TO PARIS AND BACK

Europe Trip
by Madeleine Mitchell

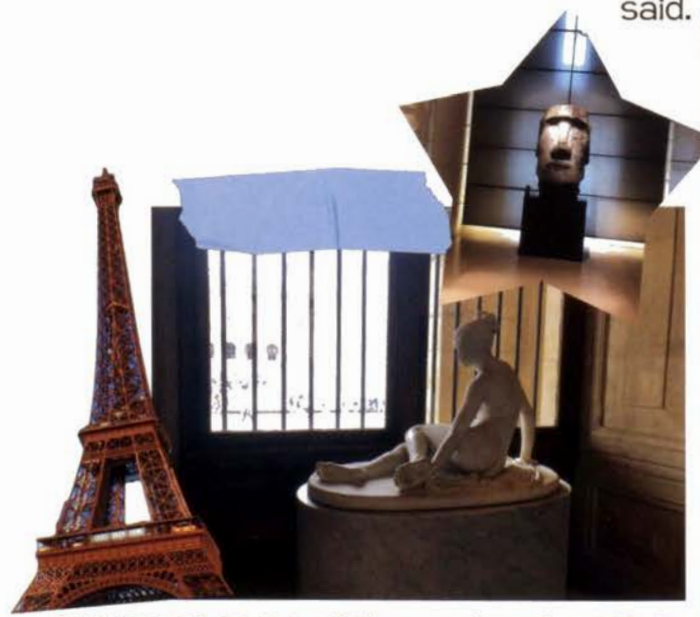

Alumnus Lily Callon, Jonathan Robles (11), Quinna Glass (12), Ruby Henson (11), alumnus Paige Holland, alumnus Isabella Mitchell, Adison Huffman (11), alumnus Quinnten Johnson, Sam Joyce (12), Corwin Keller (12), Curin Larrick (12), Zane Peterson (12), alumnus Wilson Rath, Betsy Tonorio-Hernandez (12), Micah Ringlein, Erica Meyer, and Elizabeth Steinauer do the signature eagle hand sign for their group photo in Switzerland.

Some of the photos Curin Larrick (12) took having fun with some of the other people who went on the Europe trip. "It was so cool to be in Europe having new experiences without having to plan or worry about anything. We saw so much and the bond you make with people is like nothing else," Larrick said.

Pictures of some of the breathtaking sights Adison Huffman (11) saw and captured. "Going to Europe was an experience I didn't think I would be able to get, and I'm so glad that I went. I have a multitude of new memories that I will never forget," Huffman said.

Photos of some of the works of art Ruby Henson (11) captured in Paris. "My favorite parts of the trip were Switzerland and Paris. The Louvre was so gorgeous, the artwork was so captivating I could've stayed there for hours just going through the rooms of pure talent," Henson said.

Day Off In Kyoto

by Adriana Aguilar

Angus Keesbury (11) taking a picture with a hungry deer. "I did quite enjoy my trip; it was a unique experience that I am very grateful that I had the opportunity to have," Keesbury said.

Alumnus Elizabeth Pavelka, Zoe Pinkelman (12), Bethany Arth (11) and Maya Brezack (11) take a picture in front of a pagoda.

Henry Carstens (11), Central alumnus Elizabeth Pavelka and Zoe Pinkelman (12) enjoy food. "I saw the ocean for the first time, it was also my first time going to the beach," Pinkelman said.

Bethnay Arth (11) and Maya Brezack (11). "I spent most my money on food it was so yummy. I also loved Nara Park because of all the deer, it was crazy trying to feed the deer, they bombard anyone with food," Arth said. "I loved the trip, we went to so many unique places. I liked collecting fortunes from every shrine or temple we went to," Brezack said.

LET'S GET AWAY

Summer Trips

by Adriana Aguilar

Eli Weber (11) wanders around in Glacier Park. "I would definitely do it again. The highlight was seeing a dusky grouse on the road. The only culture shock was there was exponentially more cowboy hats," Weber said.

Weber loved the rocks from Yellowstone park. "I went to Glacier and Yellowstone National park. We saw two grizzly bears, two black bears, two moose, a coyote and a ton of different kinds of birds. The highlight for Glacier park was definitely this river that we skipped rocks on," Weber said.

Barney explores Wyoming's Jackson Hole mountains. "The highlight was definitely seeing the mountains and wild animals out there. I saw some chipmunks and we saw elk in our backyard," Barney said.

Priscilla Barney (11) looking into the lake. "I've never been to the mountains before and that was my first national park so I think that exceeded my expectations. If you have the chance to go to Jackson hole you should it's really pretty," Barney said.

SUN KISSED SOUNDS

Summer Music Festivals

BY SASHA GATES

Hannah Croll (11) watches Lana Del Rey perform at Lollapalooza. "I look back on this festival constantly, if you ever want to go to a concert DO IT and buy that ticket, it's so worth it and you will make the money back," Croll said.

Isabella Worden (10) and her friend enjoying Big Thief at Maha. "The best part about Maha was seeing Big Thief, all of their songs are so well written and it was such an amazing experience to see them live," Worden said.

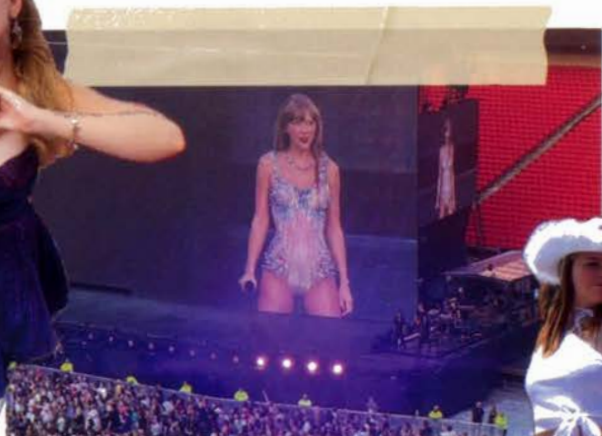

Chance Gaillard (12) watching Modest Mouse perform at Outlandia. "Being up close to so many bands while being surrounded by close friends was simply amazing," Gaillard said.

Kendra Swahn (11) saw Taylor Swift's Eras Tour in Kansas City. "It's so hard to choose a favorite song because I literally love them all, but I was so happy that Dorthea was my surprise song," Swahn said.

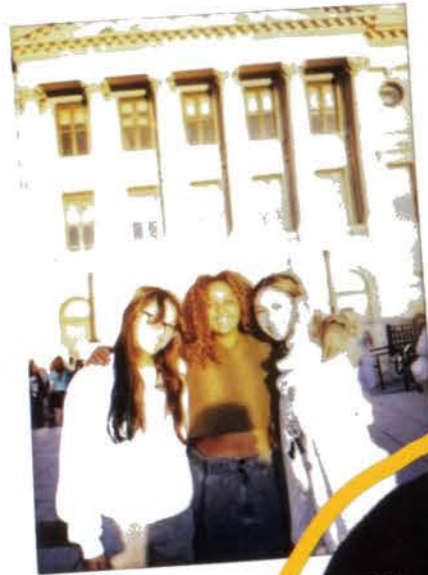

Emma Garabrandt (11) saw Taylor Swift perform in Chicago. "Taylor Swift is by far the best performer I've ever seen, she truly put on an amazing show I'll never forget!" Garabrandt said.

SUNRISE WITH A CHANCE OF SENIORS

Senior Sunrise

By Eh Khu Poe and Madeleine Mitchell

Miroslava Sredi (12), Bethany Abdul (12), and Elleina Robins (12) take a picture. "I enjoyed senior sunrise because it captivated the moment of our last year together, starting the year with a sunrise it was a peaceful core moment," Sredi said.

Hafsa Osman (12) and Zeytun Muhumed (12) smile for their photo. "Senior sunrise felt like a fresh start to the year with everyone that came," Osman said.

Paris Devers (12), Daleron Thomas (12), Natasha Wilson (12), Garrett Hawkins (12), Kiara Baptiste (12), Inia Jones (12), Devin Holmon (12), Taylor Gonzalez (12), Lilliana Peterson (12), and Ky'Shawn Taylor (12) all grouped together to smile for the camera to document their Senior Sunrise experience. "Senior Sunrise was a great start to my last high school year, being surrounded by people I enjoy, watching something so beautiful made me excited for the other memories we'll make together throughout this year," Wilson said.

Charlie Yale (12), Jane McGill (12), and Valur Jaksha (12) stand discussing future potentials for The Register this school year. "I was so tired that I don't remember a single thing," Yale said. "I'm not much of a school spirit person, but this event was pretty chill," Jaksha said.

Zakheya Johnson (12) and Marrisra Weise (12) smile for the camera. "It was a good way to communicate with all the seniors and it was a good kick off of the school year, it gave us a good feeling about the beginning of our last year," Johnson said.

Elizabeth Mergens (12) worked at Haddix STEM Corridor Program. "It was a research internship that introduced me to new experiences and opportunities for what I want to do in my future," Mergens said.

Lachlan O'Keefe (12), Jonah Koesters (12), Elizabeth Mergens (12), Claire Nipper (12), Shruti Garapati (12), Hunter Stoffel (12), Ella Easton (12), Hadley Forsen-Yepes (12), Ella Levy (12) and Aiden Whalen (12) pose in front of the tree course to commemorate their time interning.

MAKING Summer Jobs BANK

by Amy Fischer

Kaitlyn Abboud (11) takes a mirror selfie at Top Golf. "I loved working late nights with super fun people," Abboud said.

Lily Howard (11), Yuridia Lopez (12), Piper Allen (12) & Scout Vacek (11) work together at Gallagher Pool, serving as lifeguards. "It was great to carry our Central pride in the work place." Allen said.

SWEET TREATS

Favorite Summer Treats
Amy Fischer

Etta Saltzman (12) loves fairy rice crispie treats. "It's my grandmother's recipe, she was the one that made it for me. I love food that looks pretty, so the sprinkles combined with the crunch they add is so tasty," Saltzman said.

Emma Kirby (10) enjoys barbecue chicken with her family. "My uncle makes it on his own for Memorial Day and the 4th of July," Kirby said.

Liebe Akue (11) enjoyed eating delicious mangoes during the summer, "In the summertime, I'll eat one per day. I like them so much because they're the only fruit that doesn't mold in like a week and most mangoes are sweet and it's pretty hard to find one that's sour tasting," Akue said.

Ashton Fischer (9) has their favorite summer food, Red, White & Blue Sorbet. "It takes the fun texture of sorbet and the awesome flavors of bomb pops and mixes them into one. Ten out of ten; would recommend," Fischer said.

HITTING THE ROAD

Cars & Licenses
by Amy Fischer

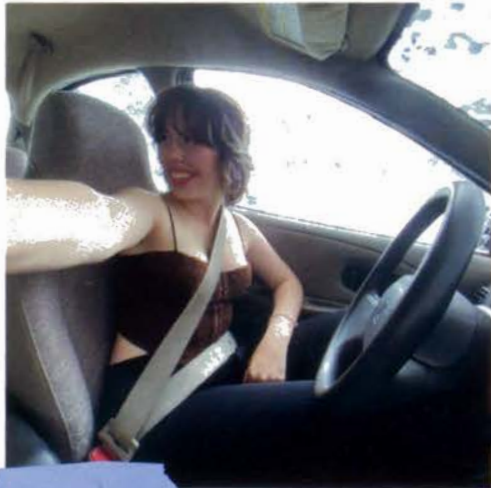

Lillian Whittinghill (12) got a new Toyota RAV4 over the summer. "The best part about my car is the amount of space. It looks very small, but surprisingly fits a lot of stuff. It also has a randomly huge trunk," Whittinghill said.

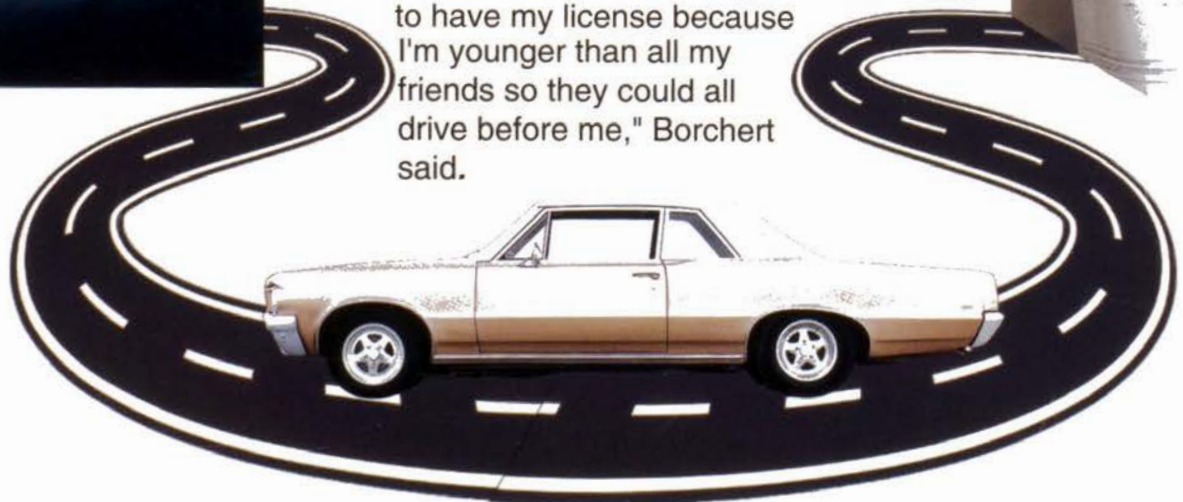

Emma Garabrandt (11) has a 2008 Honda CRV named Cristina, after the "Grey's Anatomy" character, because "they're both tough and fight everyday," Garabrandt said.

Etta Salzman (12) takes a photo in the car wash. "I am a very busy person, so it's very nice to have freedom over my schedule and be able to rely on myself for transportation," Salzman said.

Ady Borchert (11) was surprised with a car after getting her license. Her Subaru Crosstrek is named Margot. "I was happy to have my license because I'm younger than all my friends so they could all drive before me," Borchert said.

WING IT!

Summer Camps
by Adriana Aguilar

Celest Anderson (11) holds a spider. "I went to YNS (Young Nebraska Scientists) biology camp. I really enjoyed it, I had a lot of fun and would go again next year. I learned a lot and made a lot of really good friends," Anderson said.

Different types of phylum under a microscope.

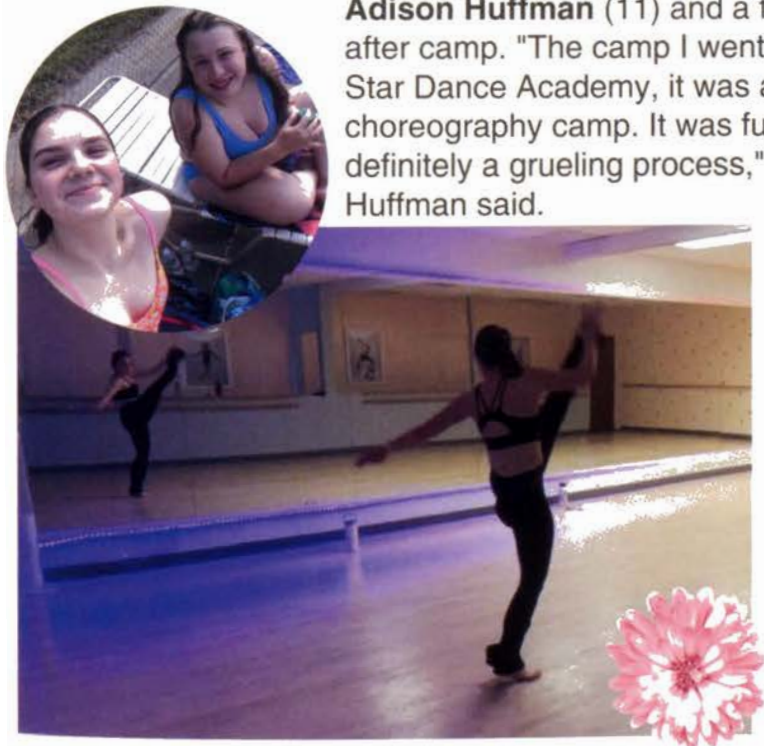

Celest Anderson (11) hugs a dolphin statue. "I got to see a cadaver. The anatomy student who was explaining it to us explained where all the organs were and we got to hold some of them and move stuff around, which was pretty cool. Everyday we had different labs, microbiology, forensics, and evolution," Anderson said.

Adison Huffman (11) and a friend after camp. "The camp I went to was Star Dance Academy, it was a choreography camp. It was fun but definitely a grueling process," Huffman said.

Adison Huffman (11) warms up. "My favorite day was when a teacher came in and taught us a contemporary routine. A highlight was definitely finding out that I'm a lot better at learning choreography on the spot," Huffman said. She enjoys dance because of the community and joy it brings her.

Adison Huffman (11) in the middle of a dance.

Renita Livingston (12) and Gabriella Turner (11) dressed in hot pink dresses and skirts to view the "Barbie" movie. "It was cool to see a toy I played with when I was younger, become a live action movie. It was a great representation of my childhood," Turner said.

From left, Becca Rock (11), Kaitlyn Abboud (11) and Macy White (11) watched "Barbie" with one another. "I felt very represented. The movie did a good job portraying how women feel in society," Abboud said.

Eh Khu Poe (12) went to a film screening in Norway to watch the premiere of "Barbie", "I had an amazing time at the movies. We laughed, cried, and reminisced," Poe said.

Come on Barbies LET'S GO Party

BY JILLIAN BERTINO AND HATTIE MOELLER

BARBIE MOVIE

Jane McGill (12) and Charlie Yale (12) viewed the "Barbie" movie this summer. "It was exhilarating to see the theater packed with costumed moviegoers," McGill said.

Casey Sanden (12) and Ann Carlson (12) pose in front of a "Barbie" movie poster. "I thought it was an amusing and witty commentary on experiences most women go through," Sanden said.

Jacqui Moss-Breen (11) described the environment throughout the theater as "joyful." Similarly, sitting amongst generations of women was empowering.

LET'S TAKE A HIKE

Summer Hiking

By Amy Fischer

Quandary Peak is the highest summit in the Rocky Mountains, with 14,271 feet of elevation.

Ruby Titus (12) and Edith Titus (10) hike Quandary Peak with their family. "My favorite part was getting to the top of course, but also spending the day with my family on the trail. The feeling of accomplishment afterward is also super rewarding," Titus said.

Chance Gaillard (12) snaps a photo of Valur Jaksha (12), Joseph McKines (12) and his cousin coming down a rock formation in Toadstool Geological Park.

Valur Jaksha (12) walks through the grassland.

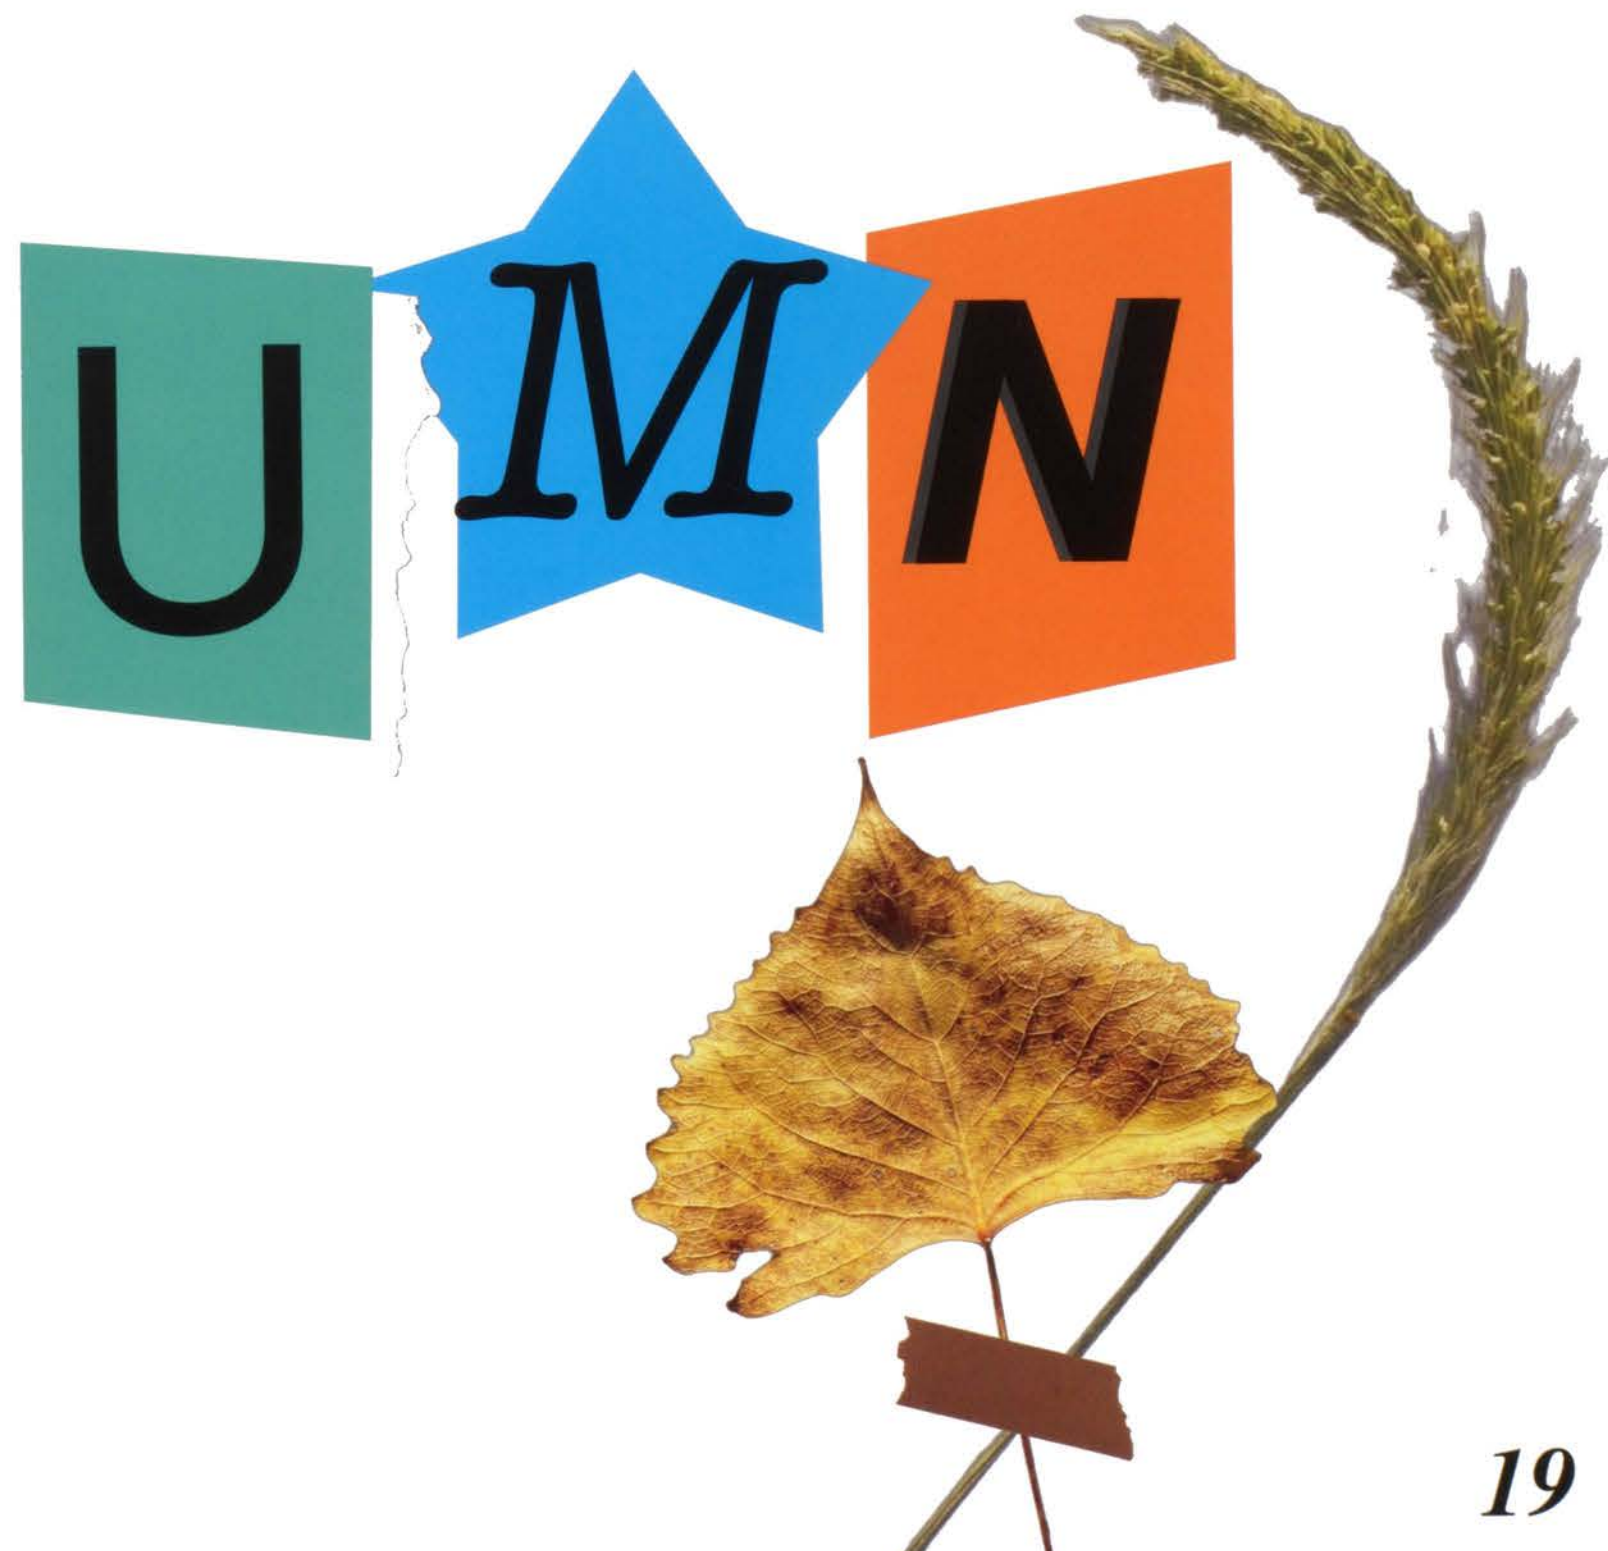

"My favorite part was the views going out and walking through extremely scenic landscapes that I had only seen online was astounding. Everything was so beautiful and I wish I was back there every single day," Gaillard said.

Gaillard, Jaksha and McKines also visited Oglala National Grassland, located right outside of Toadstool.

Lillie Mauer (9) carries simple essentials in their backpack, like a charger and deodorant. "I had the chance to get just plain bag and be boring, but I decided to get something that represents me and who I am," Mauer said.

Scarlet Losole (12) carries her iconic Lego backpack throughout the Central halls. "My backpack is a reflection of preparedness and sentimental moments. Each item, carefully chosen for practicality, while my fidget toy, gifted by Mrs. Kavanagh, reminds me of overcoming pre-competition jitters," Losole said.

BACKPACK JOURNEYS

What's in my backpack

By ZaKheya Johnson & Eh Khu Poe

Kendra Swahn's (11) backpack is filled with a colorful mix of essentials, including a lucky New Orleans keychain and a pink, bedazzled water bottle. She also emphasizes the importance of carrying a deodorant stick to "avoid smelling after a long school day," Kendra said.

November Aung (12) expresses her love for cute things and showcasing her upbeat personality and says "Among them, my sketchbook holds the most sentimental value of my artistic journey, which captures both my talent, and the essence of my everyday adventures" Aung said.

GO, EAGLES GO!

First Football Game
by Toryeon Mack & Nevaeh Bonner

3.

3. Andre Bolton (11) takes a break on the sidelines while removing his helmet.

1. Isaiah Moore (11) drinks water on the sidelines while gearing up to play on the field. "I couldn't be more happy to play under the lights. My family and love for sports is what keeps me motivated," Moore said.

3.

2. BJ Newsome (10) stands on the sidelines of the first football game against Northwest. "It feels good to be on a championship team, a team that looks determined to win," Newsome said.

3. A player adjusts his helmet before entering the game.

Niaomi Shannon (11) on the sidelines posing for a picture. "When I look at my team I see pretty, well put-together girls. We are like one big friend group that can depend on each other," Shannon said.

Coach Nicholas Webster hypes up his athletes on the sidelines. "Talent is the one thing I see. But besides talent and playing good football, I see a lot of togetherness," Webster said.

DON'T STOP THE

BEAT

MARCHING BAND
by Jillian Bertino & Olivia Kirchhevel

Gracelyn Siford (11) conducts the band.

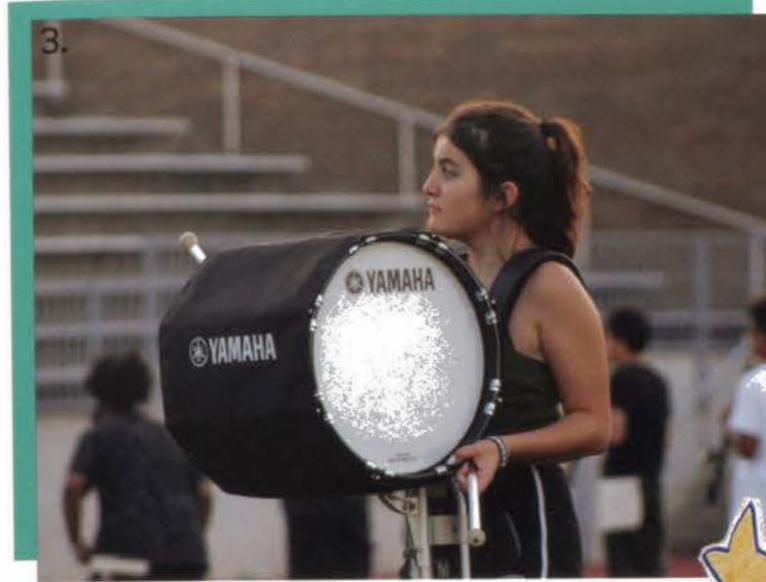

1. Calvin Bertino (10) plays his trumpet while marching on the field. High brass and low brass members of the marching band practice their parts before the big performance at the homecoming game. This year, Central's marching theme was "The Nightmare Before Christmas," inspired by the 1993 Tim Burton film. Their set included iconic songs such as "What's This?" and "This is Halloween."

2. Dilan Aguirre-Valdes (12) conducts the marching band alongside Emily Gonzalez (12) and Gracelyn Siford (11). "I'd say, in general, it's been one of the most mind opening experiences. It's made me the happiest and none of it could have been possible without all my friends!" Aguirre-Valdes said.

Mya Hill (12) plays her flute during after-school practice.

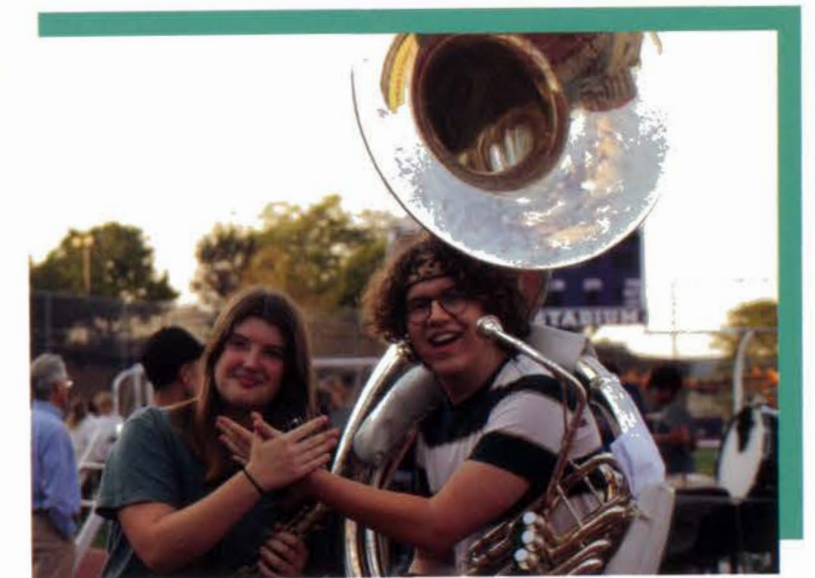

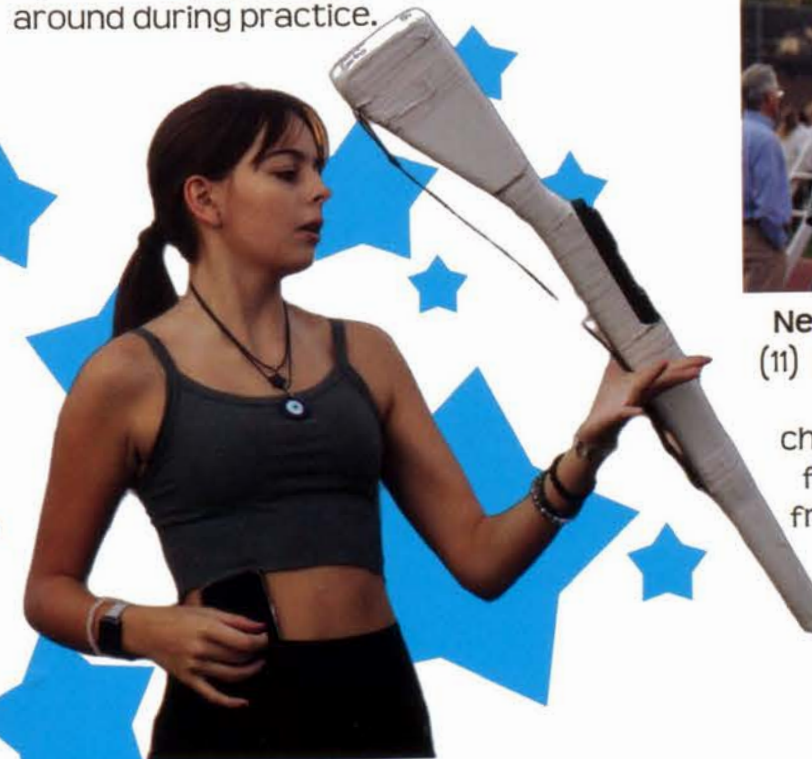

3. Cara Galvan (9) plays the bass drum during band practice. "My first year in drumline has been extremely fun! Band is my favorite activity I've been apart of, everyone is so welcoming and funny, they can always make me laugh!" Galvan said.

4. Emma Garabrandt (11) tosses her rifle at colorguard practice. "Colorguard gave me a sense of purpose, a sense of belonging, I met my closest friends in band, its like a family," Garabrandt said.

McKenzie Martin (10) practices playing the flute on the field.

Penelope Gates (10) spins her rifle around during practice.

Neil Farrington (11), left, and Callahan Hernandez (11) pose for a picture throwing up the eagle while having a great time at practice. "Band has changed me as a person through friendship, the friends I made in band will last a lifetime. These friends have made me a better person through maturity. Band gave me a responsibility and something to focus on, making me a more dependable person," Hernandez said.

ROUND AND ROUND THE RECORD GOES

Vinyl Collections
by Madeleine Mitchell

Chance Gaillard's (12) vinyl collection consists of over 150 records. "My favorite record is 'The Other' by King Tuff. Music is my number one hobby," Gaillard said.

Charles Yale's (12) record collection began from a want of a physical manifestation of their love of music. "My current favorite record is a limited edition red pressing of Historian by Lucy Dacus," Yale said.

Nyah Moore (11) has a vinyl collection of some major classics. "To be honest, my favorite records have to be my Prince albums," Moore said.

Valur Jaksha (12) has been building his collection since he was a kid due to his love of the Beatles. "As my music taste expanded so did my collection. Things really took off when I upgraded my sound system and realized that I love vinyl as a format more than anything else. My favorite record currently is 'Now and Then' by The Beatles," Jaksha said.

Nailing It

by Irais Cruz-Garcia

Nails

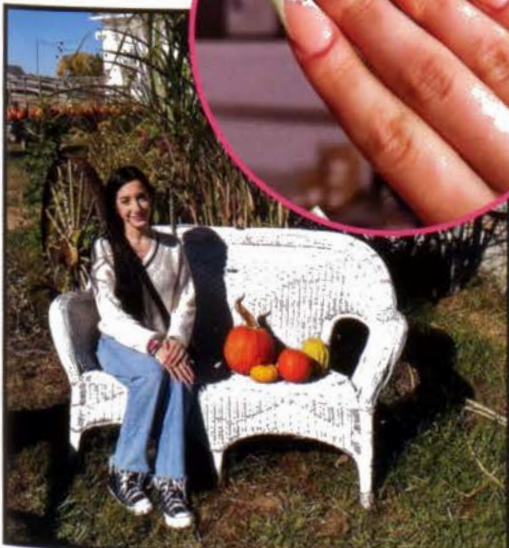

Lizbet Martha-Garcia (11) has been getting her nails done for about two years as of now. "I get my nails done because when I see the outcome I love it," Martha-Garcia said.

Amayrani Narciso (11) has been getting her nails done for about 2 years now. "What made me want to get my nails done is the confidence boost that I get when I see the beautiful end results," Narciso said.

Emellie Martha Bello (12) has been getting her nails done since sophomore year. "My nails for me are a source of empowerment, relaxation, self-care. I love being able to express myself and also match my nails with holidays. Though it may seem like a small unnecessary feature it is always a positive and meditative experience for me," Martha Bello said.

Alekza Stefania Castellon (12) has been getting her nails done for 3 years now. "I get my nails done because it makes me feel more feminine and I love being able to get them however I want and doing cute designs. I love the feeling of having them done, and I feel like having my nails done completes me." Castellon said.

MONDAY: TWIN DAY

1. Jakyla Chapman (12) and Marissa Wiese (12) sporting matching cheer uniforms.
2. Maggie Loughran (11) and Marcus Kane (11) wear matching Bills jerseys.

HOMECOMING GAME

Sophia Tiritilli (12) and Niaomi Shannon (11) smile together before the homecoming game. "My last homecoming game was better than expected, even though we lost, it was a great game to watch and cheer at," Tiritilli said.

Isabelle Johnson (12) and Miroslava Sredi (12) smile for a picture after the Homecoming game. "I liked seeing everyone show up and cheer together as a school community," Johnson said.

Aiden Whalen (12) dressed as a real Barbie doll at the homecoming game. "My favorite part of the game was seeing everyone dressed up. It is incredibly easy to not participate in themes because it may seem embarrassing or a waste of time, but Central has consistently shown that spirit, both toward the team and the Central community, it is an incredibly important priority. Plus, seeing everyone going to support not only our team, but also Breast Cancer Awareness, really warmed my heart," Whalen said.

HOMECOMING COURT

By: Sophia Tiritilli

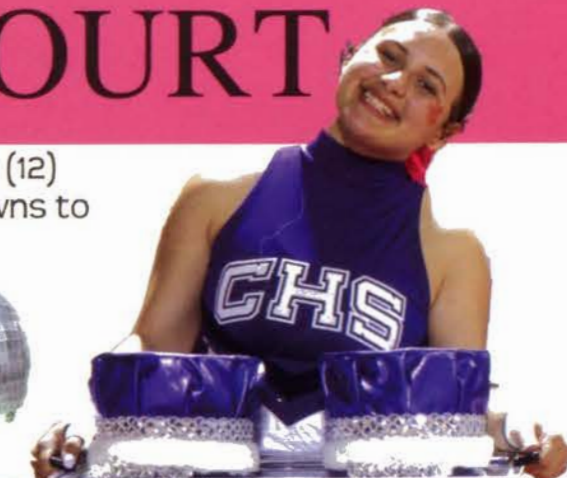

Alsafa Alkhalil (12) and Liliana Petersen (12) hug each other after being crowned as royals. "Winning Homecoming royalty was one of the most exciting memories I've experienced in my four years at CHS. Growing up my mom always told me that I need to be kind to everybody, and that didn't mean being their best friend. Homecoming queens accept everyone no matter what they look like. I just want to thank everyone who voted for me and a special thank you to my close friends and teachers," Petersen said.

Latino Leaders
By Adriana Aguilar

Emma Miranda (11), top right, is the club's president. "Being in Latino Leaders has been so beneficial to me these past two years. It's helped me make friends, and given me opportunities that benefit myself and others. Being involved makes me feel like I'm putting good use to my time. Especially if it's something we do that benefits our community," Miranda said.

1. Xavier Jefferson (11) serves the ball. "I'm too sweaty for this," Jefferson said.

2. Atticus Gentleman (12) has only been playing tennis a couple months. "Before a game I hype myself up by listening to music in the car and when I play I think about focusing on my play and not my opponents," Gentleman said.

3. James Reay (12) prepares to hit his first serve of the game. "My favorite part about tennis is the teamwork involved and improving every day," Reay said.

4. Erik Nieto Garcia (12) "I know that winning isn't the most important thing, it's trying my best," Nieto Garcia said.

5. Colin Simmons (12) warms up. "When I play I think about getting the ball over the net consistently and trying to keep a positive attitude throughout the match," Simmons said.

The boys and girls cross country teams run towards victory at a meet on a Saturday morning.

Ella Easton (12) runs at the Central High Invite at Walnut Creek. Easton has been running with Central all four seasons of her high school career. "I enjoy traveling with the team to meets and spending time with each other on the bus," Easton said.

The girls cross country team huddles before running at Walnut Creek Park, Sept. 9. Claire Shafer (12) reflected, "Our team is so friendly, we are so excited for each others success, it really is a family and community."

Central girls cross country won the Central High invite at Walnut Creek. "Mr. Worldwide once said, 'If you continue to work hard let that be the fuel to your fire,'" Hudson Palu (11) said.

Sadie Osher (9) was a standout freshman during the fall season. "This past cross country season has helped me learn a lot about myself, and what I am capable of. It means a lot to me," Osher said. She placed 29th at the state meet in Kearney, with a time of 20:38.

Varsity and JV teammates relax in a huddle before a race. "There is a positive and uplifting culture surrounding Central cross country. We always try our best to encourage each other while running," Hugh Lowe-Weyand (11) said.

Deisy Cisneros Mondragon (9) and Roberto Campos Ortega. (11) "Skateboarding has always made me feel fulfilled and in a sense of bliss whenever I've had a terrible day. It's always brought me comfort and happiness," Campos Ortega said.

"The rule to not allow skateboards in hallways seems unnecessary, skaters of Central are very connected with their boards and trying to separate them when they aren't harm is being too strict," Campos Ortega said.

Micheal Moore (11) posing with his skateboard. "I'd just rather not put it in my locker and take it with me," Moore said.

"I've been stopped three times for it. I think the rule is kinda dumb. There are a lot of other rules that they don't enforce," Moore said.

"Everyone has fun with it and they're pretty welcoming. It's a little free when I do it and it's something I can do when I need to escape from other things," Moore said.

Below: Campos Ortega shows off his skateboard and reflects on what skating has done for him. "Skating has brought me to an amazing and loving community, all of us come from different backgrounds and home life that can be brought together by skateboarding. Skaters of all kinds can be found and there isn't a reason for someone to feel unwelcome,"

Campos Ortega said.

Transportation at Central by Yvonne Dorcas

Economics teacher Derek Leslie rides a moped to school, "I wanted to get to school in a more environmentally friendly way and using public transportation was not an option since in Omaha it is inconsistent and unreliable, it's a blast to ride around town!" Leslie said.

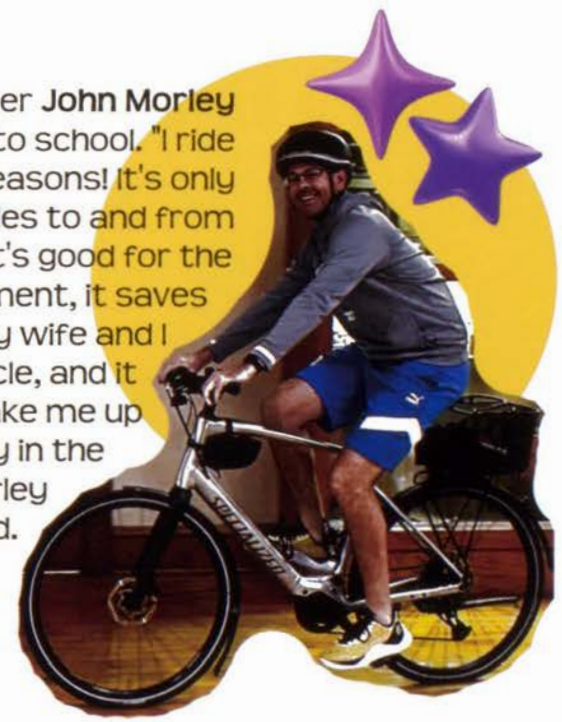

Carter Smith (12) rides the ORBT. "I ride the ORBT as often as I can. I live out west, so I only pay for like half the gas I'd typically need," Smith said.

Osmarandy Garibo-Chino (12) "Wheels, wings, or sails, this car takes me to places I have never been to," Garibo-Chino said.

Science teacher John Morley rides his bike to school. "I ride for many reasons! It's only 10-12 minute rides to and from Central, it's good for the environment, it saves money as my wife and I split one vehicle, and it helps wake me up (especially in the winter!)," Morley said.

Mamelique Faida (10) "Transportation is not just about getting from A to B, it's about the experiences along the way," Faida said.

Saliva Sadiki (9) "Life is a journey, and every girl has the power to choose her own path," Sadiki said.

The pink flowers in this photo belong to a plant called Ivy Geranium that flourishes both indoors and outdoors.

Lindsay Cisco's assorted collection of plants in room E311 consists of Aloe Vera, Bird of Paradise, Lemon lime pothos and other varieties. Because of the temperature and moisture, the plants thrive and flourish. During the summer, Cisco takes her plants home and leave them outside in the sun.

Libby Cruz shows off her collection of plants. "Plants are nature's way of reminding us to appreciate the beauty and magic of life," Cruz said.

The plant in the wide pink pot is known as a Peace Lily and thrives in bright, indirect light.

This plant is known as Pilea Pepperomia and is sometimes nicknamed UFO plants due to the shape of their leaves.

The plant in the pink and orange pot with dots is a variety of pothos named Golden Pothos.

2. Abby Cady (11) catches the ball for the pitcher. "The highlight of my season was the team dinners after practices and hitting my first home run!" Cady said

3. Laura Ewing (9) throws the ball to out the opposing team. "My favorite part of softball was meeting new people. They all helped me when i wasn't feeling the best," Ewing said.

4. Sarah Cady (9) throws the ball from outfield. "The girls are so supportive and they were so accepting even though i joined later in the season!" Cady said.

5. Vivian Yuhás-Vining (9) catches ball at first base. "My favorite part about this team are my teammates I get to play with, I made a lot of new friendships while playing the sport I love," Yuhás-Vining said.

CULTURE ROOTS EVENT

By Eh Khu Poe and Sasha Gates

1. Ximena Altuzar (10) shows off native dress, "The culture I was representing is the Tarahumara people. They are an Indigenous group located in Chihuahua, Mexico. The dress that I wore is the traditional clothing, its significance is to fight against assimilation and to maintain the colorful clothing/native attire," Altuzar said.

2. Mozan Suliman (10) creates henna tattoos. "My favorite part was the whole night, especially being able to do henna and watch the cultural dances," Suliman said.

3. Alexis Arriaga (12) displays the flag of Mexico. "The most significant part was having people come out to represent and support so many different cultures," Arriaga said.

4. Barsha Rai (10), Anughya Gurung (9) and Asmee Tamang (9) represent Nepal by performing a dance. "I love performing and showing other people about my culture and where I originate from," Tamang said.

5. Students represent Ethiopia.

6. Silvia Cajiga- Fernando (12) was one of the main planners for this event. "The main reason for cultural night was to raise culture awareness. Our three main goals were to celebrate diversity, cultural exchange, and community enrichment," Cajiga- Fernando said.

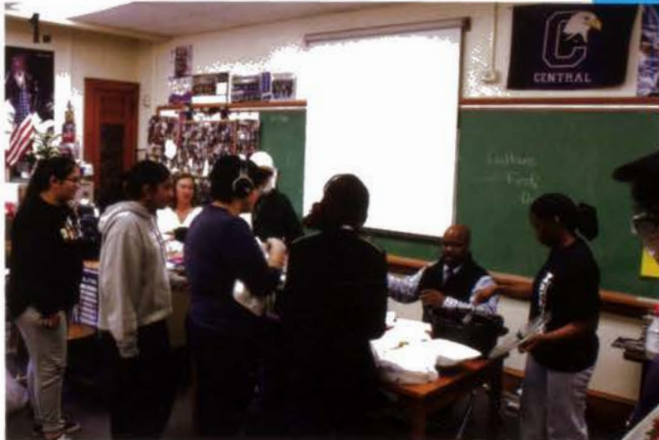

7. Betsy Tenorio-Hernandez (12) and Meh Mo (12) pose for a photo. "For this year, we met with last year's students which graduated from CHS in 2023 because we also wanted to do a similar event for our CHS clubs and organizations. I feel that I not only have to thank the two people that helped but my officers too, because we helped plan everything from the time and date to the decor and the food! Although it took several meetings to plan and organize, I feel that it worked out in the end," Tenorio-Hernandez said.

MINORITY SCHOLARS

1. Jane McGill (12) (bottom right) rides the bus with the crew. "I got very little sleep on that trip, still on what a wonderful city," McGill said.

2. Charlie Yale (12), Brayden Simpson (12), Arisa Lattison (11) and Steven Dickerson (10) ride the elevator at the Boston Marriot Copley Place hotel. "I really enjoyed Boston, it is always so cool representing The Register and I am so lucky to have been able to go to that fantastic city. I loved seeing all of the college campuses and idealizing about the next four years," Yale said.

3. Ella Levy (12), Isabel Hoiberg (12) and Hattie Moeller (11) pose in front of pizza joint in Boston. "The trip was great and was a big bonding moment for the staff!" Levy said.

4. Becca Rock (11), Hadley Forsen-Yepes (12), and Ann Carlson (12) stand behind Boston Dock. "I loved the journalism trip to Boston! I was able to explore a city that I love and learn about new aspects of sports writing. On this trip I also developed new friendships with the rest of the journalism students!" Rock said.

5. Hattie Moeller (11) pose with a cutout of the Boston Red Sox macot. "It was fun to exploring a new city with classmates, and make new memories," Moeller said.

6. Arisa Lattison (11) describes how well the trip went. "Boston was a super fun experience, I loved being exposed to a whole new environment and getting to know the people I work with on the Register and yearbook! One of my favorite tourist attractions, which isn't even a tourist attraction, is the streets of Boston. Just because it's scenic and way different than Nebraska. I just found it interesting to go walk, check out the shops, just check out the architecture which differs greatly from here. I found that in itself to be one of my favorite parts of the trip. The cobblestone roads, if that's what you call it, I found that really pretty and it just screams Boston," Lattison said.

7. Steven Dickerson (10) and Ann Carlson (12) pose in front of the Boston Waterboat Marina sign. "The Boston trip was so eye opening and adventurous. It was so cool to explore the city that basically built this nation while also being able to explore my interests and expand my mind as journalist," Dickerson said.

'The Play That Goes Wrong'

by Amy Fischer, Jillian Bertino, & Madeleine Mitchell

Sophia Detisch (12), playing the love interest, Sandra, and Olivia Brown (12), playing the stage manager, Anie, fought on stage, fight over who gets to play their shared onstage character.

Detisch faints and is placed in a clock by Jaden Cheloha (12), playing Max, and Toby Rischling (12), playing Trevor.

Brayden Simpson (12) wields a gun as he appears as Johnathon, whose murder was central to the plot.

Emma Moran (12), playing Rachel, discovers that she has been betrayed at the end of the play. "The play was so much fun! I love the cast and crew so much, we had tons of great moments together. My favorite thing was learning how to sword fight, and also splashing water on Quinn (don't tell her though)," Moran said.

"Being a part of the fall play was an amazing experience where I got to learn more about stage fighting, stunts, accents, and being in a comedic role. Being on stage gave me the opportunity to see the audience's reactions first hand and it was thrilling. My favorite part of the show was when my character fought Olivia's character. I had the most fun doing that with her and she was so amazing in it," Detisch said.

Nathaniel Remington (12), playing Chris, the director of the small British theater company, gave a pre-show speech. "Doing an accent was a whole new challenge. It's like having to memorize a new way of speaking, and putting every word through a different filter. After getting over the learning curve it was easy to just have fun with it and play around with the lines," Remington said.

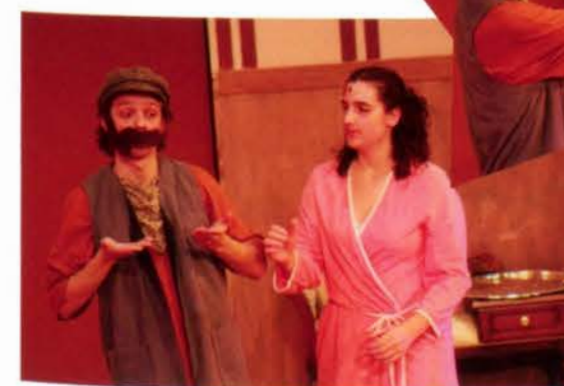

Grace Spika (11), the scenic crew head, watches as the walls fall. "It was definitely a challenge rigging all the things to fall and go wrong. The wall had to be my favorite part. Building them was the easy part, and using some pins and some stage magic to have them fall," Spika said.

Stage Crew and the actors stand in complete and utter shock as the walls on stage fall.

Quinna Glass (12), playing Denise, is handcuffed to the chaise lounge at the end of the show.

"My first time being a lead in the school play was genuinely more than I could've ever wished for. The best part of it all was being able to put on the show with all my friends. I like to think of myself as a fairly comedic person, so when I was cast as a comedic character for this show, I thought it was right in my wheelhouse. The only thing I really needed to prepare myself for was all the physical comedy of the character. I trip and fall constantly throughout the play, but I think those moments ended up becoming some of my favorite from the whole show," Cheloha said.

Detisch's character, Sandra, attempts to seduce Cheloha's character, Max, and instead rips off his side burn. Cheloha then messes around with it.

WHAT'S REGISTER STAFF COOKING?

By Adriana Aguilar

The Register staff works in room 029 where they brainstorm, write articles and conduct interviews. Some articles recently published discuss why students skip, the implementation of composting, freedom of the press, drivers education and snow days.

Becca Rock (11) proofreads her article. "I love being on the Register because I expand my knowledge about the community around me," Rock said.

Grace Sunseri (10), Katie Besancon (10), Isabel Hoiberg (12), and Millie Jackson (10) gather around to talk about The Register. "I like the community the Register provides and the support of everyone in staff," Sunseri said. "My advice for anyone wanting to join is to not be afraid to walk up to people for interviews, branch out to different topics and to have fun because it's truly the best!" Besancon said.

Fiona Bryant (11) edits an article for the upcoming edition. "My advice for any student wanting to get into journalism is to start contributing and really work hard by putting time into your intro class," Bryant said.

Hadley Forsen-Yepes (12) reads an article on her laptop. "My time on the Register has given me lasting friendships. I love working with the staff on the paper, but I also enjoy our time in the interview room, traveling to journalism conventions, food days, and listening to music while we work," Forsen-Yepes said.

Cris Bataillon (12) and Charlie Yale (12) look through an email inbox. "I really look forward to getting a print copy of the paper every issue. I'm not sure if it's just me going a little wild after four years of being on staff but I do love how a fresh stack of newspapers smells," Yale said.

REACHING FOR THE ROCKSTARS

STUDENT LED BAND
BY: SOPHIA TIRITILLI

The bands plays together at the Waiting Room Lounge as headliners.

Elijah Weber (11) drums along as the band plays. "I love being able to make noise with my friends!" Weber said.

Ryan Rouse (12) and James Reay (12) play together at the Waiting Room. "I think it's incredible that I get to experience being in a band. Playing in front of big crowds is a dream come true," Reay said.

Ryan Rouse (12) strums his guitar while playing "The Pumpkin Song." "Playing live or at practice when everyone just connects and the music sounds like music is one of my favorite parts of being in the band. Everyone is playing their own thing, but it works together, it's a no-brainer but it's so satisfying," Rouse said.

A STARRY NIGHT

Winter Formal

By Adriana Aguilar

1. Olivia Kirchhevel (11) and Aubrey Victor (12) get together for a photo. "Winter Formal went great! Our student council members made sure to show up and decorate it to the best of our abilities. I am proud of how everything turned out and of my fellow student council members. I think everyone enjoyed our Starry Night," Victor said.

2. Olivia Brown (12) and DeVon Richards (11) smile at the photo booth. "My favorite part of Winter Formal was taking pictures with my friends and watching my boyfriend get into a pole dancing competition with a total stranger," Brown said. "I absolutely loved the photo booth at formal! It was really fun to be able to match with my girlfriend!" Richards said.

Grace Spicka (11), Sophie O'Hara (12), Etta Salzman (12), Ash O'Brien (11) and Jack Wilderman-Nielson (10) pose for the photo booth.

"This was probably my favorite school dance I've ever attended! I socialized and danced more than I typically do. It's significantly less crowded than other dances, but still has a lot of good energy," Salzman said.

3. Sophia Detisch (12), Chance Gaillard (12) and Nate Remington (12) mimic Van Gogh's "The Scream." "Winter Formal was a lot of fun, but I felt bad for the teachers sitting at the table in the middle of the dance floor," Detisch said.

4. Renny Maxwell (11) and Kyra Fry (12) smile for pictures before Winter Formal. "My favorite part of Winter Formal was just hanging out with my friends," Fry said.

5. Jeremiah Jackson (12), Esmeralda Sanchez (11), Kaylee Taylor (12) and Cooper Long (12) get together as a friend group. "Dancing to the music, going to Cane's, and hanging out with my friends were my favorite parts of Winter Formal," Jackson said.

Members of A Cappella and Hand-Bell choir joined each other on stage to perform "Stars." "I enjoy choir because singing is my passion and the people are very kind," Tyler Cook (10) said.

From left, Catarina Pedro-Mateo (9), Alita Elamin (9) and Lamareea Love (9) are members of Junior Choir. "My favorite part about choir is definitely singing. I plan on staying in choir throughout high school," Love said.

Ava Bohnert (9), Jacqueline Inda (9), and Fiona Noble (9) sing one of their pieces for the Junior Choir performance at the concert.

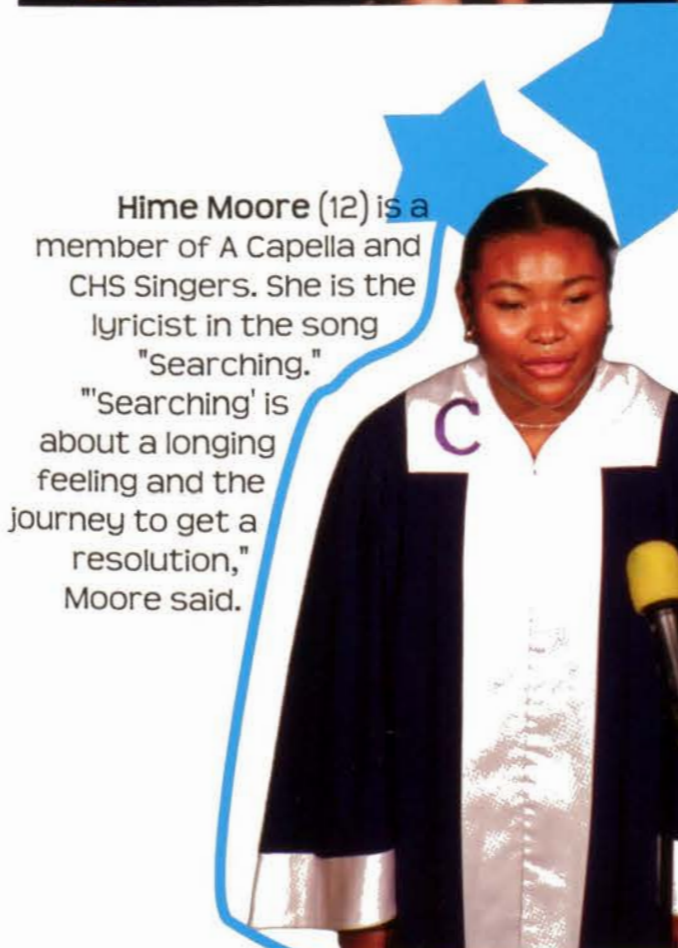

At the end of the concert, members of A Cappella, Mixed Choir, Bel Canto, and Junior choir all sang a song together to celebrate unity and diversity. "We got to perform really cool repertoire that we have been prepping for a while. It was nice to finally perform it, especially with all my closest friends," said Aiden Ramirez (11), a member of A Cappella.

Laya Dorsey (10), Norah Thapa (10) and Jazmin Guimenes-Mills (10) sing in Bel Canto. "My favorite thing about choir is the supportive atmosphere we're in and getting lots of opportunities," Thapa says.

Hime Moore (12) is a member of A Capella and CHS Singers. She is the lyricist in the song "Searching." "Searching' is about a longing feeling and the journey to get a resolution," Moore said.

Clockwise from back left: Brayden Simpson (12), Emma Moran (12), Robert Winton (12), Joanna Sandquist (12), Daniel Kuncil (12), Isabelle Smolsky (11), Hugh Lowe-Weyand (11), Xuxa O'Brien (12) and Callahan Hernandez (11) are members of CHS Singers. "CHS Singers has done a LOT of holiday performances in the community. It's really something special to get out into the community and spread a little bit of joy to people, some who may really need it," Kuncil said.

Jillian Bertino (12) shows off her scrapbooks. "I recently started scrapbooking my senior year and it's really fun. I think it is a great way to document things. I am very crafty and creative," Bertino said.

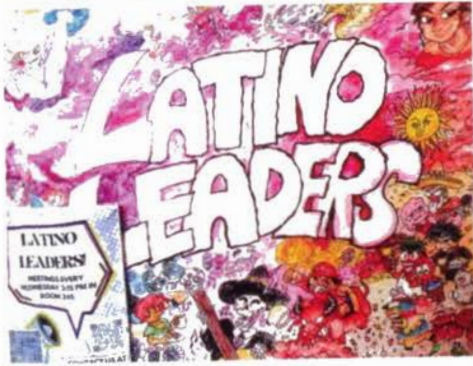

Isabel Hoiberg (12) shows off assortments of scrapbooks. "It has been so amazing growing up knowing that my life has been documented in a scrapbook. As a kid I never appreciated it, but I love sitting down and reading about what I did when I was at my grandma's house or what my sister and I did one day. I've looked through some of them so much that two of my scrapbook spines have broken. My favorites are definitely the books from when I was little because I can't remember those times, so it's amazing to know that I can still relive those moments through pictures," Hoiberg said.

Eh Khu Poe (12) shows off her collection of scrapbooks. "I have always been obsessed with scrapbooking and stationeries in general. I love documenting whatever comes to my mind and often times, I go back and read my inserts and crack myself up," Poe said.

KICKING IT WHERE IT COUNTS

Boys Varsity Soccer

by Toryeon Mack

Mukhtar Abdirahman (11) kicks a corner kick. "Playing soccer is as important to me as if your $100 bill trying to escape from you," Abdirahamn said

Brian Aparicio (12) waits for the ball to come his way. "The hardest part about this being my last year is to able to show what I'm capable of on the field," Aparicio said.

Siidi Adan (10) plays defense. "I just stay calm and play hard and physical because I'm only gonna do this for four years and it goes by fast, no need to be under more pressure just need to get the job done," Adan said.

K'Shaun Frazier (12) plays the ball to his teammates. "I stay motivated by keeping my mind focused on our end goal and always looking for what's next no matter what goes throughout the season," Frazier said.

Angel Urbina (12) runs to kick the ball. "My dad and family inspired me to play soccer, I always grew up around soccer and its something thats apart of me now" Urbina said.

GIRLS AND BOYS JV SOCCER

by Yvonne Dorcas

The Girls JV team warms up before a game at Seeman Stadium. Rhese Pauba (10), Ingrid Swanson (10) and Nya Jock (9) wait for the drill to begin. "This season we have learned that it takes no talent to hustle, which has helped us win games," Pauba said.

Hawa Ibrahim (11) dribbles at a defender.

Mkongwa Asumani (11) gets open for a pass. "I have a passion for soccer. I started playing when I lived in Tanzania, and since then I have desired to play soccer," Asumani.

Jasmyn Hollenbeck (11) takes a free kick. "The JV team is such a great environment, we love stepping out onto the field together," Hollenbeck said.

Juan Rodriguez-Flores defends the ball. "My passion for soccer began at a very young age," Rodriguez-Flores said.

Delphin Majaliwa (10) takes the field against Creighton Prep. "Mistakes happen every day in practice, what makes you better is how you choose to react to them," Majaliwa said.

YOU CAN DANCE, YOU CAN JIVE

'Mamma Mia! the Musical'

by Madeleine Mitchell

Joanna Sandquist (12), Lucy Simmons-Pope (12) and Edie Titus (10) look through Donna's diary from before Sophie was born performing "Honey, Honey."

Sophia Detisch (12) plays Donna during a performance of "Money, Money, Money" with the cast as backup.

Remington plays the guitar and sings to Simmons-Pope. "Mamma Mia' is such a fun show to have for your senior year, it's a really fun set off," Remington said.

Brayden Simpson (12), Tobias Rischling (12) and Nate Remington (12) enter the scene wondering why all three of them showed up in the same place and why they were all invited by "Donna." "I really liked getting one last chance to perform with my friends. I think this is the best senior show I could have asked for," Simpson said.

Brown and Moran comfort Detisch, who plays Donna, after she runs into her three past lovers. Brown, Moran, and Detisch sing "Chiquitita" together to cheer Detisch up.

4 Hugh Lowe-Weyand (11), Simmons-Pope, Devon Richards (11), Detisch, Owen Fuesel (11), Emma Moran (12) and Olivia Brown (12) stand as Lowe-Weyand, the groom, Richards and Fuesel, the groomsmen, get introduced.

Olivia Brown (12) Sophia Detisch (12) and Emma Moran (12) sing on the roof during the Bachelorette party. "My favorite part of Mamma Mia was singing 'Chiquitita!' I had so much fun being goofy trying to make Donna smile! Even if that meant blowing feather boas in her face or even dancing around!" Moran said.

Hugh Lowe-Weyand (11) and Lucy Simmons-Pope (12) sing "Lay All Your Love on Me" to each other as they are surrounded by the people in the Bachelor's party.

Tobias Rischling (12), Brayden Simpson (12) and Nate Remington (12) are all pulled out of the dance party separately by Simmons-Pope as she interrogates them about if they're possibly her dad. "There was so much energy during rehearsals and I think it translated well on stage," Rischling said.

The entire cast comes out to sing and perform "Voulez-Vouz." "I loved being able to do something I love with some of my closest friends. My favorite scene was 'Voulez-Vouz,' as we got to bring everyone on stage and have a lot of fun," Simmons-Pope said.

Deitsch, Moran, and Brown perform Dancing queen together and eventually the dance ensemble joins in as well. "I had an incredible time performing Mamma Mia. The whole show was so fun and it was such an amazing end to my senior year," Detisch said.

BABY GOT TRACK!

Girls Varsity Track

by Raven Brye

Maya Rodgers (11) sprints to the finish line. "I joined track because of a friend and stayed for the environment and my coaches are so supportive and I've seen so much improvement in myself and expect more in the future," Rodgers said.

Cynnaca Jones (11) runs first during the relay.

"I really love track, the best part about it is just running with confidence and being good. It's a good vibe all the time and I love my teammates," Jones said.

Sadie Osher (9) runs to finish the race. "My favorite part is how close the team is, and how there is so much encouragement and support from everyone," Osher said.

Janii Blair (12) runs up for hurdles. "I've had so much fun being on track, everyone is so supportive, I am a little sad this is my last year but I've made the most of it," Blair said.

by ZaKheya Johnson

BJ Newsome (10), Sanai Cotton (10) and Andrew Brown (12) support their teammates as they have finished their other races.

Ryan Adams (12) runs to finish the race. "I joined the track team because throughout it was a great start to join a community with friends from school," Adams said.

Yeremyah Rowe (9) "My favorite part of track are the meets and seeing where you are compared to everyone else. This season is going very well, getting better every meet and setting new PR's," Rowe said.

Phineas Dahlke (9) passes other runners to speed through the finish line!

Menelaus Knoble (9) runs the 800-meter run. "Heeyyy Coach!" Knoble exclaims.

METRO HOCKEY

by Genevieve Ormond, Maureen Coffey & Jillian Bertino

1. Metro Hockey players cheer and congratulate each other after a successful win.

2. Standout player Patrick Beemer (12) captured smiling after a successful victory. "I haven't really known what my life would be without hockey, it's always been something I could fall back on. This sport has taught me how to develop better work ethic and shaped a lot of the morals I hold close," Beemer said.

3. Three-sport athlete Isaiah Larson (10) takes a swing at the puck to score the winning goal.

4. Theodore Puls (11) glides briskly across the ice to swipe the puck from his opponent.

Mercier Cerasoli (9) goes in to steal the puck from the other team.

Students walk toward the Orpheum Theater on their way to the show.

At the end of the show, Central students had the opportunity to ask questions to a few of the members of "The Lion King" cast. At the end of the Q&A the actors took a selfie with everyone from Central.

Virginia Arce Garcia (9), Johany Hernandez (9), Gabriela Arevalo-Soriano (9), and Sara Longino Lucio (9) pose with "The Lion King" posters. "The whole thing was really fun to be at especially with friends. I really liked when they had actors run down the aisles," Arevalo-Soriano said.

Nick Krasnoslobodtsev (9), right, and Norah Kovar (9) line up outside of their bus waiting to leave Central. "My favorite part of the show was the introduction because it really set the tone for the show. Right from the start I could tell the music from the show would be amazing," Krasnoslobodtsev said.

1. Ava Pleggenkuhle (10) starts to serve the tennis ball. "Playing tennis makes me nostalgic of times on vacation," Pleggenkuhle said

2.

2. Emma Miranda (11) hits the tennis ball. "My favorite part about being involved with the Girls Central Tennis team has been the sense of community and the amount of self-improvement I've seen within myself both in and out of the season as I continue to practice," Miranda said

3.

4. Sarah Cady (9) goes to hit tennis ball. "I'd say my favorite part of the tennis team is that all of the girls are really nice and are easy to get along with and that they are also so supportive on and off the court," Cady said.

3. Holland Robison (11) hits the tennis ball. "My favorite part about tennis is how close the team is, like legit every practice I cannot make it through without breaking down from laughing. I also love the matches, team dinners, and the snack box," Robison said.

5. Sasha Gates (12) waits to hit the tennis ball. "My favorite part about tennis is probably the game itself. I love the independence while playing singles and the teamwork and communication while playing doubles. I love the feeling of knowing you had a great shot and winning the point," Gates said.

Protect Trans Youth Walkout

by Madeleine Mitchell

Walkout organizers Grayson Shuler-Morgan (12), Charles Yale (12) and Oliver Loots (11) pose for a group photo together. "To me the walkout really helped to show that Central students do care about these policies that affect us! We need to show those who represent us that even though we are young, we still deserve to be listened to like anyone else," Loots said.

Clockwise from above left, Oliver Loots (11), Charles Yale (12), Aiden Whalen (12) and Grayson Shuler-Morgan (12) speak to the gathering of protesters. "I feel that the walkout highlights students' willingness to advocate on behalf of their peers. We stand up for each other," Yale said.

Bottom right: Alexander Parks (11), Celestial Anderson (11), Liebe Akue (11) and Elleandra Hurt (11) pose with one of the signs that were given at the walkout. "I think it's important to bring attention to these topics and I appreciate that put the time and effort into making these walkouts happen!" Anderson said.

Elizabeth McGovern (10) searches for an open player to release the ball. "I love being able to play with a bunch of different girls, the lacrosse community is so much fun!" McGovern said.

Eagles Lacrosse scores against Duchesne and celebrates together. "There is a close-knit community, and you're immediately welcomed in like family!" Macy White (11) said.

Izzy Johnson (12) cradles the ball as she beats a Westside defender. "There has been a lot of growth this season and it's amazing to watch everyone succeed in playing the sport we all love," Johnson said.

Desi Steffen (11) passes the ball down the field. "Joining Eagles Lacrosse is a great way to participate in a high school sport. It has also allowed me to meet new girls from other schools, which has been my favorite part," Steffen said.

Eagles Lacrosse hoist their sticks in the air before their match.

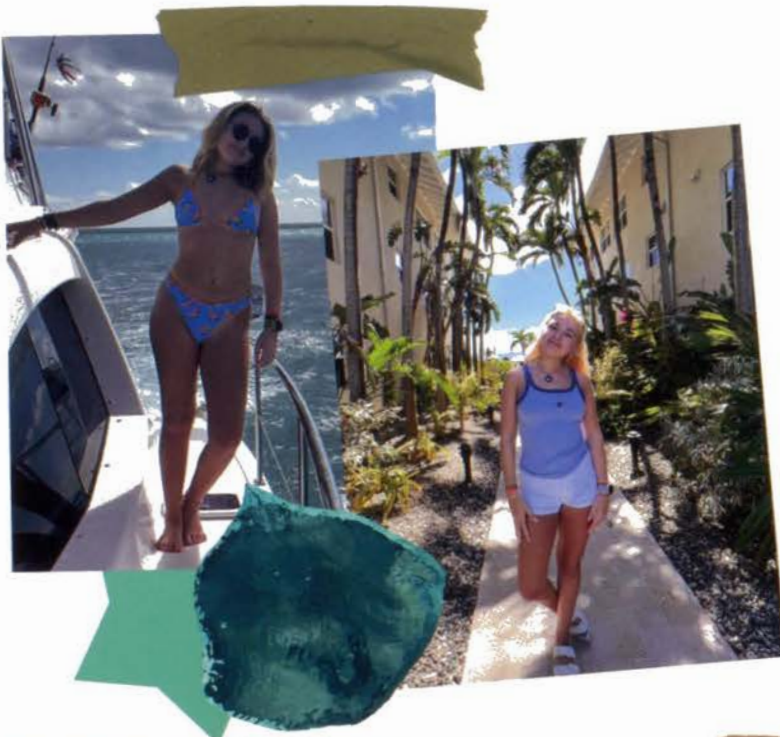

Adeline Samson (11) charges through Duchesne's defensive line. "This team is so energetic. I love competing and winning alongside my teammates," Samson said.

Ady Borchert (11) takes pictures at Grand Cayman. "We swam with sting rays, went out on a boat exploring the islands, and scuba diving," Borchert said.

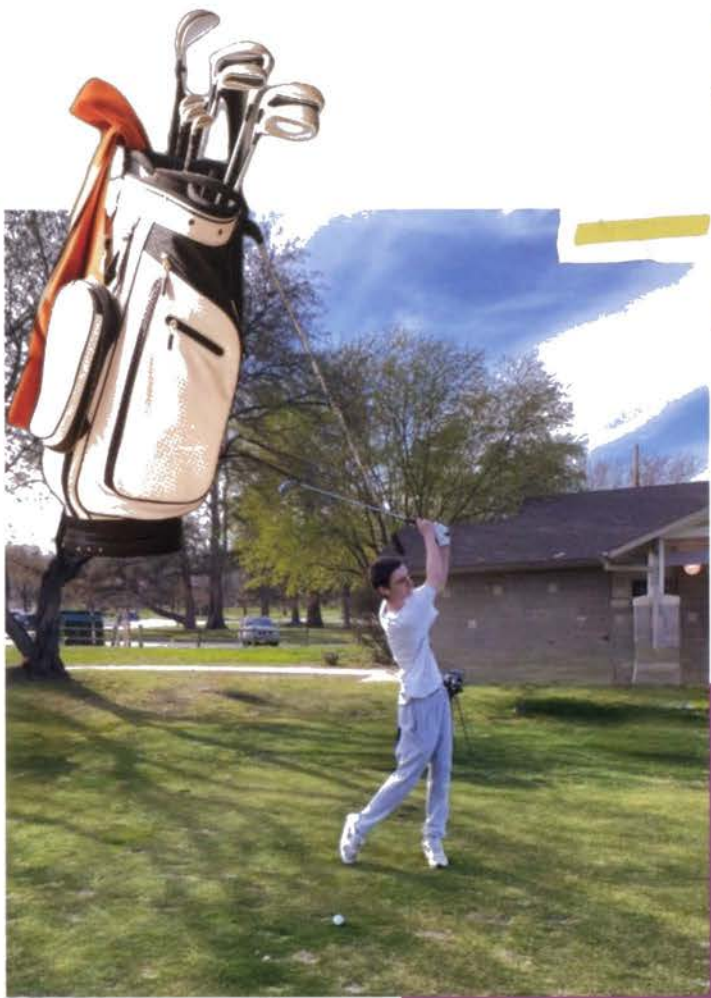

Charlie Palmer (12) poses with his sister. "My favorite part about being in Mexico was chilling at the beach and going out at night with my sister and our cousin," Palmer said.

Bethany Abdul (12) smiles for the photo. "My favorite memory was seeing the looks on my dad's face when I met our family for the first time, he was so happy and in tears. I went to South Africa, Zimbabwe, Namibia, Botswana, and Zambia. I choose to go to these places to learn where my family comes from, and to connect with my roots. It was also my birthday," Abdul said.

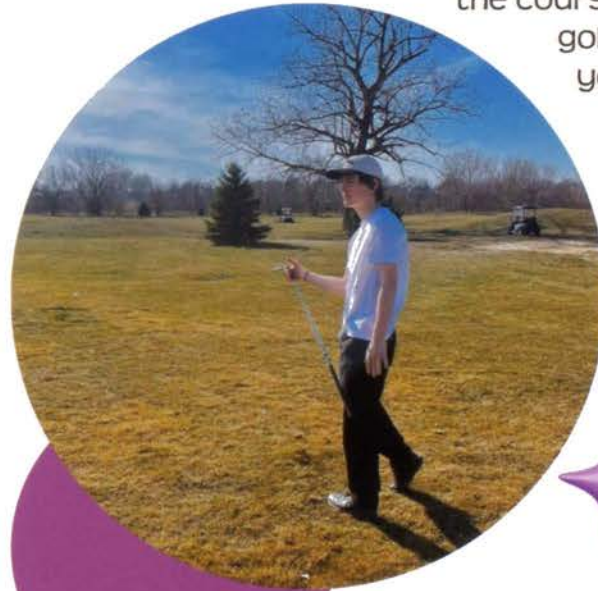

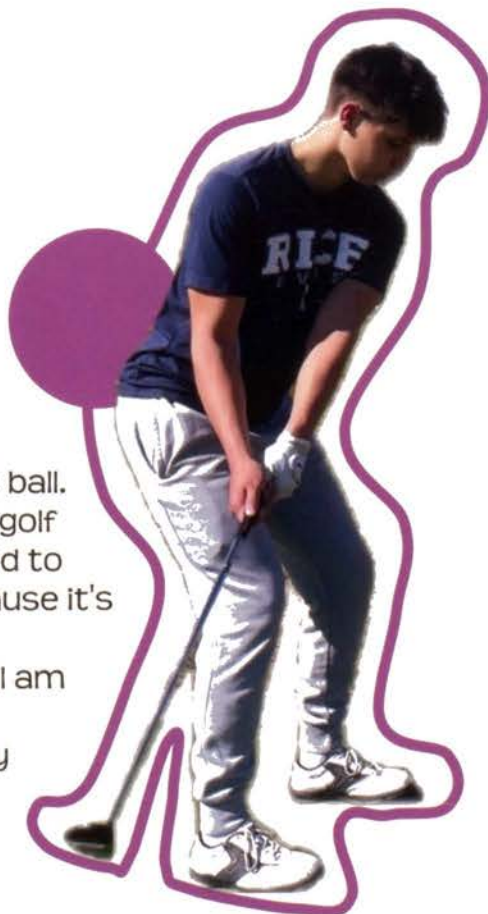

Paul Brannen (11) completes a full swing at golf practice. "I really enjoy going out with my buddies and getting better at something I love every day," Brannen said.

Henry Mattox (12) stands on the mound throwing a pitch. "I've played 13 years. My favorite position is center field because you can get anyone out and being an outfielder is easy," Mattox said.

Harrison Hoiekvam (12) stands in the outfield. "My favorite memory of playing baseball was being a part of the Sam and Briggs game against Omaha North. The team played great and I can't wait to play it again this summer," Hoiekvam said.

Marcus Kane (11) stands at home plate ready to swing. "My favorite part of playing for Central is the family we have here and how everyone helps everyone here," Kane said.

Blake Demman (11) stands in the infield waiting to field the ball.

Max Nemec (12) stands on the mound waiting to pitch. "I love playing baseball because of my teammates and I like to win," Nemec said.

Traesen Dennis-Reed (10) and Julius Gentleman (10) fist bump each other for encouragement before the game begins. "I think the best part is to win. We need to play together. The players don't win the game themselves. It is won by everyone doing their part," Gentleman said.

Mark Ripp (10) prepares to catch the ball. "I like the environment my teammates created," Ripp said.

Calix Pierce (9) prepares to throw a pitch. "I like pitching because it puts me in a position to control the game and get my team going. Swords are also pretty fun," Pierce said.

Luke Neujahr (9) gets ready to catch a throw. "I like being on the baseball team because of all of the friendships I've made through Central baseball," Neujahr said.

You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. And YOU are the one who'll decide where to go...
Dr. Seuss, "Oh, the Places You'll Go!"

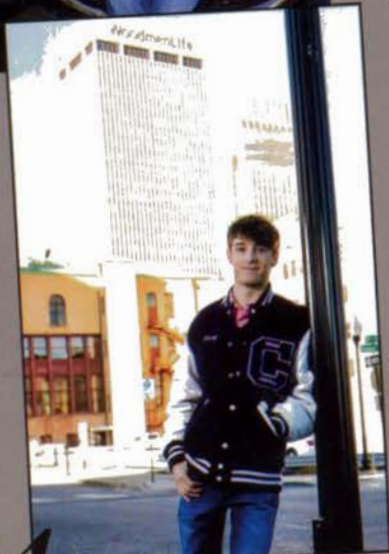

AMORY VASQUEZ

It has been such a blessing watching you grow into the beautiful young lady you are today. I will never forget your first smiles, your silly laughs, your first steps or the first time you touched a ball. I have enjoyed every day that the Lord guided you on your journey and it's such an honor to see not only how great of a daughter you are, but how great of a person you are to all those around you.

Congratulations HARRY McGUIGAN!

We are so proud of you and we know you're on your way to doing great things! Love from your entire family and friends, and your mother is especially smiling down on you from heaven with tremendous pride.

Jillian Cathleen Bertino

With pride, joy, and love - congratulations, Jill! We adore you!

Mom and Dad

Skyler Oldenburg

Congratulations!

We are proud of the dedication and hard work that has gotten you to where you are. Now you get to live out one of your dreams, playing collegiate soccer. You are smart, determined, and strong. We believe in you and cannot wait to see the great things that you will accomplish next.

*Love,
Mom, Dad, Charlette, Ashlyn, & Emme*

Congratulations Natasha! Class of 2024

Kaylee M Taylor

You have strength to overcome obstacles, commitment to mold ambitions. Character fills your beautiful heart. You deserve every happiness!
Congratulations Kaylee!

Suge,
Your kind heart, tireless work ethic, unwavering determination to take on any challenge, and ability to stay true to yourself are just a few of your best qualities. Your desire to help others is truly admirable and aligns perfectly with your future goals. You are an incredible role model to your younger cousins and will be a positive influence on future generations.

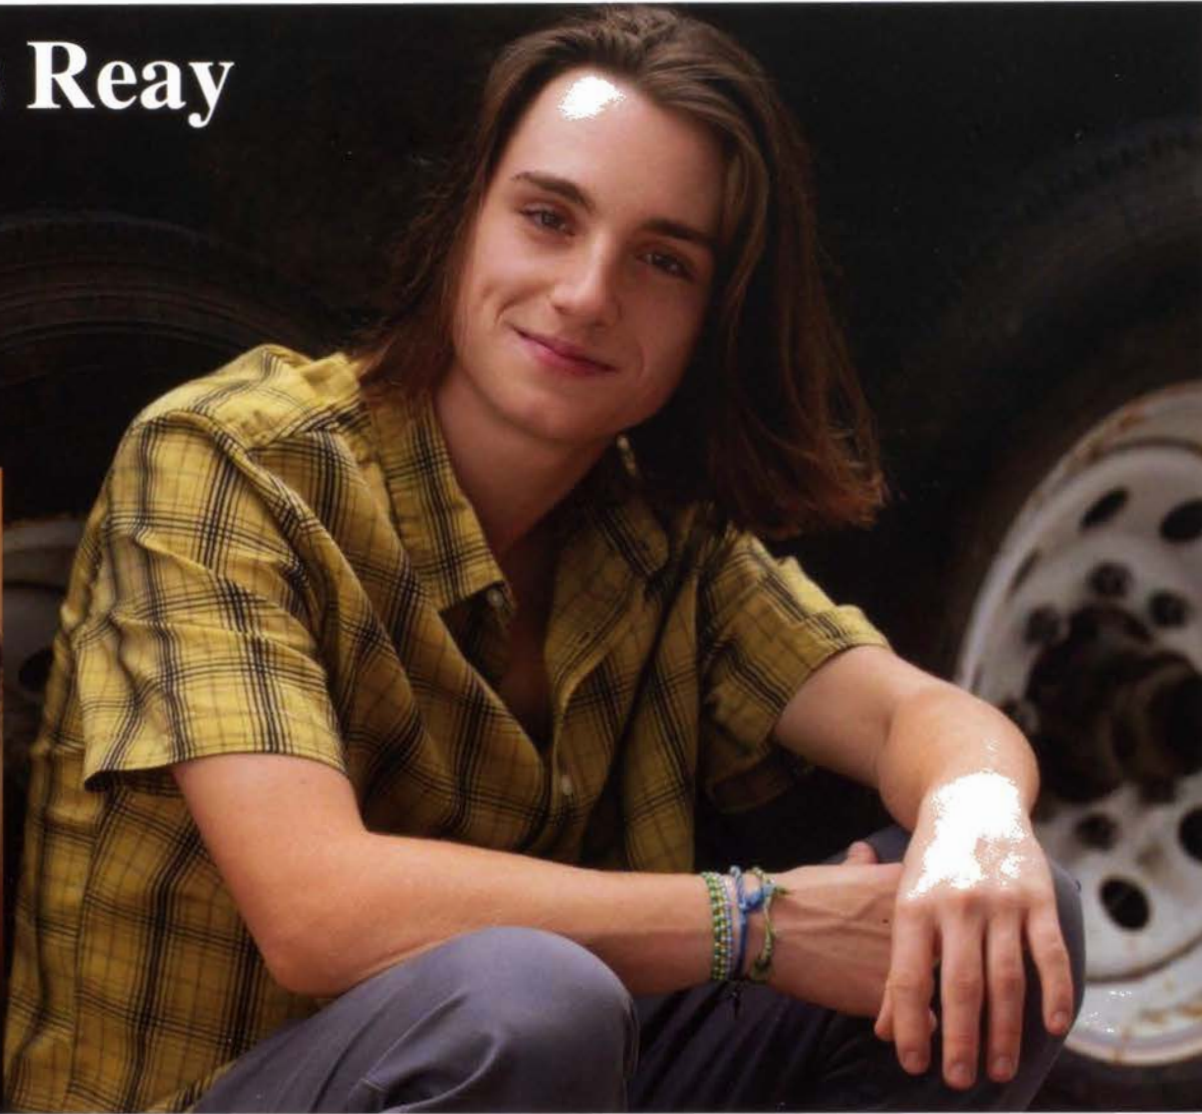

Your presence and remarkable achievements have inspired everyone around you and brought immense joy to their lives. Your loved ones are privileged to be part of your journey toward personal and professional growth. Keep up the great work and continue to be a shining example to everyone around you!

You will forever be my most favorite person, and I am blessed to call you son. We all wish you the best of luck for the remainder of your journey!!

Emily Mattson

To our beautiful daughter,

We still remember your first day of Pre-K. That day we were proud parents with tears in our eyes as our little girl walked through the doors for her first day of school. Soon we will watch you walk across the stage for your diploma once again with tears in our eyes. For the past 13 years we have watched you through times of struggle and through times of accomplishments. We are proud of the young woman that you have become. Graduation day marks the day that you end one chapter of life and begin a new one. Enjoy the journey! Your mom and I know you will go on to do amazing things with your life and are here to support you along the way.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, and Sissy

Gigi,

Congratulations on this awesome milestone. As you look to your future, make the rest of your life the best of your life.

Love Mom & Dad

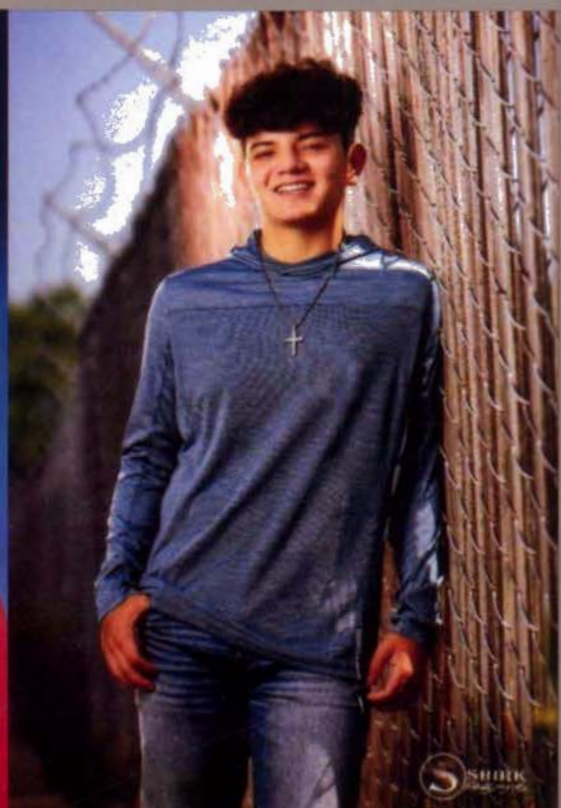

Congratulations Colin!

Words cannot express how proud we are of the path that you have carved out for yourself at Central. You are a caring and considerate young man and a wonderful example of a Central student-athlete. We look forward to seeing where your new adventures take you as you soar to the University of Missouri! We know that you will be a great addition to the tiger family and leave your own legacy at Mizzou.

With all of our love,

Mom, Dad, Christian, and Logan

Congratulations, Christian!

Be bold, be courageous, be your best. We are so very proud of you and can't wait to see what's next.

Keep following your dreams!

Love, Mom, Dad, Emma & Logan

Congratulations Sam! So proud of the amazing young man you've become! Can't wait to see you soar into the future!

Treasure this day and treasure yourself. Truly, neither will ever happen again.
--Ray Bradbury

Keep showing your wonderful smile,
Love you! Mom

Congratulations Lucy!

Remember to never pass up a good adventure.
Love, Dad, Mom + Ian

Ryan, we are so proud of the young man you have grown into.

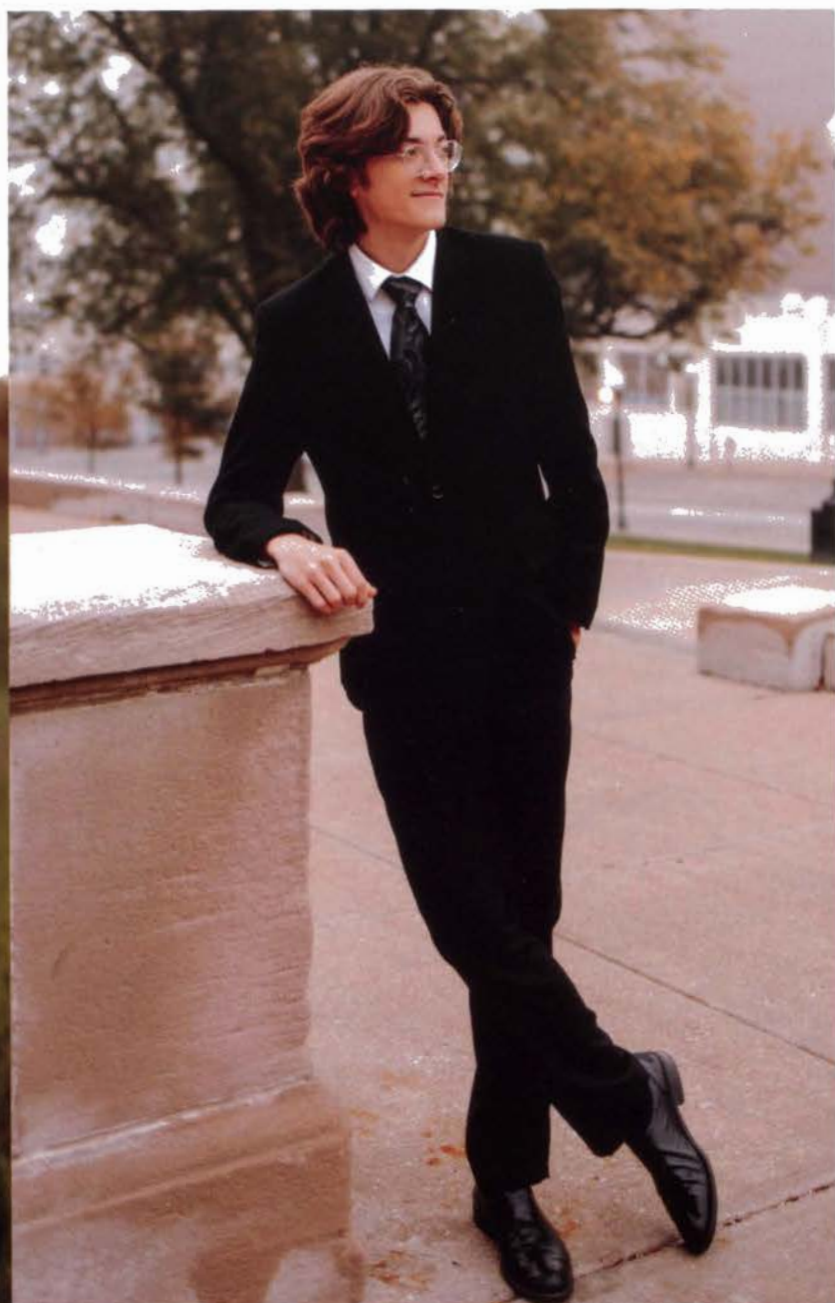

Now, we look forward to the future you create! We love you,
Mom and Dad

Andrew James

Before you can achieve you must believe in YOURSELF!
Congratulations Andy! Your sisters and I believe in you and all that you can do! We love you infinity and beyond!
XOXO Mom, Maddie & Emma

Ella & Valur, We are so proud! Having you and watching you grow makes life worth living. Go share what you have with this world and know that you are loved!

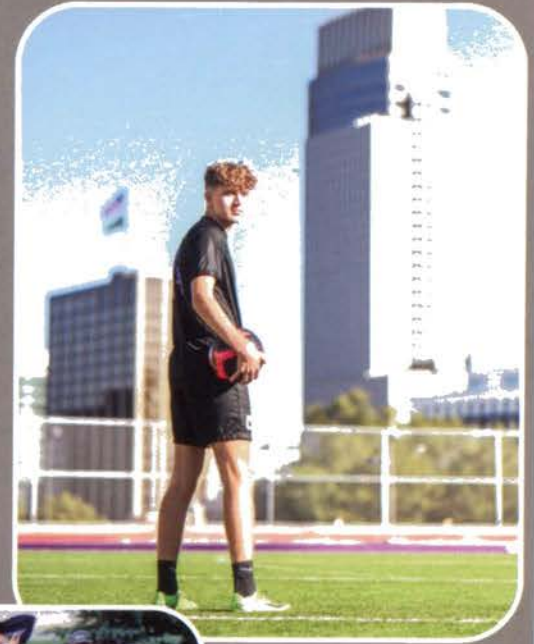

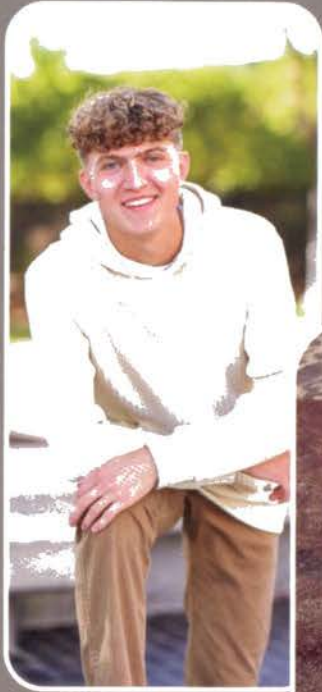

Always and Forever, Mom & Dad

Dream Big
Work Hard

Braeden, we are so proud of you! You have worked hard and succeeded at your goals! You never give up and your fierce competitiveness will carry you far. We can't wait to see where you go!
Love you,

Dad, Mom, Makenna & Hadley

Cooper, you are the best brother, son and most genuine human we know. Keep following your own path and it will take you farther in life than anyone we know. Always remember when life gets hard, all you have to do is keep showing up- that's the toughest part some days. We love you and we are so proud of you!
On to your next chapter- Mom, Kyle, Max, Winston, and Coleman.

Thank you for ALL YOU DO!!

YOU ARE SUCH A BLESSING.
I LOVE YOU!!!

Soar Eagle!!

You're a STAR!!

ZaKheya,

This has been a beautiful journey wathcing you grow. Your ambition will take you far and your spirit will guide
you. We are so proud of you and all that you have acheived and axious for what's to come. Continue to be the beautiful soul you are and follow your own path. We love you. Fly High!!

And just like that, eight semesters of High School successfully completed. You did it, hard work, dedication, determination and completion. You DID THAT!!!

Keep dreaming big. You will reach your goals. Never let anyone tell you that you can't do it. You can be and do anything your heart can dream of. Keep God first, keep the faith and get to it.

You Are Loved,

Congratulations, we are so proud of you. You have been the greatest nephew an auntie could ever ask for. Watching you grow into the man that you have become has been a great joy! The sky is the limit, reach for the stars. We're here along for your next journey, can't wait to see what you do next!

Love,
Your Aunt TT & Mia Simone

David Ryan Horne Jr.

Words cannot express how proud I am of you! You have always been smart, determined, and ambitious. As you embark on this major accomplishment, always know that I will be your #1 supporter and fan. Always believe that you can do anything that you put your mind to. I don't have to tell you to work hard, because you do that on a daily basis. Your grit is admirable and I will always respect you for it. The world is your canvas and I can't wait to see what all you strive to accomplish. You are blessed beyond measure and I am truly blessed and thankful to have you as my son!

Love Always,
Mom

CONGRATULATION TANIYA MARIE!

Letter from the Editors

That concludes the 2023-24 O-Book! I would like to give a huge shout-out to the amazing staff for their hard work, teamwork, and their determination to surpass deadlines. Last year, we discussed the possibility of a scrapbook/y2k theme for the yearbook and seeing it come to life is truly wonderful. Despite challenges, the moments of joy in room 029 make it all worthwhile. I hope everyone enjoys the O-Book, crafted with love from us.

-EH KHU POE

Thank you for all of your support in making this O-Book volume come to life,
