Summer Trips

By Eh Khu Poe
and Max Spizman

1. Olivia Kiefer (12), Valeria Welk and Isabel Hoiberg (11) pose for an underwater selfie. "My favorite part was the day we spent snorkeling along the Mesoamerican Barrier Reef System with sharks," Kiefer said.

2. Hime Moore (11) holds up a fish. "You better Belize-it"

3. Cate Connor (11), Jeremiah Jackson (11) and Isabel Walocha (11) swim beneath a waterfall. "My favorite parts about this trip were definitely the zip-lining excursion, cliff jumping and swimming at the mountain reserve, and our down time where we were able to explore or just chill and have a good time," Connor said.

pov: EUROPE in the mountains

Jack Adrian (12) attended the Europe trip over the summer. "It was such a life-changing experience. We had a wonderful tour director and our chaperones were top tier. I feel so so privileged to have visited this part of the world as well as see World War II sites and artifacts," Adrian said.

Ann Carlson (11) enjoyed the views. "My trip to Europe was a great experience that I'm glad I got the opportunity to go on. The scenery was beautiful throughout all of Germany and it was really fun to see The Alps in person. Everyone on the trip was super fun and the teachers were great to travel with," Carlson said.

Mr. Jimmie Foster and Ms. Libby Cruz watch over the incoming freshmen during their first lunch hour. "Much like Red Velvet we are destined to Pop," Foster said.

Freshman Day is a time for incoming freshmen to get acquainted with Central's nooks and crannies, as well as their new friends and classmates. Central seniors were asked to come in and help the freshmen navigate their new school, alongside their favorite teachers and administrators.

Sienna Maskin (9) eating lunch in the courtyard. "My favorite part of the day was eating in the courtyard. It is a cool and unique area you can't experience at most schools. I love being able to grab a table with my friends to eat and talk at," Maskin said.

B.J. Newsome (9) sprints across the field during the relay race.

Brodie Urwin (12) represents the Central Drama Club as he speaks to freshman during their first drama class of the year. "It was a great opportunity to be able to introduce our new freshmen to the world of Central Drama," Urwin said.

Holden Fershee (12) and Amy Fischer (11) discuss upcoming IBDP events with Mrs. Beth Wilson. "It's really cool that we get to be some of the first people that the freshman see in their first day of high school," Fershee said.

Liam Whitsett (9) races across the field during a freshman day activity.

Jacqui Moss-Breen (10), Sarah Spomer (11) and Bailey Peters (12) in their weight class. "We love Mr. G's class and showed up everyday for a month hoping that the BeReal would go off in that class. Mr. G had informed us that if he had BeReal, he would definitely #bereals so we had to include him in it," the trio said.

Scarlet Losole (11) and Isabel Hoiberg (11) at a Pitbull concert. "Isabel and I got to go to a Pitbull concert this year so I can finally say, 'Believe me, been there done that,' when anyone asks if I've seen him in person," Losole said.

Marcus Kane (10), Garret Hawkins (11) Dominic Thomas (11) and Sam Parker (10) getting their BeReal taken by Mrs. Jodi Dierks at lunch. "I love seeing what people are doing when the notification goes off. I also love making fun of people who consistently post late," Kane said.

Hattie Moeller (10) and Renny Maxwell (10) posing during passing period. "This BeReal was Hattie and I walking to weight training. It's fun to see what other people are doing during the day in BeReals which is why I like using it," Maxwell said.

Seniors Gabrielle Garret, Hanna Sortino, Veronica Weide, and Bethany Thimjon proudly display a sign referencing the popular app, 'BeReal'.

Seniors Christian Bartlett, Elliot Brown, Benjamin Nodes, and William Parker lead the student section. "The first game is always the loudest and it was nice finally being at the front of the student section," Brown said.

Aamir Hill (10) clutches the ball as he escapes the opposing defense. Central won their first home game against the Northwest Huskies. "It was a great feeling winning the first game of the season and being back on the field," Hill said.

"The first game was very refreshing for the team. We played well and it felt great to be back. The student section is always packed during the first game so it was nice hearing how loud everyone was," Caleb Pyfrom (11) said.

Sophia Tiritilli (11) sings the lyrics to Flashing Lights. "I loved cheering at the first football game and starting my junior season out with a win," Tiritilli says.

Macy White (10) smiling for the camera. "I joined cheer this year so I would be able to incorporate my gymnastics background into a high school activity. The first football game was an amazing atmosphere with the student section filled up. Being able to start the season off with all my teammates and a win for Central was a great feeling," White Said.

Almarwa Alkhalil (11) and Alsafa Alkhalil (11) take a break from helping the team to smile for a camera. "The first game of the season was so a fun and great atmosphere. The coaches always treat me right and make sure everything is good. It is always a fun experience," Alsafa Alkhalil said.

Titan Bernal (10) is one of the first male cheerleaders in recent Central High history. When asked how cheerleading has affected him, Bernal said "I get a lot of questions about being the only guy on the cheer team. It's different for me! It's changing the way I see myself. Titan is overjoyed to be of the first male cheerleaders at Central, although he hopes he is not the last.

Shayden Gotto (12)

"Me and Hunter just played over the summer and thought, let's join the team. I play doubles mostly. The ship name for me and Hunter is 'Shunter,'" said Gotto

Hunter Oakley-Hornbacher (12)

"The varsity team is super supportive and we all have our own inside jokes which keeps things lighthearted. We compete hard and always come out smiling, no matter the outcome," said Hornbacher.

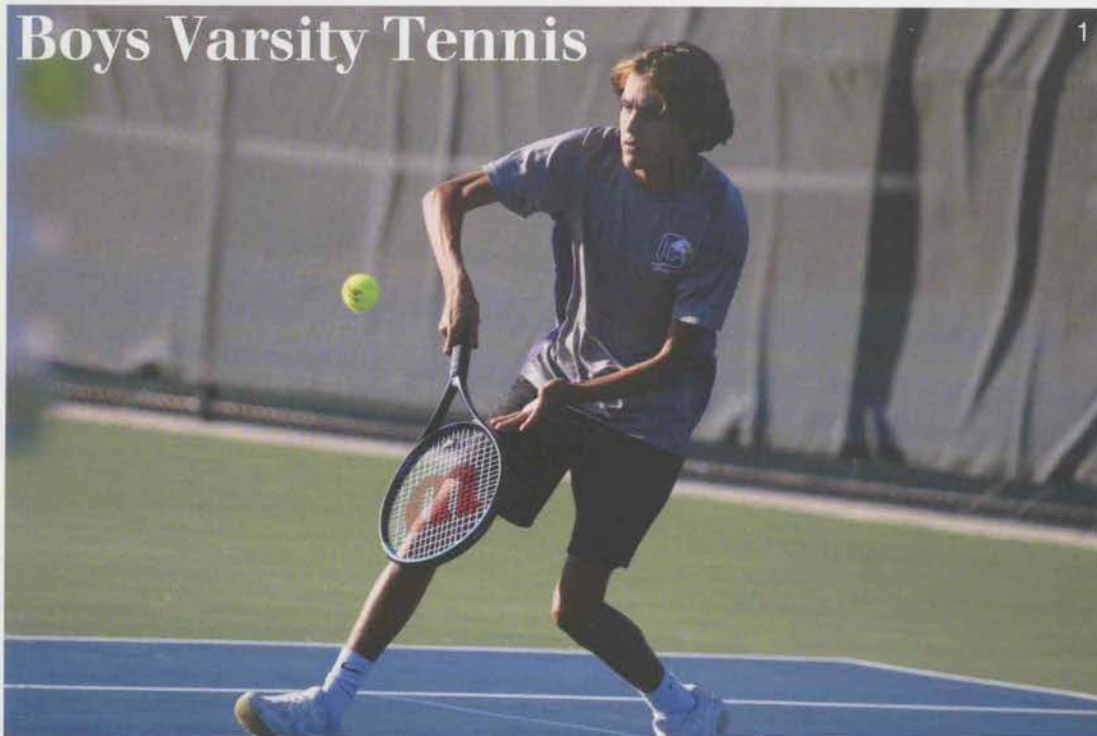

Colin Simmons (11) and Julian Gabel (12) fist bump each other. "It wasn't until this year where we got to play doubles together that we became good friends and made the season much more fun for each other."

Boys Varsity Tennis

Boys Varsity Tennis

1. Elliott Gray (12) "I love the adrenaline and excitement that tennis offers. The team is great and everyone is super nice and very funny. The matches are always exciting to watch," Gray said.

2. Erik Nieto Garcia (11) "Last year I met the Spanish teacher Mrs. Kuskie, and she recommended me to join tennis, I did and liked it, so this year I just decided to continue playing," Garcia said.

3. Colin Simmons (11) "Playing tennis is fun because of all of my great teammates. I am going to be very sad to see all the seniors go," Simmons said

4. Julian Gabel (12) "I like to stand back, hit with a lot of spin, and make my opponent make the error," said Gabel.

My Favorite Thing About The Movie Is... It Feels Like A Movie -Harry Styles

O Brother, Where Art Thou?

1. Cris Bataillon (11) picked O Brother, Where Art Thou? "My Latin class watched it on the last couple of days of school. It was Mr. Tyrey's last year of teaching and it's nice to know I can remember him by watching that movie," Bataillon said.

Moonrise Kingdom

2. Alice Larson (12) chose Moonrise Kingdom. "All Wes Anderson films remind me of happy childhood memories. Specifically of cute elementary school crushes," Larson said.

Coraline

3. Zakheya Johnson (11) picked Coraline. "When I was a kid, I would watch this movie with my siblings on a rainy day, everything just felt perfect," Johnson said.

4. Jillian Bertino (11) loves Marriage Story. "It's such an excellent masterpiece, with phenomenal acting and incredible storytelling. This film is criminally underrated, and I hope others begin to appreciate its beauty," Bertino said.

Marriage Story

5. Kaitlyn Abboud (10) enjoys 10 Things I Hate About You. "It's just an all time classic. It's a great love movie that everyone should watch at least once," Abboud said.

10 Things I Hate About You

6. Casey Sanden (11) is fond of Water Lilies. "It's a beautifully made movie that shows a real depiction of being a girl. I watched it during a time where I was feeling the same way as Marie and it resonated with me," Sanden said.

One of two saxophone section leaders, Tate Underwood (12) plays the saxophone during an after-school band practice.

One of three drum majors for Central's hundred member band, Emily Gonzalez (11), leads their section.

TyVelle Foster (12) and Tate Grabher (12) perform in front of the student section during the dramatic halftime drum cadence.

The trumpet section performs the song "No One Mourns the Wicked" during a home game halftime show.

Marching for the last time this year, Sylvia Barnes (12) said, "Performing with the people you love is a breathtaking experience, and it's something I will miss a lot after graduation."

Trumpets Hugh Lowe-Weyand (10), Connor Jorgensen (9), Xaida Momii (12), Saniyah Tessi (9), and Julius Gentleman (9) practice their talents.

going solo

Michael Lathrop (11) plays the double bass for Central's Jazz Band. In the fall concert, he performed a solo with drummer Tate Grabher (12).

Ella Novak (12) performs a solo during the fall concert. "I grew up listening to jazz, so playing with this community is wonderful," she said.

Robert Winton (11) plays a solo on the Bari-saxophone. Winton takes four music classes at Central, which includes jazz band.

Eh Ler Aye (12) shows off his outfit. "I always grew up wanting shoes, looking nice. It's mostly the color coordination for me, knowing how to use color is important," Aye said.

Jackson Leonard (12) wearing Jordan 6 x Travis Scott Olive. "I paid $620, I consider myself a crazy sneakerhead. I love shoes and I always gotta have some fresh shoes on my feet, it's mandatory. These are arguably the best Travis Scott collabed Jordan's," Leonard said.

Central Couture Fashion By Eh Khu Poe

1. J'Anna Levering (10) and Kiara Baptiste (11) pose for a picture, "If I wake up and I wanna get dressed, then I'll get dressed," Baptiste said.

2. Emily Marcial-Genchi (12) posing. "I follow my style and go with what I'm comfortable with." When asked about how much her Yeezy Foam Runners were, she said, "They were about $250."

3. Xavier Barlow (12), Grayson Ridder Young (12), and Gyanaj Sims (12) posing. "Vivre et mourir invicta... 'vivre et mourir' means live and die in French, 'invicta' means unbroken or unconquered in Latin," Barlow said.

4. Alsafa Alkhalil (11) poses in her outfit. "I love fashion so much because that's how I like to express myself. Fashion gives you so much freedom and you have no limits when it comes to creativity, and that's what is cool about it. Literally anyone, no matter who you are, you can 'do' fashion by mixing and match clothing pieces, jewelry, and expressing yourself," Alkhalil said.

staffers rate the drip

Register Editor-in-Chief Shyla Youngs (12) rating the Thunder 4's: "I'd rate 4/10 because I don't like shoes with a lot of black."

Ella Jaksha (11) rating Aye's outfit: "Solid 8.5/10. Love the khaki backpack and camo juxtaposition. Love the Army turned high fashion core."

Mercedes Hall (11) rating Alkhalil's outfit: "7.5/10 because it's very simple and cute. I love the sweatshirt and I think it's really cool how the shoes match."

Mr. Hilgenkamp rating the Black Cats: "4/10. It's trying to be Batman and it's not working. Get a little bit of contrast and colors in your shoe."

Coach Brent Larson and Carina Hernandez (10) observe the other players. "Golf is really fun this year and I feel like I improved a lot from last year, and I have done very well at tournaments. I am looking forward to getting even better next year," Hernandez said.

5. "The environment at practices and tournaments is super fun and such an easy place to make friends. The team is super close and we have a lot of laughs. Remember to reapply your sunscreen!" Renny Maxwell (10) said.

6. Delaney Reiss (11) said, "Practices are a super easy and a way to meet new people while playing an entertaining sport like golf."

2. Louis Reed (12) said, "I started golfing my freshman year, about a week before practice started. I was terrible starting out, but I know that I've improved while being on the team. The season is very short, which is both good and bad, and while I don't think I'll continue playing golf competitively, I will recreationally and the team is very chill."

3. Grace Sunseri (9) said, "Our team really feels like a family. Everyone was friends with everyone and it was a great environment to play in."

4. "It is my first year ever playing golf. I really enjoy it and the team has made my experience so much more fun and enjoyable," Avery Gilbreath (11) said.

I found it in my kitchen junk drawer- but taking it to games, or when I'm hanging out with friends allows me to remember all the small moments of my senior year," Youngs said.

2. Cheerleader Sophia Tiritilli (11). "My junior year at Central has been a learning experience and has helped me learn and grow as a person," Tiritilli said.

3. Grace Sunseri (9) and Lucy Puls (9) at the construction football game. "As a freshman this has been a learning year, but I am really enjoying Central and know I am at the right place," Sunseri said.

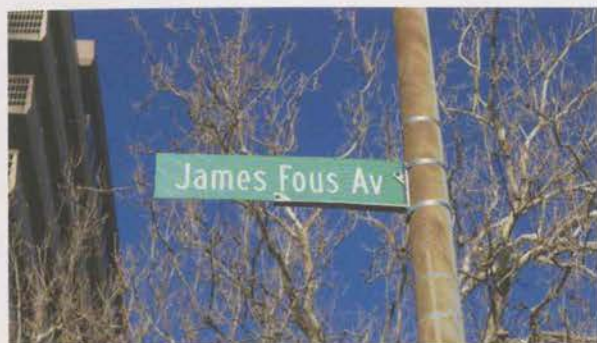

4. "This school year I feel as if we have grown closer as a class and truly made the most out of our last year together," Weide said.

5. "The best part of the school year at central is getting to be part of our amazing student section," Varguez said.

Laura Elmer (12) posing with her family. When asked about a big culture shock Elmer said, "Everything is so spread out here, if you want to do something here you really need a car. That's something different."

Maidier Gonzalez de Uriate Lopez (12) posing. "I really like the teachers, they are more friendly with you. In Spain, your teacher is a really formal person so they only teach. But here, you can chat with them, and I think it's funnier here."

Federica De Felice (12) posing with family. "There's a lot of activities, a lot of opportunities, and a lot of stuff to do. There's a lot of people with different cultures and backgrounds than in Italy," De Felice said.

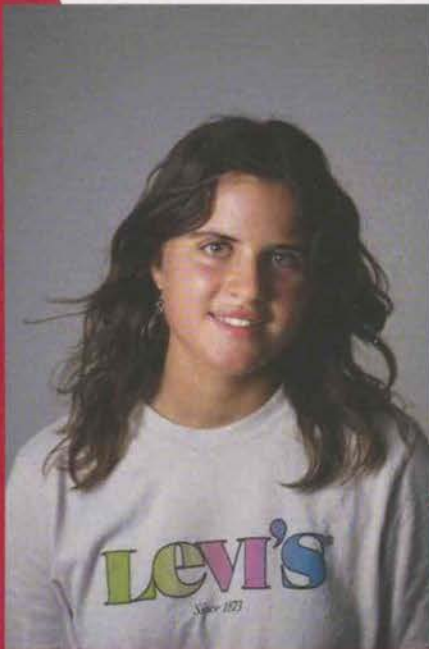

Caterina Ponti (12) posing. "I'm enjoying Central! It's so big. My school is so small so it's cool. Everyday you meet new people, it's fun."

Rafaela Gutierrez Escribano (12) loves "Everything! I really like the parks because you guys have squirrels and stuff which is so lovely. I like the nature here."

JROTC

1. A uniform inspection is conducted as part of the JROTC Program of Accreditation, or JPA. It is a mass review of the JROTC program by higher ups. This year, Central's Battalion scored a 97%, a score that less than 10% of programs receive.

2. and 3. Jonathan Robles (10), Zander Miller (10), Isabella Bohnert (11), and Alex Krasnoslobodtsev (11) perform Color Guard for inspection. "I'm really proud of our score at JPA, and how hard we've all worked to accomplish it," Bohnert said.

4. Officers grade the Color Guard as part of the Battalion's grade for the Program of Accreditation.

5. Jamal Wilson (11) discusses the Color Guard performance after the group finished. "I've really enjoyed having more of a leadership role this year, and helping the freshmen and sophomores learn how every part of our Battalion operates."

By Sarah Spomer and Adriana Aguilar

1. Laura Elmer (12) and Kyra Fry (10) with their medals after racing. "I enjoy cross country because you meet so many people and you have to put in an effort in order to get better. The team is very welcoming and encouraging. My favorite thing about the Central cross country team is the team dinners and team bonding," Fry said.

2. Hudson Palu (10) taking advantage of the downhill. "I made so many friends this season and we had a lot of fun on bus rides and team dinners together. My motivation for running is the feeling I get after I finish a race," Palu said.

3. Alsafa Alkhalil (11) grimaces as she runs to finish the race. "What inspires me is people cheering me on and the popsicles at the end of the race," Alkhalil said.

4. Gia Stang (12) is determined to get to the finish line in her final meters. "The team is very encouraging and motivating. I determine my success in the sport by when I feel truly satisfied with my performance. It was a successful last season," Stang said.

5. Chloe Johnson (12) and Lucile Leighter (11) pushing each other to finish strong. "I enjoy cross country because it's a great way to release stress after a hard day and it keeps you healthy and fit. Despite what many think, cross country is a team sport and we have to support each other. Success within the sport only comes from beating yourself, and you can only define greatness when you are being compared to yourself. My favorite aspect of the team is the great runners we have and the amazing and supportive coaches," Leighter said.

Isabelle Walocha (11) describes her experience at the Jack Harlow concert. "It was fulfilling. Listening to someone and supporting them, then realizing they are actually a real person is surreal," Walocha said.

Scarlet Losole (11) poses at her favorite concert of all time, Pitbull. "Going to concerts was definitely 95% of my summer, but the most memorable concert I saw was Mr. Worldwide! He was an amazing performer and I have never screamed louder in my life," Losole said.

Hanan Endris (11) raves about the G59 concert. "Each artist would come out to perform their sets and the whole crowd would go crazy," Endris said.

Hannah Free (12) talks about her favorite moments at the Post Malone concert. "Singing the songs, having the times of our lives, and just being with friends," Free said.

Sarah Spomer (11) poses at a Harry Styles concert. "I went to two nights of Love on Tour in Chicago recently and had the best time ever. I've been supporting Harry and One Direction since 2011, so it was super surreal getting the opportunity to see one of the members in concert. He puts on a great show," Spomer said.

Hadley Forsen-Yepes (11) takes a selfie with friends at the Wolf Alice concert. "The band's energy was unmatched, the lights were very impressive, and I got to hear some of my favorite songs played live. It was very unifying being stuck in our own little universe for a couple of hours," Forsen-Yepes said.

1. Charlie Yale (11) looks up at the statue as it is unveiled.

An emotional Roger Sayers, Gale's brother, speaks to the crowd. "The story of Gale Sayers, the Kansas Comet, the Chicago Bear, has been told over and over again in books, film and print," Sayers said. "What is not often written were Gale's accomplishments after football."

Charlie Yale (11) enjoyed speaking at the statue unveiling. "Sayers and his family have done so much for Central in so many ways, and it's wonderful that we've commemorated him in such a permanent, striking way, right in front of the football stadium," Yale said.

Principal Dionne Kirksey speaks of the impact Sayers had on the Central community. "Here at Central High we remember Gale not only as a football player, but as a brother, husband, father, grandfather, advocate for equality and supporter of Central High," Kirksey said.

Littleton Allston speaks about the touching moment he experienced when he was asked to do the Sayers statue. "(I) was so thrilled to get the opportunity to bring my talents to sculpt one of the great people of color in the history of this nation," Allston said.

Fall Orchestra Concert

Autumn Rhythm

By Kane Ballard

The Fall Orchestra Concert marks the first orchestra concert of the year, and with a lot of new musicians it was a learning experience for some. There was certainly a lot of pressure to perform well, and many claimed they were nervous before it started.

1. Norah Purcell (11), an experienced viola player remarked, "It was a pretty early concert all things considered, I knew that we could play it differently but there's always a chance it could flop, though it went pretty well all things considered."

2. 1st chair violin, Audriana Reese (9) said, "I thought it would go well, and it went really well."

3. Trinh Hang (12), a violin player, stated, "Honestly I thought we wouldn't have enough time, and I didn't have too much hope for the concert, though it went alright. I don't care for playing warm ups, but songs I've learned extensively are fun. Give us more stands." Orchestra president Daniel Cook (12) said, "I was pretty nervous as it was our first concert, though I was confident in our ability to play. The concert went pretty okay, our first song wasn't the greatest though our last song, 'Arachnid's Lair,' most were happy with."

4. Kendall Duncan (11), a veteran violin player. "I didn't have the most faith in us going in and the high notes were not in tune, but the concert went better than I expected, and I wish we did more events and performances," Duncan said.

2. Marissa Cruz (12) hits a bomb to center field. "Central softball was full of many ups and downs, but I will forever be grateful for the coaches and girls I've played with, and the bonds I created," Cruz said.

3. Grace Hodges (12) and Josephine Bohn (12) hug, saying, "We really came together well as a team this season, it took a little time for everything to click, but when it did it was so exciting to see all our hard work come together" Hodges said.

4. Ruby Titus (11), Annie Vickery (12), Marissa Cruz (12), Grace Hodges (12) and Elizabeth Pavelka (12) celebrate an infield play. "My softball experience this year was great! There was lots of improvement from past seasons and some fantastic new talent from our freshman. I had such a fun time with all my teammates and can not wait for next season," Titus said.

Camryn Rank (12) "The season has gone alright competitively, but socially our season is going great. Everyone on the team gets along and we're more like a family than volleyball since we focus a lot of our energy on team bonding and mental health this season."

Maya Rodgers (10) celebrates Mr. Wilson as her teacher to appreciate. "I really enjoyed my experience in Mr. Wilson's class freshman year and was overjoyed to see him at the game. Also, I'm very proud of my teammates, as they played to their best ability and beat Northwest!"

Esperanza Martinez (12) huddles with her teammates. "One of the best parts of playing Central Volleyball is my amazing teammates, they help me become a better player every single day," Martinez said.

Scarlet Losole (11) and the bench celebrate a point. "Managing this team has been the best choice I've made in a long time. It's just a family like environment and everyone is so fun to be around, so much love for this team!" Losole said.

Isabel Hoiberg (11) waves during player introductions before a game. "This season was for sure a learning experience for all, but I think we will all remember it as the season for friendships made instead of the season of adjustment," Hoiberg said.

Central's junior choir performing one of their songs during the 2022 fall choir concert.

Bel Canto is an ensemble that consists of only sopranos and altos. Each year, Bel Canto performs "The Rose".

CHS Singers is a valued tradition in the art's department. Central selects its best vocalists to perform in this honor choir.

A Capella has been at Central for blank years. It is tradition for those in this choir to sing "Salvation is Created" with Alumni members on stage.

Lux Dahlke (10), a member of Bell Canto said, "We were fairly confident on most of our songs, aside from Regina Coreli which we needed more practice with the concert when well though." Dalkhe said Tenor Section Leader, Brodie Urwin (12) "I could tell all of us were anxious, especially because we were debuting a new piece," Uwrin said.

A veteran alto singer, Ella Novak (12) said "I thought that the concert would go fairly, we were doing all state pieces in a Capella, I was nervous for CHS singers, but I thought we did pretty alright." Novak said.

Singer, Katie Gray (11) "I thought the concert wouldn't go as well as it did, I was nerve wracked during our rehearsals, when we were on stage, I was shaking and then I got on stage at the actual concert and it was just so much easier than I thought it would be." Gray said.

Cara Bacome (12) has been working since she was 16 and does consultations for Arnold Clark Photography, "I work so I can prepare myself to be an adult so it isn't a complete shock and so I have extra spending money," Bacome said.

Kimberly Borgstahl (11) has been a lifeguard at the YMCA since August. She mostly works during swim lesson days and deals with a lot of young children. "I like my job, and I like helping people. I feel like work does interfere with my school work, I feel like if I had less classes it wouldn't be an issue," Borgstahl said.

Paige Holland (12) has been working since the summer after her sophomore year. She used to be a gymnastics coach at Premier Gymnastics though she now works at the Makery making door signs and crafts. "I really like my job, and it doesn't really interfere with school. I do want to be a part of like, society and have something to do, and being able to work with art is definitely something I want to do in the future," Holland said.

Adison Huffman (10) works at Light House Bar and Grill. "I like the environment. I would recommend getting your first job between the ages of 15 and 16. I work because I have things I want to pay for and I'm a very independent person," Huffman said.

Anker Jensen (10) has been working at La Casa for seven months now. "I like that my job is pretty easy and not very hard so I don't get very stressed. It's pretty easy to balance my job and school work as I have block scheduling. I like having my own money and can save up for things," Jensen said.

winter orchestra concert

1. Jillian Bertino (11) "I think we did all right, not the best to be honest, though I think we have a lot of talented musicians here. I honestly liked Sweet Suite, I thought that it was a cute little arrangement, easy to play and fit the holiday theme," Bertino said.

2. Hailey Whitbeck (12) "Overall I felt like we should have had more time, but we did do decently and I'm proud of what we accomplished, we didn't have class that day though we were able to go to the auditorium and practice and practice a few of our songs. I really enjoyed playing La Maritsa, and I wish I practiced more," Whitbeck said.

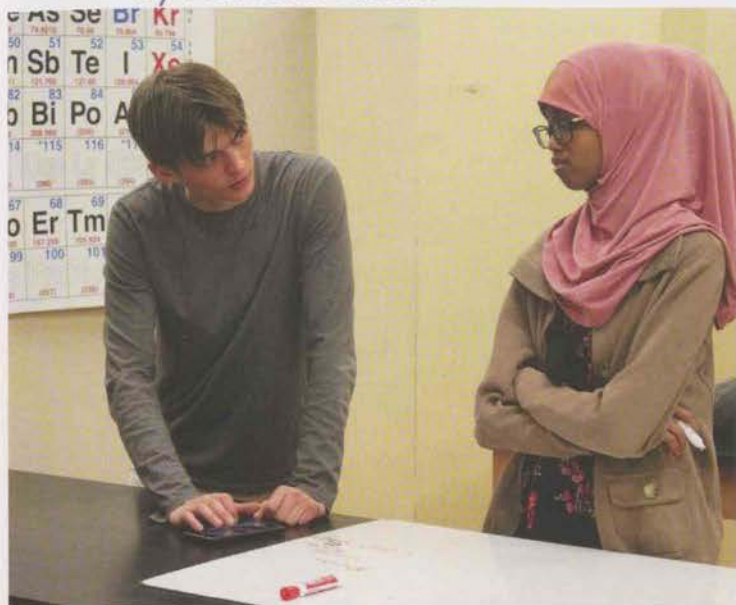

Brielle Wilson (11) "We were a bit rough with the tempo on one or two songs because we kinda increased the tempo last minute and I'm not sure if . I think it went pretty well, La Mariposa was pretty fun, I don't know if we played as well as we could have: Peppermint Bark is just such a cute song, I particularly like those two," Wilson said.

Lily Callon (12) "We probably got that music and started playing it like a month before the concert , I think it was an all around good concert and we were kinda prepared to go into it. We played a version of carol of the bells and the house of the rising sun and that was very interesting, very cool," Callon said.

Behind the Scenes

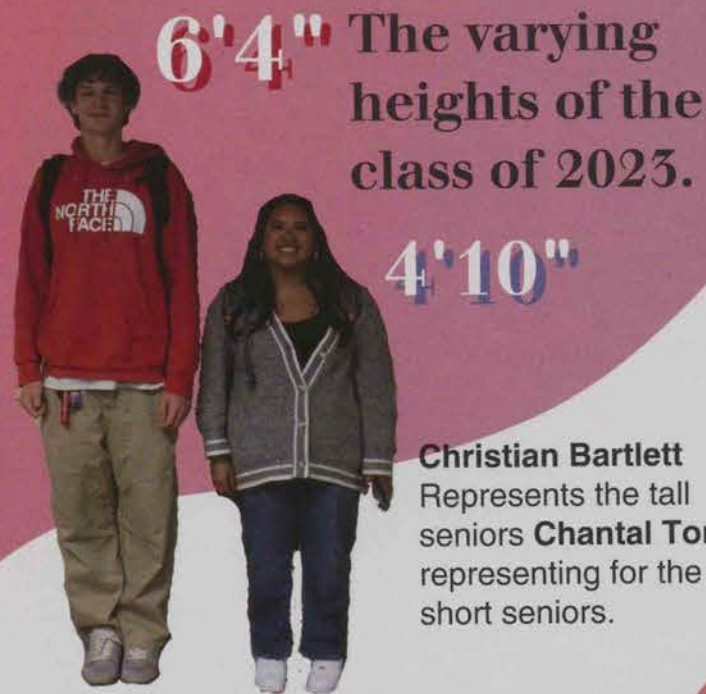

by Madeleine Mitchell

Rayya Haider (12) & Emiliano Ortiz Morales (12)

This year was the first ever cultural fashion show at Central High. The organization of the event was all taken care of by seniors, Emiliano Ortiz Morales and Rayya Haider. The two of them collaborated together to conduct the event. "I always had the thought of throwing a multicultural fashion show at this school. I was inspired by the one my older sister, Amna Haider, threw at the University of Iowa called 'Walk it Out'. This goal did not seem reachable until the very beginning of my senior year, when I was thinking of a community oriented DECA project," Haider said. Both of them have different hopes for whether this new tradition carries on in the following years or whether this will be the one and only show. "Sadly since we're seniors, I don't think this will continue next year. Although we've tried to embed the idea into the juniors and sophomores we can only hope this will continue annually," Ortiz Morales said. "I hope Central Roots continues as an annual event. I recognize how fresh this was for the people in this school, knowing the several students who had to step out of their comfort zone to showcase their culture in front of an audience," Haider said. The two of them are also just as proud of what they have accomplished in the school even if the tradition isn't continued. Haider hopes that other clubs such as THRIVE holds more cultural events with how wide and diverse Central is. Just as there were ups, there were also many difficulties and challenges they faced along the way. "There were many difficulties in the process, whether it was student cultural representatives not showing up to show day, or some of our cultural food servings not arriving. Nonetheless I feel that we handled everything successfully," Haider said. The food served was all from local places such as Okra African Grill, Mexican pastries from International Bakery Inc, Abelardo's, and Zaytuna Mediterranean Food truck owned by two recent Central High graduates. Haider and Morales are incredibly proud of the diversity they were able to showcase at the event and hopefully it will stay that way in the years to come.

Madrigal Dinner By Kane Ballard

The Madrigal dinner is annually put on by the choir program during the Christmas season. The meal is divided into courses, in which the CHS singers, Bel Canto choir, Bell Choir, and members of the Orchestra perform during the meal. The Choir members also act as servers. Kendall Duncan (11), a violinist with the quartet says, "I didn't have as much time as I would have liked, but I'm pretty seasoned at performing so I wasn't particularly nervous. I really liked the Silent Night piece. We gave Norah the solo in that, and she learned it in 3 days and she played it very well."

Joanna Sandquist (11) says, "I was super nervous because my mom was mad at me for wearing the wrong shoes. We reused some of the songs from last years madrigal but going through the service part was scary because you felt like you were going to drop food everywhere. I really liked flaming pudding, it's a fun song."

Grace Spicka (10) says, "I think the madrigal really shows off Bel Canto and CHS singers. It also shows how good we can sound with the music that we learn in less than a few months," Spicka said.

"Practice went decently but it wasn't enough, we just needed a little bit more. Hodie Christus Natus Est was my favorite, that song was so hard and our teachers thought we couldn't do it but we did and it was awesome," Katie Gray (11) said.

Terra Dineen (11) said, "We stayed after school and set up risers the day before the madrigal. We did run through on the day before the madrigal. A song that I liked the was Jingle Bells, but I think I like Carol of The Bells more than I liked Jingle Bells though."

I met some new people who joined swim this year and I think it's always a great experience and there's never a dull moment at meets and at practices. Everyone is supportive and cheers for everyone, and the coaches, especially Jared, are so cool and fun."

2. "The team is so fun and it feels like a big family. You create a certain bond with everyone which makes it more enjoyable. The season is always rough, cold weather, cold pool, early Saturday meets, morning practices over breaks, and it's all a lot of work. But, that work definitely pays off in the end. Nothing is more rewarding than a time drop or hugging the team because everyone is proud of each other," Hannah Croll (10) said.

Jingle All the Way!

Winter choir concert

By Kane Ballard

The A Cappella choir is Central's largest choir. "Ms. Cowan and Ms. Bohn worked hard so that we know the pieces back and forth, so I felt secure and I knew the music," Sophia Detisch (11) said.

Pretzel Urwin (12) singing. "Adonai Ro'i is definitely my favorite. My love for language really comes out when we sing in a language that we have never sung in before. It was just so pretty. CHS choirs in general are just amazing, and we have so much dedication and such an amazing music teacher, as well as an amazing accompanist who writes pieces for choir that perfectly fit in our vocal range," Urwin said.

Terra Dineen (11) says, "I thought that the concert would be easy, winter concerts are usually pretty laid back. My favorite song out of all the songs that we sang was Arroz Con Leche, I just thought it was a bop and fun to sing."

Natalie McConkey (12) says, "I thought that we did pretty well. Arroz Con Leche was really good because I liked the tempo."

CHS Singers sing a piece A Cappella. "My favorite song this year is probably Jingle Bells, mainly because I got to ring the bells," Jacob Wichert (12) said.

Ms. Bohn conducts the Bel-Canto choir with accompaniment by Mr. Bouma. The choir consists of only alto and sopranos and the class is required for those voice parts before they can join A Cappella.

Bell Choir practices playing the Wii Sports theme.

Katie Gray (11), "Kendall said join and I said ok. Of the pieces we played, the Wii Sports theme is superior, though Sakuro is also good," Gray said.

Pretzel Urwin (12) practicing. "With Bell Choir you really depend on everyone being there since everyone plays a different note. This year we did the Wii sports theme, and that was really fun getting to learn since no other bell choir has done it before."

"I heard about Bell Choir from Brielle, who asked the entire orchestra class if they wanted to join. Ms. Bohn does a really good job dividing our time so we have enough time to practice before different performances. The Wii Sports theme is definitely my favorite," Kendall Duncan (11) said.

"I heard about it because Kendall and Brielle were doing it and I was like, 'hey I'll do one more music thing'. Ms. Bohn conducts Bell Choir but she focuses more on keeping time. The Wii Theme we're doing right now is really fun," Norah Purcell (11) said.

Unified Bowling State By Avery Gilbreath

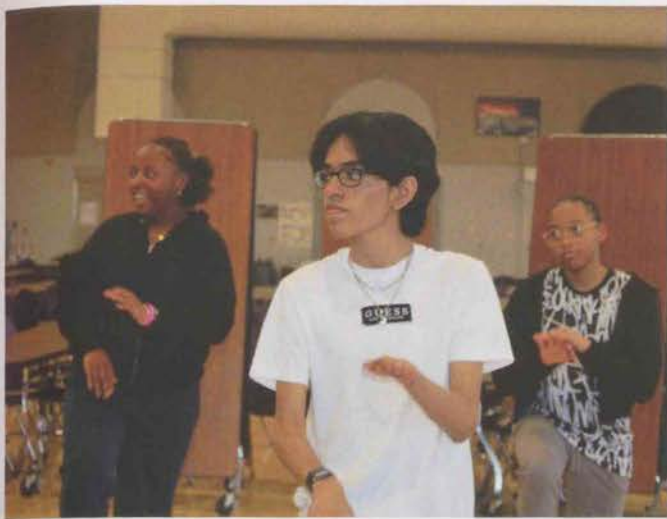

Ashton Vincent (12), Sheldon Myer (12), Jose Mejia Ruiz (12), Kyle Vaughn (12), Elijah Webster (12) at state unified bowling. "Unified bowling was an amazing experience because it allowed us to connect with people that we normally don't interact with at central. I had a lot of fun bowling with the team and meeting new people. It was also awesome that our team won districts and got to compete at state, Vincent said.

Coach Kreber discusses with the team before they begin. "The Unified State Bowling Tournament was an awesome experience for our kids. To start, we bowled a qualifying contest against Fremont. Our nerves from the massive crowd really showed. But as we moved to bracket play you could tell our confidence improved. We bowled against the #1, Millard South. We got down 2-0 and were faced with an elimination game. Coach Drwal pulled Kylie Vaughn off to the side and delivered a motivational address which propelled us to victory. Kylie poured in 3 straight strikes! We took that game from the Patriots, but they ended up winning the match. Overall, it was a wonderful experience for our team, and we look forward to qualifying again," Kreber said.

Aiden Ramirez (10) dances in practice. "When I first went here I found out this team was a thing and my friend convinced me to try out. I tried out and here I am now, and I'm enjoying every single minute of it!" Ramirez said.

Ahyonna Williams (12) practice a dance. "I joined step team so I could have something to do after school and just ended up finding sisters in the process. The environment is really encouraging and fun," Williams said.

Raven Brye (9) dances in practice. "I love being in step because it gives me an opportunity to be myself and show my ideas," Brye said.

Amaya Gish (12) dances in practice. "Having a sisterly bond is why I love the step team."

Bobby Winton (11) expresses much love for Phoebe Bridgers. "Phoebe and Taylor being 1-2 on my top artists makes sense because I can't stop won't stop listening to their collab, 'Nothing New'. I also love Fiona Apple, Faye Webster, and Clairo, but Phoebe forever," Winton said.

Peter Jensen (11) expresses their love for popular indie pop band, Car Seat Headrest. "Frank Ocean, please drop an album," Jensen said.

Brayden Simpson (11) enjoys listening to rock legend, Bruce Springsteen. "I listen to music for hours every day. I think that the way an artist can write a song about one of their experiences and millions of people can relate it to their own is amazing. Actually no, I sound pretentious, Bruce Springsteen make the good music," Simpson said.

"My top artist being Taylor Swift and Phoebe Bridgers is not surprising to me. I got to see Phoebe live over the summer and it was such an amazing night. I've also seen Role Model, Beach Bunny, and Ricky Montgomery in concert, but I sadly did not get Taylor Swift tickets," Bailey Peters (12) said.

Jacqui Moss-Breen (10) said, "On a scale from 1-WHAT?!? how expected was this? Be honest. Taylor Swift has such a wide variety of songs that there is always an album I can be listening to, no matter my mood or the weather outside. If her newest album, 'Midnights' had come out earlier in the year, I could almost guarantee that the top 5 songs would be from that album."

Ryan Rouse (11) said, "Wallows has definitely been my favorite band since I heard the first song from them. Every single one of their songs are unique and overall amazing. My top song being 'Remember When' by Wallows is nothing surprising to me. I heard it once and I was instantly hooked, never been bored of it."

Heavy Lifting

By Jillian Bertino

1. The 2023 Powerlifting season has been very successful for Central's entire team, but especially for junior Isabella Blazeovich. "Powerlifting became a source of happiness this year, even though it's not easy. It takes a lot of time and hard work to improve, but my teammates and coaches have helped me succeed," Blazeovich said.

2. Powerlifting powerhouse Ke'Ijha Hadley (11) squats 510 pounds in her third round of squatting. "Throughout this season, I've had to learn to adapt to new teammates and adapt to new personal goals. As a freshman, I was able to break several records, so the only goals I set for myself was to 'break records.' However, this year, I learned this sport is much more than winning medals, and breaking school records. It's about being better than I was the last time I stepped up on the platform," Hadley said.

3. Powerlifting coach Dennis Baker observes his students competing in the squat, bench, and deadlift categories. 4. Darin Williams (12) takes a deep breath before his final squat. "This past season has gone really quick. Powerlifting is an awesome sport and I suggest it to anyone who wants to join a sport or push themselves," Williams said.

CHS Singers By Mercedes Hall

Pretzel Urwin (12) "I love bringing joy to people to our singing and seeing how much they enjoy the music makes it worth it. I also love the people I get to sing with. Seeing and singing with them brightens my day," Urwin said.

Ella Novak (12) "I most enjoy the focus on performance in CHS singers. Our teachers push us to our highest level in order to create incredible music and it has been a great learning opportunity," Novak said.

Hime Moore (11) "I enjoy the dedication that everyone puts into our group. Singers is filled with some of the most kindhearted people I know and we all love music which shows during class and performances," Moore said.

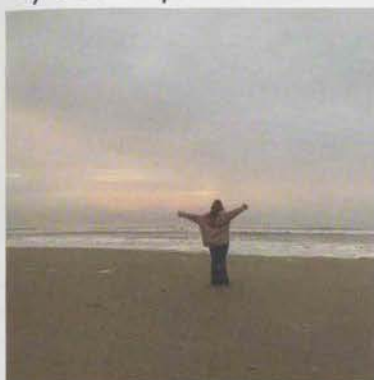

Natalie McConkey (12) "Going around the building to sing for classrooms is always an enjoyable experience. People love to listen to the choir sing all kinds of songs. It's nice to put smiles on others faces and spice up their day. Even when we make a teacher cry, it's most often happy tears," McConkey said.

Artists & Musicians at Central
By Armando Ruiz-Hernandez

Maria Hernandez (12) "I started taking ceramics this year and my only regret is not taking it sooner! Ceramics gives me an escape from all the scary stressful school stuff and allows me to be creative," Hernandez said.

Elle Winder (12) "I've always been fond of using my hands to create. My mother and father encouraged my creativity and sense of individualism from a very young age," Winder said.

Sofia Di Lorenzo (12) "I plan to continue my art journey in the future. I'm going to be pursuing graphic design in college while doing all other kinds of art in my free time" Lorenzo said.

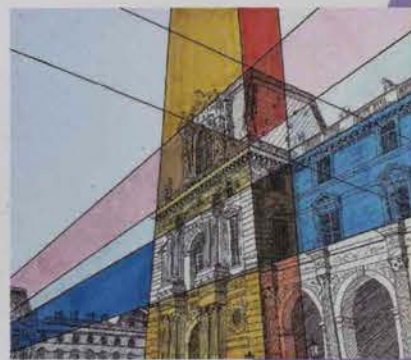

Lily Labs (12) "I've been drawing since I was a toddler, due to influence from my artistic mother. I always knew I wanted to pursue a creative career, but didn't take it seriously until sixth grade," Labs said.

Ella Jaksha (11) "Art is pretty much the only class I come to school for. It has shaped my whole life, and I hope to continue to study art in college because I seriously could not live without it!" Jaksha said.

Olivia Kiefer (12) "I have entered art competitions and branched out to different medias like acrylic and digital art. I have illustrated a Children's book; I started an art club at the international school I attended when I lived in the Netherlands." Kiefer said.

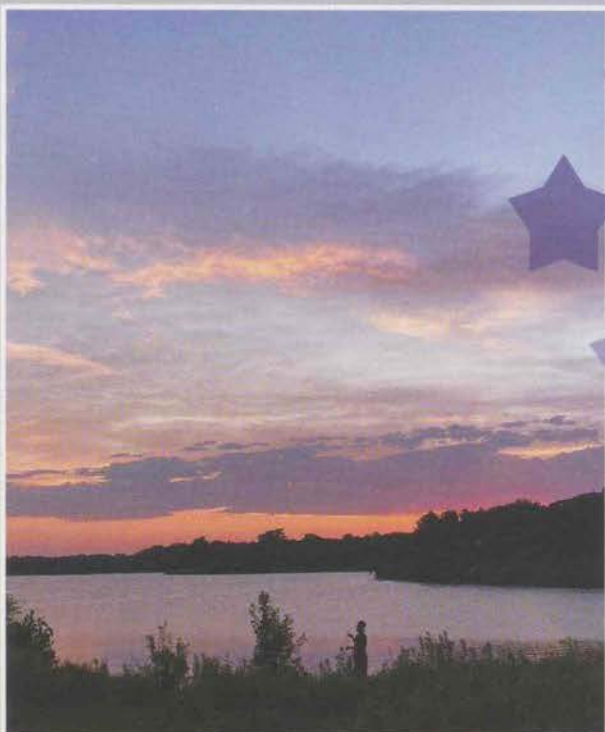

Owen Moeller (12) "I have loved art from a young age, but I have only started to take it more seriously in the past few years. I am going to go to college for Industrial Design. I hope to blend my art into more three dimensional and functional objects," Moeller said.

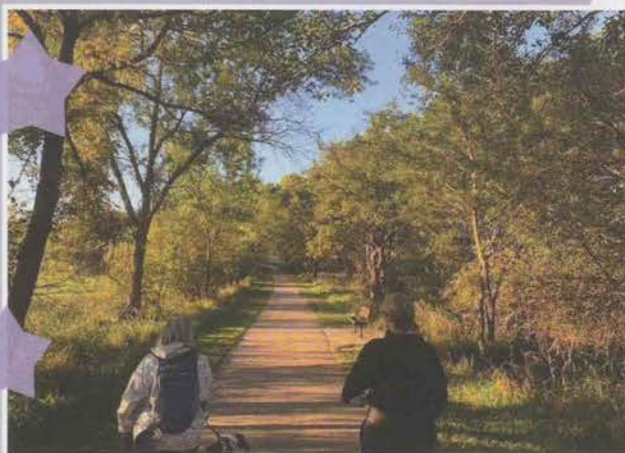

Eh Ler Aye (12) Ler Aye is in Ceramics 1-2 and is enjoying this art form a lot, when asked what he enjoys about it Ler Aye responded, "I like to explore and find out what I can make and see how it turns out. I myself just enjoy working with my hands and create a piece that would satisfy me or at least be to my liking."

Frances Hoover (12) When asked about why Ceramics has won over Hoovers heart she said, "Ceramics is a fickle art, because sometimes the finished results aren't what you initially imagined. That's why I love it because what ever comes out of the kiln is a mystery and I will either love it or suppress my disappointment and try again."

The spot Avery Gilbreath (11) chose was Lake Zorinsky. "Lake Zorinsky is one of my favorite spots to watch the sunset, have a picnic with friends, and enjoy a beautiful view," Gilbreath said.

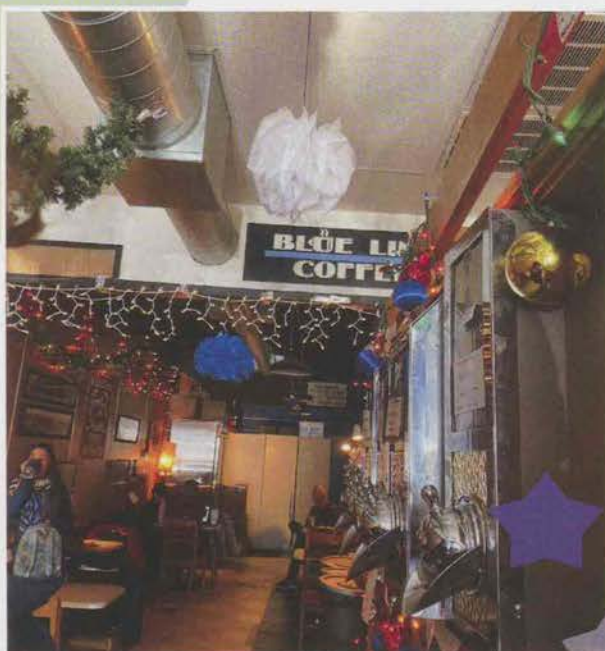

Isabella Mitchell (12) chose spots at the Chalco Hills and Flanagan Lake. "The first one was at Chalco Hills, and it's a beautiful way for walking the dogs and spending time appreciating nature, especially if you rent a bike. And the second one was at Flanagan Lake, off of 168th and Fort, which is another place for spending time in nature and having picnics with friends," Mitchell said.

The spot Braden Carne (12) chose was Neale Woods. "Ponca hills has such a great view. Perfect for sunrises, sunsets, and star gazing," Carne said.

The spot Frances Carlson (11) chose was the dock next to Bob Kerry Pedestrian Bridge. "I go to this spot with my friends, to watch sunrises, have picnics, and listen to music. It has amazing views and is the perfect spot to chill," Carlson said.

Alexander Parks and others sketch on the board for an art club activity.

Ella Sater (11), Mallory Bultsma (11), Miles Severe (11), Mariah Panteau (10) and others join together in a group to discuss ideas. "Personally, I feel art club has been a great way to express the creativity and variety of art to all students, whether they are enrolled in art classes or not. The teachers have done a great job at creating projects that not only unites our diverse student body, but also connects Central with other businesses and organizations around the Omaha community," Sater said.

The Artist and The Athlete

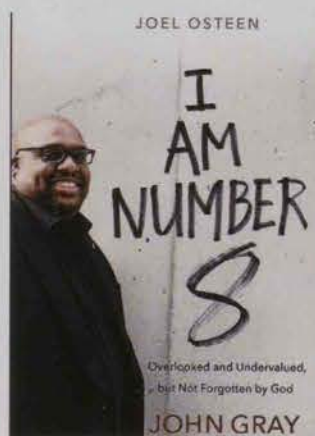

By Jillian Bertino

"I was a very artsy kid," Ella Sater (11) said. Sater is known for being active in not just the visual arts, but the performing arts as well. "I have a great relationship with my art teachers; they understand that I have a lot on my plate," Sater said. Sater particularly mentioned ceramics teacher Lindsay Cisco as flexible and encouraging. Outside of Central, Ella takes Irish dance class five days a week, which makes it difficult for her to focus on both artwork and schoolwork. "It (Irish dance) takes up so much time. The art I do is very detailed work, so it takes a very long time to finish." Sater's sleeping habits are infamous, as her schedule is full from morning to night. In addition to fulfilling herself artistically, Ella tries to challenge herself in school by taking AP classes. "I started in the IB program and I've been in the program since fifth grade." Sater expressed her enjoyment for the pride program at Lewis and Clark Middle School, a program focused on mimicking the IB structure. But once Sater arrived at Central, IB became strenuous and a nuisance. "I was in the pre-IB program my freshman and sophomore year, and at the end of our sophomore year we had to choose between the AP program and the IB program. And I chose to take AP classes, because it fit my schedule better, as IB is notoriously rigorous." Because of Sater's hard work and dedication, she has received several awards. One of Sater's art pieces was chosen by Scholastic to be hung in the governor's mansion.

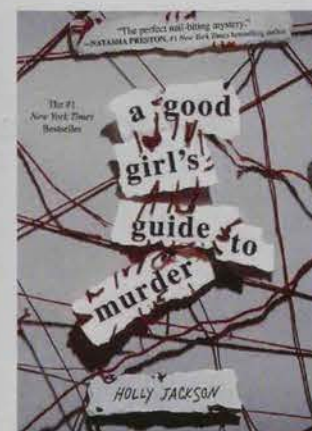

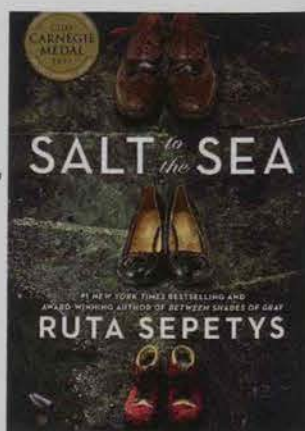

Book Talk

By Narvena Sallom

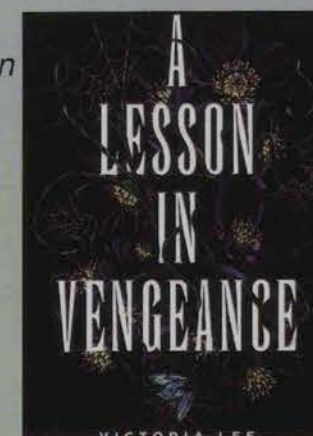

Kaleciana Perry (10) enjoys reading John Gray's I Am Number 8. The book is critically acclaimed and has been turned into a movie since publication.

Madeleine Mitchell (10) likes reading Salt to the Sea by Ruta Sepetys. "It's not my favorite, but it's still very good," Mitchell said.

Junior Sarah Spomer loves the A Good Girl's Guide to Murder trilogy. "It's a mystery thriller that keeps me guessing," Spomer said.

Fiona Bryant (10) enjoys reading A Lesson in Vengeance by Victoria Lee.

Esteemed student athlete Brooklynne Costello (11) has been involved in athletics since the age of five. "I've always been really passionate about sports," Costello said. Such devotion was introduced by her father's own dedication, as she cites watching sports with him as a significant part of childhood. Since her start in softball, Costello is known for her participation in basketball, football, tennis and powerlifting. Besides athletics, Costello devotes the rest of her time to the International Baccalaureate program. "I went to Lewis and Clark for sixth, seventh and eighth grade, so I've been in the program for a long time." Costello claims that she has always favored the learning style of the program, and enjoyed how small it is. "I've created such a nice bond with these IB students, because we all have pretty much the same schedule." Costello cites powerlifting coach Dennis Baker as a teacher who creates a safe and encouraging environment for students to grow not only athletically, but academically as well. "He makes it very clear at practice that we are not just there to lift, but we're there to learn. He doesn't want us to leave our academics behind." In addition to pushing herself in athletics, Costello pushes herself in school as well. The IB program is known to be rigorous, which gives Costello a good challenge. "I try to balance schoolwork and sports, but sometimes I lean more towards athletics." Costello explained though she does take time out of school to practice and train, she still prioritizes her classes and schoolwork. Costello has been recognized for her dedication to sports and school, as she was nominated for an event held in Chicago celebrating honors student athletes.

★ Childhood favorites / memories

By 4B Yearbook Class

Sarah Spomer (11) expresses her love for One Direction as a child, as well as now. "Ever since I was a kid, I have been obsessed with One Direction. Louis was always my favorite member, and any time I think about the fact that they said they would only be gone 18 months, I die a little inside."

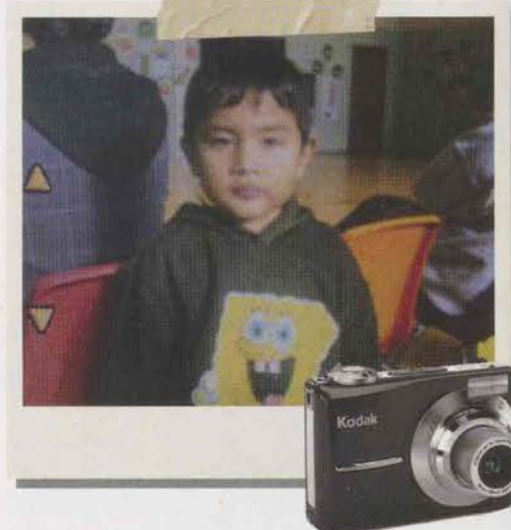

Madeleine Mitchell (10) shows off her adoration of all things dog. Mitchell still can't let go of the obsession. "When I was little I absolutely loved every dog thing I was gifted or could find, and even now I can't stop myself from buying every dog plush I find in gift shops and stores," Mitchell said.

Jillian Bertino (11) loved American Girl dolls as a kid. "At some point I had around fifteen American Girl dolls. My favorites were definitely Kit and Molly. I would spend hours trying to learn Molly's Miss Victory dance," Bertino said.

Armando Ruiz Hernandez (12) tells about the start of his love for photography. "I used to torment my parents to take photos of me on their little Kodak easy share camera. I remember my dad taking it everywhere and just capturing our childhood with it. When I grew older gave the camera to me and that eventually led to my love for photography," Ruiz-Hernandez said.

Avery Gilbreath (11) expresses her love for Power Wheels. "When I was a kid, my cousins and I would drive these mini cars all the time. My grandma had three different Power Wheel cars and all the little cousins would drive them around all day. She lived in a cul-de-sac that we would race the mini cars in," Gilbreath said.

Comet Smith (12) plays his bassoon to bring the piece together.

Grace Rock (12), when asked about her favorites about the concert, she responded, "My favorite piece was about Christmas, and my favorite memory has to be playing alongside my friends!"

Kendra Swahn (10) "I've been doing concert band since I was in fourth grade, so I wasn't too worried about the concert, though it's to be expected, and especially with them saying this is the biggest crowd we've ever had. I love playing 'The Grinch,' that was like the best one, for percussion. It's a lot of really fun instruments to play," Swahn said.

Sylvia Barnes (12) "At a concert I feel ecstatic! The energy is absolutely amazing. As a band we get to show off how much we've worked. My favorite piece by far is 'Nature of Trees.' The baritone section was absolutely gorgeous and the piece wouldn't be the same without it," Barnes said.

This year, the Register has published six newspapers consisting of the riveting works of staffers such as Jane McGill (11), Noa Gilbert (12), Charles Yale (11), and Ella Levy (11).

The newspaper staff is frequently in room 029 to make progress on articles, conduct interviews, and brainstorm for upcoming issues. All members on the staff work consistently hard to make each edition unique and intriguing for readers. Recent articles have included topics such as the unavailability of the new edition bathrooms, the oppression queer people undergo in parochial schools, and the lack of originality in Hollywood.

EL Students' Favorite Shows & Movies

By: Sabirin Mohamed

Shantal Molina (12) "My favorite movie is 'Little Prince' because it is my favorite book."

Jonathan Sanchez (10) "My favorite cartoon show is 'The Amazing World of Gumball' because the humor is fresh, it's not like the average cartoon, you can see the effort and creativity from the team in every episode, it's just hilarious."

Marburg Vasquez (11) "My favorite show animal is 'One Piece' because it's really interesting."

BTS: Inside the journalism room

By Sarah Spomer

THIS ROOM WAS MY FAVORITE AND LEAST FAVORITE OF
MY TIME HERE.
I LOVE YOU ALL
-BLAYNEY
'08-'22

The signature wall was started years ago, with seniors signing their names and leaving a note in the interview room. Previous journalism teacher, Hilary Blayney, expresses her love-hate relationship for the interview room in her departing quote. "Being on staff for two years and seeing the seniors sign their names and quotes last year with tears running down their faces shows how important this book is for students and the family that is created within the staff. The wall is such a cool way for the staff to leave their mark in the room that so much was made in," yearbook staffer Sarah Spomer (11) said.

"I love walking in and looking at the comic wall every class. People are so talented, but also really funny. Sometimes there's new images on the wall so it's like a surprise every time I walk in," yearbook staffer Jillian Bertino (11) said.

Eh Khu Poe (11) says, "I honestly have no idea what any of the posters say but they look cool! It gives very 'Barbie and the Secret Door' if I'm being honest."

Old issues of The Register are displayed on the walls of the journalism room. Central is the oldest running newspaper west of the Mississippi River. The Register has won multiple awards at national conventions for journalism. "Standing here, I feel humbled to continue the legacy of Nebraska's greatest newspaper," Register Arts and Culture editor Jane McGill (11) said while admiring the framed editions.

CHS Varsity Boys Bowling

By Max Spizman & Armando Ruiz-Hernandez

Ian Petrick (11) prepares to deliver the ball. "The bowling team is a great group of people, and I created great friendships," Petrick said.

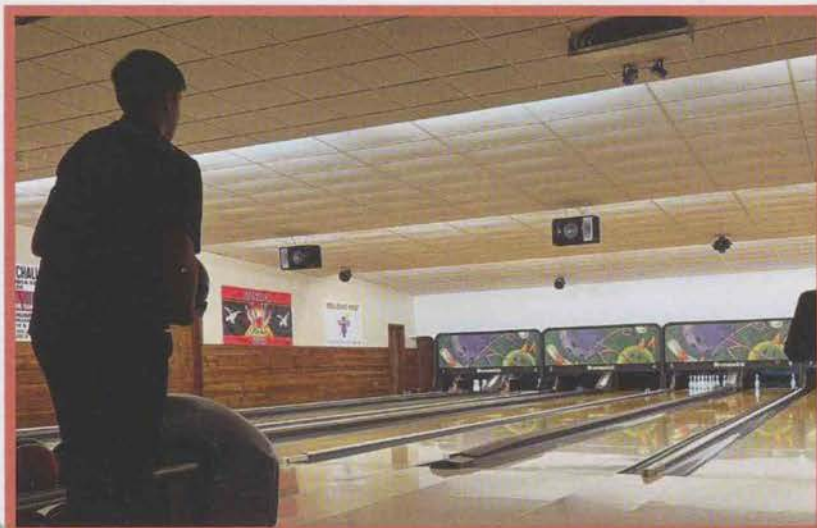

Brayden Simpson (12) concentrates on delivering the ball as straight as possible. "I had a great time and you really do get a lot better over the course of the season," Simpson said.

Sheldon Meyer (12) glares down the lane as he prepares to deliver a crucial roll. "I love bowling team because it was all about self improvement as a bowler and as a person," Meyer said.

From left to right: Paige Holland (12), Jasmin Mercado (12), Desteni Carmona Lorenzo (11), Jennifer Perez-Archundia (11), Maleyna Navarrette (12), and Eva Casady (12) at Omaha Fashion Week. "The show was something that I did not even know happened here in Omaha. I was inspired by seeing that it was possible for me to do. It opened up an opportunity for me that I could enjoy doing as I also want to enter the fashion world," Perez-Archundia said.

Fashion Club at Omaha Fashion Week

By Avery Gilbreath

Paige Holland and Eva Casady stylish as always. "The Fashion Industry can be exclusive, so as a teenager from Omaha, Nebraska, you must push for a space in the room. That night I felt fully present in the moment. I was comfortable because I was surrounded by people who share my interests and support both me and my dream," Casady said.

Fashion Club at Omaha Fashion Week. "Omaha Fashion week was an overall amazing experience. The place was filled with hundreds of people from the community and we were surrounded by so many amazing designers and artists. As a club we got the opportunity to see local student work and experience the fashion industry in motion. As models and designers walked down the runway, you couldn't help but feel inspired by their creativity," Navarrette said.

"This year was the most memorable. I will cherish the friendships and experiences I have made with the team. It has prepared me for my college soccer career and I'm thankful to all the coaches and everyone who supports me," Lopez-Lopez said.

"Being apart of the Central girls' soccer program has been the highlight of my high school experience. Every game is a fun competition with the people I love. Everyone has each other's back and pushes each other every season. Our team always comes out strong and brings the energy to every game," Oldenburg said.

Kaylee Fisher (11). "Central girls soccer is the best program I could've done. It is definitely intense at times, but my teammates always find a way to make me laugh," Fisher said.

One of the team captains Gabrielle said, "This season has proven the determination and strength that we have as a team. I am so grateful to Central soccer for letting me spend three years playing the sport I love alongside my favorite people."

Juana Lopez-Lopez (12) number 7, goalie Audriana Reese (9), and Jazmin Bustamante-Salgado (9) playing hard. "I enjoyed the season, it was really great to meet new girls and get to know them better throughout it," Reese said.

Natalia Becerril-Sanchez (11) said, "Overall I'd say that our JV soccer season is a beautiful experience, us girls have a great bonding time together as we see each other grow both on and off the field. It's an amazing feeling to be able to be part of the team and work together to come out with victories."

Jasmine Hollenbeck (10) said, "I have never gotten closer to anyone in a short amount of time like I did with these girls. Whenever we were together, I knew it was going to be the best part of the day. This soccer season was one of the highlights of this school year and I am happy I got to experience it with this team."

Juana Lopez-Lopez playing hard, as always, for JV girls soccer.

Ella Levy (11) "this season was a big turn around for me, I worked hard all year and I got to watch it pay off."

Grace Hodges (12) "I've made some of my favorite memories from high school at tennis and I hope more people get into the program."

Audra Dempsey (12) "I likes playing tennis because it gives me activities to do outside of school."

Alice Larson (12) "I've played tennis since freshman year, the gals make it worth it."

Ayden Smith (10) scrambles to third base after Henry Hoiekvam (9) bunts the ball in the bottom of the second inning which allows Central's first and only run of the inning.

Jahleel Chapman (9), standing in the huddle said "It's fun but we have lost every game, but it's been nice meeting new people, and the experience of high school baseball and all that."

Liam Whitsett (9) "The season was not that bad, we've had a lot of errors and we've lost every game, but we've come close. I've had some good moments and some down moments, all in all it was pretty nice meeting new people and making new friends, I've had some good memories."

Bo DiLorenzo (9) is up to bat against the Omaha North Vikings in the bottom of the second inning.

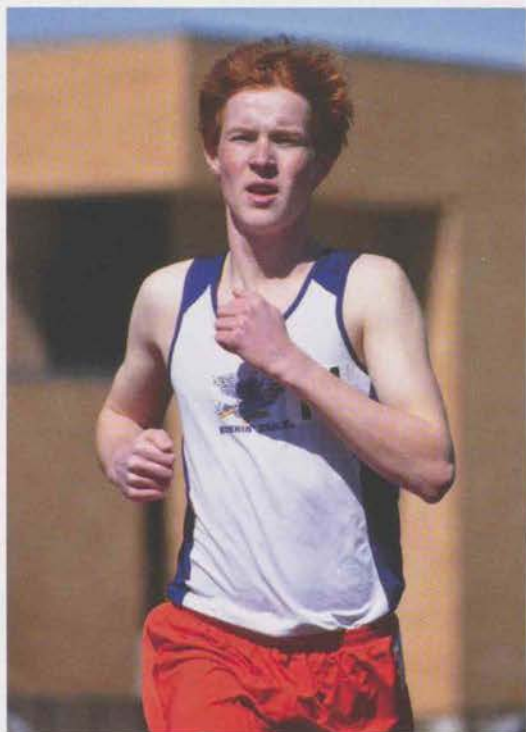

Bernard Newsome (9) hits a ball past first base along the foul line. "It's going good, we might not be getting wins but we're getting better. I've definitely enjoyed my time and playing with the freshmen is fun and I just enjoy playing baseball," Newsome said.

Julius Gentleman (9) pitches against North, striking out three North players, preventing North from scoring in the top of the third inning. Jesse Bates (9) said "The season was good, the people are good."

Lachlan Ritchie (12) runs to the finish of the 3200 meter race. "It's nice to have a few people who do cross country and track. It gives a stronger sense of teamwork and support throughout the seasons," Ritchie said.

Coach Trent Lodge congratulates the runners after a race.

Senior Juliette Eckler runs past her opponent. "I've had a great time at Central especially on the track team, and I'm really going to miss the team, but I'm excited for the end of the season," Eckler said.

Janii Blair (11) jumps over the hurdle to secure a new PR at the Benson Invitational. "It's been a great season, I feel like I've made a lot of progress and I'm really excited to finish it out strong," Blair said.

Andrew Brown (11) and Ian Young (12) clear the jump for a second and third place finish in the 110 meter hurdles. "I really appreciate the camaraderie on the team. Even when we have multiple people in the same events, everyone's always supporting each other," Young said.

Delphin Majaliwa (9) protects the ball from his opponents and gets ready to score big time, "Failure happens every day in practice, what makes you better is how you choose to react to it," Majaliwa said.

Rocco Cerasoli (11) runs towards the ball in order to secure it before opponents score a goal, "Soccer is like a poem you write it with your soul and heart but you say it with your feet," Cerasoli said.

Irving Lopez (10) expertly handles the ball. "Everything happens for a reason, if you work hard for it," Lopez said.

Sam Parker (10) dribbles the ball across the field. "Be the player everyone wants to watch but no one wants to play against!" Parker said.

Genna Ormond (11) passes through as teammates, #26 Desiree Steffen (10), #6 MacKenzie Mabus (12), and #27 Mckenzie Martin (9), cheer her on as the game begins.

Goalie Genna Ormond (11) blocks the ball from scoring. "I mean it's stressful when it comes to injuries. But I think it benefits the defense not having that change during games and practices," Ormond said when asked about being the only goalie.

Adeline Samson & Macy White (10) posing.

"There is such a great community on the team, I love being at practice because I know that no matter what, my team is going to help me get better instead of putting me down," Samson said.

"One thing lacrosse taught me is how beneficial it is to be a part of a community, and I think it is really setting me up for my future," Isabelle Johnson (11) said.

"Going from football to lacrosse you learn there's more than just going in head first for the tackle, you have to slow it down and rethink what battles may come," Angie Rose (11) said.

Sasha Gates (11) playing her first single match of the day. "Tennis has been such an amazing experience. I am so grateful for being a part of such a lovely team," Gates said.

Malorie Lakin (10) and Federica De Felice (12) playing a doubles game. "The sport was new to me but it quickly become an amazing experience because of my awesome teammates," Lakin said. Felice followed up with, "Awesome new experience for my exchange year, and I loved meeting new people and challenging myself with the company of the sweetest teammates ever!"

Narvena Sallom (10) playing her first single match of the day. "You have to believe in yourself when no one else does," Sallom said.

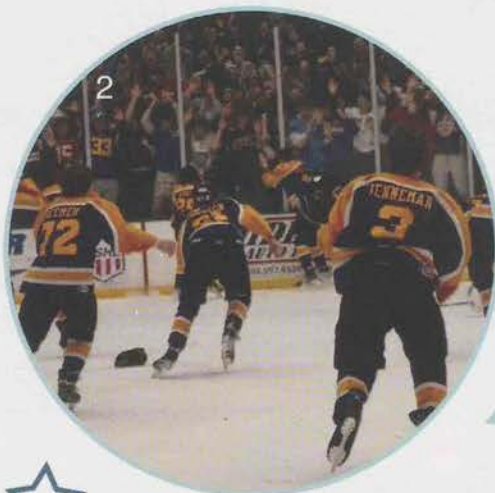

Caterina Ponti (12) playing a singles match. "The one thing that I love about tennis is that you get to play outside after school," Ponti said.

Hockey Championship

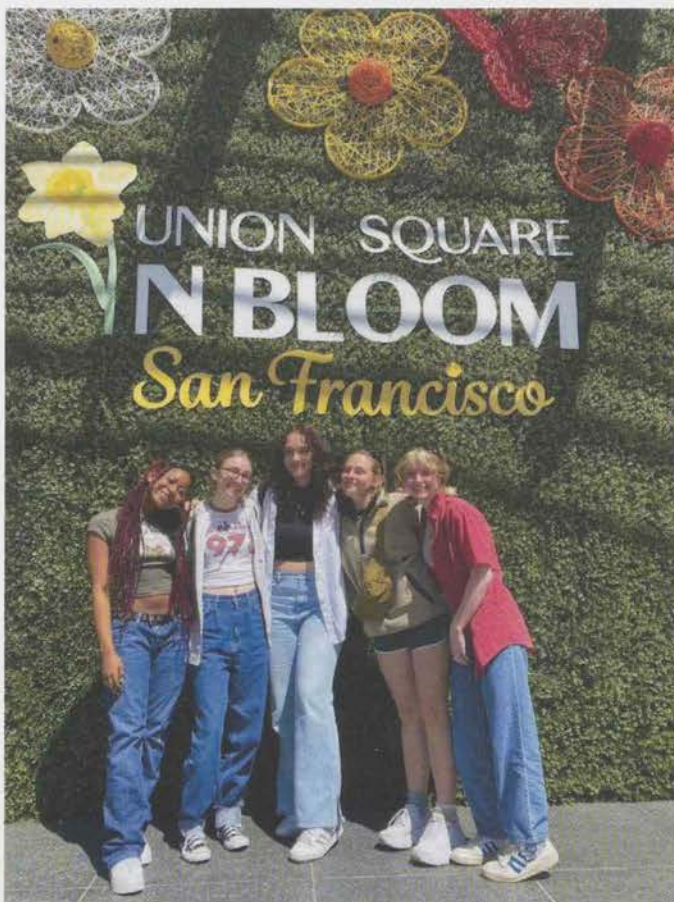

By Genevieve Ormond and Jillian Bertino

1. The Metro hockey team celebrates their victory minutes after winning their championship game. "This year, everybody's sights were set on winning state, we knew we had the talent to do it, we just had to put in the work. We outplayed every team in the league", Central student, Patrick Beemer (11) said.

2. Senior hockey player, Nicklas Smith, was anticipating this victory all year. "Winning state championship meant practically everything to me" Smith exclaimed.

3. The Metro hockey team and their coaches pose with their championship trophy.

Jane McGill (11), Noa Gilbert (12), and Charlie Yale (11) explore the Castro neighborhood. "I always enjoy journalism conferences because they give me opportunities to connect with other writers and editors across the country," Yale said.

Hadley Forsen-Yepes (11) poses with Bobby Winton (11) in Chinatown. "A last minute excursion to Chinatown proved incredibly rewarding. You can't go wrong selecting a random dim sum restaurant to feast on while you stroll down the beautiful streets," Forsen-Yepes said.

Jane McGill (11) won the 2023 Student Journalism Impact Award at the convention this spring. McGill "knew she was going to get the award, because she's the best."

Isabel Hoiberg poses in front of the golden gate bridge. "I loved meeting these kids from a school in California who ended up taking a group of us to see a 360 view of San Francisco, it was so cool," Hoiberg said.

Alice Larson (12) drops into the splits in front of the Golden Gate Bridge. "Magnificent! Life changing! The best nature walk I've ever been on! Would love to repeat! Filled me with so much joy I spontaneously felt the urge to do the splits," Larson said.

Hendrick Shradar (10) said, "I am extremely grateful for an amazing season with my team. It was great to develop my skills and bond with my team."

Nhial Yor (12) said, "I would say I had a great soccer season so far. Even though I was injured mid season I still had fun. We have a goal and I hope that we accomplish it during these next couple games."

"My first year at central has been a great experience. I had a lot of fun meeting new people and experiencing a new atmosphere. We had a great team and I am sad the season went by so fast," Adan said.

Mukhtar Abdirahman (10) said, "It is amazing, we have our ups and downs here and there. Overall it is amazing."

Keegan Leytham (12) said, "This season has been amazing and I am lucky to play the sport I love with this team."

Hey, Batter Batter, Swing

Bo DiLorenzo (9) holds on an opposing runner during a game. "I've really liked playing for Central this year. I think we all work together well as a team," DiLorenzo said.

Theo Puls (10) crouches down to prepare for the pitch. "Being the catcher is a really cool position because it's so different from playing out on the field," Puls said.

Eli Weber (10) winds up for a pitch. "It's been a pretty good season so far. I feel like we've all made a lot of progress no matter if we won or lost the game," Weber said.

Brody Reiss (12) warming up and Lennon Kiefer (11) using his range finder. "For the 2023 season there is a lot of learning and improvement to be done with the large group of freshman joining. Having them understand the mind and character part of golf rather than the strength and success of golf," Kiefer said.

Coach Brent Larson and Will Parker (12) discussing Parker's next swing. "Golfing for CHS has been a great experience. We have a super fun team and it is a great environment to play the sport. The laid back aspect of the sport makes it still a great time even when you are not playing well," Parker said. "This year, we have found ourselves in a great position with strong leadership from our upperclassmen and a great crew of freshmen coming to the team. With every competition, our team is showing constant improvement. The other coaches and I have truly enjoyed working with the team this season," Larson said.

Trans Day of Visibility Walkout

by Madeleine Mitchell, Kane Ballard, and Poe

Charlie Yale (11) and Noa Gilbert (12) pose for a photo during the walkout. "During the protest I felt enormous pride in myself and my community for coming together to stand against the legislation of hatred," Gilbert said.

Grayson Schuler-Morgan

(11) performs his poem about what life is like as a transgender person in Nebraska. "I think it was an important and empowering experience and I am glad to know how many Central students care about trans issues," Schuler-Morgan said.

Jade Watson (11)

shares their experience being a queer person in Nebraska and in this community in general.

Harley Lawton (11) speaks of their experiences and of the resources available for queer youth at Planned Parenthood. "We came together, and I'm so proud that we did, but the fight isn't over. We won't stop till equality is the new normal," Lawton said.

Aiden Whalen (11) performs his poem about the struggles he's faced being a transgender person in Nebraska.

"Seeing my school stand with their trans peers was incredibly empowering," Whalen said.

Jane McGill (11) reads her news article directed toward the transphobic bills being debated in the legislature. "I think it's important for our lawmakers to hear the voices of young Nebraskans and understand how vehemently they oppose legislative attacks on trans kids," McGill said.

Why did it happen?

by Madeleine Mitchell

The walkout was held on Friday, March 31st to protest bills being debated in the Nebraskan Legislature. It was a day to show the senators voting to pass the bills the amount of children who don't want the bills to be passed and who want gender affirming care to remain legal for those under the age of 19 in Nebraska. Hundreds of Central students showed up to protest as well as news stations coming to report on it. The walkout was organized by Charlie Yale and Noa Gilbert. "Charlie and I began organizing the walkout after LB574, the ban on gender-affirming care for trans youth, passed the first round of debate. We had one week to organize, so we created a shared Google Doc with everything we needed to do, like emailing the press, getting approval from administration, and coordinating speakers," Gilbert said. Both Gilbert and Yale were incredibly proud of what they had accomplished with the protest and the large amount of turnout they had for it. However, even after the amount of protests that were organized all over Nebraska regarding the LB547, the legislature decided to pass the bill onto the next round. "I was saddened and scared by the bill's advancement," Gilbert said. However, they have faith in our community to be able to convince the senators to change their minds of making the bill law.

Coach Kreber talking to infielders Dougherty, Vincent, Mattox, and Bartlett. "We are so lucky this year. We have a group of serious student-athletes who are motivated to perform in the classroom and on the field. We take great pride in producing players with strong work ethic, who take responsibility, and strive to improve everyday," Kreber said.

Mattox pitching and Dougherty catching. "It's a great group of guys with amazing work ethics. The upper classmen drive us to be better everyday. I am excited to see what the future holds for Central baseball," Dougherty said.

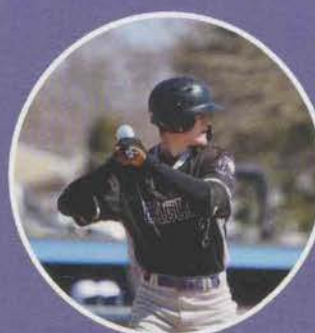

Batter Up

"I enjoyed playing for a team that came out to play every day. We exceeded all expectations I had for this year, and had fun while doing so," Vincent said.

"Central baseball has pushed me to reach my goals. I am surrounded by hard working, fun teammates and coaches that have held me accountable and have driven me to success. I am excited for the future of central baseball," Thomas said.

"The team has been very fun to play with this year. We've also stepped it up from last year and beat teams that on paper should've beaten us," Palfini said.

Alexis Arriaga (11) talks about his experience on the team "It was fun. My favorite thing about central's soccer team is the people, the players, and the friends I've made," Arriaga said.

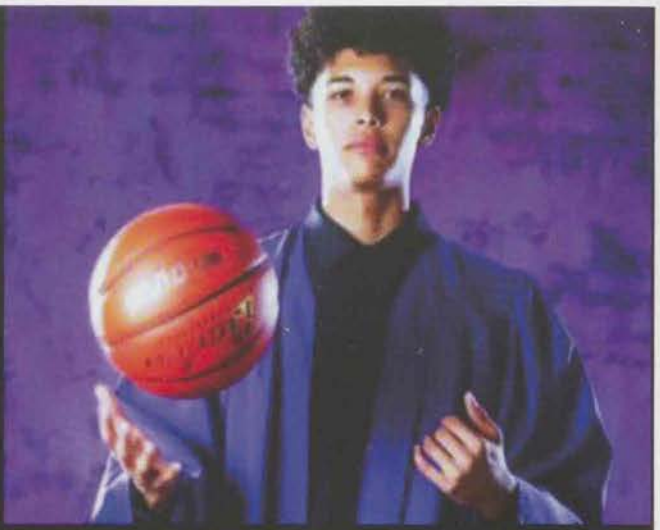

Ricardo Orozco (10) "The season was really good. The start was better than how we finished. I really love all the people there and we're all really close," Orozco said.

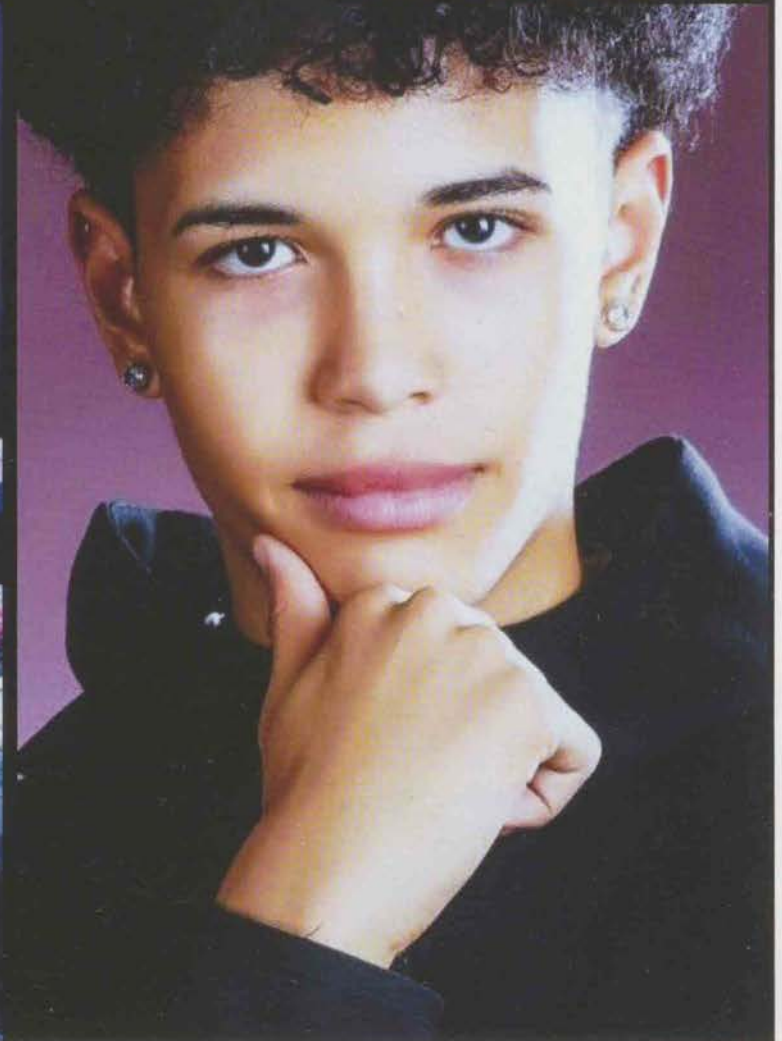

Luis Rodriguez (9) shares his motto playing on the soccer team. "Failure leads to success" Rodriguez said.

BEHIND YOU, ALL YOUR MEMORIES.
IN FRONT OF YOU, ALL YOUR DREAMS.
AROUND YOU, ALL WHO LOVE YOU.

WITHIN YOU, ALL YOU NEED.

WE ARE ALL PROUD OF YOU! LOVE YOU ALWAYS, MOM

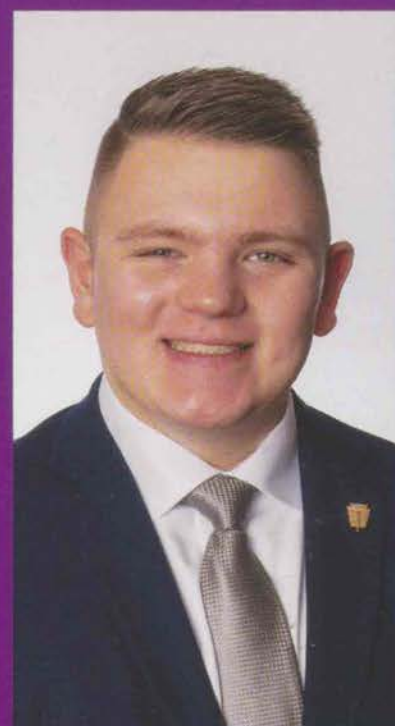

Congratulations, Isabella! We are all so very proud of you. From the very beginning, you have filled each moment with laughter, love, and joy. You never waste a moment...always a book to read, a poem to write, a friend or sister to help, a problem to solve. While everyone else is waiting for something, you are running giant steps ahead. But always know if you need us, we are only just a short step behind.. We love you!

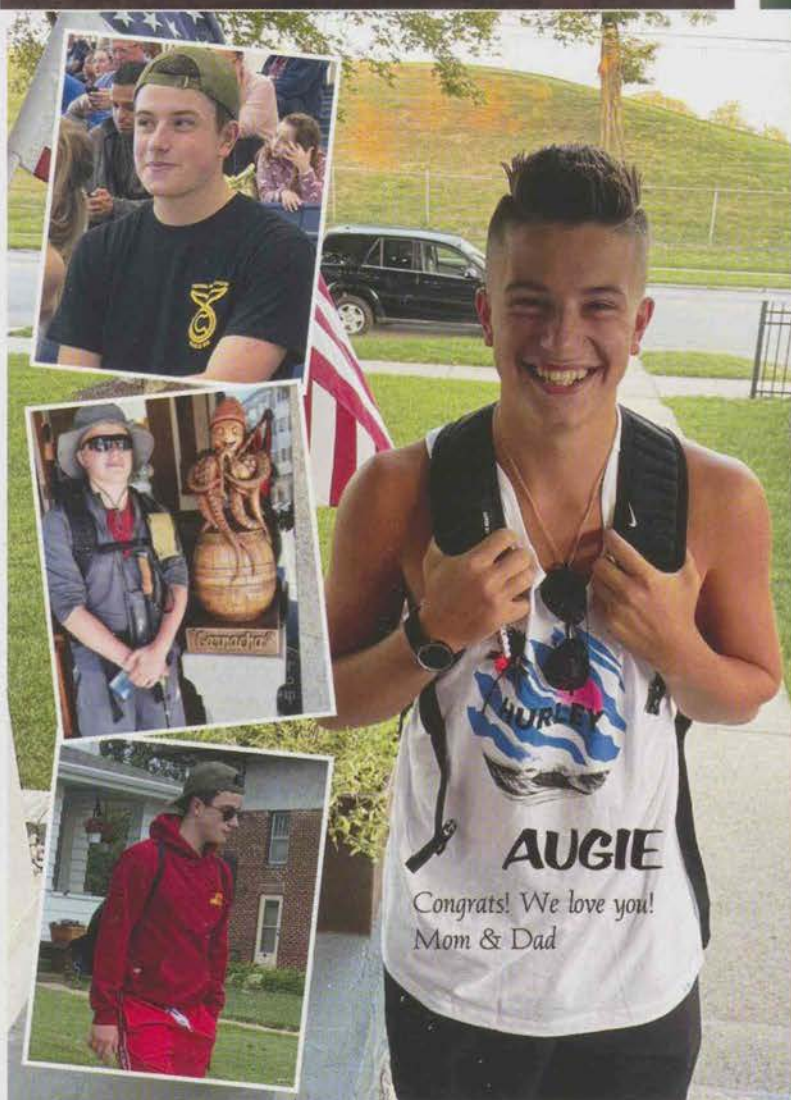

"What is this thing about time? Why is it better to be late than early? People are always saying, we must wait. What are they waiting for? - James Baldwin, Giovanni's Room

Congratulations, Jack!

We are so proud of the young man you've become and know that you're on your way to doing great things!

Tale of Two Wolves

An old Cherokee told his grandson,
"My son, there is a battle between two wolves inside us all.
One is Evil. It is anger, jealousy, greed, resentment, inferiority, lies & ego.
The other is Good. It is joy, peace, love, hope, humility, kindness, empathy, & truth."
The boy thought about it, and asked,
"Grandfather, which wolf wins?"
The old man quietly replied,
"The one you feed."

Letter From the Editor

This year was a unique one. New editors, new staff, and a new advisor. We had our fair share of struggles, and we learned a lot of lessons, but we learned them together. I'd like to thank everyone on this fabulous O-Book staff for their hard work and commitment to food day themes. Unintentionally, the theme of the book really matched the process of making it. Through all the hiccups and missed deadlines and IT issues, we went with the flow. We hope the colorful student body at central remembered to go with the flow this year too, and we hope they are reflected in these pages as they deserve to be. FOLLOW chs.obook ON INSTAGRAM!

EPILOGUE

All pages of this OBook were printed by Walsworth Yearbooks. The fonts used were: Helvetica, Chantilly, Chantilly UltraBold, Cutiful, Isabel, James, Roboto, and Walbuam. Photos in the book were taken by OBook staff members, Joe Craig, Garrett Hawkins (11), and Register photographers (Sophie Youngs (12) and Shyla Youngs (12) unless otherwise stated. Senior portraits were taken by student photographers at Central and professional photographers in Omaha. Staff and student portraits were taken by Scholastic photography. Layouts were created by editors Ella Jaksha (11), and Sophie Cullum (12), and staff members Adriana Aguilar (10), Jonathan Ballard (12), Elliot Brown (12), Jillian Bertino (11), Adia Doody (11), Avery Gilbreath (11), Mercedes Hall (11), Halsey Hooper (12), Colin Leslie (12), Isabel Losole (12), Madeleine Mitchell (10), Sabirin Mohamed (10), Max Spizman (12), Sarah Spomer (11), Sophia Tiritilli (11), Armando Ruiz-Hernandez (12), Eh Khu Poe (11), and Marcy Williams (9). This production was advised by Brody Hilgenkamp.
