CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL, OMAHA, NEBR., FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1934

IN ROOM 149 REGISTERS FIVE CENTS MAY BE PURCHASED FOR

Feature More Acts in 1934 Presentation

Entire Program of Eleven Acts Announced With Galaxy of Stars

REHEARSAL MONDAY

Eleven acts, instead of the customary ten, will be presented in the twentieth annual Road Show to be given March 15, 16, and 17 in the auditorium, according to a statement made Monday by Norman Ogilvie '34, manager. Dress rehearsal this year will be held Monday, and a trial run will be held Tuesday in order to make the production run smoothly.

Band Opens Program

The band under the direction of Henry Cox will introduce the program. Their performance will be followed by a tap dancing routine entitled "Collegiate Variations" which is supervised by Mrs. Glee Meier. Dancers are Elaine Bredin, Dorothy Camel, Lottie Rips, Genevieve Scalzo, all '34, Betty Lipp, Ruby Rogers, Bernice Vancecek, all '36, and Beth Howley '37. Music will be supplied by Lois Farber '34, pianist, and an orchestra.

The next act will be the C.O.C. drama, "You Can't Beat Fate," directed by Mrs. Doris Hahn. Robert Bonekemper has replaced Frank Sears in the part of Mac, the hardened criminal. Properties for both C.O.C. plays will be handled by Dick Clarke and Howard Drew.

A string quartet sponsored by Mr. Cox will offer "Moments Musicales" as the next number. The quartet is composed of Myron Cohen '35, first violin; Wallace Cleaveland '35, second violin; Beth Campbell '35, viola; and Margaret Saxton '34, cello. Their selections will be "Moment Serieux" by Beethoven-Cox and "Moment Joyeux" by Arensky-Cox.

The fifth act will be a ballet dance entitled "The Silver Tree" which is also under the supervision of Mrs. Meier. Elaine Holmstrom '34 will be the accompanist. Miss Chloe Stockard and Miss Mary Angood will design the costumes.

Have Trumpet Quartet

Following the ballet dance, a trumpet quartet, "Fanfare Four," will play. Members of the quartet are Norval Ewing '34, John Rushlau '35, Edward Clark '37, and Elbert Cajacob '33.

The Crack Squad, supervised by Miss Julia Carlson, will close the first half of the production. Members of the squad are Fred Reimers '34, Paul Hershman, Bill Cunningham, Bob Moose, Fred Smith, Merrill Rohrbough, Bob Lundgren, Tom Rees, Bob Rogers, Dave Livermore, Bernard Johnston, Bill O'Brien, Jim Field, Jim Buchanan, Julian Ball, all '35, Leonard Goldner, Bill Stelzer, and Howard Olson, all '36.

Centralites Write to Students in France

Names Are Taken From Bureau at Nashville, Tennessee

Several of Miss Bess Bozell's French students have started a correspondence club with students in France. The names of these students are drawn from the Bureau of International Correspondence, Peabody institution, Nashville, Tenn.

Marylouise Jones '35 is exchanging correspondence with a French addict of ping-pong. Peggy Kennedy '35 corresponds with a person born in Algiers whose favorite pastime is music. Peggy declares that all the French boys request a picture of their correspondents.

Josephine Rubnitz '35 corresponds with a 16 year old French girl who has been studying English for two years. The girl sent Josephine a hand-painted New Year's card and some postcards of French scenery. In one of her letters she inclosed a huge tuberculosis stamp.

"The correspondence plan is a good thing because the students in America learn about the activities in France, and compare them with those in their own country. It serves to establish a feeling of friendliness between the countries," declared Miss Bozell.

DARRELL CHURCHILL

The president of the 1934 graduating class is Darrell Churchill, former business manager of the Register, and president of Student Control. Churchill won over Bill Brookman and Joe Whalen in elections held recently.

Elect Remaining Officers of June Graduating Class

Whalen, Nilsson, Payne, Nall, Potter Receive Posts; Form Permanent Cabinet

Joe Whalen was chosen vice president; Henrietta Nilsson, secretary; George Payne, treasurer; and Christine Nall and Stanley Potter, sergeants at arms in elections for senior class officers held Friday, according to an announcement made at the Tuesday senior meeting by Darrell Churchill, president.

Whalen has been active in athletics playing four years of football and three of basketball and baseball, and is a member of the O club. He is also chairman of Miss Mary Parker's division of the senior home room.

Henrietta Nilsson's activities include her positions as president of the Central Colleens and secretary to the colonel. She is also chairman of the secretaries group of the Student Control, a monitor in the library, and a member of the Lininger Travel club.

Payne has gone out for football and basketball every season. He was chosen all-city quarterback this year. He is captain of Company C.

Christine Nall is a member of Student Control and has been especially prominent in the art department. Potter is also a captain in the regiment and a member of the Speakers' bureau.

The officers will form the permanent cabinet together with the president and a chairman and one other officer from each home room division.

"I believe that these officers are very good ones," Miss Jessie Towne, assistant principal, declared, "and that the senior class should have a very successful year."

Miss Angeline Tauchen's business training classes visited the new Union Pacific train last Wednesday.

Largest Part Of Expenses For Football

Single Activity Has Taken $1,350 From Student Association Fund

TOTAL PROFIT $62.46

EDITOR'S NOTE.—This is the third of a series of articles concerning the financial conditions of the Omaha public schools. The statistics in this article are reprinted from charts compiled by Andrew Nelsen, who is in charge of statistics and reports of the Omaha Board of Education.

By BILL ROSENBAUM and HAROLD FINKEL

Football is the largest item of expense in the Student Association ticket fund. The expense of the 1933-34 football season amounted to $1,351.90. This expense is larger in comparison with other activities because of the large number of players on the teams, and because of the high cost of football equipment. The following article is an itemized statement of this cost.

The $1,351.90 includes such expenditures as payment for new equipment, repairing of old equipment, salaries for football officials, bus transportation to neighboring cities, medical supplies, and cleaning of uniforms.

Equipment was the main item of expense. Due to a forseen increase in the price of all football equipment, and a large discount offered for cash at that time, the high school Board of Control purchased necessary uniforms in March, 1933. The total amount spent for equipment at this time was $677.

To have enough uniforms, it was necessary to repair all of the old useable uniforms. Many of them were still in excellent condition after being repaired. A company which specializes in rebuilding football equipment remakes all of the old uniforms. For this service, $69.49 was paid.

For cleaning of equipment, the cost was $213.95. Little cleaning is done during the football season, but following the season, it is necessary (Continued on Page 3, Column 1)

Central Debate Team To Enter City Meet

Katherine Stone, Claire Miller to Drake Tournament

The annual city debate tournament is to be held at Central March 22 and 23, according to an announcement made this week by Miss Sarah Ryan, debate coach. Central will enter one team in the tournament this year.

Katherine Stone '35 and Claire Miller '34 left Wednesday to attend the annual Drake invitation debate tournament sponsored by Drake university. The tournament will be held March 8, 9, and 10, at Des Moines, Iowa. Miss Ryan and Marjorie Maag '36 will accompany the debaters on the trip.

The debate team has also been invited recently to attend the Doane invitation tournament sponsored by Doane college. Miss Ryan is undecided as to whether the debaters will accept this invitation.

Miss Towne Likes Books, Charlie Chaplin; Is not Frightened by Bugs

Startling Facts Revealed in Expose of Central Dean of Girls

By VIRGINIA HAINES

Because the low-down on "Zippy" Hill was so enthusiastically (!) received last week, it was decided to reveal more secrets—only this time the victim is none other than Miss Jessie Towne, assistant principal and dean of girls.

She always uses Palmolive soap, and she drives a Ford. Miss Towne reads all kinds of books and hates spinach.

She loves rain, always buys small hats, and never wears gloves in the summer time.

She is never happier than when she is painting. No, you're wrong—she doesn't paint pictures. She paints porches, walls, chairs, and tables with ordinary house paint, and thinks it's fun. She painted her own room green, because green is her favorite color.

Miss Towne is very much interested in Chinese paintings and isn't afraid of bugs. She never misses a Charlie Chaplin picture, but otherwise she very rarely goes to movies because they are "a nuisance."

A Cappella Choir Invited to Sing For Supervisors

National Music Supervisors to Hold Annual Conference at Chicago, Apr. 9

The Central High school a cappella choir has been invited to sing before the National Music Supervisors' conference in Chicago the week of April 9, according to Mrs. Carol Pitts, director of the choir.

Of the 112 members of the choir 77 have received permission from their parents to make the trip to Chicago. Mrs. Pitts and Mrs. Elsie Swanson, assistant director, will accompany the choir on the trip. Mr. Masters will also attend the concert in Chicago.

The choir is to leave Omaha Thursday morning, April 12, by special bus or train. They will sing Thursday afternoon before the students of the University High school of Iowa City at Memorial Union. Harry Newburn, principal of University High school, heard Central's choir while on a visit here recently and invited them to sing in his school. The choir will receive an honorarium at Iowa City to help defray expenses.

On Friday morning the choir will present their concert before the National Music Supervisors' conference at the Stevens hotel. The choir will remain in Chicago all day Friday and Saturday and will return to Omaha Sunday morning.

Another honor given the choir is the invitation extended by the National Music Supervisors' conference to broadcast over a national chain. Only four schools in the United States have been invited to broadcast, and the Central choir has been asked to represent the middle west. This broadcast will be given while the choir is in Chicago.

The choir is now working on several new numbers which will be used in the Chicago concert.

Miller Promoted to Business Manager

Daniel Miller '35 was named business manager of the Register by the Board of Publications recently to succeed Darrell Churchill '34. This is Miller's second semester of journalism. He was promoted to this position from circulation manager.

Pay Collection Much Larger

The pay collection of the Central library has grown so great the past semester that a third book case has been added to this department recently. All cases are now filled and new books are being purchased.

This case, a duplicate of the other two, was built by Mat Turner '37, Manual Training II, and Herbert Boyer '36, Manual Training IV. All three cases have been made under the supervision of Louis Bexten.

Underclassmen Urged to Help 1934 O-Book

Adams, Churchill, and Hansen Speak for Annual at Mass Meeting

PLEDGES CIRCULATED

An urgent appeal for underclassmen to support "not only our O-Book but also your O-Book" was made Wednesday morning by Darrell Churchill, senior class president, Edward Adams, chairman of the senior O-Book committee, and Kermit Hansen '35. The appeal was made before a joint mass meeting of Central High's 1,650 underclassmen. Fred Hill, assistant principal, presided and introduced the speakers.

"You hold the fate of the O-Book in your hands," Churchill said. "It absolutely must have the support of the underclassmen. Don't any one get the impression that this is a senior book. Of course they have their pictures in the front individually and you don't, but remember they pay three times as much for their publicity."

Explains Difficulties

Churchill also explained the difficulties of publishing annuals all over the country. "No Omaha High school is going to publish one this year, he said, and only four per cent of those who usually publish them in the United States, are going to in 1934. I think it would be a real achievement of the student body if, by cooperating and working, it could show that it can do what few high schools in the country can."

Adams told the students that "a precedent once broken, will make it much harder to get an annual next year, or the year after." He urged the underclassmen to back the seniors more than ever because higher printing prices necessitates a much greater circulation.

"Probably every one in this room now will have their picture taken for the O-Book," Hansen stated. "I know all of you will want to look at the pictures of the friends you know. We know that an O-Book is a good thing, and we must get behind this senior class project."

Pass Out Pledges

Pledges to be signed by seniors were passed out by their sponsors Wednesday, and were to be returned Thursday morning, signed or unsigned. Pledges to underclassmen were issued Thursday during home room, and were to be returned today.

Work on the O-Book, if the campaign is successful, will begin early next week if possible, said Churchill and Adams Wednesday.

Hart Receives 'A' in English at Chicago

William B. Hart '33 was one of the five students to make an A grade in a comprehensive English examination given to freshmen at the University of Chicago. Hart received a two year tuition scholarship to Chicago university last year, the largest ever offered by the university to a student from Central.

While at Central, Hart was business manager of the O-Book and Register.

Month Vacation Just a Fairytale

WE MOST humbly apologize to everybody: the freshmen, the sophomores, the juniors, and the seniors for raising their hopes and expectations last week. Now that we must rudely bring them down to earth, we apologize again. No, you are not going to get a month's spring vacation, my disillusioned classmates. Believe me, it hurts as much for me to tell you this as it does for you to hear it, but somehow, in the rush and flurry of editing this illustrious newspaper, somebody made an error.

There has been a noted increase in enrollment since last Friday's joyous announcement that vacation was to be from March 23 until May 2, but now all you greedy little students can just go back to your own schools, grin and bear it, and start unpacking your fishing tackle and tents, for we must humbly confess that vacation is from March 23 to April 2.

Famous Violinist Offers Concert

Recital Held March 15, 16, 17 by Nicholas Mavrikes for Minerva Cottage

Nicholas Mavrikes, often described as the "demon of the violin," will give a concert in the Hotel Rome auditorium for the benefit of the Minerva Cottage home for girls on March 14, 15, 16.

Alvin L. Schmoeger, general manager of the Musical Courier, national music publication, says of him, "It seemed that technical advancement had ceased with the passing of Liszt and Paganini, but I am happy to say that it has taken an American to carry it forward, and lead the field."

Young Mavrikes is as modest and unassuming as any other intelligent American boy of 16. He graduated from high school in New York with the highest honors, winning two gold medals for scholarship.

Through the generosity of an admirer, Mavrikes plays a genuine Joseph Guarnerius del Gesu violin once owned by the czar of Russia. It has been played by some of the greatest violinists in all European courts.

Gift Shop Exhibition Displays Student Art

New Arts-Gift Studio Operated by Former Centralites

Two Central High school alumni, Dick Watson '31 and Mortimore B. Watson '20, have open an art-gift studio at Thirty-third and Cuming street. Gifts for all occasions are being sold at the shop. A library is open to the public. There are two exhibit rooms in the studio where the art work from schools and other sources will be displayed.

This month, art-work of Central High school students will be exhibited. Designs for wall-paper and silk by Harold Tuchman '34, and Raymond Wendell and Dorothy Twiss, both '36, will be shown. Joyce Balantyne '36 will have an illustration for a children's story in the exhibition.

The following students will have pencil drawings of flower studies on display: Selma Berkowitz, Charlotte Bluettenback, Jane Gaughran, Carol Wigton, Mary Laura Vance, and Ed Mullen, all '34, and Katherine Stone '35. Mask designs by several alumni will also be shown.

Betty Tebbens '31 has been elected treasurer of the junior class at Grinnell college, Grinnell, Iowa.

ONE CENTRALITE ON REGISTER'S ALL-OMAHA FIVE

ED HORACEK ONLY PURPLE ELECTED; PREP PLACES TWO

Hanley Ed's Running Mate; Roh at Center; Thoma and Salyards Guards

'STOETZ' ON RESERVES

ALL-OMAHA TEAM
Forward...	John Hanley, Creighton
Forward...	Ed Horacek, CENTRAL
Center...	Roman Roh, Creighton
Guard...	Ronald Salyards, Technical
Guard...	Art Thoma, Benson
SECOND TEAM
Forward...	Waybright, Technical
Forward...	Churchich, South
Center...	Grimm, Benson
Guard...	Daley, Creighton
Guard...	Stoetzel, CENTRAL

One Central basketball player made the Register's all-Omaha team for 1934; this was Eddie Horacek, a junior, who has been the mainstay of the Purple scoring machine for the past two years.

John Hanley and Eddie Horacek were easily the outstanding forwards in the city. Those who would have furnished competition for these two either graduated at mid-year or became ineligible.

Horacek is the type of player who is at his best when the going is tough. Time and time again Eddie kept Central in the running by his timely field goals.

Roman Roh won the center position over Lloyd Grimm of Benson because of his wonderful team work and ability to garner field goals.

Art Thoma of Benson was unquestionably the best guard in Omaha this year. He was one of the main reasons for Benson's success.

Ronald Salyards is the choice for the other guard position. Bob Daley was a close runner-up but Salyard's steady defensive play wins him the post.

RUNNERS GO OUTSIDE

Rhoades Adds Speed to Papa's Protages; to Tech for Trial

With the arrival of warm weather, the cindermen went outdoors for their first real practice last Monday.

Chances for the city track pennant has been bolstered somewhat with the arrival of Walter Rhoades, Negro speedster.

Henry Rosenbaum and John Elliott, last year veterans, have reported for track.

Ousley, last year freshman relay star, is showing up well in the hurdles, and George Eltinge, teammate of Ousley, is expected to romp in with many points in the 440-yard dash.

Tryouts for the spring Central High Players' production, "Moonshine and Honeysuckle," a three-act play by Lula Vollmer to be presented in the Central High auditorium Friday, April 13, were held Tuesday and Wednesday after school in Room 140.

Finals in Register's Home Room Cage Tournament to be Played Tuesday

Five Purples On All-American '5'

For your benefit the sports staff of the Register presents the All-American basketball five chosen by the outstanding sports writers and coaches of the country.

- ALL-AMERICAN QUINT
- Horacek (Central) f
- Robertson (Central) f
- Gesman (Central) c
- Stoetzel (Central) g
- Elliott (Central) g

Horacek has been chosen as All-American forward for his ability to shoot with one eye blackened. He received a black eye in a game and then proceeded to score many field goals.

"Hacker" Gesman has been selected as the one to take care of the pivot post. Gesman has been a consistent hacker throughout the season.

For the guard positions, two men have been outstanding. They are "Lover" Stoetzel and "Pussy-Toe" Elliott. "Lover" has been a main cog in his girl's defense.

Something must have gone haywire with the wrestling squad in the intercity meet.

Coach Bexten placed three wrestlers in the finals of the intercity individual weight tournament held last week at Tech.

THREE GRAPPLERS LOSE IN FINALS

Vuylstek, Campagna, Troia Reach Finals of Intercity Tourney

Art Vuylstek, Purple 95-pounder, was a heavy favorite in his class, having been undefeated in all school competition this season.

Central was shut completely out of first place in either A or B divisions. Pattavina, 105-pounds, Campagna, 115-pounds, Troia, 125-pounds.

SEEMAN WINS BY FALL In Class B George Seeman, heavyweight, was the only man to win with a fall and a decision.

Despite the fact that Tech was awarded the wrestling crown by the intercity board of control.

Central took eight points to wind up next to the bottom.

WELL, now that the winter sport season is over, we ought to be saving some of that surplus energy for baseball and track.

The varsity cage squad certainly showed improvement in the North game last Friday. Most of the spectators had their "hearts in their mouths" in the final periods.

HALL OF FAME

EUGENE STOETZEL is the selected one this week. Gene wasn't considered as more than a sub at the beginning of the season but developed into THE outstanding guard on the Central varsity.

Something must have gone haywire with the wrestling squad in the intercity meet.

Coach Barnhill is surely proud of his second team who seem to have come up in the basketball world.

Make your plans for the O club dance here March 23. Plenty of fun and entertainment is promised for everyone.

It surely is funny the way these department stores can pick out the bargain customer.

Girls Place Third In Nebraska Free Toss Tournament

By shooting 64 baskets out of 81 chances, Central's girls made a score of 1.25 and placed third in the home court free throw basketball tournament sponsored by the Nebraska league of High School Girls' Athletic associations.

Less practice was given to the contest this year than ever before.

Central had the distinction of winning its first and last basketball games. On December 15 they opened the 1933-34 season with a surprise win over Abe Lincoln, 28 to 25.

Last Friday's game was almost a repetition of the previous embattling of the two teams, North leading at the half in both tilts.

The second canto was unexciting with both teams missing many shots.

At the very outset of the final period Horacek and Davidson put field goals through the hoop which, combined with Monksy's free throw, appeared to ice the game for the Eagles.

Those on the team this year were Betty Nolan, Jacqueline Reynolds, Ruth Kuehl, Esther Kuehl, Christa Ensminger, Dorothy Glasson, Madree Jackson, and Lucille Keeley.

Barnhill's Shooters Close Season With North Win, 19 to 14

Holding a comfortable lead throughout the whole game, Coach Barnhill's second team scored an easy win over the first place Viking reserves, 19 to 14, last Friday at North.

Central flashed ahead with a 5 to 2 lead at the first quarter and stayed ahead the rest of the game.

A well-spread offensive by the Eagles which gained four field goals kept the seconds in the front during the third canto.

The floor play during the last period was fast and furious as the Norsemen made a final effort to take the lead.

Irvin Yaffe, flashy point-getting forward, and Captain Sconce, guard, were easily the outstanding players for the reserves.

The game at North concluded the basketball season for the second team with a record of five wins and nine losses.

Central made a grand total of 229 points in 14 games for an average of 16 points to the game while its opponents were gathering 312 points.

Seniors Continue Victory Streak in Girl Cage League

Fighting desperately, the Sophomore basketballers were forced for the third time this season to bow to the league-leading Seniors.

With the Seniors holding a seven point lead at the beginning of the third quarter, the Sophomores staged a comeback with Lucille Keeley tossing in three baskets from the center of the floor.

The Junior-Freshmen game was one-sided throughout, with Esther Kuehl and Lucille Beranac tossing baskets alternately.

28 TEAMS IN HR CAGE TOURNAMENT ARE ELIMINATED

Sons of Italy Trim Cooks; Has Beens Win Two Games by Forfeit

H. R. 137 SHOW CLASS

Semi-finals in the home room basketball tournament were played this morning in Class B and last night in Class A. Only four teams out of the original 32 that have entered are still in the running.

The Has Beens met H. R. 140 this morning. The winner of this game will go to the finals, and the Sons of Italy meet the Aces to determine the other opponent.

ACES DEFEAT HR 131

The Sons of Italy advanced into the semi-finals by trouncing the highly-touted Cooks, 26 to 10.

The Has Beens advanced into the semi-finals by version of a forfeit from H. R. 341.

Now that the finals are reached there will be fine exhibitions of good basketball playing.
