

The DeEmmett Bradshaw Zerbe ('43) and Mason Speltz Zerbe ('48) Central High School Student of the Year Scholarships

About the Scholarships:

The DeEmmett Bradshaw Zerbe, CHS 1943, and Mason Speltz Zerbe, CHS 1948, Central High School Student of the Year Scholarships are named after two brothers who were model students who embodied what it means to be an Eagle at Central High School. During their time at Central, both DeEmmett and Mason were strong academic students who were highly involved in both school and community activities. Mason was named the CHS Student of the Year in 1948 for his academics, school spirit, and involvement in the Omaha community. Mason's brother, DeEmmett, enjoyed math, running on the track team, and serving on the JROTC Eagle Battalion. Mason and DeEmmett loved their time at Central High School. Mason's son, Dean Zerbe, wanted to honor his father and uncle, and so the The DeEmmett Bradshaw Zerbe ('43) and Mason Speltz Zerbe ('48) Central High School Student of the Year Scholarships were established. These two scholarships will recognize two graduating Central High School seniors, one male and one female, who plan to attend a college, university, or trade school and who have spent the past four years demonstrating the same academic, leadership, community and school spirit that Mason and DeEmmett represented during their time at Central.
