CENTRAL HIGH REGISTER CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL, OMAHA 2, NEB., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 18, 1948 FIVE CENTS

Vol. LXII - No. 11

248

5

S

ooper ditor

108t

1 toda

out t

e thi

to ph

in t )Oys

mbin

leber

n que

mpio

dy (

Fran

can

O COL

has h estli

re th

CLOA

nht dditi

mat

ər a olst

ong

resto

ride

g as eing

yer,

wre

ripe

comi

Eag

atch

ma

ers

tude

COM

alent Galore n Road Show

'48 Production to Open With Unusual Array of Acts on March 11-13

Preparations are in full swing for thirty-fourth Road Show to be esented under the direction of Mrs. sie Howe Swanson on March 11, and 13.

The final selection of acts promises large array of talent and variety. he acts were chosen by a faculty mmittee headed by Mrs. Elsie we Swanson and composed of R. Bedell, Andrew Nelsen, Frank ce, F. Y. Knapple, and Mrs. Amy tton. The final try-outs were held February 2, 3, and 4.

rack Squad Begins Program

The Road Show this year is divided to three parts. The first part will clude performances by the Crack uad and the ROTC band. There ill be a minstrel show with members lected from the a cappella choir, cluding a combo and an old fashned melodrama entitled "The Woan of Mystery".

Opening the second part will be a ano solo by Jerry Brodkey. Bud ithers will play the harmonica. enna Lois Hunt will do a Doll ance. Bob LaShelle and Melvina runn will play a piano duet.

ana Featured in Second Part

Johnny Vana "Artistry in Percuson" will be featured in the third art. The dance band will also perorm.

"In keeping with Central's finest aditions, we hope to surpass in our irty-fourth Road Show, the high andards which have been mainained through 33 years of Road how history," announced Ted Philps, student manager, and Jim Daley, ssistant manager.

Proceeds from the Road Show will placed in the general school reasury. The funds help support uch school activities as debate quad, athletic teams, special school ssemblies, and the military, journalsm, and music departments.

Future Journalists Visit World-Herald

A practical demonstration of how metropolitan newspaper is run was given to Mrs. Anne Savidge's two

'Swept Me Off My Feet'

The bell had rung and the minute freshman was just straggling into class. When quizzed by his teacher as to the reason for his tardiness, the freshie replied, "Well, I have to pass the library to get here and there was such a stampede of seniors coming out of there as I passed that they carried me to the other end of the hall."

Quiz Kids to Honor Best Teacher of '48

Here's a chance to make money while pleasing your favorite teacher. The "Best Teacher Contest" conducted by the Quiz Kids program will find the "Best Teacher of 1948." Elementary school and high school students are invited to write letters on the subject, "The Teacher Who Has Helped Me Most."

Judges will select the nation's best high school teacher, the best intermediate grades teacher, and the best elementary teacher. From these three winners, the "Best Teacher of 1948" will be chosen and will receive $2,500 for a year of advanced study. Many prizes will be awarded to students for the best letters.

The contest opened Sunday, January 25, and will close midnight, March 5. Entries should be addressed to "Best Teacher Contest," Quiz Kids, Chicago 77, Illinois. The letters may be of any length and must contain the name, age, grade, school, and home address of the writer, as well as the name and school of the teacher nominated. They must be written without help by teachers or parents.

Never Any Peace For Stage Setters

Use deep green and white paint for zebra stripes. Although a zebra would look funny with a combination like this, it will look well on a stage setting for the Road Show. Frank Rice and his stage craft class have been working on sets for the show for some time. Before that they were busy on sets for the opera. Never lacking in work, they work on programs presented in our auditorium by other schools and individuals beside doing the stage settings for all the school functions.

In the eleven years that Mr. Rice has taken charge of the crew, many important people have performed on Central's stage. Each celebrity's autograph is written on one of the three boards kept in the prop room. The boards, with 50 to 60 names on each, contains such well known names as Lily Pons. John Charles Thomas. Rise Stevens, Rachmaninoff, Helen Traubel, and Mari Sandoz. Since some of the people are now dead, these boards are much more precious to the crew. The main jobs for productions include operating the stage lights. working the spotlights, pulling the curtains, and changing the stage settings. Each boy in the class is allowed, to a certain extent, to choose the position he would like to have. An intricate inter-communication system connects the pit and the spotlights with the stage proper.

many opportunities for seniors who

Since becoming a municipal institution in 1930, the university has made many important advances in faculty personnel, curricular reforms, administrative organization, laboratories, and library facilities. Plans for enlarging the campus are now

Students wishing to enter the university in September, 1948 are urged to apply for admission not later than

July 1, preceding fall registration.

Formal application for admission may be obtained from the registrar.

This application must include a transcript of academic work completed and must be on file when the student appears for his entrance examina-

A graduate of an accredited high school such as Central may gain ad-are undecided as to which college

they would like to attend.

underway.

tions.

University of Omaha Officials Address

Election Decides Council Officers Committees Reorganized

For Semester Projects

With the re-election of Elaine Mendelson as president for the second semester, the Student Council will continue the work of directing student government.

Elizabeth Ann Clark has been reelected vice-president and Muriel Beebe, secretary. The duties of treasurer will be assumed by Ruth Ann Curtis. Roxie Johnson and Mac Bailey are the sergeants-at-arms.

Add New Committees

Members of the council are now re-organizing the various committees, and will continue the main council functions of planning assemblies and supervising other projects. The constitution committee has revised the council constitution by adding two new committes. They are the general planning committee and the courtesy committee.

The council is handling the sale of student pictures taken in 425 in December. Sales are being conducted before and after school in Room 239.

City Councils Meet

Central's council officers met with the Student Council officers of the other Omaha and Council Bluffs public high schools at Benson High school last week to acquaint the officers with the different types of student governments and to improve the functions of each Student Council.

"To demonstrate to the student body how their government works as an organization formulated to 'crystallize student opinion,'" announced Elaine, "the council is planning to present a special assembly in which the officers and committee chairmen will report their activities."

Practice Instructors Assigned to Central

Eight students from the University of Omaha and Creighton University have been assigned to practice teaching in various classes at Central High. This practical experience is required as a part of the teaching courses the new instructors are taking at the universities.

Assigned from the University of Omaha are Marilyn Henderson, a former Central student who assists in Miss Josephine Frisbie's English classes; Margaret MacMartin, English instructor under Miss Martina Swenson: Robert Shultz, Biology II teacher for Esmond Crown's classes; and Donald Johnson. Chemistry II and Physics instructor under Roy Busch and Frank Gulgard. Creighton University students teaching at Central are Ann Denenberg, Journalism I instructor with Mrs. Anne Savidge; Antonio Salerno, American History II teacher for Miss Mary Elliott's classes; Raymond Ranum, who observes Miss Geneive Clark's World History classes; and Marguerite Morse, practice teacher under Frank Rice.

Novel Suspense Campaign Promotes Sale of O-Book

Forum Discusses

Student Toil for O-Book Money

Understanding how important it is for all Centralites to buy an O-Book and also how scarce $1.50 can be, our roving reporter has gone abroad into Central's halls to find a few suggestions for those readers who, at present, are in financial difficulty.

agreed unanimously that the O-Book isn't for seniors alone, but that every student should own one, absolutely. A few guys and gals have offered and go to work".

$1.50, so the rest of you might take a hint.

sell one of my pips for it".

Nancy Neiman '49, "I'll go out and work for it, naturally". Frank Hahn '49, "From the boys in the lunchroom". Ray Goodwin '48, "Borrow it from Lepinski". Carolyn Dohn '49, "I'll ask my mother".

Annie Cuthbertson '48, "Win money on my expert bridge playing". Ray Hampton '49, "Go out and baby sit". Jerrie Mockelmann '49, "I'll carry trays for all seniors in the lunchrooms".

Walter Paulson '49, "Sell one of my pictures to Mickie Rabe".

Beverly Deal '48, "Well, I guess I can scrub floors".

Jerry Lepinski '48, "Anyone would buy my last year's O-Book, and then I can buy a better one this year".

Everyone is willing and ready to make a sacrifice in order to buy an O-Book. Are you?

Science Medal to Neal Schneiderman

In demonstrating to his class the Neal Schneiderman '48 has receivreaction between zinc and sulphur, ed the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Mr. Busch mixed the two ingredients Award Medal for obtainin

Schnooks Decrease as O-Book Demand Grows In Homeroom Purchases

by Bernard Lashinsky "Don't Be a Schnook-Buy an O-Book".

With the revelation of the C-Book campaign slogan at the humorous promotions program last week, the sales drive got under way. During the assembly, Bernard Lashinsky, editor-in-chief of the O-Book, urged all students to buy their O-Book promptly. He stated, "The O-Book is actually a history book with the story told in pictures. It is a record of this year's activities and has the four year record of graduating seniors. It's doubly valuable to every student because it will have his or her picture in it."

Ballet Highlights Assembly

Students, fearful of becoming Schnooks similar to those performing in "the corps de ballet" of the promotions assembly, began buying O-Books in their homerooms. Leonard Lefitz and Audrey Greenberg report that as of Tuesday, 625 books had been sold. Records indicate that this figure is well ahead of sales of former years but must be doubled in order to assure publication. Homeroom sales will continue through Tuesday, February 24. The price, until then, will remain $1.50 with an S.A. ticket. The number of sales at that time will be the deciding point on publication and further sales.

Plans are being formulated for the make-up and feature sections of the O-Book. The staff has decided to run more snapshots of students and action photographs of school activities. Autograph plates, the senior popularity contest, and pictures of the faculty will be included in addition to the group pictures of clubs, athletics, and other activities.

March Deadlines for Seniors

Picture and activities editors, Doris Hanson and Martha Overholser, and editor Bernard Lashinsky have been studying the different methods of layout so that results will be clearer and more personal. When publication is assured, the taking of pictures will begin as soon as possible.

Editors Martha McMillan and Shirley Nelson report that work on senior album pictures was speeded up by the report from the senior homerooms as to the number of seniors whose pictures have already been taken. The deadline for the taking of the glossy picture has been set for March 1.

Club Problems The Junior Town Meeting club was host to three prominent Omahans in a discussion held on Wednesday, February 5. Kermit Hanson, youth activities director of the Omaha Worldship and secret aspect.

pulsion is lenient.

them just the same."

law.

Mr. Paxson cited cases in other states where the secret club issue had been taken to court. He said that in all of these cases the decision has been against the clubs. In regard to penalties, he said that the law gives the right to expel students who belong and that anything short of ex-secret activities was by no means complete, and that eleven students had been banned from extra curricular activities, Mr. Nelson also announced that the reason he had permitted no official recognition of senior officers was that "at least seventy-five per cent of the senior class knew that four of the candidates were members of the clubs. You voted for

He summed up his actions by saying that it was clearly not a matter of right or wrong but of obedience to

Busch Demonstrates

are dangerous things.

Dangerous Prediction

R. C. Busch, chemistry instructor, may well muse that predictions, especially in matters of chemistry,

Declaring that his investigation of Herald; James Paxson, assistant city Both upper and lower classmen attorney; and Principal J. Arthur Nelson were targets in an open forum discussion on secret clubs. Mr. Hanson, who admitted being a member of one of the clubs when he attended Central, reviewed the questheir solutions as to how to get that tion since 1935, the year the issue first came to a head. The clubs could legalize themselves if they would do Gene Ernst '51, "I'll break down away with their exclusive member-

Pat Andersen '48, "No doubt, I'll rob my blue piggy bank". Larry McNichols '48, "Probably ournalism I classes last Wednesday when they visited the World-Herald's ffices and plant.

The classes are studying how a ewspaper is written and printed, and are using Omaha's newspaper as a nodel.

The excursion included a trip brough the editorial offices, where he students were able to get a close iew of the inner workings of the paper. The visitors then inspected he engraving room where pictures tre cut.

After seeing the huge presses roling off the afternoon editions, they saw comic strips being printed a few weeks in advance.

Scholastic Magazine Holds Writing Contest

Are you interested in winning ome money?

If you are, the national Scholastic Writing Awards contest is interested in you. Writings of all kinds may be entered into the three divisions of he contest. Students in the 10th, 1th, and 12th grades may enter the senior division, and 9th graders are ligible for the junior group. There s a special class for journalistic work.

Short stories, essays, poetry, reorts, and almost any other type of writing may be entered. In the journalistic division all kinds of stories are accepted. The competition is sponsored by Scholastic Magazine.

Prizes run up to $50 for national wards and include honorable mention certificates and keys for regional prizes.

Anyone interested in the contest should write to Scholastic Awards, 22 East 42nd street. New York 17. N. Y... for a rules booklet containing an enry blank.

the highest scholastic record in science and mathematical subjects during his high school career.

To be eligible for this award, the students have taken three years of science and mathematics and must have received high grades in those courses. In addition, he must, in the opinion of the science faculty have made outstanding progress in his science studies.

The award, founded in 1932, makes the winner eligible to compete for one of the five national scholarships offered by the Bausch and Lomb Company.

The scholarships, valued at $2,000 each stipulate that the winners major in optics, physics, engineering, chemistry, mathematics, or in a combination of these subjects.

Faculty Elects Elks Award Contenders

Rosamonde Johnson, Sarah Jane Black, Alvin Burstein, Polly Robison, and John W. Smith have been elected by the Central faculty to represent the school in the Elks club scholarship competition.

The scholarships are designed to make it possible for superior high school students to continue their higher education. The announcement of national as well as state and local awards offers great incentive to the competitors.

The most valuable student is chosen on the standards of scholastic achievement, personality, and general worthiness. Twenty-two awards, ranging from one hundred to seven hundred dollars, are offered to the students who have shown consistently superior results in their high school work.

in a crucible, and the unexpected flare of weird greenish flame and billows of dense smoke appeared. After a few seconds the reaction subsided, and commenting, "Well, that's all there is to that", Mr. Busch stepped forward to dismantle the apparatus.

He was promptly showered with sparks and enveloped in smoke as chemical fireworks recurred with renewed vigor.

Musicians Organize New Dance Group

One of Central's most recently organized groups, the dance band, is now on the way to the top of the popularity list. With Paul Bursik as leader, and Mrs. Elsie Howe Swanson and Merwin G. Tilton as faculty sponsors, the band was organized this semester.

Composed mostly of R.O.T.C. boys, the sixteen piece ensemble practices every day after school. The band's first scheduled appearance in the Road Show promises to be a great success as all the boys are working hard to improve their act. Six of the band members have assembled a musical combo and will also appear in the Road Show.

The band members include Paul Bursik, Rodney Bertlshofer, Bernard Greenberg, trombones; Norman Osheroff, Harry Wise, Don Ehrenberg, trumpets; Joe Malec, Frank DiMauro, Frank Mallory, Frank Burhorn, Irvin Turner, Jack Sacca, reeds; Johnny Vana, John W. Smith, Robert La-Shelle, and Ira Epstein, in the rhythm section.

The musical combo members are Norman Osheroff, Joe Malec, Frank Mallory, Frank Burhorn, Johnny Vana, and John W. Smith.

Ad Club Sponsors Nation-Wide Contest

"How Advertising Helps to Raise Our Standards of Living" is the subject of an essay contest announced last week by the Omaha Advertising Club. The event, which is being held in conjunction with a nation-wide contest sponsored by the Advertising Federation of America, is offering $100 in cash prizes.

The individual placing first receives $50, while $25 will be awarded to the second place contestant. Fifteen dollars is the prize for third place, and the participants gaining an honorable mention will be presented $5 each.

The prize winning local entry will be entered in the national contest which offers a grand prize of $500 and an all-expense trip to the annual convention of the Advertising Federation of America.

Sylvia London Makes Second Highest Mark

Sylvia London '51 ranked second highest on the semester honor roll with 11½ points. On the freshman list, Marvin Parilman made 6 points, while Dick Hendrickson totaled 9 1/2. Joel Milder '50 rated 9 1/2. Harry Wise tallied 61/2, and Lawrence Davis made 9 on the junior roster. Audrey Greenberg '48 listed 8 points.

Seniors on Opportunities Offered Them The University of Omaha offers mission to the University of Omaha if he meets the entrance requirements. These specific requirements depend on the curriculum chosen by the individual. Students are required to take guidance and physical examinations before they are allowed to complete their registration.

Student fees must be paid in full at the time of registration. Fees vary with the number of hour of classroom and laboratory work taken. The average tuition per semester is approximately $80 for students who are residents of Omaha.

Rowland Haynes, president of the University of Omaha, and John Lucas, dean of students, spoke to the seniors during homeroom Friday, February 13. Mr. Lucas, who was here all day Friday to give seniors information concerning the university, stated that even though the university doesn't specialize in any particular curriculum, it offers courses in all fields.

CENTRAL HIGH REGISTER

Wednesday, February 18, 1948

adets

Con

ebat

dolp

ota

Pat

eriel

ates

Th

Sic

conn nanton-

Th

or a ersi

ry !

We

res

Ta

Buny

avid farel

OW n a our njoy

Sh

urel

Edga

very

D

Fair Play Builds Personal Integrity

Page 2

The great educators tell us that more than half of the value of a high school education stems from the fact that it builds character. Their theory states that even though we don't get perfect grades or learn all that we possibly can we are being imbued with the principles of dependability, good sportsmanship, morality, and trustworthiness, all of which combine to form personal integrity. The theory is well illustrated in sports, for when our team has a poor season we are told that the competition has "built character and good sportsmanship" which will help them win in the competition of life.

That this theory is basically true is time-tested knowledge. However, too many times the theory backfires bad characteristics are acquired in school that last a lifetime. Students who "forget to return" library books will be more careful of public property when they are older. By ruining the "honor system," they also ruin their chance to use public services of all kinds to advantage.

Lack of trustworthiness is exemplified in the apparent growth of thievery, thievery of two types. The first type is the stealing of personal belongings of all kinds. In many schools, locks are optional on lockers and still nothing is ever missing. Would you be willing to leave your belongings in an unlocked locker for even one day? The second type of thievery is above the common level in that it includes intellectual dishonesty. Every day there are reports of missing history, civics, and economics notebooks, and biology or chemistry laboratory books. All of these are necessary for a grade in each respective subject. The persons who steal such books are simply too lazy to do their own work, and not conscientious enough to think about the work that must be done by the person whose books they stole.

The building of character in high school is certainly as important as the education. Character lessons are remembered when all thoughts of conjugation of Latin verbs, etc., are forgotten. By playing fair, and using personal integrity as a test of character in each other, we can have a more enjoyable school life and become better citizens.

Don't Be a Schnook Buu an O-Book

- In Japan it would cost 5 yen.
- In France it would cost 30 francs.
- In Russia it would cost 3 rubles.
- In England it would cost 7 shillings.

But at Central it costs only $1.50. It is the 1948 O-Book. In these days of high prices, you would have to go far to find as fine a value. You Central Profile get a complete record of your activities which in itself will be worth the price of an O-Book. In addition, there will be such features as a senior album, and a panoramic review of the school's extracurricular accomplishments, including the part which you and your friends played in them.

Rampage for Registers

Today was Register Day* and I, Love Andthink, homeroom representative for Room 520 (the attic above 425), sauntered into 149 to collect my prey. Loaded to the gills with my ten scandal sheets, I walked toward the elevator, hoping to thumb a ride. Suddenly a sweet, tender voice shrieked into my freshly cleaned ear, "Registers are out!" The first thing I remem bered upon regaining consciousness was a small freshman gazing down distastefully at my ignominious position. Giving him the most superior look that I could muster into my innocent blue eyes, I picked myself up and sped after the kidnapper of my passion papers. She was jumping around hysterically as though she had roomers in her bloomers. I, like any virtuous junior inquired, "What's your trouble, babe?"

"I got my name in the clothes column," she shouted, shoving the scrap of news under my nose. I salvaged the remnants of my reputation from the sticky fingers of several bystanders and trudged my weary way to homeroom.

The teacher welcomed me cheerfully with, "Go get a tardy check," in unison with the bell.

"But I had to get the Registers, I had a representatives' meeting, I was - Oh well, what's the use," I mumbled to myself as I tripped down the five flights of steps.

*Rule No. 947 in the Purple and White Handbook: "a celebrated holiday for students from study halls."

Central Comics

You find a lot of characters On the comic page. From Dick Tracy down to Terry, They simply are the rage. To sight some characters Will I try. Here are a few from our own Central High.

Andy Gump	Joe Innis
Mary Worth
Blondie	Elaine Mendelson
Lil Abner	Fred Bruning
Dick Tracy	Bob Zlotky
Aggie Mack
Terry	John Nelson
Charles C. Charles	Tom Jauss
Shoulders	Dick Focht
Pixie Gaye	Norma Gamerl
Romeo McHaystack	John Weinhardt
Кауо

tion, and the last

Victor Wilburn Introducing the regimental executive officer of the year -Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Victor Wilburn. His outstanding ability and leadership are significant of this worthy position. Vic

Double Diamonds

Music in the Military

Congratulations to Mr. Tilton and the band for a musically beautiful Military Ball. The carefully worked out numbers contribute so much to a presentation of this type. From the Spanish strains of "Fiesta-Paso Doble" to the ever popular and familiar "Mardi Gras", the band showed the result of many weeks of careful rehearsals.

Lecuona's "Malaguena" was typical of the intricate selections played. The clarinets had mastered the difficult upper register obbligato to the theme. The Euphonium cadenza was well played by the band's new Captain, Paul Bursik. The final climax, Presto, was a thrilling experience to the listener.

Johnny Vana took over in "Thunderer, March" and "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise". In the first, he rattled it out on the snare drum, and in "Sunrise", he played the vibraharp. At intermission time, Johnny went through his whole act, keeping the audience applauding as he played first the Marimba, then the Vibraharp, and finally his set of traps. Not only did he tap dance, but he did it while playing the marimba.

Eight Hours in Rhyme To Pass the Time.

From the auditorium came an outbreak of laughing sounds,

Great crowds were gathering all around-Marty Faire, Lee Gendler, Barry Myrah, and John

Sage, All showed their great talent upon our fair stage.

Suffering first hour from chlorine was Ruth Hiatt, While Ruth Curtis suffered from effects of a diet In second hour library Tom Branch talked to himself-Poor Thom Snyder fought for a lone book on the shelf.

Carole Shelton, third hour in room two forty-nine, Tried to catch her art board that fell down four times.

fifteen, fifth hour, Sharon Carpenter In two shouldn't frown,

But we see that Shorthand has really gotten her down.

And Jim Daley, sixth hour on Student Control To keep everyone quiet, the halls must patrole.

Seventh hour, Fritz Adams fell right out of his chair.

It must be Biology that's gotten in his hair. Jessie Fender didn't agree with Mr. "G's" tables,

He was told to write on 'Aesops' fables. Eighth hour, handing it in: being a bad boy, No longer with tables of Mr. "G's" did he toy. Oh! After school it is basketball time,

To get Ruma's autograph, girls, stand in line. Then to a job, or home, for an evening of work-

To get enough money to buy an O-Book. Well, we have used all of the ink in our pen. So guess this will have to be the end.

Jan 'n Dee

The two young unblemished (?) lads sauntered through the hall. Theirs was triumph. Theirs was glon Who are they? The Gold Dust twins? The boys of the basketball team? No, they are only two of the new (bow three times to the east) R.O.T.C. officers.

One casually brushes one of the clinging females from his broad (?) chest. The other yawns as he graceful crushes a Pfc's head into the wall.

"I say, Reggie, shall we take five and polish our brass some more" suggests one.

"No, I believe we'll be safe as long as we wear them sun glasses," drawls the other,

They stand a little to one side of the hall to allow another member of the (pardon the expression) club (C.O.C. that is) to skip gaily down the ha playfully flickering on and off his neon pips.

They step around an inspired lieutenant, with he pulled down over his eyes, who is carefully strangling a Freshmen Drill boy with a Crack Squad cord, and babbling, "You didn't say 'Sir'. You didn't say 'Sir'

A company commander reclines lazily on a sedan chair, which is being carried by two first sergeants, and playfully fires Roman candles at the admiring throng One other newly appointed swoon-king casually sharper a pencil with his saber as the sighing women crow around him to touch his broad (?) shoulders.

But leave us not worry, for promotions come b once a year and the seniors (bless their pointed little heads) must have their fling. The 'drunk with power' effect soon wears off, and they become their own swe selves again.

Clothesline Cuties

Attention gals-lend an ear-the wardrobe ideal!! A must with any girl is her sweater and skirt combination tion --- a perfect basic is Nan Davis' brown gabardin skirt-it's the right long lengt and sports an attractive kie pleat in the front. Another ide skirt is a gray flannel worn Willavi Ruzicka. For sweater part of the combin tion try Patsy Evers' gre slipover or Joan Thorn's sweater set. A scarf to g sweaters the new look is p vided by JoAnn Egbert.

multi-colored with green predominating.

Something different in the blouse line is worn Maureen Sherman. The color is light red with a sma white stripe through it. The white yoke is of lace with a tiny black ribbon.

No wardrobe is ideal without at least one wool dress A one piece aqua and plaid combination is the choice of Rosemary Hanson. The skirt is plaid while the top is plain color trimmed in the plaid of the skirt.

Suits are always essential, and usually fit in almost anywhere. For school, Nan Swoboda chooses wine re A white angora sweater is worn underneath. "Outstand ing" describes the gray flannel suits worn by Susie an Sally Sveska.

No wardrobe is ideal without a new long, full coat. your taste runs to plain colors, Joanie Fike is the gi for you. The color-gray. If you prefer plaids see Jacki Heath. The colors are blue and black. Lois Lehmer's whi cable stitch mittens would go well with any coat.

One of the newest additions to the wardrobe is the ballerina skirt. A black moire worn by Doris Hanson f the bill to a "T." A bow of the same material is the under the peter-pan collar of her blouse

A staff, full of ideas and raring to go, has been chosen and the ground work laid—but it's up to you to assure publication.

You can do this by ordering your copy by February 20.

Don't be a Schnook — buy an O-Book!

CENTRAL HIGH REGISTER

Founded 1886 Published Three Times Monthly By the Journalism Classes Central High School, Omaha, Nebrask SUBSCRIPTION RATE - $1.00 PER YEAR

The George N. Gallup Award, 1942-47 Quill and Scroll International Honor Award, 1933-47 N.S.P.A. All-American Rating, 1927-32, 1936-47

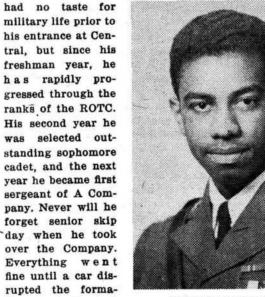

) Las Candles
Managing Editor Lee Gendler
in chief Marion Saunders
Lile/ Coorte
Manadar Lenia
Jean Levenson, Sanara Raznici
Left Dhotographer
Marid Decold Correspondent
Donna Edstrand, Journe Luiki
Contor Editor
Nancy Davis, Sanara Solution
Advertising Solicitors
Barbara Hoagland, Maxine White

REPORTERS

Journalism	Journalism IV—Thelma Goldstein Journalism III—Harley Beber, Judy Bordy, Janet Champine, June Cox, Phyllis Daugherty, Jerry Gitnick, Doris Hanson, Barbara Hoagland, Justin Horwich, Joanne Levy, Mary Ellen Mertison, Martha McMillan, Elaine Mendelson, Martha Overholser, Jack Smith. Journalism II—Toula Adams, Raymond Conboy, Helen Cortelyou, Pat Doyle, Harry Freeman, Raymond Hampton, Sally Mc- Pherren, Alan Newman, Marvin Newman, John Sage, Ardeth Scott, Thompson Snyder.
Anne S General	avidge	Mary L. Art A	Angood	O. J. Franklin Business Adviser
J.	ARTHUR N	ELSON, Princ	ipal of Cent	tral High School
Entered as	second-clas	s matter, No	vember 15,	1918, at the postoffi

in Omaha, Nebraska, under the act of March 3, 1875

Vol. LXII Wednesday, February 18, 1948 No. 11

VICTOR WILBURN

Vic remembers cadets were scattering in all directions.

Vic's interest in ROTC has provided many activities: membership in the Silent Platoon and Crack Squad, and now the office of vice president of the COC. For two years he has been active in the Civil Air Patrol where he holds the rank of first lieutenant. His position as vice president of the Spanish club and his appointment to the Junior Honor society and Boys' State also keep him before the eve of all Centralites.

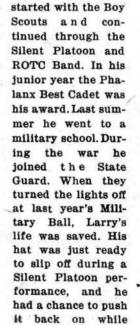

But life's not all study and regimentation. He is a sports enthusiast with tennis rating tops. Come spring, make way for Vic and his racket. Sometime he hopes to spend a vacation in Canada loafing and doing some skiing on the side. Vic dotes on food, and his speciality is concocting sundaes. Music must be semi-classical.

Building model airplanes is his avocation. He loves to fly and has approximately twenty flying hours to his credit. His greatest thrill was piloting a C-47 to Grand Island. Even flying to Wayne, Nebraska, in an open cockpit in the middle of January didn't discourage this airminded lad.

Vic inclines toward engineering and after graduation plans to go to an Eastern college.

June

The main job and worry of the new Lieutenant Colonel, Larry McNichols, is bettering the score of last year's battalion in the McDermott trophy race. Larry's military life

Phyllis

Central Profile

Larry McNichols

LARRY MCNICHOLS the phosphorescent effect was on.

Larry has been too smart for most Centralite pranks.

He has never bought an elevator pass, waited for the third bell, walked across the court on the third floor, or looked at the footprints on the ceiling. He brings his lunch every day and so far his only competitor has been mice, not men. To combat these rodents he puts his lunch in a tin box and sets traps.

The famous Germand Band is just one of Larry's musical accomplishments. He helped organize the funeral march fiddlers, but now his likes have graduated to orchestral arrangements. He is Vice-President of the newly organized All-City Orchestra and plays the principal cello in it and the All-State Orchestra. Because he reads music easily and he had the honor of turning pages for Fritz Kreisler and William Primrose during their recent Omaha' performances.

Larry wants girls "sweet, svelte, swish!"-somewhere between a football player and a ballet dancer.

Tweeds, bright ties, and pork pie hats are Larry's choice for a well dressed fellow. If you don't know what a pork pie hat is just sit down on one of your father's and you'll get the effect.

To complete the wardrobe there must be a formalso Pokey Bergh supplies a white satin and net creation A trim of soft draped satin circles the net skirt.

What Teacher Doesn't Know

"What sort of books do you like best?" My English teacher said. "God bless you, granny," I replied, And wished that she'd drop dead. "Do you like Dante?" she cut in. Now who the heck is that? If he writes stuff for second page, I think he's quite a cat. She spoke of Gibbon, Shaw, and Pope, Of Milton, Lamb, and such. I let the dear old gal talk on, She had me in her clutch. "I love those guys," I cried with joy, "Upon their works I feed," The truth is that they make me sick, Esquire is all I read.

Sluuuuurrrrp!

S. Slurpup began his life soon after he was born; fact he began life at a very early age. He was ve talented and was looked upon by his brothers and siste because he was the only member of the family who could go "sluuuuuuuurp" instead of just plain sluurp like t rest of his family. He could sluuuuuuurp so well this he decided to make sluuuuuuuuuuuping his profession Everything went well for several years and Slurpup g a good job on a radio program sluuuuuuuuuuping aw for Tasty Toasts, the crunchy delicious vitamins. O day while S. Slurpup was sluuuuuuuuuping on his dai commercial, he heard a man announce to a friend the he had heard of another pig who could sluuuuuuuu twice as good as S. Slurpup.

After hearing this, S. Slurpup, who was very prou of his ability to sluuuuuuuuuuuuup, cried and cried and final in desperation jumped out of the third story window of the radio station and lit in the sewer below, thus com mitting sewercide. So ends the silly saga of S. Slurpu who thought he could sluuuuuuuuup better than an other pig in the world.

948

S aunterei as glory. 's of the

the new les from acefully

lish our ar these the hall

vith ha angling

rd, and

'Sir'

a sedar

nts, and hrong

harpen

crow

me bu d little power'

a swee deal!!

mbina

bardin

lengt

e kic er idea

orn b r th

mbin

gree

orn

sma dres Dice (p is almos

stand

le an

oat. e gi

Jacki

white

OV

rs.

CENTRAL HIGH REGISTER

Gustavus Tourney Attracts Debaters

Competing against stiff opposition vo first year debate teams particiated in the Northwestern District ebate tournament held at Gustavus dolphus university, St. Peter, Minesota, February 6 and 7.

Pat Livingston and Warren Denenerg made up the affirmative team; on Silverman and Sherman Poska, ne negative team. Each team won wo out of four debates and at the ame time gained much valuable exto allow erience to help them in future de-

Three teams paid their own way Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Februy 13 and 14. The teams were Jim onnelly-Jerry Brodkey; Don Silveran-Sherman Poska and Pat Livington-Warren Denenberg.

The debaters are also preparing or a practice tournament at the Uniersity of Qmaha, Saturday, Februry 21.

We March with Faith' resents Paul Bunyan

Tall tales of Pecos Bill and Paul unyan was presented by Larry lavid and William Kent on "We larch with Faith" February 8, over OWH. This program was the first a new series entitled "Romantic ourneys," designed for high school njoyment.

Short stories ranging from the urely biographical to the tales of Edgar Allan Poe will be presented every Thursday for the next ten weeks.

AFTER DATES Eat in Your Car at DRICKEY'S DRIVE INN 1510 N. Saddle Creek

Additional Outstanding Exam Grades Reported Since the last issue of the Register, eight additional outstanding grades scored in last semester's final exams have been reported. In Miss Nell Bridenbaugh's English

VI classes, Rose Caliendo, Phyllis Daugherty, and Kathryn Sundblad received 99 in the exam.

Three freshmen made high scorers in Mrs. Ida Kirn's World Geography classes. Patty Gilinsky made 99 in the final test, while Bette Ann Poska and Susan Stoehr made 97. Patricia Hayes and Sylvia London scored 97 in the World History I exam.

Players Plan Programs

To encourage greater participation in Central High Players' activities and better attendance at their meetings in future months, President Jerry Mooberry and Treasurer Janie Black opened the February meeting last Tuesday with a vaudeville dance and themesong,"I'm Just Wild About Players.'

After the regular club business, Charlotte Monroe and Marylin Stroebele entertained the members.

Prix de Paris Finalist Named

Priscilla Bailey '45 has been named a finalist in Vogue's Prix de Paris contest. The contest offers as first prize a year on Vogue as a junior editor with six months of the year in their Paris office. Both first and second prize, six months on Vogue as a junior editor, may be extended to permanent positions on the staff.

Contestants had to answer four quizzes and to write a 1.500 word thesis. The quizzes were based on material found in Vogue and presented actual editorial problems. Winners will be announced in Vogue's May 15 edition.

Mrs. Kilmer Speaks On Types of Nursing

Before an audience of junior and senior girls, Mrs. Marie Kilmer, a graduate nurse, emphasized the advantages of nursing, Tuesday morning, February 10, during homeroom in a special assembly.

with a local pediatrician. For eighteen months she taught home nursing and various other health subjects with the Red Cross. As a special project, Mrs. Kilmer is helping in nursing recruitment under the State Nursing association.

In the nursing profession, there are various branches besides hospital work. Nurses find the positions in surgery and doctors' offices interesting and exciting, according to Mrs. Kilmer. One of the newer fields in nursing which is growing in popularity is that of the stewardess. She commented on the necessary work which school nurses and visiting nurses give. Nursing is considered so important that it has been made a separate division of the armed services.

Grads Distinguish Themselves

Mendelson Obtains Post

Leah Mendelson '45 has been appointed orientation chairman for the 1948-1949 school year at the University of Iowa. Under this program. sophomore, junior, and senior women write the new students during the summer and make personal contacts with them after they arrive in Iowa City.

Leah is business manager of the Hawkeye, yearbook of the university, and is in charge of the editorial layouts of the programs for the Panacea Show, the variety production of the university.

Alumnus Serves on Staff

Another successful Central alumnus, Vera Chandler Foster '31, a former associate editor of the Register, served on the staff of the 1947 Negro Year Book. The Year Book portrays conditions of present day Negro life in the United States and . In order to estimate the progress of his English VI students, W. E. Clark gave the Nelson-Denny Reading Test to his fourth and seventh hour classes last Wednesday. The results of these grades will be compared with the scores achieved in the reading tests given last fall.

The purpose of the tests are to predict the probable college success of the individual, to aid in solving student difficulties, and to section the incoming high school classes.

Vocabulary and the ability to read and understand paragraphs constitute most of the test. According to M. J. Nelson and E. C. Denny, of the Iowa State Teachers' college, other studies indicate that for better college students the test predicts general scholastic success with high accuracy.

Scores surpassing those of the average college graduate, 100 points, were made by the following boys: Lloyd Richards, 131; Harry Wise, 120; Bernard Beber, 115; Ray Hampton, 115; Dick Glissman, 112; Phillip Alberts, 107; Don Biesendorfer, 105; Lawrence Moore, 103; and Lloyd Smith, '103.

The fourth hour class median was 76 and that of the seventh hour class, 71.

Colleens Aid Polio Drive

Thirty-eight Central Colleens worked on January 24 collecting money for the March of Dimes. Marilyn Rabe '49 collected nearly $40 to win the orchid, an award given each year as a prize to the girl who collects the most money. In the last six years of competition, she is the fifth Colleen to win the award.

W. A. PIEL

DRUG CO.

Prescriptions

17TH AND DODGE

49TH AND DODGE

PHONE JA 8935

BARBARA BECK

Cosmetics

Candies

"Why?" he asked the class. One boy proudly exclaimed, "They have airplanes now!"

• They'll Do It Every Time

On the day permanent white cards were filled out, Miss Myrna Jones told her Expression II class to be very sure that their cards read "Expression II" and not "Expression I". One girl looked very puzzled, then looked up and said, "Isn't this Expression I?"

Ahh, the Good Old Days

To paraphrase an old ditty, "Dreaming can make it so!!"

An avid biology student, female gender, had just finished reading her assignment which concerned those slimy little creatures, segmented worms, and was resting her head on the study hall desk to take a well earned snooze. A practical wit sitting behind our female biologist, having noticed the assignment the girl had been reading, slyly dangled the end of a piece of string over the bare arm of his napping neighbor.

Fun Every Night!

at the

SADDLE CREEK

DRIVE IN

Saddle Creek and Hamilton

VAN SANT

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Established in 1891

EVENING - DAY Ask for Printed Matter

207 So. 19th Omaha 2 JA. 5890

CALL PL 4246 FOR APPLICATION BABY SITTERS' PLACEMENT SERVICE

4016 FARNAM STREET

DON IHM

DABY

Big Earnings

Little Work

SITTERS

40° PER HOUR

The study hall was disrupted by the wild shricks of a female who swore there were segmented worms roaming the room.

Page 3

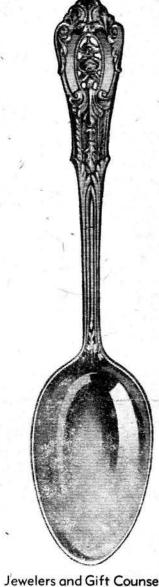

The Old Fox

Upon seeing the words "I Love You, I Love You, I Love You" on the blackboard in Room 337, one surprised student asked what in the world it meant. W. Edward Clark quickly explained that it was the title of a short story that his English VI pupils were studying.

You are cordially invited to

SEE FOR YOURSELF ROSE POINT STERLING

Jewelers and Gift Counselors ... since 1888

CARL S. BAUM DRUGGISTS Telephone WAlnut 6882

If It's PHOTOGRAPHIC,

CALANDRA CAMERA CO., Inc.

Mrs. Kilmer's present position is two students are welcome to a free skating ticket which may l obtained in Room 149 before or after school.

ROLLER SKATING

is a swell sport — loads of fun

Open every evening except Monday

WEST FARNAM ROLLER RINK

WATCH THIS AD IN EVERY ISSUE YOUR NAME MAY BE NEXT

Special Rates to Seniors

MATSUO STUDIO

ONE 8x10 OIL PAINTING

Given with Each Dozen Pictures Ordered

2404 Farnam Street

ATlantic 4079

TRENTINO CAFE

Specializing in Steaks - Spaghetti

Chicken Dinners

1112 SOUTH 10TH STREET

RINEHART-MARSDEN, Inc.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Established 1886

7TH FLOOR BRANDEIS STORE

PHONE JACKSON 1732 . . . ATLANTIC 8666

CENTRAL HIGH REGISTER

Cagers, Matmen League Standings Face Stiff Tests

State Mat Meet, A. L. Cage Game Top Events

Heading into the home stretch, both Al Hurley's cagers and Norman Sorensen's wrestlers face stiff competition next week. The grapplers compete in the state meet on February 21, and the basketball crew has games with Abraham Lincoln, Sioux City Central, and South before the regional meet.

First the wrestlers: this elimination tournament will offer them a chance to make up for the dismal showing they made in the tourney held at North earlier this winter. From all indications the Eagles will be one of the strongest contenders and chances for retaining the state title are very good.

Lightweights Pace Squad

Most of the grappling strength is held by the lightweights. Bob Mancuso 85, Gary Holst 95, Henry Nyberg 105, Jim Farris 112, Rich Nigro 118, Jim Kais 124, Frank Mancuso 130, and Rich Reese, heavyweight, get top billing. Frank Mancuso and Henry Nyberg are state champs from last year, and all of these boys are capable of coming through.

Next in line for the basketballers is A. L. which Central plays at home, February 20. The Purples will be trying to avenge a 37-31 loss hung on them by the Lynx earlier this season. Stopping big Hughes Wilcox will be their main worry as this handy giant is one of the most feared cagers in the city.

Traveling up the river the next day, the Eagles will meet the Sioux City Central aggregation. The two teams have not met previously this winter; so the comparative strength of the squads is not known.

South, Lynx to Test Cagers

The cagers tackle South at South Feb. 24. Chances of a repeat victory over the Packers are bright, but the Southsiders, though not the strongest team in the city, are still rugged and are sure to be hard to beat on their own floor.

By drubbing both of these Intercity rivals, Coach Hurley's crew can gain a tie with A. L. for second place with only Prep above them in the standings.

If the matmen and basketball squad can win these contests, this will be the most successful winter season that any of Central's present students have witnessed.

Eagle Cagers Drop Tech, North

With games remaining against Abraham Lincoln, South, and Thomas Jefferson, the Eagle cage team has a strong chance of finishing in second place in the Intercity race. Now in third place, the Eagles are only one game behind A. L.

L

1

Intercity League Standings

1. S. C. S. C. S.	w	1
Creighton Prep .	9
Abraham Lincoln
Central
South
Benson
Thomas Jefferson	12
North
Tech	1
In the Missour	Vollov loog	110

In the Missouri Valley league, Central ranks in fifth place. Only games against South, Abraham Lincoln, and Sioux City Central remain to be played.

Missouri Valley League Standings

W
Abraham Lincoln7
Lincoln Central5
South3
Sioux City East4
Central2
Sioux City Central1
Tech1

Letter to the Editor Dear Fourth Page,

Just because I'm a girl, is that any reason why I shouldn't get my name on the sports page? I go out for bowling, basketball, volley ball, and ping pong. I also belong to the Girls' Athletic Association and am on the tumbling team and cheer squad. You can see I'm a peppy, snappy Central champ but how's any one going to know I am if you don't tell them about it?

Forever Central Dear Forever Central:

As soon as we got your letter we tore off your three cent stamp, pasted it in our stamp book and hiked off to see if there were any more of you gals turning somersaults around the school. And who should we see doing that very thing but two members of the tumbling team, Ruth Slogr and Joan Jochum. On the other end of the mat Belle Strattan and Barbara Wilkerson were doing some terrific back flips.

Next we hiked down the alley and saw eight Central bowling teams in action. Staying till the end of the game we saw some unusually high scores made. The highest, 155, made by Lois Schneider. Marie Zadina had a score of 151, and Beverly Dunlap 137. The top three teams were the Big Five, Lucky Ladies, and the Termites.

The next sports coming up in the girls' department will be a ping pong and volley ball tournament. These sports are always popular; so if you're looking for fun be sure and sign up with Miss Marian Treat some time this week.

altzman cribbles by Paul Saltzman

Looking over past Central records, one is immediately struck by the "new look" in wrestling. Former squads displayed winning prowess in the heavier weights - - - - this year's squad is held up by the lightweights. Abundant praise should be given to Coach Norm Sorensen for his expert handling of the Eagle matmen. The squad showed a definite trend toward team honors rather than individual laurels. One must probe far into the past to find a "drought" in Central's wrestling career. Thus far the grapplers have won seven titles in the last eight years. * * *

Fans - - - - let's brush up on basketball rules! Considerable comment from referees and anxiety on Coach Hurley's part are caused by the words, "shoot, shoot", during the closing moments of the first and third quarters. "Only at half-time and game's end does a team automatically lose possession of the ball".

Although much discussion has been aroused by the recent inability of Subby Ruma to score points, he still remains one of the ablest players in local high school circles. Subby's defensive talents and potential scoring ability have salvaged many a Central victory.

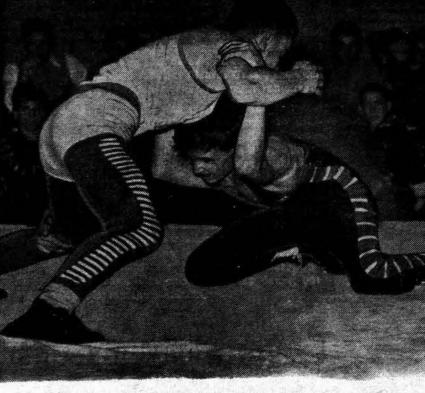

In local hockey, Tom Jauss and Jack Neiman are displaying an excellent brand of skating and scoring ability. Jauss, a left-wing on the Russell squad, has succeeded in turning the difficult "hat-trick". Coach Esmond Crown's tumblers, who are slated for an exhibition at a local grade school today, are beginning to smooth out flaws in their gymnastics in anticipation of the state meet, March 27.

Ruma Tops Cagers; Mancuso, Wrestlers

Basketball				÷. 1
Name]	Fg		Ft	Pts.
Ruma	36		10	82
Fairchild	20		16	56
Bruning	14		16	44
Hughes			6	84
Roth	9		1	19
Brown	7		4	18
Shea			2	14
Wrestling				1
Name M	F	D	т	L Pts.
Nigro11	2	7	1	1 80
B. Mancuso11			0	2 29
Farris		7	0	1 28
Reese 6		4	1	0 19
Walat			-

Kais 10 1 6 0 8 18 Nyberg 10 0 7 0 8 12

Gridder Sets Fast Pace Bruning and a torrid scoring streak by the North rooters, Bob Fairchild As Seconds Top Tech

HENRY NYBERG, rugged Eagle lightweight, grapples with T. J.'s Jim Aten, on the way to a 4-2 decision in the 105-pound class.

Mister Little

"Tiny but terrific" best describes Rich Nigro, the 118 lb. dynamo of the Purple wrestling team. One of the top scorers in the Eagle ranks, Rich has already shown himself as the "man to watch" among the lightweight wrestlers of the city.

A member of the varsity squad for three years, Rich started his mat career the hard way. Without having wrestled before, he entered the school mat tournament his sophomore year and proceeded to astound both the coaches and his opponents by garnering two quick pins and a berth on the varsity squad. Since then he has missed only one varsity match in three years and has compiled an enviable string of victories.

"Life's Darkest Moment" came for Rich in last year's state tournament when he was edged in the final match by an opponent he had defeated before. To make matters worse, he pinned his man again in a match held a week after this meet. Rich came back from the state meet defeat, however, to annex the runner-up spot in the 1947 Midwest A.A.U. tournament.

Aside from one defeat suffered in the 124 lb. class, Rich has racked up six victories and one tie during the 1948 season. In the recent North Invitational tourney, he was the only Central wrestler to achieve championship rating. In view of this impressive record, he is recognized by the mat authorities of the city as the outstanding contender for state honors in the 118 lb. class.

Girl Keglers Annex

If you should see an athlete walking through the halls who stands six feet two, has long curly locks, sports a big grin on his face, and wears a blue pin stripe, the chances are 3-1 that it's Fred "Frobby" Bruning.

Mister Big

"Frobby", the moniker placed on him by Frank Hahn, is one of Central's most capable athletes. In both football and basketball he is one of the main cogs, and next year his shoes will be hard to fill.

For two years he has played end on the varsity. Against Thomas Jefferson last fall, he hit his peak when he caught seven passes to highlight the game although the Eagles still lost. He is also a fine defensive player and a hard man to block out of the play.

Basketball is Fred's major extra curricular activity during the winter. This season he has developed into one of the most vital members of Coach Hurley's squad, and when he is not in the game, Central's play loses much of its efficiency. His big moment in the cage sport came last Friday when he paced the Purple scorers with eleven points in the 32-25 win over Tech.

Other activities include the O-Club in which he has been a member for two years and now is serving in the post of sergeant of arms. "Frobby" has stated that his one ambition in life is to become a millionaire, preferably by marrying a rich window, who also, incidentally, must be beautiful.

Purples Take Championship

Matmen Blast South 23-19; Tee Jay, 20-17, To Win Intercity Title

by Harvey Lee Cooper Assistant Sports Editor

crea

fron

cont

exhi win

gall

C

tant

Bel

Pau

Kul

Ra

Put

Feb

will

Kri

disc for

Old

ou

enj

cei

hai

tro

By winning the first seven matches Central amassed enough points w defeat South 23-19, and to capture the Intercity wrestling championship, Central also topped the league las year.

Although winning the remaining matches, the Packers were unable to gain the five pins necessary to defeat the Purple and White.

The matmen, under Coach Norma Sorensen's guidance, lost their onh match of the season to North. The mistake of this loss was shown a the Eagles handed the Vikings a resounding thumping in their second meeting.

Vikes Also Trip T. J.

The outcome of yesterday's match with Tech, win, lose, or draw, couldn't have removed the Eagles from their lofty perch. North made this situation possible by defeating Thom. as Jefferson and thus severing their last hopes for championship honor.

Gary Holst won the only Eagle fall, while Dan Verrmillion and Steve Marinkovich were the only South Side boys to claim five point apiece. Rich Nigro pulled a 3-6 de cision over Don Burson after getting the worst of some poor officiating Nigro even shook the referee's hand for finally awarding him the de cision.

Results:

- 85-B. Mancuso (C) decisioned Al len 4-0. 95-G. Holst (C) threw Mayo h
- 3:40. 105-H. Nyberg (C) decisioned New
- ville 5-3 in overtime. 112-J. Farris (C) decisioned Man
- liney 2-0. f18-R. Nigro (C) decisioned Bur son, 3-0.
- 124-J. Kais (C) decisioned Reye 4-2.
- 130-F. Mancuso (C) decisioned Murch 5-1.
- -Vermillion (S) threw J. Pruck in 3:20.
- 145-Fisher (S) decisioned S. Pomi doro 6-0.
- -Marinikovich (S) threw F Hahn in 4:52. Heavyweight-Burson (S) decision
- ed T. Scott 4-1.

Thomas Jefferson: 20-17

Racking up the first fifteen points the Central grapplers dumped Te Jay 20-17, February 7, to take over first place in the Intercity league The bouts featured no pins and all matches were closely contested.

The Eagles' strong lightweigh

Page 4

by substitute Tony Roth, combined to give the Central High cage squad a 32-25 victory over an inept Tech High quint last Friday night on the Purple court.

Eleven points by Center Fred

Tech jumped to an early lead on Mosiman's free throw, but a quick field goal by Bruning sent the Eagles in front, never to be headed. The Maroons trailed 7-5 at the end of the first quarter and were on the short end of a 14-9 count at the half. Central stretched its lead to 24-17 at the third stanza and maintained a seven point margin for the 32-25 nod.

Maroon Rally Falls Short

Tech: 32-25

The Techsters' only serious bid came early in the final period when two field goals by Novak pared the Purples' lead to one point. Field goals by Shea and Roth, however, quickly quenched the threat.

Scoring ace Ray Novak of Tech garnered top scoring honors by dunking 12 points, while a greatly improved Fred Bruning paced Central with five field goals and a gift toss. Bruning's snappy ball handling sparked the Purple offensive throughout the game and the rugged senior was also a mainstay on defense.

Roth Hits Nine Points

Individual star of the game, however, was Eagle guard Tony Roth. Sent in to replace Bobby Fairchild, who was injured early in the second period, the surprising junior tallied on four of five field goal attempts and annexed nine points for runnerup honors in the team scoring. In avenging an earlier loss to Tech, the Purple cagers further strengthened their third place berth in the Intercity league standings. With their earlier win over the Eagles as their one conference victory this season, Tech was dropped further into the League cellar.

calmly poised, took aim, and potted the game winning free throw. The Eagles, by staging a last quarter rally, nipped an improved Viking squad, 32-31, in a foul-marked tilt last February 10.

Amid the ear splitting din sent up

After trailing throughout most of the contest, the Purples caught fire in the last quarter, outscoring the Norsemen 12-3. Aside from the final stanza and part of the second canto, the Central attack failed to click.

Fairchild Sparks Final Drive

North: 32-31

Four key players were ejected on fouls early in the game; Bill Hughes and Fred Bruning of Central; John Leach and Ron Roeder of North. Without these men the play was ragged and neither teams' plays worked properly.

Fairchild started the winning rally by getting a tip-in, then Subby Ruma and Al Brown netted two quick baskets to narrow the Vikes' lead to 28-26. Fairchild again came through with a rebound shot and Joe Murphy duplicated this feat. From that point North garnered three freethrows and Central two to end the scoring.

Lincoln: 30-34

A last half rally fell short as the Central cagers dropped a close 34-30 decision to Lincoln Central. By carrying on a stalling game for the last three minutes, the Links kept the Eagles from getting the ball, thus maintaining their lead.

The Capitol City squad rushed to a 12-4 first quarter advantage and were ahead 20-12 at the half. Before the intermission, Bob Fairchild and Bill Hughes were the only Purples to find the range.

Coming into the second half, Fred Bruning and Al Brown were the sparkplugs closing the gap to 26-24, but the Links put out the fire and kept Central to six points in the final period.

By defeating Tech again in their second meeting, the Central reserves definitely established their superority over the Maroons.

In their first meeting the Techsters were downed 43-19, while the second time saw little improvement with a 41-35 loss. Bob Grider was high point man with 18 tallies. Bill Shainholtz was good for 8 points.

The reserves also pulled North in line by gaining a 37-34 verdict. Grider again led the pack with 16 markers. Vince Dougherty followed with

In a prelude to the Lincoln Central game the seconds defeated A. Z. A. 100 34-26.

Superior ball handling and control of rebounds was the difference between the teams. Bruning topped the Purple attack getting nine points and Farchild and Brown each racked up six. Joe Good and Harlan Lesman paced the visitors accounting for 15 of the Links' total score.

Sioux City: 33-36

Sioux City East's stalling tactics were successful in defeating Central 36-33 on the home court, February 6.

Central held a 6-5 lead at the end of the first period, but from there on were never able to top the Orange and Black.

Gordon Dunker, the big East center, had things pretty much his own way as he hit the basket for 20 points. Harlan Nimrod was good for 11 points. Central's best was 11 points by Bob Fairchild. Subby Ruma tallied 7 points for runner-up honors.

John Shea appears to have successfully filled the vacancy left by Bob Reynolds, a January graduate. Shea's long shot artistry has established him as another potential scoring ace. Al Brown's sharp defensive play was instrumental in breaking up the East offensive drive.

Intercity Tournament; Dunlap Paces Victory

Central girl bowlers won first place in each of the main divisions of the Intracity bowling tournament, held February 14 at the Music Box.

Beverly Dunlap walked away with a bowling ball for scoring the highest number of points over her average. She topped her 92 average by 139 points to score 192.

Nancy La Ferla won a pair of bowling shoes by bowling 160 in the individual game division.

A gold trophy was won by Dorothy Fox's team which had the highest series in three consecutive games. The team had a total of 1487 points. Those on the winning team were Lucille Di Giacomo, Betty Cimino, Mary Consolino and Dorothy Fox.

After the tournament the winning bowlers were interviewed over KBON.

The other schools participating in the tournament were Saint Mary's, Duchesne, and the Jewish Community Center.

Marksmen Vie in Intramural Tourney

An intra-squad rifle meet was held by the Central marksmen Thursday, February 12, at the Eagle range. The match was held to keep the boys in training as they had no matches last week.

The five highest total scores were Tom Branch, 188; Robert Sveska, 186; Alan Blotcky, 183; Edward Claeson, 179; and Lucien La Rue, 179. Their combined total of 915 was also the high team score for the meet.

Height-5' 5" Weight-145

Activities-Football, Wrestling, Baseball

Question Box

Ambition-To graduate in four years Pet Peeve-Girls who wear long dresses

Hobby-Collecting pin-up pictures Favorite Song-"Linda"

Alumni to Compete

In A.A.U. Tryouts

Led by Joe Scarpello, a group of Central alumni will attempt to gain high honors in this year's A.A.U. and Olympic wrestling contests.

Scarpello, who was state prep champion for three years and N.A. A.U. crown-holder in his senior high school term, is seeded top among the candidates for the nation's 175-pound Olympic berth. Joe, the present wrestling captain at the University of Iowa, has been officially acclaimed the school's "all time great in wrestling".

Two other matmen, Fred Pisasale and Lou Rotello, are among the country's top group claiming residence in Omaha. Pisasale, a recent Central graduate, has already garnered the United States Navy's Hawaiian championship, and is favored to gain further laurels in the sailors' national tournament, March 1. Former holder of the Midwest A.A.U. crown and runner-up in the National A.A.U. at 147 pounds, are the titles held by Rotello.

Other alumni who are soon to make strong bids for A.A.U. and Olympic honors are Joe Vacanti, Herb Reese, and Lou Garrotto, all of whom are well known to Eagle sports enthusiasts. Garrotto has recently won the West Coast Navy championship at 160 pounds.

Bob Mancuso, Gary Holst, Henry Ny berg, Jim Farris, and Rich Nigro handily disposed of their opponents before the Yellowjackets' Henry Carmichael cracked the ice by upsetting Jim Kais, 3-1.

Scott Assures Central Victory

From that point the Purples were blanked except for Frank Mancuso's win in the 136 pound class and Tom Scott's tie in the 165 bracket. Scott the underdog, got his tie at a most crucial moment and assured a Central victory.

This meet was very similar to the one held earlier this season when the Purples dumped the Iowans, 22-20. the Eagles piling up too many points in the lighter weights for the Yellowjackets to overcome.

85-Bob Mancuso, Central, decisioned Pd 85-Bob Mancuso, Central, decisioned Peconey, 7.3.
95-Gary Holst, Central, decisioned Bulon Hazlip, 4.2, in overtime.
105-Henry Nyberg, Central, decisioned Jir Aten, 4.2.
112-Jim Farris, Central, decisioned Rose Redman, 2.1.
118-Rich Nigro, Central, decisioned Bo Christensen, 3.0.
124-Henry Carmichael, TJ, decisioned Jir Kais, 3.1. 124—Henry Carmichael, TJ, decisioned Jum Kais, 3-1.
130—John Hazlip, TJ, decisioned Albert Crum, 2-0.
136—Frank Mancuso, Central, decisioned £4 Lane, 6-4.
145—Leonard Schrieber, TJ, decisioned Pomidora, 8-2.
155—Bob Nusser, TJ, decisioned Miloni, 6-3.
165—Leland Munson, TJ, drew with Scott. 2-2.

Heavyweight-Don Ryan, TJ, decisit Hahn, 8-4.

Murphy's Frosh Squad Clips Vikings for Title

By defeating North, 25-22, Central's freshmen clinched the city basketball championship in a game held Saturday, February 14, at the Tech High gym.

The young Eagles, who led all the way, and at one time held a 21-4 advantage, are the only team that has beaten the Vikings all season Guard Mel Hanson led the Purples with seven points.