'Sweethearts' Chosen For School Opera

Will Present Victor Herbert Opera; France, Hansen Take Leads Again

WILL SHOW 3 DAYS

Victor Herbert's opera "Sweethearts" will be presented on December 14, 15, and 16 by the music department of Central High under the direction of Mrs. Carol Pitts and Mrs. Elsie Swanson. Mary Jane France '35 as Sylvia has the girl's lead of the adopted daughter of an old Dutch laundress. This will be Mary Jane's fourth lead in Central operas. Kermit Hansen '35 will take the role of Prince Franz of Zilania. Hansen has also carried major roles in the three former operas.

The character leads will be taken by Bryce Bednar P.G. and Evelyn Danksy '35. Evelyn will take the part of the old Dutch laundress while Bednar plays her pretended husband who was to have come home from the wars. Both have taken part in former operas.

The minor love theme will be played by Joe Edwards '35 as the dashing lieutenant and Rebekah Morse '35 as the intriguing young French girl.

Donald Reiser '35, Max Barnett P.G., and Raymond Wendell '36 will represent an emotional Frenchman, a pomp Dutchman, and a one-track-minded Englishman, respectively.

Besides an adopted daughter, the laundress has six of her own little lasses. The daughters will be portrayed by Lydia Pohl, Janette Rohlf, Betty Ann Pitts, all '36; Betty Dewitt and Helen Allis, both '35, Dolly Bliss P.G.

Choruses have been chosen exclusively from the choir. Soldiers and peasants will be used to set the atmosphere of the opera.

In regard to the performance, Mrs. Swanson stated, "I know that it will be a real pleasure to see this opera. It will surely appeal to high school audiences. Many people have already asked us for tickets, for they are always anxious to see a Victor Herbert opera."

Committees Chosen For Honor Societies

Members of Organizations to Be Appointed in Second Term

Principal J. G. Masters recently finished compiling a list of teachers for the Junior and National Honor societies committees. Both organizations are for the encouragement of scholarship, character, leadership, and service to the school. Junior Honor society is composed of three chapters, Gamma for the juniors, Delta chapter for sophomores, and Epsilon for freshman. To be eligible for any of these chapters one must have at least 2 A's and no grade below B.

National Honor society, open only to seniors, was started 12 years ago through the efforts of Mr. Masters, and is now a nation-wide organization with 1,800 chapters and more than 75,000 members. To be eligible for the honor society a student must be in the upper quartile of the graduating class and be outstanding in his work. Appointments to these two societies are made in the second semester after mid-term report cards have been issued.

Members of these committees are, Junior Honor society: Miss Tillie Anderson, Miss Amanda Anderson, R. B. Bedell, Mrs. Edna Dana, Miss Mary E. Elliott, Miss Elsie Fisher, Fred Hill, Charles Justice, Miss Augusta Kibler, Miss Elizabeth Kiewit, Mr. Masters, Frank Rice, Mrs. Elsie Swanson, J. G. Schmidt, Miss Jesse Towne.

National Honor society faculty committee is composed of: Mr. Masters, chairman; Miss Irma Costello, Mrs. Bernice Engle, Ned Greenslit, F. H. Gulgard, Fred Hill, Mrs. Irene Jensen, Miss Myrna Jones, Miss Pearl Judkins, F. Y. Knapple, Miss Helen Lane, Miss Bertha Neale, Miss Mary Parker, Mrs. Anne Savidge, J. G. Schmidt, Dr. H. A. Senter, Miss Sara Vore Taylor, Miss Towne, and Mrs. Margarita Vartanian.

William Cheek to Head the Cadet Officers' Club

New President Major of Second Battalion; Becomes Road Show Manager

William Cheek '35, major of the second battalion, was elected president of the Cadet Officers' club at their first meeting held on October 25. Cheek, as president of C.O.C., automatically becomes student manager of the twenty-first annual Road Show. He is also chairman of the Monitors' council and was first sergeant of the flag company at camp last year.

Other officers were elected by ballot on Wednesday morning, November 7. They are: vice president, Robert Fuchs, captain, Company A; secretary, Alfred Ellick, captain, Company F; treasurer, Harlan Milder, captain and ordnance; and sergeants-at-arms, James Baer and Bill O'Brien, first lieutenants of Companies E and F, respectively.

Compile 38 Year Regiment History

Military Department Organized in 1886; Captains Choose Girls for Mascots

Editor's Note.—This is the first of a series of two articles relating the history of the Central High regiment. Omissions and errors in the Register have been used as references.

By BOB NIMMO
Recently the military department compiled and placed in the trophy case just outside of Room 117 a list of the companies winning the regimental flag and the captains of those companies for every year since 1895. In all the forty years of the regiment's existence there has never been a company that has received the flag more than twice in succession.

The regiment is almost as old as the school itself: records show that military drill has been carried on at Central as far back as 1886. In that year there was a Company A, and plans were being made for the organization of B company which was not to exceed 40 in membership and was to drill without rifles.

Then in 1894 a regiment was organized consisting of four companies, A, B, C, and D. In the beginning the going was hard. Many of the men were unable to afford uniforms, and certain companies were composed entirely of non-uniformed men. Rifles were also hard to get, and the companies drilled with rifles of all sizes from large state rifles to small carbines.

The first camp was held in 1901 at Ashland, Neb. At this time only officers were allowed to bring cots to camp; the rest of the men were forced to sleep on the ground. There were only two medals for individual competition in the entire regiment at this time. They were awarded by the veterans of the Spanish-American war, and it was the ambition of every man in the organization to receive one.

Because of the distance to camp and the lack of means of transportation, the flag and individual awards were given at a special dress parade held in the ball park after the cadets returned.

Exam Grades Lower Than Former Year

58 Make 100 Per Cent; 51 Have Grade of 99; Many Receive 98

GRADE LIST FOLLOWS

Mid-term examination grades this semester do not measure up to last semester's record. This semester there were 58 perfect exams, 51 grades of 99, and 59 students who received scores of 98. The list of honor for this term follows:

Students receiving 100 in their exams are: English I Marion Westering, Wauwata Bater, June Ellen Steiner, James Myers; English V Bernice Borden, Frank Norall; English VII Bill Cunningham, Millard McGee, Nellie Tribulato; Algebra I Peyton Pratt, Marion Westering, George Wales, Jim Haugh, Richard Lee, William Randall; Algebra II Richard Nemic, Gordon Randall, George Cockle, Howard Hoffman, John Peterson, Ida Laferla, James Myers, Yetta Lerner; Geometry I Ernest Burt, Lee Grimes, Dewey Ziegler, Marian Bremers, Charles McManus, Mary Jane Parkinson, Ray Ketselson, Guy Williams, Ralph Phillips, Betty Ann Allyn, Gertrude Rainey; Geometry II Eugene Jorgensen, Albert III Bob Nourse, Jean Eyre; Trigonometry Walter Wolf; Civics Jean Pepper, Bonnie Young; Spanish II Jean Kohn; French I Dorothy Guenther, Jay Weisman; French III Geraldine Pettit; Biology I Sol Wezelman; Physical Education I Marie Frank; Shorthand I Frances Blumkin, Beth Campbell, Virginia Doran, Nellie Tribulato, Bernice Borden; Shorthand II Betty Jane Dewitt; Shorthand III and IV Mary Koory; Bookkeeping I Alfred Ellick; Harmony I Mary Allen, Marie Kaster, Franceline Phillips; Harmony III Abraham Danksy.

Those having 99 in their exams are: English I Norma Rose Myers, Richard Lee, Ruth Dale, James Haugh, Jean Northwall, Rita Barnhart, June Kopperud; English III Lee Grimes, Betty Rosen, Jeanette Wilkinson; English V Jean Pepper, Abraham Danksy; English VII Marie Horels, Jane Eayres; English VIII Marie Horels, Jane Eayres, John Kopperud, John Cockle, Sarah Gilinsky, Howard Rosenblom; Geometry I Marie Sykes, Elaine Tindal, Bernice Borden, Margaret Yeager, Judith Levenson; Geometry II Marion Armstrong; Trigonometry Grant Benson; Algebra IV Sol Wezelman; European History I Frances Heagey, Tom Whitney, Sarah Stricker, Bowace Burdette, Margaret Yeager; European History II Bill Lungren, Yetta Lerner, Lois Hoyer; European History III Gertrude Rainey, Sarah Lee Baird, Naomi Harnett; Spanish V Pauline Schwaner; French I Marie Eggers; French III Beth Campbell, Alice Taylor; German I Millard McGee; Chemistry I Myron Cohen, Robert Rapp, Edna Lorraine Stockman, June Blissy Evelyn Paepser, Maynie Katz, Etta Sorref, Walter Anderson; Algebra II Loren Bailey; Geometry I Bob Weaver, Inez Corkin, Rozann Parsons, Leonard Marnett, Robert Hurst, Betty Maxwell, Jeanette Wilkinson; Algebra III Elizabeth Ramsey; Algebra IV Aetha Speck; European History I Warren Johnson, Carolyn Merritt, James Child, Elizabeth Allen; History II Pearl Schneider, Lawrence Klein, Bill Butler; European History II Ahuvah Gershater, Mary Dietrich, Olive Odrissio, Myron Cohen, Amelia Hartman; Spanish II Elizabeth Allen; Spanish III Adeline Specker, Marian Strauss, Brandon Backlund, Carl Ousley; Spanish IV Ruth Schneider; French Irene Seybold; French III Harriett Hindman, Ruth Streeter, Bowace Burdette; Chemistry I Joe Hornstela; Physical Education I Charlotte Nogg, Virginia Ivie; American History I Myron Cohen; Sports Jane Ellison, Joan Ewald, Christa Ensminger; Ruth Beth Hawley, Ruthgayle Griffin, Bernice Horels, Josephine Salerno, Phil Mangel, Jane Eayres, Betty Lipp; Swimming Barbara Knapp, Maxine Johnson, Leonard Marnett, Robert Hurst, Marie Horels, Patricia Picotte, Doris Mae Gibhardt, Phyllis Ann Mehl; Shorthand I Josephine Wolf, Jane Wiegert, Josephine Longo; Shorthand II Elizabeth Allen; Shorthand III and IV Dorothy Camel, Alta Hirsch; Bookkeeping II Thomas Brown; Business Training I Betty Nolan; Harmony I Helen Alliss, James Heftl.

Those with grades of 98 are: English I Howard Scott, Evelyn Paepser; English II Roberta O'Hara, Mary Wyrick; English IV Marjorie Sarneth, Carole Turner, Don Beck, Irene Seybold; English V Henrietta Kieser, Abe Resnick, Mary Louise Cornick, Wilma Jean Domke, Donald Wagner, Frances Heagey; English VI Brandon Backlund; English VII Alfred Ellick; English VIII Margery Noe, Louise Fore, Adolph Laytin; Algebra I Billy Becker, Betty Condon, Robert Rapp, Edna Lorraine Stockman, June Blissy Evelyn Paepser, Maynie Katz, Etta Sorref, Walter Anderson; Algebra II Loren Bailey; Geometry I Bob Weaver, Inez Corkin, Rozann Parsons, Leonard Marnett, Robert Hurst, Betty Maxwell, Jeanette Wilkinson; Algebra III Elizabeth Ramsey; Algebra IV Aetha Speck; European History I Warren Johnson, Carolyn Merritt, James Child, Elizabeth Allen; History II Pearl Schneider, Lawrence Klein, Bill Butler; European History II Ahuvah Gershater, Mary Dietrich, Olive Odrissio, Myron Cohen, Amelia Hartman; Spanish II Elizabeth Allen; Spanish III Adeline Specker, Marian Strauss, Brandon Backlund, Carl Ousley; Spanish IV Ruth Schneider; French Irene Seybold; French III Harriett Hindman, Ruth Streeter, Bowace Burdette; Chemistry I Joe Hornstela; Physical Education I Charlotte Nogg, Virginia Ivie; American History I Myron Cohen; Sports Jane Ellison, Joan Ewald, Christa Ensminger; Ruth Beth Hawley, Ruthgayle Griffin, Bernice Horels, Josephine Salerno, Phil Mangel, Jane Eayres, Betty Lipp; Swimming Barbara Knapp, Maxine Johnson, Leonard Marnett, Robert Hurst, Marie Horels, Patricia Picotte, Doris Mae Gibhardt, Phyllis Ann Mehl; Shorthand I Josephine Wolf, Jane Wiegert, Josephine Longo; Shorthand II Elizabeth Allen; Shorthand III and IV Dorothy Camel, Alta Hirsch; Bookkeeping II Thomas Brown; Business Training I Betty Nolan; Harmony I Helen Alliss, James Heftl.

Work of Community Chest Shown in Films

Community Chest films were shown in the auditorium last week by Miss Gladys Shaft, Community Chest worker, in order to interest the students in this work. The money collected each year by the organization aids various charitable institutions.

Miss Shaft spoke briefly preceding the films. "We are attempting to familiarize Omaha with the benefits of the Community Chest," she said. "It provides families with food, clothing, and shelter; cares for sick and crippled children; teaches young women home-building, and helps to support recreational camps for boys and girls."

The pictures showed phases of Community Chest work.

Japanese cherry trees bear no fruit, but are merely ornamental.

AN ANALYSIS of the budgets of the twenty-eight Chest agencies shows that the $550,694 raised last year, was distributed as follows:

Relief, care of the aged, the ill and of children	$339,150	61.58%
Education, recreation and character building	123,100	22.35%
Campaign for funds	15,677	2.84%
Administration and collection of funds	20,627	3.74%
Community planning	3,000	.54%
Set aside to cover shrinkage on collection, due to deaths and removals	49,140	8.92%

Folk of Mother Goose Land Come To Central High

Cafeteria to Be Decorated with Emblems of Harvest; Ceres to Preside

"One for the money, two for the show, Three to make ready, and four to go."

The place to go is the cafeteria or rather Mother Goose Land, the time to get ready is Saturday night, and the show is the program to be presented by members of the Latin club.

The cafeteria will be decorated with all the emblems of autumn, including brightly colored leaves, gaunt, withered corn stalks, and maybe a yellow pumpkin or two. Hanging from the lights will be gaily colored crepe paper streamers. Presiding at the speakers' table will be a doll dressed as the goddess, Ceres, surrounded by the emblems of harvest.

The members of the club dressed as nursery characters will pass before Old King Cole, master of ceremonies. They will present their characters in pantomime as the Mother Goose verse describing them is read in Latin by Lysle Abbott '36.

The three blind mice, who ran after the farmer's wife, will be acted by Mary Ellen Crites, Virginia Jetter, and Naomi Harnett, all '37. Jack and Jill who went up the hill are to be portrayed by Marion Stone '37 and Bob Zoesch '36. The Knave of Hearts who stole the tarts is to be Bill Hennings '36. The part of the Old Woman in the Shoe will be taken by Lucille Suing '36, and her many children are Vira Deal, Mary Uhrich, Olive Odorisio, Gertrude Rainey, all '37, and John Schoessler '36.

Guests at the banquet are to be Miss Frisbie, Latin teacher at the Fremont High school, Fremont, Neb.; students of the Fremont High school; Miss Mary Race, a graduate of Central and of the classic department of the University of Nebraska; and Miss Ellen Rooney, former head of the Latin department at Central. Principal J. G. Masters, Fred Hill, Miss Jessie Towne, and members of the Latin faculty will also be present.

Cheese can be sliced thinner with a dull knife than with a sharp knife.

Increase in Prices Boosts Chest Quota

Chest Activities Vary; Aid Ill, Aged, Unemployed By Relief Agencies

MUST REACH GOAL

The Community Chest which benefits thousands of unfortunate adults and children each year by its carefully planned budget system is beginning another drive November 19. This year's goal for the campaign is higher than last year's. This is due to the fact that foods and materials are more costly and the need of the homeless greater. The budget committee has reduced the amount this year to the minimum in order to allow them to continue their work efficiently.

The largest per cent of this money is given to the direct relief agencies which help those that require help in other ways than unemployment. Thousands of families are dependent on the chest because of ill health, chronic disability, and desertion. Large sums of money are used to care for the neglected and dependent children, to arrange for adoptions, and to help lift the load from the boarding schools.

Health services and character building activities are important to the youth of today in warding off crime in the future. The boys and girls in Omaha must not be neglected if we are to maintain the morale of our people under such trying conditions.

Another part in which the Community Chest participates is in caring for the aged. Those people who have become destitute through loss of positions, bad investments, and poor health are given a place where they can stay and will be well cared for.

Last year the Central High faculty and student body donated $870. This year since the need is still far greater let us do our part in contributing still more to this organization. None of the work which the Community Chest is doing can be transferred to the Federal Government; so it is up to those who are able to help to do so.

Miss Angeline Tauchen, type teacher, is in charge of the Community Chest drive at Central.

Register Staff in National Competition

Members of the Register staff have entered the First National Group contest of the year sponsored by the Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists. Entries will be classed as editorial writing, feature story writing or current news writing. National winners in each contest will receive the bronze National Creative Writing award.

Ramsey Speaks to Lininger Travel of His Bermuda Trip

Math Club Admits New Members, French Club Presents Program of Singing

William Ramsey '30, Dartmouth graduate, addressed the Lininger Travel club Tuesday at their monthly meeting. Ramsey spoke on "Animal Life in the Bathysphere." He returned last week after spending four months in Bermuda with a group of men under the direction of Dr. William Beebe, head of the Department of Tropical Research of the New York Zoological society.

Jean Kelly '35, president, appointed three committees to take care of future business. The committee to provide for the annual Thanksgiving baskets consists of Betty Malm '36, chairman; Mary Jo Callahan, Margaret Thomas, and Virginia Rahel, all '36; and Rozanne Purdham and Marjorie Rushton, both '37.

Virginia Lee Pratt '37 introduced a project in the form of international correspondence with clubs all over the world similar to the Lininger Travel club. Jo Anne Smith '36 was appointed chairman of a committee to investigate the project. Members of the committee are Louise Reynolds, Betty Rohrbaugh, and Elaine Davis, all '36; and Margaret Hertz and Mary Jean Miller, both '37.

Marion Lambert '35 is chairman of the bulletin committee. Other members are Jessie Clark, Adele Baird, and Helen McCrory, all '37; and Cornelia Cary, Beth Armstrong, and Suzanne Roeder, all '36.

A motion was passed to lower dues to fifteen cents a semester.

New members were formally accepted into the Math club at the meeting Tuesday. During the business meeting, the constitution was read and accepted with new provisions. The program consisted of a discussion on the mathematical part of bridge construction. Students participating in the program were Julian Ball, Bob Fuchs, Bernard Johnston, Harry MacDuff, and Dale Peterson, all '35.

Le Cercle Francais held a meeting in Room 215 Tuesday, November 6. The program consisted of the singing of La Marseillaise by Betty DeWitt and Beth Campbell, both '36; a reading of French poetry by Gwen Sachs '35; and the singing of Quand Madelon by the entire club accompanied by Betty DeWitt. Carolyn Kulesh '37 and Dorothy Baldwin '35 were voted in as new members.

Titians held an election of officers Wednesday during home room. Those elected were: president, Barbara Knapp; vice president, Lucile Duda; and secretary-treasurer, Everna Ashwood, all '35.

Bugle Notes

We almost wore ourselves out in the parade Monday, but there's enough hot air in the old wind-bag yet to get a few foggy notes out of our wheezy bugle. We're just "lost in a fog." (Hey, Maw! Close the door. That man's here again.)

Well, girls, keep Saturday night open. The horse show ushers were paid Tuesday. Speaking of the horse show pay, we hear Mr. Gulgard had to have a bodyguard when he went down to get it.

According to Col. Dave Livermore, there will be a full-dress inspection pretty soon. Spelldowns will be held as soon as inside drill begins, but Col. Livermore stated that there would be outside drill until the weather makes it impossible.

There seems to have been a lot doing at the Hi-Y Girl Reserve dance last Saturday. Where was Bernie Johnston after the first 15 minutes of the dance? And what about Walt Rowley? We hear he bought a ticket and then didn't show up. By the way, Walt, can it be the Phillip Morris that put that wave in your hair? Julian Ball and Bob Fuchs were girlish at the dance, but they didn't seem that way afterwards.

Non-com classes will be held every Wednesday morning. These classes started this week. Tests will be held at regular intervals.

Mr. Gulgard has originated a few nicknames for some of the non-coms in 117. Some of the better known are "Fireman" Stelzer, "Cave-Man" Ball, "Sand-Pile" Backlund, "Baby Blue" Wyrick, "Little Red Chair" Knox, and "Judge" Waldron.

Mrs. Grace Knott's honor roll students are: Type III, Kathryn La Graca '37 and Elvira Pearson '36; Type IV, Ruthgayle Griffin '36.

Child Must Live in Penury if Aid Fails

ANOTHER orphan. We don't even know his name, yet the fact that he has a fat, wistful little face, and fuzzy down on his head, and that his crib is a discarded waste paper basket, will appeal to us. He looks well fed—now. Depending, as he does, however, upon the sometimes rather indifferent mercies of strangers, his future is none too secure. He doesn't ask for anything—the world to him is merely a bottle of milk, a warm crib, and an unknown voice—yet there are those who realize that these essentials are not going to suffice, that more complicated problems of housing, clothing, food, and education are going to spring into being.

It is the appeal of those people, for this child—and the scores of others like him, of course—which is being made to you during this month. Don't be sophisticated, and indifferent! Give him the price of a street-car ride, or a new lip-stick, or any one of those trifles so dear to your heart—they can't possibly be half so dear as milk and flannels and wool socks!

Expression Dept. Presents Plays

Pupils Answer Request of Various Organizations in Omaha By Giving Presentations

Students in the expression department have been giving small plays and readings at the request of various organizations in Omaha. "Be a Little Cuckoo," a one-act play directed by Lystra Thomsen '35, was recently given at Grace Methodist church. The cast included Mary Louise Cornick, Lorraine Cramer, Eleanor Sawtell all '36, and Virgnette Olson '35.

Those who have given readings are Mary Louise Cornick '36 and Phyllis Hopkins P. G. The readings, "Edith Economizes" and "The Sign of the Cleft Heart" were given before the Scottish Rite Woman's Auxiliary last Wednesday at the Masonic Temple.

Students also assist in the direction of plays at various community houses. Arvilla Bauer P. G. is assistant director at the Benson Community House Story-hour. During her absence Oct. 24, Hallie Bialac '38, Arlene Solomon '38, and Lizbeth Menagh '37 took charge.

Pupils Earn Activity Points During Lunch

During the lunch periods 21 students working for activity points supervise closed halls.

The student control workers on the third floor are Bill McDonough and Charles Harris, both '36, at the east stairs; Evalyn Nixon and John Petersen, both '38, at the west side; Janelle Worell '38 at the south stairs; and Frances McGrane '35 and Phoebe Tholl '36 at the north stairs. Students stationed on the second floor are Kathryn Nichols '35, Zoe Freyer '37, Ruben Lippett '37, Betty Scholder '38, Margaret Thomas '36, and Jane Fahenstock, Mary Anna Cogle, and Dot Nelman, all '36.

On the first floor Margaret Brinkema '35 is at the east stairs; Julian Milder '35, Jane Parker '37, Betty Lee Malone '36, aided during second lunch by Betty Ann Moon '36.

Don Arthur '36 is captain of this group of student control workers, and substitutes for any worker who is absent.

Regiment History for 38 Years

In 1902 the Band was organized, and by 1912 there were nine companies in the regiment, making three battalions. At this time, Central boasted the largest military organization of its kind in the West. Up to 1913 each company had a girl sponsor chosen by the captain. However, this practice caused such a rivalry among the girls that it was discontinued.

Streamlined Shoes, Pajama Top Shirts Click with the Men

With the chill of fall a young man's fancy turns to fall duds, and Central lads are no exception. Streamlines for the shoes or side pleats for the pants and you will not need the Gable features to win the hearts of Central's fairest.

A striking figure seen at the Central-Tech game was Kermit Hansen wearing a snappy top coat, which, true to fashion is shorter than those of last season. Have you seen that ducky pajama top that Chuck Jordan has been wearing of late in place of the customary shirt? There is nothing like making the most of the unfortunate drouth stricken animals; Al Ellick has taken advantage of the situation by the purchase of some very attractive pig skin gloves.

Check and double check to Bill Cheek for his superb brown and white check trousers. They are as clever and unique as they can be.

One of Central's best dressed males is Dave Livermore. It tux a lot of will power to resist this handsome man when he dons his tuxedo. Among the major attractions around the halls of our institution is the bearded blue sweater frequently sported by Paul Hershman. Boys in their teens will prefer the side pleat trousers like Fred Hoefener is wearing, and for a dull finish—the newest thing in the stream-line shoes—notice Alvah Whitmore's Boston brown oxfords.

Francis Perkins Speaks in Omaha

Madam Secretary Interested in Gardens, Dodge Street, Ak-Sar-Ben Rodeo

By BARBARA ROSEWATER
Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins drove around Omaha after her lecture at the city auditorium Sunday afternoon, November 4, for more than an hour. During that time she asked questions incessantly, making comparisons and estimates of statistics and facts.

Everything interested her—architecture, people, gardens, Dodge street, the Ak-Sar-Ben rodeo. Was the rodeo a sort of American bull fight? she wanted to know. What was the game the children were playing in the yard across the street? Told that the game was "cop and robbers," Miss Perkins repeated the name over to herself several times. Apparently it seemed to her purely a western game.

Miss Perkins—or "Madam Secretary" as she prefers to be addressed—looked at Omaha from an eastern viewpoint. Frequently she spoke of the east in contrast to Nebraska.

"You know, back east whenever a dust storm strikes us," she recounted, smiling, "we say, 'Here comes Nebraska!'" She was quite surprised to learn that all dust storms do not originate in Nebraska.

Seeing the Joslyn Memorial from the car window through a light fog, she was moved to quote, from the Bible, "Man shall not live by bread alone."

In the car with Miss Perkins were Harry S. Byrne, president of the Omaha Auto association, which made Miss Perkins' lecture possible, and representatives of the Omaha World-Herald and the Central High Register.

Miss Perkins did not speak of strikes or labor conditions during the drive, except to ask about unemployment in Omaha. She refused to answer or ignored all questions concerning labor legislation.

She disappeared into the hotel on Mr. Byrne's arm, still asking questions. As she had remarked earlier, she "had come west to find out things."

Ruth Cooper '37, Lettie Kalweit '35, Pauline Rosenbaum and Goldie Silverman, both '36, were omitted from the list of Student Control workers in last week's Register. All do secretarial work for Miss Irma Costello.

Miss Jessie Towne Presents a Gavel To Senior Class

Woolery, Former Assistant Head, Started Tradition Many Years Ago

Miss Towne presented the senior class with a gavel that has been handed down to the senior class for a number of years. "Most traditions in a school are nuisances, but this is a nice tradition, and we all like nice traditions, so we have kept it up," said Miss Towne. The gavel was first given to the January graduating classes by Mr. Woolery, who was assistant principal years ago.

Mr. Woolery was interested in debate and public speaking and was the sponsor of several senior classes during his career at Central. He believed that the January classes did not have as much splendor and activity as the June classes did, so he had the manual training department make the gavel, and he made a practice of giving it to each senior class, as long as he remained at Central. Since his departure, the practice has been carried on by Miss Towne.

Ramblings

Mrs. Mildred Tangeman has been absent for three weeks because of the illness of her mother; Mrs. Mildred Yost has been substituting in her classes. Miss Mary Race '25 substituted for Mrs. Grace Knott last week, who was absent because of a sprained ankle.

Principal J. G. Masters spoke at the First Central Congregational church Sunday evening, November 11, on "A Tragedy of the Santa Fe Trail."

Posters made by Mary Ellen Dickerson and Betty Hammer, both '35, were selected for display in downtown store windows in connection with National Educational week. Two posters were chosen from each high school in the city.

David Smith '35 returned to school on November 5 after attending school in Great Neck, L. I.

Several students have been promoted from junior to senior glee club, although Mrs. Carol Pitts usually makes her promotions at the end of the semester. The following people have been advanced: Marion Harris and Marie Eggers, both '36; Robert Halstead and Don Beck, both '37; and Ephraim Gershater '38.

After a month's absence due to an infection, Emily Thomsen '37 returned to school last week; however, because of a relapse, she remained home Tuesday.

Several classes of the music department have been listening to the Walter Damrosch appreciation hour broadcast from Radio City at 10 o'clock every Friday morning. The radio was contributed by Louise Wood. The classes who have heard the concerts are History of Music, Appreciation I, Appreciation III, and members of the glee club.

Herbert Osborne '38 demonstrated fire by friction in the History I classes of Miss Irma Costello.

Due to the increased membership of Central teachers in the Omaha School forum, Central has been allotted one more delegate. Mrs. Irene Jensen has been elected to this position.

Mrs. Bessie Rathbun's seventh hour Latin I class last week held a spelldown which extended over two periods. The boys spelled against the girls. The boys won a victory with Milton Sandem and Harry Otis, both '38.

Mrs. Grace Knott was absent from her classes last week due to a sprained ankle. Miss Mary Race substituted.

Library Abounds in Cruel Murders and Puzzling Mysteries

Have you heard about the Library Murders? A freshman murdered a senior for first chance at reading "Ask a Policeman" in the pay collection in the school library.

All kinds of people are being murdered these days and in the oddest places. Take the "Murder on the Calais Coach" by Agatha Christie, or "Death on My Left" by MacDonald, "Murder at Monte Carlo" by Oppenheim, or "Murder at Cambridge" by Patrick. All over the world from Peking to Podunk, X marks the spot. A murder in every port, so to speak.

About the goriest murder, to judge from the title, is "Pass the Body" by Sprigg, though "Red, Like Crimson" by Parodine runs a close second with its idiotic wording and its ghastly suggestion of gore. "Death Whispers" by Carr sounds intriguing, too.

"How Many Cards?" demands Ostrander. Read this if you wish, or just make a rough estimate yourself starting on the basis of fifty-two and a joker to a deck. The author won't object. De la Mare announces that "They Walk Again," and according to Chase there is "Danger in the Dark." "Murder Comes Home," adds Child. "He Arrived at Dusk" Ashby further informs you. Combine your titles and you have a story in itself.

Two other mystery titles are especially attractive. "Shoes That Had Walked Twice" by Toussaint Samat and "Loose Rib" by Allen. The very restraint of "Loose Rib" rather intrigues you. The question "Whose rib?" pops into your mind, immediately, and how loose?

But it isn't fair to tell you here. Go to the library and find out. A murder for every taste, as blood-chilling or as mild as desired, with or without love interest attached, is the motto of the pay-collection mysteries.

Cadets Serve as Ushers at Show

Livermore Directs Arrangements At Performances of Ak-Sar-Ben Rodeo

Officers and non-commissioned officers of Central and North High schools ushered during the week for the annual stock show, horse show, and rodeo held at the Ak-Sar-Ben coliseum from October 28 to November 3. Lieutenant-Colonel David Livermore '35 was in charge of all arrangements pertaining to ushering in the coliseum.

Performances were held every night throughout the week, and matinees were held on Sunday, Wednesday, and Thursday. All ushers wore full dress uniforms for evening performances and fatigue uniforms for matinees.

Dr. C. Oldfather Discusses Life of Student in East

'American University of Beirut In Syria Is Much Like Local High Schools'

Dr. C. H. Oldfather, dean of the college of arts and sciences and chairman of the department of history at the University of Nebraska, addressed the student body of Central High Thursday, November 1, on the subject of "Student Life in the Near East." Mrs. Bernice Engle introduced the speaker as a "distinguished historian and author."

Dr. Oldfather has been selected from a field of English and American scholars to translate the writings of Diodorus Siculus, Greek historian who lived during the second half of the first century A. D. and traveled through most of Europe, Asia, and part of Africa. Ten of the 40 books written by this historian are now extant. The first volume of the translations has been published; Dr. Oldfather is now working on the second and will complete five volumes in all.

"The American university of Beirut in Syria, where I spent the years 1912-14 as an instructor, is very much like our local high schools," he began. "Beirut is a little north of Palestine on the Mediterranean sea. The college was founded about 75 years ago by a group of missionaries."

Dr. Oldfather declared the student body was the most polyglot combination of pupils he has ever seen. From Sudan there were 12 or more pupils, and a few from Egypt, Asia Minor, Southern Russia, Constantinople, Palestine, Mesopotamia, Persia, and a handful from Mongolia, the Philippines, besides some American born Syrians. I taught a Sunday school class of nine students representing seven different religions.

"My pupils had the tendency to memorize rather than to think about their work," he stated. "Their tremendous lack of truthfulness, and their lack of cooperation, especially in sports, were other difficulties."

Following his address, Dr. Oldfather was guest of a small group of teachers at luncheon in the school cafeteria.

Weiner Roast Held By January Seniors

Picnic Given to Raise Money for Class, to Get Acquainted

The January seniors had a weiner roast last Tuesday night at Mandan park. The chairman of the committee in charge of the affair was Virginia Haines, vice-president of the class. Each person was charged twenty cents if they came alone, and thirty cents if they brought a guest outside the class. Each senior was urged to bring at least one guest. The hike was held to raise money with which to buy a gift for the school, to afford amusement for the class, and to aid the members of the class in getting acquainted.

Box lunches were packed by Miss Ruby Richardson, joint sponsor, and Florence Hagedorn, and Virginia Haines. Leonard White, treasurer, reported that the class raised $4.73 profit by this picnic.

PURPLES BEAT NORTH TO TAKE INTERCITY LEAD

PAT PAYNE SCORES ONLY TOUCHDOWN AS KNAPPLEMEN DOWN VIKINGS, 6-0

Freshman Dick Gordon Gets Loose for 42 Yards In 2nd Quarter

TWO GAMES REMAIN

Central's purple-clad gridsters advanced a step nearer the intercity football championship with a 6-0 victory over the North Vikings at Tech field. The Purples are in the lead now with three victories and boast an uncrossed goal line in intercity competition.

Pat Payne crossed the North goal after Freshman Dick Gordon had set up the pins for it with a sparkling 42 yard jaunt that placed the ball 23 yards from the goal. Gordon was in the clear, but in dodging the safety man, he was nailed from behind.

On the next play Gene Stoetzel smashed through tackle for 7 yards. Payne hit center for 3 yards and just short of a first down. Robertson made it first and goal on the North ten yard marker. After Payne had made 3 yards on two end runs, Robertson drove to the one foot line from where Payne hit center for the touchdown. Payne's attempted placekick for point after touchdown was wide by inches.

Defense Stops North

A brilliant defense on the part of the Knapplemen kept the North offense well in check. North was able to gain but 61 yards from scrimmage while the Purples rolled up a total of 206 yards. The Vikings were more successful by the aerial method, completing three long passes for 71 yards. However, three other North passes were intercepted by alert Central backs.

One of the pass interceptions gave Central a real scoring chance, but the final gun halted the threat on the Viking 6 yard line. Verne Moore pulled in one of Fullington's long heaves and returned it to the Purple 46 yard line. With Robertson lugging the ball through the line, the Purples marched down the field in nine plays and apparently were robbed of a sure touchdown by the gun.

Men Injured

The Purples were far from top strength for the game. George Seemann, Jim Baer, and Bill Horn were kept on the bench the whole game because of injuries and Ronnie McGaffin was able to play only one quarter because of a hip injury suffered against the St. Joseph Central Indians the previous week.

The famed spread formation of North worked for a few good gains, but the Norsemen were unable to gain consistently off it. North's tackle-around play, which worked so successfully against previous opponents, was tried only once. On that play Pat Payne nailed Stickels, the North right tackle, for a four yard loss.

One North Threat

The closest that North came to scoring was in the third quarter when they reached the Central 24 yard line by means of a long pass from spread formation. However, here the strong Central forward wall stopped Hall on four consecutive plunges and took the ball on downs.

Most of the game was played in North territory, and Coach Jackson's boys had few scoring opportunities. However, twice in the opening quarter the Norsemen were unable to capitalize on two Central fumbles because of the stalwart defense of the Purples.

Play South Thanksgiving

Two more hurdles remain for Central's gridsters to clear before they may have clear title to the intercity championship. Central plays Benson next Thursday and South on Turkey day. The outstanding achievement of Cornie Collin's South High Packers is a one point victory over Creighton Prep.

FRESHMAN SPEEDSTER

DICK GORDON, 135-pound freshman halfback, who set up the pins for Central's winning touchdown in the North football game by dashing 42 yards. The line opened a huge hole and Stoetzel blocked out the Viking fullback, so that Gordon had to elude only the secondary defense. He was hauled down on the 23 yard line by the safety man. Payne scored a few plays later.

COACH KNAPPLE SAYS:

"We should have made more than one touchdown against North. The boys made some mistakes, but on the whole, the team did well. The team this year has the spirit, and the boys are gunning for the intercity championship."

Girls Sport Department

By CATHERINE GAMERL
Coach "Chick" Justice addressed the members of the G.A.A. on "The Importance of Girls' Sports" last Tuesday at the monthly meeting of the club. "Girls sports are just as important as boys' athletics," stressed Justice. "Probably the greatest benefit that the girl gets out of sports is the enjoyment she gets playing golf, tennis, and other games during her leisure time."

Other entertainment was provided by Dorothy Camel, Lottie Rips, and Genevieve Scalzo who tap danced, and the brother and sister dance act was presented by Donald and Ruth Bruhn.

Tournament Ends

Now that the volleyball tournament has come to an end, more attention will be turned to the hockey practices, which have been going on for the past five weeks. Bertha Dailey's team has been victorious three times and the two teams have tied twice.

Bertha Dailey leads the scoring field with seven goals to her credit, and Esther Hannibal and Nancy Jane Chadwell have scored three times each. Lack of scoring punch seems to be the difficulty of Chadwell's team; they have little trouble sending the ball down the field, but no one has had much success in crossing the scoring line. Dailey's squad has what it takes in the lines of defensive and offensive play, but over-confidence held the team back in the last two games.

GRID GLINTS

By JAMES LEFFLER
Another barrier to the championship was thrown aside last Thursday as Central's Eagles downed the North Vikings. A fighting line which Chick Justice describes as the best in the city was mainly responsible for the win. Behind that impregnable line, Central's backs were able to roll up yards at will.

The Eagles have now reached the final stretch on the pennant path and they will need the support of every student in Thursday's battle against the Bunnies. Benson, with its passes and tricky running attack will give the Purples one of their toughest games of the season.

As usual you will be informed as to how the games will come out this week-end. Here they are:

Tech, 13—Creighton, 12.

I picked South to beat Creighton so why shouldn't I pick Tech. The Maroons are gaining strength every game while the Preppers seem to be falling off a little. This ought to be a close one.

North, 13—Benson, 6.

This is a game between two evenly matched teams, but the Vikings hold the edge in the line. Don't be surprised if the Benson pass attack gets going and knocks the Norsemen off the map.

Abraham Lincoln, 6—Red Oak, 0. Here is the Lynx only chance to mark up a win and I believe they will make the most of the opportunity.

Sioux City Central, 27—South, 0. Sioux City is a great football town and Central is the best of the city so it looks like just one big headache for the Packers.

The basketball season is here for all boys that are not playing football. Go down to the gym and get to work on the fundamentals. There will be a freshman team this year, so all of you first year men, get out and have some fun. It appears now that the Eagles will be just as good in the cage sport as on the gridiron.

Nicknames of some of the boys are:

- "Dinty" Moore
- "Bellyache" Payne
- "Moses" Hershman
- "Wild Don" McCotter
- "Grizzly" Baer
- "Papa" Monsky
- "Gabby" Moody
- "Susie" Reichstadt
- "Fog" Horn
- "Swanky" Sconce
- "Doddle" Burruss
- "Waddle" Seemann

The longest prizefight on record was fought between Andy Bowen and Jack Brent in New Orleans in 1893. The bout lasted 110 rounds.

ST. JOE CENTRAL DEFEATS PURPLES IN MUD, 14 TO 6

Fumbles Give Indians Breaks That Decide Game; Subs Start

McGAFFIN INJURED

On a rain soaked field Central's fighting Purple football squad, badly handicapped by injuries suffered in the Tech game, bowed to St. Joseph Central by a score of 14 to 6 on Saturday, October 3, at St. Joseph. The game was played in the rain on a muddy field which made good football impossible. Numerous fumbles by Central gave St. Joseph the breaks that decided the outcome. Most of Central's regulars sat on the bench during the game because of injuries.

St. Joseph recovered a Central fumble early in the first quarter and converted it into a touchdown. Russell, St. Joseph halfback, carried the ball over the goal line. The Indians made the extra point on a left end run.

A blocked punt almost immediately after the second quarter opened gave St. Joseph its second touchdown. Although Central recovered the punt they lost the ball on downs on the 1 yard line. Painter carried the ball over on the first play. Russell, St. Joseph halfback, placekicked for the extra point.

Payne Crosses Goal
St. Joseph kicked off to Central, and on the second play Payne broke loose for 46 yards to place the ball on the St. Joseph 13 yard line. Central was then able to score with Robertson and Payne taking turns bucking the line for consistent gains; Payne toted the pigskin over the goal line for the score. Payne's place-kick for the extra point was wide. Later in the same period Central seemed bent on another touchdown, but the half ended before a serious scoring threat developed.

The third quarter was mainly a punting duel between the two teams. During the fourth quarter, Central tried a series of passes in a desperate attempt to score. Ronnie McGaffin suffered internal injuries during the third quarter of the game. His injuries were not serious, and he was able to play in the North game.

Central Goal Line Remains Uncrossed in City Games

Central's defeat of North and South's tie with Tech made Central's first place position in intercity competition more secure. Central has a record of three wins and no ties or defeats while South, Central's nearest contender for top intercity honors, has only one win and two ties to its credit.

Creighton Prep still has a chance for first place if South and Central suffer defeats in their remaining games. North was toppled from any chance of gaining the title by the defeat Central handed them. Central has to beat Benson and South to definitely clinch the title.

Central Freshman Complete Football Season with Tech

Central's freshman team played their last game with the Tech yearlings on November 7 and closed their season with the record of two wins and two losses. They beat the North and Benson frosh 18 to 0, and were defeated by South 18 to 0, and Tech 6 to 0.

Mr. Hill was enthusiastic over the showing of the freshmen. "This year's freshman team is the best Central has had for several years. They played good football and learned a lot. Several individuals showed up as good first team material," he stated.

Frosh Promoted

Twelve freshmen were promoted to the first team when the freshmen played their last game. These twelve compromise the regular freshman team that played in most of the freshman games. The twelve yearlings are: Lee Seemann, Leslie Johnson, Henry Patton, Tony Inerra, Richard Hoberman, Bob Hefflinger, Ervino Riekes, Richard Sundberg, Billy Pangle, Charles Barnard, Elmer Johnson, and Wayne Parkinson. These men will not only receive training that will better prepare them for the first team next year, but they may also be able to start in one of the first team games this year.

In order to receive their credit for football the freshmen have to put in more practice; so Coach Barnhill had his proteges try out for basketball. This will serve the double purpose of giving the freshmen their credit and getting them interested in the cage sport.

GORDON LEADS IN YARDAGE GAINED

Robertson Improves Punting; Central Outkicks Foe For First Time

Dick "Flash" Gordon came to the top of the ground gainers as a result of his dazzling runs in the North game last Thursday. Dick surprised everyone, including himself, by slipping off tackle and running 42 yards to place the ball in scoring position for the only touchdown of the game.

Bob Robertson improved his punting and for the first time this season, Central outpunted its opponents averaging 32 yards to 27 yards for North. Robertson was not so fortunate with his passes, failing to complete any out of five attempts while the Vikings tossed 14 and completed three.

The individual ground gainers from scrimmage for the season are as follows:

	Yds.	G'd	Times	Carried	Avg.
Gordon	79	13			6.07
Catania	86	17			5.04
Baer	146	31			4.70
Payne	478	114			4.10
Robertson	398	106			3.75
Stoetzel	14	6			2.33
Moore	15	8			1.87
	1,216	295			4.08

The first night football game was played in October 1904 between a Cherokee Indian team and the Southwest Teachers college of Missouri.

A barrel of dimes is worth more than a barrel of dollars.

CENTRAL TO PLAY BENSON BUNNIES AT TECH'S FIELD

Kinnick, Benson Quarter-back, Bunnies Outstanding Player; Line Weak

PASSES MAIN THREAT

A long afternoon faces the Purples when they encounter the Benson Bunnies next Thursday afternoon, November 22, at Tech field. The Bunnies have been kicking over the dope bucket all season.

Comparative scores may not mean much, but the green clad gridgers from the suburbs walloped Fremont 25 to 0 while the Eagles had a tough time winning over the Tigers, 6 to 0.

Season's record for each team are as follows:

Central	Opponents
6—Fremont	0
0—Lincoln	18
7—Abraham Lincoln	0
12—Tech	0
6—St. Joe	14
6—North	0
37—Opponents	32

Benson	Opponents
14—Nebraska City	0
7—South	7
25—Fremont	0
0—Creighton	14
13—Abraham Lincoln	0
6—Tee Jay	6
65—Opponents	26

The Benson attack is built around their great triple threat backfield man, Nile Kinnick. Besides bearing the brunt of the offense, Kinnick calls signals.

Line work for the Adams crew has not been outstanding and the big gains that the Bensonites have made have been around the ends and on passes. Lloyd Grimm, giant all-city end, and Ben Kinnick, halfback and brother of the quarterback, are the main recipients of the aerial attack. Passes have provided the most scores for the Bunnies. Against Nebraska City one score came from passes, against South one, against Fremont two, against Abraham Lincoln one, and against Tee Jay one.

The probable starting lineups:

Central	Pos.	Benson
Gesman	LE	Hobbs
Monsky	LT	Dutcher
McGaffin	LG	Krejci
Burruss	C	Metz
Sconce	RG	Gehrt
Hershman	RT	Pratt
Seemann	RE	Grimm
Payne	QB	N. Kinnick
Catania	LH	B. Kinnick
Baer	RH	Herten
Robertson	FB	Chadwell
