Gov. Heineman Recognizes Omaha Central Basketball Championship Team

"These athletes have positive futures and they are developing skills that benefit them both on and off the court," said Gov. Heineman. "The Omaha Central players and community are to be congratulated for their outstanding achievements and accomplishments, as they go on to even bigger and brighter futures."

The proclamation presented by the Governor to the coach and team declares March 18th as Omaha Central Eagles Basketball Day.

There are four Nebraska high school basketball teams that have won four consecutive state titles: Omaha Central (Class A): 2010-13; Lincoln Northeast (Class A), 1995-98; Wahoo (Class B), 1988-91; Clearwater (Class D-2), 1984-87; Falls City Sacred Heart (Class D-1, D-2), 1988-91.
