"My lasting friendship with Miss Eleanor Havens, of Leavenworth, Kansas, is the reason for her wonderful gift to me. Her father was a boyhood chum of my father," stated Miss Dudley, one of Central's most popular English teachers, when she was questioned concerning Miss Havens' gift of over fourteen hundred dollars, to be used for a long dreamed of trip abroad.

Miss Dudley, slight, radiant-eyed, beamed when she told of her enduring friendship, of a quality belying the contested theory that true friendship is impossible between women.

"But as for my plans," she continued, "they are very indefinite. I wish to see England more than any other country, for it is one related to us in blood and history more than any other. Then, too, my work in English literature has fostered my desire to see every nook and cranny of the old place."

"However, I do not think that I will go next year, for I have heard rumors of a plan to have a meeting of the representatives of England's colonists there at the time. Naturally, the place will be overcrowded, restricting leisurely enjoyment."

"I prefer not to go with a company of tourists, for then you only see the people of the hotels, slighting historic places. I want to see everything, see it slowly, absorbing the life and atmosphere of the country and its people."

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS HAS FINE PROGRAM

"La Poupee," A French Play
Presented To Members
Of Club

"La Poupee," a short French play, was presented by Le Cercle Francais at its meeting in Room 215 Friday afternoon. Other features of the program were the singing of French songs and the reading of French anecdotes, proverbs, and riddles.

Play Great Success

The parts in the play were taken by Beth Cole and Jack Kerschner, Beth as the keeper of a toy shop and Jack as a poor customer. The audience agreed that both did very well.

Jack was also prominent in the program as pianist and singer.

Knowledge of French is Tested
The club members' understanding of French was shown by their speed in translating proverbs and answering riddles read by Elizabeth Paffenrath. There was great competition as to who should be first to answer.

Short French anecdotes were read by Martha Dox and Lillian Holloway.

FACULTY MEMBERS ARE ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Between ninety and one hundred lady members of the faculty were entertained at a dinner on November 20 at 6 o'clock in the First Central Congregational Church.

The hostesses were the Misses Oliver, Fulton, Isaacson, Mueller, Burns, Adams, Anderberry, Lane, Holmes, and Mrs. Bauguess. The purpose of this royal entertainment was that new teachers might meet and become better acquainted with the other members of the faculty.

There were nine tables, each of which was decorated in autumn colors, nut cups, and candles. The four-course turkey dinner was most enticing and was enjoyed by all guests.

Before the dinner Mrs. Pitts lead in "Omaha" and congratulated the faculty on how royally they sang. After the feast all talked and visited with one another.

STUDENT CLUB GIRLS MAKE TOY ANIMALS FOR INDIAN MISSION

Discuss Carnival and Plan To Send Thanksgiving Cards To Old Peoples' Home

REPRESENTATIVE TALKS

All kinds of animal toys, monkeys, cows, parrots, and elephants were made by the Student Club girls at a meeting held last Thursday at the Y. W. C. A. for Indian children in a South Dakota mission school. A short business meeting was held followed by singing under the direction of Miss Hatch, Girls' Work Secretary.

Real Toys Manufactured

Dorothy Brown, chairman of the Service Committee, superintended the making of the toys. She was assisted by Miss Autumn Davies, who is a well-known expert in the manufacturing of toys. The girls were divided into groups. Part of the girls drew the animals while others cut them out. The animals were retraced on beaver boards and then cut out with tiny saws used for the purpose. These toys will be Christmas gifts for Indian children in South Dakota. Five cents was collected from each girl to pay the expense of shipping.

Business Meeting Is Success

Lillian Hollaway, vice-president of the Student Club, presided over the meeting. She urged all the girls to send Thanksgiving cards to the folks at the Old Peoples' Home.

"Some of those folks haven't any relatives at all, and you can imagine how happy they would be to receive a Thanksgiving card and to think that at least one person remembered them. It would be a real Thanksgiving for them."

Pamphlets on the Near East Relief were distributed. These pamphlets emphasized Golden Rule Sunday, December 2, and encouraged simple meals on that day so that the rest could be given for the Near East Relief Fund.

Ruth Williard was elected sophomore representative of the Inner Council.

Carnival Boosted

Ruth Williard gave a short talk on the carnival which will be held at the Y. W. C. A. Saturday, December 8, from three in the afternoon to eleven at night.

There will be take-offs on everything in school as the Rufnex, the regiment, and the study halls. There will be a shooting gallery and an oracle.

Three girls who own and can play a ukelele are needed in the carnival. They can sign with Miss Parker in Room 149.

HEARS CENTRAL YELLS WRITES TO PRINCIPAL

Mr. Walter Mittel, a resident of Sank City, Wisconsin, heard the yells given from the Woodmen of the World broadcasting station Friday, November 16. His letter to Mr. Masters is as follows:

"Kindly inform the members of your football team that the high school yell given from the studio of WOAW was heard at Sank City, Wisconsin, and we hope that they beat Lincoln. Respectfully,
"Mr. Walter J. Mittel.

"BEAT TECH" SLOGAN OF BUREAU DURING WEEK

The Speakers' Bureau was boosting loyally for Central last week when each member on making a motion or rising to speak was requested to repeat the slogan, "Beat Tech."

Situations both amusing and interesting came up as a result, and the customary formality of parliamentary law practice was eased somewhat by the spirit of enthusiasm aroused.

Several victims of forgetfulness suffered by severe and binding punishments, the most stringent being the requirement to repeat "Beat Tech" any number of specified times in every different way possible.

TEACHER TELLS CLUB OF FRENCH CUSTOMS

Girls Will Give Program For Old Peoples' Home—Plan Thanksgiving Feast

"One of the most celebrated days in France is St. Catherine's Day when all the unmarried girls of twenty-five don certain bonnets and go promenading the streets," stated Miss Bess Bozell, French teacher in Central High School, to the Lininger Travel Club last Wednesday in Room 235, concerning her visit in France. Final plans for the Thanksgiving basket and for the program at the Old Peoples' Home were made and an interesting program was given.

Girls Give Program

A program will be given by the club girls at the Old Peoples' Home on the Fontenelle Boulevard, Friday after school. A dance in costume by Ruth Gordon, accompanied by Hazel Tattman at the piano; a piano solo by Romaine Dickinson; a reading by Marion Kuony; popular numbers by Florence Seward; and song numbers by several of the members belonging to the Glee Club under the direction of Miss Howe, sponsor of the club will make the program a live number.

Club Gives Basket

The club has secured the name of a family from Miss Pinckney to whom a Thanksgiving basket made up from contributions from the members will be presented.

A piano solo was given at this meeting by Lucille Gannon. The program committee for the next meeting is Alberta Elsasser, Fredaricka Campbell, and Dorothy Milliard.

CENTRAL HIGH TEACHER RECEIVES BLUE QUILT

The quilt donated by the Major Isaac Sadler chapter of the D. A. R. which was on exhibition at the Overseas' league carnival, "A Night in Paris," at the auditorium has been awarded to Miss Bertha Neale, English teacher at Central.

"I haven't yet seen the quilt," said Miss Neale, "but I know it is blue. That pleases me because blue is my favorite color."

MISSIONARY TALKS TO ECONOMICS CLASS

Tells Of Chinese Guild System And Lack Of Railroads In That Country

"If you were to go to Shanghai, you would find modern factories, and close by, hand toil," said Mrs. Anna Lane Wilson, a visiting missionary from China and formerly a teacher in the natural science department, in her talk to Miss Davies' third hour economics class last Tuesday. "China is now going through the turmoil that results from the introduction of modern machinery."

The Guild System

"There is no better place to study conditions than in China," said Mrs. Wilson. "Great economists say that China has a better economic system than the West for they retain the guild system. The guild is a political as well as an economic system which controls law and labor. However, the guild is breaking down; China is getting the factory fever. The rug industry is increasing by leaps and bounds. Peking is full of tiny shops."

Lack of Railroads

Mrs. Wilson said that the famine in China a few years ago resulted not from the lack of resources nor of man power but from the poor transportation facilities. "China is full of natural resources. In a certain region in China there is more coal than in Pennsylvania, but the people near by are suffering from cold. Why doesn't China have plenty of railroads? The European countries are fairly jumping at each others throats in their eagerness to build them. China has not responded to their offers. In America it was the railroads that opened up the country. So will railroads open up China."

SLIDE RULE CLASS HOLDS MEETING

The slide rule class met Monday, November 19, in room 119 for further instruction in the handling of numbers on their slide rules. These people are becoming very enthusiastic over their new slide rules, which materially shorten multiplication and division. With practice the problems put to the pupils can be done four or five times as fast with the slide rules as with ordinary methods. The use of the slide rule is fast coming into use in engineering and in business offices. In room 219 is an eight-foot slide rule on which the science of numbers is demonstrated.

CHEMISTRY TEACHER KEEPS UNIQUE BOOK

Dr. Senter, well known Chemistry teacher at Central High School, for twenty-six years has indulged in a unique hobby, that of keeping a record of every pupil who has come under his instruction at Central. 2,840 pupils are entered in what he calls his "little book."

Whenever he sees a clipping or a picture of any of his former pupils, he pastes it on the page of the student it concerns. In this way he keeps up an active interest in all of his students of years gone by. A visit by any of his former scholars is always welcome by Doctor Senter. At present he is teaching eighty-one pupils the elements of Chemistry.

GREENWICH VILLAGERS HEAR MAURICE BLOCK

Lectures On Foran Exhibit—Sketches Show Skill In Draftsmanship

The Greenwich Villagers were honored last week by a lecture given from the Foran Art Exhibit in the Omaha Public Library by Maurice Block. This exhibit was put in the Omaha Public Library by the Carnegie Institute, and Mr. Block impressed upon the Greenwich Villagers how fortunate they were that Omaha should get such an exceptionally fine exhibit. Jean Foran is a French artist who is now 70 years old, and this exhibit represents a great part of his life. His sketches, of which there are a great many in this exhibit, are different from his finished product in that they are devoted to showing skill in draftsmanship, while his finished products subordinate this aim in the portrayal of thought.

A revised version of Milton's Poems is in the making. One of the suggested changes in the replacement of the phrase "Trip the light, fantastic toe" by "Do a little jazz."

REFERENCE BOOKS READY FOR USE

The five reference books for the Chemical Contest have arrived and are now ready for the students to use.

The books are: The Life of Pasteur by Vallery-Radot, The Future Independence and Progress of American Medicine in the Age of Chemistry, Discovery—The Spirit and Service of Science by R. A. Gregory, The Riddle of the Rhine by Victor Lefebvre, and Creative Chemistry by Edwin E. Slosson.

Dr. William M. Barr, Union Pacific consulting chemist, has been named contest chairman of this state.

OPEN LETTER TO SENIORS

We have been advised that the Senior Class is about to decide upon their Class photographs. When you are called upon to vote, please bear in mind the following five reasons why The Heyn Studio can handle your Class work to the best advantages:

First: During the past forty-two years The Heyn Studio has made the majority of the Senior photographs. We know just what is required in a photographic way to produce a high class and uniform Annual.

Second: A reputation for making the highest quality of portraiture.

Third: An organization of twelve experts to serve you, thus insuring you the work of Specialists as well as promptness of delivery.

Fourth: The finest of materials and exclusive folders in new designs are used.

Fifth: A radical reduction in price without curtailing service is being made. We are reducing our $7.00 per dozen photographs to $5.00 and our $5.00 per dozen photographs to $3.50. Besides this, we are going to furnish the Register as many glossy photographs without additional charge as are needed for the Annual.

In order to have a fine appearing Annual, you must consider Quality, Uniformity and Service. With forty-two years of successful photography behind The Heyn Studio, we believe you will agree we are the logical Photographers to handle your Class work.

We have been consistent advertisers in The Register and have supported all school activities. We're "for you" first, last, always.

May we have your support and vote at your Class meeting? Rest assured that The Heyn Studio will, as in the past, do everything in its power to make your Annual a huge success.

Very cordially yours,

Central Loses To Tech

DOPE COMPLETELY UPSET; MAROONS WIN HARD-FOUGHT GAME, SCORE 15-0

Central Team Not Working Good—Gives Technical City Championship and Chance For State Title—No Outstanding Players

A crowd of over ten thousand people watched the Purple and White gridsters reluctantly yield their chances for the state title to the heavier Tech team, by a score of 15-0. This gives Tech the city title and possibly the state.

The Central team did not seem to be in their usual fighting form. The line was unable to hold the Tech men, and their "beef trust" line broke through every time. "Blue" Howell, who was playing with an injured leg, failed to make his usual spectacular plays. Marrow, although he played well, didn't make any of the long end runs which were so prominent in the Lincoln game. Thomas, however, broke loose a couple of times for good gains.

Swanson Dropkicks

Captain "Marty" Swanson of the Tech team proved their strongest player. He made the first score of the game early in the second quarter by a successful dropkick from the thirty-five yard line. It cleared the cross by a small margin of about two inches.

Aerial work was not taken advantage of to a very great extent by either team. Central completed but one pass out of six, while Tech completed three out of six. Central's total gain on scrimmage slightly exceeded Tech's. Their total yardage on punts also exceeded that of their opponents considerably.

Central Near Scoring

The Purple came very near scoring in the second quarter. After several good gains the ball had been advanced to the twelve-yard line. The team had four downs to make it in and would probably have succeeded but for the ending of the half. This was practically the only time they were anywhere near the goal line.

Tech's two touchdowns were made in the fourth quarter. The first resulted from a twenty-five yard pass, Charnquist to Zust. A little later Charnquist intercepted a pass from Howell to Percival and raced fifty yards for the second touchdown.

The lineup:

Central	Pos.	Technical
Percival	L.E.	Powell
Lawson	L.T.	Doarn
May	L.G.	Oberg
Oliver	C.	Pierce
Greenberg	R.G.	Short
Thomas	R.T.	Lucas
Gorton	R.E.	Garvey
Egan	Q.B.	Charnquist
Marrow	L.H.	Swanson
Howell	R.H.	Zust
Robertson	F.B.	Helm

Officials: Referee—Jones, Umpire—Hoadley, Head Linesman—Carey.

Substitutions: Central—Lepicier for May, Muxen for Robertson, Olds for Lawson. Tech—Swartz for Swanson, Swanson for Garvey.

Game by Quarters	1	2	3	4	Total
Central	0	0	0	0	0
Tech	0	3	0	12	15

This was the first year "Blue" has been able to play against Tech. Two years ago he was out on account of his studies. Last year he was injured in an automobile accident just before the game, and even this year he played under difficulties, having hurt his leg in the game with Lincoln.

IS CENTRAL GOING TO WIN NEXT TIME?

Tech has pep. That's why they won. At the game Central was altogether outclassed as far as school spirit and enthusiasm are concerned. We congratulate Tech on their organized cheering and display of school spirit. Cheering has a psychological effect on a team. The Maroon team was no stronger than the Purple, but they had the entire student body behind them. A display of school spirit and pep won the Nebraska-Notre Dame game. That kind of backing will put the old fight into any team.

As Mart Thomas said "There are two games going on, one between the teams on the field, the other between the two groups in the grandstand. When the game in the grandstand is lost, the other usually follows."

Let us get behind the cheer leaders. Let us have an organized campaign with a pep committee to control the pent up spirit in Central. Let us show the members of the team that we are with them and that we always will be with them whether they are winning or losing. We aren't down on them because they lost. We are going to back them, to boost them and to push them on to victory in basketball.

HOCKEY TEAMS HOLD GOOD PRACTICE GAME

Teams have been chosen by Miss Bennet for the hockey tournament. Both squads enjoyed a brisk work out and practice game at 32nd and Dewey last Wednesday afternoon. A championship game will be contested next Tuesday. Names have not yet been decided upon, but the captains are Eudora Jones and Ruth Stewart.

In Wednesday's skirmish Eudora's aggression was snowed under by Ruth's pellet slammers to the count of 4-0.

The contest was not one sided, however. Several times the losers forced the sphere into within two inches of the opponent's goal, only to be shoved back by the heavy backs. Neither side showed especially good team work, but the backfield and forward line of the winners' squad played in fine co-ordination.

The lineup of the teams as they will compete next Tuesday is as follows:

Ruth's Team

Ruth Richardson	Center Forward
Margaret Foley	Right Inside
Lois Sweet	Right Wing
Lois Reichenberg	Left Inside
Loise Sweet	Left Wing
Victoria Kundl	Center Half Back
Ruth Romstedt	Right Half Back

Eudora's Team

Eudora Jones	Center Forward
Dorothy Tennant	Right Inside
Burdine Jones	Right Wing
Vivian Wrenn	Left Inside
Ada Allen	Left Wing
Helena Bonordon	Center Half Back
Lila Showalter	Right Half Back
Fern McGinty	Left Half Back
Ruth Stewart	Right Full Back
Hazel Showalter	Left Half Back
Ruth Helen Walker	Left Full Back

 Central, 52; Beatrice, 0.
 Central, 20; Kearney, 13.
 Central, 27; Lincoln, 3.
 Central, 0; Technical, 16.
 Games Won, 6; Games lost, 2.

HOT STUFF

Creighton has lost one of their best basketball men, Willis Skelley, who has gone to Technical, thereby increasing the strength of Tech's squad.

One of the former Wesleyan University coaches said that "Blue" Howell plunged like a veteran University man. We had known that for a long time but we're glad that others are finding it out.

It has been shown that other teams like to come up against a real team. Central received an invitation to play on Thanksgiving Day at Lansing, Mich. The offer had to be turned down, however, on account of the distance and other considerations.

The second team game with the South Seconds has been postponed from last Friday. It will be played today at 32 and Dewey. In an earlier game of the season, Central Scrub defeated them 7-0. This time the score is going to be tripled. The Seconds have been doing good work all season. Better get out and see the game. It promises to be a good one.

It is probable that the star Freshman team will play a game with the Papillion bunch on Thanksgiving Day. The game will be played at Papillion.

SPORTORIALS

The prospects for this year's cage quintet is as bright as of 'Sol himself! With five letter men rarin' to go there seems to be no reason why Central shouldn't cop the state laurels.

Percival, Gerelick, Lawson, Marrow, and Robertson—all stars on last year's team—will most likely be the backbone on Coach Hill's combination, while Howell, Tollander, and Church, former sub men, will also be back.

Nuf said! the only thing lacking to make these cagers the scrappiest, pluckiest, and most invincible and insuperable team Central ever had would be a deficiency of school spirit—and by the looks of things that won't be lacking. Let's go—shoot a basket!

Sideline critics never take the work of the bench warmers into consideration, all of the praise going to the first team. The gold jerseyed men came out every night to be kicked and knocked around for the glory of the Purple clad warriors. They were mighty glad to do it though, because they knew they were working for the honor of old Central. Their efforts were not in vain.

The first team line has received no credit for their untiring blocking, smashing, and opening holes for the backs to make the gains to put the school at the top of the list. The halves and full back have been written up big in the newspapers, but the work of the line was hardly ever noticed. Why not give a little of credit to the line and to the bench warmers as they deserve a great deal of praise for their work?

Now that the football season is over, we turn our attention to the next sport—basketball. Why not start the season right by turning out one thousand strong for the very first game.

Basketball does not arouse the same amount of pep that Football does, but it should be supported.

Every one saw what the team, plus a large crowd, plus plenty of yells did to Lincoln; try the same combination at every basketball game and see what happens to every team that we play this year.

INTERVIEW OBTAINED WITH NOTED ENGLISH SPORTSMAN; CONSIDERS FOOTBALL TOO RUDE

Editor's Note: The REGISTER has been unusually fortunate this week in securing an interview with the Rt. Hon. Rollo Mann, MP. ("M.P.," he states, "does not mean Military Police), son of Sir Lee Mann, famous British sportsman and Croquet champion of the world. This was secured at great expense both of time and money. We are producing as nearly as possible his honor's delightful accent. The interview which was obtained immediately after the Lincoln game, is given below:

"I'm rilly too shocked to give you an intuhview so soon aftuh the game. Such an exhibition of rudeness I nevah befaw saw not even among owah lowuh claws in the deah old homeland in theh vulguh spawts.

"In the fust place, theh wuh some bally beggahs who stand on what I believe you call the edge—aw line, who didn't even have the common decency to get out of the way when one of the Lincoln chappies would run t'awds them. In fact the vulgarians even did their best to get in the way and trip them.

"But still wuhss was the way that the othuh (instead of going back when they realized that the boobs objected to their passing) tried to go around them, but they seemed the model of cutesy compared to the beasts in the

"WILDCATS" CAGE CITY CHURCH CHAMPIONSHIP

The "Wildcats" of the Hanscom Park M. E. Church won the Church Novice cage championship of the city last Thursday at the "Y" when they defeated Our Savior Lutherans by a score of 18-17. A rally in the last few minutes of play put the "Wildcats" ahead. The "Wildcats" were represented by Ralph Church, Porter Forcade, Eddie Wellman, Lorin Brain, and Edwin Edmonds, all Central fellows. They should all prove good material for the Purple cage crew.

"They actually bumped into theh opponents on puhpose often knocking theh heads into the othuh chappies' abdomens and causing extreme pain. The one whom the crowd called "Blue" was especially rough and he had a nawsty habit of thrusting his hand into the Lincolns' countenances and pushing them quite violently in the face, so violently, indeed, as to cause them to seat them-upon the eahth. I reahly grew quite faint when he did that. I did not think such babbuhism existed in this day.

"Theh wuh three beggahs in white troushs theh too. It was quite evident that one of them, who was carrying a stick, was endeavoring to mark the exact spot where any casualty might occur; but I was entiawly unable to make out what the othuh two wuh doing save that they shouted terribly at the playuhs and occasionally one of them would lead everyone back the way they had just come. It seemed aw'ly inefficient to me. Why did he not let them stay when they wuh in the fuhst place instead of making them traverse the distance once moah.

"The one thing, howevuh, which remained incomprehensible to me was just what in the world they wuh doing with the ball."

Brown—"If you are good at figures, answer this. I buy a Ford for $150 paying $25 down and the rest at $20 per month. How soon would I pay for the jitney?"

Smith—"Five years."

Brown—"You don't know your arithmetic."

Smith—"No, but I know you."
