PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

Dear Central High School Supporter,

When you think of precision, you may not think of education philanthropy. Perhaps you think of athletics; a world class athlete like Roger Sayers ('60), who honed his physical skills to race the milliseconds on the clock. Or perhaps you think of a kitchen; chefs weighing the precise amount of a delicate ingredient or evaluating the exact burner setting so it hits the right temperature. Like the world's best athletes and chefs, at the Central High School Foundation we, too, act precisely to exact the outstanding outcomes necessary to ensure our Eagles have a wealth of opportunity and to improve educational outcomes. We, too, race against the clock to secure support, delicately weigh relevant factors in our projects, and – using an Eagle's eye – quickly spot areas of need so that we can best support our teachers and students.

One of the Central High School Foundation's best precision tools is our teacher grants, which allow us to directly respond to the needs of our Eagles in exactly the way they need us. Our grant application process encourages teachers to tell us how additional funding for their classroom will meet an educational need and result in strong academic outcomes for their students. What better way to precisely support our Eagles than by listening to them when they tell us how we can help?

This year alone, the Central High School Foundation has provided $730,000.00 directly to Central High School through such grants.

Of course, none of this would be possible without you. With your continued help, we will be able to provide even more support for our students, offer them the cutting-edge opportunities needed to build real preparedness, and equip them with the skills they will need to walk confidently into the future. We invite you, as always, to join us.

Lastly, as of July 31, 2024, I have stepped down as President of the Central High School Foundation Board of Directors. It has been a privilege to be involved with the Board for nine years, with the last two as President. Matt Darling, Class of 1999, will now take over as President. However, I will remain an active board member. It has been an honor to serve as President and work with such a fantastic institution. I look forward to continuing my work with the Foundation and Central High School in the future.

Forever an Eagle,

Mike Lebens
Class of 1970

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Dear Central High School Supporter,

On behalf of the Central High School Foundation Board of Directors, the Foundation staff, and myself, I hope this Annual Report finds you and your loved ones well!

This annual report provides an overview of this year's wins, laying out all the opportunities made possible by your support. After all, this year's success is entirely attributable to you and your support. As Mike Lebens said in his letter, this past year the Central High School Foundation has been utilizing precise measures to support Central High School teachers and students where they need it most. The tradition of excellence built into the culture of our community combined with your assistance have proven to be the exact tool needed to secure our students' success. From the bottom of our hearts, thank you.

This year the Central High School Foundation was able to provide a record number of academic scholarships to graduating seniors. In May, we awarded 85 scholarships, ranging from $1,000 to full tuition, to Eagles who will attend colleges all across the country. Compared to the eleven scholarships we were able to provide at our organization's inception in 1996, this is a powerful demonstration of how robust our organization has become. Our ability to support Eagles as they fly beyond the nest is an unprecedented example of our commitment to supporting the present and future success of Central High School students.

Also, this year, the Central High School Foundation made a significant impact on our current Eagles. Through classroom and teacher grants, we were able to fund a number of supplemental curricular projects, trips, leadership programs, and much more. For example, our support allowed current students enrolled in performing arts classes to attend a showing of The Lion King at the Orpheum Theatre to support their learning about stage management, performance, and production. Speaking of theater, the Foundation also provided key financial support for the annual musical, Mamma Mia!, which gave more than 150 students a hands-on opportunity to fully execute a full-scale mainstage musical production.

Support from the Central High School Foundation allowed our football team to attend Battle 7v7 in Las Vegas and Houston. This elite sports camp, hosted by Battle Sports, helps players develop their skills as they compete against top teams from across the country and exposes them to top college recruiters. Opportunities such as this help to retain and recruit student athletes who are vital to our tradition of athletic excellence. Additionally, funds from the Central High School Foundation helped to cover the registration fees for the OnToCollege test preparation course for students in an effort to help students raise their ACT scores, which impacts college admission options and scholarship opportunities.

There was one significant grant the Central High School Foundation was able to provide this year, in partnership with the Edward and Sally Malashock Family Foundation, which allowed our English Language Learner students to travel to Washington D.C. to make connections between what they've learned in U.S. History class and the places where these events happened. This powerful and significant learning experience helped students who are new to this country become grounded in what it means to be an American citizen and the rights that all Americans have and for which they can advocate. The opportunity enabled students to visit these historical landmarks for themselves and empowered them to use their voice and bring diversity to the forefront. Support for this learning opportunity demonstrates that the Central High School Foundation stands on the shared values of Central High School to eliminate the gaps of opportunity for all students.

As we continue our work with precision and passion, we remain dedicated to creating the opportunities which allow our Eagles to learn, grow, and succeed. Every win this year was achieved on the wings of Eagle Nation; your support was essential to our success. We genuinely thank you for your support of the Central High School Foundation. Together we can ensure that Central does not forget its past, continues to live successfully in its present, and plans for its future.

Once an Eagle, Always an Eagle,

Michele Roberts

Your Impact

The Mission of the Central High School Foundation is “To improve the education of present and future students at Central High School.” One way the mission is fulfilled is through classroom grants. Below is a sampling of the Central High School Foundation’s impact on students. As you can imagine, this is only a fraction of the impact we have made with your help.

ACT Prep Course

Funds from the CHS Foundation help cover the registration fee for the OnToCollege test preparation course in an effort to help students raise their scores, which impact college admission options and scholarship dollars. This opportunity allows access to test preparation regardless of their family’s ability to pay.

The prep class taught me what to prioritize when looking at test questions. I can definitely say that this helped me avoid over-analyzing questions and helped me to save time in completing the test.

Mamma Mia!

Through the grant from the CHS Foundation, students are able to receive training from guest artists who are masters in performance and technical theater. The grant also helps with fees for renting high-quality costumes, moving light equipment special-effects equipment, and purchasing specialized makeup.

Watching everyone grow close and put on an amazing show reminded me of why I love being involved in the Drama Department, and I am grateful to the Central High School Foundation for their support of this show!

Nate Remington ('24)

With funds from the CHS Foundation, Central’s JROTC cadets were outfitted with new marksmanship air rifles and color guard equipment. This equipment plus practice lead to the cadets earning first place in the OPS Rifle League this year. Cadets also learned leadership, team building, and other essential life skills.

Eagle Battalion

We are a great representation of Central. With funds from the CHS Foundation, we can continue to make JROTC a stand-out program where everyone can excel with hard work and dedication.

Football Team

Funding from the Foundation covering competition and travel costs allowed the football team to compete in elite training competitions across the country. Competing and playing against athletes who are heavily recruited by colleges and universities pushes our Central players to get better academically and athletically.

Not only do we get to travel to the best tournaments, but we are also able to sharpen our skills against the best talent in the country, and we are excited for the upcoming season next school year.

DeAnthony Dial ('26)

DECA Marketing

This grant from the CHS Foundation allows all interested DECA students the opportunity to travel, experience other cities and cultures, and network with other students and business professionals. DECA prepares emerging leaders and entrepreneurs in marketing, finance, hospitality, and management.

I am so grateful for the CHS Foundation’s contribution to DECA. My communication skills have greatly improved, and I have a broader understanding of marketing skills and strategies we learn about in class.

Washington, D.C. Trip

The trip was an unforgettable experience. It showed us that you can have fun learning about U.S. history. It wasn't just about the places and monuments we visited, but it was also about the quality time that we spent with our classmates and teachers. I will always remember this trip with love and nostalgia.

Yareli Mora ('24)

Because of the financial support from the Edward and Sally Malashock Family Foundation, twenty students who were enrolled in English Language Learner classes at Central were able to visit Washington, D.C. this summer. The goal of the trip was to allow students to make connections between what they've learned in US History class and the places where these events happened.

These students, who are new to the United States, were able to visit the nation's capital with their teachers. Many of these students see themselves pursuing careers in law, advocacy, and education, and this trip helped them envision these goals even more clearly.

We are looking forward to sending more students to Washington, D.C. in 2025!

Scan this QR code to watch a video with testimonials from this year's trip.

My favorite moments of the trip were the simple questions and observations students made and discussed with each other as they considered questions of American values and national memory. I was so impressed by them; they are seeing and thinking deeply about everything. We are so grateful to the Edward and Sally Malashock Family Foundation and CHS Foundation for this experience.

Scholarship Endowment

The Senior Recognition Ceremony for the Class of 2024 was held in May. This annual event is presented by Central High School, the Central High School Foundation, and the Central High P.E.P. to honor graduating seniors. Graduating seniors from the Class of 2024 earned a total of $23.1 million in scholarships to further their education. Charlie Yale and Amy Fischer were awarded the DeEmmett Bradshaw Zerbe ('43) and Mason Speltz Zerbe ('48) Central High School Student of the Year Scholarships. Government and social studies teacher Jordan Boyer was named the Teacher of the Year.

The Scholarship Endowment Fund began in 1980 when a 1932 alum donated $2,000. Then-principal Doc Moller immediately began to solicit money from various sources in order to guarantee the perpetual growth of the fund.

Today, the Central High School Foundation Scholarship Endowment has grown to nearly $2 Million! Scholarship recipients are chosen by the Central High School Scholarship Committee on the basis of application, scholarship, citizenship, and need. Congratulations to all scholarship recipients!

Central has meant so much to me these past four years. I've grown so much as an individual, and I am forever grateful for the experiences and opportunities Central has given me. It has been a place where I've met so many great people who have molded me into the person I am today. I will miss walking through those doors and immersing myself in the diversity within the halls.

Harrison Jordan

Thank you for your kindness and support of Central and students like me. I am truly grateful for both your generosity and experiences that Central has afforded me. I am thankful for each of my teachers, all of whom believed in me and inspired me over the past four years. I hope to make you and Central High School proud in my academic and professional journey.

Eagles from near and far returned to the Nest for the class of 1958 reunion. While there were many smaller gatherings that happened during the weekend, the main reunion festivities were a school tour and a dinner and social hour at Champions Run Golf Club. Classmates had fun sharing happy moments and making new memories together.

Class of 1961 80th Birthday Reunion

The class of 1968 held their 55-year reunion in the fall. On Friday evening, classmates gathered at Legends Grill & Bar. On Saturday, Eagles toured the new Arts and Library Addition and then danced the night away at the Field Club of Omaha. Classmates in attendance held a moment of silence to remember classmates who had been lost.

More than 150 Eagles from the class of 1973 reunited for their 50-year reunion in October. Following a Friday cocktail reception, Eagles gathered Saturday morning for a school tour led by current National Honor Society students. The reunion weekend concluded with a dinner and dance at the Scottish Rite Masonic Center.

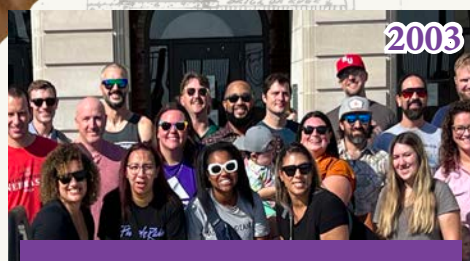

Fireworks at the Field Club concluded the class of 1978 reunion in August. The group enjoyed a social mixer at Legends in Aksarben on Friday. A school tour led by members of the JROTC was held Saturday morning. The completed Arts and Library Addition left the class in awe! An outing at Smokin' Oak Pizza followed the conclusion of the school tour.

The class of 1983 reunion weekend was a delightful blend of nostalgia and camaraderie. On Friday, the class convened for a football game at Seemann Stadium. Post-game drinks were held at Sullivan's Bar in Blackstone. Following a morning school tour, the highlight of the weekend was the food, fun, and dancing at the DAV Hall.

There were many smiles at the class of 1993 reunion. The weekend kicked off with a home football game against Gretna before a post-game celebration in Blackstone. After a school tour, a gathering at the Backlot Taphouse wrapped up the fun weekend.

The class of 2003 reunion began with a football game in the (new-to-them) Seemann Stadium. Nostalgia filled the air Saturday as they toured the new Arts and Library Addition. Saturday night was the highlight as Eagles gathered at Bärchen Beer Garden.

The class of 2013 is still "So Fresh and So Clean." A football game and school tour made classmates feel like they had never left. Former principal Keith Bigsby joined the class for a "Brunch with Bigsby" to reminisce and catch up after the school tour. Many classmates live in Omaha and want to gather more regularly to keep connections strong.

Jed Ortmeyer

Class of 1997

Jed became the first Omaha native and Central graduate to play in the National Hockey League. Jed first led the Omaha Lancers in scoring and won a league championship with his brother, Jake. He earned a scholarship to Michigan, where he served as team captain for two years and helped the Wolverines to three straight Frozen Fours. The defensive-minded forward made his NHL debut in 2003 with the New York Rangers. In 2004 and 2007, he earned the Rangers' Steven McDonald Extra Effort Award after returning to the ice from a serious health condition that nearly ended his career. He played eleven years professionally, including 362 NHL games with New York, Nashville, San Jose, and Minnesota, recording 23 goals and 32 assists, and lining up for 384 games in the American Hockey League, recording 68 goals and 107 assists. He was inducted into the Omaha Hockey Hall of Fame in 2015.

Harold Pharoah

Class of 1966

Pharoah has been a stalwart member of the Central High School Alumni Association, particularly providing leadership on matters related to the school's veterans. Since joining the association's board more than a decade ago, the Navy veteran has been active on the History, Alumni Engagement, and Hall of Fame Committees and co-founded the Veterans Committee. Pharoah took the lead to restore the school's 30-year-old Vietnam memorial, which had suffered weather damage. Pharoah, a prostate cancer survivor in 2011, started the Cruisin' for a Cure Car Show, to provide free prostate cancer screenings to men over 40 years of age. In 2018, he started the Nebraska Prostate Cancer Alliance, a 501c3 organization raising awareness of prostate cancer in the Omaha metro area. In 2019, he led the push for the creation of a Nebraska prostate cancer license plate.

Richard Steele

Class of 1961

Steele built a company specialized in maintaining locomotive engines, instilling it with a unique cooperative culture. After graduating from Iowa State University in 1971, Steele with two friends founded Peaker Services, a firm that maintains the engines of the backup generators electrical utilities used to meet peak demand. Starting with three trucks and working out of a two-car garage, Steele helped grow Peaker Services into a $35 million company servicing large engines for a range of industrial customers, among them utilities, railroads, and the maritime industry. As the CEO, he adopted the industrial model of post-war Japan and established a company culture built around extreme cooperation over internal competition, continual learning and a shared vision of quality, creating an environment where workers experienced a greater sense of purpose and fulfillment. He remains chairman of the now employee-owned company.

Judy Storm

Distinguished Educator

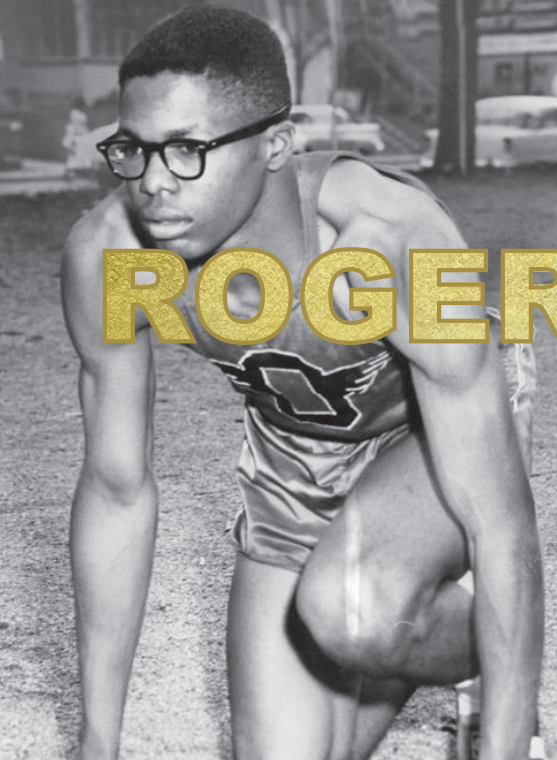

Judy taught for 27 years at Central, serving as chair of the Special Education Department, where she was active in the lives of students and was a mentor to fellow faculty. After graduating with an education degree from UNO in 1980, Judy launched her 32-year OPS teaching career, joining the Central staff in 1985. In addition to teaching, she served as sponsor for the Student Council and helped coordinate the spring prom for 20 years. She received the National Association of Student Councils Award for Leadership of Youth in 2005 and the Alice Buffett Outstanding Teacher Award in 2008. In retirement, Judy continues to substitute teach at Central and is a regular at Eagle activities. Her children, Central graduates Jennifer and Matt, followed her into education in OPS, Matt now a physical education teacher and wrestling coach at Central, and Jennifer a counselor at Dundee Elementary. This is her second OPS Hall of Fame induction, as she was inducted into South High's Hall of Fame in 2012.

Patrick Venditte

Class of 2004

Pat made Major League Baseball history as the first ambidextrous pitcher in the modern era. His unique skill led to a change in baseball's rules unofficially dubbed "The Venditte Rule" which requires the pitcher to declare his pitching hand before facing each batter. Pat was second-team All-State at Central and an All-American pitcher for Creighton before being drafted by The New York Yankees in 2008. In June 2015, he became just the second Central grad to play in the big leagues. Pat pitched in five major league seasons with Oakland, Toronto, LA Dodgers, Seattle, San Francisco and Miami, striking out 58 batters in 72 innings and compiling a 4.73 ERA. He also twice pitched for Italy in the World Baseball Classic and numerous international competitions. He was named to Creighton's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2021.

ROGER SAYERS

2024 LEGACY STORY

CLASS OF 1960

In the 68 years since he first became an Eagle, Roger Sayers, CHS 1960, has seldom been anything but busy. A notable, multi-talented athlete during his career at Omaha Central High School, Sayers was a record-setting track star and won the Nebraska Boys State 100 and 220 yard dash gold medals in 1958. While leading the track team to two state championships in 1958 and 1959, Sayers was also named All City and All State in football.

Roger then launched into his collegiate athletic career at Omaha University, where he received scholarships to participate in football and track. After winning 28 consecutive races during his freshman year, Roger then enjoyed the best two-year period of any Omaha University athlete ever in 1962 and 1963. During this period, Roger captured the NAIA championship in the 100 and 200 meter races, accomplished 100 meter titles at the Texas, Kansas, and Drake relays, defeated Olympic gold medalist Bob Hayes twice in 1962, and led Omaha University to a Central Intercollegiate Conference title and an All Sports Bowl championship. Roger set multiple records on the football field while helping to lead Omaha University to its second bowl appearance in 1962. Amidst his collegiate athletic success, Roger was also selected to be on the United States Track Team in 1962, defeating Poland and the Soviet Union in dual competition. For these achievements, Sayers was named the 1962 Nebraska State College Athlete of the Year.

Because of his success, Roger has been given a number of accolades celebrating his athletic career. Sayers has been inducted into three track and field halls of fame, the University of Nebraska Football Hall of Fame, five athletic halls of fame, and the Central High School Hall of Fame.

5 Things to Know About Roger

- Two-Sport Athlete at Omaha University
- Central High School Hall of Fame inductee
- Worked at Union Pacific Railroad for 26 years
- Recipient of the Outstanding Young Omahan Award
- Served as Board President of the La Fern Williams Stage Theatre and the Urban League of Nebraska

Since the end of his athletic career, Roger has continued to find success and fulfillment in his personal and professional lives and in his community. After graduating from Omaha University with a degree in Business Administration, he went on to get his Master's in Business Administration from OU. He then spent 26 years working for Union Pacific and served the City of Omaha as its Director of Human Relations.

For the last 39 years, Roger has been married to his wife, Annette, whom he says is his very best friend. "As I have repeatedly said on many occasions, we are compatible on so many levels." Together they love to travel and visit their large family. They have five children, twelve grandchildren, and twelve great-grandchildren. They have also taken 40 cruises together, enjoy taking long walks, and share an appreciation for theatre arts. For over 40 years, the couple have also been members of Salem Baptist Church, of which Roger currently serves as a trustee.

Along with service at his church, Roger has served his community in numerous ways. He has been president of both the La Fern Williams Stage Theatre and the Urban League of Nebraska, served as the Nebraska coordinator of the United Negro College Fund, and spent time on the Board of Directors of Make-A-Wish Nebraska and the Central High School Foundation. "Volunteer work has always been an integral part of my life. I have always felt that anyone who has the time should consider volunteering with the many organizations throughout the city that could benefit from their skills and talents.”

Being the community-minded man that Roger is, he has never forgotten where it all started for him – in the hallowed halls of Central High School. “I’ve always been in love with Central,” says Roger, with a glimmer in his eye. “Central has always been a foundation for everything I’ve done.” Roger looks back at his time at Central with a fondness that shines through his every word. “Because of the academic background I received at Central, my first year at Omaha University, although challenging, was not overwhelming. I found myself well suited for the academic experience at Omaha University. I quickly learned that with my reading, writing, and academic skills developed at Central, I could compete at the university at both the undergraduate and master’s level.” His enthusiasm and appreciation for Central is what inspired him to create the Roger Sayers, CHS 1960, Endowed Scholarship, which will award two $5,000 scholarships to qualifying students every year.

Although it has been many years since Roger graduated, he says that he thinks about Central on a daily basis. “Central was all inclusive for me,” he says, “I enjoyed my fellow students, I loved my friends, and I enjoyed the athletic and academic aspects,” which are what he says made Central magnetic for him. Roger has a magnetism about him, too. There is a reason why he has so often been a leader in his communities, and it is the warmth and compassion he shows to those around him. Roger has an immense love and trust for Central, and says, “Central is always a part of me.” This is why he has maintained a close relationship with the Foundation and why he feels it is important to give back. This scholarship is incredibly meaningful to Roger, and he says, “I do want to emphasize that my gift to Central High School is a direct reflection of God’s purpose and direction for my life.”

Roger’s decision to make this donation, though he thought carefully about it, was ultimately not a difficult one. He says, “When you make a decision like this, there are various factors involved. When they add up, the pluses outweigh the minuses, and in this case, there weren’t many minuses.” He feels inspired by teachers and staff at Central, principal Dionne Kirksey in particular, and by the efforts of the Foundation. He says Ms. Kirksey has a difficult job and she goes “unappreciated, like most principals and teachers around this country, but there is a support system there through the Foundation that is really significant and encouraging to me.”

Roger has many hopes for what will come of his donation. He says, “I hope it will benefit as many students as possible going forward, and I hope it will give them a jump-start to their college career.” He says that he also hopes that his donation encourages other people who have the ability to do the same. “Central, like any other inner-city school, needs the support of the alumni, so this is my opportunity to do that.” His pride in Central is palpable; “Central has been a vital part of producing leadership in the Omaha area, and that shouldn’t go unnoticed.” 🌟
